

Special Soldier 741

Chapter 741: Not sloppy

Xiao Hua suffered a very serious injury. Because of the broken teeth and severe abdominal wounds, the doctor issued several critical illness notices. It may be difficult for Xiao Hua to survive the wound infection, and her small body is suffering tremendously.

Qin Yuan wears a rabbit mask. He possesses world-class medical skills. Although he can't completely cure Xiao Hua, he can at least relieve her pain.

"Little Flower, I am a magician, I used magic on you, and you won't hurt that much anymore."

Qin Yuan has controlled Xiao Hua's infection. Xiao Hua felt a lot easier in an instant, and she rarely smiled. After doing everything, Qin Yuan planned to leave and let Xiao Hua have a good rest. At this time, Xiao Hua slowly stretched out her hand and grabbed his clothes. angle.

looked at Qin Yuan, and said vaguely: "Thank you, Brother Qin Yuan!"

Qin Yuan was taken aback. It turned out that Xiao Hua knew that it was him, that little girl, even though she suffered such a serious injury, she knew that the people who helped him were also trying to overcome fear.

Because of the limited vacation, the two were going back to the military area. Qin Yuan took out a bank card and gave it to Grandma Sun. Long Xiaoyun promised to see Grandma and Xiao Hua again next time. I hope that she will see Xiao Hua next time. After recovering and standing up, Xiaohua doesn't know how long she will stay in the hospital. Although the murderer has been punished, the damage caused by the choppy will accompany the child throughout her life.

After I came back, I found that everyone was not there. It turned out that today was the execution scene in Chapa. Everyone went to watch. Long Xiaoyun had been very depressed because of Xiaohua's affairs. She felt that if she saw Xiaohua come out to stop her then, then These things won't happen, Qin Yuan took her to the training ground to let her vent.

Recommended, really good, it is worth to install one, after all, there are many books, complete books, and fast update!

"Xiaoyun, you just treat me as that pervert, just vent it, I just hide, not fight back."

"But I'm afraid I will hurt you."

"It's okay, I won't get hurt, you have to believe in my strength!"

Then when Li Erniu and the others came back, they found Long Xiaoyu carrying a gun and chasing after Qin Yuan frantically. There was an empty bullet in the gun, but it was all right. Qin Yuan avoided all sorts of things, and Long Xiaoyun couldn't get him to watch. In front of the lively crowd.

"Don't watch the excitement, go change clothes and get equipment, I have to hit this kid today."

Then it became two groups and Long Xiaoyun chased Qin Yuan frantically. Gao Shiwei, who passed by the training ground, asked strangely: "Is it new training again?"

Qin Yuan yelled a little proudly: "As long as you catch me today, I will roast the whole lamb for you."

Then Gao Shiwei took a training gun and drove up the car. Qin Yuan was speechless, "Team Gao, why are you here to join in the fun? You are still driving."

"Eating roasted whole lamb is such a good thing, how can I not participate, roasting whole lamb is small, mainly I want to train you." Then I threw a big net directly to cover Qin Yuan, what rope behind, there are people Lost shoes.

Qin Yuan looked at Long Xiaoyun, whose face was flushed, and was a little unbearable. Turning around, Long Xiaoyun shot and shot. Qin Yuan was covered in paint. Long Xiaoyun ran forward panting. "Oh, I Say, I said, how did your kid run so fast, and your face is not red and your heart beats."

"Long Xiaoyun, you have no conscience, this is going to ruin your future sex!" At this moment, Qin Yuan's crotch was filled with red material.

"No, how could I hit there." Long Xiaoyun blushed after speaking.

"Hahaha, I'm fighting, while you kid is distracted to look at the beauty, the beauty plan is really good, stop talking nonsense, go roast lamb." Gao Shiwei said with a gun triumphantly.

There are no tasks recently, and it's rare for everyone to relax. They ate barbecue and drank beer together, and praised Qin Yuan's craftsmanship. "I said Qin Yuan, do you want to stop working part-time in the cooking class?"

Qin Yuan wears an apron, "All elder brothers and sisters can eat well. I am mainly too busy, so let's forget about the cooking class!"

After relaxing the next day, Qin Yuan continued to take everyone to train. There was a collapse not far from the military area. Long Xiaoyun led the Wolf Warrior team to rescue. An Ran's medical team followed. Qin Yuan wanted to go. Gao Shiwei gave him a task.

A recent investigation by the police in southern Yunnan has captured a drug dealer, who confessed that the goods were obtained from a village near the border.

He doesn't know the specific transaction person. Every transaction is across a bridge. The person over there is wrapped in a headscarf with a dog. The dog has a bag with the goods in it, and then he puts the money Put it back in the bag.

The police took the drug dealers to the place of trade, and they were all wiped out while waiting for the trade, but the trader seemed to have disappeared and never appeared again.

The police also went to the village to check. There were no clues. The villagers were living normally. They planned to send undercover agents in. The undercover agents sent by the police squatted in the village for three months and found nothing.

This task is also quite arduous. After all, this time I was lurking into the village, and people with strong ability and high reaction ability were needed. The police and the military asked for help, and Gao Shiwei thought of sending Qin Yuan to take action.

"This task is not in a hurry. You are lurking in the village. As long as you find the whereabouts of the drug dealers and get in touch with us immediately, I believe you will be able to complete this task well!"

Qin Yuan changed his casual clothes and went to the woods near the village. He first sent some birds to watch. The village was basically filled with elderly women and children. The strange thing was that although the villagers here went out to work in the fields, they all did it. It looks like a lot of weeds grow in the ground, and the children here don't seem to go to school, and they run around in the village every day.

Qin Yuan thought for a while. No wonder the police would be spotted. Some children were hiding behind the wall. They looked like they were playing in the trees, but they were actually watching. A tricycle was sold in the village, but they didn't use their horns. After a while, the adults came out to buy things.

Qin Yuan thought for a moment that this kind of outsider would be guarded no matter how he entered, he still had to find a way to get inside. There is a primary school in the village, but there is only one teacher inside, and the only young man in the village. This teacher came out of the village. With a painful expression on his face, Qin Yuan stepped forward and took a closer look. This teacher should have a kidney problem.

did not take a few steps, and sat on the side of the road with his waist in pain, Qin Yuan smiled, and the opportunity came.

He drove up and said that he was going to take him all the way. The teacher was very grateful. He felt that he had met kindhearted people and was not prepared. Qin Yuan put out the message in a few words. It turned out that the teacher really wanted to go to the hospital for an examination. It has been painful for a long time, but he is the only one in the whole school, and no one teaches after leaving.

"The education in the village here is too backward, because they are close to the border, and many bad things are also spreading in. Although those children don't like to read, it is my problem as an educator. I just want to do my best. ."

It seems that this teacher's three views are very positive. Qin Yuan thinks there can be a breakthrough. This teacher is called Zhang Bo. He is the only college student in the village. When he was six years old, his parents died of drugs. Zhang Bo took turns to take care of and eat in every family in the village. Growing up with Baijiafan, Zhang Bo was also upbeat and was admitted to the Normal University. After graduation, he came directly to the village to teach in return.

"Why don't you recruit more teachers, so you can relax."

"One is that the village is too poor. I pay 800 yuan a month. It is still a government subsidy. I can only have teachers who support teaching and leave after a period of time. Let me tell you that the people in the village are also relatively xenophobic. Yes, so people are not long."

This village is really a big problem. Qin Yuan doesn't know if the teacher is hiding something, but it doesn't look like he is lying at the moment. Qin Yuan sent him to the hospital and called Gao Shiwei to ask them first. Control this teacher, think of a way not to let him leave the hospital, or contact the outside world.

Qin Yuan is going to use world-class makeup techniques. This teacher is about the same height as his own. It is not difficult. Pretend to be this teacher before mixing in.

Qin Yuan had already understood Zhang Bo's situation in the car. The conditions in the village are very poor. Zhang Bo's home is also in the village. However, to take care of the students, he usually lives in the school office.

Qin Yuan walked into the village with his waist. What the children saw was Zhang Bo, and they ran out to call Teacher Zhang good. Qin Yuan smiled and nodded. It seems that this teacher is quite respected in the village.

An old man in a blue tunic suit walked over in front of him, "Hey, Xiaobo, why are you back? Didn't you say you are going to take time off for medical treatment?"

Qin Yuan looked at the old man in front of him, what to do, how to meet people as soon as he entered the village, who is this, don't just show off.

At this time, a child behind jumped forward and called, "Grandpa Village Chief, when will you give us candy? We are very good guards."

Qin Yuan breathed a sigh of relief. It turned out that it was the village chief. That's okay. The village chief said, "How many times have you said it, you can't talk nonsense, so there will be no sugar in the future!"

The child covered his mouth and ran away. Qin Yuan slowly said, "I'll take some medicine first when I go to the clinic to prescribe it. It's okay. It's most important for the children to go to class."

"Bobo, you still have to pay attention to your body, these kids just need to write their own names anyway, don't worry too much."

It seems that the village head doesn't pay much attention to the education of the children. He chatted with the village head Qin Yuan and followed the village back to school. People greeted him along the way. After returning to school, Qin Yuan breathed a sigh of relief.

It is said that the construction of the school is actually very simple, that is, two houses are built with asbestos tiles. It is still a kind of soil embryo house. There is an office next to it. It seems that the village is poor, but the folkway is good, and the doors are not locked.

Qin Yuan opened the door and walked in. There is only one desk in the small office. A simple bed is built with bricks and door panels behind. There are many textbooks on the desk, as well as students' homework. Zhang Bo's handwriting is very beautiful. Every homework was carefully annotated, and there was half a bowl of leftover batter on the table.

Qin Yuan took a break and looked at the time. He could start from these children. In addition, it would cause suspicion if he had not been in class. Now it was time for the afternoon class. Qin Yuan rang the big bell at the door.

Soon there will be more than a dozen children coming to class, these children are of different sizes, the youngest is only five years old, the oldest is eleven or twelve years old, Qin Yuan asked, "How come just a few of you, other students? ."

A weak little boy raised his hand and said, "Teacher, have you forgotten? We came to class in the afternoon, and the classmates in the morning are going to help home."

Qin Yuan coughed twice and almost exposed it. Unexpectedly, the children here also implemented a shift system in class. There is a shabby blackboard in the classroom, a lecture table, and a few swaying tables and chairs underneath. The children are just like that. Go to class together.

Qin Yuan opened the textbook, and Zhang Bo made a note. This is a second-grade textbook. These children have very poor basic skills and can't recognize many basic words. Some children are too young and fall asleep directly. This teaching environment is really good. It's too bad.

Looking at these children, Qin Yuan felt sad. There are no young men in this village, and no one else pays much attention to education. It may also be related to the drug case. In addition to economic backwardness, the thinking here is still primitive. status.

After class, the children were playing outside. A younger child fell down and cried on the ground. Qin Yuan took her to wash her hands. The child was wearing a shabby coat and was stained.

"Okay, don't cry, the teacher will give you a piece of candy!" Qin Yuan took out a handful of fruit candy from his bag.

The little girl was very happy to stop crying immediately "Wow! Thank you teacher, we usually do games to have a candy."

"Can you tell the teacher what games you do?"

The little girl looked out the window and stretched out her little hand to make a booing gesture. "The village chief's grandfather forbids us to say, ", otherwise we will go hungry and be beaten. Let's play a game of guards. Someone will come Do you want to report, do you have to play?"

"Hehe, I will play with you later, the teacher." Qin Yuan was a little solemn, this is a bit troublesome, so I can only see if I can find a chance to go out at night.

After dark, Qin Yuan got up from the bed and went around the village to find nothing. He keenly noticed that someone was following him, and soon he met the village head. The village head laughed and said: "Xiaobo, you are not physically or physically. Are you comfortable? I was still wandering around the village, and I hurried back to rest."

"Okay, I took the medicine and I felt sick, so I came out and walked. I'm afraid it's because of the medicine. I'm so sleepy now. You should rest earlier, the village chief. I'll go back to sleep."

The village chief heard Qin Yuan said that he was too sleepy, and was a little happy. He personally sent Qin Yuan back to the school and then left. Qin Yuan felt that this was not a concern, but a kind of surveillance. It seems that these villagers are still very defensive of Zhang Bo. .

Qin Yuan pretended to lie down. After a while, the people watching at the door were also there. Qin Yuan changed his clothes and went out quietly with his face covered. On the way, he saw a villager walking towards the village chief's house with a flashlight.

Qin Yuan also followed and arrived at the village chief's house. Through the small hole in the earth wall, Qin Yuan saw many villagers standing in the courtyard. Apart from the village chief, there were women in their 20s and 60s.

"How is Xiaobo's place, Mrs. Liu's wife, you can see if he is asleep, this matter can't be sloppy."

Chapter 742: secret

At this time, a woman stood up and said: "Don't worry, the village chief, I only came out when I saw him fall asleep. In fact, we are all in the same village, and we grew up in our village since we were young, which is equivalent to everyone's children. Don't bring him to do it together!"

"Fart, he is the only college student in our village. I can't talk about this anymore. To put it bluntly, our village is all doing this. At least we have to leave a post for the village! In the future, if this matter is revealed, we will all go in. , You kids are still reluctant to count on Zhang Bo."

"Oh, the village chief, otherwise we won't do it, let us men come back!"

"Daughter-in-law Liu, I think you are also an old man in the village, why are you so ignorant? We have to do it, and we have to do it. Now there is no way, let's do it, don't talk about it, everyone. Go back to sleep."

After a while, the village chief took out a small notebook with a pocket next to it. Each family called for someone to come and collect money. There were hundreds of thousands, and the most was 3,000 yuan.

"Village Chief, your money is not right, right? The policeman found out by my kid at the time. It stands to reason that my house should be more than 200!"

"You are ashamed to say that the kid in your family was frightened by the policeman and almost told the things about the guards. If I don't deduct your money, it's fine. I know how much I will divide."

Qin Yuan looked outside, and it turned out that this group of people is not simple. It seems that men should bring the goods outside, and then the women and children in the village are responsible for covering and selling, and then the money will be shared equally among those who can do more.

Next, the village chief explained some precautions, probably not to let Zhang Bo know, and to go back and explain to the children to keep an eye on them. After all, the police have only come before, so they dare not trade recently, and wait until the storm passes. .

