

Special Soldier 731

Chapter 731: protection

Fan Tianlei in the hospital slowly woke up. His condition was not serious. It was just that he suffered a head injury in the past few days, and he suffered severe dehydration due to dripping water. When Fan Tianlei was almost recovered, everyone returned to the military area together. With the cooperation of Yuan and the others, the joint police broke down the black factory.

After returning, everyone organized a barbecue to celebrate Fan Tianlei's safe return. Before everyone had eaten two bites, Gao Shiwei's task came. This time it was more urgent. Qin Yuan did not hesitate to go to the office first and get everyone ready to gather.

Because of the special geography of the border of Yan country, there is a large sea area at the junction. The logistics of several nearby countries use this sea area. Recently, a group of merchants from the United States came to Yan country to enter the goods, and they passed through that sea area. At that time, the goods were robbed and were discovered by the patrols of Yan Country. The criminals in the group saw that the form was not good, so they could only temporarily take the American merchants as hostages to escape.

Because the Yan Army was the nearest here, Qin Yuan was ordered to lead a team to rescue the merchants from the US, and the US also sent people, but on the way, Qin Yuan led the team first.

Gao Shiwei said solemnly: "Qin Yuan, this time we must ensure the safety of the hostages, and the merchants from the U.S. must come back safely!"

Qin Yuan introduced the mission to the people on the plane, and took out the map. The criminals were carrying guns and ammunition. It was visually estimated that there were more than 20 people. After being discovered by our patrolling marine police, they fled the nearby island with their hostages.

"Our task this time is to rescue the hostages at all costs, and to ensure the safety of the hostages' lives!"

The naval patrol was around the small island. After seeing Qin Yuan and the others, they introduced the situation inside. The group now asked for two helicopters and 8 million in cash.

"The last courage is really big, dare to ask for money!"

The navy nearby smiled mysteriously, "Hey, you don't know, after all, they are Americans and they are rich, so this group of people want to cheat them!"

The group stayed on the island, not letting anyone approach it. As long as anyone approached, they pointed their guns at the nearby businessman. Taking advantage of the darkness, Qin Yuan took the members of the red blood cell team into diving suits and planned to dive over.

The patrolling coast guard shouted from the front to attract attention. Qin Yuan and the others had already sneaked into the water. There were also people on the side. In order not to disturb these people, everyone swam back. After all, the island is huge.

I had people on duty all around, but there were fewer guards behind me, so Qin Yuan quietly landed ashore, asking other people not to act, because if there were too many people, the sound of the water would be too loud.

Because there was a reef next to the small island, there were waves crashing and the sound was a bit loud, so it covered the sound of Qin Yuan going ashore. When Qin Yuan arrived in front of the criminal, the knife quickly unsheathed and quietly put down the person's body.

The person next to him felt that something was wrong, and came over with his gun. Qin Yuan's diving suit merged with the dark night, and the two people on duty here were solved instantly.

The rest of the people went ashore quietly. The group surrounded the group of businessmen and looked around vigilantly. The man in front of him who had just talked with the Navy was holding a businessman in his hand, pointing a gun to his head, and was talking with the Navy. Negotiate terms.

Qin Yuan asked He Chenguang to find a suitable sniper position, mainly to protect the kidnapped businessman. Qin Yuan took the lead, threw a throwing knife, directly killed the four people in the front row, and quickly shot the surrounding people.

At the same time, He Chenguang shot out, and the bullet flew out quickly, hitting the man's eyebrows. Then all the other criminals were shot to death, and the rescued merchants boarded the ship.

At this time, the American commando team also arrived, and Qin Yuan advanced a military salute. "Hello, many people from your country have returned safely. The ship behind is their cargo!"

The U.S. soldier clapped his hands and looked at his watch, "How did you do it? It takes only half an hour for us to set off when we receive the task, and you will all be solved!"

Qin Yuan smiled, "In fact, we only spent 20 minutes, and there are ten minutes left to wait for you."

Seeing the group of American businessmen leaving safely under the  of their commando team, the rest of the people who Qin Yuan urged to go back quickly, Li Erniu asked suspiciously: "What's wrong, Team Qin, so anxious to go back?"

"I just grilled the lamb chops and pig brains just before I set off. I specifically told them to show them to me. I wanted to leave 20 minutes ago, just waiting for these people!"

Everyone in Li Erniu had a black line, and the marine police next to him smiled embarrassedly. "You Qin team really has a good appetite. The person I was away from who saw your headshot recently, uh, I may not want to eat recently. Dou Hua!"

At this time in the military area, Gao Shiwei was gnawing on lamb chops, "Which of you is grilling lamb chops, it tastes good, come and grill them again! And the pig brains are all grilled, why don't you eat them."

The people next to him wanted to say that it was from Team Qin, but they didn't dare to say, so let them solve it later.

Qin Yuan and the others are now comfortable with these small tasks, and the problem is not big, but they still need daily training. Qin Yuan asks He Chenguang to take them to train and hide by himself.

Unexpectedly, Gao Shiwei came down to the training ground and wandered around, and saw Li Erniu hiding under the high platform to fight the landlords! He walked directly over, and He Chenguang knew from the high place: "Alert! Old Gao is here, looking like he is going to hit someone!"

Wang Yanbing and the others were not in a hurry. They continued to play, but when Gao Shiwei was about to approach, they fled in all directions. Because Gao Shiwei was wearing plain clothes, Li Erniu rushed to the old Gao with a sack. Say loudly: "Who! Dare to break into the Yan Army training base privately!"

Unexpectedly, Gao Shiwei is not a vegetarian, so he swept Li Erniu to the ground. "You guys, dare to play with me! Tell you that you are dead on the battlefield!" "

Li Erniu smiled, "Team Gao, look up over there."

Gao Shiwei looked up and saw He Chenguang put down his sniper rifle, stood up and gave him a military salute.

"Team Gao, in fact, we knew it only when you came, and that's why we deliberately relaxed our vigilance."

Gao Shiwei kicked Li Erniu's ass, "Without a task, you guys will be lawless, hey, dare to count me! Your captain!"

"Well, I don't know, maybe it's also where to train!"

"The red blood cell group listens to the order! All members carry a weight of 20 kilograms! Plus Qin Yuan!"

At this time, Qin Yuan was safely cutting the fruit in An Ran. You and I would eat one by one, but he didn't expect Gao Shiwei to call back.

Then a group of people carried their equipment and ran happily against the sun. Gao Shiwei was drinking tea and following a few people in the jeep nearby.

At this moment, Qin Yuan said in his heart, "What's the situation? I was still in the fragrance of the beauty just now. Why was he caught and run with a heavy load in the next second? Isn't this salary a recruit's salary? Lao Gao also personally supervised it.

Looking at the few people with guilty conscience next to him, it must be that he was not there. This group of boys caused some trouble. Gao Shiwei also ordered to run around the entire military area. When the surrounding soldiers saw it, they were still confused and said: "Old Gao, this is another New recruits?"

"Well, I don't think it's the Qin team. I guess how it caused the old Gao to stop watching the brothers. Then the old Gao Yi is unhappy..."

Before he finished speaking, Gao Shiwei stopped and shouted: "Look at the crowds over there, are you free? Go get all the equipment and train with them!" Qin Yuan secretly saw that someone could accompany him. Snicker.

Then the number of runners increased, and finally became Gao Shiwei sitting in the car. Qin Yuan and the others were * to pull the car. The soldier who was talking just now looked at Qin Yuan with a sad expression and whispered, "Brother, you guys. Why did you provoke this Hades!" Qin Yuan spread his hands, he is also a victim!

Gao Shiwei trained for a few days before letting everyone go. He didn't let him go, but had a task.

The diplomats of the country of Yan need to go to a small country in South Africa to discuss the issue of oil cooperation, but it belongs to a war-torn country. The country of Yan has also sent a team of domestic gold medal bodyguards, and Qin Yuan and others need to solve the crisis on the road and protect this Second diplomatic action.

We first flew to South Africa by plane, and then switched to cars. The problem on the plane was not big, but there were too many potential safety hazards on the land.

This time Qin Yuan brought the red blood cell team and the Wolf Warriors team. There were three diplomats, one reporter, and the bodyguards in a seven-member team. Qin Yuan was in charge of this operation. The bodyguard and the diplomat reporter are divided into two vehicles, so that they can be separated and evacuated separately if there are special circumstances.

Qin Yuan led the red blood cell team and drove ahead. The Wolf squad was behind, and the diplomats were all separated in the middle. Qin Yuan understood the strength of the bodyguards. There is no problem with basic close combat with guns. One is also a retired special force, and there is no problem with strength.

The national flag of Yan was hung on the outside of the car, and it was relatively safe along the way. From a distance, I saw soldiers wearing camouflage on both sides. It turned out that people from that small country had sent them to protect and welcome them.

Li Erniu leisurely whistled, "Team Qin, it seems that this action went smoothly. Going back, I think about whether we eat hot pot or barbecue?"

"Also eat, you guys made Lao Gao take training for a few days last time, so let's go back this time and be honest!"

"Team Qin, this is not like your style, how come you have been trained for a few days by the old Gao!"

Qin Yuan knocked Li Erniu's head, "Okay, don't lie to me, take you to the snow mountain for training after you go back, let's go fishing and grilling there, we are serious now, we can say anything after we go back!"

"Yes! Team Qin!"

The next step is the discussion between the diplomats and their country. This is a building, the bodyguards are outside the conference room, and Qin Yuan and the others are guarding around the building.

The country's economy is indeed stagnant. This is actually their municipal building. The decoration is not as good as some county towns in the Yan country. However, they are rich in oil here. It is only because of the war. Otherwise, relying on this oil, the country and the people can live longer. The last grade.

An hour later, the diplomat frowned, looked at Qin Yuan, walked over and said, "Captain Qin, I have something to discuss with you."

It turned out that the third son of the leader of this country was arrested by the local armed organization. He wanted to use that son's life to threaten the leader and let the leader step down. Those armed organizations are also very powerful. He sent many people to rescue him, but There was no return, and it angered the group of people. Yesterday, he directly cut the boy's ear and sent him.

This leader knows that the soldiers of the Yan Kingdom are powerful, so he wants the help of the soldiers of the Yan Kingdom. If his son can be rescued successfully, the oil price will be reduced by 50% from the previous price, and he immediately agreed to extract. There are also natural gas resources that can be discussed with them, because other countries have also come to them, but no one wants to take over this condition.

The diplomat also came to discuss with Qin Yuan and the others. If it doesn't work, then think of other ways. After all, the diplomat is also worried about Qin Yuan and the others, so he can't make up his mind.

Unexpectedly, Qin Yuan asked directly: "Yes, you can ask him to tell me the address."

The diplomat asked Qin Yuan and the others to pay attention to their safety. If this operation succeeds, it will save Yan Guo a large amount of money, and the diplomacy of the two countries will also be fully opened up. He also believes that Qin Yuan and the others are in the country before. Heard their reputation and created many outstanding records.

Qin Yuan and Li Erniu explained the situation and set off directly. This time they did not fly the national flag of Yan Country. After all, it was their own war. Qin Yuan still didn't want to be known by them. This involved too many problems.

Those local armed groups occupies a small city. There are indeed a lot of people. There are people on duty everywhere. During the day, the targets are too big, so Qin Yuan decided to act at night.

The former residents of the small city here have been emptied by these people. When night comes, Qin Yuan quietly enters a building with some people' controls the organizers and asks the whereabouts of the leader's son, Qin Yuan sees Looking at that building, the guards are very strict, there are two heavy firepower points, and the rest are people patrolling back and forth, no wonder those people have gone and never returned.

Qin Yuan looked up at the roof of the building. It seemed that he could start from the roof, leaving Wang Yanbing to prepare the car to ensure everyone's subsequent retreat. The rest of the people quietly went up to the roof, wearing night vision goggles in the night, building a building Shuttle and jump in the middle.

Soon I arrived next to the building. The distance between the buildings was too far. Qin Yuan threw out two wolf-toothed claws, hooked the building on the opposite side, and took the lead to climb over. Below are the armed men, talking and laughing. Little did they know the people above their heads.

After Qin Yuan arrived, he opened the small door on the roof with a wire and walked quietly down the corridor. At this time, a voice came: "Hey, have you heard anything upstairs?"

"No, don't be surprised, it may be some wild cat, go, go down and drink!"

As soon as they finished speaking, Qin Yuan and Li Erniu quietly cut their throats with knives. They laid down their bodies and killed them all the way. They opened the door of the room and saw the boy with only one ear tied to a stool. Boy Seeing someone coming in, Qin Yuan rushed to him and made a shushing motion and said in a low voice, "Don't speak, we are here to save you!"

Chapter 732: Escort mission completed

Qin Yuan originally wanted to walk to the safest top of the building, but the child was just an ordinary person and could not pass smoothly. It seemed that he could only force a breakthrough from the outside.

Qin Yuan lay on the window and looked outside. On average, the patrols made a trip every ten minutes. Now, he must first resolve the two heavy firepower points outside.

Qin Yuan asked everyone to stay in the room first, and went out alone to solve the heavy firepower point. The crowds delayed the matter. Li Erniu asked in a low voice: "Qin team, why are you going out?"

Qin Yuan directly opened the door and walked out openly. The man at the machine gun point on the left just left turned his head and looked at Qin Yuan. Just about to speak, Qin Yuan thrust a flying knife directly into the man's chest.

Turning over and jumping to the machine gun point behind him, he cut the person's throat directly. Qin Yuan wiped the blood on the knife with the man's clothes. The patrol man came over. Qin Yuan raised the machine gun, and the team was instantly killed. Down.

Qin Yuan asked Li Erniu and the others to take the child out quickly. There was a movement here. Many armed organization personnel rushed out of the School of Architecture. They used grenades as cover and ran outside quickly.

