

Special Soldier 721

Chapter 722: The misunderstood Zhuang Yan

Just finished speaking, the bullet hit the stone pillar behind the lighthouse. This sniper rifle has a very strong penetrating ability.

If it weren't for Qin Yuan to press Zhuang Yan, Zhuang Yan at this time had already become a corpse.

Qin Yuan picked up the sniper rifle in the next second and shot it towards the opposite building. Unfortunately, it only hit that person's shoulder.

The man hit in the shoulder hid sideways behind the building wall and quickly fled. He Chenguang asked if he wanted to chase him.

"No, we can't catch up, Zhuang Yan, it seems we should have a good talk."

After talking about asking everyone to  Zhuang Yan away, Qin Yuan felt that this place was very unsafe. Just now, under his nose, there were people who wanted to assassinate Zhuang Yan.

Qin Yuan and Gao Shiwei explained the situation and asked him to take Zhuang Yan back to the military area. Because of his special status, he had also received interrogation training before. The local police here should be unable to ask anything.

Coupled with the protection of Zhuang Yan, after all this matter has not been clarified, I still hope that the special forces can be innocent.

Unexpectedly, at this time, the leader of the Zhao Detachment rushed over and stopped Qin Yuan and their motorcade.

"Captain Qin, you can't do this authentically. Why do you take away the suspect without authorization?"

"Captain Zhao, I have received an order from our superiors, and I am only following orders! Captain Zhao doesn't believe it, you can call and ask."

A black policeman next to him shouted: "Fart, do you want to shield him because he was a special soldier before? I don't care, you keep the people today!" After speaking, he took out his gun and pointed at Qin Yuan and the others.

Li Erniu also raised his gun directly, "What do you say, you kid, it's up to you to keep it or not!"

Captain Zhao stopped the police officer next to him without telling him, "Old Liu, what are you doing? The gun is directed at the enemy, not at our own compatriots!"

Qin Yuan also asked Li Erniu to put down the gun. The captain sighed before he knew it, and said helplessly: "Okay, let's go, but we need to know the subsequent processing results of this matter."

When Lao Liu heard that his captain had already let go, he squatted on the ground, and a big man cried like that.

"Damn, you know that the three policemen sacrificed, one was just married and one child was just two years old. Just like that, the newly married wife lost her husband, the child lost his father, and one of the seriously injured was my apprentice. !"

Qin Yuan opened the car door and walked down and gave a standard military salute to Old Liu. "Don't worry, we will never shelter anyone, but we can't accept slander. This matter is about the sacrificed police officers and our special forces. Our honor, we will definitely give you a complete truth and handle it impartially!"

Old Liu stood up, his eyes were red, and he returned a military salute to Qin Yuan. The policemen let out a way and let Qin Yuan and his motorcade go out.

Along the way, Zhuang Yan didn't say a word, and the atmosphere in the car was very low. They used to be comrades fighting side by side, but now they are holding Zhuang Yan as a suspect.

As soon as he returned to the military area, Fan Tianlei came over and patted Qin Yuan, "Hey, you guys moved very quickly this time, you are back so soon!"

As a result, when I saw Zhuang Yan behind, my eyes lit up! "Xiao Zhuang, you stinky boy, why don't you come to tell me..." Before I finished speaking, seeing Zhuang Yan's hands handcuffed and handcuffed, is it that Qin Yuan's mission this time is Zhuang Yan?

"Qin Yuan, what is going on, is there a misunderstanding in the middle?"

"Team Fan, don't worry, we also hope this is a misunderstanding, after all, there is too much involved."

Fan Tianlei also asked to participate in the interrogation. Zhuang Yan was brought out by him. He knew his weakness best.

Unexpectedly, Gao Shiwei refused directly. This time Gao Shiwei and Qin Yuan were interrogated together. He was still worried that Fan Tianlei would bring in personal emotions. After all, nothing wrong was allowed in this matter.

Fan Tianlei could only listen to the interrogation through the glass. He Chenguang and others were also outside, and everyone was very nervous.

"It's really ironic. We were training before, and we also interrogated face to face in this way. It's been a long time since we returned here."

Gao Shiwei hugged his hands and said solemnly: "Don't play the emotional card first, let's explain it!"

Zhuang Yan shook his head, "There is nothing to explain, just leave it to you!"

Gao Shiwei patted the table, "What is your attitude! Zhuang Yan! Three policemen, so many innocent people involved so much, do you know how much pressure I put you into the military area?"

Fan Tianlei behind the glass looked at Zhuang Yan, his eyes ranged from shock to disappointment, Zhuang Yan inside still remained silent, Gao Shiwei stared at him hoping to see any flaws.

"Is it, that person is so powerful that he can even threaten us? Especially when he was at the lighthouse today, he wanted to kill people."

Hearing Qin Yuan's opening, Zhuang Yan raised his head in shock, and Fan Tianlei outside the door also rushed in. "Zhuang Yan, I really want to wake you up like before! You stinky boy, if you have something to say, we will carry it together! "

Zhuang Yan sniffed, looked up at Qin Yuan, and then slowly said it.

Someone came to Zhuang Yan a month ago and said that it was his former colleague. Zhuang Yan was very happy and thought it was from the Wolf Warriors squad. He didn't expect it to be a special soldier from country B, the black fox. He knew Zhuang Yan's abilities. Persuade Zhuang Yan to join their organization.

Their organization is called the Night Demon, which is composed of special forces from various countries. Those special forces were expelled from their superiors for various reasons. Some of them were carrying lives, and they were all extraordinary people.

The black fox understands Zhuang Yan's affairs very well, and has been trying to convince Zhuang Yan of the accident before Zhuang Yan.

Zhuang Yan would definitely not betray his brother. He didn't expect that black fox would not be surprised. Before he left, he said that he would regret Zhuang Yan, but he didn't care.

A few days later, he received a message from the black fox, in a simple sentence: "There is a deal in Yuanshan Town, and the note has been ambush!"

Zhuang Yan hung up directly, but he didn't expect the black fox to keep calling.

"What do you want to do! We are not the same, I just want to live a peaceful life now!"

"Hahaha, is it calm? I despise you. I am a coward. In this case, all the policemen will sacrifice you!"

It turned out that the transaction in Yuanshan Town was just a trap, and even the group of drug dealers did not know that the so-called goods they brought were a box of time bombs!

The remote control was in the hands of the black fox. The drug dealers had already arrived at the designated location. The black fox would not allow Zhuang Yan to call the police. Otherwise, he would press the remote control and let Zhuang Yan go alone, and then he would call for instructions next.

Zhuang Yan originally did not believe that there would be a time bomb. He did not expect that according to the black fox, an explosion did occur under the overpass five minutes later. The news of the explosion was interrupted in the news, saying that a fuel tanker had spontaneously exploded. An innocent person was injured.

Zhuang Yan felt that this man was a lunatic, so many innocent lives were gone, and he could only follow the request of the black fox.

After Zhuang Yan got the box, there was no news about the black fox. At this moment, the police had regarded Zhuang Yan as a suspect.

The drug dealers were also firing desperately to fight back. Zhuang Yan fled to a corner and opened the box. There were only some broken rocks inside. Only then did Zhuang Yan realize that he was in the game!

But in that situation, the police would not believe him at all, he could only save some innocent civilians as much as possible.

The drug dealers fled frantically. They killed a policeman and grabbed a pistol. After being subdued by Zhuang Yan, they took the pistol away. Zhuang Yan saw a drug dealer approaching a police car behind him.

He shot on the door of the car and told the two policemen to leave. Unexpectedly, these drug dealers threw the grenade directly from the car.

So Qin Yuan and the others went to the scene to investigate and saw the ballistic marks on the police car door. Zhuang Yan had never thought of cooperating with those people. Black Fox just set this trap and wanted Zhuang Yan to have no choice.

Unexpectedly, Qin Yuan came with someone at this moment and disrupted the Black Fox's plan, so at the last moment, his shot was originally aimed at Qin Yuan, and wanted to use this to make everyone misunderstand Zhuang Yan's accomplice.

Unexpectedly, he was injured by Qin Yuan in the end, and fortunately Gao Shiwei's decision brought Zhuang Yan back.

Zhuang Yan said helplessly: "This black fox is very mysterious and has great skills. Before he left me, I didn't find any whereabouts of him, and he also knew Qin Yuan, and said he was interested in challenging Xia Yuan himself. ."

The Black Fox knew that Zhuang Yan was very emotional, so he took advantage of this to get Zhuang Yan into the bait, but on the other hand, it also showed that he knew Zhuang Yan very well and was also clear about the previous events. These things were classified.

So Zhuang Yan thought of a situation. Maybe there were people from the black fox in the military, but he was not sure or wondering who it was.

Fan Tianlei, who was next to him, heaved a sigh of relief when he heard it, "Smelly boy, I said how could the soldiers I lead betrayed, don't worry, I won't let anyone hurt you here."

"The most important thing for us now is to find the black fox, and there may indeed be a gangster inside us!"

Gao Shiwei nodded solemnly, this is not a joke, Zhuang Yan, Qin Yuan and other special forces, their identity information is extremely confidential, it seems that you have to start from the inside.

At this time Qin Yuan thought of a strategy to see if he could lure the black fox.

"Today's interrogation is only known by our internal people. I believe in my team members, so we can now release the news that Zhuang Yan pleaded guilty, and we escorted Zhuang Yan to prison for a bitter trick to see if the black fox will appear."

Zhuang Yan also agreed to this strategy. No one else had any objections. The internal spies would be solved by Gao Shiwei. Now Qin Yuan and the others are going to catch the black fox with all their strength and return Zhuang Yan to his innocence!

Zhuang Yan acted in a play with the crowd. Qin Yuan rushed Zhuang Yan into the car in the military area, and Fan Tianlei shouted and cursed outside the car.

"You stinky boy, I will do Heaven Xingdao today, and I will kill you directly! You lose the face of Lao Tzu and let me go!" Everyone in the Wolf Squad next to him didn't understand the situation, there was La Fan Tianlei, and he was emotional Crying excitedly.

He Chenguang's mouth twitched in the car, "Team Qin, I saw that Team Fan's acting is really good! Are you so excited!"

"I think we can consider letting the Fan team join my crew."

Qin Yuan coughed twice, "Ahem, you are serious, OK, you suspect, you can shed tears of regret!"

At this moment, Zhuang Yan was wearing handcuffs and suddenly threw himself on the car window, looking at Fan Tianlei with tears in his eyes!

This bitter drama is finally over. Now that the news has been released, wait for the prey to be hooked!

Once Zhuang Yan is in prison, the Black Fox has no way to rescue him, so he will definitely hijack the car on the way.

It turned out to be very peaceful along the way, almost reaching prison, this black fox was really cunning and did not take the bait.

There is no way, Qin Yuan can only change the plan. At this time, Zhuang Yan jumped out of the car that was running in handcuffs. He Chenguang gritted his teeth and shot Zhuang Yan's leg with blood flowing down the solemn trouser legs. .

Li Erniu shot several shots from the side. "Team Qin, will the black fox appear, or Xiao Zhuang will be injured in vain!"

Qin Yuan was also betting, and led the team to get everyone out of the car to chase Zhuang Yan. Halfway through the chase, the black fox appeared, threw a smoke bomb, and threw many flying knives to rescue Zhuang Yan.

Qin Yuan ordered everyone to pursue them with all their strength, so that the black fox could not see the flaws. This was also requested by Zhuang Yan and Qin Yuan. Together, Zhuang Yan directly penetrated into the organization of the Night Demon.

This black fox is just a small character. For the bad things they did in China, Qin Yuan wanted to use Zhuang Yan's cooperation to combine inside and outside to directly destroy their entire organization.

A full set of play was required. After the black fox and Zhuang Yan ran away, they issued a search warrant for the entire city. This Zhuang Yan had experienced it before, but at that time they were practicing.

The black fox was still worried, and asked suspiciously how Zhuang Yan escaped.

"Hehe, you  hurt me, I thought I could find out the truth, but they put all the crimes on me, all of which are you making me want to kill you!"

"But Qin Yuan is very powerful. There are bullet holes left by him on my shoulder. How did you escape from the car?"

"Why didn't he kill you in the first place? Because my former comrades in the car were all in the car, he felt that I was wronged, I took advantage of his carelessness to kidnap him, and finally only jumped into the car and escaped, but when you appeared, I even said Not sure!"

The black fox saw Zhuang Yan's wound, and his current anger is indeed not pretending.

I patted Zhuang Yan, "Hahaha, brother, I'm here to save you, now I'll give you a way, and the night demon welcomes you. After all, you have no other way to go now."

The black fox took Zhuang Yan all the way to hide and escape, and came to a village close to the border, where there were police patrols at any time, and the two men lay on the freighter and smuggled abroad.

Qin Yuan followed with a quiet person. Zhuang Yan had a locator on his body. Fan Tianlei and the Wolf Warrior Commando participated in the operation.

The black fox took Zhuang Yan off the cargo ship and swam to a small island. The river water in late autumn was bitterly cold. Zhuang Yan's leg was already injured. At this time, his face was pale, and the black fox carried medicine on his body and threw it to Zhuang Yan, Zhuang Yan Pretend to take it.

"Hey, when will we get to the Night Demon? Both your wounds and mines need to be dealt with quickly."

"Wait here, someone will come to pick us up, and you have to remember that once you enter the organization, you can't exit. If you betray the organization, you will be pursued and killed by the organization."

Chapter 723: Destroy the Night Demon Division

Zhuang Yan nodded. It seems that this night demon also has its own management method. The two of them found some branches to start a fire, and their bodies gradually warmed up.

At the dawn of the day, a small boat came, and there was a person on it. The black fox introduced that the person was Fujiki, who was very good at swordsmanship and close combat.

Fujiki didn't talk much, and didn't plan to let the two get on the boat first, let them take off their clothes and throw them in the fire to burn them.

The black fox quickly took off his clothes and looked at Zhuang Yan next to him and explained: "Don't worry, they have prepared new clothes for us, because after all, we come from outside and worry about someone entering the organization with a positioning system."

Zhuang Yan didn't hesitate for too long, for fear of being spotted flaws, so let's take a step behind him. Believing in Qin Yuan's ability, he put on the clothes Fujiki had brought, and the three of them took the boat and left.