Qin Yuan was also preparing to leave, and there shouldn't be anything too valuable next. I didn't expect a twelve or three-year-old child to see Qin Yuan at this time and shouted loudly: "Grandpa village chief, come out quickly. Someone is peeking outside."

There is really no way for Qin Yuan to attack this group of children and women. Like the criminals before, he solved it with a flying knife, but these children were harmed by the ignorance of the village.

They could only escape quickly. Those women and children couldn't catch Qin Yuan at all. They jumped back to the room, changed their clothes and stuffed them under the bed, then covered the quilt, and continued to pretend to sleep. As expected, someone quietly came into the yard after a while. , Lie on the bed and look carefully.

The woman looked at it for a long time and was not relieved, but she came and knocked on the door. After she knocked a few times, Qin Yuan began to ask in a daze, "Who! What's the matter?"

"Oh, Xiaobo! Excuse me, I'm sorry to bother you, that kid in my family got lost, let me see if I'm here with you?"

Qin Yuan pretended to be panicked and got up and wiped his saliva. "What's wrong, how did the child run away at night? Hurry up and I will find you."

At this time, another woman who was a little old ran in. "The child found it, but he ran out naughty and fell asleep in the cowshed behind. I took it back."

The woman looked at Qin Yuan apologetically, "I'm sorry, Teacher Zhang, the child has found it. See if I go back and don't beat this stinky boy, I will disturb you to rest, so go to sleep!"

"Okay, okay, just find it, don't hit the kids when you go back, and rest at night!"

The woman and the woman next to her stared and left the yard quickly. After going out, "I said it's okay. It couldn't be Xiaobo. He slept so soundly and he was still rubbing his saliva when he got up. Please inform the village chief. An outsider has entered the village!"

The village chief on the other side was also anxiously turning around with his hands behind his back in the house, "I don't know who it is? Have you listened to our conversation? If it's Xiaobo, it's okay, I'm afraid it's an outsider!"

"The village chief, we went to see it. It was definitely not Xiaobo, and the clothes that the man was wearing came from outside. Although it is dark, I can see clearly, it won't be Xiaobo."

There is no way, the village chief can only arrange people to search everywhere in the village. As you can imagine, there is no clue after searching all night.

The next morning, Qin Yuan stretched his waist, so he had to be more serious when doing the show. This Zhang Bo had half a bag of cornmeal and some bowls in another house. Qin Yuan suggested that the stove squatted in the yard and made a fire. A bowl of batter.

Qin Yuan was holding the batter, squatting at the entrance of the school to eat, and saw the woman who came to him yesterday, the wife of Liu's wife, with two dark circles under her eyes and her messy hair, which made her a little funny.

The woman sent a few eggs. "Xiaobo, the chickens in my aunt's house have laid some eggs. Bring them to you. I heard the village chief said that you are sick and there is nothing good at home. Just don't dislike it."

"You can't ask for this, auntie, save it for your children! I have no problem."

The woman insisted on giving it to Qin Yuan and asked him to pay more attention to his body. Qin Yuan's tone was indeed concerned about Zhang Bo, and he would rather take these eggs into the office and put them in the drawer. I plan to look at it later. Can the woman find any evidence when she starts at home?

After a while, Qin Yuan checked the time and started to clock in class. Before in the car, Zhang Bo told him that he was in class at 8 o'clock until 11:30 noon, and the children went to eat, and then started at 2 o'clock in the afternoon. Six o'clock.

The children who came this morning were not those of the afternoon group. This time they were also a dozen children. After a lecture, Qin Yuan saw these thin children, "Children, what do you want to do when you grow up?"

A little boy stood up and said that he wanted to be the village head. The people next to him laughed, and those who wanted to be a train driver, Qin Yuan smiled. At this time, a boy said loudly, "Teacher, I want to be a policeman!"

Unexpectedly, the child next to him instantly looked at him with a hostile look. A slightly older child even slapped him on the head and shouted loudly: "Zhang Yu, look at me not to beat you, you are not allowed to be This, they are all bad! If you want to be this, I will kill you!"

Qin Yuan was a little shocked, how did the police become like this in the minds of these children, and asked tentatively: "What's the matter? Why do you think this profession is not good?"

The kid turned his head aside, "They are the worst people, and my father was taken by them. My mother told me that grandpa was taken by them too. They are all bad people. I hate them very much!"

The remaining children are also booing, "Yes, you can't be a bad guy, you have to take all of us away."

The little boy named Zhang Yu was so fierce by everyone, and his eyes were sore. Qin Yuan didn't know how to explain to these children at this moment. Under the influence of adults, he felt that the police broke up her family and made her No more father and grandpa.

In the world of children, he felt that these people are bad people. Coupled with the indoctrination of the adults around, the problems in this village are too great. This may be the reason why Zhang Bo insists on staying here. He still wants to change these children. , Change these villagers.

The village chief and the villagers were always worried because they saw the mysterious person last night, but they didn't say too much about valuable things last night, so they should be fine even if they called the police.

There was no person watching Qin Yuan at the door the next night. It seems that you don't need to go to the village chief's house tonight. In the second half of the night, Qin Yuan quietly got up and found the house of Liu's wife's wife. He listened carefully. The murderous aura long released by Qin Yuan was too scared to move.

There are a total of three rooms in her family, one is a cattle shed where the animals are closed, her children and grandma sleep in the other, and the other is where she is sleeping. The door is not locked, and it opens with a light push. .

Qin Yuan went in quietly. The woman was sleeping very deep because she didn't sleep last night, and she was still snoring. Qin Yuan has night vision ability, so she doesn't need to use a flashlight. This house can indeed be described by the four walls of a family member. The whole room is this soil. On the kang, there is a small cabinet on the earth kang, and a big box is pressed on it.

In order to prevent the woman from waking up, Qin Yuan took out a silver needle and stuck it on the woman's sleeping acupuncture point. Qin Yuan opened the box. Except for a few shabby clothes, there was some money under the clothes, and there was a medical certificate.

Qin Yuan took a look. It was a medical certificate for pneumoconiosis. The name on it was Zhang Daming. It seemed to be the woman's husband. There were six or seven boxes of medicines in the bag in the cupboard, all of which were used to treat pneumoconiosis. It's the most recent. It seems that this woman should be going to deliver medicine, so she has a chance to find the whereabouts of the man in this village.

Qin Yuan searched for a while. There was really nothing else in this woman's house. There was a half bag of rice on the table against the wall, two eggs in a broken basket, and the rest were some basic condiments. In this way, I sent eggs to Qin Yuan.

Qin Yuan also felt very helpless. They are not the kind of direct bad guys. They also have kindness. Although this undercover task seems to be simple, it is even more difficult than the vicious drug cartels he has caught in the past.

Qin Yuan went to other people's homes to search. He didn't expect that most of the men in this village had pneumoconiosis. Qin Yuan guessed that there might be a mine here before. The men in the village went to the mine to work in order to support their families, but unfortunately they contracted Pneumoconiosis, so I can only embark on the path of crime.

After two days, the woman was finally going to deliver the medicine in the middle of the night. Unexpectedly, the way of delivering medicine was very special. It was to put the medicine on the dog, and then the dog ran to deliver the medicine. This is the same as the transaction method explained by the drug dealer before. .

Qin Yuan intercepted the dog in the middle of the road. The dog didn't dare to move at all. He opened the cloth bag. Except for the medicine, there were two hard-boiled eggs. The others were gone. Qin Yuan took the killing intent by jumping long. The dog ran all the way to the cave in the back mountain and barked several times at the cave. A man came out to take the medicine away, looked at the egg, put the egg back, patted the dog's head, the dog was obedient. Turned around and ran.

I would rather see the man go in and follow him in. The scent of white powder was smelled just as soon as I reached the entrance of the cave. It was very strong, and there was a constant coughing from the depths of the cave. Qin Yuan lay on the stone and looked down.

There are dozens of men below, wearing crude masks and gloves. Inside are all kinds of drug-making equipment. Inside this cave is a drug-making factory. Those men are very thin and have pneumoconiosis. The erosion of drugs, the complexion is very bad, no one speaks in the cave, everyone is busy in an orderly manner.

Seeing this, Qin Yuan's undercover mission has actually ended. He found this drug factory, and now he can contact the outside world. On the way back, Qin Yuan is very entangled. These men are the backbone of the family. Once these conditions are investigated, Come out, those women are accomplices, so basically none of them can escape. There are so many children in the village, what should I do!

I checked the time and planned to inform Gao Shiwei that the Internet could be closed tomorrow morning. After dawn, some children ran to the classroom early in the morning. Qin Yuan squatted at the school gate in a daze. An old man came over with a bowl of noodles and passed by. After understanding these days, Qin Yuan knew that the person was Grandma Zhang, who lived opposite Zhang Bo's house.

"Xiaobo, you haven't eaten yet. Eat it while it's hot. You are not feeling well, so you have to go and see it quickly. Don't delay you when you are so young!" Qin Yuan looked at the bowl of noodles and some cabbage leaves, A bit of lard and soy sauce and a golden poached egg on top.

"Grandma Zhang, save it for you, I'll be fine!" The lover felt that the bowl of noodles was heavy, he had already sent the news, and the police would come to this village to take them away. people.

"You kid, why are you polite with grandma, eat quickly, go to class, the children are waiting, if it is not enough, grandma will cook for you."

Qin Yuan was eating the bowl of noodles. At this time, there was a traffic of police cars from the village. The old man ran out to look at it in a panic. Qin Yuan was sour at the moment. He looked at the children in the playground with horror in his eyes because the adult told These people are here to take their father away, so they are very scared.

Qin Yuan finished the noodles, and the old man ran over. "Xiaobo, the police are here. Don't come out. You are with the children in the school. Remember, you don't know what they ask you. "

I nodded willingly, and the old man ran out hurriedly. After a while, the special police and the red blood cell team came in. Qin Yuan asked the children to hide in the classroom and do not come out.

After they went out, they removed their makeup and took them directly to the mountain and went straight to the drug manufacturing factory. These ordinary people did not have much resistance at all. They were quickly controlled by the police. The arrest of so many people for the first time was enough. Forty-nine people, escorted by special police, slowly walked down the mountain.

As soon as I arrived in the village, the women in the village ran out with their children and saw that the man in the family was arrested. Everyone was very emotional and even rushed forward to initiate a conflict with the police.

Those kids picked up the rocks on the ground and threw them to the police, "You bad guys, get out of here, don't catch my dad!"

The scene was extremely chaotic for a while, cries, shouts, and curses became a scene. The criminal police detachment took out his gun and fired in the sky, firing a warning shot.

Chapter 743: You rubbish!

But the villagers don't care at all, and the children don't know how to be afraid. The police can only form a human wall to surround the villagers. Those who are too emotionally acted can only copy them first.

Sure enough, the scene that Qin Yuan wanted the least to see happened. The kid who said he was going to be a policeman, with red eyes, rushed to hold a policeman's leg and bit it down, "Let go of my dad, I hate you!"

At this time, the village head came out and pulled the child up, "Xiao Yu, stop making trouble, behave, you must listen to Teacher Zhang carefully in the future, you know?" The village head knew that if the trouble went on like this, it wouldn't make much sense. The ending is destined sooner or later, but it is too cruel for children.

It seems that the staying of these children can only be left to the state. The drug manufacturing factory this time involves too much involvement, and the amount of drugs is also huge.

After investigation, it turns out that there is a boss behind them. This boss directs these villagers to make drugs with them, how to sell them, and how to cooperate inside and outside. When the boss was arrested, he was still taking a bath in the footbath city.

Qin Yuan couldn't stand it, so he rushed forward and gave the boss a punch, "Fuck you, you rubbish, you killed a villager!" Qin Yuan's fists kept falling, and the boss kept begging for mercy, He Chenguang. They pulled Qin Yuan away.

It turned out that at the very beginning, the village was already poor. The outside boss discovered that there was a mine behind the village. After it was opened up, the men in the village went to work in the mine to make money, but the black-hearted boss did not protect these villagers at all. , These villagers got pneumoconiosis one after another.

The people in the village didn't know, they just knew that they were coughing all the time and they didn't pay attention to it. Later, the cough slowly became more and more serious. Some people even needed to hold oxygen for a long time. Some people died. Everyone started to pay attention. Paipai ran away, and now no one has been found.

What Qin Yuan remembers most is a woman kneeling on the ground and crying. "The medicine for that strange disease is very expensive. If you don't take medicine, a man can't live. He can't breathe even if he doesn't take medicine. He can't do any heavy work. To cure the disease, the animals in the family are sold. We just want to live."

There is no way, the disease has to be cured, and people have to live, and just like that, another boss, this boss provides them with raw materials, teaches them how to make drugs, uses the innocent ignorance of these villagers, and tells them how to avoid the police, and then I collected money freely outside. Before, these people were selling goods outside with them. After being caught by the police, some people were arrested. That's why the child started to hate the police.

Moreover, the raw materials provided by the black-hearted boss, the money collected from these villagers is several times, that is, everyone may earn 50,000 yuan at a time. This boss has to take away 30,000, and the remaining 20,000 will be slowly distributed to these villagers. , And then the villagers used the money to buy medicine for the family.

Qin Yuan looked at those desperate faces. There were no big storms and no danger of death in this mission, but he felt that this mission was really difficult, too difficult, and the children kept crying. So, because the number of people involved in the case was too large, the police found a house in the village as a temporary interrogation room.

These people are indeed innocent, but the things they have created have killed countless families. These are just one link and one link. They are also poor people, but because of their poor people, they have produced more poor people.

At this time, the real Zhang Bo came back. Seeing such a big event in the village, he came back tremblingly, shaking his head, and then rushed to the police and knelt down, "Comrades, they all don't know, it's the ignorance of this village. , They don't know this is illegal, please give us another chance!"

The village chief next to was very excited when he saw Zhang Bo, "You stinky boy, what are you doing here? This matter has nothing to do with you. You hurry up and take those kids with you!"

Qin Yuan looked at Zhang Bo. Zhang Bo's face was sallow. One of his kidneys has been necrotic. It should be uremia. The villagers in this village just want to live, but who doesn't want to live.

In the end, these children came forward from the state and sent them to the orphanage. As for the women who participated, according to the Criminal Law, the sentence was severely sentenced to the group without a direct system.