Wang Yanbing had already drove the car and waited for everyone on the periphery. Countless bullets flew behind him. Qin Yuan used a submachine gun to cover him and told everyone to retreat to the car. The child was also afraid of suddenly holding his head and squatting down. Li Erniu could only Dragging him, a bullet hit Li Erniu's arm, and He Chenguang, who was next to him, came over and directly carried the child up and ran to the car.

Qin Yuan ran to look at his bleeding arm, and directly pushed Li Erniu into the car "Retreat!"

Everyone got on the car. The hygienist first bandaged Li Erniu to stop the bleeding. He Chenguang grabbed the child by the neckline, "You stinky kid, what did you squat down suddenly just now!"

"Forget it, we'll be fine if we come back safely. It's okay. It's just being bit by a mosquito." The hygienist blanked his hand and cut the clothes with scissors. The bullet was still inside. In this case, you can only go back and take the bullet. .

After returning, the diplomat hurried around the hall anxiously. Seeing Qin Yuan and his car came back, only Li Erniu was hurt and the child came back, his brows gradually relaxed.

"Captain Qin, you really didn't let me down. You are really amazing. Don't worry, I will reflect the award to the highest officer after I go back this time! You really helped us this time!"

The diplomat took the child in. Qin Yuan took everyone down to treat Li Erniu's wounds. Li Erniu was still thinking about the grilled fish Qin Yuan said: "Team Qin, I think I'll be fine. I can go back to the Snow Mountain with you. of!"

As soon as the hygienist opened the bandage, blood flowed out, speeding up his hands, "Hey, you cow, I still want to eat now, don't worry, I won't leave your kid behind, and I will carry you up."

Because of Qin Yuan's rescue operation this time, their status was immediately improved. At noon, the leader also summoned them. The oil can be exploited immediately. Later, people from the Yan country can be arranged to come over to pull the oil, and the natural gas is discussed. The diplomats are in a good mood and have a very bright face. After the talks here, everyone will start to return home.

On the way back, Qin Yuan still didn't relax his vigilance. This kind of wide road was not afraid. The main reason was that there was a forest of poplars next to an abandoned train track. This place was easy to hide.

Qin Yuan asked the diplomats to stop first, and went forward to check. Just getting out of the car, Qin Yuan raised his gun and shot directly at the nearby woods. Sure enough, there was an ambush, and the group of armed organization personnel directly lost the attack on the diplomats. The car lost the grenade, Qin Yuan raised the gun, and three grenade exploded in the air. The driver responded quickly and quickly retreated, and another grenade exploded in front of the car.

The bullets rained for a while, but within a few minutes these militants were killed by Qin Yuan and the others. Everyone left quickly. It seems that the gang of militants from last night came to retaliate. They drove through the danger zone. After getting on the plane, Qin Yuan Also relieved.

The diplomat came here to thank you, "Captain Qin, this time I will report to the top and give you a reward. We are really gratified for the protection of your capable people in Yan Country!"

After everyone went back, Gao Shiwei personally came to pick up the plane, reported their achievements in the military region, and held a celebration party for them. The diplomats specially issued pennants and award orders to the military region.

Gao Shiwei also spared Qin Yuan and they did not carry out mandatory training. Recently, after taking the task and adding mandatory training, Qin Yuan also plans to take them to the snowy mountains to relax, because the climatic conditions on the military area are relatively hot, so they can go to the snowy mountains. Reduce heat over there.

Gao Shiwei asked with a puzzled look: "You brats, what tricks, why are you so active this time when you come back, and you still take the initiative to train?"

Qin Yuan said solemnly: "This diplomatic journey touched me deeply, so we must intensify our training and train ourselves to be strong, so that we can better protect our people and property! In order to better complete the superior diplomacy. Every mission given to us!"

"Qin Yuan, you have such an awareness, I am really very pleased, the weather over the snow mountain is very cold, and a new batch of equipment has been added in the recent area. Your team should use it first, train well, and don't live up to my expectations of you. !"

Qin Yuan breathed a sigh of relief when he said that he was very moved and crying. If Lao Gao knew their purpose of going to the snow mountain this time, it was estimated that they were not carrying a weight of 20 kilometers. It was that simple, but well, he was not afraid.

Qin Yuan took Wang Yanbing and the others to get the equipment happily. The registered soldiers there said sourly: "Please tell me that your red blood cell team is treated too well. This is new equipment. I worked hard to train you before, but the treatment is really different!"

"There is no way, we are training for the task, the good equipment can better complete the task!"

Qin Yuan and the others stepped on the snow wearing special snow boots, creaking, the temperature of the snowy mountain here is very low, more than ten degrees below zero, and there is a wide river in front of it with a thick layer of ice.

Qin Yuan asked others to set up a tent by the river first. He and He Chenguang dug a big hole in the ice surface. Because the surface was frozen, the oxygen in the water was very low, and a mouth was opened here. Will swim here, and it is better to fish.

The equipment this time is really good, and the ability to keep out the cold is very strong. After a while, Qin Yuan and the others fished well and barbecued next to them. This winter, the fish is plump and delicious, but they still need to be trained. In this cold climate, it is good for people. His stamina and physical strength are both a drain, and Qin Yuan also wants the players to improve on one side.

After having a barbecue, everyone rested for a while and started climbing training. The snowy mountains here are bare, and the climate is cold all year round. Very few animals and plants can grow, so no one will come here, but there are some climbing hobbies. By.

Qin Yuan and the others did not meet anyone along the way. Li Erniu stayed in the camp because of a hand injury. When Qin Yuan and the others came back, Li Erniu reflected a situation.

Just now after Qin Yuan and the others left, there was an old man who was fishing. His family lived at the foot of the snow-capped mountains. Seeing your second-rate military uniform, kindly remind them to let them pay more attention at night, saying that there are many climbing enthusiasts before this snow-capped mountain. They all came to climb the mountain, but a group of climbers came and went camping at night.

Those few people said that they had encountered a snow monster, and they said that they were two meters high, and there were several others. They camped at night and set up a tent, and those snow monsters patted the tent beside the tent. , And made some strange roars.

Those climbers were scared to hide in the tent all night, except for the tent the next day, they discovered that there were some huge footprints around the tent. They were so scared that they immediately called the police after they went down the mountain. When the relevant personnel came to investigate, the footprints were strange. Disappeared, and the result became more and more mysterious. It was said that these snow monsters had mana, so gradually no one came to the snow mountain.

The old man just took advantage of the day to catch a few fish. Li Erniu smiled and said: "I told the old man directly, if I encounter a snow monster, I will give it a shuttle, and then grill it."

Qin Yuan didn't care about it. After all, the legend of snow monsters and monsters will be found in every mountain. It is probably bears or other animals. Under the reflection of the tent, they think it is very big, but it also shows that there is wild in this snow mountain. Animals exist, everyone should be careful.

Nothing happened on the first night. I hope they went to the farther mountain hinterland for training this time, but they found many traces of human activities, a lot of food waste, and cigarette butts.

Qin Yuan's snow equipment this time is very concealed. After putting on the cloak and lying in the snow, they can basically blend with the snow. Qin Yuan keenly heard footsteps coming from behind and decided to hide first. Get up, after all, with the legend of the snow monster, there are other people's activities and traces of life here, which is a bit strange.

Four or five men walked up slowly, one of them with a big beard said: "Old Liu, I just saw a military tent in Yanghe. Could it be that someone from the military found it?"

"It shouldn't, it should be just a coincidence. I think there are still some fishing gears over there. It may be military fans who come to fish and eat barbecue. After all, who would come here to grill and barbecue?" Qin Yuan hiding behind the stone Several people laughed secretly.

"Now let's check this batch of goods first, whether it is a real soldier or a fake, wait for us to check it out at night!"

A few people passed by Qin Yuan and the others smoking cigarettes. One cigarette * was still on top of He Chenguang's head. He Chenguang already wanted to scold his mother, these unqualified guys.

It seems that the previous snow monsters were the ghosts of this group, and they also mentioned inspections and worried about the presence of soldiers. There must be a big problem in this. There are too few buildings in this snow mountain, which is not conducive to tracking, so wait for this As the men walked away, Qin Yuan and the others got up quietly and followed their footprints.

The footprints followed a cave and slowly disappeared. If you rush in now, you will definitely be surprised. After all, you don't know what the situation is. Since you decided to wait in the cave entrance, there was a little snow during this period, and Qin Yuan and his footprints were all covered.

It's getting dark and the group hasn't come out yet. I hope they lie here. After a few hours, they can't move and the weather is so cold. Fortunately, they have better cold protection equipment, but this is also a project that special forces must carry out. Especially like a sniper, sometimes lying on the grass in the mountains will be unable to move for six or seven hours.

But this time it was in a snowy mountain. The temperature was very low. It was the first experience for everyone. It happened to be a training session. Qin Yuan sent a message to Li Erniu who was staying behind the mountain.

The sky was completely dark. Qin Yuan looked at it. It was 9:30 in the evening. Everyone brought the night vision goggles. The group walked out slowly, but they were wearing some large doll costumes.

No wonder the group of climbers saw the snow monsters before. Normal people can't see clearly in that night. In addition, this doll costume looks particularly tall. It seems that this group of people are deliberately pretending to be snow monsters to prevent anyone from coming. The mountain ruined their plan.

But those people disappeared into the night. Qin Yuan got up slowly. There was no movement for several hours. Everyone's limbs were a little stiff. After moving a little, they walked into the cave slowly. Qin Yuan's hearing was sensitive. After listening, there was nothing inside. The movement, it seems that this group is all out.

This cave is very long. After walking for a while, there are some dead branches and obstacles made of stones. Normal people may think that this is a dead end when they see this. It seems that this group of people still knows how to disguise. , That even more shows that there is a problem, who would behave abnormally in the depths of the snow-capped mountains.

Everyone removed the stones, because the air in the cave did not circulate, so the smell was not easy to dissipate. As soon as the stones were removed, Qin Yuan smelled a familiar smell. This group must be making drugs and have participated in various tasks before. They are particularly familiar with this taste.

Sure enough, I turned on the flashlight and found a lot of raw materials for drugs stacked in the corner ' There are also many bottles and jars of glass reagents, and many finished products are stacked on the table. The pile is well packed, it seems that this is ready to trade.

On the other side of the mountain, Li Erniu received Qin Yuan's message, and he put the fishing gear at the entrance of the ice cave relatively cooperatively, and then he pulled the tent and quietly waited for the arrival of these people.

A bang of footsteps sounded around the tent. In order to make a movement, the group jumped up and looked inside the tent by the moonlight. It was indeed like a monster, with ears and claws. Li Erniu knew it was played by humans, and after seeing the behavior of this group of people, it was like watching a clown, biting on the bed and not making myself laugh.

The group began to yell like animals. You second-rate pretended to be scared and yelled in the tent. After a while, the group of people reached their goal and left.

"Hahaha, tube, I said that I am definitely not a soldier. Look at the timid, not as good as the group of mountain climbers before, I guess I will be scared to run away overnight!"

"That's fine, let him spread the news quickly, no one dares to come to the snow-capped mountains, we hurry up to make this batch of goods, recently I always feel uneasy, let's change places quickly!"

Chapter 733: Long Xiaoyun's distress message

"I think it's pretty good here. The climate is very suitable for the growth of goods. The temperature in those factories before was too high to work!"

"I know these, but for the sake of safety, more and more people know about the snow monsters. On the contrary, if bold people come to explore or other professionals come, then there will be nothing left when exposed later."

"Yes, don't stay in one place for too long. After all, if these things we do are caught, the end will be a bullet."

"Okay, don't say these frustrating remarks. Now go back to the cave and drive the rest of the goods out and send them out. Boss Chen, there is already a lot of rush!"

A few talented people just entered the cave, but they suddenly jumped out from the side. He Chenguang kicked the torch into the air. There was no moonlight and dark in the cave. Qin Yuan and the others had the night vision goggles to see the movements of the people. Chu, subdued these people in an instant.

It turns out that this is a drug manufacturing den, but this group of people is Xiao Lou Lou, and the real boss is the boss Chen. These people are also drug addicts. There was a drug manufacturing den in the village in the city before, but the police took it. .

Boss Chen found these Yin addicts and asked them to make drugs in this snowy mountain. The requirements for this new type of drug are very high, as well as for the temperature. They have failed in other places before, this snowy mountain It is the most suitable. Boss Chen ordered 30 kilograms of goods this time. They will make them tonight and send them to Boss Chen for the transaction tomorrow morning.

Qin Yuan and the others planned to follow the group of young men to catch the boss behind. They brought these people to the camp under the mountain and sat by the fire. Everyone gradually warmed up. When the day broke, they held these people. , Go to boss Chen first.

This group of people's car is under the mountain. The boss Chen is very cautious every time he trades. This time he chose the amusement park. It was very cunning and did not directly touch him. He asked them to put the goods in the yellow square Ferris wheel.

Qin Yuan and the others changed a set of casual clothes and followed them into the playground, because it was morning, and the staff were still trying to adjust the Ferris wheel. I hope they would throw the goods that were faked with stones into the yellow Ferris wheel.

Quietly waiting for the prey to be hooked, after a while, a man in overalls approached the Ferris wheel, and you let them rush up in an instant to control the man. Unexpectedly, other plainclothes policemen also ran out at this moment.

Later, I learned that the police had been watching this drug gang for a long time, but they could not find their drug manufacturing nest. However, after receiving inside information, they would trade here today, so they set an ambush here.

Unexpectedly, they would meet Qin Yuan and the others. In this way, Qin Yuan and the others came to the snow-capped mountains to play and train, but accidentally helped the police crack a major drug manufacturing and trafficking case.

Back to the military area, Gao Shiwei did not mention the arrest of the drug production syndicate. Instead, he looked at the confession report written by the police, with his hands gently on the table. Everyone was a little unclear. Therefore, Qin Yuan took the initiative and said: "Team Gao, we will But you have a face, don't you plan to reward us with something?"

"Rewards are definitely necessary. After all, the best equipment in the area for our great heroes is to go there for a tour of mountains and water, and then clean up the group of people!"