When Qin Yuan arrived, he only saw the ashes in one place. This is the territory of Country C outside the country, and there are small islands everywhere. It seems that he can only wait for Zhuang Yan to contact him first.

Fujiki stopped on a small island. There was a basic wharf and some guards. These people were special soldiers before, so they had a strong sense of detection. Now it's dawn, their signal is gesturing, and Zhuang Yan did not see clearly. .

The black fox took Zhuang Yan to treat the wound. "I think that Qin Yuan is good, but he doesn't have any black spots and it may be difficult to instigate rebellion. Our boss said that he would start with his woman later. You can tell the boss when you meet. Check his situation, so that there will be more tasks for you in the future."

This group of people is really ambitious and wants to counter Qin Yuan. According to the introduction of the black fox, it turns out that this night monster organization is carrying out various reward tasks, assassinating reward targets in various countries, organizing to provide all materials, and collecting money for rewards. Part to the organization.

After a few days of familiarity, Zhuang Yan realized that this place was only a branch under the Night Demon Organization. There were three branches in total, and there were more than fifty people in this branch.

The black fox told Zhuang Yan that when he recovers from his injury, someone will come to test him to see which task is suitable.

The boss of the organization is very interested in Qin Yuan. "Qin Yuan is very capable. How many chances do you think he will join us!"

"The subordinate feels that he shouldn't join us, because there is nothing in his character that can threaten him."

"Hehe, I like capable people, but if you can't use them for me, you can only kill him!"

Regular training tasks will also be held in this organization, and the management will be stricter. All are militarized like troops.

Zhuang Yan has been looking for an opportunity to send news to the outside world. Soon Zhuang Yan discovered that the materials here were delivered once a week. There was a dedicated person to purchase, so he pretended to help unload the cargo, and quickly put a mark on the side of the cargo ship. Qin Yuan could see.

At this time, Qin Yuan also thought of a way. Although there are many small islands here, the red blood cell tissue and the wolf squad are enough. Each small island has two people, hoping to find something.

Survival in the wild was originally a must-train project, and none of this was a problem for Qin Yuan. After a few days, Li Erniu felt that he was about to become a rock on the island, but there was still no news.

At this time, He Chenguang reported through the walkie-talkie: "Team Qin, a cargo ship has passed by, and there is a fluorescent five-pointed star on the side of the ship!"

"Okay, intercept that cargo ship!"

Qin Yuan and others took control of the cargo ship, followed the cargo ship to the island, and the personnel at the entrance of the island shot.

"Stop, whatever your situation is, you will shoot all you forward!"

Qin Yuan jumped out and shot the caller. The small island was surrounded by the sea. In order to prevent organized personnel from fleeing on the island, Qin Yuan and the others had just heard the gunshots, and Zhuang Yan on the island also fought back internally.

The black fox came over and said fiercely: "Zhuang Yan, you are dead, you are doing a bitter trick! I don't understand. If you can be so cruel to yourself, the night demon will not let you go!"

"Hehe, you don't understand our beliefs at all, and I will kill you endlessly and avenge those innocent people!"

Zhuang Yan kicked the black fox's injured shoulder, the black fox retreated from the pain, and drew the machete to fight with Zhuang Yan.

Finally, He Chenguang came and shot the black fox in the leg, "Damn, this gun was shot for Zhuang Yan!" Then he threw the gun to Zhuang Yan, and hit the black fox's heart directly.

The mercenary abilities of these Night Demon organizations are indeed relatively strong, but under Qin Yuan's leadership, they quickly breached the island, and Qin Yuan stepped on the leader of the organization.

"I heard that you wanted to beat my woman?" Qin Yuan slashed the boss of the organization with a knife. He didn't plan to kill the boss, and it was useful. After all, they didn't know where the other organizations were.

"Ah! You lunatic! You actually destroyed our organization. The above will not let you go. Wait, Qin Yuan, yes, I remember, kill me, I won't say anything! "

Qin Yuan brought the boss of the organization to the interrogation room on the island. He knew that this boss was also a ruthless character and had to use some special methods!

Later, according to the organization's boss, it turned out that it was not Qin Yuan who had internal problems at all. It was a new radar developed by the Night Demon organization that stole many national secrets.

Qin Yuan immediately notified Gao Shiwei. It seemed that this night demon organization really couldn't let it go. Gao Shiwei ordered Qin Yuan and the others to destroy the night demon organization and destroy their radar equipment.

Zhuang Yan stood with his gun and asked Qin Yuan to give him a chance to fight with everyone, not only for his innocence, but also for his honor!

Qin Yuan agreed to Zhuang Yan's joining. The boss of the organization only knew where the remaining two branches were, but the headquarters did not know.

Qin Yuan asked the boss of the organization to send a message to the other two for them to meet him, saying that the island was breached, and Qin Yuan asked everyone to put on the clothes of the Night Demon organization and shot the boss in the chest.

Soon there will be a boat approaching the island, Qin Yuan and others pretend to be pursued, let the Wolf Warriors team fire their guns behind, holding the body of the boss of the organization and shouting to the people on the boat, "Quick, save our boss first!"

The people on the boat were initially a little confused. Seeing that the leader of the organization was there, they immediately put down the boat and let them come over. At this time, Fan Tianlei hit the leader of the organization directly with a bullet.

The people on the boat also immediately fought back. Qin Yuan and the others ran away while pretending to fight back, worrying about other accidents, Qin Yuan swooped directly from the boat and jumped onto the big boat.

After getting on the boat, a man immediately ordered the boat to go. The leader of the boat pointed a gun at Qin Yuan and the others, and made a gesture to Qin Yuan and them.

Zhuang Yan had told Qin Yuan about the signal signal long ago, and everyone quickly responded to the signal. The man put down his gun and circled around the island a few times, making sure that no one was chasing him.

The man asked, "How did your branch do it? More than fifty people were wiped out by that small team?"

"Oh, don't mention it. They happened to see someone on our island during the patrol, so they came up to check. Everyone was caught off guard. Our boss was also injured. I didn't expect to be able to bring him out!"

"What is your kid's sadness? Your boss is dead. I think you are considered a great one in this group. He is dead. You are the new boss. Now that you know, you will continue to take your brothers to work hard, and wait to see at the headquarters. What did the headquarters say."

After introducing Qin Yuan, he realized that this man was called Big Tou, and he belonged to the team leader of Division Two. Division Two was relatively close to Division One, so he was the fastest to come to the rescue.

Qin Yuan pretended to admit, "No, no, no, it's too dangerous to be the boss, and I'm not the one. Now we have only a few people left in our branch. We want to take refuge in you directly, and the gold bars we bring are also for you. Meet the bosses."

"Hahaha, your kid is very good, our boss will definitely welcome him."

Someone is willing to join and strengthen their own strength, and they belong to the group with capital. This is a good thing to agree with, so that Qin Yuan and the others don't regret it, and let the boss and headquarters reflect after they go back.

At this time, another ship came over, and the big head whispered to Qin Yuan next to him: "That's a third-part ship."

I'd rather notice that the ships of their Night Demon Organization have an eagle logo. The people in the Second Division did not intend to stop, but they did not expect that the ship was forced to stop by the people in the Mountain Division.

"Hey! What are you doing? Dare to stand in the way of our second division!"

At this time, a blue-eyed foreigner walked out of the opposite bed. "Big head, your temper is still so aggressive, I just want to invite some brothers from a branch to me for a drink."

"Hehe, don't think I don't know what your plan is. Tell you, this brother from the first division has just said that he is willing to join our second division."

"Then let's clarify that since the first branch is gone, the remaining personnel and resources can't be monopolized by the second branch! Your second branch just takes advantage of the distance."

Qin Yuan watched the people from these two divisions quarreling non-stop, and smiled secretly in his heart. He wished that the people from these two divisions would fight quickly now, so that he could go and pick up the leaks.

The two exchanged words with each other, no one took advantage, and they couldn't tell what the result was. The people in the third division planned to leave. Before leaving, the foreign man smiled at Qin Yuan and the others.

"Dear brothers from the first branch, my third branch is located in Ceylon. My third branch is rich in resources and has many tasks. Brothers are welcome to visit! It's not as shabby as their second branch!"

The big head clenched his fists, the people in these three divisions were too hateful, and the distance issue was not afraid of causing trouble. When he rescued the people from the first division, he would rather stop him halfway.

In this way, everyone in Qin Yuan not only got into the Night Demon organization, but unexpectedly knew the location of the third branch.

The structure of the second division is similar to that of the first division. Qin Yuan originally wanted to do it directly, but he still wanted to learn more about it to avoid any fish slipping through the net.

The boss of the Second Division is a one-eyed dragon. He is very happy to know that Qin Yuan and the others have joined, and even more happy is the gold bars they brought.

Qin Yuan also prepared a reception meeting for Qin Yuan, leaving a few people on duty, and the rest came to the banquet. Qin Yuan looked at the Sinan Island where the third branch was located not too far from the second branch, and it was not suitable for shooting. .

Then this banquet happened to be the best time. If you can't use a gun, then use a knife. Just after the Cyclops spoke at the banquet, Qin Yuan stood on the table in the middle by toasting, and suddenly a dozen flying knives were thrown out. All the people around him were recruited and killed in one blow, including the one-eyed dragon boss.

The other members of the red blood cell team also cooperated. There was music in the banquet, and the guards outside had no idea that the killing was taking place inside.

These mercenaries have no way to face Qin Yuan's super physique, after all, his speed is dozens or even a hundred times faster than these people.

In a short while, the people in the banquet were cleaned up, and then the people on duty outside, the mercenaries of more than 60 people on a small island were quietly wiped out by Qin Yuan and the others.

Then Qin Yuan and the others drove a small boat to find the third division and shouted to the guards outside: "Brother, we are in the first division, and their treatment in the second division is too bad, we still decided to defect to your third division. "

The mercenary on duty spread the news in, and after a while, the foreign man ran out to pick Qin Yuan and the others in personally.

It turned out that the squad from the third division went to South Africa for a second mission, but the whole army was wiped out, so they were very short of people at the moment.

The boss of the third division is a serious middle-aged man, wearing a camouflage. "You are willing to join our third division is a wise choice, what is your name?"

"Me, my name is Qin Yuan."

The man frowned. He had some impression of the name Qin Yuan. It seemed that it was a list of people who needed to be wooed by the news from the headquarters a few days ago. There was one named Qin Yuan, who was also the Yan Army.

"No, you wait, I'll call the boss of the Second Division to ask."

At this time Qin Yuan raised the corner of his mouth slightly, and directly wiped out the foreign man next to him with a knife. The man in camouflage uniform wanted to draw his gun. A flying knife was inserted directly into his wrist, and he stood next to the man and used the knife against him. neck.

"No, don't call the second branch, because the dead can't answer the phone."

"What! Why didn't we hear a sound?"

"Oh Then you see I killed this man just now, did you hear the sound?"

"You mean you killed all the people in the entire organization of the Second Division without a single shot!"

Qin Yuan nodded, "Yes, it's yours now, but well, before that, I wanted to know where your headquarters is?"

Qin Yuan asked He Chenguang and the others to go outside to solve those three divisions. He had to interrogate the boss and dig out the location of the headquarters.

The man was surprised by Qin Yuan's strength. Don't think about it. The first and second divisions were all killed by Qin Yuan. "I admit that you are very strong, but if you take this small team, you want to destroy our Night Demon's headquarters, too. Look down on the night demon!"

Qin Yuan stabs the man's other arm directly, "I don't want to listen to your nonsense, I just want to know the answer I want."

The man was also the elite special forces of other countries before. He also wanted to resist, but this Qin Yuan had great strength. Although it seemed that he was only slightly resting on his shoulders, he felt heavy and he couldn't even lift his hands.

Chapter 724: Exterminate

"The headquarters is very mysterious. We don't know where the headquarters are. We only contact each other by phone and deliver supplies once a month."

Qin Yuan picked up the phone on the desk and asked the man to contact the headquarters, saying that he had been attacked here and needed the support of the headquarters.

Unexpectedly, after the man finished talking about the situation, he paused for a while, as if he was reporting to someone, and then he said: "Then you will stay there for the funeral!"

"What! Headquarters, you can't do this, we're working for you, you can't die without saving!"

"Hehe, Red Eagle, don't think we don't know, now there should be someone next to you against your head, listen to the person next to you, no matter what force you are, but you have destroyed the three branches of my Night Demon, I will find you and break your body into pieces!"

"Then I will be waiting for you in your branch! It depends on whether you dare to come!"

It hung up directly over there, and Qin Yuan wiped the man's neck with a knife. The man was useless, and news of the Night Demon was really fast.

Qin Yuan asked the military area to see if the specific location of the headquarters could be found based on the location of this mobile phone.

They had radar jamming equipment, and they could not be searched by the military area. Qin Yuan led people to the third branch and destroyed his branch. Since he could not be found, let him come to him anyway. I am not afraid.

A few days later, a group of people, well-prepared and equipped with mortars, directly blew the wharf down. They wanted to break the road directly and worried that Qin Yuan would run away.

The man in the lead is a big beard. "Brothers, wait till you go in and destroy them all. Those who dare to move my Night Demon are tired of life! Just drag the corpse of the lead kid back to feed the dog!"

Qin Yuan raised the corner of his mouth, and a bullet hit the man's eyebrows directly, "Brothers, the supplies are here!"

This group of people was destroyed in an instant, and a few others jumped onto the boat to escape. Qin Yuan stood directly on the small island, and threw a grenade on the boat.

Three more groups of people came after Qin Yuan and the others solved them. From the mobile phones of these people, Qin Yuan discovered that it was a wanted order issued by the headquarters of the Night Demon.

This group of people don't know who the killer was, they just receive the daily tasks of the Night Demon. Qin Yuan and the others' kill price is 8 million, and Li Erniu smashed the phone. "I think the price is too low. Now, our Qin team is worth 8 million, hahahaha!"

This Night Demon headquarters may be a small team or a single person, but no matter how many people he sends to Qin Yuan, he will have no return.

After another group of people came, in this group of mercenaries' mobile phones, Qin Yuan sent data back to the military area to scan, but unexpectedly discovered the address of the Night Demon.