This time the mission was completely over, and when he returned to the military area, Qin Yuan felt extremely tired. Although he had eaten corn paste for so many days, the last bowl of noodles and the eggs given by Liu's wife made Qin Yuan feel a little guilty. .

Qin Yuan couldn't eat anything. Li Erniu lay on the bed and carried a bowl of noodles. This bowl of noodles was full of seasonings. Qin Yuan took a bite of a rich bowl of beef noodles. He always felt that the taste was not as good as the one given by Grandma Zhang. That bowl of poached noodles.

The people outside the door whispered, "You said what happened to the Qin team this time? I think it's because of what special feelings you have for the girl over there?"

"I don't think so, I'm afraid I miss the country life!"

Unexpectedly, Qin Yuan walked out at this time and looked at everyone and said loudly, "Everyone packs up their equipment and gathers in two minutes!"

Then Li Erniu and the others ran on the training ground against the big sun, and Qin Yuan's gun chased after him, "You rookies run faster!"

"My god, is this Qin team crazy? Did we say something wrong? How do I feel that I am back to the days of being tortured by Lao Gao?"

Qin Yuan shot Li Erniu in the ass, "That's how you guys can run fast, and tonight you all have corn batter. It seems that your daily life is very good."

Qin Yuan took everyone to train like this for a few days, and finally he recovered a bit. Gao Shiwei told Qin Yuan that the children over there were already settled, and some of them were too old. If they were not directly involved, let them go. Back, those children in the village were still there.

The country has arranged many volunteers. In the past, the village school rebuilt the house, built a dormitory, and arranged for teachers to go there. Because the children were taken to the orphanage, the children separated at once, and they were very emotional. In the end, the government thought about this two-comprehensive measure, put the children together and found teachers to uniformly supervise education.

Now these children are very sensitive to the military and the police. Qin Yuan changed into casual clothes and drove a lot of things to buy. Zhang Bo has been in the hospital for dialysis because of his serious illness. The children are supervised by the teachers and the teachers are also very troubled.

"The education of these children is too backward. All can only start over. The main reason is that the children's thinking is hard to change under the influence of adults. We can only do our best."

Qin Yuan used to see the little girl who gave sugar before, and took another bag of sugar to the child. The child had no smile at this moment. Everything can only be handed over to time. This result is actually the best.

Autumn passed, and winter came again. An emergency assembly whistle sounded downstairs in the middle of the night. Everyone got dressed and rushed down.

After everyone came down, they saw Gao Shiwei with his hands behind his back. This time he didn't know what task he had, but he didn't expect to say anything.

"Report! Excuse me, Team Gao, is there any task this time?"

"The stars are good tonight, let you come out and have a look!"

Everyone was speechless, this is not the time for the previous recruits, how can they rectify everyone like this? What is the wrong way of this boss?

"Okay, because there have been no missions lately, test your reflexes, otherwise, when there are real missions, don't drop the chain for me! Disband and go back to sleep!"

Unexpectedly, everyone just returned to the dormitory, and an emergency assembly whistle sounded downstairs again. There was no way, everyone ran down again, wondering if Gao Shiwei had played again.

Unexpectedly, at this time, Gao Shiwei was extremely serious. "The international police just gave us a piece of news that a major kidnapping of civilians took place in the Bassac overseas. This group of civilians went to travel. There are from all countries. There are four in our country. Citizens included!"

Because there are many countries involved this time, internationally, the kidnapped countries are allowed to form a team, and then go to Barcelona together, and everyone cooperates to rescue the hostages.

Qin Yuan and the others were fully armed this time. They carefully watched the news they gave before on the plane. This group did not know how many people there were. The news from the international side was dozens of people and they carried howitzers. They were mainly threatening these civilians. Then I want the international community to give them 10 million dollars and ask for other materials.

On the other side, in the dilapidated building, a group of mercenaries are guarding a group of people. A man with a turban is slapped angrily on the table, "Why are you arresting people from Yan Nation? I'm in trouble this time!"

"Boss, but we have so many people here, our equipment is also very good this time, I don't think it is afraid."

"Hehe, you really underestimate their strength. In the Golden Triangle area, how many people did they kill? The boss of their elite troops is a lunatic. So far, I only know his name is Qin Yuan!"

recommended, really good, it is worth installing, after all, there are many books, all books, and fast updates!

"Boss, should we let these Yan people go first?"

" "Idiot, is it too late to release it now?" They are our bargaining chips now, so wait, wait for all of you to watch out! "The mercenary was about to go out and notify the people below to be on guard. At this time the boss shouted again:

"And the most important point, don't kill the Yan Chinese!"

But Qin Yuan and the others had already boarded the plane and rushed to Basac. They gathered at the airport and then went to the small town where the hostages were kidnapped. Most of the team came. They all heard about the Yan Kingdom case and knew Qin. Yuan felt that Qin's mission could be easily accomplished this time.

The people of Jin Kingdom arrived slowly at the end. The leader named Park Yonghui was very arrogant. He brought his soldiers over and said, "Hey, I'm going to tell you something. I'll start this action. Expansion, I will lead you!"

"Hahaha, just rely on you, you still want to take the lead, go home and farm!" The soldier next to him began to mock him. But this Park Yonghui didn't care.

"I'll say yes first, I will only save my people from the Golden Kingdom in a while, I can't control you people, and it will depend on our performance later!"

Everyone got on the car one after another. This group of people hadn't started yet. They were already singing the song of victory in the car. Li Erniu felt very noisy, "What kind of military is this group? There is no military style at all. It is noisy. Like a group of girls."

"You also know that they are like going to a wife, so you just need to say a few words, take a good rest, wait for people but only save people from your own country, and within five minutes after going in, I will bring our people out, You have to hurry up to save time for them to save their own people, the province will delay others, right?"

At this time, Jin Guo felt that Qin Yuan and the others were talking big, and it was five minutes before they could guarantee the safety of the hostages. If they were to rescue them, they had already thought about it and wanted to create chaos directly. People who saved their own country in the middle, as for other people, let it be fate.

Qin Yuan still didn't know the vicious plan of these people. Qin Yuan took the map and carefully observed the surroundings. As long as he could go up, these problems were not big. He could bring out his own people in five minutes.

Everyone arrived in the small town where they were kidnapped. At this moment, the boat was full of policemen. The police were using robots to transport food to the kidnappers and hostages.

Unexpectedly, the kidnapper boss saw a special soldier coming through the binoculars, and let his subordinates shoot and kill a hostage, and threw the hostage's body at the door, "You didn't keep your promises and sent special soldiers. No, this time I It costs 20 million, and I need three cars, and I need to see the money within half an hour, otherwise I will kill one person in more than a minute."

At this time, the kidnappers were very excited, and more of them should be fear. They were originally a group of militants This time they came to Barsack for business talks. They encountered the police patrolling by accident. Under investigation, they were found to have problems.

The police led the people in a chase. The group fled in a hurry. They just saw that there was a coach in front of them, and they hijacked the entire car, confronted the police all the way, and retreated into this small town.

In order to ensure the safety of the hostages, Qin Yuan, they are discussing with the police outside to take out the money first, first stabilize the group, anyway, the last one will be caught.

[Send red envelope] Reading benefits are coming! You have up to 888 cash red envelopes to be drawn! Follow the weixin public account [Book Friends Base Camp] to draw red envelopes!

Qin Yuan and the others are still discussing here. The people of Jin Country can't wait to start to act. They sneak in from the side, intending to throw smoke bombs and create chaos, and take the opportunity to bring people from their own country out.

But they didn't expect that there was a powerful sniper in this group of militants. Just when the people of Jin Kingdom approached, the sniper inside hit a soldier of Jin Kingdom directly with a shot, and then another human body was thrown out.

Park Yonghui could only take people out quickly, and Qin Yuan stepped forward and kicked Park Yonghui to the ground, "What is in your mind? Is it a straw bag? This low-level IQ is also worthy to rescue the hostages. You just killed him. A hostage killed a soldier!"

Park Yonghui was very dissatisfied, and stood up struggling to fight Qin Yuan, but Qin Yuan's foot was stomping on him like that, he couldn't move at all, and the soldiers next to him also rushed to persuade him. Excited, directly pointed the gun at Qin Yuan.

Chapter 744: You are too weak!

Qin Yuan shook his head. It was really exhausting to partner with this group of pig teammates, but now is not the time for conflicts, waiting to be rescued.

At this time, the sky here is slowly getting dark, and Qin Yuan feels that an opportunity is here. The police have already prepared the money and put it on the robot. This group of militants also thought of using robots to deliver things. They were indeed very careful.

That robot was the size of a small washing machine, and it was controlled by remote control. Qin Yuan thought of a way to put money in a transparent pocket without using a box, and put it on the robot.

With so much money, the attention of those militants will definitely be attracted by the money. Their purpose was originally money. At this time, Qin Yuan rushed over at the fastest speed, directly controlling the boss inside, and then combining inside and outside.

Qin Yuan originally wanted to say that he rushed forward and killed all the militants, but he felt that if he said that, others felt that he was too exaggerated. In fact, he has this strength.

Because these characters belonged to several countries, Qin Yuan could only discuss with them first. Everyone thought this method was good. Other countries had also heard about the strength of the Yan army, and Jin Guo's Park Yonghui began to provoke everyone.

"I think you should think about it first. After all, there are people from all countries. Do you really rest assured that everyone's life is in his hands?"

He Chenguang stared at that Park Yonghui and said, "Then what can you do to get in? Do you have something better than this? If not, please shut up!"

"Hehe, one is your strength. I think you are not that strong. There are so many militants in it. On the other hand, will he go in and save the people from Yan Nation, and then leave? , What about the rest of the people and die with the group of militants?"

After Park Yonghui finished speaking, people from other countries also began to hesitate? It is true that everyone is selfish. In dangerous situations, he must focus on his own family's interests.

"Don't say anything? If I go in and do not rescue the people here today, then I, Qin Yuan, will go to the military court voluntarily! I will bear all consequences.

"Oh, there is no joking in the military? I hope you can count on your words."

"Right? I, Qin Yuan, never said anything that I couldn't do? The point now is, if I rescue the people inside? Then I want you to face me in front of everyone, and our Yanjun apologizes? Is this your small punishment for questioning and slandering us? Then you took your people to lift me in a sedan chair and walked around the city to the airport!"

When Park Yonghui heard Qin Yuan say this, he stood up angrily? Pointing to Qin Yuan, he shouted, "I hate you guys who pretend to be the most coercive. Don't you like to be a personal hero? Okay? I promise you!"

After speaking, Park Yonghui took his people to sit next to him? He said that he would clean up for Qin Yuan? Have a good show? On the other side of me, Li Erniu, of course they know Qin Yuan's abilities, they are not worried at all, to be honest, Qin Yuan alone is enough here.

At this time, the police began to put money on the machine. The arm of the 5 million machine was slowly bent. The police here picked up the loudspeaker and shouted towards the other side:

"Hey, give you 5 million first? This machine can't bear it!"

When the militants over there saw the stacks of banknotes, their eyes were greedy, and they stared intently. The first batch of 5 million arrived. These militants were very excited.

In the second batch, Qin Yuan asked them to put in two machines. This time, the two machines are all money, 10 million! The militants were very excited, and even yelled inside.

What Qin Yuan used was psychological tactics. These militants had no problem receiving the money for the first time. The second time the amount of money was greater than the first time, they would relax their vigilance and stare at the banknotes all the way. Go in with this gap.

The sky is completely dark, and you can only see the red highlights from the machine, because there is an open field in front of this group of militants are very confident, as long as someone approaches, they can beat him into a sieve, not to mention there are hostages in their hands. .

But Qin Yuan's speed is world-class after all. A buffer jumped slightly in front, and he rushed in quickly with his toes. The group of militants hadn't reacted yet. The boss in the head was holding it in his hand. Holding a machete, Qin Yuan threw out his saber, which was directly inserted into the boss's heart.

Next, Qin Yuan was extremely fast, and used a flying knife to solve the few people next to him. An armed man raised his gun and was about to fire, but he felt that his neck was cold. When he felt it, blood spurted out, he didn't even feel it. I would rather have used a flying knife to start first.

The people on the ground were lying on the ground with their heads in their arms. Qin Yuan's speed was very fast. She hadn't fired any shots yet, and they were all solved by her with flying knives. The last flying knives were a little bit off. The gun shot towards Qin Yuan, Qin Yuan only slightly tilted his head, avoiding the bullet, then picked up the pistol and centered the militant's eyebrows.

The people outside did not hear any movement at first, and then there were two gunshots. Everyone was worried, but Park Yonghui stood up happily and clapped his hands. "Look, I said that stinky boy is not reliable, what is it? A personal hero, he thought he was so awesome, go in and collect his body! Let's do our own thing, and act separately!"

Unexpectedly, Qin Yuan walked out slowly at this time, "Hey, who, who did you mean to collect the corpse?"

Park Yonghui looked at Qin Yuan in horror. He couldn't think of how this person came out alive, and immediately changed his attitude, "You said that the shot just now was the gun you used to block the hostage alone?"

Qin Yuan shrugged his shoulders and said relaxedly: "Everyone, it's safe inside. Go and lead people from your own country!"

Then everyone went into the hall and found that the ground was full of the corpses of those militants, with flying knives stuck in their heads and hearts, very accurate, and the hostages were unscathed.

Li Erniu and He Chenguang lifted Qin Yuan up, "I said that our Qin brother is the best, these little rookies can't hurt him at all."

The several citizens of Yan Country who were kidnapped nearby also cheered, "We know that Yan Country will definitely come to rescue us, Yan Country is the strongest, and Yan Army is always the best!"

The special forces of several other countries applauded one after another, really admiring them from the bottom of their hearts. They felt that everyone was not here to save people, but to pick up people. The main task was completed by Qin Yuan, and no one could reach him. That kind of speed.

The Pu Yonghui walked in, a little unbelievable, kicked the corpse next to him, and whispered "No! No, it's not true, how can someone do it so fast?"

Qin Yuan slowly walked over, "How can it be impossible? It's just because your strength is too weak and the gap between us is too big. For a person of your strength, you may really not understand our level."

Pu Yonghui's face turned pale and red. It was indeed what he said just now. I didn't expect this kid to really do it. The soldiers from the Golden Kingdom he brought with him looked at Qin Yuan's strength and did not dare to speak.

