

Special Soldier 74

Chapter 74: Why are you looking at me?

At this time, I heard Qin Yuan's pretending words.

People from the Wolf Warriors team.

There was a twitch at the corner of his mouth.

Which one of them is not a decathlon?

But as the saying goes, there is a specialization in the art industry. One person can only take into account the limited points, and most of them will choose their own unauthorized positions.

"Decathlon, Huo..."

Shao Bing just muttered and didn't say much, but the meaning and meaning of the words were already obvious.

Old God Qin Yuan was watching this guy, but he didn't feel angry. After all, Qin Yuan hadn't shown his strength, just like He Chenguang before, he was dissatisfied, but now he is not convinced?

"Quiet, the destination is about to arrive, everyone is in their place, I will act as an assaulter, Qin Yuan, you co-ordinated, are there any problems?"

At this time, Long Xiaoyun said in a cold voice, and then everyone claimed that they were, and fell silent!

Soon Qin Yuan followed the men from the Wolf Warriors team to get off the helicopter.

And a person with the appearance of a captain came over anxiously:

"Captain Dragon, you guys are here!"

"Captain Zhu, how is the situation?"

Long Xiaoyun asked in a deep voice, and then Captain Zhu began to introduce the difficulties of the scene.

Originally, the operation went very smoothly. The drug dealers could not beat even the ordinary armed police, and they were directly blocked by the armed police in a small factory.

"We planned to capture this drug dealer alive, and thoroughly uncover the criminal gang behind them. Who knew that the drug dealer leader was actually a master and wounded two of our anti-drug fighters, and the location where he was hiding is very hidden. We are afraid. It's difficult! And a soldier was wounded in the thigh by a gun. Although the drug dealers have done some treatment, we don't have much time!"

Hearing this, Long Xiaoyun also looked solemnly, carefully checked the location of the hostage, and said with a little embarrassment:

"That guy is indeed a bit capable. His location is just the dead end of a sniper. We can't directly kill each other!"

And at this time, a cry full of fear came from inside:

"You all step back, step back, and all go out and get me a car, otherwise, I will kill you two police officers!"

The drug dealer named Bukit screamed frantically, and it could be seen that he was really terrified.

Although the drug dealer is carrying his head to eat, this situation has deepened the fierceness in this person's heart.

If you really can't escape, you will definitely take this hostage and die together!

At this time Leng Feng said:

"I can hit the wall directly and blow the drug dealer's head!"

"No, the walls here are more than ten centimeters thick. The sniper rifle in your hand wants to penetrate, at least three shots. Even if you have this strength, if the opponent's hand shakes and the pistol goes off, then we can't do it. Bear the consequences!"

Long Xiaoyun bluntly rejected Leng Feng's suggestion, but at this time, Qin Yuan smiled and said:

"I think this plan is more feasible. It takes at least 5 seconds to shoot three consecutive shots in the same position as the sniper rifle wants, but if you change to a rifle, it won't take that long!"

"Rifle?"

Hearing Qin Yuan's words, the surroundings suddenly exclaimed.

The rate of fire of the rifle is indeed much faster than that of the sniper rifle, but this is in the case of affecting the accuracy!

It is easy to shoot three bullets in one second, but it is impossible to hit the same position!

"Even worse, the more we talk about it, the more outrageous, Captain, we still use the drone to go around the back!"

At this time, Shao Bing said, but at this time, the bald drug dealer inside yelled again:

"Listen to those police officers outside, I know you have snipers aiming at me, but now I have a hostage in my hand, hurry up and do as I say, otherwise you will have no time!"

Saying this, the drug dealer turned out to shoot the police officer again!

One shot hit the police officer in the calf!

Everyone became tense now. This police officer had already suffered a gunshot wound.

Now they have been shot again, the time they have has become shorter!

"I will give you 10 seconds, if you still don't do what I said, then I will die with you!"

The bald drug dealer said with a look of resentment.

After hearing such words, Captain Zhu and Long Xiaoyun were also anxious, but at this moment, Qin Yuan suddenly heard a voice from the headset:

"I'm going to do it!"

is exactly the cold front!

"Cold front, no!"

Long Xiaoyun quickly stopped, but it was too late!

嘭!

Leng Feng suddenly pressed the trigger in his hand, and a bullet left the muzzle in the explosion of the gunpowder, flying towards the destination with the speed of piercing the air!

It's a pity that Long Xiaoyun's previous prediction was not wrong at all. Leng Feng's bullet was not powerful enough, and he just hit a small hole in the wall!

"not good!"

Long Xiaoyun's face was panicked, and he immediately ordered a storm!

But at this moment, she suddenly heard three shots!

Three bullets instantly hit the small hole made by Leng Feng, penetrated the wall, and instantly headshot the bald drug dealer!

It's too late to say, then soon!

All this happened between the electric light and flint!

It was already, before he said it, he just said that he had 50,000 left, and Long Xiaoyun was ready to fail the mission.

suddenly saw the bald drug dealer.

directly face the ground.

fell in front of everyone!

A blood hole on the temple is clearly visible!

静!

suddenly fell into an incomparable silence!

how did you do that?

The cold front was also shocked, UU reading www.uukānshu.com. What's the matter with com? Did he just fire four rounds in one shot?

But Long Xiaoyun's heart couldn't help but suddenly, thought of an absolutely impossible idea, and found Qin Yuan's position!

As expected!

Qin Yuan's muzzle at this time is faintly smoked!

"It's you!"

Long Xiaoyun's heart was extremely shocked!

done!

This guy really did it!

really hit the same position continuously with a rifle!

And he didn't shoot by himself, but hit the hole that the cold front made!

What kind of marksmanship is this?

The people in War Wolf Squadron also thought of this, all of them had their eyes widened, and their jaws were about to fall to the ground!

But Qin Yuan heard the prompt sound in his mind, and a slight smile appeared at the corner of his mouth.

"Ding Dong, the task is complete, get a grid!"

Now there are two more grids in the account!

Qin Yuan feels beautiful in his heart!

But when it was not a happy time, Qin Yuan rushed over and poured his own energy potion into the police officer who was shot.

This was finally saved, it would be bad if it bleeds to death! !

And when Qin Yuan finished this, he looked at the people around him dumbfounded and said:

"What are you all looking at me for?"