Their organization is on an island in the national sea area of country C. There are drones patrolling near this island. Qin Yuan and the others started attacking as soon as they approached the drones.

After the drone was defeated, Qin Yuan led a team to land on the island. This base is very large, and there is even his own arsenal. This harmful organization can no longer survive. Qin Yuan blew up the arsenal, and the factory exploded continuously. Suddenly the flames skyrocketed.

There was a mercenary upstairs with a wireless device preparing to escape. Qin Yuan aimed and hit the mercenary carrying the wireless device. The wireless device and the mercenary were pierced. The radar on the rooftop was still running. Qin Yuan lost a grenade and destroyed the operating radar.

At this time, a group of people escorted a thin man who wanted to leave by boat from the side of the island, and Qin Yuan led people to chase him.

Unexpectedly, this group of people actually had a submarine. Their goal was not the boat. The boat was just a cover. In fact, the leader had already boarded the submarine.

The leader smiled cleanly and said loudly: "I admire you very much, but we can't stand on the same front. It's really a pity, but soon I will send your family to the underground reunion with you."

After pressing the remote control in his hand, the entire island was shaking. The last self-destructing device of the time bomb was installed on the island.

In the distance, Li Erniu shot the submarine da, da da da. The material of the submarine was bullet-proof design, so he could only watch the boss slowly dive in the submarine.

Qin Yuan wiped out the people on the boat and asked the members of the team to board the boat. The island was about to explode. The last He Chenguang had just got on the boat, and a huge explosion sounded from the middle of the island and then to the outside.

The huge waves caused by the explosion hit the boat, pushing the boat out hundreds of meters. This huge explosion caused the island to collapse and sink. Countless waves hit Qin Yuan and his boat. The boat broke instantly and everyone straightened. Hold on to the broken wood of the boat to maintain balance at sea.

At this time, Qin Yuan took a deep breath and dived, because the explosive seawater was now very turbid, and the mud on the bottom of the sea and the gravel from the island were mixed and stirred.

At this time, a flounder was stirred by the sea and brought to Qin Yuan, willing to put the flounder into the grid of the system.

"Ding~Congratulations to the host for acquiring the ability to breathe underwater. It is reminded that the flounder can dive two kilometers deep into the sea. The current dive depth is 800 meters, safe!"

Qin Yuan only wanted to catch up with the leader of the Night Demon, and the last words that the leader said completely angered Qin Yuan. His bottom line was the person he loved and cared about the most.

With the skill of flounder, Qin Yuan was on the bottom of the water as if on the land, and soon he saw the distant submarine flashing on the bottom of the sea.

Qin Yuan swam to the top of the submarine quietly. At this time, the driver in the submarine said in horror: "Boss, the radar shows that a large creature is approaching. This, this shape seems to be human."

"How is it possible that it is 800 meters deep in the sea? How can a normal person resist the pressure of the water? Is it a big shark?"

The driver didn't understand what it was. At this time, Qin Yuan made a move. He sat cross-legged on top of the submarine, making Tai Chi gestures with both hands, slowly softening in the water, and gradually forming a huge water polo.

Then, relying on the sea water and its own strength, the water polo was slammed into the hatch above the submarine. With a slam, the hatch that could not be penetrated by bullets was deformed and sunken.

"Boss, it's not good, that creature is attacking us!"

"What's the panic? My submarine is a serious American product. It can withstand heavy blows of thousands of catties. It should be just sharks attracted by the lights of the submarine nearby. Let's leave quickly."

Unexpectedly, the banging sound became more and more intense, and the leader of the night demon was also taken aback, and quickly asked the driver to come and hold himself against the hatch. In this deep sea, I don't know what dangerous species is attacking them. If they are breached, they will either be killed by the creatures outside or be squeezed to death by the pressure of the deep sea.

Qin Yuan continuously attacked with water polo outside. The two of them couldn't shake their strength at all. There was a crack in the cabin door, and a lot of water penetrated in. The submarine also issued a sharp alarm: "Warning! Warning! The cabin is affected. Loss! The oxygen pressure is unbalanced!"

The cracks gradually enlarged, and the two also felt the oxygen in the cabin was rapidly losing, and more and more water flowed in, and finally Qin Yuan lifted the entire cabin door.

Qin Yuan stretched out his hand and unearthed the boss of the Night Demon below. At this moment, the boss of the Night Demon was pressured by the deep sea, blood was flowing out of both ears and mouth.

At this moment, he looked at Qingyuan in horror. On the one hand, it was 800m deep in the sea. He had no diving equipment, so he could come and go freely in the water. On the other hand, this bulletproof super submarine was just underwater. Qin Yuan broke it empty-handed.

Before he died, the boss of Ye Mo felt that Qin Yuan was a devil, and he shouldn't provoke Qin Yuan.

The old night demon kicked his thigh twice and was squeezed to death by the huge pressure of the deep sea. As for the pilot, he fell to the bottom of the deep sea with the submarine.

Qin Yuan grabbed the boss of the night demon to go upstream, and at this moment, members of the red blood cell team and the lightning commando floated to the nearby island with the help of driftwood.

These floating trainings are all necessary training items before, so it doesn't matter much. It just disappeared.

Qin Yuan and the others have a special watch on their hands. Because of various accidents on the battlefield, this watch can record the heart rate and breathing position of everyone at any time. If the combatant sacrifices or is injured, the watch will When an alarm is issued, teammates will also receive a reminder message.

The position could be displayed on the watch. At this time, He Chenguang and the others did not receive any position from Qin Yuan, and Qin Yuan seemed to disappear into the deep sea.

Li Erniu lay beside him and breathed hard in the fresh air. He no longer knew how many times he dived back and forth to find Qin Yuan, and it gradually took more than 15 minutes.

"Team Fan, did our captain really have an accident?"

"Now 15 minutes have passed, which is beyond the time period for normal humans to survive underwater, but I believe in Qin Yuan's ability. Maybe he was just washed onto another small island just now."

"But this is the island closest to us. We all rushed here, and! And his position is gone!"

Li Erniu said by himself, thinking that Qin Yuan might have really had an accident, and suddenly burst into tears.

At this time, there was a sound of splashing water from the calm water, and Qin Yuan's head popped out of the water, "Er Niu, I'm not dead yet, don't cry!"

Everyone was overjoyed, and then the corpse of the night demon's boss also appeared. Li Erniu happily jumped into the water and helped Qin Yuan drag the corpse ashore.

Qin Yuan wiped the water off his face, "My mission is to pursue perfection. At that time, I said that I would destroy the night monster and destroy the night monster's radar equipment. Then I will do it!"

It turned out that Qin Yuan's water meter was underwater, and because of the pressure difference, it was directly squeezed and broken, and he himself was not harmed because of the flounder.

Everyone felt that Qin Yuan was too powerful, he had already broken through the limit of a normal person, and he didn't know how he caught the night demon boss from the submarine.

This time, the overseas mission was accomplished very well. I returned to the military area to clear Zhuang Yan's suspicions and clear suspicions from the special forces. They could not betray their country or their faith at any time.

It's just that Qin Yuan found it strange that Long Xiaoyun took too long to perform the task this time, and he has never been able to contact her.

Qin Yuan and An Ran complained that Long Xiaoyun was too irresponsible, and they had a relationship with them, so why they suddenly left themselves and left.

An Ran poked Qin Yuan's head, "Hehe, you are not satisfied with your big pervert taking advantage of us so much, but he also sent me a message before he left, which I think is quite strange."

The message probably meant that An Ran, they took good care of Qin Yuan, and it was a bit like a final farewell.

Qin Yuan jumped up from the sofa, "Could it be that she had a premonition that something was going to happen, and that's why she left without saying goodbye? No, I have to ask Lao Gao.

An Ran pressed Qin Yuan, "Oh, don't break the discipline. We can't inquire about some confidential tasks. It is possible that the task she performed this time is indeed dangerous, so we bid farewell to us."

"It's because the mission is dangerous that I have to ask, I can't let her take the risk alone!"

After Qin Yuan came out of An Ran, he was on duty in Gao Shiwei's office, and Gao Shiwei was answering a call with a solemn expression.

As soon as he hung up the phone, Qin Yuan couldn't wait to say: "Lao Gao, is Long Xiaoyun's mission dangerous this time? I think you can send me to help her."

"You bastard, don't be so small one day. Long Xiaoyun has her own task. Even if it is dangerous, it is her own choice. Now the situation has changed. You should perform this task first. After the end, I will tell you about Long Xiaoyun."

It turns out that the international police recently discovered an international violent terrorist organization. This violent terrorist organization's whereabouts are mysterious, bomb attacks, drug trafficking, kidnapping civilians and so on. They did all kinds of crimes. The civilians who shocked the world were killed before, and the big case of Jin Guo was done by them. , Kidnapped 16 civilians and wrote the abduction letter directly to President Jin's office.

President Jin Guo is required to use 60 million US dollars and twelve boxes of light and heavy weapons in exchange for the safety of these 16 civilians.

How could the President of Jin Guo be threatened by them and immediately dispatched his country's special forces to rescue him. At that time, he also united with the international snow leopard commandos.

Unexpectedly, in the end, not only this violent terrorist organization could not find all civilians were killed, but the elite special forces of the Golden Kingdom were also destroyed. This violent terrorist organization came and went without a trace, and the methods were extremely harsh.

After killing 16 civilians and placing them on the border of the Kingdom of Jin, the naked provocation caused political fluctuations in the Kingdom of Jin.

Later, some people from other small countries were kidnapped, but as long as the country's ransom was paid in place, they would release these civilians.

After Jin Guo's previous president was blasted down, the new president was shot dead in the car by this group of violent terrorist organizations just one month after taking office.

There was a huge international chaos, so everyone united. In this high-level secret operation, each country appoints one person to form a twelve-member civilian team.

Let this civilian squad composed of elite special forces of various countries pretend to be captured and mixed into the organization, and then cooperate inside and outside to completely eliminate this violent terrorist organization.

Since each country appoints a person, this person must be the strongest among the elites. It is true that Qin Yuan is the most suitable candidate for Yan Country.

Chapter 725: Amnesia?

But this time the mission did not know how long it involved, because the mysterious organization kidnapped civilians three months before notifying the presidential palace for ransom. According to these civilians, they were imprisoned in a mysterious place for three months, building an underground fortress. They only knew that they were building an underground fortress, but no one knew where this place was. Therefore, this time the international plan to send elite special forces from various countries to remove this malignant tumor in one fell swoop. There is no direct leader in this operation. Everyone belongs to the same level, but everyone needs to cooperate to complete the task together. After talking to Qin Yuan about the mission, Gao Shiwei had a hint of complexity in his eyes and made up his mind, "I can tell you in advance, Long Xiaoyun, she is not performing the mission of our military region. After he has completed this mission, I will tell you everything I know." Qin Yuan felt that the matter was not that simple, and Long Xiaoyun was involved. Qin Yuan was a little uncomfortable. Is this the reason why she left in a hurry? "Team Gao, think about it now, I don't know Long Xiaoyun that much, maybe she needs me very much now, but I am not by her side." "Qin Yuan, calm down, now I can only tell you, Long Xiaoyun is still very safe. He was the captain of the Wolf Warriors squad before, and his strength is also very strong. You have to trust him. Now all you can do is complete the task and come back safely!" Because this time I don't know the details. How long the task is, it may be over in a week, it may take a month, or three months, no one knows this.

Qin Yuan only had Long Xiaoyun in his mind. He just wanted to end the mission quickly, and even thought that if he found the violent terrorist organization, he would destroy the violent terrorist organization alone.

Qin Yuan changed into casual clothes, packed his bags, and pretended to be a traveler according to the mission requirements. In this way, a small minibus with twelve people drove slowly on the road.

The driver looked at the people in the rearview mirror and said, "Brothers, I say you relax a little bit, don't sit so upright, so that people will know what your background is."

The habit of the army for many years, the whole carriage is very quiet and tidy. Qin Yuan began to force himself to relax. This tourist minibus has been driving on the highway for many days, but no fish caught the bait because the last time the civilians were here. Kidnapped.

If the land is not good, then go to sea. The driver acts as a tour guide and takes everyone to the sea to introduce the local scenery.

At this moment, Qin Yuan felt in a daze that he was really traveling and hadn't relaxed like this for a long time. Qin Yuan was drinking red wine and blowing the sea breeze, watching the sunset.

At this time, three ships approached slowly, and everyone was watching the three ships. They had been waiting for several days, hoping that this was the goal.

Unexpectedly, this was just an ordinary fishing boat, slowly passing by Qin Yuan and the others. When the night struck, everyone was resting on the boat, and suddenly something was thrown onto the deck in the middle of the night.

Qin Yuan opened his eyes and finally came. This time the special forces are the elites of various countries, so everyone has noticed, but they are all pretending to sleep.

After a while, a faint scent floated in, and actually used Mixiang. Qin Yuan filtered the Mixiang through the system. A man wearing a hood with a gun in his hand came in and pulled Qin Yuan directly. The leg dragged him out.

Qin Yuan quietly looked at this group of people. More than 30 people were holding submachine guns. After all, because of the increasing number of kidnappings of civilians, sea patrols have been stepped up.

So they used Mixiang so that they could quietly take everyone away. This group was very cunning, worried that someone would not be stunned, and put a big cylinder in the middle.

Throwing Qin Yuan and the others one by one, it feels really uncomfortable, like in a washing machine, but this is within a tolerable range for Qin Yuan.

The other man also used his own method to resist Mixiang, but he did not expect to make a noise after being thrown into the drum by this group after rolling a few times.

These violent terrorist organizations didn't speak, and they all wore the same headgear. They just walked over and gave the man a butt, tied the man up, and put a black mask on him.

Qin Yuan wanted to write down the route quietly, but he didn't expect this group of people to be very cunning. Everyone put on a black mask.

After getting off the boat, Qin Yuan felt that he was getting in a car. At first it was a gentle road, followed by a bumpy road, and finally put on a carriage. It seemed that the place they went was very remote, and even the car could not go behind. Can only walk in a carriage.

After arriving at the place, the black mask was taken off. It was a place similar to a prison cell. Then everyone woke up, and Qin Yuan quietly told them what happened on the road.