When everyone was loosening the hostages and preparing to leave, Li Erniu walked over and stopped Park Yonghui. "I said Captain Park, what did we say before, don't you want to be all the people and apologize to us Yan Jun? How so fast Don't talk about credit?"

Knowing that he had lost the bet, Piao Yonghui wanted to find a time to sneak away. When everyone hadn't thought of it, they didn't expect them to remember it all the time. He was also naive. How could anyone forget this kind of bet? And from the beginning, Qin Yuan believed that Park Yonghui would definitely lose.

In front of so many people, Park Yonghui really couldn't help it, Li Erniu and the others were also booing, brought their soldiers to Qin Yuan, and bowed a standard 90 degrees.

"Captain Qin, I'm sorry, we are too reckless. I didn't expect your strength to be so strong. I admire and apologize for my recklessness, sorry!"

The hostages in my own country are unclear, so why the captain here bowed with other troops, but they were all rescued by the soldier from Yan country just now. This bow is also right, after all, they saved so many people.

Park Yonghui thought that he would be more sincere. Qin Yuan shouldn't embarrass him anymore, but he didn't know about love at all. He was originally a person who had grudges and would avenge him, and he just fought a passionate relationship, but he used his life and dignity to fight the military In court, and this Park Yonghui also especially shamelessly agreed.

So how could Qin Yuan let him go, walked to the door, kicked the door panel next to him, and then threw an old mat next to it on the door panel. The whole person was like that, lying on Erlang's legs.

"I said Captain Park, don't forget our agreement. After all, mine was a military court at the time. So, your punishment must go. Let's go. Let's remember to go around the city, where there are many people. ?"

Park Yonghui clenched his fists, trying to get angry, but Qin Yuan shot him with a look in his eyes, and suddenly shuddered. Why is this man's eyes so terrifying? It's all to blame myself. How could I provoke him at that time? All capable bosses are very low-key.

There was no way, only to bite the bullet and call up a few of his soldiers, and they went over to lift Qin Yuan up, and everyone did not say anything. After all, this was just the one that Park Yonghui agreed to.

In this way, Qin Yuan was carried around the city by Pu Yonghui and the others. Because it was dark, he was afraid that others would not know, so he asked the people next to him to use the flashlight. That's it, you second-rate and they made a crowd of people around. Walked to the airport.

Pu Yonghui learned this lesson this time. This time he knows it thoroughly. Qiangzhong has a strong midfielder. At this time, I only hope that Qin Yuan will leave him quickly and take someone back. Qin Yuan jumped off the bed and stretched out. waist.

"Okay, brothers, we've closed the team and went home to sleep. I'm tired from playing today."

Park Yonghui watched Qin Yuan and the others walk into the airport, only to slowly breathe a sigh of relief. Fortunately, he was not the group of militants. Otherwise, he didn't know how he died. In the future, he really has to stay away from this person. The strength is too terrifying. He hasn't figured out how Qin Yuan did it so far. He just wanted to go back and train quickly.

This time Qin Yuan and the others not only completed the task, but also let out a sigh of relief. After they went back, they reported to Gao Shiwei. The senior four were playing next to him with the game console, "Okay, the brat came and helped me through this level. !"

"Team Gao, don't you care about our results this time?"

"You brat, don't you just want me to praise you? Knowing that you are great, there is no problem."

Qin Yuan held the game console to tell Gao Shiwei how to pass this level a little speechlessly, and then the senior four seemed to think of something suddenly, and said casually: "By the way, An Ran they are going to queue for a party, there is a character missing, I I agreed for you. You can go and find them when you have dinner. They should be rehearsing."

Qin Yuan looked at Gao Shiwei, what did this old guy do in a day, and he arranged everything for himself, "No, old Gao, I just returned from the task, can you give me a break?"

"I think your kid is very energetic now, or don't eat anything else, just go!"

Ping Yan, even though she said it, thinking about Enron, they went to the auditorium happily, and their medical team and several logistics staff arranged a party program together.

An Ran saw Qin Yuan coming in from the door and waved her hands happily, "Here, come here, you are the only one left! This role is not for you. I think you are the most suitable for the entire military region!"

Qin Yuan sorted out his hairstyle somewhat narcissistically, "I like this, I will cooperate with you in everything, and you will arrange it!"

Later, Qin Yuan knew what role he was going to play, but now it was too late to regret it. After all, he had already agreed, and Gao Shiwei sold himself to Anran early.

Then on the day of the performance Gao Shiwei and a group of leaders sat in front, because it was the auditorium, the entire military area was there, except for some sentinels on duty.

Li Erniu clapped his hands happily, "I don't know what role Qin Ge will play, he should be all handsome by his aptitude."

Then the show started, and Qin Yuan came out, but with a wretched appearance, squatting behind the stone of the stage props. It turned out that An Ran asked Qin Yuan to evolve into a gangster, and then the health team united and defeated the gangster. .

Qin Yuan, the gangster played really well, especially the awkwardness. He Chenguang in the audience said: "I think the expression of Qin team is his true color performance! I want to go up and beat him!"

Qin Yuan felt that the image of this rogue was really ruining himself. He was speechless when he watched Gao Shiwei who was snickering in the audience. He wanted to end it soon. When the Chinese New Year, he must re-arrange a show. Kind of handsome protagonist.

The days without a task are very peaceful. Wang Yanbing and the others have planted vegetables in the open space behind the military area and prepared to make some organic vegetables for themselves. Li Erniu called from the house and said that his wife had broken her leg. Li Erniu thought that there was no task at present, and planned to go back to visit relatives for a few days.

Chapter 745: Meet Zhang Xiaolong again

Qin Yuan drove him to the station for a ride. While waiting at the station, someone in the crowd shouted: "Catch the thief! Come on, catch the thief!"

Qin Yuan and Li Erniu reacted instantly and ran towards the yelling place. The policeman on duty at the train station was also chasing after him. Qin Yuan squinted at the thief running in the crowd, and he looked like a child. Qin Yuan lost a stone and hit the child in the leg.

The child fell to the ground in an instant, and Li Erniu and the policeman behind him worked together to catch him. Qin Yuan stepped forward to see that this child had been consulting the lurking task in that village before, lying outside the door and peeking at the time. It's him.

The child was fourteen-five years old, leaner than before, and his eyes were full of resentment. He stared at the policemen fiercely, and the police found the phone and wallet in his bag.

The police were a little helpless, "You tell me you kid, why can't you change this habit? I tell you, next time I will really send you to the juvenile control office!"

Unexpectedly, after the child got up from the ground, he didn't mean to be scared at all. He shouted loudly: "Send Grandpa if you have the ability!" Then he pushed Li Erniu away and ran to the far alley.

Li Erniu rolled up his sleeves, "This stinky boy, why is he so insecure? I really want to educate him for his parents!"

The policeman next to him grabbed Li Erniu, "Brother, forget it, that's also a poor child, there is nothing that can be done without parents."

Qin Yuan was a little curious, because these children didn't build a separate school dormitory for them, and they were in the village under unified management. How could they meet him at the train station again.

After Qin Yuan said his question, the policeman also patiently replied: "This child is the largest among the group of children. His father was sentenced to death. His mother was sentenced to 15 years, and it was also the most difficult to discipline. We have been sent back several times while running out? And we have always had the habit of stealing things. We have caught them three times this month."

"It's weird, why does he want so much money for a kid? He dares to steal things now, and seeing this disobedience, I'm afraid it will become a scourge in the future."

The police also agreed with what Li Erniu said? But everyone couldn't bear to send the child to the juvenile management office like this? Then his whole life was really ruined.

Qin Yuan felt that this kid was running just now? He was really good at his skill and more agile. He still had the kind of fierceness that he was not afraid of. He was a good soldier? Such a small thorn head? He entered the army and disciplined him. Is there a good way out in the future? If you continue to fool around like this in society, sooner or later you will have to follow his father's old path.

After Qin Yuan put Li Erniu in the car? He talked to Gao Shiwei about the situation here? He still wanted to intervene in this matter.

Qin Yuan and the policeman inquired about where the child lived? The policeman only knew that the child was named Zhang Xiaolong and they would send him to the shelter after they were caught? He escaped from the shelter again, sometimes sleeping under the bridge hole. Sometimes I sleep in the park and have no permanent home.

This kind of half-aged child is the most difficult to manage, unless he is convinced, otherwise he will not listen to you at all, he has his own ideas.

Qin Yuan went to find Zhang Xiaolong under the bridge hole? He heard the sound of fighting from a distance. The child was beaten by another group of gangsters older than him, and Qin Yuan stepped forward to stop it.

A yellow hair said arrogantly: "Damn, where's the wild boy? Get out of me, don't be fussy, be careful of me..."

Qin Yuan knocked to the ground before this  had finished speaking. The person beside him rushed over with a stick. Qin Yuan broke the stick with a punch, and that person also hit the wall.

At this moment, the gangsters were all frightened, and they got up and fled. Qin Yuan walked over and pulled Zhang Xiaolong up on the ground. Unexpectedly, the child directly threw away his hand. Zhang Xiaolong's face was now covered with blood, and there were wounds on his head. Inside, he held 200 yuan tightly.

Zhang Xiaolong is only a child no matter how hard he is. He is not as strong as Qin Yuan. He was taken to a nearby clinic to be bandaged and sutured, and the wound was treated. Qin Yuan took him to a noodle shop outside and ordered him a bowl of noodles. Zhang Xiaolong estimated it was. I hadn't eaten enough for a few days, so I ate it hungrily, and I was willing to give him another basket of steamed buns.

After eating, the child slowly relaxed a little vigilance. Qin Yuan held his hand and looked at him, "Now that I'm full, let's talk about it!"

Zhang Xiaolong turned his head and looked at the empty bowl next to him. He might think that he owed Qin Yuan this, so he said, "I got the money from my ability. They wanted to grab me, so I fought with them."

"Oh, how good are you kid, six or seven people are adults, aren't you afraid?"

At this time Zhang Xiaolong stopped talking, turned his face with a cold snort, got up and was about to leave, but Qin Yuan didn't plan to let him go, he was going to take him back to the village, to see exactly what happened to Zhang Bo and how this kid sent him. How many times do you have to run out after going back?

Unexpectedly, the child shook his head desperately when he heard that he was about to go back. He turned around and wanted to run out. When Qin Yuan caught him, Zhang Xiaolong realized that he couldn't get rid of it. Turning his eyes, he shouted: "Help, murder. This person is Traffickers, please help everyone, I don't know him, he wants to take me away!"

At this moment, everyone looked at Qin Yuan. Several people had already come forward to reason, and some were preparing to call the police. Qin Yuan couldn't explain clearly with a mouth, and then Zhang Xiaolong took advantage of the chaos and ran away.

Qin Yuan smiled, "This stinky kid is quite interesting and flexible, but I like to play the cat and mouse game the most. Let you run first, the cat will always catch the mouse."

When Qin Yuan grabbed Zhang Xiaolong again, he was stealing a woman's wallet. Zhang Xiaolong didn't panic when he discovered that he was caught. He suddenly hugged Qin Yuan's thigh, "Dad, don't hit me, I won't steal money next time. I was found!"

Qin Yuan has a black line on his face. What kind of operation is this horse riding? I'm sorry, because he was careless before. This kid is not suitable for being a soldier at all, he is more suitable for being an actor.

And when Zhang Xiaolong's tears were said, he dropped his nose and wiped his tears on Qin Yuan's trousers. Qin Yuan pushed him away with disgust, and the woman next to him grabbed the wallet. "What kind of parent is it, such a big child? Even let him come out to steal things, not responsible at all!"

Zhang Xiaolong found out that he had succeeded and was about to run away. Qin Yuan grabbed him, "I'm so old, didn't I just call my dad so happy? I will take you home now, so I can give you a good love. education!"

Qin Yuan tied Zhang Xiaolong's hands and threw him in the car, and drove him back to the village to understand the situation. Zhang Xiaolong was very noisy along the way, telling him to go to the toilet, he wants to eat, Qin Yuan was impatient, let him directly Pulled in his trousers, he knew this kid must be thinking about running away.

As soon as he entered the village, the boy calmed down, and suddenly looked at Qin Yuan and said seriously: "Since I have come back, there is no way. Don't tell Teacher Zhang about my stealing."

It seems that this kid is still someone who is afraid, Qin Yuan smirked, "You toss me so much along the way, do you think I won't tell him?"

"No, I'm sorry, can I admit my mistake, OK? I beg you, don't tell Teacher Zhang." Qin Yuan watched this kid confess his mistake, and it seemed that this wave must be a breakthrough.

The village is more dilapidated than before. After all, there is no one to live and no one to clean up. The villagers used to raise some livestock when they were there, but now they only live with a few families. The best thing is that the school is built. dorm room.

Zhang Bo was attending class in the classroom. He heard something outside. He came out to check and found that Qin Yuan had returned with Zhang Xiaolong. Qin Yuan took a closer look. This wave was getting worse and worse, and the uremia was very painful, he estimated Has been enduring it.

Zhang Bo saw Zhang Xiaolong rushing forward and did not beat her. He only saw the wound on his head and asked concerned: "Xiaolong, what's the matter with you? Why did you come back with another wound?"

Zhang Xiaolong gave Qin Yuan a wink. She casually gave a reason, saying that she saw Zhang Xiaolong being beaten by some gangsters on the side of the road and brought him back. The facts are similar anyway, but she didn't say that she was stealing things.

Zhang Bofu's seems to be very tired. Let them go in and sit together and say that Zhang Bo's condition has indeed deteriorated, and his kidney is not available. Now he is asking for a kidney transplant, but it costs at least 200,000 yuan for a kidney transplant. He doesn't have any. So much money.

Zhang Bo is sitting in class now. She really can't worry about these children. The government has also transferred some teachers. Those teachers give them classes in the upper grades, and Zhang Bo manages these young children.

Zhang Xiaolong sensibly went to pour water for Zhang Bo to get the medicine. This little dragon now looks like the * outside. Zhang Bo dropped two medicine bottles and only ate one.

"This medicine is about to take four pills, why do you only take one?"

"Oh, no way, this medicine is also expensive, save a little bit, anyway, a small amount is also effective, and it will be gone after taking it."