When Qin Yuan heard these words, he felt a little uncomfortable, "That high team, I suddenly remembered that there is something else, rewards or something, we don't need it, let's go down first, and you won't delay your work."

"Don't, I want to reward our great hero well, so let's wear your new snow-capped equipment and carry 30 kilometers around the military area!"

"But, Team Gao, I'm afraid it's twenty degrees outside now."

"Oh, it seems that you are not satisfied with this reward, so let's add another five kilometers!"

Qin Yuan immediately understood, and shouted: "All the red blood cell team was ordered to turn right and run!" Now, run away quickly, or else he doesn't know this old pervert, and he will come up with any tricks to fix them.

The soldiers outside were even talking about how the red blood cell team was wearing winter snow suits and running under the sun in this hot day.

"You don't know this, right? It is estimated that the high team is showing off the new equipment. After all, this equipment is only approved for use by their red blood cell team."

Qin Yuan's face was black at this time. In fact, he was really going to train. Now I can't explain it. In this hot weather, after a while, people are like fished out of the water. Gao Shiwei walked over and took out a "How about the horn? My elites, is this batch of equipment easy to use?"

After several days of training under Gao Shiwei's personal supervision, everyone was eager to have a task quickly. At this time, Qin Yuan received a text message, which was sent by Long Xiaoyun.

"Little Mao Country, French-style underground winery, cloud, anxious!"

Qin Yuan saw that this text message mode was indeed Long Xiaoyun, but no matter how Qin Yuan responded, Long Xiaoyun did not send any more messages, and the phone had been turned off after calling.

I quickly found Gao Shiwei and wanted to find Long Xiaoyun. Gao Shiwei thought about it for a while, "I can approve you for love, but you can only go to Xiaomao country alone. The hostility to our country is heavy, because Long Xiaoyun is looking for someone. It's in the three-regardless zone on the border between Xiaomao country and country d."

Qin Yuan originally had this plan. With other people, there are too many people, but it is not convenient to move. He is alone and the system is not worried at all, but now he is very worried about Long Xiaoyun. After all, he is very Be strong, it's not that you won't ask yourself for help in an emergency.

Without further ado, Gao Shiwei agreed to let Qin Yuan go alone, watching Qin Yuan's departure, and whispered, "You must come back safely if you petition. If you can bring Long Xiaoyun back, it would be better."

Qin Yuan changed into casual clothes and arrived at the address specified in Long Xiaoyun's text message. This underground winery was very strange. It looked dilapidated on the outside, but the building inside was very beautifully decorated. There were many staff in the winery. Add a date to the wine check year.

Qin Yuan leaned on the wall and looked around, but didn't find Long Xiaoyun. Could it be that she was in that building, Qin Yuan quietly stepped over the wall, bypassing the staff, and entered the building directly.

[illegible]

Qin Yuan grinned at the German shepherd with endless killing intent. The shepherd shivered with fright and stopped the biting movement. For a while, he dared not move forward, but he still kept vigilant. Although it was scared, it still dared to rush to bite Qin Yuan.

Qin Yuan called out the system, and then gently extended a finger to point on the head of the shepherd, "Ding~Congratulations to the host for gaining the leadership of the junior dog king, and can control five dogs at the same time!"

Qin Yuan tentatively issued the command "Sit down!" Unexpectedly, the tongues of the two German shepherd dogs sat down obediently, waiting for Qin Yuan's other commands. At this time, there was a sound of footsteps, and Qin Yuan jumped so loudly. Hide it sideways on the windowsill.

A man's voice came, "Dalong, Xiaolong, come here!"

Unexpectedly, the two shepherd dogs sat upright and did not listen to the man's instructions. Qin Yuan saw this scene on the windowsill. It turned out that the junior dog king's leadership is to command the dogs. He quickly ordered the two dogs to run forward. , Lead away the man.

As soon as the man squatted down, he didn't expect these two shepherd dogs to run away. He had to chase and shout, "You two bastards, stop, don't run around, it won't be enough to damage your master's thing and kill you!"

Qin Yuan avoided searching all the way. There were so many rooms in this building. Qin Yuan didn't dare to open it rashly. He could only tell whether there was Long Xiaoyun in it by his own hearing. After all, Long Xiaoyun's husband and wife three could still be heard. .

In addition to the two dogs, there are three people in this building. One is the man just now, who should be a housekeeper depending on the situation. There is also a middle-aged man in the study, and the other girl is resting in the room.

Now only the underground wine cellar of this winery is left. Long Xiaoyun is likely to be there. Qin Yuan opened the wooden door of the wine cellar, and there are barrels of red wine underneath. There is no Long Xiaoyun, Qin Yuan didn't give up, knocking on the wine barrels one by one. At this time, a wine barrel made a slight collision.

"Long Xiaoyun! Is that you?" Qin Yuan just finished asking, and the wine barrel made two soft noises. Qin Yuan carefully reported the wine barrel and opened the wine lid. There was a smell of wine coming to my face. I was naked. Soaked in the wine barrel, this person is Long Xiaoyun.

Long Xiaoyun came out of the wine barrel and coughed violently. Qin Yuan took off his coat and put it on her. At this moment, Long Xiaoyun was full of scars. Fortunately, this barrel of red wine was dissatisfied with Long Xiaoyun and was not drowned. Now he is not talking. When the time comes, take Long Xiaoyun out first.

Long Xiaoyun didn't have the energy to speak at the moment, and the whole person was dizzy. He pointed his finger inside the wine barrel. Qin Yuan immediately understood. After searching in the wine barrel, he found the bullet necklace that Long Xiaoyun wore when he was in the wolf squad. .

Seeing that the necklace was found, Long Xiaoyun completely fainted. At this time, there were many footsteps above the wine cellar. Qin Yuan hugged Long Xiaoyun and walked up. The man who was in the study just now brought a large group of thugs around. The cellar mouth.

"Hehe, boy, although I don't know how you used to avoid my German Shepherd, but I have surveillance here! Otherwise you think you can enter my wine cellar so easily, but it's just closing the door and hitting the dog! "

Qin Yuan in this winery just checked, there is no obvious camera, it should be a kind of needle-eye camera installed, "You just came here, I am still worried about not being able to find anyone, ask this girl, if you show up, then It's easy."

"Hehe, innocent, Dalong Xiaolong, come on, kill him!" The two German Shepherds ran towards Qin Yuan, but they didn't expect to bite, but wagging their tails to show good wishes to Qin Yuan. The man was furious. Said: "Damn, these two beasts are really useless. Other people will give me a drink. I will make this kid soak in wine!"

Feeling Qin Yuan put Long Xiaoyun next to him and punched the man who rushed. The man was knocked to the ground, unable to move. Seeing Long Xiaoyun's injury, Qin Yuan was extremely angry and rushed into the crowd. This group of people are lying on their stomachs. The man wants to run Qin Yuan to direct the German Shepherd to go up and bite on the man's thigh.

The man screamed and fell to the ground, "Ah, you, who are you, dare to move my organization A, you are dead!" At this time, alarms sounded everywhere, and a group of people with submachine guns rushed from the right door. Come in.

Qingyuan couldn't break the window next to him, and jumped out with Long Xiaoyun in his arms. After all, he has no equipment now, and Long Xiaoyun is also unconscious. The group of people have been chasing after him, shooting continuously. Qin Yuan hugged Long Xiaoyun and avoided the bullet.

The group of people behind was well equipped, and the firepower was too fierce. Qin Yuan's running down like this was not an option. He put Long Xiaoyun under the pipe next to him, and jumped out. A militant who just rushed over did not expect Qin Yuan. He would suddenly jump out, before he could shoot, Qin Yuan pinched his neck and twisted it, grabbing the man's submachine gun, and Qin Yuan began to fight back.

Then countless militants rushed over, Qin Yuan turned on the system and prepared for the killing mode. When Long Xiaoyun woke up, he opened his eyes and saw Qin Yuan next to him, bit his lip, tears flowed out, and his voice was hoarse. Say: "I'm sorry, but I still have to hurt you!"

"Between the two of us, there is no need to say this. It's just how your injuries came. You should contact me earlier. I should leave with you at that time. You have to treat me as family. We are a family!"

"No, it's not safe here. Let's go out first. The French boss is from Organization A. He has more than 100 armed guards here."

"Don't worry! It's safe here. The French boss is already in the barrel inside. As for the more than one hundred people who have died, the bodies are still outside."

Long Xiaoyun looked at Qin Yuan in shock. He knew his wish. He came to him this time in the name of a person, without any weapons and equipment. He actually killed more than a hundred well-equipped militants. What is his strength? It seems that with the help of affection, he can quickly rescue his father.

Long Xiaoyun just slowly told what happened. It turns out that Long Xiaoyun went to Jin Country to look for clues to his father because there was a black intermediary in Country D. He wanted to sneak into Country D to see the situation. It was unexpected. He was taken away by the organ seller, so with the previous scene, Long Xiaoyun investigated around and found out that before his father disappeared, he was investigating a group called Organization A, which was very powerful.

As small as the bartender in the bar, as large as the municipal staff in the small Mao country, they have their own organizers. This organization will attract all people who can use it at all costs. Those who are unwilling to join this organization will either disappear or die.

But his father was investigating this organization at the time, and he later disappeared. After conducting various secret investigations, Long Xiaoyun discovered that the owner of the winery here was the last person to meet with his father.

Chapter 734: rescue

Because this organization was too mysterious, Long Xiaoyun decided to investigate it alone. She had already received the message left by Qin Yuan in Jin Guo, and when she met the boss later, he did tell a lot about her father.

It turned out that they really wanted to win the Dragon Army, but the Dragon Army destroyed all of them, leaving the owner of the winery, and let him go back and tell the people above that he would never betray his country.

Unexpectedly, Long Xiaoyun would feel more and more dizzy as she listened. She knew that she had been drugged and tried her best to give Qin Yuan that message.

When I woke up later, I found myself in the wine barrel. Fortunately, the wine barrel was not full, but it couldn't be opened at all, and the drug effect of the drug was still there. Fortunately, Qin Yuan rushed to the rescue in time when he heard someone approaching. Got off her.

"As soon as I met my father, I was very uncomfortable. That's why I was drugged. Thank you, Qin Yuan!"

"I said you were stupid by being soaked in wine? The old Long Xiaoyun wouldn't say thank you, and how could I not participate in saving my father-in-law."

Long Xiaoyun saw that Qin Yuan was so glib and wanted to raise his hand to hit him, but found that he was lying on the sofa with a jacket, and his face blushed instantly.

Later, Long Xiaoyun told him that the bullet necklace was in her investigation during this period of time. He probably drew a suspicious place in his father's detention. Qin Yuan opened the map and it was very simple. Various places were replaced by letters. One was from Xiaomao Country. Next to the moat, there is another area that is the border between Xiaomao and D.

Previously, Gao Shiwei and Fan Tianlei had conjectured that it was very likely that they were in that area of sanctions, but according to Long Xiaoyun's investigation, the possibility of another place was also relatively high, and Qin Yuan decided to visit both places first with Long Xiaoyun.

They first went to the moat of Xiaomao Country. After they checked there, they found that there was only a huge repair shop. There were some large trucks in and out of the factory, but they didn't know what they were. They were covered with tarpaulins. , What's strange is that in this repair shop, only trucks enter and exit, but no personnel enter or exit.

The two planned to wait until dark to check in. They couldn't find any clues. They bought some food at the convenience store next to them. The other equipment only had two pistols, two submachine guns, and a few sabers. They were all brought from that winery.

When the two checked out, they found that the convenience store owner was looking at them with strange eyes, and after seeing them carefully, there was panic in his eyes.

Qin Yuan asked a little strangely: "Boss, what's the matter?" After speaking, he prepared to take out the money from the bag to pay. Unexpectedly, the boss suddenly raised his hands and yelled: "Don't kill me, whatever you want? Take it away, I didn't see you today, please!"

The two felt a little strange. At this time, they saw the news on the TV next to Qin Yuan and Long Xiaoyun. In the news of the two of them, they were perverted male and female killers. The staff were killed, and the old winery was killed and soaked in red wine.

Qin Yuan was speechless for a while. No wonder the boss was so frightened when he saw him. It seems that this organization is really not simple. The black can be said to be white. It simply uses the staff, but the normal staff will get the submachine gun. Fully armed, it seems that this time it was placed one.

Now it is reported on TV that Qin Yuan and Long Xiaoyun are wanted all over the country. There is no way to prevent the boss from calling the police, knocking the boss out and putting them behind the checkout counter.

The two took masks, hats, and sunglasses from the shop, and equipped them first to avoid being seen by other people and causing other troubles. They couldn't tell at the time. They squatted near the repair shop, planning to wait until dark. Go in again.

Long Xiaoyun looked at Qin Yuan and slowly said, "I'm sorry, I was the one who caused you. Now we are both wanted!"

"Long Xiaoyun, what's the matter with you now? The Long Xiaoyun I know, but dare to behave, not so cowering!"

Qin Yuan stretched out his hand to hold Long Xiaoyun, "With our relationship, you don't need to talk about this. Anyway, I am tired of special forces. What is it like to try a wanted criminal?"

Long Xiaoyun looked at Qin Yuan gratefully. After a while, it was dark. The two were planning to climb over the wall to enter. At this time, Qin Yuan found that there was surveillance on the wall. It seems that if it is not for destroying the surveillance, or to see if there is any The cart followed the cart in.

After waiting for a while, a truck arrived. The entire carriage was blocked tightly. The two of them took the opportunity to get into the car and got into the repair shop when the truck stopped at the door.

After entering, relying on a large truck to avoid the surveillance, quietly jumped into the building, and the two happened to arrive at the workshop of the repair shop, and found two sets of repairman's clothes to change first.

The two of them checked all the way and found that this place is not just a repair shop. It is as simple as a repair shop, but there are some tools for repairing cars stacked in the shop, but the repairers have bulging pockets, so it is not difficult to guess that they are all carried with them. Those who carry guns are wearing black masks and hats.