Now that it is the lair of the violent terrorist organization, it is necessary to figure out how to contact the outside world, and to cooperate with the outside. At this time, someone is here, or the group of people wearing black masks, they come to give everyone food, Qin Yuan pretends to make Fearful, let them let themselves go.

"Then it depends on the sincerity of your country's boss. Let's eat, and work after eating."

Qin Yuan didn't plan to do it now. After he observed it clearly and couldn't contact the outside world, he would unite these special forces to destroy their nests.

Hearing that the man said he wanted them to work, so the food should generally not be poisoned, and the civilians before him were not poisoned to death. At this time, he must eat to save his strength.

After eating, everyone was taken out of the cell. Qin Yuan looked around. Outside was an open square with a power grid erected on the high fence. There were eight lighthouses outside the power grid.

There are also patrolling personnel around. If they wish, they would tie their feet with a uniform chain like a prisoner. This chain is one piece, everyone is tied together, even if someone wants to escape, they can't escape.

Everyone was taken to a large pile of rocks. The man wearing the headgear gave them a tool and asked them to chisel the rocks. There were a lot of people on patrol and they changed their posts every three hours.

Everyone wears this kind of anklet when they sleep at night. A special soldier from the Yuan Kingdom called Hanks. He pulled the anklet and whispered: "The material of their hinge is very strange. I trained to break the chain before. But this chain is very hard."

Qin Yuan also agreed, because he tried to see if he could use external force to pull the iron chain. Qin Yuan's body had been systematically reformed, but if he tried his best, he should be able to break three chains in a short time. But there are 12 people here, which really increases the difficulty.

In the next few days, Qin Yuan and the others were beating stones, and the task was not progressing. They discussed with everyone and planned to break everyone's chains tonight.

Everyone rushed out together. The guards outside all had guns. As long as they got a gun, they would be caught off guard. At first, there were people who opposed it, but everyone knocked on the stones from morning to night without any clues. It is better to take the initiative to attack. .

At night, Qin Yuan tried to break away the iron chain under his feet. Everyone looked shocked. The soldiers of Yan Nation were too powerful. The material of this iron chain was very special, and it was harder than ordinary iron chains. He did not expect him to use his bare hands. opened.

Then Qin Yuan opened everyone's shackles again, ready to break open the cell and rush out!

Unexpectedly, a woman appeared at this time. The sound of high heels echoed throughout the building. With the sound of high heels, Qin Yuan felt dizzy and weak in his head and limbs.

The people next to him are in the same situation as Qin Yuan. What is going on, I don't know when he was recruited.

This woman is tall and very beautiful, with big blue eyes and slightly curly golden hair. This woman is full of charm all over her body. She clapped her hands and said, "Congratulations to all the special forces brothers!"

Qin Yuan struggled to think about getting up, but found that there was no strength, the woman walked up to Qin Yuan, her slender fingers twitched his chin.

"This little brother, although you are handsome, why are you so disobedient? I made this chain with stainless steel and diamonds from South Africa. You just broke it for me. I think about how to punish you. What?"

"You...how do you know our identity? What methods did you use for us?" It turns out that this violent terrorist organization also has an underground intelligence network, and they have uncovered Yuanguo's confidential documents.

So they knew from the beginning that there was no use of Mixiang for ordinary people. Only special soldiers like them needed special treatment. Coupled with special shackles and power grids, Qin Yuan didn't expect Qin Yuan to break this plan.

"My stupid brother just died in your hands, thanks to his lessons learned, that's why I prepared with both hands."

It turned out that the leader of the previous Night Demon organization was this woman's elder brother. When the woman caught Qin Yuan, she knew that this person was not easy.

In their daily meals, colorless and odorless Gu medicines from Southeast Asia were added. When a certain amount was reached, these Gu poisons, in accordance with the signals they gave, broke out in Qin Yuan and the others.

In the early stage of Gu poison, it only causes dizziness and weakness in the hands and feet. If the person who uses the Gu poison controls it again, he can be slightly punished.

This is also a way for this violent terrorist organization to control its subordinates. No one can imagine that the leader of such a violent terrorist organization is a woman.

How could Qin Yuan be controlled by a woman? He never liked being so passive. He made a mistake this time, but he would not just give in.

The woman's slender fingers crossed Qin Yuan's cheek, "Little brother, this face is good, as a punishment, that will make you the first to feel the pain of my worm's piercing brain."

For a moment, I was willing to feel that there were countless small insects crawling towards his head, densely packed, all gnawing at his own big, Qin Yuan couldn't handle it, lying on the ground and hitting the floor with his head frantically.

"System, can you recover these Gu worms!"

"Answer the host, there is no way. The host wants to recycle the mother Gu, but it prompts the host not to resist too fiercely!"

Qin Yuan gritted his teeth and looked at the woman with red eyes, "I, Qin Yuan, would never obey this easily!"

At this time, Qin Yuan felt that the control was back, his body was able to move, but he was a little mad, and he madly punched the door of the cell and broke the door.

Bai Xiang next to him shouted: "Stop, you are dying, you lunatic!"

Qin Yuan began to wreak havoc in the cell and vented. Baixiang had to flee outside the cell with everyone. His system was reformed systematically, so his consciousness was very strong. Qin Yuan used his powerful will to resist the control of Gu worms.

Baixiang discouraged Qin Yuan from resisting, otherwise it would arouse Gu worm's desire to win. This Gu worm was very domineering and was challenged. At this time, Qin Yuan was very painful, and confusion began to appear in his mind.

The system is a little anxious, and keeps reminding: "Host, let go of control and don't force resistance! Host!"

At this time, Qin Yuan could not hear, and he screamed and fell backwards, and the cold voice of the system sounded in Qin Yuan's mind: "The host forcibly resisted, causing brain memory damage, and the system will automatically enter a dormant state!"

This is the last news Qin Yuan received. Baixiang walked to Qin Yuan's side. "This game is really getting more and more fun, accepting one of the strongest special forces as a favorite, brother, the next step depends on your performance, don't let I am disappointed." Three days later, Qin Yuan woke up in the hospital bed, opened his eyes, and his consciousness was very confused.

Bai Xiang, who looked at the apple peeled next to him, asked, "Where is this? Who am I?"

"Your name is Qin Yuan, and this is your home."

Qin Yuan felt that something was broken in his mind, and looked at the wound on his body again.

"These wounds are all left by you. You were suddenly stimulated, and then went crazy and destroyed the cells behind us. Do you remember anything?"

Qin Yuan shook his head, but kept thinking about the word home, is this my home?

After a few days, Qin Yuan completely recovered, but his brain was damaged and his memory was lost, but his previous abilities were still there, those muscle memories carved into his bones.

Qin Yuan is also trying to think about his past, but the part in his mind seems to be blank, there is nothing, because Baixiang was the first person he saw when he woke up, so he trusted Baixiang very much.

Qin Yuan still likes to wear a camouflage uniform, always felt that this camouflage was very familiar and kind, but Baixiang didn't like him wearing it, so he changed into a flower shirt sent by his men.

Qin Yuan wore this kind of ruffian flower shirt, but his movements were so rigorous. Bai Xiang smiled secretly when he saw it. As expected, even if he lost his memory, those habits still cannot be changed.

Bai Xiang was sitting on the sofa and hooked Qin Yuan. He walked over obediently, and Bai Xiang hung himself on Qin Yuan's body. At this time, a very strong sense of rejection appeared in Qin Yuan's brain.

"I, what task seems to be done? But I can't remember it!"

Baixiang's Gu worm also felt it, and controlled the Gu worm to swallow it against that consciousness.

Baixiang's nice voice rang in Qin Yuan's ears: "Yes, you have a mission. Your mission is to build this base with me. We will build and grow our base."

In addition, Gao Shiwei of the military region has already turned into a mess. Last month, the special forces sent by various countries to perform tasks were stripped naked and left on the road. Except for Qin Yuan, he seemed to disappear without any news.

Chapter 726: Gao Shiwei's investigation!

Gao Shiwei used various forces and sent a red blood cell team to investigate the area repeatedly, but found no clues.

And those who came back were also confused, unable to tell what happened at the time, only remember that they had a woman in a cell at the end, and the others were not clear.

Gao Shiwei punched on the desk irritably, "Damn, what do these special forces do for food? So entering the enemy's nest, they don't even know what the situation is!"

Fan Tianlei walked into the office. "There is still no news. Do you think Qin Yuan has sacrificed himself?"

"Impossible. He is my best soldier. It is impossible to sacrifice like this. I live to see people and die. How could a big living person disappear out of thin air, and the special forces from other countries have returned? ?"

"Well, then I will continue to lead people to investigate there, let's talk about it if there is a situation!"

"What's the matter with us? First, Long Xiaoyun chose to leave. He is also the best soldier in my opinion. We can't lose Qin Yuan anymore. He is a member of my Yan Nation, so I must bring him back anyway!"

Fan Tianlei had been guarding this country with the red cell team for a week, but still did not find anything. At this time, a car stopped at the intersection and a beautiful woman walked into the opposite shop and bought a pack of cigarettes.

The woman lowered her head slightly, and stretched out a hand from the window to light the cigarette for the woman. Fan Tianlei was a little wondering how such a good car appeared in this area, so he stepped forward and planned to look at the situation.

The woman was standing on the side of the road and smoking, as if waiting for someone. Fan Tianlei walked over and looked down at the person in the car. The person in the car was wearing a silver mask. His hair was the kind of cold windy long hair and ears. Wearing an earring.

At this time, the woman came over and said unhappily: "What's the matter with you?"

"Hehe, it's okay, I just want to borrow a fire, your friend is pretty cool, and he wears a mask."

The woman took out the lighter from her pocket and threw it to Fan Tianlei, "Okay, there is a fire, get out, this is my husband doesn't want you to disturb us!"

Fan Tianlei didn't see what was happening, so he had to leave. This woman was Baixiang, and the person wearing the mask in the car was Qin Yuan. At this time, the people Baixiang was waiting for came.

Baixiang took the bag in the man's hand and got into the car, leaning against Qin Yuan's arms. "Don't you be so serious every day. You have to smile occasionally. I know you want to figure it out, but it's too messy outside now. In a while, I will accompany you wherever you want to go."

Qin Yuan took off the mask and looked at the woman in front of him. Baixiang was very kind to him, but there was always a strange feeling in his heart that resisted Baixiang, and also resisted the so-called home, thinking that Qin Yuan was unnatural. He frowned.

At this time, Baixiang stood up and directly straddled Qin Yuan's lap in an ambiguous posture, but I have to say that Baixiang is really charming. The charm is from the outside to the inside. Qin Yuan stretched out a hand to caress her waist. When the driver saw this picture, his ears turned red.

Fan Tianlei always felt that the person in the car had a look in the eyes of Qin Yuan, but if it were Qin Yuan, he would recognize himself. At that time, he looked at himself with a strange look. He really didn't have any clues and planned to gamble. , Follow that car.

You two cattle and they also decided, no matter if it is? At least there was a glimmer of hope. I didn't expect it to happen in an instant. The car was gone, tracking, but their strengths, I didn't expect so many people to lose a car.

The more this happened, the more suspicious Fan Tianlei became, and he led the red cell team to repeatedly check where the vehicle disappeared.

After a while, Qin Yuan hugged Baixiang, who was flushed, and got out of the car. He carried her into the bedroom and let her have a good rest. Baixiang squinted his eyes, put the handbag on the bed, and fell asleep tiredly.

Qin Yuan covered her with the quilt, picked up the handbag, wondering whether to open it, hesitated for a while, put down the bag and walked out. At this time, Baixiang opened his eyes, showing a bright smile, and a closet next to him came out with a gun. Woman.

"Congratulations to Sister Xiang for a successful test, it seems that he really didn't remember anything."

"I'm still very confident about my Gu poison, but I'll test it for safety."

"Sister Xiang, if he opened that bag just now, would you be willing to kill him?"

"Hehe, 031, you talk too much, there are some things you should not ask, go on, I want to rest!"

Qin Yuan's memory has indeed not recovered. He is just normally curious about what Baixiang does. Everyone in this place wears hoods except for her and Baixiang, and they never communicate with himself, no matter what they ask. not talking.

Qin Yuan sat on a chair, picked up the gun in front of him, assembled it skillfully, and took aim. The human figure standing in the middle and far away was very skilled in these movements. He asked Baixiang what he did before, but Baixiang just said It is the captain of these people here, and the captains who lead them complete various tasks and earn commissions, but Baixiang doesn't say what the specific tasks are.

At this time, there was a round of applause behind him, and Baixiang slowly stepped forward and leaned over and hugged Qin Yuan, "You are still that great, awesome!"

"I'll take you to a birthday party for the boss in a few days. We are going to celebrate his birthday together!"

"Birthday party? I don't want to go too much, but if you want to go, I'll accompany you."

"You've seen this boss, so you really count as our family." Qin Yuan did not see the sly smile flashing in Bai Xiang's eyes at this moment.

Baixiang has been adding medicine to Qin Yuan recently. Although he looked at the pain when he took the medicine, if he could completely lose his memory, then it would be easier to deal with those people with his skill.

The radio next to it was a food section that was teaching everyone how to cook. At this time, a paragraph was suddenly interrupted: If possible, leave the last bullet to me, and I will pierce the enemy's heart like a sword!

Then I entered a piece of music, unity is strength! When Qin Yuan heard these words and the song, he felt very familiar. There was something in his mind about to move, and a sharp pain came.

Qin Yuan pushed Baixiang away and knelt on the ground with painful pounding. Some fragments flashed in his mind. He was training in camouflage uniforms, and he was completing tasks and awarding him honors.

Baixiang turned off the radio in desperation and fed Qin Yuan another pill. This pill was newly refined and more domineering than before. She wanted Qin Yuan to forget the past completely. After taking this pill, Qin Yuan The pain doubled, not just the nerves all over the head are in severe pain.

After a while, suddenly his mind snapped like a thread, and his head didn't hurt anymore, but his eyes were more confused at the moment, Baixiang walked over and pulled him up with a little distress.

Unexpectedly, Qin Yuan suddenly laughed and called Baixiang "Pretty Sister."

Bai Xiang was startled and hurriedly asked, "What do you call me?"