Zhang Xiaolong was a little anxious next to him, "No, Teacher Zhang, you must take the medicine according to the doctor's statement, it's okay, I can already earn the money!" After talking, Zhang Xiaolong took off his clothes and sewed a pocket inside. Among the scattered banknotes, the largest one is 100 denominations, and there are five or ten yuan.

"You child, you are still so young and you are fine. Don't worry about the teacher, and you don't want to run around. I really can't worry about you. My health is getting worse and worse. Up."

Zhang Xiaolong didn't listen. He counted the banknotes with red eyes. Qin Yuan also understood the general idea and called Zhang Xiaolong outside, "Did you steal the money because you want to treat Teacher Zhang?"

Zhang Xiaolong nodded, "Teacher Zhang is very good. He has never disliked me. He cares about me more than my parents. I really just want him to be less painful."

This child is really sensible. It is true that at his age, no one else wants to do anything, so he can only learn to steal things with others, but it is inevitable that he will be discovered by others. He has been beaten a lot, and there are many police officers. In the second hand, he told Zhang Bo that the money he stole was made by moving bricks to the brick factory.

That's why he had to run outside again and again, and when too many were caught, he ran far away, which was also encountered by Qin Yuan.

At the moment, Love Love admires Zhang Xiaolong, he is affectionate and righteous, and he is alert enough, but his temper is really mixed, but well, people with high ability have a little temper.

"I can save you Teacher Zhang now, and I can give him money for surgery, but you have to promise me one condition."

This little dragon heard Qin Yuan's willingness to take out the money, and immediately knelt on the ground and kowtowed to Qin Yuan, "I'm sorry, I was wrong before. I will confess to you, don't say a single condition, I will also agree to one hundred."

Qin Yuan pulled Zhang Xiaolong up, "Boy, remember, don't just kneel down casually in the future. There is gold under the man's knees. Kneeling on the ground, do your parents know?"

Zhang Xiaolong wiped his tears and nodded. Qin Yuan walked in, talked to Zhang Bo about the situation, and told him that he was willing to pay him the operation fee and raise his body first. After all, so many children still count on him.

Zhang Bo was unwilling at first. He didn't want to cause other troubles to Qin Yuan, but under Qin Yuan's persuasion, he gradually wavered. With so many children, if he left, then these children would really have no relatives.

Even if these children have some relatives, there is still hope to be released, but they will spend the entire lonely childhood and how they will develop in the future. No one knows that someone needs to lead them on the right path.

Later, Zhang Bo's operation went smoothly. Zhang Xiaolong was taking care of him after the operation. Zhang Bo's recovery was really good. After being discharged from the hospital, Zhang Bo went back to the school for recuperation to save money.

Zhang Xiaolong walked out, saw Qin Yuan on the aisle, and said with a serious face: "Brother Qin, I will confuse with you in the future, and you have the conditions that you want me to promise you, just say it, I am absolutely unambiguous! "

"What kind of mess, my condition is that you study hard, you have the ability, then you come to the army to find me, I hope you can see me by your own strengthQin Brother, in fact, I really hated you before because it was really difficult to accept the mistakes of my parents. But now I think I have to accept if I don't accept them. They did make mistakes. I will listen to you and study hard. We will You are my role model built by the barracks!"

"Okay, don't be so sensational, what a big man is crying, I just don't want you to go astray, you are still young, and there are many choices."

After dealing with Zhang Xiaolong's affairs, Qin Yuan went back. He was really looking forward to seeing Zhang Xiaolong again. He wanted to see if this child was the same as he thought.

Qin Yuan instantly understood the mood of the senior high school for training them. Under the influence of Zhang Xiaolong, he rushed to the office. He wanted to give Gao Shiwei a hug, but he didn't expect Gao Siwei to react too aggressively and almost fell Qin Yuan to the ground. Fortunately, he is good at it.

"You bastard, why did you make a sudden attack? I almost had to draw my gun, don't you know I am timid?"

Qin Yuan was speechless. He paid by mistake. As expected, Gao Shiwei is not suitable for tenderness here, and he is timid. What the * is this? Obviously he was the one to be thrown.

Chapter 746: Bassad

A few days later, Li Erniu also came back. His wife had no problem. She fell from the hillside while working in the fields and broke her foot.

At this time, Bassad, on the other side, is in an international prison. This prison is relatively special. It was jointly established by several national organizations to detain serious international cases, such as the Bassad in the Little Mao country. He was also sent to this prison.

Since Bassad was exposed that day in front of everyone who had lost the election, he had a lot of hatred for Qin Yuan. Although he was in prison, the inmates in this prison were not good people. It didn't take long before he found a few who wanted to escape. Associates.

Bassad still had some power outside. He persuaded these people to cooperate with him and escape from this prison. Unexpectedly, he also knew a mercenary Daming in this group. He was a drug dealer before. The younger brother was beaten to death by Qin Yuan himself.

So now the two had a common goal. After they escaped from prison, they would seek revenge from Qin Yuan. This is a recidivist, so the watchman is very strict, Bassad quickly thought of his idea.

During the day, Bassad and Daming were hammering stones on the construction site. The prison guards counted the tools every day. The two had never had a chance, and the wall inside the toilet fell.

Daming deliberately looked for the fault, and the prison guard came over, "You kid is enough to live, right? Since you are so strong, don't eat tonight, go and fix the toilet for Lao Tzu." Barcelona pretended to persuade him, but was called by the prison guard. Go to repair the toilet.

This is the purpose of the two of them. They brought out some quicklime when knocking on the stone. After the water boiled, they threw it on the corner of the wall. After a few more kicks, the wall fell down. Longer? The prison guard did not think about it.

After the two arrived at the toilet, they went straight to the destination. The floor tiles of the toilet were repaired before. There is a floor tile? The bottom is empty and there is a drainage pipe. This drainage pipe directly leads to the outside of the prison. The two worked together to pry up the tile. Next? Bassard is responsible for watching the wind? Daming jumped into the sewer. There was some sewage in this sewer? But it was not very deep. In the past, there was a huge iron net in front.

There is a big lock on this iron net? Daming raised the sledgehammer he brought in? He smashed the big lock directly. After passing through the iron net, there was a manhole cover. Daming looked quietly at the manhole cover hole? It was really outside the prison. , Daming is very excited.

Run back to tell Bassard the news? But there is still another place? Is this toilet outside their residence? The door is closed at night? Only the toilet inside the dormitory, so if they want to escape, they must find a way to get in WC.

But the gate must have the prison guard's key to open, and that key is always hung on the guard, so to find a way to get the key, one key is the key to their prison dormitory, and the other is the key to the outside door.

During the meal? A few people quietly put a small piece of rice into their pockets, preparing to make molds, and then pretended to have a conflict in the cafeteria, overturned the table, and the cutlery fell on the ground.

Daming took the opportunity to pick up two spoons and put them in his shoes. At this time, the prison guards arrived and controlled everyone. Daming and Bassard who were fighting were locked into a single black room.

When Daming's younger brother came to deliver food to the boss, Daming took the opportunity to hand over the spoon to him. The lunch here had to be reformed every day. This younger brother worked in the rough polishing area.

Now I need to find a way to get the key to the prison guard. After a few days in detention, Bassard was released. The prison guard directly grabbed the handcuffed Bassard and knocked a baton on his back, "You * this time It's best to be honest with Lao Tzu when you come out, don't cause me trouble, or you will be hungry for three or four days after being locked in."

Bassard pretended to be obedient and nodded. When approaching the door, he suddenly turned and rushed to the prison guard, with his head on the prison guard's belly. The guard raised his baton and beat it * Bassard's back. He took the opportunity to take it out and was already crushed. The flat rice, holding the prison guard, the key hanging on his waist, pressed hard.

The guards next to him also came to help. Bassad took the opportunity to throw the rice in the trash can beside him. After he succeeded, he let go and was knocked to the ground by the guards. The guards became anxious. This was a direct challenge to his authority, a baton. Knocking on his head, blood flowed down Bassad's head.

"Fuck, your kid is really itchy. Just when I came out, I wanted to go in again. I will do you well. Don't even want to eat when you go in this time. It depends on whether you have a long memory!" Bassad, lost all the confined single rooms.

Bassad woke up in the middle of the night, touched the wound on his head, and got up with his teeth. Now these pains are tied to Qin Yuan's head. After going out, he must smash Qin Yuan's body.

Daming released it earlier than Bassad, and walked to the trash can, pretending to kick the trash can, and seeing the white rice, he quickly hid the rice in his sleeve and picked up the garbage on the ground.

The prison guard had pointed at Daming with a baton to warn him, and Daming immediately lost his smile, "Sir, I'm sorry! I didn't pay attention, I will clean it up."

After I went back, I used a pen to follow the rice mark and drew it on the spoon, and then gave the key to the younger brother who worked in the rough polishing area. Because the polishing area was very dusty, the prison guards also wore masks and glasses and stood guarding at the periphery.

Taking advantage of the guards not paying attention, the little brother quickly polished the spoon on the machine and carefully cut along the trace. After a while, the model of the key was made, and the little brother repeatedly polished it, and it looked almost done.

Now if it is there, to get a chance to experiment. At night, Daming took the key from the dormitory and inserted it into the keyhole quietly. With a click, the lock was opened. The sound of unlocking was very prominent in the quiet night.

At this time, the prison guards also heard the sound and rushed to hear the news. Daming quickly locked the door, jumped onto the bed and pretended to sleep. The footsteps of the bath towels slowly approached, checking the prison doors one by one, and found that there was nothing wrong with the prison guard. Shaking his head thinking that he might have heard it wrong.

Hearing the prison guards walking out, Daming was very excited to call a few people in the dormitory. This time he finally succeeded. He only went through the outside door, and he had to fight with him tomorrow to experiment.

When the wind was released the next day, everyone stood in a row and walked out under the leadership of the prison guards. One of Daming's younger brother pretended to fall to the ground, causing chaos. The other two people blocked the front of Daming, mainly blocking the surveillance. Daming quickly unlocked. After a few tries, there was no response. Daming twisted again and the lock opened.

Daming locked the lock, and the prison guard walked over and tapped the wall railing with a baton. "You are messing with no discipline at all. All of you squat down with your heads!"

Daming locked the lock, and the prison guard walked over and tapped the wall railing with a baton. "You are messing with no discipline at all. All of you squat down with your heads!"

All these have been successful. Now as long as Bassad comes out, Bassad has to get in touch with the younger brother outside. They interfere with the communication system inside the prison from the outer wall. The system of hacking into the prison can make the monitoring invalid, but only two minutes. Time, because the time is short, the prison guards in the monitoring room will not find out.

Bassad and the others will use these two minutes to run to the outskirts of the toilet, and then go out along the drainage channel under the toilet, and Bassad's men will meet them outside.

A week later, Basad was hungry and he had only one goal in his heart, which was to kill Qin Yuan. The guards pushed and walked behind, shaking Basad, "I tell you, your kid is best Honestly, anyway, you bunch of * will die sooner or later, but the time is up to me."

Bassad walked out with a sneer. Daming told him about the key. Now he waited to contact the younger brother outside. Barcelona decided to do it in two days, because he didn't know when there would be a change, in case the prison door was locked, or There were other changes in that sewer.

"We have no problem. Brothers here are all ready, but is your physical condition okay?"

"No problem, it's just that I haven't eaten for a few days. It's fine when I can eat something. After I go out, I must torture that Qin Yuan until it is worse than death before letting him die. All this is caused by him."

"Yes, my entire gang and my younger brother were killed by him. I will never forget this hatred."

At this time, Qin Yuan still didn't know the conspiracy of this group. He was still taking everyone on the training ground. The vegetables that Wang Yanbing and the others had grown in the military area had grown up. They called Shanglong Xiaoyun and they had a hot pot in the cafeteria at night.

What Long Xiaoyun didn't know was that tonight was her birthday. Qin Yuan asked the master to prepare a birthday surprise for her. As soon as Long Xiaoyun entered the canteen, Qin Yuan carried the cake out and everyone sang the birthday song. , Looking at Qin Yuan's serious face, Long Xiaoyun was moved at the moment.

"Qin Yuan, thank you, and of course also thank you all, my brothers who fight together!"

After making a wish, everyone decided to eat hot pot first and then cake later. As you can imagine, the cakes were all used to wipe each other.

After it was over, everyone went back to their respective barracks. Long Xiaoyun was walking in front. He suddenly felt someone approaching. He subconsciously turned around and kicked. Unexpectedly, it was Qin Yuan. He quickly avoided and pulled Long Xiaoyun into his arms. in.

"You Nizi are really uneasy and kind, why do you think about doing something for your husband anytime and anywhere?"

Long Xiaoyun blushed, "I said, can you let it go, let's talk about it, you attacked me first."

Qin Yuan smiled and let go of his hand, and gave Long Xiaoyun a bullet. This is an armor-piercing bullet for a sniper rifle. The bullet is very long, with Long Xiaoyun's birthday engraved on it and a pig's head on the back. Long Xiaoyun couldn't help laughing. This gift was very simple, but she liked it very much. Then the two of them hugged each other without shame.

In addition, after Bassad in the prison contacted the younger brother through visits, the time for action tonight is three in the morning, because this is the time when people are the most exhausted, and it is easy to relax their vigilance. Although there are guards in the prison, the guards think There is a gate, so I can sleep for a while at night.

At three o'clock in the morning, everyone looked at the watch and took out the key to open the door. Bassard's men had interfered with the monitoring. Now the monitoring is in an abnormal state, but the warning in the monitoring room was looking down at the magazine and did not notice the no signal state.

After opening the door, a few people quickly passed through the prison guard's duty room and ran to the toilet. At this time, the prison guard in the monitoring room also raised his head and took a look at the monitoring. There was nothing unusual. Since they passed through the sewer smoothly, they were working outside. Under the response, he escaped smoothly.

Bassad sat in the car and looked at Qin Yuan's commended newspaper fiercely. He tore the newspaper to pieces, and he must let this guy die. However, his current strength still cannot shake Qin Yuan. After all, he had both previous military bases. Was destroyed by him.

Daming said that he could contact the remaining drug dealer organizations. In the past two years, Qin Yuan was too arrogant, especially the previous operations in the Golden Triangle. The entire drug dealer group was hit hard.

Daming went back to find staff. Bassad also had the remaining power. He still had the money. He planned to use the money to recruit some mercenaries. When the number of recruits was almost the same, the two men thought of a strategy to lure Qin Yuan into the bait.

