Chapter 64: Qin Yuan is dead?

But Qin Yuan was a little concerned, the words called by the Fusang population just now.

Bright period?

What means?

But Qin Yuan knew that this is not the time to explore this, and he rushed directly at the bodyguards of Fatty Liu!

Just now these bodyguards saw the two Fusang people hang up, and they were completely panicked.

Even the Fusang people who can cut off bullets are not Qin Yuan's opponents. How could their little shrimps stop Qin Yuan?

But these bodyguards wanted to leave, but Qin Yuan would not let them go!

Get rid of Fatty Liu, and there is a plaid!

The poker in Qin Yuan's hand flew wildly, killing these bodyguards directly!

But Fatty Liu is nowhere to be seen!

Qin Yuan knew that Fat Liu was so cunning that he must have fled while dealing with the two Fusang people!

"Can you escape?"

Qin Yuan directly turned on his thermal imaging ability and looked around!

glanced around, Qin Yuan found a secret road on the surrounding wall!

This secret road is like a slide, leading directly to the underground!

is obviously the last card Liu Fatty prepared for him!

Qin Yuan took a look with his thermal imaging ability, and he found several red heat sources running underground hundreds of meters away!

However, Qin Yuan didn't chase it directly from the secret road, but turned over and jumped downstairs.

Compared to secret roads, Qin Yuan prefers to be on the ground, anyway Fatty Liu will never escape!

The powerful night vision ability unfolded, and Qin Yuan directly chased him in the direction where Fatty Liu had escaped!

At this time in the underground passage, Fatty Liu and a few bodyguards were running down the passage panting!

followed a chubby thug who was beside Fatty Liu, and asked Fatty Liu suspiciously:

"Boss, we ran away before the two Fusang people and the boy had a victory or defeat. If we see the two Fusang people again in the future, how can we explain to each other?"

"Also confess a fart, these Fusang people have pits in their heads. They are now using guns. They still cling to their own knives. They will definitely not be that kid's opponent!"

Fatty Liu said out of breath, but as soon as he finished speaking, Fatty Liu suddenly took out a remote control from his pocket, and then pressed it down fiercely. There was an explosion in the hole behind!

Fatty Liu blew up all the passages behind him.

"There is no more passage here, let's see how that kid chases."

Fatty Liu's face was full of complacency, and he threw the remote control aside, and ran towards the exit of the passage again.

At this time, Qin Yuan was also a little surprised at the explosion sound coming from behind him. This Fatty Liu was quite decisive. If he had really chased him down the passage just now, he might have been yawned by the other party.

But these little tricks are of no avail to Qin Yuan. Now Qin Yuan is already leaning on a tree, waiting for Fatty Liu and others to appear from the end of the passage.

After waiting for a long time, he saw Fatty Liu and the others ran to the end of the passage.

At this time, a thug said to Fatty Liu full of flattery:

"Boss, I'll go up and have a look first, let you see the wind!"

Hearing this, Fatty Liu nodded in satisfaction. If such a thing happened, it seemed that the country could not carry it out. This must wait until the gust of wind passes.

Thinking about the loss of his business, Fatty Liu still feels distressed, but in order to protect his life, there is no other way.

Let's go to Southeast Asia for a vacation first. When the time comes, you will enjoy the wine and the beauty.

But as soon as he thought of this, Fatty Liu heard a sound from the bodyguard in front of him, and he fell directly from the entrance of the hole, immediately pulling Fatty Liu back from his beautiful imagination.

"Damn! What are you kid doing? Let you go up and look at the wind, can you fall down?"

Fatty Liu kicked the thug in dissatisfaction, but with this kick, Fatty Liu directly kicked the thug's head off, and suddenly Fatty Liu yelled.

"Old...there is someone above the boss!"

At this time, the beater who was following Fatty Liu screamed in surprise, and Fatty Liu looked up and found that the person standing at the entrance of the cave was not the one who wanted to escape from the demon?

Qin Yuan looked at Fatty Liu with a smile and waved:

"Hello, running so fast at night, isn't it a bit hurtful?"

Fatty Liu's eyes suddenly widened, and he squeezed out a smile, and said to Qin Yuan in a jealous voice:

"Master, there are still 350 million assets in my account. I will give them all to you. You let me go! Can you?"

Qin Yuan's eyes lit up when he heard this. This Fatty Liu didn't look like a rich man, he didn't expect to be so rich.

Just when Qin Yuan just wanted to say something, he saw that the two bodyguards suddenly took out their pistols and shot Qin Yuan.

But Qin Yuan had a faster shooting speed than them. The pistol in his hand was instantly activated and directly knocked the three thugs to the ground, and finally hit Fatty Liu's thigh with another shot.

"I originally wanted to think about it, but I don't need to think about it now."

Qin Yuan shrugged his shoulders, and the look in Fatty Liu's eyes became cold.

Fatty Liu hugged his thigh and let out a scream, but he rolled over and said to Qin Yuan:

"Her man, I was really wrong this time. Please spare me this time. I will give you all my assets. Not only do I have 350 million yuan, but I also pay when I am abroad. There is a mansion, all for you, as long as you spare me this time!"

But Qin Yuan smiled coldly when he heard this, and another shot hit Fatty Liu's other leg directly.

"Originally, I wanted to swindle your money and then kill you. Now that there is no way to swindle your money, you have no value. Wait for legal sanctions."

Qin Yuan directly slapped Fatty Liu's neck with a slap, and Fatty Liu gave a faint with a cluck.

Then Qin Yuan threw Fatty Liu out of this passage and dragged Fatty Liu towards the villa.

This time Qin Yuan has gained a lot. He saved An Ran, captured Fatty Liu alive, and killed three people from the Black Dragon Club. It was a big harvest!

Thinking of getting so many more grids, Qin Yuan couldn't help whistling.

But on the other side, after hearing the explosion from the tunnel, An Ran's heart shook, and a layer of cold sweat broke out on her body!

They will soon meet with the members of the Thor squad of Lone Wolf Squad. When they heard the voice above it has disappeared, they naturally went up to check.

Seeing that Qin Yuan really relied on his own strength to kill the three Fusang people, they couldn't help but wonder.

But when they found a way to escape and just wanted to chase them, they suddenly heard an explosion from the tunnel!

And this burst of explosion, it was like it exploded in An Ran's mind, leaving An Ran's mind blank!

what's the situation? ?

Qin Yuan?

will not be blown to death!!??