The layout of the entire repair shop is very simple. There are three or four large board rooms, none of which are locked. I have a place similar to a toilet, but it is locked.

It was too conspicuous for the two of them to wander around like this. Yu decided to help get off the goods on the big truck to see if he could get any effective information. Everyone here was wearing work clothes, masks and hats, so I gave Qin Yuan and Long Xiaoyun There is a great chance of not being recognized.

There are some daily vegetables on the truck, such as potatoes, radishes, cabbage, etc., but these vegetables are very large. According to the number of people in this repair shop, these vegetables are enough for these people to eat for half a year.

At this time, the two workers who carried things in front said: "I have gotten off a few carts today, are there more people below?"

"Hurry up and work, you shouldn't ask, don't ask casually, you won't know how to die when you are careful, the boss doesn't like us discussing these things the most."

Qin Yuan and the others followed the two people in front to unload the vegetables around the locked house. The one next to him was about to take out the key to open the door, and suddenly turned around and asked a little strangely: "Hey, aren't you two of 106 and 107 a day shift today? Why did you two come to help move the goods?"

Qin Yuan knew that he would be recognized when he opened his mouth, and it seemed that it was time to test his acting skills again "No, we are not 106 and 107, the new boss sent us over!"

"What! Why didn't the boss send a notice to us? Who are you two?"

"You dare to ask the boss, let us quickly process this batch of goods, saying that your movements are too slow, and there are some things that you should not know, so do your work!"

Qin Yuan's tone of voice really bluffed the two of them. They thought that Qin Yuan had been sent by the top to manage them. The two of them had no doubt. It seems that the image of the boss is also relatively mysterious in order to bluff that. Two people.

Since he planned to bring the vegetables over first, the little man next to him opened the door, and the locked room turned out to be an elevator. Everyone carried the vegetables in and followed the elevator down to the fifth floor. Qin Yuan took a look. Swipe to run.

On the fifth floor underground, here is a prison, full of surveillance, iron gates, and guards with shotguns. Long Xiaoyun was a little overjoyed when he saw the prison. Will Long Zhanjun be locked in? Inside, the people inside brought a few carts and didn't speak.

The four people carried the goods onto the carts, and the four carts made noises in the quiet passage. When they reached the kitchen at the bottom, a man in a chef's uniform walked out. "You put all the food in the next warehouse, and leave immediately after delivery! "

The man who opened the lock just now only agreed. Qin Yuan learned that the two people who unloaded vegetables were called 046 and 085. The people here are all called by code names. The group of workers in the repair shop above is just a cover. In fact, The daily necessities pulled by the carts are transported to the prison below to be responsible for the daily material operation.

A few people got off the good goods and took the elevator up. It happened to see a fat man standing in the middle of the factory with his hands on his back. The truck had gone out just now, and the rest of the staff were all standing in a row. Several people joined the team quickly.

The man also wore a mask and a hat, watching the crowds, and then began to say: "From now on, everyone must stay alert. There has been an accident on the winery side. Two mysterious people came here to take all the people on the farm. Killed, now there must be people in the monitoring room 24 hours a day, and the power grid must be turned on. If something goes wrong with us, the organization will definitely not let us go. I hope everyone understands!"

Now Qin Yuan is sure that this group is the same organization as the previous winery, the mysterious A organization.

The man said some more points for attention, and then asked everyone to disband and be on duty. He left 085 and asked him about the condition of the goods today. 085 took out a book and handed it to the man respectfully. It was the record of the goods.

"Boss, don't worry about our affairs. I will record them carefully. I will also arrange for the people you send."

"I haven't sent anyone, what is the situation!"

085 Turned his head and wanted to find Qin Yuan. He was cut by Qin Yuan as soon as he turned around. The fat man next to him was too late to scream. Long Xiaoyun also got his hands on it. The rest of the people will also solve it. The two of them took it. Their guns, the following suggestions must not be sneaked in, only forcibly.

As the elevator door opened, the man on duty next to him said impatiently: "Why are there so many goods today?"

His response was a bullet. Qing Yuan and Long Xiaoyun cooperated tacitly and went all the way into the prison. Long Xiaoyun found the key from the guard next to him and threw it to Qin Yuan to open the door. The entire prison rang an alarm.

The two wiped out the guards outside. There were more than 30 people in this, and one of them turned out to be the chief of the local police station. They were all handcuffed to their hands, chains, and ankles. These people resisted and did not yield to Organization A, so they were Being locked in here, they will be given a three-month consideration period. If they agree, then sign the agreement, and if they don't agree, they will kill them when the use is over.

For example, the chief of the police station just now came in for two months, but this group of people has used his identity to do a lot of outside activities. If he has no use value and does not cooperate, he will be killed immediately. He understands that he is the third group of people here.

Long Xiaoyun and Qin Yuan searched all the cells and there was no Long Zhanjun. Although Long Xiaoyun disappeared shortly after Long Xiaoyun was born, Long Xiaoyun saw his photos countless times. None of these people he.

Among this group of people, the longest came was a special soldier from Yuan Dynasty. Those people were still reluctant to kill him, but the prison is so big. He took the picture of Long Xiaoyun and looked at it, because no matter what, everyone was eating. They were all in the cafeteria, so they had the opportunity to meet, but he had never met this person.

"But according to what you said, he should be a very powerful character. I heard from the guards here before that there is another place where people who are better than us are being held."

The two searched for a while, but they didn't find any secret roads. It seems that Long Zhanjun is not here, it is very likely that it is in that area of San Regard, and it seems that you have to go there to see.

Qin Yuan and the others let these people out, and the police chief kindly reminded them, "This organization is very powerful. To achieve their goals, they will use all means. If possible, don't trust anyone because you don't know. Which one is organized."

Qin Yuan nodded, this is indeed an insight, after all, Qin Yuan and Long Xiaoyun are now wanted criminals across the country, and now they can only smuggle to the border.

In order to thank the two for their help, the police provided them with a boat boss, who took them to the border, and the two hid all the way to the dock.

Both of them wore masks and hats. The boss of the ship was in his fifties and talked a lot. While sailing the ship, they told them about the wanted warrants on the news these past two days.

"Hey' I think these two people may be couples who robbed the rich and helped the poor. Otherwise, so many people were killed, but the official did not reveal any property losses. Where did the money go? It must have been caused by these two people. Take it for good deeds!"

"I don't see that you have a sense of justice in analysis."

"That's not it. Don't think I am a boat, but I have seen strong winds and waves. I have also sat on many big people in this boat, so I can see all these things clearly."

Qin Yuan and the boss of the ship were chatting with each other. The boss of the ship kindly reminded Qin Yuan that their border was very chaotic during this period. It seems that two groups of terrorists are fighting for the territory, and the governments of the two countries are not good to intervene here. Things.

Qin Yuan thinks this is better. If no one intervenes, he will be more relaxed in doing things, hoping to find the Dragon Army here, and then take them back safely.

They both carry guns on their bodies, but they are not afraid. According to the previous investigation by Long Xiaoyun and the information given by Gao Shiwei, in order to compete for territory with country D, the country of Xiao Mao set up a secret military base in the Sanregor zone, which belongs to country D. After the underground organization obtained information, it also established a military base here, but confronted each other without conflict.

Chapter 735: Find an underground military base

This is also Gao Shiwei's consideration. He does not want Yan Guo to participate in this dispute. Before Lei Zhanjun disappeared, Yan Guo also sent a large number of personnel to investigate. The leader is Gao Shiwei. He and Lei Zhanjun are very good comrades in arms and brothers. He personally led the team, all kinds of caution, but almost had friction with the two countries, after all, Gao Shiwei led a small team to find it, and they felt that Yan Guo also wanted to get a share of the pie and fight for this three-no-go zone.

The trouble was very serious at that time, and the three parties sent diplomats to negotiate. Yan Guo has never been to this three-no-go zone since then. The Dragon Army is just like the world has evaporated, and there is no news.

The leaders above felt that Long Zhanjun had sacrificed, and they slowly investigated this military base. Some people even thought that Long Zhanjun had rebelled and were helping the people from Xiao Mao Country to train soldiers, but only Gao Shiwei knew about his Ability is not that easy to die, and Lei Zhan will never betray!

The two are investigating the secret military base. The border belongs to the tropical rainforest. The two are traveling through the rainforest. But going down blindly is no way. It is getting dark. The two found a cave to shelter from the rain. Qin Yuan plans to go out. Find something to eat and let Long Xiaoyun make a fire in the cave.

Qin Yuan climbed to a tree to dig out bird eggs, and suddenly thought, if these birds can be recovered, it would be equivalent to a live surveillance, but there are only bird eggs here and no big birds. It seems to go elsewhere. Look for it.

At this time, Qin Yuan saw a mouse on the ground in front of him. He thought that the mouse should be good. He just wanted to reach for it, but he was caught by an eagle quickly flying down and grabbing his claws.

"What the hell, if you catch my sentry, then I will catch you!" Qin Yuan put the eagle into the grid.

"Ding, the host was successfully recovered, please make a choice!"

"1. Get world-class falconry training!"

"2. Obtain world-class flying capability (ten minutes)."

"3. Get world-class hunting skills!"

Qin Yuan thought about it, now it's more reliable to train eagles, and decisively chose the first one.

"Ding Dong~ Congratulations to the host for obtaining world-class falconry training!"

"World-class eagle training: you can control ten eagles and one hundred birds at the same time."

It seems that ordinary birds are easy to control, but well, ten eagles are okay. Qin Yuan controlled the eagle and asked it to find all his relatives. The eagle looked at Qin Yuan with a dazed expression.

"Host, please have some common sense, OK, eagles are solitary creatures, and this eagle has no mate yet, so there is only one!"

Okay, one is fine. Anyway, there are hundreds of birds around. Qin Yuan controls those birds to fly into the jungle. As long as there is human activity, he will report to himself. After all, these birds have low IQs and can only describe them. They can only understand human beings like themselves.

The human beings in this kind of trivial area, except for those terrorists, that is, people from the military, anyway, if more than a hundred birds are released, they don't have to run away.

As for the eagle, let it catch a rabbit for itself. The eagle understood this time and went away. After a while, it caught a fat rabbit on its paws. The rabbit probably felt like it was flying. It is too high and shakes into a sieve.

Qin Yuan handled the rabbit next to the stream, threw its internal organs to the eagle, and let it go out for surveillance, and then took the rabbit back. Long Xiaoyun breathed a sigh of relief when Qin Yuan came back.

"Why have you been there for so long, I thought something happened to you."

"What can happen, wait for me to bake the rabbit for you, this is an authentic hare, besides, the one who can kill me hasn't been born yet!"

Qin Yuan's roasted rabbits are very fragrant. They are burnt on the outside and tender on the inside. Let Long Xiaoyun take a break first, and then leave for a visit tomorrow day. Long Xiaoyun always feels unreliable and does not have a good rest.

At this time, there was a chirping bird call outside. After Qin Yuan went out, he found a bird coming with a cigarette * in his mouth. It seemed that he had found other humans, but I don't know if it was an underground military organization of the Little Mao Country.

Qin Yuan went in and said to Long Xiaoyun: "Today I found traces of human activity when I went hunting. Now it is dark and we are full. Let's go and have a look together now. It is relatively safer at night."

After a while, the two set off. The bird was leading the way. Qin Yuan has night vision ability, but there is no problem. Although Long Xiaoyun has trained before, especially this kind of rain forest training is also a required training event, but there is no moon tonight. , The entire rainforest was dark, if it hadn't been for Qin Yuan to pull Long Xiaoyun, he would have fallen a few times.

Qin Yuan knelt down, "Come on, I'll carry you!"

Long Xiaoyun blushed, "No, if you carry me on your back, it will be more difficult for two people to walk!"

Qin Yuan did not wait for Long Xiaoyun to refute, and directly carried her on her back, "I have a strong night vision ability. Don't worry, if you fail to fall, even if you fall, I will land first, and I will give you this human mat. !"

Long Xiaoyun on his back was amused, and his small hands were tightly around Qin Yuan's neck. After a while, Qin Yuan was led by the bird to the place where human activities were discovered. There were indeed people staying here for a long time, on the grass beside him. There are still footprints left by people.

Qin Yuan followed this trail, and gradually there was a fire light in front of him. When the fire light was about to be reached, Qin Yuan let Long Xiaoyun down and the two quietly approached.

It seemed that it was not the military base, but the terrorist group. Long Xiaoyun was a little disappointed, but if it was so easy to find, Gao Shiwei would have found it. Qin Yuan thought for a while and planned to catch a terrorist and ask. After all, they have been active in this jungle for a long time, so they should know a little bit about the military base.

At this time, the group of terrorists was changing the guard. One of the terrorists on guard went to pee in the bush next to him. Qin Yuan quietly walked over, covered the man's mouth, and dragged him over.

Qin Yuan took the knife and placed it on the man's neck. "Don't say anything, just ask you a question. Have you found a military base in this jungle?"

The man shook his head first, then rolled his eyes, and nodded suddenly after thinking about it. Qin Yuan just let go of his hand. Unexpectedly, the terrorist yelled and quickly solved the terrorist. Others were also attracted.

Qin Yuan smiled coldly, originally intending to let you go, but there is nothing you can do to find your own death. Anyway, these terrorists are all evil, and they will act for the sky.

The black terrorists in the jungle had their headlights on their heads. For a moment, the figures flickered. Qin Yuan asked Long Xiaoyun to stay in the bushes. Within a few minutes of going out, he killed the terrorists and stayed. After he made a living, he planned to find out the whereabouts of the military base, and if he didn't know, he would kill him.

"I, I know." Then this person took out a map, which was hand-painted by them. Although they were active in this area, they were also very afraid of the military base, so every activity or other transaction was far away. Avoid the military base far away.