Daming said with some worry: "We have all fought against this love relationship. His skill is indeed very good. I am still more worried."

"I still have a hole card. This was originally intended to deal with country D. It seems that I have to use it to solve Qin Yuan first. The germ weapon I developed before, I don't believe he can escape this germ. arms!"

"Hahaha, is still as thoughtful as you think, I will call the organization now, gather good people, and we will act together!"

Bassad sat coldly on the sofa, with a photo of Qin Yuan posted on the opposite wall. He nailed a dart directly onto the outside photo. This time he had to make full preparations and must let this person be broken into pieces. After all, if there was no Qin Yuan, now the entire little Mao country belongs to him.

Gao Shiwei called Qin Yuan to the office the next morning. It turned out that the International Prison had discovered Basad's escape, and he was worried that there would be retaliation. So he issued an investigation order to various countries. Once he found Basad's whereabouts, he would immediately report to international organizations.

Qin Yuan felt that it didn't matter, this person could not threaten him, but as long as he discovered his whereabouts, he would definitely be brought to justice, and he would be able to send him to jail for the first time and send him in for the second time.

Long Xiaoyun is more worried about the situation of Long Zhanjun. After all, he is not in Yan Country. Yan Country is currently the safer Basad, and should not dare to reach out to Yan Country.

Qin Yuan looked at Long Xiaoyun who was anxious and comforted her: "Don't worry too much. Uncle Long is very powerful. He was one of the best special forces in our country before, and now she can't even find him, let alone that. Where is Bassad."

"I know he used to be very good, but he is only one person, Bassad is cunning, and I am still more worried."

"That Basad didn't even know. He didn't return to Yan Nation with us, so this is no problem. I think Uncle Long is very safe now."

Long Xiaoyun nodded his head thoughtfully. Now there is really no way. I can only hope that this Basad can be brought to justice as soon as possible. Although Qin Yuan said this, she still can't concentrate, and almost started training. Falling up from high altitude.

Qin Yuan took Long Xiaoyun to take a look at Grandma Sun and Xiao Hua, so she diverted her attention. The two bought a lot of things. Grandma Sun was very happy that Qin Yuan and the others came to see the children. Because of the last time, this An electronic fence has been added to the gate of the orphanage, and two more security guards have been added.

Xiao Hua has been discharged from the hospital and returned to the orphanage. Apart from the physical injury, the child has no smile. When she was willing to enter the classroom, she saw Xiao Hua sitting in the corner alone, her whole body was very gloomy, Qin Yuan whispered to him. first name.

Xiao Hua raised her head. Although she didn't run over as before, there was still some joy in her eyes. Qin Yuan took out the drawing board and handed it to Xiao Hua, "Xiao Hua, you see this is the new drawing board my brother bought for you, and these little crayons, you like it. What color, would you choose a painting for your brother to see?"

Xiao Hua nodded, and Long Xiaoyun also came in to accompany Xiao Hua to paint? Taking advantage of this effort, Qin Yuan walked outside the orphanage and looked at the orphanage carefully? Still thinking about taking this safety hazard into place.

Grandma Sun came over, "You stinky boy, don't you worry about me doing things? Now the back is monitored? The dog holes beside the big tree have been patched up? I thought of everything."

"Grandma? I can rest assured that you do things, but am I out of professional habit? Just look around!"

Grandma Sun turned white and looked at him, and saw that he and Long Xiaoyun were sitting there with Xiaohua painting? That picture is really good? Then Qin Yuan took the opportunity to let her hold her grandson, he just smiled. Coping.

Qin Yuan wanted to take Long Xiaoyun to take a look at the pervert, but he didn't expect the local police to tell them a piece of news? That Zhu Ming is dead, but no one claims his body? Then he donated it directly to the medical school for teaching materials. .

This is the only thing that makes Long Xiaoyun more happy? Although that perverted death? But in the future, let his corpse suffer such a thousand cuts? After all, the injury of a small flower is a lifetime.

After returning to the military area, there was no news from that Bassad, and Long Xiaoyun's mood recovered somewhat, and training slowly returned to normal.

A few days later, Gao Shiwei called Qingyuan to the office. The traces of Bassad have been discovered internationally. He was lurking in the Kingdom of Jin, and a civilian was found missing. It was only after investigation that he was kidnapped by a mysterious organization. When the police found this organization It turned out to be Bassad, the internationally popular one.

He clashed with the police, and now he fled to the border of the Kingdom of Jin. The international community also issued an order to encircle and suppress the Bassad. Gao Shiwei also let Qin Yuan lead the team.

After Long Xiaoyun knew about it, she strongly urged to follow Qin Yuan. After all, his father was detained by this person, and he and Qin Yuan were framed before. He must be brought to justice by himself.

What the police didn't know was that this Bassad kidnapped civilians not to extortion money, but to test his bacterial weapons.

In a room, Bassad stood outside the glass door with his hands on his back, looking at the panicked civilians inside, and ordered a few bacteria bombs to be thrown inside. As the bacteria bombs exploded, white smoke and a pungent nose spread. the taste of.

After a while, the civilians appeared red and swollen, slowly began to rot, vomited continuously, and convulsed to death. After an hour, Bassad ordered his men to go in and drag the bodies of the civilians out. The first soldier had just entered. He fell to the ground and convulsed.

This was also Bassad's experiment. The next few people in chemical protective clothing went in and carried the body out. Although Bassad stood in the room with two glass windows, he still subconsciously covered his mouth and nose.

It seemed that this bacterial weapon was really powerful, and it was still effective after an hour. Now it is enough to wait for Qin Yuan to come to the door. Bassad contacted Daming and told him that the plan could be implemented.

On the other side, Long Xiaoyun and Qin Yuan also set off. They only knew that Bassad was on the border of country c, but no one knew where the specific location was. So several teams searched the border in batches.

Everyone searched for two days to no avail. They lived in the jungle at night. Qin Yuan took Li Erniu. They called a few hares to roast the rabbits for everyone, tore off a rabbit leg, and handed it to Long Xiaoyun, "Don't Have the compressed biscuits, and try the rabbit meat I baked."

He Chenguang said disgustedly next to him: "Please stop the dog food behavior of the two of you. Isn't it good to eat meat?"

Long Xiaoyun's face was a little red. I don't know if it was because of He Chenguang's words or because of the fire. Qin Yuan shot his eyes over, "You guy talks a lot. Jin Wan is standing guard, or you are alone?"

He Chenguang hurriedly waved his hands, "Forget it, Brother Qin is my fault."

Everyone rested for a night, and the search continued the next day. At this time, a message came from the intercom and found the trace of Basad, but he kidnapped some civilians, and now fled to the southeast, asking everyone to immediately support.

Qin Yuan and the others were rushing to the southeast. They just joined the people from the Kingdom of Jin. Suddenly, a group of militants appeared. These militants were international mercenaries, and they were all relatively strong, but I hope they would settle this group soon.

It seemed that these people were sent by Bassad, which proved that his direction was right. Qin Yuan led everyone to rush forward. This time, Bassad could not let Bassad run again.

After a while, Da Ming walked out from behind the tree, staring fiercely in Qin Yuan's direction, "Damn, this bunch of trash is really useless, but just live there for a few more minutes. There are wonderful things waiting for you. "

Qin Yuan led everyone through the jungle. At this moment, he suddenly heard the sound of the grenade pulling strings. He looked up and told everyone to lie down quickly, blocking Long Xiaoyun next to him, and the grenade exploded beside him.

Qin Yuan reacted quickly and quickly shot at the grass on the left. Following the screams, the bodies of a few mercenaries fell out. Unexpectedly, these mercenaries were still carrying howitzers and they were all calling Qin Yuan. Yuan escaped easily, but the cannon blasted the big tree behind, and the tree fell and hit several soldiers of the Kingdom of Jin.

Qin Yuan and the others quickly made a counterattack, and soon solved the group of people. The captain led by Jin Guo kicked the stone angrily. "Grandma's, these despicable people are engaged in various ambushes along the way."

"It's not the time to be impetuous. Let's take a break and adjust the bandage for the wounded. They want us to have casualties and make Bassard escape faster. So we fix it up and catch up quickly, just pay more attention to the surroundings. ."

Yuan Guo, who participated in the arrest, also sent information from the walkie-talkie. They were also ambushed over there. Qin Yuan felt a little curious. This Basad seemed to know their route, as if he had released a message in advance to tell the police where they were. .

Then Qin Yuan and the others were ambushed all the way along this route, and they began to love each other. They just thought that when Barcelona fled, they were ambushing people along the way, but they and Yuanguo were in two directions. Knowing their whereabouts, the news was deliberately released.

What is the conspiracy of Bassad, but Qin Yuan won't be afraid of him no matter how he ambushes over there, after resting here, Qin Yuan asked everyone to be vigilant and continue on the road.

There were two more ambushes before. A mercenary was injured. He knelt on the ground and begged for mercy, so that Qin Yuan and the others would not kill him. He could take them to find Bassad. This is just right, because Qin Yuan and the others only knew Bassad. The approximate direction does not know the specific location.

Under forced questioning, the mercenary also explained that Basad had arrested more than a dozen civilians, just to wait for the meeting to negotiate with the military so that he could escape.

He Chenguang next to him said with a sneer: "Hehe, he wants to be beautiful. We won't negotiate with him at all. We will just rush in with the gun and shoot him directly."

Qin Yuan didn't care either. Anyway, he had rescued so many civilians before. This kind of kidnapping was not enough to threaten. Anyway, Bassad escaped. In order to prevent him from escaping next time, it would be better to save the hostages. He shoots and directly solves this risk factor.

Before he went to jail because of his special status. After all, he was the younger brother of President Mao and was also a candidate for President of Mao, so he was only sentenced to life imprisonment.

Daming was behind, looking at all this coldly, wishing to feel that someone was following him along the way. This feeling could not be wrong, he suddenly turned around and met Daming's eyes.

He raised his submachine gun "Who! Get out?"

Daming walked out of the bushes behind him, "Old friend, we have met again, but this time I must kill you and avenge my brother."

As soon as Daming finished speaking, many armed organizations rushed out from behind the grass. These armed organizations didn't carry guns like the previous ones, but rushed towards the crowd with bombs tied to their bodies.

Everyone can only hit the head. After the corpse fell, the bomb exploded in the periphery. For a time, the explosion sounded continuously. The trees in the jungle splashed with soil. Da Ming aimed at Qin Yuan with a gun behind him, and he was hit by an armed force. The molecule blocked.

"Damn, if you're lucky, let these people play with you first." Daming is going to join Bassad at this moment and wait for Qin Yuan there, using a germ weapon against him.

This group of people are desperadoes. Regardless of them, even if they are beaten on both legs, they will crawl into the crowd. Fortunately, Qin Yuan's marksmanship is so good that they will be cleaned up soon, but it is a pity that Da Ming Run away.

Qin Yuan was a little confused. This Daming seemed to know him, but he couldn't remember the number one person. Li Erniu reminded him next to him: "Brother Qin, there was a very large drug trafficking organization we seized before. His brother is The one we killed, I remember when he was arrested, he said harshly that one day he would come to revenge."

"I have forgotten. After all, I have more enemies. There is no way. Excellent people are always easy to be remembered."

Long Xiaoyun gave him a white look. When is this guy, can't he be more serious? At this time, the mercenary who led the way spoke. He said that Qin Yuan's reward is very high. They are all affected by Daming and Barcelona. If De's employment can kill Qin Yuan, that person will directly earn 10 million.

"I'm a good boy, Brother Qin, I didn't expect you to be so valuable, then I would be sorry for you, 10 million!" You two cows smirked and joked beside you.

He Chenguang, who was next to him, patted him, "Can you be a cow, can you be more sober, and you don't want to think that you can move Brother Qin with your strength?"

"Hahaha, this young man is very thoughtful." Qin Yuan was very confident of his abilities.

Next, under the leadership of the mercenary, Qin Yuan and the others found the place where Bassad was hiding. This place was a private villa. It seemed that the area was quite large. He Chenguang walked over and knocked the big lock on the door with a submachine gun. Everyone walked into the yard together.

At this time, the mercenaries in the villa shot directly outside. Qin Yuan and the others took advantage of the big trees in the yard to escape, and then the people from the Yuan Kingdom also rushed over, and everyone instantly turned over the fire.

After playing for a while, a voice came from the villa, "Stop it all, if you are shooting, we will kill the hostages!"

Qin Yuan raised his right hand and asked everyone to cease the fire. This group of people really threatened with hostages, but what is curious is why they didn't run away for half a day, but stayed in this villa with the hostages.

Bassad in the villa was observing Qin Yuan with binoculars, worried that he was suspicious, and made people shout, "Immediately prepare two helicopters for us, and let your snipers retreat."

Qin Yuan made a gesture, Wang Yanbing gritted his teeth, and came down from the tree. Daming came over and talked to Basad about the situation. This Qin Yuan was really difficult to deal with. The ambushes along the way and the suicide squads were ineffective.

Bassad took the horn and shouted: "Everyone outside of you dropped the bullets in the guns on the open space in front. Remember, all the weaponsThe people of Yuanguo couldn't help but curse. A shot was fired, but it was not snatched. There was a gunshot inside, and then a civilian was thrown out, "You'd better do as I said, otherwise these dozen or so civilians will be buried with me, and I will live anyway. Enough. Sooner or later, it's dead, just pull them together! "

In this way, Qin Yuan and the others unloaded the bullet and threw the gun in front, "Yes, I am very satisfied. Now I have another request, Qin Yuan, you come in alone, don't you want to come here alone, other people? Don't make any small moves."

Long Xiaoyun next to him shook his head desperately. This clearly meant to kill Qin Yuan. Even if Qin Yuan escaped bullets in the past, there were still threats from the hostages after entering. He didn't bring any weapons in now, which is equivalent Death!

He Chenguang and the others stood up and opposed, and Qin Yuan waved his hand, "Don't worry, the person who can kill me Qin Yuan is not born yet, I will go in and play with them."

A shout came from inside: "Hurry up and make a decision. Don't delay your time and make tricks!"

The Bassad watched Qin Yuan walk over empty-handed, very satisfied, and asked the person next to him to hand over a gun and aim it at Qin Yuan.

