

Special Soldier 72

Chapter 72: Catch fire

But even if Mu Qingmei went back, Qin Yuan still had to go in. After all, although Mu Qingmei went back, Qin Yuan's kitten was still there.

After healed the kitten's injury, there is still a plaid!

"I'll go in and have a look!"

Qin Yuan said to Leng Feng, Leng Feng also let him go smoothly.

The Wolf Base is very large, but it is very delicately managed. Qin Yuan wandered around and found a place to park the jeep. After that, I walked towards the medical room.

At this time, in the office of the captain of the wolf base, Long Xiaoyun stared at the message sent over:

"With one person's power, you can directly wipe out Fatty Liu and his gang? And it's still a recruit, so powerful?"

What Long Xiaoyun looked at at this time was naturally the internal news sent from above. This time Qin Yuan made a great contribution. Naturally, Fan Tianlei wanted to write down the credit and prepare to contribute to Qin Yuan.

Long Xiaoyun carefully checked the specific content of the news, and finally calmed down. She had already determined that the news was true, which made Long Xiaoyun envious.

"If this is a strong general, it would be nice to be from our Wolf Warriors team!"

I don't blame Long Xiaoyun for thinking so. Although the Wolf Warriors team under her is extremely elite, it lacks a sharp knife that can break the situation!

I recently discovered that a cold front is considered good, but cold front is a soldier with sufficient mind, but his ability is still a bit worse, and it is not enough to be alone for the time being.

"See if there is a chance to get this soldier to our Wolf Warriors team!"

Long Xiaoyun had an idea in her heart. Although she knew it was not easy, this recruit would definitely be Fan Tianlei's heart, but it was not entirely without a chance!

At this moment, the phone on Long Xiaoyun's desk suddenly rang, and there was a man's voice directly inside, it was Fan Tianlei!

"Comrade Long Xiaoyun, now I have an important task to hand to you. We have received a tip that Bukit, the notorious drug dealer, is planning to leave the country. We need you to cooperate with the local forces to completely wipe out this group of drug dealers!"

"Yes! Guarantee to complete the task!"

Long Xiaoyun agreed directly, this guy named Bukit, she also heard about it, is a vicious criminal!

"However, Chief of Staff Fan, our assaultman is ill and lacks a person. I wonder if I can borrow someone from you!"

Since there is a task now, Long Xiaoyun naturally wants to take this opportunity to mention conditions.

"Who do you want to borrow? You are already familiar with all the squadrons under me. If you want to borrow someone, you can directly discuss with their captain!"

Since I wanted to make these tasks for the Wolf Warriors team, it was natural to open the door of convenience. Fan Tianlei also agreed, but Long Xiaoyun said:

"The one I want to borrow is your recruit, Qin Yuan. He shouldn't be assigned to a specific squadron yet, so I need to ask you for instructions!"

Hearing this, Fan Tianlei burst into laughter. Sure enough, he would run such a risk if he wanted to show off his good soldiers.

"Now Qin Yuan is still a member of the cooking squad. Although I have sent him on a mission, it is not his immediate supervisor. If you want him to help you with this matter, you should go to him yourself. He compares the axis, you'd better prepare with both hands!"

Just let Qin Yuan out, Fan Tianlei was really unwilling, so he could only let Long Xiaoyun go to Qin Yuan directly.

The time to perform the task is very close, and Long Xiaoyun has a small chance of finding Qin Yuan!

Long Xiaoyun understood that this was the limit that Fan Tianlei could give in.

So Long Xiaoyun didn't force anything.

but hung up.

intends to find Qin Yuan directly.

But at this moment, she suddenly saw a puff of smoke coming out of the outside, and she frowned, and strode towards the outside!

At this time, Qin Yuan was looking for the infirmary. The base of the Wolf Squadron was really large, and the number of people was relatively rare. Qin Yuan looked around, but did not find anyone asking for directions.

Just as Qin Yuan was thinking, when he was going back to ask Leng Feng at the door, Qin Yuan suddenly saw a cloud of thick smoke coming out of the distance, he was shocked, and he went straight in that direction!

Qin Yuan took a closer look, but found that the smoking area was marked with a cross-shaped pattern.

Isn't it the infirmary that I want to find?

"Fuck, the infirmary is on fire! Where's my cat!"

Qin Yuan rushed over, and at this moment, several people were rushing out of it. They tried to put out the flames, but they failed!

Qin Yuan grabbed a person at this time and asked:

"Have you seen a lame kitten inside?"

At this time, the person who was caught by Qin Yuan's face was smoked red and gray. Hearing Qin Yuan's words, he immediately slapped his thigh:

"No! There is a kitten in it. The kitten is in the cage. I forgot it!"

Qin Yuan immediately wanted to rush into the house when he heard this. This person quickly grabbed Qin Yuan:

"Comrade! Nothing, the fire is too big, and there is flammable medical alcohol in it, it is too dangerous for you to rush in!"

But Qin Yuan's power, how can a little girl be able to hold it, Qin Yuan broke away directly!

This is a nurse who looks like a nurse. He watched Qin Yuan rush into the fire and let out a scream.

But Qin Yuan is not in a hurry!

He has this flame resistance ability, and ordinary small flames are not effective at him!

Qin Yuan's eyes widened, looking for a while!

really found a cage in a room.

And that one is short.

is being smoked to jump up and down!

Qin Yuan pulled the cage open, found a wet cloth, and covered the kitten. This is the only way to rush outside holding the kitten!

The little nurses outside were so anxious at this time, but there was nothing to do!

Long Xiaoyun just rushed over, and when he saw this situation, he shouted: "What's the matter! Why did it catch fire?"

A little nurse said in a panic:

"Xiaohui accidentally overturned the alcohol lamp just now, lighting up the curtains and sheets! An alcohol bag was set off..."

Hearing this, Long Xiaoyun's face was extremely ugly, but now she didn't have time to deal with this, she said loudly:

"Alcohol burning cannot be extinguished with water. Call the fire extinguishing team!"

"No...no! There was one person inside just now!"

This time, Long Xiaoyun's expression was even more ugly, and he shouted, "Who let them in!"

But at this time, Long Xiaoyun suddenly saw a figure rushing out of it, covered in faint blue flames, looking extremely hideous! It's like an undead rushed out of hell!