Qin Yuan looked at the map. The military base marked by the red cross was more than ten kilometers away from his side. He planned to go over and discuss with Long Xiaoyun.

At this moment, Long Xiaoyun was extremely shocked. Under this condition of limited vision, those terrorists had lights and guns. Qin Yuan solved them all with a pistol. His speed was several times that of those people. Long Xiaoyun now firmly believes that if he finds his father, Qin Yuan really has the ability to rescue him.

"This place is about 15 kilometers away from us. Should we leave this evening or tomorrow morning?"

"Let's set off tonight. I'm afraid there will be many dreams in the night, and it will be easier to hide there in the evening."

"Okay, the princess is ready to mount!"

Long Xiaoyun hammered him lightly, and still lay on his back obediently. For Long Xiaoyun's weight, for Qin Yuan, there was no problem at all.

The two slowly approached the military base marked on the map. This is an underground base. A big triangle was also played near this base. Love guessed it might be a secret post.

The underground prisons on the side of the moat of the Xiaomao country are all organized by Organization A. This is also a prison established by the military base of the Xiaomao country. So this is very problematic. Is organization A from the Xiaomao country?

That's why they have such a powerful force, but if this is the case, they won't have to spend a lot of time in drawing in and assassinating other people. Qin Yuan didn't understand, so he decided to visit the military base first.

Qin Yuan commanded the birds to fly over the triangle area, and there were indeed secret whistles, at least seven or eight. He asked Long Xiaoyun to hide behind the stone and wait for him. He went to solve the secret whistle. Long Xiaoyun believed Qin Yuan very much at this moment.

On this side, Qin Yuan passed, and the secret whistle did not find anyone standing behind him, killing him with a stab. A faint smell of blood came from the air. Then came the second and third, so quietly Qin Yuan took the seven or eight. All the secret whistle were killed and two sets of clothes were taken off.

"When you change into your clothes, the underground base is in front, but they still have a secret code. I have already asked them. Just get in first and talk later."

Long Xiaoyun looked at the time, this Qin Yuan is too awesome! First, he ran for 15 kilometers with her on his back, and now he killed the secret whistle in front of him, but when he saw that he was still full of energy, he asked concerned: "Is your body okay? If such a long rush is not enough, we will tomorrow Go in again in the morning!"

"Why can't it, men can't say no, or else you have a try?" After speaking, he looked at Long Xiaoyun with a bad smile.

Long Xiaoyun's face blushed and he gave Qin Yuan a light hammer, "When is the time now, can't you be more serious? I'm not worried about your body yet."

"Don't worry, there is no problem, and these secret whistles have been killed. We must hurry up."

It makes sense for Long Xiaoyun to think about it. After changing clothes with Qin Yuan, he walked towards the front military base. As soon as he got to the front, he saw four or five military tents. Someone came out and asked them to check the codes. After they checked the codes, that The man pressed a mechanism next to it, an underground chopping board, showing it out

The man also asked enthusiastically: "What's wrong, brother, why are you laid off so early today?"

"The brother behind me was a little uncomfortable today. Our captain asked me to take him back first."

"Hurry up, don't delay!"

Then the soldiers were talking and laughing inside the tent, playing cards, but they didn't even know that Qin Yuan had killed all the secret whistle outside.

This military base is really very big. There will be people on duty all the way down, but no one has ever asked about it. The following is the same as the military area, with normal offices, soldiers' quarters, canteens, etc.

Qin Yuan took Long Xiaoyun and was confused for a while, so he could only look around where the entrance of the prison was. At this moment, a man came over with two documents in his hand, seeming to be very anxious.

Qin Yuan saw the epaulettes on the man's clothes, he was still a colonel, so he stood with Long Xiaoyun and saluted him. The colonel suddenly turned around, and instantly Long Xiaoyun stopped breathing in fright. After all, there are so many armed soldiers below. Has it been discovered?

Unexpectedly, the colonel turned around and said, "Hey! You two quickly send these two documents to the warden!"

Qin Yuan was a little confused for a moment, what the hell, he hasn't found the prison yet, where do you want me to send it?

But at the moment, he can only bite the bullet and take the file, and walks in any direction. The colonel suddenly shouted, "What are you two doing? That is the direction of the dormitory. Let you send the files to the prison first. The prison is on the right. Do not you know?"

"Excuse me, sir, we are a little uncomfortable today, so we came back to the dormitory, and we will send this document now!"

The colonel was a little impatient, waved his hand and told them to leave.

Qin Yuan led Long Xiaoyun into the passage on the right, but there was no fork in the road. When he reached the innermost position, there were two people with duties guarding the elevator door.

"The urgent document from the chief needs to be sent to the prison. Open the door for me!"

The two guards didn't have any doubts' drove the elevator to Qin Yuan, swiped the card, and went to the basement floor. Love looked at this mode. It was similar to the moat side. Sure enough, they were together. If People who are not from the small Mao country, it means that the people from the A organization have also infiltrated.

At this time, the colonel had just left and touched his head. He felt a little strange, because he always knew the two soldiers just now, but he couldn't tell where he had seen them.

He must be familiar, because the two documents he gave Qin Yuan and the others were the wanted reports of Qin Yuan and Long Xiaoyun. After all, they destroyed the two bases of Organization A, and they had already issued a notice asking them. The junior army here arrested these two men.

Qin Yuan secretly opened the file report in the elevator. It turned out to be a wanted order for himself and Long Xiaoyun. He also asked me to send the file. Isn't this a death? I'll send you to see Hades!

The prison here is obviously much better than the previous ones. Here are all decent soldiers on duty. They are very strict. Qin Yuan told the people who had to hand in the documents to the door to not let him in, but just let him pass it on.

"No, this is an urgent document from our chief. I must personally hand it over to the warden. We can't afford to delay the command of the chief!"

Chapter 736: ?? Find the Dragon Army

The soldier thought for a while, "He stays, you can only go in, come with me!"

Long Xiaoyun of Qin Yuanchao made a look to make her believe that there was nothing wrong with her. Qin Yuan entered the prison and found that the design of the cell door here is better than that on the moat. The prison is divided into rooms and the door is also better. There are no windows.

There are a total of three gates in the middle aisle, each of which requires facial recognition. It seems that there are some big people in this one who can keep this group of people guarded like this.

After a while the two walked to a room, and the soldier knocked on the door, "Report! Someone was sent in with urgent documents!"

"Okay, come in!"

Qin Yuan went in for a military salute, handed the documents to the man, and then stood beside him, "Hmm? Didn't you send the documents? Why didn't you leave?"

"Our chief specially confessed that I am here to wait for the warden to finish reading the documents and give instructions before going up."

The man frowned, but still didn't say anything. He opened the file and looked at it carefully. The two bases of Organization A were actually destroyed! The man was a little shocked. What kind of troop was this, capable of destroying two bases. He didn't expect to see that it was not a troop, but two people.

And now they don't know what organization the two people belong to and which country they belong to. They only know one man and one woman. The warden carefully looked at Long Xiaoyun on the wanted order, and felt that this woman was a person in his prison. Very similar.

It seemed to be thinking of something in an instant, but there was some suspicion. He picked up the phone and was about to make a call. At this time, a cold dagger hit the man's neck, "Hush! Cooperate well, don't make any noise, you know!"

"Bold! Who are you? You dare to spread the military forbidden area of my little Mao country, and you dare to threaten me. I won't let you live and leave here."

Qin Yuan didn't hesitate, raised his saber, and quickly stab the man's arm. "Warden, I don't have that much patience, and do you think that if I dare to come, I am not afraid to get out?"

The soldier outside the door just heard the movement and knocked on the door, "Sir, what's the matter?"

Seeing that there was no response from the inside, the soldiers pulled up their guns and rushed in. He didn't expect that Qin Yuan would pierce his chest with a flying knife as soon as he opened the door. The warden wanted to take advantage of this gap to press the alarm switch next to him. Qin Yuan's speed was faster. , Turned around and flew another knife, with great force, directly nailing the man's hand to the wall next to it.

The man screamed, and his pupils were shocked when he looked at Qin Yuan, "No wonder! So you are the wanted criminal!"

"Stop talking nonsense, I just want to know that the Dragon Army is here?"

The warden snorted coldly, turned his head, his palm was nailed to the wall with blood flowing. It seems that he is also a man. In this case, he would rather die than surrender, because the warden is betting that he knows that his underground military prison has How strict, even though the two previous bases were destroyed by them, he was very confident in his own base and he was still useful to Qin Yuan, so she was betting that Qin Yuan would not kill him.

Unexpectedly, Qingyuan immediately took out a saber impatiently and stabbed the man's heart straight. The man looked at the knife in shock, not believing it, and a little unwilling to fall down.

Gambling with Qin Yuan that he did lose, Qin Yuan never did anything that he was not sure about. He was sure to get out if he dared to come in. Since this person did not cooperate, it would be useless. Anyway, there were so many people outside, he would not believe it. People are willing to survive.

Qin Yuan rummaged in the warden's office. The strange thing was that it was convenient. There was no prisoner's information. Didn't he put the information here, but elsewhere.

Qin Yuan sat on the warden's chair, thinking with his chin in his hand, and suddenly saw an airplane model on the opposite side. There were some models in the office. It was normal, but the position of the model was very prominent, which made it very conspicuous. , It seems that there are secret passages in this room.

Qin Yuan walked over, tried to turn the model, and then the wall behind the bookcase moved away. Behind it was a single room of more than 20 square meters. Qin Yuan jumped in to check. In addition to some weapons, there is a lot of intelligence information here. The intelligence information is available, and it seems that Xiao Maoguo is really ambitious, and he is inquiring about news of other countries.

It turned out that this little Mao country was divided into two factions. One faction supported peace, which is their current chairman. The other faction felt that the little Mao country was not rich in resources and had to be captured by war. The mysterious people of the other faction created Organization A.

Organization A is a bit like ancient blood droplets, mysterious and privileged. After the military base is built, people are slowly replaced by members of Organization A. On the surface, it is a military base, but actually a prison. Detain all those who oppose organization A.

Using Organization A against the current chairman, all kinds of people who infiltrated themselves, and also attracted the strong elites from all over the world. If these people disagree, their family members will be assassinated, or they will be imprisoned here for life. The prisoners here are all relatively powerful elites.

It's a pity to kill them, but I don't want to let them out. It's an idea that I can't get and others don't want to get. I want to control them and wait until this organization A has grown completely and overthrew the current chairman. After they come to power Better control these people.

The next book is the prisoner's information. The first person surprised Qin Yuan. This person is the strongest Special Forces of Country A. The code name is Red Bull. Qin Yuan only heard of this person's name. This person was also alone back then. He broke into the enemy camp and rescued his general. He was very strong. He claimed to the public that he had retired and returned to his normal life, but he was caught here.

The rest are elites of various countries, with excellent scientists, researchers, and medical geniuses. The data also analyzes their weaknesses and how to control them. After turning over, Qin Yuan finally saw Lei Zhanjun.

The photo shows him wearing a military uniform in Yan Country. There is a cold look in his eyes, which is really similar to Long Xiaoyun. In addition to introducing the achievements of Lei Zhanjun's previous battles, the weak point of writing is indeed no family. , No threat point.

It seems that these people use the same methods to control them. If they have family members, they can control their families, or get other handles, but they did not find any handles to threaten Lei Zhanjun. Qin Yuan looked at Lei Zhanjun's control. In prison 36.

Qin Yuan collected these materials, they were of great use in the back, got up and stretched, planning to go out to clean up the group of people, and then lead Long Xiaoyun to find Long Zhanjun.

Long Xiaoyun outside hadn't waited for Qin Yuan to come out. Inside, the guards were tight, and the door needed facial recognition. At this moment, Long Xiaoyun could only pray for Qin Yuan's safe return.

At this moment, Qin Yuan had already started the killing mode. He first went to the monitoring room to kill the soldiers guarding in the monitoring room, and then quietly killed this group of people to avoid causing other troubles.

Qin Yuan beheaded all the way. At this time, a patrol team came up in front of him. Qin Yuan walked over, greeted the team leader enthusiastically, and then suddenly attacked. Blood gushed out along the team leader's neck, and the soldiers next to him immediately opened. gun.

Qin Yuan shook his head, "You are really disobedient like this, but it's okay to make some noise, or it's too simple!"

Then an alarm came from inside. Long Xiaoyun saw all the soldiers in front rushing into the prison with their guns. The gunshots inside were very intense, but the door of this facial recognition, unless there is a bomb that can be opened violently, or even the key There are no holes, there is no way to open it.

Immediately after Long Xiaoyun saw the elevator moving up, it seemed that the people above had received the news and were ready to come down and support, so he would cooperate with Qin Yuan. He solved the people inside, and solved the people outside by himself, and the people above got into the elevator. , Just as the door opened, Long Xiaoyun held his gun and fired at them frantically.

At this moment, Qin Yuan, holding two submachine guns, jumped into these soldiers in a rotating manner. With him as the center, there were all corpses around. Qin Yuan searched out several grenades and directly exploded the facial recognition door.

As a result, he just entered the four iron gates and fell down instantly. A man with the appearance of an officer looked at Qingyuan outside, smiled coldly, and pressed the switch in his hand.

After a while, a large amount of poisonous gas began to seep from the ceiling. Qin Yuan had a system and was already immune to this most basic toxin. Those poisonous gas surrounded him and could not hurt him at all, so he kicked the iron gate directly.

The poisonous gas dispersed in an instant, and some soldiers who had no time to escape fell to the ground and twitched to their deaths. The officer saw Qin Yuan kick the iron gate with one kick and survived the poisonous gas. "You...you Not a normal human being, you are a monster!"

Qin Yuan jumped over and broke the officer's neck. "No, just because you are weak!"

Long Xiaoyun heard the gunshots stopped outside, and was very worried about whether something happened to Qin Yuan. Then there was footsteps inside. Long Xiaoyun raised the gun, but it was Qin Yuan who ran over.

Qin Yuan raised his hands jokingly, "What? Does Madam want to murder her husband?"