Chapter 748: World-class corrosion ability

A bullet inside flew towards Qin Yuan, Qin Yuan turned over and easily avoided the bullet, and quickly jumped to the door. Bassad inside threw the gun to the ground in annoyance, "Fuck, this kid is just a ghost, so fast. ."

Li Erniu said anxiously: "I rely on it. Sure enough, these people are playing tricks. Dragon Team and Brother Qin will enter, what should I do?"

Long Xiaoyun frowned and was also thinking about how to deal with it next, but seeing Qin Yuan walk in so confidently, he should be somewhat certain, as long as he gave a signal, everyone rushed in together.

Qin Yuan stepped forward and pushed open the door. The armed men inside shot him at him. There were seven people in the room, and there was a staircase leading to the second floor. The armed men on the left shot suddenly and Qin Yuan turned over and jumped onto the sofa. Behind, gunshots became more intense.

Long Xiaoyun and the others heard gunshots rushing to their upper bodies to pick up equipment and rush in. They did not expect that at this time a dozen grenades flew upstairs. Everyone could only avoid them first. The outside situation was not very good, and Qin Yuan used it inside. The sofa is a cover, and there are three flying knives in the shoes.

Solved the last three people with a flying knife, grabbed their submachine guns and quickly counterattacked, all the way upstairs, Bassad shouted from inside: "Hehe, aren't you very good? Then come in and save these people! "

Qin Yuan kicked the door open and rushed directly into the room. He found that it was just a tape recorder of Bassad. There were six or seven people surrounded by it. Qin Yuan raised the gun and said, "Get up and follow me!"

Unexpectedly, those hostages suddenly got up and directly trapped Qin Yuan with a net, and they were counted! It turned out that these people weren't hostages at all, they were mercenaries brought by Bassad, but they underestimated that this net couldn't hold Qin Yuan at all. He flicked them hard and directly flew the people.

One of the people in this group rushed towards Qin Yuan with a knife. This person was Daming. At the same time, many germ bombs flew in directly. The people next to him were desperately trying to run out, but this Daming held Qin Yuan tightly.

Qin Yuan thought it was an ordinary grenade, and found that the windows here were also sealed. This Da Ming hugged himself like a lunatic, and shouted: "Everyone will die together, I don't believe in germ weapons and can't kill you! "

Qin Yuan's brows wrinkled slightly, the germ weapon, this is a new thing, Qin Yuan kicked Daming away, the germ bomb had already started to explode, the white gas spread instantly, the corner of Daming's mouth was bleeding with a hideous smile, in his eyes Li Qin Yuan was already a dead person at the moment.

Qin Yuan walked over and squatted down. The smell of the germ weapon was really strong. He pulled up the collar of his clothes to cover his mouth and nose, picked up the germ bomb and put it into the system grid.

"Ding~Congratulations to the host for successfully recovering the bacterial weapon! Please select the following skills!"

"1. World-class corrosion ability!"

"2. World-class immunity!"

"3. World-class bacteria transmission ability!"

Qin Yuan looked at this transmission ability, isn't this thing similar to that kind of zombie, he is a pathogen, this kind of thing is not good, he is not going to destroy the world, and thought for a while.

"System, I choose the first one."

"Ding Dong~ Congratulations to the host for acquiring the world-class corrosion ability skills. The skills are detailed and can corrode all construction items, including people!"

Including people! This is too awesome. Isn't this kind of corrosion just killing people invisible, it's a bit like the bones and palms in previous novels, this skill is good, Qin Yuan nodded with satisfaction, before his own body already possessed world class Anti-virus ability, so the bacterial bomb team itself is not a big threat.

Daming was lying on the ground and foaming at his mouth. The exposed skin was already red and swollen. He looked terrible, but his eyes looked at Qin Yuan in horror and kept saying: "Monster, you are a monster!" He did not expect Qin Yuan couldn't even kill him with germ weapons.

Finally, in unwillingness to breathe, Qin Yuan looked at the bacterial weapons in the house. He was fine, but Long Xiaoyun and the others were not necessarily so. So he asked the system "Can I absorb the remaining bacterial poison?"

"Yes, and these bacterial gases can also add a protective film to the host!"

Qin Yuan just opened the system grid, thinking about how to absorb it, but he didn't expect that the bacteria gas would be absorbed directly through his skin pores.

When Long Xiaoyun and the others rushed up, they found that the armed elements in the villa had been dealt with by Qin Yuan, and that Basad ran to the top of the building and wanted to escape by helicopter. Wang Yanbing downstairs raised his sniper rifle and shot it directly. Bassad's head.

Qin Yuan gave a thumbs up at Wang Yanbing downstairs. This means that every time he moves, he will leave a sniper on the periphery, so that the task can be solved perfectly without leaving any missing fish.

The people from Jin Guo were a little worried. "Why didn't you start shooting without discussing with us? He was the younger brother of President Mao Guo. He was killed like this. Xiao Mao Guo might go to a military court. This is in trouble!"

"I don't think who goes to the military court is not certain. The Bassard group is cruel, and even researches internationally prohibited bacterial weapons for their own benefit. The group of people in it died of his bacterial bomb and can be dissected by forensic doctors!"

"What! Bacterial weapons!" When everyone heard of the bacterial weapons, they all backed away in horror, covering their mouths and noses. After all, the bacterial weapons can penetrate into the human body through the breathing skin.

Qin Yuan is a bit funny. "You are too courageous. If something happens, can you still stand here for so long? And I was the first one to come in. I'm not all right. This bacterial bomb is probably a semi-finished product, and it has long been volatilized. ."

Everyone breathed a sigh of relief, but they still wanted to escape from this place as soon as possible. After reporting to the above, an emergency plan was adopted to let everyone isolate and prepare for inspection.

Long Xiaoyun looked at Qin Yuan with some concern. He was the first one to enter here. Will he have been invaded by bacteria and viruses? I didn't expect Qin Yuan, a heartless man, who is still finishing his hairstyle, Long Xiao Yun had a black line on his face, it seemed that his worries were unnecessary.

After a while, a group of people in protective clothing came, set up a tent next to them, and let everyone check one by one. After the check, no one was invaded by bacteria, except for the few corpses, but they still had to be quarantined before returning to China. , Also for safety.

This time, Qin Yuan and the others not only killed the international fugitive Basad, but also avoided the spread of bacterial weapons. They were notified and praised internationally and returned home gracefully.

After returning home, Li Erniu yelled that he would make up for it. This time he drew a lot of blood and wanted Qin Yuan to cook for everyone. After all, Qin Yuan's craftsmanship is indeed good. Gao Shiwei heard it and asked the guards to go directly. After buying some native chickens, Qin Yuan was taking a bath, and Li Erniu and the others rushed in.

"Brother Qin, have you washed it well, but we have killed all the chickens."

"Yes, hurry up, do you want us to wash it for you!"

Then everyone was discussing, Qin Ge's muscles are really good, and the proportions of this figure, Qin Yuan has a black line on his face, and there are bubbles on his head. This group of people looks at him like a pervert, and points. Covering the key parts and shouting: "Get out of here!"

After Qin Yuan took a bath, he still wore an apron to cook for the group of guys in the canteen. Gao Shiwei also came, chatting and laughing with everyone there, and he was feeling the influence of the human fireworks at this moment.

After preparing the dishes, everyone gathered around the table to eat together. Gao Shiwei said happily, "Not bad, don't you really consider joining the cooking class?" Qin Yuan pretended not to hear it, and immersed himself in the meal. Report news.

"Recently, a fellow traveler in Bailong Town, our city, filmed a corpse chasing scene in a suspected horror movie. For a while, it caused a lot of heated discussions among netizens. Next is the video provided by the traveler."

Everyone was attracted by the news. They raised their heads and watched the TV news. The picture was taken from a long distance. It was accidentally taken by the traveler while shooting the scenery. The leader in front of a mountain road was a Taoist priest, who was dressed like a decent. A yellow robe, ringing a bell on one side, there are seven people behind.

Men and women were invisible, with hats and black gauze masks on their heads, and large black robes on their bodies. The group of people followed the Taoist priest mechanically swaying his arms and striding in a unified step. The Taoist priests also sprinkled some yellow paper from time to time.

This video is particularly weird. After uploading the video of the traveler, it caused a lot of discussion. Some people said that it was filming a TV series. Some people retorted that there were no cameras on the whole road. It would not be filming TV. The following comments on what Gongxi Facai didn't intend to offend, etc., became a hot topic for a while, and people were worried.

In order to quell this feudal superstition, the government also sent police officers to patrol there, but nothing was found. Instead, it was spread more and more mysteriously by netizens. It was said that the police went to investigate, and there must be some destruction. Big case.

Gao Shiwei stared at the TV with a solemn expression, "I think this will get worse and worse. The official still needs to explain as soon as possible to calm the people's hearts. What do you think?"

"I don't believe in driving corpses. Otherwise, if we faced those terrorists before, wouldn't they all come out of the soil to make trouble for us? I don't believe in ghosts or gods."

"That is, I feel that if you die with one shot, you are dead. These media also add some random headlines to attract people to watch and create topics!"

Everyone was just a small episode, and they discussed it casually, and the dishes made by Qin Yuan brought them back to their minds. Gao Shiwei asked Qin Yuan and the others to go to the deep mountains to train and bring a few rabbits back to braise. The taste was good.

A few days later, Gao Shiwei received a call. It turned out that the video was to blame. Many live broadcasters went to live there to attract traffic to watch. At first, only one or two people disappeared. Everyone didn't pay attention. When a general disappearance case is handled, Unexpectedly, more than a dozen people are missing now.

In addition, some of the Internet celebrity anchors have millions of fans. This time the incident is getting more and more serious. All kinds of opinions on the Internet are mostly ghosts and gods, saying that those who have disappeared have been arrested and used as substitutes. Nearby The villagers in, also asked people to go there to do it, which made it a miasma, and now the police can only seal off that area.

However, the missing people are like the evaporation of the world. They can't be found. The police also dispatched police dogs. They didn't expect the police dogs to go to the bottom of the mountain no matter how to pull them up. After all, more than a dozen people were missing, so Gao Shiwei and the others were quick. Come forward to solve it.

Qin Yuan had been interested in this matter before, and he had never believed in these things, so he would just go and see what kind of monsters it was.

Wang Yanbing muttered: "Zhedi, now we are in charge of missing persons."

"No matter how big the matter is, as long as the people need it, we will mobilize, let alone a dozen people, this matter is not small."

Li Erniu was very excited along the way, "No matter what the  he is, I will pass this bullet and let him see the King of Yama again, hahaha!"

When Qin Yuan and the others rushed to Bailong Town, they knew why the police asked them to act quickly. The current network development is relatively fast, and this matter is fermenting quickly. Bailong Town used to have a small population, but now it is like an empty city.

During the day, the shops and restaurants did not open, and the doors of those shops were all posted with yellow talisman paper. The streets were deserted and there were a few pedestrians in a hurry. Qin Yuan squinted his eyes to the distant mountain, which was covered by A layer of mist covered it, and it seemed that it had to be resolved quickly to give the people an explanation.

The criminal police captain who stayed at the foot of the mountain had gray hair on both temples. came over to hold Qin Yuan's hand, "Captain Qin, your speed is so fast. I hope that with our joint efforts, it will be resolved as soon as possible. This event!"

The two met for a while, and the situation was similar to what Gao Shiwei said. The criminal police captain called Xiaofang next to him and asked him to take Qin Yuan and his party up the mountain. The foot of the mountain was surrounded by the police with a yellow cordon, and many police officers were on duty around.

Xiaofang is a young police officer in his twenties. He lifted the cordon to let Qin Yuan and the others pass. According to Xiaofang, since the police were on duty, no one came out again. There is surveillance at the foot of the mountain. This mountain is the only one. The road went down the mountain, and there was a cliff behind. The surveillance only captured those anchors going up the mountain, but did not come down.

In a short while, I arrived at the dirt road in the video. Because of the fermentation of the video, many people came here admiringly. The surrounding bushes were stepped out of several paths. After Xiao Fang took it to the place, he went down the mountain.

Qin Yuan asked everyone to scatter and look for clues. There were too many footprints here, and there was a heavy rain just two days ago, and many valuable things were destroyed. After searching for a while, Qin Yuan understood why the police dog did not go up the mountain. Miasma secretes a gas that interferes with animals.

As a result, there are very few birds and birds in the forest, but there are small animals, so the jungle is extremely quiet, but this also made Qin Yuan hear a voice of people talking.

"Whatever the situation, the military people are dispatched, this time the matter is getting worse!"

"Don't panic, you go report to the elder first and see what to do next, I will continue to observe here."

Qin Yuan smiled. It seems that this group of people are not missing. They are underground, but it is hard to see where the entrance of the agency is in this big mountain. Moreover, these people are in the dark, and they are in the bright place. Quietly made a gesture to everyone.

Chapter 749: play in movie?

Say loudly: "There is nothing wrong with this film. I think that group of anchors should have descended from other places, and the team should be taken first!"

He Chenguang and the others immediately reacted and went down the mountain together. Qin Yuan asked the criminal police detachment leader to withdraw the blockade. Since he already knew where these people were, then so many people would definitely not come out guarding them.

After the police were removed, Qin Yuan asked He Chenguang and Wang Yanbing to lie in wait at the foot of the mountain. If there was any situation, he would report at any time. After dark, he took the rest of the people up the mountain together. Everyone put on night vision goggles. They were trained. It is not difficult to enter this kind of jungle with a low voice.

Everyone kept lying in the grass until midnight. He Chenguang's voice came from the headset: "Captain, there is an abnormal situation in a sewer manhole cover under three feet. Someone lifted the manhole cover to look out."

"Okay, keep watching and don't expose it."

After a while, Qin Yuan and the others also had movement. On a hillside, the clods of soil kept shaking off, and then a wooden board was exposed, the wooden board opened, and two people got out from behind.

"Unexpectedly, they really withdrew their troops. Hahahaha, finally they have to move around. Under this cave every day, I almost become a mouse."

"Okay, don't talk for now, look around for anything unusual? If not, go and report to the elder."

The two people looked around with their flashlights and almost stepped on Li Erniu. Fortunately, their disguise was in place and they were not found.

The two checked, there is no abnormality? Go in again through that passageway. A mechanism is set up at the passageway to close the board. After that, the soil on the top will automatically fall off and cover the board. Seen from the outside, there is nothing unusual. .