"Hehehe, pretty sister, you look good, good-looking!"

Baixiang looked at Qin Yuan at this moment as if he were a fool. Could it be that the medicine was too strong, causing his nerves to be confused.

Baixiang called up the doctor in the base. At this moment, Qin Yuan was sitting on the ground playing a Rubik's Cube. This doctor was just a surgeon, because they were easily injured when performing tasks. He didn't know Qin Yuan's situation either, but At the request of the boss, he could only give Qin Yuan a regular check.

There was no problem, the doctor could only casually ask "Do you know how old you are now?"

Qin Yuan thought for a while, stretched out five fingers, and then continued to lower his head to play.

Qin Yuan suddenly hugged the doctor and bit on his ear. The doctor screamed, "Boss, ah, this person, this person is afraid that he is crazy and mentally insufficient!"

Baixiang asked the doctor to pull Qin Yuan away, told the doctor to go down, threw the gun to Qin Yuan, and wanted to test his reaction. Unexpectedly, Qin Yuan caught the powerful muscle memory in an instant, loaded it skillfully, and aimed at Baixiang. Xiang didn't back down, looking at Qin Yuan, trying to see some flaws, Qin Yuan handed the gun to Baixiang with a smile.

At least his physical reaction is still very real, as well as muscle memory. Then I see if I can improve the pill. I have to try it anyway. I still don't want to give up such a good chess piece like Qin Yuan.

Qin Yuan used to be very quiet, but now his intelligence is only a five-year-old kid, always thinking about playing around, Baixiang has no choice but to lock him in the room and study Gu medicine.

The woman next to me has never seen the boss cares so much about anyone. Although her boss keeps saying that he is going to kill him, she has never done anything. Now he looks like a useless person, but the boss is still studying medicine to save him. .

"Boss, I don't think you have become like you before. Do you remember what the lion said? If this person will affect our future plans, then I think it is necessary. Kill him now!"

"Enough, I know what I am doing? You don't have to keep talking to me! Are you the boss or am I the boss?"

031 Back out, or beware of his old meeting. Because this person missed a major event, he picked up the knife and walked towards Qin Yuan who was sitting on the ground playing around. Qin Yuan turned and avoided, and the sharp knife slashed Qin's arm.

At this time, Baixiang's voice came, "Damn, stop my mother" and it was accompanied by the sound of pulling the trigger. 031 was shocked. "Sister Xiang?" The boss even pointed a gun at him, Baixiang's muzzle reached The head who lived in 031 said viciously, "Fuck you, get out of here, hurry up, or else all will die"

031 felt that the woman in front of him was terrifying. The aura really wanted to kill himself. It seems that he really changed because of this person, and shook his head and walked out.

Baixiang felt that Qin Yuan could not even evade now, and the surrounding guards had withdrawn, leaving him to stay in the room.

Baixiang came out and just sat down and lit a cigarette. The men outside came in and said that Qin Yuan didn't eat and kept making trouble. Baixiang was inexplicably irritable, "If you don't eat, then you will force it to feed! Do you still use me to teach you? Anyway, I have to guarantee that someone is alive!"

Baixiang has a lot of tasks to deal with, but also develops Gu medicine. It is really unhappy to take care of Qin Yuan. At this time, his subordinates panicked and said, "Boss, that kid is gone!"

Baixiang rushed over to check and found that Qin Yuan's gang had been brought down by Qin Yuan. There was a footprint on the wall. It seemed that he had run out over the wall. Baixiang was a little confused, "Is he always pretending?"

Baixiang hurriedly took people out to chase him. Qin Yuan didn't jump over the wall, but hid under the car and went out with the person who arrested him.

Qin Yuan slipped out of the car quietly and wandered aimlessly on the street. He did not expect that the red blood cell team led by Fan Tianlei was also patrolling this street. He Chenguang saw the familiar person from a distance, called Fan Tianlei, excited. Rushed towards Qin Yuan.

At this time, Baixiang also brought people over, and shot directly at Fan Tianlei and the others. For a while, the street became chaotic. The woman really had a problem last time. Fan Tianlei and the others immediately responded. Baixiang rushed over to grab Qin Yuan. He put the gun against his head, but Qin Yuan directly hugged her instead.

Baixiang saw him like this, it really didn't seem to be pretending. Fan Tianlei and the others finally saw Qin Yuan, how could they let him be taken away again, He Chenguang shot Baixiang directly in the shoulder, and the powerful recoil made Baixiang Xiang flew out directly from the side, and Li Erniu hugged Qin Yuan from behind.

At this time, Baixiang's subordinates also rushed to retreat, hurriedly pulled up his boss to retreat, pointing to Qin Yuan, "You bunch of rubbish, take people back to me!"

Qin Yuan suddenly said in Li Erniu's ear, "Erniu, let me go, I am already inside them, and I will pretend to fight with you later, and then I will go back with them, and I will contact you later!"

Li Erniu immediately understood, and quietly gave He Chenguang a gesture, and then Qin Yuan slammed Li Erniu to the ground, then ran directly to Baixiang, taking Baixiang and those men to quickly evacuate.

Li Erniu on the ground "Qin team is too cruel, right? It's too real, come over and pull meMy shoulder seems to be out of place!"

In fact, after Baixiang fed Qin Yuan's pill that day, the system awakened under the powerful stimulation, and Qin Yuan's memory slowly emerged. He knew the words on the radio and that song was all signaled by the red blood cell team. .

I wanted to kill Baixiang on the spot, but found that this woman had more than one organization, and there was an arsenal elsewhere, and that arsenal was her main lair.

So I kept wanting to find the old nest and wipe her out together, so I could only play stupid and let them relax their vigilance, so I found an opportunity to run out and get in touch with the red blood cell team, and then we should work together inside and outside.

Back at the camp, Qin Yuan hugged Baixiang and asked the doctor to give her medicine. Baixiang looked at Qin Yuan's eyes, "Don't you give me an explanation?"

"You said this is my home, so I came back, and you are also my most important person, right?"

Baixiang couldn't see through Qin Yuan at this moment. He didn't know how many levels of Qin Yuan's memory had been restored. The appearance of this person really disrupted all his plans. Before, he was a one-of-a-kind person, but he beat him again and again for this person. The rules are broken. Normally, now he should shoot him directly with a gun.

Chapter 727: Notify Long Xiaoyun!

There are not so many doubts in this way, but looking at Qin Yuan, she can't do anything. It seems that she is really a fake, and she really fell in love with him. "Qin Yuan, I hope you don't lie to me, or I will It made you die miserable, do you know?"

Unexpectedly, Qin Yuan held her backhand and directly covered Baixiang's lips. The doctor next to him awkwardly stopped the action of applying the medicine, "Continue to apply the medicine, do your own thing!"

Baixiang felt that Qin Yuan was more handsome now than before, and even thought that even if he lied to himself, he would be willing!

And Qin Yuan wanted to kill this woman at the moment, controlling himself with drugs, not to mention losing his memory, but also wanting to kill his teammates with his own hands, too cruel.

Fortunately, he has a system, otherwise if he really loses his memory and is used by this woman, if he really does something to hurt his brother, then Qin Yuan will not let him go.

After changing the medicine, Qin Yuan took Baixiang back to the room. "Didn't you say that you would take me to a birthday party for the boss in two days? When should we go?"

"Why are you suddenly so active here? You weren't interested in these things before."

"Looking at you being too tired recently, since we are a family, then I also have the obligation to share with you, no matter what you do, I will be with you."

After thinking about it, Baixiang would tell Qin Yuan that he could take him tomorrow, no matter what, she would choose to believe him once! This boss is Baixiang's foster father, the real master behind the scenes, and control of the entire arsenal.

On the day of the banquet, Baixiang took Qin Yuan forward to toast the lion's foster father. The lion sat and did not stand up and did not receive Qin Yuanjing's wine. Baixiang stepped forward and took the lion's arm. "Foster father, your future Your son-in-law is toasting you."

"Hehe, I didn't admit that there is such a son-in-law, and I don't want to have such a son-in-law of unknown origin." After the lion said, he took out the pistol on the table and pointed at Qin Yuan.

Bai Xiang next to him was surprised, "What are you doing, foster father, he has no problem."

"Shut up! What's wrong with you now? You brought an unknown person here. Don't you know the importance of this?"

Bai Xiang next to him was speechless for an instant, just looking at Qin Yuan nervously.

"Boy, I don't know how you coaxed my daughter, but with me, you can't escape my eyes."

Qin Yuan was pointed at the head with a gun, still holding the glass of wine and shouted, "Foster father, please drink!"

At this time, the lion suddenly turned his gun to Baixiang, and directly squeezed the trigger, saying that it was too late and that time, Qin Yuan rushed up and stood in front of Baixiang.

Unexpectedly, it turned out to be a water gun. The lion laughed beside him, "Hahaha, very good. I can block the gun for her. My daughter has a good vision!"

Bai Xiang was shocked in a cold sweat, because this lion had a strange temperament and could not figure it out, but to her surprise, Qin Yuan did not expect that Qin Yuan could really block bullets for her.

The look in Qin Yuan's eyes also changed. For a while, the tension at the banquet eased and the banquet began to continue.

Qin Yuan also breathed a sigh of relief. If Qin Yuan couldn't tell the difference between a real gun and a fake gun after so many years as a special soldier, it would be a waste of time. However, he was just taking a gamble. He didn't expect that he was lucky and won the gamble. Up!

After going to the toilet, Qin Yuan walked out and looked around. This is their old nest. There are patrolling terrorists everywhere. The arsenal is behind. The civilians who were kidnapped before were sent here to work to build an arsenal for them. .

Qin Yuan stunned a terrorist, used communication equipment to contact Fan Tianlei and the others, and sent a location so that they would dare to come and do it on their own, and then cooperated inside and outside to blow up the arsenal and destroy the terrorist organization.

Qin Yuan turned on the system and was about to start killing. Starting from the periphery, the terrorists were wiped out by him. The alarms for the sprint in the two areas were invaded, but what they didn't know was that the invaders were right in front of them. Baixiang found that Qin Yuan was no longer there.

Suddenly, I felt bad, could it be Qin Yuan? At this time, Qin Yuan rushed in with a gun. Before the person at the banquet could react, he was killed. Qin Yuan rushed to the front of the lion very fast.

"Whose gun do you think is faster this time?"

"You think I'll be afraid of you, then I've been a fool for so many years, you killed me, and the men outside of me came in and killed you. The big deal will die together."

"Oh, outside men, did you say that group of trash? I have killed them all."

Baixiang slumped directly on the ground and watched Qin Yuan kill the lion. Before the lion died, his eyes were full of quits. He did not expect to be killed by such an unknown person, and was brought by his goddaughter. Come in.

Qin Yuan walked towards Baixiang, "How about it, it's your turn."

"Hahahaha, your plan is really perfect. You have fooled everyone. I'm just curious how you actually broke my poison."

You didn't answer. He has no patience to continue performing. He just wants to kill this woman and return to China as soon as possible after completing the task. After all, Long Xiaoyun is still waiting for him.

Unexpectedly, a woman rushed out at this time. It was the 031, carrying the submachine gun and sweeping towards Qin Yuan. Qin Yuan bounced and avoided the bullet, 031 took the opportunity to take Baixiang out.

"Boss, I will cover you, you rush out quickly!"

Baixiang was frustrated at the moment. She thought she was controlling Qin Yuan, but she didn't expect it to be a scam in the end. This man is really not easy. "I planned to kill him personally. I killed my brothers. I want to personally kill him. Give them revenge!"

Fan Tianlei and the others also came to the base based on the positioning given by Qin Yuan, and found that those violent terrorist organizations had been resolved by Qin Yuan, but only a small part was left, and they rushed in to look for Qin Yuan after the eradication.

031 was intercepting Fan Tianlei and the others outside. Baixiang carried a gun and rushed in to find Qin Yuan. It was because of her that she had to end it. At this time, Qin Yuan had quietly stood behind Baixiang.

It was the same scene, raising the gun at her as before, but at this time he didn't pass the gun to her with a smile as before, but directly squeezed the trigger, feeling the bullet entering his body during the day.

Although she did not shoot Qin Yuan at the last moment, she still lost the game from beginning to end.

Qin Yuan looked at the fallen Baixiang and said, "I will insert the enemy's heart like a sharp blade. We have never been the same!"

At this time, 031 was seriously injured. He rushed in and saw that Baixiang was already dead. He collapsed and shouted: "You are a liar, she loves you so much, believes you completely, I want to kill you!" Rush to Qin Yuan.

Fan Tianlei and the others heard an explosion and rushed in without seeing Qin Yuan. The air was rushing with a strong smell of gunpowder and blood. At this time, Qin Yuan jumped out of the table behind and patted the ashes on his head.

"Boy, I haven't seen you for so long, your skills are still the same, let's go, go home, you don't know, when you disappear, Lao Gao is holding on to me!"

"Wait, let's change my hair style before I go back, I think the previous inch is suitable for me!"

Li Erniu ran over and said, "Team Qin is going back with this hairstyle, it's okay, very handsome, hahaha, I thought you were going to bring us another sister-in-law!"

Qin Yuan crossed the corpses of hundreds of Xiangs on the ground, and no one failed anyone. After all, she had used Qin Yuan before and gave Qin Yuan medicine back, but in the end she took it seriously. This game is that whoever is serious will lose.

After returning to the military area, Gao Shiwei waited for Qin Yuan directly at the helicopter landing site. "Smelly boy, I'll just say how my soldiers would say that if they don't have it, they'll be gone, come over and see if there are any missing parts!"

Qin Yuan briefly talked about his experience during this period. No matter what, the mission this time has ended perfectly. Qin Yuan now mainly wants to know the situation of Long Xiaoyun.

"I have no conscience, I have been worried since you disappeared until now. When you come back, you will ask Long Xiaoyun!"

Qin Yuan held his head helplessly, Gao Shiwei said about Long Xiaoyun. Long Xiaoyun was for his father this time, but the situation abroad is very complicated, and no one has been able to detect that mysterious force so far. .

"Then where is she now, I'm going to find her, she must be very difficult alone, but I am willing to be with her."

