

Special Soldier 73

Chapter 73: 10 almighty!

At this time, Long Xiaoyun and a group of young nurses were stunned, their jaws about to fall!

However, Long Xiaoyun's reaction was quicker. He picked up the fire extinguisher on one side, and he just wanted to move towards this figure!

Qin Yuan was also a little embarrassed at this time. When he came out, he didn't know what had exploded. He splashed all over him, but fortunately, the temperature was not high, so he rushed out like this.

Seeing a beautiful woman rushing towards him, Qin Yuan just opened his mouth, but he saw the fire extinguisher in his hand!

"Fuck!"

Qin Yuan immediately understood what the woman wanted to do, and he rolled over tactically, avoiding the blow, and then he rolled on the ground a few times, this was to extinguish the flame on his body.

After stood up, Qin Yuan gently let go of the kitten in his arms. Seeing such a caring scene, the hearts of the few nurses around him melted!

However, Long Xiaoyun looked serious and said to Qin Yuan:

"Pvt, report your name, why did you rush into the fire directly, if you are severely burned, who can afford the responsibility? Hey, no, who are you, why haven't I met you?"

Although the number of Wolf Squadron is quite large, everyone in Long Xiaoyun knows him, and this one is obviously a new face.

Qin Yuan looked at it, and the kitten didn't seem to be injured. This was how she stood up and smiled:

"Isn't it all right. Comrade Long Xiaoyun, Private Qin Yuan will report to you!"

Qin Yuan paid a military salute directly to Long Xiaoyun, and looked at Qin Yuan's clothes that were a little torn apart, and looked at Qin Yuan's casual smile. Even Long Xiaoyun felt in his heart. A shudder, let alone those little nurses.

But when Long Xiaoyun heard Qin Yuan's name, he was also a little surprised:

"Are you Qin Yuan?"

"Yes, I came to see Mu Qingmei. I wanted to see my cat, but when I saw a fire here, I had to rush in!"

Hearing Qin Yuan's explanation, Long Xiaoyun's eyebrows suddenly raised. It was actually Qin Yuan. This is a good thing to come!

"Well, although Comrade Qin Yuan's behavior is not worth promoting, it is worthy of praise. Xiao Zhou, you see that Comrade Qin Yuan's clothes are burned out. Go, give Comrade Qin Yuan our special team uniform."

The assistant beside Long Xiaoyun nodded directly, and the little nurses around him quickly gathered to check whether Qin Yuan was injured.

But Qin Yuan walked directly in front of Long Xiaoyun and asked Long Xiaoyun:

"Captain Long Xiaoyun, you are so good to me, isn't it a conspiracy?"

Qin Yuan knew that this time he rushed in, Long Xiaoyun must be dissatisfied with him.

Because if Qin Yuan suffers some injuries,

Long Xiaoyun must be responsible!

This is not about cold-bloodedness, but the necessary qualities of a leader!

Long Xiaoyun also showed a smile when he heard this, and said to Qin Yuan:

"I can't hide it from you, well, you come to the office with me, let's have a good talk."

After , the two people went directly to the office, and Long Xiaoyun said directly to Qin Yuan:

"I want you to do me a favor, join our Spike Team and perform a mission!"

At this time, Qin Yuan's system suddenly sounded a prompt.

"Ding Dong~ Release system mission! Accept Long Xiaoyun's invitation, kill Bukit while ensuring the safety of the hostages, and unlock a grid!"

Hearing the noise in the system, Qin Yuan's face showed a slight smile, but he said faintly:

"It's not impossible to help you, but I'm just a private soldier, a cook, is there any benefit in allowing me to do such a dangerous thing?"

Qin Yuan had already planned to take on this task in his heart.

was just called by Long Xiaoyun for no reason.

It is natural to squeeze a little surplus value.

"Well, what do you want? As long as our Wolf Squadron has it, I will give it to you!"

Long Xiaoyun is also a cheerful person,

I'm not afraid of Qin Yuan's request, I'm afraid that Qin Yuan is not interested in this matter.

The Wolf Squadron is a well-known wealthy team.

Regardless of what Qin Yuan wants.

Long Xiaoyun can surely help Qin Yuan get it back!

Qin Yuan thought for a while, he really doesn't have anything special now, but he still said to Long Xiao:

"I need the most advanced equipment in your hands, and I am not yours. I need the right to act independently."

Long Xiaoyun frowned slightly when he heard this.

As a professional commanding officer, she naturally finds it difficult to grasp such people who do not obey the command.

But Qin Yuan's conditions are not incomprehensible, and finally Long Xiaoyun nodded:

"Okay, I promise you!"

Qin Yuan showed a smile, then stretched out his hand to Long Xiaoyun.

Long Xiaoyun was taken aback for a moment, but he also hit Qin Yuan's hand hard!

"Add a small condition, give me an access card for your place, it is a bit too strict to enter your place to check."

Qin Yuan smiled, and at this moment the little assistant brought the clothes, and Qin Yuan took off the clothes that were already a little broken.

Long Xiaoyun looked at Qin Yuan's upper body that had become lean because of the system transformation, and showed a smile, then walked out directly and said to the assistant:

"Call those guys up, there is a task to start!"

After half an hour, Qin Yuan boarded a helicopter with the members of the Wolf Warriors team. I also saw Shao Bing from the Wolf Warriors team, and died 38 others.

It's just that Shao Bin looked at Qin Yuan, who was sitting alone, but carefully said to Long Xiaoyun:

"Captain, this time we brought a newbie, why are there other people?"

This time Long Xiaoyun was also fully armed. Hearing this, he said to Shao Bing: "This one is not a newbie, but the safety rope I added for you."

"Insurance rope?"

Shao Bing's face suddenly showed a trace of disdain. and the people in the Wolf Squadron have always been other people's safety ropes. Do they need others to provide them as safety ropes?

"Don't underestimate him, this is the master who single-handedly killed the Raiden team."

Long Xiaoyun explained, but at this time, the cold front on the side directly sat beside Qin Yuan:

"Hey, buddy, aren't you here to find someone? Why are you following us on the mission again, what position can you be, I am a sniper, specializing in guarding your back."

Seeing Leng Feng's smirk, Qin Yuan also showed a slight smile.

Qin Yuan knew that because he had some influence in this world, Leng Feng joined the Wolf Squadron in advance. This time it should be his bright spot!

"Me? Any position will do, decathlon!"