Then he took Long Xiaoyun into the prison. I didn't expect all the soldiers in this prison to be killed by Qin Yuan. One wounded soldier watched Qin Yuan directly lose his gun and knelt on the ground begging for mercy. Long Xiaoyun was very shocked, this kid was too bad, and he was unscathed.

The two went directly to cell 36. Qin Yuan kicked the cell open. The Lei Zhanjun inside was sitting on a stool with special handcuffs and handcuffs on his hands. There were some gray hair on his head, but the whole person was still very spirit.

Long Xiaoyun walked in and looked at the man in front of him, "Dad! I finally found you!"

Unexpectedly, the Dragon Zhanjun at this time looked at Long Xiaoyun seriously, "Hurry up, who let you come here? And I don't have any children!"

Long Xiaoyun looked at Long Zhanjun in shock. After looking for it for so long, he gave up a lot, including his own life. He didn't expect that he would say so and directly took out a photo. It was Long Zhanjun. Picture with Long Xiaoyun's mother.

"Impossible, I can be sure that you are my father!"

When Long Zhanjun saw the picture, his pupils shrank, but he immediately retracted, "I don't know this woman at all, get out of here."

Long Zhanjun roared like this and gestured towards Qin Yuan. Qin Yuan slowly said, "Um, Uncle Long, I know what your concerns are, don't worry, the entire base has been wiped out by me, oh, By the way, there are also the two bases in the former little Mao country. The entire A organization should be completely disintegrated, except for the boss!"

"What! No wonder the gunfire outside is so intense, you actually wiped out all three of their bases, how did you do it?"

"It's very simple, it's over by raising the gun like this." Qin Yuan shrugged his shoulders after speaking.

At this moment, Long Zhanjun dared to recognize Long Xiaoyun, because the A organization is so powerful, he only knew when investigating before that with his own power, he could not shake the A organization at all. Fortunately, Yan Guo did a good job of confidentiality. , And did not disclose his family information.

So just now he thought it was a conspiracy of Organization A and wanted to defraud him, but when he saw Long Xiaoyun, he knew that it must be his own child. He was even more worried that his child would be threatened by others just like himself, and that he would be imprisoned here for the rest of his life. Wanting to stimulate Long Xiaoyun quickly left.

With iron chains on her feet and hands, she stumbled a bit, stepped forward and grabbed Long Xiaoyun's hands, "You, really are my child and Murong! Is Murong okay?"

"Yes, your photos are all given to me by my mother. Although I did not have you in my childhood, these photos have spent my entire childhood with me. Mom... has passed away!"

"Why so fast? I'm sorry for you, I have not fulfilled my duty as a husband and father, sorry."

"Mom didn't blame you, and she also firmly believed that you were just missing without sacrifice. She told me to find you before she died!"

After talking about Long Xiaoyun and Long Zhanjun holding a headache and crying, after a while, the group members coughed twice and interrupted the two of them. "Uncle Long'Xiaoyun, should we go out first? Come back to the past slowly."

Qin Yuan severed the iron chain and anklet on Long Zhanjun's hands. Long Zhanjun was a little surprised. "How did you do this? Their hinges and iron chains are specially made. I haven't used them for so many years. The way to open it, it seems that the Yangtze River's back waves push the front waves and the generation is stronger than the generation!"

After the three of them got out of the cell, the Long Zhanjun asked Qin Yuan to release all the others. After the red dragon came out, he told Qin Yan that they had a piece of news.

It turned out that the boss of the mysterious organization A was the younger brother of the current president of Xiao Maoguo. He was only able to investigate this step at the time, and was later arrested. After so many years, I don't know what the situation is.

"I know they are now running for the president, and his brother has a very high number of votes!"

"If you let this kind of treacherous viciousness naturally become the president, then I don't know how many innocent people will suffer because of it, and he also has internal information about many countries."

At this time Qin Yuan suddenly smiled mysteriously, "We destroyed all three of their bases, and he will definitely not let me go. Since he is so powerful, then I can only give him a big gift!"

Chapter 737: ??Reunited home

After coming out, Qin Yuan took Long Zhanjun and Long Xiaoyun and hid in a small hotel. After all, he and Long Xiaoyun are now wanted criminals. Let the two of them stay in the hotel first, and he will do something.

On the other side, Gao Shiwei looked at the international wanted order issued by Xiao Maoguo and punched the screen directly. "Damn, my two best soldiers have become wanted criminals, Qin Yuan, what the * are you stinky brats? "

At this time, Fan Tianlei rushed in, "High team, what's the situation? We are going to kill Qin Yuan and Long Xiaoyun? There must be a misunderstanding!"

"Do you think I want? This is an international wanted order issued by them. Although they have not issued a clear notice yet, if they ask international organizations to act together for reinforcement in the next step, then I can't keep them!"

"But let me take the gun and aim at my comrades-in-arms, I really can't do it, nor can they do it, high team, you must think of a way!"

Gao Shiwei directly smashed the teacup on the ground. "Fan Tianlei, this is a matter of principle, do you know? It is clearly stated on the wanted order that they killed an entire winery! What is the difference between their behavior and those terrorists? Ours The duty is to protect the people's property!"

"But if the people in the winery are terrorists, we don't know the truth at all. Team Gao, you said before that you led the soldiers. You believe you believe that Qin Yuan and Long Xiaoyun will betray and become our enemies. ?"

Gao Shiwei did not speak any more, let Fan Tianlei go down first, he wanted to calm down for a while, Qin Yuan, Long Xiaoyun, what do you two really want me to do!

Long Zhanjun in the hotel asked: "Xiaoyun, I think that kid seems to be very caring about you, is your relationship unusual?"

When Long Xiaoyun heard his father say this, there was a blush on his face, "Well~ Actually, this time I caused him too. I withdrew from the Yan Army. He applied to come out alone in order to find me and the high team. He is very powerful and capable. Very strong, he killed the people in the previous two bases, and he also saved me."

"Stupid boy, how can you withdraw from the Yan Army for me? Is that guy Gao really bullying my daughter when I'm not here? Wait for me to get back this justice for you!"

Then Long Xiaoyun told him again that he was already the captain of the scumbag team and his relationship with Qin Yuan. Gao Shiwei felt very pleased that his daughter was also very powerful, just because his own affairs dragged down both of them. young people.

At this moment, Qin Yuan is copying and installing the information collected by the little Mao country in batches, and sending them to those countries one by one. These documents are signed by the little Mao country's seal and the secret agent code lurking among their countries. This is a great gift, and Qin Yuan intends to use this to bring down the boss of the A organization.

At this time, there are all wanted orders from himself and Long Xiaoyun in the world. Gao Shiwei must have received it too. He can't return to China now. After returning, he will not only expose the identity of the Yan Army, but also affect the Yan Nation, so it must be resolved first. The boss of this organization A.

After Qin Yuan returned to the hotel, he talked to Long Zhanjun about his plan. At present, he can only wait. Long Zhanjun looked at his son-in-law. "Boy, although I didn't get along with my daughter, she definitely has the same personality. My heart is very high, but you can be recognized by him, it shows that you are really good, plus you also helped us this time, really is a good man with love and justice."

"Uncle Long, my relationship with Xiaoyun, these are nothing, her business is mine."

"Boy, you must protect her." Long Zhanjun glanced at Qin Yuan meaningfully. He knew that with his own capacity, it would be difficult to return to Yan Nation, even if he did not do anything to betray the country or the organization. , But after all, after being detained in other countries for more than 20 years, he didn't want to cause trouble anymore. After so many years, his daughter is very good, he is very satisfied, and someone protects her. Now he only hopes that she can return home safely.

At this moment, Little Mao is in the final voting moment of the presidential election. On the left is the current President of Little Mao, Buffett, and on the right is Buffett's brother Bassad, who is also the leader of the A organization. At this moment, he is already confident, after all, his votes are far away. Far surpassed Bassad.

The votes were being counted. He watched the soaring votes and raised his mouth excitedly. As long as he takes office, he will definitely make a big difference in this country. His own resources are definitely not enough. Only by opening up and opening up war can he have new resources. , His brother is too cowardly, the leader of a country must be ambitious.

Bassad took out his cell phone and looked at the wanted warrants of Long Xiaoyun and Qin Yuan. As long as he became president and had higher rights, it would issue an international request for help. Even if he had three heads and six arms, so many international elites, even if he could not. Killing him can also inflict a heavy blow on those elite troops, and then he will secretly draw in to establish Xiao Mao's own elite troops.

When Qin Yuan was sending intelligence materials to various countries, he found a spy from Xiao Mao's country. This spy had no abilities, but there were 20 or 30 bodyguards around him. It turned out that this person was the most powerful hacker expert in Bassad. The intelligence is his system of conquering various countries and intercepting it.

Qin Yuan would definitely want to eat this kind of meat delivered to his door, and he had to leave the system and put the hacker expert into the one-click recovery grid.

"Ding~Congratulations to the host for the successful recovery, please make a choice!"

"1. World-class hacker technology!"

"2. World-class decryption technology!"

"3. World-class resource library!"

Qin Yuan was a little curious about the third resource bank, and clicked to view it in detail. It turned out that it was the resource bank he wanted, but it was not the time to use this, so he decided to choose the first one.

"Ding~Congratulations to the host for your successful selection and gaining world-class hacking skills, you can enter any system you want to enter! Restore any system data!"

Suddenly a video interrupted the big screen that was counting votes. In the video, Qin Yuan appeared. Qin Yuan used world-class hacking technology. There was surveillance at the winery before, but the surveillance has been completely destroyed by them. Yuan used the system technology to restore the video and hacked into the voting system of Xiao Mao.

The election of Xiao Maoguo was broadcast live worldwide. Qin Yuan directly broadcast the pictures of the winery at that time. The so-called staff were all terrorists, including the last Bassard who also went to the winery site to personally direct people to clean up the blood-stained bodies.

Everyone in the audience instantly discussed that this terrorist incident was related to the future president, and the victim became the attacker.

"Dear viewers in the live broadcast room, I am the anchor. Next, I will lead you to reveal a huge conspiracy."

Gao Shiwei was also watching the live broadcast at Yan Guo at the moment, and suddenly saw Qin Yuan "Smelly boy, you really have you!"

Next is the moat underground prison, and then there are military base prisons. The intelligence data of all countries, as well as the missing elites from other countries, all appear in the video. Qin Yuan is next to it as a commentary. At this moment Bassad had turned into anger and threw the microphone on the screen, yelling like a shrew.

Buffett let the guards control Bassard "You really disappointed me too much, look at what you did! You brought a huge disaster to our country!"

"No, it is your weakness that harmed our country, and that man, that Qin Yuan!"

At this time, there were many footsteps outside the door, and groups of soldiers rushed in.

"Our Yuan country was ordered to come and arrest the criminal Bassad who stole our military intelligence!"

"Our Golden State is the same, and our President has conveyed that he hopes that Xiao Mao will support the succession of the former president. Such cruel and unruly people are not worthy of being the leader of the country!"

Several other countries, as well as the politicians in the audience, expressed their opinions one after another. Everyone supported President Yuan Buffett to continue to serve as the president of the country.

At this time, Qin Yuan's video has come to an end. "I'm just an ordinary person who keeps working hard to live for justice and justice. Justice will always be on the road. If you do many injustices, you will die. The president of a country does not just have to be ambitious. , And you must have empathy. If you can't take good care of your citizens and hurt them at will, what qualifications do you have to be the administrator of this country!" At this time, there was applause from the audience and Qin Yuan withdrew from the video.

Fan Tianlei and the others were also watching, and they all jumped up and cheered, "I knew they must have misunderstood, but Qin Yuan is too awesome! People from the three bases, let me be a good boy, how many things this kid hides!"

"Well, now we hurry up to arrange a welcome party to warmly welcome the return of the Qin team!"

Qin Yuan's misunderstanding on this side was resolved, and there was no wanted order, so now they are free to come and go, Long Xiaoyun is very happy, finally found his father, and the misunderstanding was also resolved, now everyone can return to China together. She really wanted to have a good meal with her father. With such a small wish, she waited for more than 20 years.

Long Zhanjun handed a letter to Qin Yuan. "You brought this to Gao Shiwei. I am in a very embarrassing situation when I go back. I don't want to cause other troubles for you and Xiaoyun. You may all go through political censorship when you go back. Now Xiaoyun is also very happy, and I am very satisfied."

"But Xiaoyun finally found you, so you left silently, I'm afraid she will not be able to bear it!"

"Some love is not spoken out. I haven't fulfilled the responsibilities of a father for so many years. In the end, I just want to not affect her. With my ability to live well in other countries, you can rest assured, and everyone It's not that we don't meet each other, we can also get together during Chinese New Year."

"Uncle Long, it's really hard for me to talk to Xiaoyun about this, or you should talk about it yourself."

"Smelly boy, now I still call me Uncle Long, how can you let me rest assured to give my daughter to you, protect her, don't let me down, when will you be like a parting, it is not impossible to see."

At this time Long Xiaoyun came over and asked, "Let's go, we are ready to wait for the flight! We can finally return to China, so happy!"

"Yun'er, Qin Yuan is a very nice boy. I hope you can cherish each other. You are very sensible and powerful. You deserve to be the daughter of my Dragon Army. I am very pleased."

After Long Zhanjun finished speaking, he found an excuse, saying that he was going to do something else, so that they would wait for him here first. Long Xiaoyun did not realize that his father was leaving, and he was happily looking forward to it. Long Zhanjun glanced at Long Xiaoyun last, then turned and left.

After a while, it was being announced on the radio that Long Xiaoyun and their plane was about to check in. Long Xiaoyun looked at the airport anxiously. Long Zhanjun never came back, and remembered what he said to himself before leaving. Understood, he pulled Qin Yuan and asked, "Qin Yuan, did my father leave? Did you get it?"

Qin Yuan nodded helplessly. His father-in-law would really find something for himself. He patted his * and ran away. Why did he tell Long Xiaoyun that it was too difficult.