Gao Shiwei continued: "Long Xiaoyun can't be contacted anymore, but she is now overseas, mainly because she has retired from the Yan Army now! So we also have no right to monitor and locate her!"

Qin Yuan thought she was just taking a long vacation, but she did not expect to withdraw from the Yan Army. How could she withdraw from the belief that you used to be her? What kind of force made her willing to let go of everything and pursue it alone.

Qin Yuan and Gao Shiwei took a one-week vacation and prepared to check it abroad by themselves. Gao Shiwei agreed and asked him to investigate first, but if Long Xiaoyun really didn't want him to find it, it would be very difficult. If you don't find his current situation, come back first.

Qin Yuan used his relationship to find Long Xiaoyun's whereabouts on overseas travel records, but as soon as this information arrived in the Kingdom of Jin, there was no news, and Qin Yuan checked around after passing by.

Qin Yuan was soaking in the bar. After all, there was a mixed crowd, and he could get some unexpected news here. After sitting for a few hours, Qin Yuan drank and felt that he was being watched.

He pretended to be drunk and lay down on the bar. Sure enough, someone came to pat Qin Yuan to confirm whether he was awake. Qin Yuan lay on the table and did not move. Then the group framed him out of the bar. Qin Yuan was  with his hands. In a small truck.

The man in the co-pilot called and said, "We got another item here, you ask the doctor to prepare, let's come over now!"

An hour later, Qin Yuan was carried to an operating room by these two men, and was about to do it. The doctor came in to see Qin Yuan and said, "Why do you only tie your hands and feet, don't be like the one from Team A last time? Women, kill them all!"

"Okay, we see, the three of us are afraid that he won't be able to run."

The two people came to tie Qin Yuan's feet with ropes. The doctor turned to prepare medicine. The two people lit their cigarettes and leaned against the door to smoke.

Qin Yuan's eyes suddenly brightened, and the woman who was able to destroy the entire team was likely to be Long Xiaoyun. This kind of ordinary rope did not pose any threat to Qin Yuan at all, and easily broke away.

Get off the bed and put the doctor on the shoulders, "You tell me about that woman!"

The doctor was startled and yelled. The two men at the door ran over and were knocked down by Qin Yuan in an instant. It turned out that this is a black clinic outside of China, specializing in organ sales. They are all looking for a bar. Goal, often start with these foreigners who drink too much.

The doctor tremblingly said: "I don't know, I only know that the woman is just like you, she seems to be from Yan Country. There are more people in Group A than here. Last time 15 people were killed by that woman, and they were all killed by that woman. It was killed by one blow."

"Where is the woman behind?"

"No, I don't know, because the witnesses only know that it is a female, because everyone who saw her was killed!"

Qin Yuan was basically sure this time that it was Long Xiaoyun, and went to the address of the group A that the doctor said to check, it has become ruins, is there any effective value, and it is cleaned, this kind of professional Sure enough, she didn't want to be found, so she would not leave any clues.

I stayed for two more days today, and the time limit given by Lao Gao has arrived. Qin Yuan left a sentence on the radio station of Jin Guo, "I am your last bullet!" The station broadcasts in a loop for one month.

He hoped that Long Xiaoyun would hear the news and would take the initiative to contact him if there is any difficulty, he would help her, do his best, Qin Yuan was a little regretful on the plane back, if he found out earlier, he could stop her, or he could Go with her.

Gao Shiwei persuaded Qin Yuan: "Actually, if you think about it in another direction, he didn't find you, it means that she is not in danger and he can solve it by himself."

"But her personality is too strong, and she won't tell me about any situation that she may encounter, including this time she is leaving The situation outside China is not better than that of our country. Will she have met In danger?"

"Long Xiaoyun, she is not an ordinary person, she is also the best soldier I think, I believe him, you should believe her!"

Now there is no way, I just hope that Long Xiaoyun can hear that broadcast to contact him, Qin Yuan has no time to think about it, and it is distributed again, and the task is down.

The mission this time is also to go to the Kingdom of Jin, but to protect the scientific and technical personnel from the country of Yan to return safely. Previously, the scientific and technical personnel from here went there to conduct research together. Now there is a major breakthrough in research. I did not expect that the laboratory was suddenly destroyed. Scientists on the side were killed.

Yan Guo had dedicated protection before, and neither personnel nor experimental data was damaged, but this situation was already very unsafe after passing there, so Qin Yuan and the others were going to bring this group of scientific and technological personnel back to the country this time.

The task this time seemed relatively simple. Qin Yuan thought that after completing the task, he would go to the radio station to see if there were any messages. He still hoped that Long Xiaoyun could contact him.

Everyone got off the plane and went straight to the Science and Technology Museum. The base there had been violently blown up. Several soldiers from the Yan Kingdom and their technicians were waiting for Qin Yuan and them.

Chapter 728: Rebelled by the 1st army!

When Qin Yuan arrived with the red blood cell team, he counted the number. There were five scientific and technical personnel, and six soldiers from the Yan Kingdom. These soldiers were sent to protect the scientific and technical personnel just before the experiment.

Qin Yuan was a little strange. "The mission said that there are four scientific and technical personnel and four military personnel. How come there are more?"

The scientific and technical personnel standing in front Wang said: "Professor Liu was docking with you before, but Professor Liu has already died in the second explosion. I don't know how he reported the number of people."

Qin Yuan originally wanted to ask something more, but he didn't expect that the tech man urged to leave here quickly, but it was true that there had just been an explosion here, and it was time to take them back safely as soon as possible.

Now it is enough to drive all the way to the airport, and then go back. This task is quite simple, but this country is under war now, so experience is needed, and they will take protective measures.

Li Erniu is the one who talks a lot. He has been chasing the Yan Guo soldier next to him in the car and asked questions. I didn't expect that the man was quite cold and didn't answer Li Erniu's words, so he closed his eyes and asked. go to bed.

"Hey, brother, what is your temper, do you need to be at least polite?"

It was the old Wang who came out and said, "Oh, little comrade, you don't have to ask so much. You know that he is the same as you, and his identity is quite special. They are all kept secret. Don't ask more about some things."

He Chenguang also poked Li Erniu next to him. "There are also people's disciplines, so stop talking and tell me what you want to say."

Unexpectedly, Li Erniu's temperament came up, he gave He Chenguang an unhappy glance, and felt that he was nosy, and the car fell silent for a while.

At this moment, Luca appeared in front, and someone was intercepting and searching. At this moment, the scientists and Yan Guo soldiers suddenly became nervous. Qin Yuan said in a low voice, "It's okay, it's normal inspection, and there's inflammation in our car. The mark of the country, no problem!"

When they arrived at the checkpoint, they found out that they seemed to be searching for someone. Qin Yuan and the others just stopped, because they belonged to Yan Country, and the people outside the car greeted enthusiastically, but they didn't expect to see it. When he glanced at the few technicians, his expression changed drastically.

They were very excited when they said something in their language, Qin Yuan just got out of the car, what would he like to ask? Unexpectedly, the group of people turned their guns at them, and at this time the soldier in the back seat shot suddenly.

Qin Yuan wanted to stop it, but it was too late. The two parties had already started fighting, and they used the walkie-talkie to call for reinforcements. Qin Yuan didn't know what was going on, but the task was to protect them and he could only fight them. Sparring.

But he didn't really want to kill them. Qin Yuan felt that there must be a misunderstanding. He drove through the checkpoint personally, and sent these people to the airport first.

The soldiers from the Kingdom of Jin also drove out and chased them out. Li Erniu peeked out of the window and aimed a shot at the tire. Unexpectedly, a shuttle bullet hit the position where Li Erniu just extended. Fortunately, Li Erniu Dodge in time.

"Damn, the group is really working hard with us against this group of people, he really wants to kill us, do you want to fight back? I really can't bear it anymore."

"Don't be impulsive, the two cows should not have a head-on conflict with them, try to avoid them. If this misunderstanding provokes a war between the two countries, it will be troublesome."

The soldiers from the Kingdom of Jin chased all the way. In order to avoid them, Qin Yuan could only deviate from the channel. It was easy to escape on this small road, but the target was too big if he drove in such a hurry, he could only abandon the car and escape. Disperse goals like this.

Then the people from the Kingdom of Jin also came. Seeing that they couldn't catch up with the howitzer they were using directly behind, Qin Yuan hit the steering wheel to avoid it, and Qin Yuan became angry. "What do these grandsons mean? How tight? Keep chasing us?"

Lao Wang said nervously: "It may be because of the experimental data we have, because their Golden State has exploded and the data has been destroyed, so they want to  us! Team Qin, don't hide, just kill them. !"

Qin Yuan ignored Lao Wang's words, so under the guidance of his willingness, everyone temporarily shook off the chasing soldiers. He Chenguang angrily knocked to the front seat, "I have to sue them in front of Lao Gao this time. Once it happens, this is too awkward, so people chase behind their buttocks and hit them, but they can't fight back."

"Just to really fight, who is afraid of whom, those few people are not enough for us to fight?"

Qin Yuan didn't speak at the moment, and the crowd drove silently all the way. There were many doubts in his mind, but it seemed to be clear, and a brake stopped on the side of the road.

The old Wang next to him watched and stopped in a hurry. "Oh, captain, what's the matter with you? Hurry up, let's go before they catch up!"

"Lao Wang, I suddenly remembered something. Before you set off, our Captain Gao specially confessed that I must make sure that Professor Chen is safe. Who is Professor Chen? You must tell me."

Lao Wang casually pointed to a technician in the back seat and said: "It is him, he is Professor Chen, is this all right? Can we set off?"

At this time, Qin Yuan directly took out his gun and pointed it at Lao Wang's head, "To be honest, who are you? We are from Yan Nation?"

"Ah, Team Qin, why are you holding a gun at me? I don't know what you are talking about!"

In fact, there is no Professor Chen at all. It's just that Qin Yuan suddenly thought that the people of Qingguo were very enthusiastic about seeing their car. They didn't start shooting until they saw a few of them, and they took photos and were searching. Someone might be searching these few, so I planned to swindle them, but I didn't expect it to be a real fraud

He Chenguang and Li Erniu in the back seat immediately understood, and took out their guns at the person in the back seat, "Boy, I said just now I asked you not to say anything. It's weird, who are you? ?"

At this moment, the old Wang laughed in front of him, pointed to the car behind him, and then pulled away his clothes. This madman actually bundled up explosives, and Wang Yanbing and the others were also controlled. Because there were too many people, they were divided into two pieces. In the car, Wang Yanbing and the others were behind, so they didn't know what happened just now, only that they were being chased by the people of Jin Country.

Unexpectedly, these scientific and technical personnel and soldiers would have problems, and they did not fortify them. Unexpectedly, they would be generalized.

At this time, the soldiers of the Kingdom of Jin had already caught up. Old Wang opened the car, let Qin Yuan and the others get down, and beckoned to the car behind. The group drove up the car. Just after the car pulled out, they stopped Wang Yanbing and the others. People kicked out of the car.

Hahaha, let you have a good fight with those fools of Jin Guo, it is best to fight! "

At this time, the soldiers of the Kingdom of Jin also chased them up, pointed their guns at them, and asked them to raise their hands and get down. Qin Yuan and the others had to obediently do it. After all, if they did it at this time, the misunderstanding would be even greater. Several people were handed over. Tool, and then took it back.

The soldiers of the Kingdom of Jin shut Qin Yuan and the others in the room. After a while, a soldier came over and asked who was the captain and wanted to take the captain out. Unexpectedly, everyone stood up together.

"Sit down, don't mess around, we are here to figure things out, it's okay, they won't do anything to me?"

Qin Yuan was handcuffed and taken to a room. Two soldiers pressed him behind him. Four people sat in front of him.

The slightly fat person in the middle asked, "What is your relationship with those people? Why do you want to save them?"

"Sir, I think you might have misunderstood it. You see that we were all left behind by them. We were originally to pick up people from Yan Country, but we got it wrong!"

"Hehe, are you my three-year-old child? Is this your tactics? Tell me honestly!"

"Do you think I need to lie to you? If we want to kill you, or if we want to escape, it's very simple. Your soldiers just shot at my people, and my order is not to hurt you. We even hit the car. Just hit the tires. Normally, we will directly hit the mailbox or the driver!"

"Young man, I think you are too arrogant. Are you a pediatrician as a soldier of the Golden State?"

Unexpectedly, Qin Yuan sneered. This warning handcuff was directly broken by him. He pulled the two people behind and pressed him and hit them on the neck. In an instant, the two people lost their combat effectiveness. The guard standing next to him took a gun. Immediately rushing over, Qin Yuan directly knocked down the magazine and stunned the two with one blow.

The fat man who spoke just now did not react. Qin Yuan was already standing by his side and dropped the magazine on the table. The man looked at Qin Yuan in shock. He was already a little speechless. The speed of this man was really too fast. almost.

Qin Yuan just bowed to him and apologized, hoping that he would not be used by the real bad guys to instigate the relationship between the two countries. The man was startled in a cold sweat at the moment. If Qin Yuan wanted to kill him just now, it would be really easy.

To be cautious, I talked with Yan Guo on the phone to confirm Qin Yuan and the others, and everyone would know the cause and effect of the incident after opening.

It turned out that just before Qin Yuan and the others came to pick up these scientific and technical personnel, those scientific and technical personnel had been hijacked, and soldiers before Yan Kingdom had also been killed, because those scientific and technical personnel had what they wanted, the old man Wang is an international violent terrorist. They killed the scientific and technological personnel and soldiers before the Kingdom of Jin, and they caused the explosion.

At that time, Jin Guo had already issued search warrants and searched everywhere. These people knew that they would not be able to escape. They just learned that Qin Yuan and the others were coming to pick up Yan Guo's scientific and technical personnel, and they had the opening scene, pretending to be Yan Guo scientific and technical personnel. , I wanted to use Qin Yuan and the others to escape, but I didn't expect to encounter Jin Guo's search halfway.

When the soldiers of the Kingdom of Jin saw the people on the wanted list, they would definitely have to shoot and pursue them. This caused a misunderstanding. Qin Yuan is now very big, so who the real scientific and technical personnel of the country of Yan was hijacked? of? Isn't this group about to run away, are there other accomplices?

Sure enough, the simpler the task, the more complicated it is. Qin Yuan still wanted to complete it quickly before going to see Long Xiaoyun's situation. He didn't expect that he would completely enter a dead end now.

