

Special Soldier 53

Chapter 53: Beautiful female medic!

"Chief of Staff, let Qin Yuan act with us, I have no objection!"

At this time, Thor suddenly stood up, his eyes were burning, and he said: "You can give him the right to special action! In case this affects our actions, exposes us, causes the mission to fail, and even leads to undercover sacrifices, who will bear the consequences? ?"

"Thunder God, you are arrogant!" When Fan Tianlei heard this, he immediately began to explain to Qin Yuan. He frowned and reprimanded, "If Qin Yuan's participation causes an accident in this action, I will bear the consequences. how is it?"

Thor could not help being shocked when he heard this!

Fan Tianlei will bear the consequences? ? ?

Chief of Staff What is this going to do?

Do you maintain this Qin Yuan like that?

One time!

Zhuang Yan Thunder God Geng Jihui and others...

is a deep jealousy!

no way!

The chief of staff!

But their chief of staff!

Generally speaking, if there is an accident, Fan Tianlei is on their side!

but now.....

Because of Qin Yuan's appearance!

Fan Tianlei did not hesitate to stand on Qin Yuan's side? ? ?

this moment!

Even Qin Yuan felt quite surprised!

Say ten thousand things!

Now Qin Yuan is just a recruit!

A recruit who has never participated in actual combat operations hastily participated in a high-level combat mission!

It's great to be able to show your strength!

But now...

Fan Tianlei gave Qin Yuan the right to move freely!

is indeed not for everyone to worry about!

"This matter can't be discussed anymore!"

Fan Tianlei spoke very domineeringly, glaring at everyone.

Thunder God Zhuang Yan suddenly didn't dare to refute!

Because they know that Fan Tianlei will no longer joke with them!

"Yes! Chief of Staff!"

Thunder God Zhuang Yan said loudly.

finally.

Fan Tianlei set his gaze on Qin Yuan, showing a meaningful smile, "Qin Yuan, this task is not very difficult compared to the past!"

"But for you as a recruit! I'm afraid the difficulty is much greater than you think!"

"The most important point! This is actual combat! One mistake can lead to the annihilation of the entire army! And, there is no chance to come back! Do you know what this means?"

Fan Tianlei followed good and tempting.

Qin Yuan couldn't help but raise his eyebrows!

Of course he knows what it means!

just...

Listening to Fan Tianlei!

This caused Qin Yuan to have a lot of affection for him at this moment!

Put aside luck and career failure!

In fact, Fan Dakeng is a good person in life!

"Report to the Chief of Staff! A mistake means death!"

Qin Yuan smiled and replied.

For the average recruit!

Perhaps such a task is indeed very difficult!

is like He Chenguang and Wang Yanbing!

Although their overall quality is already very good!

But if you rush into this level of action!

I am afraid that some accidents will inevitably occur!

But Qin Yuan is different!

Although Qin Yuan on the surface is just a recruit!

But in fact.....

The strength shown by Qin Yuan!

is just the tip of his iceberg!

Qin Yuan who can move freely!

is the scariest one!

"Haha, great! It seems that you are really confident about this action! If that's the case, then I won't be too wordy! Thunder God Zhuang Zhuang Yan Qin Yuan, you go now!"

"Remember, the goal of this mission, the first mission, to ensure the personal safety of our undercover agents!"

"The second goal, catch Fatty Liu alive!"

"The third goal, kill Fatty Liu!"

"In short, the first goal is to ensure the safety of our personnel!"

Fan Tianlei has one last word!

Mission success is certainly important!

But the lives of soldiers are more important!

"Yes! Chief of Staff!"

Qin Yuan and others answered in unison!

Receive combat equipment!

Receive live ammunition!

Get ready!

Everyone agreed to gather and set off in 30 minutes!

"Huh? What a beautiful female military doctor!"

On the way to get the ammunition!

Qin Yuan was very surprised!

Beside the tent of the military camp, I found a beautiful female military doctor with pure appearance, tall body and snowy skin!

The temperament of the female military doctor is very special!

is like a dazzling jewel in the crowd!

Open your eyes!

you can see her stunning face at a glance!

Although the female military doctor is as pure and beautiful as An Ran!

But perhaps because of being a doctor, the overall temperament is completely different from Enron!

"By the way, the little gray cat's left leg still needs treatment! I wonder if this female military doctor can help?"

Seeing the female military doctor, Qin Yuan suddenly thought of the little gray cat's condition!

Cure the little gray cat and get a plaid, why not?

Just do it!

Qin Yuan came directly to the female military doctor.

The female military doctor couldn't help but be slightly surprised!

also couldn't help but shine!

This soldier...

So handsome!

Qin Yuan smiled indifferently and took the initiative to speak, "Hello doctor, my name is Qin Yuan, I am a red soldier. I encountered a stray little gray cat during the exercise. Its leg was injured. I don't know the doctor. Can you help it deal with it?"

"Injured stray cat?"

When the female military doctor heard it, she became very interested.

is just her exquisite face, but there is a touch of embarrassment, "Hello Qin Yuan, I am afraid I can only do my best for this matter!"

no way!

She is a human doctor!

And it can only treat emergencies such as a cold, fever, first aid, etc.

is not a veterinarian!

I haven't even had an operation.

and so.....

She is not 100% sure.

"Its injury is not serious, I believe the doctor will be able to cure it!"

Qin Yuan was overjoyed when he heard it. With the help of a female military doctor, the kitten will definitely get better sooner!

With a thought, Qin Yuan took out the little gray cat and put it in his backpack!

Then from the backpack behind him, take out the thin and thin Ying Dan!

Speaking of...

A British short was found in the exercise field. Qin Yuan, who is now , was also quite surprised!

is simply inexplicable!

Where did this British short come from?

After all, if it's a small cat, it's okay!

"Wow...this kitten is too skinny, too? It must have been too long since he had eaten properly."

When the female military doctor saw the thin little gray cat, her big beautiful eyes immediately reflected affectionate gaze.

After a careful examination, the female military doctor was relieved after confirming that the kitten was only fractured in the front leg. The female military doctor looked at Qin Yuan,

“The kitten is just a simple fracture, not serious, but I don’t know how long it has been. Can it be completely recovered! I will bandage it and treat it.”

"Thank you so much! When I come back from my mission, I will bring the kitten back! During this time, I will trouble the doctor."

Qin Yuan smiled and waved goodbye to the female military doctor!

After all, time is running out!

He doesn't have much time to waste!

After that, Qin Yuan walked away quickly!

"Perform the task?"

The female military doctor couldn't help but be slightly surprised!

is obviously a recruit!

He is going to perform a task?

But this soldier is still very caring, even the stray cat was picked up!

rumbling!

The helicopter heading to the target location finally took off!

Qin Yuan was fully armed, watching the earth under his feet farther and farther, he couldn't help but feel slightly nervous! !

The real journey!

finally started!