At this moment, Long Xiaoyun collapsed and squatted on the ground crying, "Why can't we be reunited after I found him so hard to rescue him? Qin Yuan! Why didn't you tell me?"

"Uncle Long has his own plan, but no matter what? You have to believe that he really loves you, including the last departure, is also a kind of protection for you, and he said he will also look for us, and you will meet again. of."

Long Xiaoyun looked at Qin Yuan's red eyes and nodded. The two were sitting on the plane. Long Xiaoyun was leaning against Qin Yuan's arms. She somewhat understood his father's good intentions. Qin Yuan gave him the Dragon Army. Yupei handed it to her.

The jade pendant is engraved with a cloud character, because Long Xiaoyun's mother likes clouds very much. When she was pregnant, Long Zhanjun said that there should be a cloud in the names of boys and girls. Long Xiaoyun got this jade pendant extremely heavy. A father's love for children.

The two got off the plane ' and returned to the military area. The red blood cell team and the wolf squad stood in two rows and warmly welcomed their return.

"Hahaha, this time our Dragon Team is back, and Team Qin is going to step down. Welcome Dragon Team home!"

Everyone was very enthusiastic, and Long Xiaoyun didn't want to discourage their enthusiasm, because when she decided to go to her father at the time, Gao Shiwei said that once she quit, there would be no room for turning back.

Although Gao Shiwei didn't come down to welcome him, he was extremely excited when he watched from a distance, dancing and dancing in the office. At this moment, Fan Tianlei suddenly rushed into the office and couldn't help laughing when he saw Gao Shiwei at this moment.

"Will you report before entering the door?" Gao Shiwei was a little embarrassed at the moment when he saw his embarrassment.

"Ahem, report, Qin Yuan and Long Xiaoyun are back, but I think there should be no need to report, hahaha!" It seems that this old Gao always pretends to be cold, but he is actually more excited than anyone else.

Gao Shiwei looked at the lively people below and said to himself: "Brother, looking at them, I think of us before. We are like this. I also know the reason why you don't want to come back. These are not things that we can change. Yes, everyone is helpless!"

Chapter 738: Fight for honor this time

Qin Yuan returned to the office and handed him the letter written by Long Zhanjun. It probably meant that he had never done anything sorry for the organization and the country, but some things could not be changed. Now I only hope that Long Xiaoyun can return to the team, she knows Long Xiaoyun's ability, she belongs to the army, this child gave up too much for himself.

After reading the letter, Gao Shiwei put it away and asked Qin Yuan to call Long Xiaoyun in.

"Team Gao, will you let Long Xiaoyun return to the team? She is really good, apart from other aspects, she is indeed an excellent soldier."

"Okay, I will have my own judgment, you go and call her in!"

After Long Xiaoyun came in, he paid a military salute to Gao Shiwei and let her sit on the stool in front.

"Long Xiaoyun, you know that there is no joking in the army. Since you chose to leave the Yan army at that time, you gave up the Yan army first. If I let you come back now, what's the matter?"

"I know the difficulties of the high team, I can bear all the consequences, rest assured, I will not make you embarrassed, but I am having dinner with them tonight, then I will leave."

"You father and daughter are really alike. You want to leave, right! Forget it, you will make up for it this time. You and Qin Yuan eliminated the three organizations of the Xiao Mao country and intercepted the Yan country secrets they had stolen. It can be regarded as a great accomplishment and a demerit, I will not pursue it!"

"Team Gao, really? It's great that I can continue to return to the Wolf Warriors team."

"Yes, you will continue to be the captain of the Wolf Warriors squad! By the way, how is that guy from the Dragon Army?"

"Report to the high team, my father is very good now. Although he has been detained for a long time, he is still very energetic, but he also has difficulties and is unwilling to come back, but I believe that the time is right and we can still be reunited!"

Gao Shiwei nodded, and then said: "Long Xiaoyun listens to the order! Go backwards in unison."

After Long Xiaoyun went out, he took out the letter that Long Zhanjun wrote to him. There was even a bit of threat behind the letter. It was the old Long Zhanjun. Let him protect his daughter. Otherwise, he would I came to Gao Shiwei for trouble, shook his head, folded the letter and put it in the drawer.

Qin Yuan and the others knew that Long Xiaoyun didn't need to leave. They were very happy. Li Erniu made hot pot in the cafeteria. During this kind of reunion, everyone sitting around and eating hot pot would be the most comfortable.

Long Xiaoyun usually feels cold and hard to get close to. He didn't expect that after coming back this time, he drank some wine and talked more. He called to fight with Wang Yanbing and the others, willing to help with a secret smile. She drank, Long Xiaoyun's luck was too bad and she kept losing. Fortunately, Qin Yuan was not drunk in a thousand cups and had the skills of a Bacchus master.

After a while, Wang Yanbing, He Chenguang and the others were all drunk by Qin Yuan. Qin Yuan picked up Long Xiaoyun and returned to her dormitory. Because Long Xiaoyun's dormitory was separate, and Li Erniu also knew Xiaobie Sheng newly married, showing a look that I understand, and they went back carrying Wang Yanbing.

The next morning, Long Xiaoyun found that Qin Yuan was sleeping next to him, and gently squeezed his ear. He didn't expect Qin Yuan to wake up long ago. "How is it? Madam, I was fine last night!"

Long Xiaoyun blushed with shame, and lightly hammered him, "Go away, it's not serious!"

"This is serious business. The previous serious business has been done. After all, we have done so many things. Then let's go on and make up for me."

Unexpectedly, at this time, an emergency assembly whistle sounded outside, Qin Yuan was speechless for a while, Long Xiaoyun pushed him away, and the two quickly got up and put on clothes.

When the two went out, they didn't expect a bunch of people to stand outside. The entire red blood cell team and the Wolf Warrior squad were all there. Long Xiaoyun blushed instantly, and Li Erniu and the others were laughing.

Everyone ran in front of them, and He Chenguang said, "Brother Qin, Sister Long, take your time. Let's get together first. All of them turn back and run!"

Long Xiaoyun looked at Qin Yuan in front of him. He didn't get angry. He usually lost his cold image. It was this guy who hurt him. He kicked Qin Yuan. Qin Yuan reacted quickly. Avoided.

The two also ran to the playground to gather, because Gao Shiwei would generally notify Qin Yuan of any task, and it had been a long time since he had blown the emergency assembly whistle.

Gao Shiwei stood on the stage with his hands behind his back, very serious. "Comrades, there is an urgent task this time, which is very difficult. It is not just a few lives, but also a matter of the dignity of our Yan country. Our Yan country has long been not that everyone. It's a deceitful country!" After speaking, he took out a national flag from the side. The national flag was covered with shotgun bullet holes and blood stains.

At 6 o'clock in the morning today, Yanguo fishermen were working on the high seas. Suddenly two fleets approached the fishing boat. These two fleets were a drug gang in the Golden Triangle. The captain of the fishermen's boat, Liu Yongming, felt that something was wrong at the time and raised the Yanguo flag. When I got up, I didn't expect this group of drug dealers to shoot directly at Liu Yongming, and then all nine people on board were shot and killed.

The drug gang threw the injured ten crew members into the sea. The patrolled marine police found that they fled in a hurry, and injured a marine policeman. This was extremely brutal by the drug gang. He has escaped overseas and his whereabouts are still unknown. The corpses of the stone-distance crew members were salvaged from the water and the flag was added.

"This is a blatant provocation and deceives the citizens of Yan Nation! The red blood cell team and the Wolf Warriors squad ordered you to find out the real culprit this time, and eliminate this group of drug dealers, including any behind-the-scenes masters, regardless of the behind-the-scenes masters. Let me do it as much power and power as possible!" Gao Shiwei's eyes were red, and he nearly finished roaring.

Qin Yuan below also clenched his fists, "I, Qin Yuan, will definitely seek justice for those innocent people this time, and kill all the citizens of Yan Country!"

"We must complete the task!"

Everyone knows the seriousness of this incident, and wishing to rush forward and beat the group of drug dealers into a sieve, Qin Yuan led two teams to the pier. The families of the victims stood on the pier and wept bitterly because of the emergency. A temporary tent was set up to park the corpse, and the forensic doctor was inspecting it.

When everyone saw Qin Yuan coming over, they all gave way, with anger and sadness on their faces. The criminal police detachment captain walked over and gave Qin Yuan a military salute. "Captain Qin, I hope you must seek justice for them! According to our forensic examination. , This group of people have shotguns and submachine guns, you should also pay attention to safety!"

Qin Yuan resolutely returned a gift and took everyone on the boat. The hottest one ran along the high seas to the nearby border. Qin Yuan and the others could only find it all the way by boat, which way to escape from. After an hour, everyone A fisherman boat from Yan country was found.

Everyone docked and searched on the ship. This was the crew of the crew. The cabin was full of bullet holes and blood stains, and there was some white powder. It seems that this group of people disembarked from here and escaped.

Qin Yuan and the others chased forward along the trail. Everyone was angry in their hearts and didn't rest for a moment. The group fled in a hurry, and there were traces along the way.

An eight-person team in front was struggling to run, and a man gasped and said, "It should be almost done. How long have we been running? Just now I said that the boat should be blown up. Okay, I can't stand it anymore. I want Take two breaths first!"

These people are drug dealers and drug addicts. They can no longer bear the long-term running. They all sit on the ground and pant, preparing to replenish themselves.

At this time, a bullet directly hit the man's head. Those people quickly picked up their guns and prepared to fight back. Qin Yuan rushed up. Several people beat the group of drug dealers like venting, preferring to see those shotguns, and then thought The bullet holes in the flag kicked a drug dealer directly onto the tree, and the drug dealer died like this!

The remaining few people knelt down and begged for mercy. Long Xiaoyun mentioned a man with a gun against his head and pointed to the flag armband in his hand. "You the * tell me, do you know which country this is from?"

The man kowtowed his head and said: "I'm sorry, we were wrong, but it was Chappa who let us take the shot. We must know that, but he is the boss and we all listen to him."

"Where is the Chapa you said? Take us to him!"

"I, I don't know. We ran away in two groups. The Chapa is very powerful. He has a very powerful force behind him. Maybe you can't find him!"

Qin Yuan gave Li Erniu and the others a look, "I, Qin Yuan, a soldier of the Yan Kingdom, was ordered to arrest and attack the drug dealers of the citizens of the Yan Kingdom! I didn't expect the criminals to fight back frantically and persuade them to no avail, so they could only shoot!" Raising the gun, just like when this group of demons shot the citizens of Yan Nation, except for this person, the rest were killed.

These little guys, killing them a hundred times is not enough. Qin Yuan will definitely catch you for the Chapa behind, "Now only you are left. I think you can take us to find that Chapa. But if you don't have this skill, then I will deal with you in one shot, and I can find it myself, just take a little longer!"

"No, it's not that simple. Even if you kill me, I can't find it. Chapa is very cautious. Today, we had a boat leaking, so we could only rob a nearby boat, but I didn't expect to meet To your country of Yan!"

"You have so many words!" Qin Yuan squeezed the trigger, and the bullet directly pierced the man's ears. The man covered his ears and yelled on the ground. After a while, he stood up tremblingly. "Okay, I will take you there, but I I don't know if I can find it."

The man took them out of the high seas and came to the Golden Triangle. According to him, the strength behind Chapa is very huge, and they have not really seen it completely. He has a mercenary regiment himself, and there are many bases in Chapa. This man He had only been to one place, so he took Qin Yuan and the others to see.

After arriving at the base, a large field of poppies was planted at the door, and two people came out of the house. The man pointed at the two people and said, "They have been following Caipa before."

The two raised their guns and fired at the crowd. The man leading the way was too late to escape and was killed on the spot. Qin Yuan shot out quickly, and the man with the headscarf was lying on the ground. Now Qin Yuan didn't plan to kill him. He wanted to ask first. something.

"Where is Chapa?"

"Boss, whereabouts are mysterious, we don't know, plus today the boss has not been here for a week!"

Qin Yuan couldn't ask for any news. As soon as he raised the gun, the man tremblingly said, "Although I don't know where the boss is, I know what he is going to do!"

It turned out that there was a batch of drugs to be traded in Chapa recently. Except for those patrolling sea police on the high seas, the most threatening to him was the strict soldiers, because they had to pass through a border in Yan Country. Before his brother brought a group of people from there. While delivering the goods, he was captured by soldiers from the Yan country and killed on the spot.

Therefore, Chapa suddenly launched an attack on the citizens of Yan Country this time, and he also wanted to give Yan Country a disarm. After all, his current strength is getting stronger and stronger. Over the years, relying on drug trafficking, he gradually formed a mercenary army. Several bases have been established.

"So the boss said that he would take people to the high seas, and he would shoot all the citizens of Yan Country!"

Qin Yuan took out a gun and blasted the man's head. For these demons, he didn't need any mercy, especially because he violated the bottom line of Yan Nation, and Qin Yuan wanted to let them know that Yan Nation is inviolable and cannot be challenged. .

Long Xiaoyun walked to the poppy, poured gasoline, and burned the poppy with a torch. It was useless to keep these harmful things to avoid harming more people. Everyone was fighting for this thing. You have to die and die.

Qin Yuan has decided that since this Chapa is so mysterious, he will find a group of drug dealers and destroy a group of drug dealers. Then someone will know his whereabouts. Next, Qin Yuan will lead the red cell team and let Long Xiaoyun lead the War Wolf Commando. Separate the operation and saw a group of drug dealers killing a group of drug dealers in the periphery of the Golden Triangle area until Chapa was found.

Within two days, the drug dealers in the Golden Triangle area began to panic' Four or five organizations have all disappeared. They all thought that the international military started a joint operation to eliminate the operation. In fact, there were only two teams.