At this time, the fat man said: "Since the misunderstanding is solved, in order to make up for our apologies, we will also help you to investigate together, hoping to find your missing scientific and technical personnel as soon as possible."

With the help of the Kingdom of Jin, it would definitely be better. After returning the equipment to them, Wang Yanbing wore the equipment. "Brothers, sorry, I killed you this time. In fact, you should shoot at that time. I would rather Die with them."

"You know about shooting in a day. Except for you being kidnapped, that lunatic had a bomb  on his body, but I must personally catch him, and this turtle grandson was calculated!"

Qin Yuan led the team again and returned to the place where the explosion started to search for clues. They did not expect to find it. On the corner of the metal door that was deformed by the explosion, there was a line of small characters "Eight Bandits in Chrysanthemum Villa!" When the scientific and technical personnel were taken away, quietly carved.

Qin Yuan opened the map and found Chrysanthemum Villa. Jin Guo's also lent them a car because their car was hijacked in the courtyard.

"Brothers, this is our own business. People borrowed a car and helped us find someone. This favor must be returned. It's just our own business. We must handle it! Save our compatriots! "

Everyone wanted to fight for their breath. After all, it's been a long time since they were so passive. First they were kidnapped by the old king, and then captured by the soldiers of the Kingdom of Jin. Li Erniu already wanted to smash that old king into pieces.

When they arrived at Chrysanthemum Villa, Qin Yuan and the others left their car at the intersection and lurked up quietly. This is an abandoned manor. The two cars in the yard belonged to Qin Yuan and the others. It seemed that they had indeed found the right place.

I would rather arrange Wang Yanbing on the periphery, let him find a commanding height, and as long as someone ran out later, all the fish that slipped through the net would be caught.

The petitioners were about to act and were about to rush in. Suddenly a car came up behind. Qin Yuan made a gesture. Everyone hid in the ditch next to them. A medium-sized small truck came and got on and off. There were more than 20 armed personnel, but soon there was a quarrel, and Qin Yuan quietly lay on the window.

Looking at this situation, there should be three waves of people, one wave of Qin Yuan and their old king, then another wave of hijacking scientific and technical personnel, and now another wave, these three groups of people are giving the scientific and technical personnel to whom Arguing.

It turns out that the research project this time is a new type of weapon, and the research has already made progressing breakthroughs. Once it succeeds, this new type of weapon will be the top existence in future wars, so those underground organizations also want to get a piece of the pie.

"We caused the explosion. You went backwards to pick up the leaks. You took the people away while we were chased by the group of dogs from the Kingdom of Jin. What's the matter?"

"I said, this friend, you are too naive, you are reasonable with us, these people are my golden chief!"

Lao Wang and his group belong to violent terrorist organizations and want to have their own weapons, so they don't have to buy them with others. The other two groups are mercenaries sent from the black market, and everyone wants to fight.

Seeing that the timing was almost the same, Qin Yuan threw in two smoke bombs and rushed in directly. Li Erniu and He Chenguang were responsible for rescuing Yan Guo's scientific and technical personnel.

Chapter 729: This is a lunatic!

Qin Yuan went on a slaughter inside. At this time, the old Wang slipped away quietly. He didn't expect to be shot headshot by Wang Yanbing as soon as he came out. After a while, the war inside was over, and Qin Yuan and the others did not keep the three groups.

This time it was indeed four scientific and technical personnel. Qin Yuan took the scientific and technical personnel and drove away in his own car, worrying about other accidents. Qin Yuan hurriedly went straight to the airport.

After getting on the plane, Qin Yuan's heart slowly settled down. When he turned on the radio, it was his own sentence. The rest were some local tourist information and weather information. Long Xiaoyun had no news.

Long Xiaoyun, where are you? I really didn't find out until now. I didn't know you at all. I only knew you to be strong before. I didn't expect your personality to be so stubborn.

Qin Yuan came back and talked to Gao Shiwei about the specifics of the operation. After listening to Gao Shiwei, he said seriously: "Qin Yuan! I know you care about Long Xiaoyun, but you also need to know that you, as the captain, must ensure that the entire team is Safe, I hope you will not be influenced by feelings when accepting tasks, because that will kill your brother!"

Qin Yuan also knew that this time he only thought of Long Xiaoyun's things. He felt that the task was very simple. He would pick up the wrong person, such a low-level mistake, proactively confessed his punishment, and helped the team wash the car.

At this time, Li Erniu, He Chenguang and they all came, and they all had car wash tools.

"Captain, this is not interesting enough for you. How can we not ask us to join the car wash? Okay, brothers are blessed and shared, and if there are difficulties, we should share!"

"I was indeed affected by my feelings this time, and I lost the most basic judgment, which almost caused the mission to fail, and almost caused my brothers to not come back!"

"Stop, stop, I can't listen anymore, you are fooled by the old Gao, you will wear a high hat, brothers, don't give up or give up, come and wash the car together!"

Gao Shiwei stood by the window and saw a few people who were washing the car and arguing. He lamented how young it is. Then he opened the window and shouted: "You guys, are you very energetic? After washing the car, you will be fully burdened. Kilometer run!"

"This high-pepped skin won't let us rest for a while!"

"Add another five kilometers! My hearing is good, don't want to speak ill of me behind your back!"

Gao Shiwei still gave them a small vacation. An Ran wanted to go back to her hometown to visit her grandmother. Qin Yuan accompanied An Ran back. An Ran's grandmother lived alone and was in better health. The two bought some nutrients and brought up the fruit. .

Grandma was very happy to see An Ran back. She also brought Qin Yuan. I heard from An Ran before that she was indeed a kind of talent this time. Qin Yuan also called An Ran as grandma, which made her grandmother very happy and gave them two packages. Big red envelope.

Because grandma is at home alone, the wires in the house are already aging. An Ran thought about finally coming back and asked Qin Yuan to help grandma fix the wires. Qin Yuan was standing on the flower stand outside the balcony, tidying up the wires. You can see from this angle. The neighbor's house opposite.

It's not that Qin Yuan is too gossip, how to pry into other people's privacy, but he did not expect to see a man beating a girl. This situation must not be ignored, Qin Yuan stopped it loudly.

Unexpectedly, the man glared at Qin Yuan fiercely and closed the curtains directly. An Ran also heard the movement and asked what was going on. After Qin Yuan talked to him, the two planned to go directly to the door to understand the situation.

At this time, my grandma came in and pulled the two of them. "You two should stop taking care of her family's affairs. The police can't take care of it. Alas, every family has hard-to-read sutras!"

It turns out that those two are father and daughter. The girl was very obedient when she was young, and she belonged to the kind of child with good character and learning. Later on, the relationship between the parents was at odds. After the divorce, the child's personality changed drastically, and she became infected at a young age. Drugs, steal them if you don't have money to buy them, and have delivered them to the drug rehabilitation center several times.

The man didn't give up this daughter, and always believed in him. Unexpectedly, the girl couldn't help the temptation. She was dragged to the underground casino by a group of friends, trying to block the big one, and then came to buy the thing, but ended up losing her house to putting it up. D's, the debtors come to the door every day, and the men are also suffering, doing a few jobs outside, paying back the money everywhere.

"Why does this happen again, grandma, don't you care about the police who put high D?"

"Why don't care, those people are hob meat. When the police came, they were honest, they weren't there, and they looked the same. It's impossible for the police to guard 24 hours a day." This is a poor man, and there must be hatred. Place.

The girl's yelling and cursing came in, and my grandma couldn't listen anymore. She took An Ran to persuade him. As soon as Qin Yuan went in, he saw the man crying. "Mother, don't you know, you can't quit, he has been ruined in this life, I Now I have worked three jobs outside to pay her back, but this is a bottomless pit. I really want to kill her directly today. I go to jail and she will be free if she is dead!"

Although the man said this, he can still tell from the words that he loves his daughter very much. The man said for a while and looked at the time. It should be time for work. Grandma An Ran said that he would give the girl to him and let him rest assured. At work, the man kept thanking him.

The girl's name is Xiaoying. She was just 18 years old this year. Seeing him all over her body, An Ran's grandmother brought her back. An Ran helped her medicate and cooked her noodles. The girl looked very pitiful and polite at this moment. Called sister An Ran.

Seeing Xiaoying's body wounds, coupled with this tragic experience, An Ran felt very sympathetic to Xiaoying, really helping her be a little sister, and let her sleep in her own home tonight.

Qin Yuan got used to training in the army. He got up very early and sat in the living room for push-up training. Grandma got up and saw that he smiled and said, "If you are so energetic, come and go shopping with me, just to help me pick up some things. thing."

Qin Yuan went shopping with her grandmother. At this moment, they didn't know that Xiaoying, the girl, had changed. The city was extremely deep and she was good at disguising.

When Qin Yuan and grandma returned from shopping, they found that there was only Xiaoying at home. Xiaoying said that An Ran had gone to the street to buy some gifts, and said that he would give Qin Yuan a surprise, and grandma laughed and teased the young couple.

I was willing to help pick up the vegetables, and the food was ready. An Ran called her before returning, but found that it was turned off. Qin Yuan felt that something was wrong.

"No, this kid An Ran will tell me wherever he goes. It's this time. Is something wrong?"

Qin Yuan walked into the room and asked Xiaoying what was going on. Unexpectedly, the girl suddenly cried and cried. Qin Yuan still didn't understand. Her father came back and was talking to grandma in the living room. Xiao Ying suddenly pulled her clothes. Crying and ran out.

"Dad, grandma, help, that brother just took off my clothes, I'm so scared!"

Qin Yuan was also shocked by the girl's performance. He walked out and looked at the girl coldly. Xiaoying's father pointed and asked what was going on. Angrily rushed forward to beat Qin Yuan. Grandma was also anxious and was beside him. Explaining that Qin Yuan is not that kind of person, Qin Yuan told his grandmother not to worry about a capture gesture and directly push the man down.

"I ask you, where did An Ran go?"

Grandma asked anxiously, "Why, Xiaoying, what is going on? You kid tell the truth!"

Seeing that Xiaoying was indifferent, Qin Yuan pulled her into the kitchen directly, closed the kitchen door and smiled and told her grandmother that he would ask her a few words alone. She might be embarrassed to say that there were too many people.

Qin Yuan squeezed Xiaoying with one hand and picked up the kitchen knife next to him, "I only give you three counts. If you don't say it, only one finger. Anyway, you have ten fingers. I will pick it up until you say it. !"

Na Xiaoying felt that Qin Yuan would not move her at all, and ignored it. Qin Yuan covered her mouth, the kitchen knife quickly dropped, and Xiaoying's little finger was lying on the chopping board, blood flowing.

Xiaoying struggled desperately, but couldn't get rid of Qin Yuan at all. Love was only cold, and continued to count "One! Two!" When she was about to count to three, she raised her kitchen knife high, Xiaoying finally collapsed. "I said, I Say, madman you are a madman!"

It turns out that Xiaoying owes a high D, and owes various online loans. She has debts collected everywhere if she has no money. Debt collectors like her are addicts who want her to sell themselves and think she is unworthy. Don't let her find a girl to replace her. She, otherwise she would just hack Xiaoying to death.

Xiaoying pretended to lie to An Ran and said that her stomach hurts. An Ran looked for the medicine seriously. She was unprepared. She was knocked out from behind by Xiaoying. Then Xiaoying called the high-D person, and the people there came and took it away. safely.

When Qin Yuan and the others came back, they lied to them that An Ran had gone out to buy things and delayed time for the high-D people. At this moment, Grandma An Ran just pushed the door to hear, and fell backwards, clutching her chest.

Qin Yuan picked up his grandmother and found the community staff, and sent her grandma to the hospital together. He made sure that the grandma was out of danger for the time being. He took the time to find An Ran and asked the community staff to take care of it.

After going back, he asked Xiaoying the location of those high-D  again. If something happened to An Ran, Qin Yuan would never let him go, hoping that the gangsters hadn't done anything yet.

Qin Yuan kicked the door and rushed in. The high-D members were playing cards and thought they were all scared to escape. Qin Yuan was furious at the moment and kicked a  directly. The others Also be beaten.

"Where is the girl you took away in the morning?"

"Bei Pi San took it away. Pi San said that she was a little bit pretty and wanted to..."

"Where is Pi San?"

There was a girl's cry from the rental house, and Qin Yuan rushed in. Unfortunately, it was not An Ran, but a victim. Pi San was beaten to his knees and begged for mercy, "Big brother, I didn't touch her, she looks good, yes It belongs to goods A, and goods A are sold to those who are rich and can have high prices."

Unexpectedly, An Ran was transferred to another underground organization. This underground organization specially collected these girls, like cattle, for the rich to choose and sell to the rich.

After Qin Yuan asked for the address, he killed Pi San with a single blow. This was an underground bar with a big stand in the middle. There was a host in the middle of the stand. All around was filled with people. The host began to introduce the goods. , I didn't expect that it was a girl who was brought up. The girl's hands and feet were all chained, without clothes, and she was onlookers like animals. The men on the stage kept shouting.

"Everyone prepare, the starting price of goods No. 1 is 6,000 yuan!"

"Eight thousand!" "Ten thousand!" With these people's constant bidding, the girl finally sold it to a man for fifty thousand yuan.

Qin Yuan jumped out of the stands. He just wanted to find An Ran first. He saw the work area written in the passage behind, and walked over. At this time, two black-clothed security guards came out to block Qin Yuan, and Qin Yuan jumped up and kicked the security guard. Fei, when someone rushed over when he heard the movement, they were all resolved by Qin Yuan.

Qin Yuan pulled up the curtain, and countless girls were locked in this place, but they were not safe. Qin Yuan was very anxious. At this time, a thug who was very short-eyed sent him to the door. Love directly kicked off the man's leg bones. Mom tells me, where is An Ran? Where is she?"

At this time, Qin Yuan heard the familiar shouts, rushed over, kicked the door open, An Ran was being pressed under him by a foreign man, struggling desperately.

Qin Yuan went straight over and broke the man's neck alive. An Ran threw tears at Qin Yuan. Qin Yuan hugged An Ran, "I'm here, it's okay! I'll take you home." An Ran trembled desperately, "How did you come? , I was almost overwhelmed by that  bastard, woooo!"

Qin Yuan took off her clothes and put them on her, and went out holding An Ran. The thugs outside all rushed in. Qin Yuan was afraid of hurting An Ran and put her on the table next to him.

At this moment, An Ran was full of tears, shook her head desperately, and hugged Qin Yuan tightly. She was too insecure. Qin Yuan kissed An Ran's cheek distressedly, "Hey, hold me tight!" He held An Ran in one hand. He knocked down the thugs who came running with one hand. He exhausted his full force with this punch, and the three thugs collapsed and knocked over the next table.

Then Qin Yuan just held An Ran and solved all these thugs with one hand. The scene was very chaotic, and the men in the stands fled around.

Qin Yuan was very fast He asked An Ran to show him who had seen An Ran, and he killed someone. There was a sirens outside, and a thug rushed directly to the police and knelt on the ground. Ah, inside, the man inside is a lunatic!"

The procedures that should be followed still have to be followed. Qin Yuan registered in the police station. The registered policeman asked in shock: "Those Gaoli D members and underground organizations were all destroyed by you alone?"

"Well, because they moved my woman!"

"Um, this citizen, if there is a reporter interviewing, you just say it is for the people to eliminate harm, or don't use this reason!"

At this time, the entire hospital was filled with members of underground gangs, most of whom had broken hands, feet, and ribs. The police registered one by one, and the most common answer was that the man was a lunatic, which was terrible.

Qin Yuan took An Ran back to the hospital to see her grandma. Grandma has slowly recovered. She was only anxious and at the time. Seeing An Ran came back safely, she held An Ran's hand tightly, "Just come back and come back!"

Of course Qin Yuan hadn't forgotten that the demon girl who pushed An Ran into the abyss, at such a young age, the snake-hearted would never let her go.

Chapter 730: Fan Tianlei is missing

Fortunately, An Ran did not suffer other injuries, but was very nervous and became very insecure. Qin Yuan asked An Ran to stay with his grandmother in the hospital. He still had some things to resolve.

After returning home, Qin Yuan knocked on the door of Xiaoying's house. At the moment, Xiaoying was wrapped in gauze and oozing blood, with tears on her face. She looked at Qin Yuan pitifully through an anti-theft door.

Qin Yuan knew that this little girl was not easy, and didn't pay attention to her set of "your dad!" Qin Yuan recalled the whole process. She is a little girl and an addict, how could she have such great strength To knock An Ran unconscious, the most important thing was that he chopped off her daughter's finger, so he could endure it like this. There was definitely a problem.

Qin Yuan and the others are going back in a few days. This kind of person is still staying next to her grandmother. It is too dangerous. At this moment, Xiaoying shook her head to indicate that she didn't know, but her eyes glanced into the room from time to time.

Qin Yuan kicked the anti-theft door open, Xiaoying yelled in fright, and stepped back, feeling that this person was even more terrifying than those with loan sharks. At this time, the bedroom door on the right opened suddenly, and Xiaoying's father took the knife directly The bedroom rushed out, and today he lifted his foot and kicked the knife away, and punched it again.

Xiaoying's father was lying on the ground, panting, and Qin Yuan walked over and stepped on his chest, "You father and daughter are so good. Thanks to An Ran's grandmother who cares so much about you, how did you return them? "

"Hehe, why? Why do they have such a good life, and my daughter and I have to run around every day to survive, and I just want to save my daughter!"

"People like you are really hopeless. It's really a story of a farmer and a snake, but I'm not as kind as An Ran and the others. People like me have always had grudges and will get revenge!"

Then he lifted the man's hand directly, and Kacha directly interrupted, the man yelled in pain on the ground, Xiaoying also ran over to kneel and beg for mercy.

"I only have one request. I don't care about the previous ones. I don't want An Ran's grandma to see you again!"

Qin Yuan came out of Xiaoying's house and went straight to the hospital. Although Xiaoying's family was very pitiful, they did not have the slightest humanity for their own benefit. Especially when An Ran's grandmother suddenly fell, there would still be An Ran. What happened, even if Xiaoying and his daughter were killed, it would not make up.

An Ran and grandmother talked and laughed, and they seemed to be in a better mood. Qin Yuan walked in and handed over a pared apple. "How is Xiaoying? Although this matter has nothing to do with her, he is also a poor child"

"Well, it's okay, because she just asked people to take you away, and didn't participate in the actual action. The police also did the registration. Although we don't pursue it, that has no effect."

"That's good, otherwise this kid will really be ruined."

Qin Yuan looked at An Ran's kindness and touched her head. He didn't want to tell An Ran the truth, then the last dirty truth would be borne by himself.

The TV news reported that the police, with the help of the enthusiastic masse, Mr. Qin, destroyed the underground illegal human trafficking organization, arrested 162 people, and out of 27 victims. This is also Qin Yuan's request, as long as he returns safely.

My grandmother almost recovered and was discharged together. After returning, I found out that Xiaoying's house had moved. Qin Yuan smiled and carried something and said, "It may be that their family feels a bit uncomfortable with Enron, so they moved out to avoid too embarrassing meeting.

Qin Yuan's holiday here has also arrived, and he took An Ran back to the military area together. After several days of adjustments, An Ran has recovered. After all, in the military area, the endurance is better than ordinary people.

After Qin Yuan went back to find Gao Shiwei to inquire about Long Xiaoyun's situation, there was still no news. There was no mission in the past few days. Every day was training. Zhuang Yan called and wanted Fan Tianlei to have time. A guest role.

Li Erniu said enviously: "Oh, if Fan team becomes a big star in this photo, then it will be popular."

"I said Li Erniu, you're the one, you are going up and talking, why are you dazed by stepping on my shoulder!" It was He Chenguang who was talking, willing to take everyone through obstacle training, and the two had cooperated with obstacles.

Gao Shiwei gave Fan Tianlei a five-day vacation. The troops are very strict. When the vacation arrives, he must come back. When he left, he said that only three days would be enough, but he didn't expect that five days had passed and he had not come back. .

Qin Yuan felt that something was wrong. Let others leave it. Fan Tianlei had very high demands on him, and he would not make such a low-level mistake. His phone was also turned off, and he called Zhuang Yan, but he said that Fan Tianlei had already returned three days ago. Up.

In addition, Fan Tianlei has been missing for two days today. Could it be that he was kidnapped? Qin Yuan immediately reported the situation to Gao Shiwei. With Fan Tianlei's skill, few people could threaten him. Gao Shiwei immediately sent Qin Yuan to lead the red blood cell team and the Wolf Warrior team.

Qin Yuan and the others watched the monitoring all the way. After Fan Tianlei got on the bus to go to the train station after coming out of Zhuang Yan, it was unexpected that when the bus was only two or three stations away from the train station, the bus broke down and all the passengers on the bus. When they walked down, there were three men who looked like migrant workers, carrying large and small bags of things, and Fan Tianlei helped them carry things down.

The front is still normal. At this time, a van parked on the side of the road. A man in black clothes and sunglasses came down and said something. Then the three migrant workers got in the car, and Fan Tianlei got in the car too, just got in the car and turned forward. Coming over, took a look at the surveillance at the intersection.

This car is a licensed car, and the monitoring of Seven Turns and Eight Turns was not photographed. Fan Tianlei got on the car voluntarily, but the last time he looked at the monitoring, it should have left Qin Yuan and the others.

Qin Yuan and the others immediately went to the intersection where Fan Tianlei got on the car to check the situation. Wang Yanbing found a RMB in the green belt next to it with the words "black intermediary, migrant worker." It should be too late. He only wrote these six words. No wonder he got in the car with him. It turned out that a black intermediary cheated migrant workers to work, so he also got in the car.

But it has been three days now. Where exactly is Fan Tianlei, the police are also cooperating with the city, monitoring and coordinating the investigation, but there is still no news, and Wang Yanbing rushed around the house.

It's not a way to have no news. With the passage of time, Fan Tianlei's situation will become more and more dangerous, so he plans to change into casual clothes and bring Wang Yanbing, He Chenguang, Li Erniu and others, posing as migrant workers, and see if they will. It will not appear because there are too many people and the goal is too big, and the remaining people stay behind first.

Qin Yuan and his entourage started walking from the place where Fan Tianlei disappeared with their bags on their backs, and soon a white van drove up. The man inside stretched out his head, "Brothers, are you looking for a job? I want to hire people here. !"

Qing Qin Yuan glanced at it. It was the man who took Fan Tianlei away that day. He pretended to say, "We have already contacted the boss from other provinces, and we are going to work there. We can't find any money here."

"Brother, then you can be regarded as meeting the right person. Our factory recruits people, as long as they have hands and feet, they can provide food and shelter, eight thousand a month, no."

Li Erniu also came out and said: "It's so high, big brother, let's go!"

"Okay, okay, I'll call the boss over there. If we don't go, we will go to them. Their salary is high!"

The man heard that a few people were going to get off the car immediately and help them with their luggage. Today, he called the left-behind people to let them keep up with the car.

A few people got into the car. The man was very enthusiastic along the way, and he gave Qin Yuan and the others smoke and water. The man kept inducing Qin Yuan and the others to drink water. Qin Yuan smiled and pretended to drink water, knowing that there must be something in it. Pretend to sleep on the chair after getting off.

The man began to tentatively yelled a few people. Seeing that they had no reaction, he made a call, "Da Ming, ask the brothers to come out for cover, and we got four people, hahaha!"

After a while, two large trucks drove next to them. The two large trucks sandwiched the van. It is no wonder that no trace of the van was found in the surveillance. Under the cover of these two large trucks, the van went on a high speed. Then he got off a side road.

It's all around, there are no more cars behind, and people following behind can only stop for fear of being caught, but when they don't expect to follow up again, the three cars just disappeared. There are several around. Village, there is no way, everyone can only search one by one.

The people of Qin Yuan here bumped into the place with their vans. Several people were dragged out of the car and left on the ground. A man walked out and smoked with a smile. "Your boy has a good vision this time. These four people look stronger. Good guys, the last time they got them were old, weak, sick and disabled. They couldn't do much work and they had to eat!" After that, he handed an envelope to the man with a lot of money in it.

At this time, Qin Yuan stood up from the ground and stretched out. He looked around at a mining factory. There were many guards holding iron rods and whips.

"Hey, why did this kid wake up? It seems that the dose will be increased next time. What are you guys doing standing up? Come and tie him up!"

Qin Yuan jumped up and instantly solved the two people who came by. The thugs also rushed over with iron rods, and the man next to him shouted: "Damn, where's the wild boy? Kill him. !"

In a short while, Qin Yuan solved these people, sitting on the man who was still clamoring just now. The man's teeth were knocked out and there were blood stains on the corners of his mouth. Qin

Yuan kicked Li Erniu next to him, "Hey, you guys. , Don't plan to get up yet, do you want to sleep until the new year?"

At this time, Li Erniu slowly stood up, "Isn't this letting the Qin team be the first to show off their prestige? How can these miscellaneous hairs get our shot?"

The man said viciously: "You can't get out of this village!"

Qin Yuan punched him again, and the man didn't speak. Wang Yanbing and the others got up and opened the row of board rooms in front of them. There were a dozen men in them. They were all dirty and skinny. But these men saw Qin. Yuan and the others weren't very surprised, but rather scared.

Fan Tianlei was not among this group. At this time, Qin Yuan saw the migrant worker who appeared in the previous surveillance, "Where is the person who came with the three of you before?"

The migrant worker just shook his head, "You can't get out. We can't get out. Let's give up!"

Li Erniu also found it strange. At this time, there was a sound of footsteps at the door, and there were many people. In a short while, many villagers came to the yard. Those villagers were holding clubs and hoes in their hands, looking at Qin Yuan and them aggressively.

Qin Yuan came out and said loudly, "My fellows, what are you doing? We are the Yan Army, here to rescue the innocent people trapped by the black factory!"

At this time, a young man who took the lead ran to the man who was beaten just now, "Brother Pao, they are from the Yan Army, the military district, I'm afraid I dare not fight!"

The gunman lost a tooth and covered his mouth with a swollen face. "Damn, no matter what, there are only a few of them. You guys killed all of them, dragged them to bury them, and now things have been exposed. They are out, no one can run away!"

Seeing those villagers being said by this gun brother, some people started to move around and wanted to come up and do something.

"Team Qin, what should we do this time? This place is too backward, and there is no awareness of law popularization at all. These villagers should we fight or not?"

Without speaking today, he walked directly towards that Pao brother, Pao brother kept backing up, and the villagers of the instigator let them go. At this time, two villagers couldn't bear it and raised the * in his hand. Qin Yuan glanced at it. , Kicked the * directly with one foot. "If you don't listen to persuasion, it will be your hands and feet next time!"

The gunman was kicked by Qin Yuan to the door. Those village names knew that they were the Yan Army, and Qin Yuan was so capable just now that everyone was afraid to get started.

"You brought four people back a few days ago. Besides the three migrant workers, what about one person?"

"He also wanted to resist was beaten up by...everyone and was thrown into the cellar."

A huge stone mill was pressed on the cellar. Qin Yuan kicked it away. Li Erniu and the others hurried down to see Fan Tianlei's situation. At this time, the remaining team members also arrived with the police, and the police watched so many people still holding them. Weapon, raise the gun and fire the shot to warn "Everyone! Look at the weapon and squat down!"

Li Erniu carried Fan Tianlei up from the cellar. At this time, the blood on his head had dried up, and he fell into a coma. Everyone rushed to send Fan Tianlei to the hospital.

According to the gunner, Fan Tianlei just came to do it directly, but they were crowded, and the villagers also came. Fan Tianlei was persuading these villagers to be stunned by the thugs from behind, and then * and threw them directly into the cellar.

They are here in a black mining factory. The village is very remote, poor and backward. The mining factory recruits people for work and has to pay for it. This group of people thought of coaxing the migrant workers with high wages and detaining them here every day. live.

There were also people who resisted before. These people didn't know the severity of the attack. They killed him and left them behind to bury them. The first time there was a second time, and the slower ones were organized. Someone who specially sought salad people came and cooperated. Those who played cover and guards worked, and those villagers were brainwashed to become accomplices.