Gao Shiwei came to inquire about Qin Yuan's progress. After all, the domestic response to this incident was very enthusiastic. On the one hand, the family members of the victims of the innocent people, and on the other hand, the dignity bottom line of Yan Kingdom was violated. Everyone thought that the war was far away from them But when a citizen of his country was shot and killed, this kind of panic gradually spread, and the pressure from above was very great, Gao Shiwei also urged Qin Yuan and the others to find the culprit quickly.

At this time, there was some news. It turned out that Chapa was not in the Golden Triangle area at all. This place was just a smoke bomb he threw out. A drug dealer confessed to the military base in Chapa.

Many cannabis poppies are still planted in this military base. Many workers are picking and making them. The periphery is surrounded by mercenaries on patrol. Qin Yuan threw a grenade to blow up the gate, and rushed in with people to shoot them.

Most of the drug dealers were killed, and a few others were kneeling on the ground. Qin Yuan pressed Chapa about the whereabouts of Chapa. Those few people said Chapa should come to the base in two days. This batch of manufactured goods is for Chapa to bring. Those who went to South Africa asked Qin Yuan to let them go. They had no choice but to cooperate with Qin Yuan and the others.

Chapter 740: Punish pervert in your own way

The teacher of life had already called the police. When Qin Yuan and the others went back, the police were adjusting their surveillance and saw that Xiao Hua was quietly running out of Qin Yuan and his car.

said that grandma was in tears, "What can I do? Could something happen? My little flower, why are you so stupid? What are you running with the car, alas!"

The security guard next to tapped his head reproachfully, "It's all my fault. As soon as I turned around to pick up the water, why did this kid run out?"

The life teacher was crying next to him, "There are too many children, and I didn't pay attention. When I had dinner at noon, I counted the number of people and found that it was wrong."

Qin Yuan calculated it. They set off at 9 o'clock in the morning. It has been three hours since Xiaohua disappeared. It is not too late. They are still in the golden age of finding the child. Let everyone find the child quickly. The police are there. Also dispatched personnel.

The surveillance was only lost at this fork in the road. It just happened that this piece was being demolished, and there was no camera ahead, so I don't know which road the child ran on. Qin Yuan and Long Xiaoyun moved towards the place being demolished. Run and inquire along the way.

Finally, a shoe-shining man in front said: "You said that this little girl has an impression, but she is not alone. It is a fat man carrying her. I am more impressed because the man's shoes are very dirty. I call him. Wipe it, he left without looking back."

Qin Yuan immediately thought whether it was a human trafficker, because if the person found that the child was missing, he would wait for his family to find him nearby, or he should be sent to the Public Security Bureau, how could he go to this demolition place.

"What does that man look like? How old is he? Do you see clearly?"

"No, that man wears a hat and looks a little hunched, he should be in his forties or 50s!"

The place in front is being demolished. Because of complaints, a school nearby is taking exams these few days, so work has been suspended for two days. There is no one at this time. Long Xiaoyun called Xiaohua's name loudly. Qin Yuan heard this. A slight sound came from the half-demolished building in front.

Qin Yuan ran over quickly, and Long Xiaoyun saw the first glance and yelled loudly. The tears came down instantly, and he squatted down. As a special fighter, Long Xiaoyun had experienced all kinds of wind and waves, but at this moment she But I was extremely shocked! unbelievable.

It was the little flower lying in the building. At this time, the little flower was covered with blood stains, his teeth were knocked off, one eye was still stuck with half a steel bar, the clothes were torn open, and the lower body was covered with blood. Stop struggling, the fragmented footsteps around, the blood stains of the child on the broken bricks, the fingers of the little flower are slightly active, and the mouth is closed.

Qin Yuan rushed to the hospital with Xiaohua in his arms, holding Long Xiaoyun with yogurt outside the emergency room and crying "It was all my fault. If I found the child came and took her in the car, it would be fine, or I would not go to the hospital with you. , It's all my fault, doing evil!"

"Grandma doesn't blame you. It's the perverted murderer. I must catch him. I will break him into pieces!"

Qin Yuan was also very angry at the moment, and clenched his fists. "Damn, it must be the man who beat the little girl that day. At that time, because there was a traffic policeman, he couldn't get it right. He went to the demolition area to strengthen the control near the school behind. , I didn't expect to bump into Xiaohua!"

After a while, the doctor left and took off the mask. His eyes were full of tears. "It's really cruel. I haven't seen such a severe wound in the doctor for so many years. It is estimated that this child will never be able to give birth again, and his organs All have been destroyed, only man-made..."

The doctor couldn't say anything, he took a deep breath and slowly said, "The child's right eyeball was completely destroyed and it is no longer good. Alas, it is too miserable. How much pain this child has suffered!"

Long Xiaoyun was so angry that she was trembling. She could imagine how helpless the six-year-old child was. He suffered inhuman treatment in that place and suffered tremendous physical pain. She vowed to smash that  into pieces. !

Grandma Sun couldn't get up at all when she heard this, she fainted. The problem with Grandma Sun wasn't a big problem. The life teacher blamed herself very much, and now she is guarding her.

Qin Yuan and Long Xiaoyun are going to see Xiao Hua's situation. Xiao Hua hasn't woken up at this moment, with various pipes stuck in her body, her brows are frowning tightly, and she is still having nightmares. Long Xiaoyun is leaning on her wish. On the shoulder, "We must avenge Xiaohua and find the crap!"

"Definitely, I want him to do it on Xiao Hua and pay it back a hundred times!"

Because the plot of the case was too serious, the police immediately dispatched a special team to investigate. Qin Yuan and the others also went to the scene of the crime. The reason why the man chose to start here was that the demolition area was not monitored.

However, in other aspects of a comprehensive investigation, we can definitely find this abnormality, and can't let this abnormality, so he escaped. Before, he failed to succeed, and then Xiaohua was murdered. I don't know how many children will be attacked by him. .

The police began to conduct house-to-house investigations. At this time, someone came to the Public Security Bureau and said they would surrender.

In the interrogation room, a fat man looked at the policewoman in front with a wretched face. Faced with such a perversion, everyone just wanted to go up and tear him apart. Qin Yuan and the others were allowed to watch outside through the glass because of their special status. .

"People's police, good afternoon, I am your suspect at the moment, my name is Zhu Ming."

"Then, continue to explain below!"

"Then, that little girl is really good, hahahaha, you don't know how excited I was when she screamed, I knocked her teeth brick by brick, he didn't have the strength to resist, I squeezed it gently I can pinch her to death, thinking about it now, I'm so excited!"

Qin Yuan and Long Xiaoyun couldn't help but rush in to kill this gangster, this kind of inhumane thing, the police also endured it, this kind of brutality was heinous, after recording the process, I didn't expect Zhu Ming to be at this time. Raise your hand to indicate that you have something in your bag for everyone to see.

The policeman next to him stepped forward and took out a piece of paper from his pocket, and opened it to find that it was a certificate of illness. It turned out that Zhu Ming had intermittent mental illness. No wonder he dared to surrender to the police station so openly. He knew the law very well. Use loopholes in the law to get rid of the crime.

"People's police, I'm sorry, I'm a patient, maybe I was ill when I raped her. I suddenly don't remember what happened before. Did I do it? I don't know!"

"You give me a good explanation, what is your attitude? What you just said is not like this!"

Qin Yuan looked at Zhu Ming who was acting inside, and shook off the policeman next to him and rushed in, "You are a bitch, I killed you today! Did you know? You killed that girl for a lifetime!"

The policeman next to him took out his handcuffs and wanted to handcuff Qin Yuan. Qin Yuan raised his hand and knocked him down. "Brother, calm down, we also want to bring him to justice. Now we still have a chance. We will immediately find an agency. Determine whether his condition is true or false."

Qin Yuan has no way to calm down at this moment. He knows the laws of the country of Yan. According to the normal procedures, this mess will definitely not be sanctioned. Qin Yuan does not believe in intermittent mental illness. Rape and abuse are facts.

Seven or eight policemen rushed in without holding Qin Yuan. At this time, the director of the Public Security Bureau rushed in and held a gun on Qin Yuan's head. "I tell you, if you were not from the military, I would have shot. Everyone is equal before the law. If you kill him, you will also go to jail. Did you know? He is irritating you!"

"What the  is going to jail, I want to smash him into ten thousand pieces, this dog, and you think you can hit me!" I would rather take the police chief's pistol straight away, and quickly take him in front of him. The bullet is removed.

"Well, boy, you did a great job. I know no one of us can beat you. Then I will find someone who can control you!"

Long Xiaoyun also knew the seriousness of the matter at this moment. He came over to pull Qin Yuan and shook his head. Qin Yuan was a little unwilling. He slapped his palm on the table and directly smashed the interrogation table.

Qin Yuan and Long Xiaoyun were locked in the confinement room by the police. The Zhu Ming walked by with handcuffs, grinning triumphantly at Qin Yuan and the others.

After a while, the chief of the police station opened the door and released Qin Yuan and the others, "Okay, come out! This time your captain called me personally. I can understand your feelings. I also have my own children, but In some cases, we can't help ourselves. I hope you know that I want to kill that person too! But too many factors are too difficult!"

Qin Yuan suddenly changed, nodded, and apologized to the chief of police, "Chairman, I'm sorry, we caused you trouble. We were too impulsive. I will transfer the money to be responsible immediately for those brothers' injuries and the money for the table."

Long Xiaoyun knew that Qin Yuan had no hopes here at the moment, and it was indeed that if the law could not punish him, he would have to use other methods.

The two returned to the hospital. Grandma Sun was awake, bent over and wiped the blood on Xiaohua's face. Long Xiaoyun didn't know how to tell Grandma Sun the result. The victim was lying here, but the bad guy had nothing to do. Sanctioned.

"You must be sentenced to death for that pervert! It's too bad, how should this kind of person Xiaohua live in the future? This child is ruined in his lifetime!"

Qin Yuan shook his head quietly, and signaled Long Xiaoyun not to tell her grandma now. Long Xiaoyun also stepped forward to help. At this time, Xiaohua woke up and saw grandma grandma's tears streaming down. She wanted to cry, but her mouth was stuck in her mouth. No sound can be heard while holding various pipes.

"Good boy, don't be afraid that grandma is here! Grandma is sorry for you!"

At this time, Xiao Hua saw Qin Yuan standing behind her with a frightened expression. She was very resistant to Qin Yuan standing beside her. Qin Yuan hurriedly ran to call the doctor to come and see. She was terrified when she saw the doctor. Struggling, Xiaohua gradually calmed down until she changed to a female doctor and came in.

Qin Yuan felt very uncomfortable when he saw Xiaohua like this. The child suffered not only physical damage, but also serious spiritual damage. Now he has begun to reject all men.

A few days later, the police station called and said that they sent Zhu Ming to a professional organization to identify that he was indeed mentally ill, and now he can only be sent to a mental hospital.

This result is really like this. The abnormal thinking is so clear, how could it be possible to do something like that when he is sick, Qin Yuan asked Long Xiaoyun to take care of Xiaohua and Grandma Sun in the hospital.

Recommend an app, which is comparable to the old version of the book-chasing artifact, and can change the source book full \mi\mi reading \ \ !

"Qin Yuan, although I also want to kill that bastard, but you must be careful, don't leave anything behind!"

"Okay, don't worry, since the law cannot punish him, then I will use my Qin Yuan's method to punish him!"

After Qin Yuan went out and found the mental hospital, it was because the news came out. Many people responded enthusiastically and demanded that this abnormality be executed. On the way, the police vehicle was still blocked by those people, worried that other conditions would happen in the mental hospital. There are still policemen on duty at this moment. The abnormal Zhu Ming is now locked in a closed room with policemen on duty at the door and in the aisles.

Qin Yuan used to have world hacking skills, and he hacked into the monitoring equipment of the mental hospital. There were things he didn't want these people to see. This abnormality caused so much trouble. He also increased manpower to guard it. I can help immediately. You are free.

The policeman at the door complained angrily at the moment, "Damn, this kind of perversion, if it weren't for this suit, I really want to kill him directly."

"I'm not yet, just because I'm here to protect him, my daughter-in-law has just returned to her parents' house. Why do we want to protect this perversion? It's too difficult!"

This Zhu Ming's room was on the seventh floor. Qin Yuan followed the pipe to the seventh floor, opened the window in the room and jumped in. At this time, Zhu Ming was a little shocked when he saw Qin Yuan, and just wanted to speak, Qin Yuan was very fast. Quickly, flashed to Zhu Ming's side.

Cut off his tongue with a single knife, and put the gauze next to him to prevent him from making any noise. In this mental hospital, in order to prevent patients from accidents" The floor is covered with mats, Qin Yuan feels that this is better, so that when he gets rid of the perversion, there won't be much movement.

The next morning the doctor came to deliver medicine to Zhu Ming and asked the police to open the door. Unexpectedly, the * Zhu Ming was greeted. At this moment, his lower body was cut off, his eyes were also poked blind, and his tongue disappeared. Now, the eardrum next to it was punctured, and the hands and feet tendons were professionally picked.

And also bandaged him to stop his bleeding. This is not to let him die. At this moment, Qin Yuan is on his way back to the hospital, don't you want to live? Then I will let you live well, how could I be willing to kill you, just live well forever!

The head of the criminal police detachment hurried over to call for surveillance. He discovered that the surveillance was all broken at that time and was on duty at the door. The two said that they had not heard any movement, but he already had a guess in his heart and knew who could do it.

The head of the criminal police detachment bought a fruit basket to visit Xiao Hua, Qin Yuan was wearing a rabbit mask at the moment, Xiao Hua was not afraid of him much.

found an excuse and asked Qin Yuan to come out, "Brother, Zhu Ming, did you do it!"

"Comrade police, you are wronging a good person. I slept in the hospital last night!"

"I know you won't admit it, but I still want to say, thank you, I have been holding this breath, I am also a person with children, I am really embarrassed, seeing that choppy become like that, really sincere Thank you! This kind of punishment is the best for him!"

Qin Yuan showed a smile, "This world needs justice, although this justice is not what we think!"