Qin Yuan planned to go in from this tunnel entrance to check the situation inside? Lie on the wooden board and listen carefully? There was no footsteps, the two should have gone far away? Everyone opened the wooden board and jumped in.

I just got off the tunnel, and suddenly it's bright? It's brightly lit inside? It's a long passage with simple wires and lights. The passage is a bit narrow and everyone has to bend? How many people walk in along the passage and appear There are three forks in the road? All three passages have wind? It means that they are all passable. Qin Yuan listened carefully to the passage on the left, and someone spoke.

Everyone entered the left passage together, and exited a passage full of dirt roads. The space in front gradually expanded and turned into stone chambers paved with stone bricks. The walls of these stone chambers are carved with some ancient mythological characters? For example, eighteen arhats, and Four generals.

Four rooms were divided in front, and the voice of speaking came from the room. Qin Yuan made a gesture and was about to push the stone door hard. He didn't grab it. The stone door was not locked at all, and he pushed it open gently.

There were seven or eight people sitting inside, all wearing black robes, holding books and carrying something on their back. Seeing Qin Yuan and the others came in, they were shocked at first, and then they realized that they wanted to escape, and they were held down by Qin Yuan.

It turns out that these people are the anchors who were missing, but they are all scattered, which is similar to a dormitory.

"Why are you hiding in this basement and not contacting the outside world? You are afraid that you don't know the outside, because you are all in a mess."

A girl with a ponytail took off her cape and madly said: "No, we are not hiding, we are receiving the baptism of the gods, you ordinary people do not understand, God is washing away our sins!"

A man next to him also said with eyes full of light: "I am guilty, here is the Lord God who has washed away my sins for me, and I do not want to leave at all. I am willing to follow the steps of Lord God!"

Qin Yuan frowned, what is this, what is the baptism of the gods, this is more like a Christian organization, it seems that this group of people have been brainwashed, but they still persuaded them to leave with him, unexpectedly this group of people would be indifferent at all. , It seems that I will know what the Lord Lord is going to go for a while,

Qin Yuan thought of an idea to let these people take off their black robes, and wanted to get into this group of organizations to see the Lord Lord. Originally, they wanted to persecute them, but when they heard that they were going to see Lord Lord, they couldn't wait. Take off the black robe.

"Go, you poor people, we will be a family soon, and when you see Lord God, let's wash our sins together!"

Li Erniu shook his head, thinking that this group of people was crazy. Qin Yuan left one person here and guarded them here to avoid sabotaging the plan. The remaining few wore black robes. Fortunately, the black robes were big and the guns were kept away. It is not easy to see from the back.

At this time, a man said: "No, you can't see Lord God now. Now he has rested. You can pray for Lord God to wash away our sins in the hall at 8 o'clock tomorrow morning!"

Qin Yuan raised his hand and looked at his watch. After this tossing, it is now past three o'clock, and it will be dawn in a few hours, so take a rest here and wait until dawn and the group will gather for better control.

Qin Yuan was sitting on the ground, and then he looked at the stone room carefully. There were some incomprehensible scriptures engraved on the walls. The group of people were holding some scriptures in their hands, nearly chanting the contents of the scriptures crazy, and went to the girl to say The more they practice, the sooner their sins will be washed away, so that they don't have to suffer until the next life.

Qin Yuan thinks this kind of nonsense is really terrifying, especially that  master directly controls their brains. This group of people is brainwashed. Maybe the  master, they pick up guns and fight against the country, they can do it. .

There is no bed here, but a large palm tree mat is spread on the ground to keep out moisture. There are some simple quilts on it. The men sleep on the left and the women sleep on the right.

Waiting until dawn, Qin Yuan and the others walked out of the stone room wearing long robes. The few people said that the hall was in the third passage, and they were very excited to show Qin Yuan and the others the way.

After Qin Yuan and the others came out, they ran into many people wearing black robes. These people came out of different stone chambers and they were quiet along the way. These people were holding scriptures in their hands. When they got to the hall, Qin Yuan looked at them. , There were almost thirty people, and then these black-robed people sat cross-legged on the ground.

After a while, a middle-aged man in a white robe came out from the door on the left. As soon as this person came out, these believers couldn't wait to shout "My Lord God!" The atmosphere of the whole crowd was high and very excited.

Qin Yuan could also shout vigorously when he saw Li Erniu next to him, and quietly poked him, Li Erniu turned around and smiled and said, "Brother Qin, this is too fun! It's like acting on TV."

"Can you learn from others? I haven't seen you call me like that. This is a good life. I will call me out like this in the future, you know, you have a face."

Everyone had a black line on their faces, and then the Lord Lord began to speak, "I know that all living beings are suffering, and everyone has sins, and I was sent by God to wash away your sins.

All things have spirits, and God has the virtue of living well. , As long as you follow the steps of the gods and wash away your sins as soon as possible, the next life will not be so painful."

This  has been talking about Barabara. From what parents talked about brothers and sisters, it really was the brainwashing pattern. The people below were crying and crying, and some people shouted that they were sinful and guilty.

At this time, Qin Yuan raised his hand to indicate a question. The Lord God was very dissatisfied when his wonderful speech was interrupted, but he nodded and asked Qin Yuan to speak.

"I want to ask, since we are all guilty, where is your sin?"

The person next to him yelled, "Why are you so ignorant of etiquette? You must add Lord God before asking questions. Lord Lord God is sent by God to wash away our sins. How can he be sinful? He is a great man!"

Li Erniu and the others couldn't listen to it, and laughed in the audience. What age is this, and Lord God, this group of people is afraid that they have watched too many TV shows.

Unexpectedly, the divine lord was still not angry, and slowly said with a smile: "This friend, it is normal to have questions. Our sins are divided into many kinds. Confronting the elders, disrespecting parents and not treating friends well, these are sins, but The worst sin is killing."

Li Erniu stood up and said, "But I have never killed a person, and I dare not even kill a chicken. Then I am not sinful?"

"Although you didn't kill directly, but let me give you an example. It's like you want to eat beef. Although you didn't kill the cow directly, but you ate it, you caused a causal killing."

"Hahaha, you bastard, you can really talk about it. If you say this, I am afraid that my murder will be heavy. I have killed so many terrorists with bullets. Do you think my sins can be cleaned up?"

At this time, the  master began to panic, terrorist? Could it be that these people are members of the military, but how did they get in? Why didn't they notice it at all, it was obvious that they had withdrawn.

"You, who are you? I have never seen you, you are not my followers!"

At this time Qin Yuan and the others took off their black robes and took out their guns and shouted loudly: "The soldiers of the Yan Kingdom are performing their tasks, and they hold their heads and squat down!"

The Lord Divine Master panicked completely. Just about to escape, Qin Yuan's speed was faster, and he threw the rope directly, tripped his feet, and dragged him back.

Some believers shouted: "You can't treat the Lord God like this, you will suffer retribution like this!"

"My lord, you quickly use your spells to punish them and punish these wicked people!"

The so-called Lord God still wanted to struggle at the last moment, "You ignorant humans, I will punish you in place of the gods!" Then he took out a piece of talisman paper, fanned it twice, and the talisman paper ignited out of thin air. , And then took out a few small people cut out of white paper.

"Let me tell you, if you confess your sins now, then I will not investigate, otherwise I will burn your souls to ashes!"

"My Lord God, you have done a great job, Lord God Lord has boundless powers, believe in my God Lord and gain eternal life!" Those believers knelt on the ground and kept kowtow.

Qin Yuan shrugged, this group of people is really brainwashed, really hopeless, planning to watch this person perform, the  sees that they are not afraid, gritted his teeth, intends to act to the end, and took it out of the bag. A small bottle spilled some liquid on the villain, chanting some messy formulas, and then the villain suddenly turned red and spontaneously ignited!

"I tell you, your souls are burned by the fire of my  and will be reduced to ashes in seven or seventy-nine days!"

Qin Yuan directly took out the handcuffs and handcuffed him to his hands. He smelled some sulfur and white phosphorus on his body. It seemed that they were all tricks. Those believers were a little excited and shouted when they saw their Lord Lord being arrested. Kai Divine Lord, he also took the opportunity to direct the followers to come up to save himself, Qin Yuan did not speak, and took out a few pieces of talisman paper from the man's robe.

"Love my Yanjun, evil is invincible!" The talisman paper ignites spontaneously after I just said it. This talisman paper is coated with white phosphorus. It will spontaneously ignite when it encounters air. The rest are drawn on the talisman paper with sulfur. The illusions created by chemical volatilization are all bluffing things.

"What's the situation? He can even use mana!"

Li Erniu was holding his stomach with a smile beside him, "It's still seven or forty-nine days, please turn me into ashes now, you really laugh at me, are you going to have some acting skills? My fortune teller downstairs is foolish. Ability is better than you."

Those believers still couldn't believe it. A man beat the floor, "No, this is impossible. How could Lord Lord lie to me? I have given you all of my wealth! This is not true!" Qin Yuan felt helpless and took it. Take out the intercom and let the criminal police captain lead people down and start to close the team.

After investigation, the leader of this Christian organization is called Zhang Jun. He used to be a health care product seller, who specializes in fooling the elderly. Now the country has strict control and health care products are not sold well, and he is still a wanted criminal because he was wanted for fraud. Yes, I stumbled upon an underground stone chamber here before, and worked with his accomplices to transform it into a Christian organization.

Through some deceptive tricks, these victims were brainwashed, and then collected money, used the money obtained by fraud to be happy and happy, and then continued to pull people into the organization, and the video was accidentally taken by the donkey before.

That's because they used local legends. secretly smuggled goods in the middle of the night. It was through this method. After all, there is a kind of mysterious and terrifying color in corpse removal, and most people don't dare to inquire. .

I was accidentally photographed by a fellow traveler, so I could only use the plan. Some people had joined the organization before, and the anchors who came to live broadcast, after a flicker, left these people in the mountains.

Originally thinking that the time was right to continue to defraud money, I did not expect that the fermentation of this matter was beyond their control. The police quickly surrounded and isolated them. They could not get out and could only hide in this mountain. Fortunately, these people had stored food before. Otherwise, so many people can hardly imagine.

The matter came to the ground, and the media also accelerated the report on this matter. This Christian organization is not a minor harm. The police's vehicles are on the streets of Bailong Town, patrolling and repeating reports. In the end, the sun also passes through the mist, Bailong Town. The peace of the past was restored.

When Zhang Jun was taken into the car, he looked at Qin Yuan, "You killed so many people, why are you not afraid of what I said!"

"You, Brother Qin, I am all righteous, you must remember that if evil does not suppress the righteousness, Lao Tzu is born to clean up your evil group!"

Chapter 750: Go to grassroots study

Li Erniu and the others shouted at the back, "Congratulations to Qin Gong, congratulations to Qin Gong. The high team at home has bought food for you to go home and cook. The children are hungry."

Qin Yuan has a black line on his face. These guys are really becoming more and more sophisticated, and they have become collaborators, but wait, what the * is Qin Gong?

Li Erniu ran and said, "Duke Qin, hahahaha!"

Hey! This stinky kid still teased himself like this. Qin Yuan chased him. Everyone got in the car and left with a smile. The detective captain of Bailong Town looked at the energetic Yan army. No matter what, this incident Finally passed.

After Qin Yuan went back, Gao Shiwei threw his apron directly, "The fish caught in the morning, do you think it is a sauerkraut fish or a braised fish."

"Team Gao, I just came back from finishing the task. I'm too tired, no way. Why do I feel so dizzy."

Gao Shiwei smiled, "The weather is good today, it is suitable for a 20-kilometer rush."

"Wait a minute, I will cook one piece of braised fish with pickled cabbage, which will satisfy you."

Everyone is full of praise for Qin Yuan's craftsmanship. The weather is getting colder. Qin Yuan took a look and called grandma grandmother. He planned to buy some winter materials. He didn't expect grandma grandma to say, "You didn't buy it a few days ago. Do you have a lot of quilts, clothes, and coal for your leader to send over? Don't spend money, grandma, don't worry about it."

After hanging up the phone, Qin Yuan looked at Gao Shiwei who was playing chess on the opposite side. He walked over and just wanted to speak, "Don't talk too much, you kid, I don't know anything, come and play with me!" Qin Yuan felt a little warm inside. , Maybe this is the kind of brotherhood that only the troops have.

After the training, He Chenguang found Qin Yuan and him for a few days off. A brother who had been retired from the original army was now a criminal police officer in their local public security bureau, and he was in the crime squad. He was promoted this time and became them. The leader of the serious case team.

I've always wanted to get together with him before, but I don't have time. I don't have any tasks during this time. I want to meet him to celebrate his promotion? The training is finished, and Qin Yuan feels bored in the barracks. So I wanted to take a look with He Chenguang.

Gao Shiwei agreed here too? He also called there specifically, saying that anyway, if the two of them go down, they should go to study? Qin Yuan thinks this old Gao really wants to work and is crazy? He was just a friend. A small gathering in between? This turned into where they both went to study.

But why not learn from them at the grassroots level? After all, they are also inseparable from the criminal investigation tracking? Like tracking militants and terrorist organizations, they all rely on keen observation and analysis? More learning means more progress.

After Qin Yuan and the two got out of the car? A dark and strong man walked over with a small scar on his eyebrows. He saw He Chenguang running over excitedly? "Oh! He Chenguang, haven't seen him for so many years? Nothing has changed! This military posture is good? Very standard."

"It's good for you guys? Now you are the leader of the serious crime team? Not bad, but you have to entertain us in your place this time."

"Everyone has their own development, and you are the heroes of our country. You have seen your reports on TV several times. Although you did not show up, our criminal police are responsible for the grassroots level and you are responsible for the peripheral tasks of the entire country. ? Division of labor and cooperation!"

He Chenguang also happily introduced to Qin Yuan, "Brother Qin, his name is Yang Liang, and we all call him Liangzi. He used to be in the same company with me, and he will be discharged after separation. He has a good relationship with me, Li Erniu." Yuan also greeted this Yang Liang.

Yang Liang took the two to eat hot pot, and introduced his situation to the two on the road. Yang Liang also became the team leader thanks to the scars on his head, but said lightly: "I caught it some time ago. A group of addicts, who were a little careless at three or four in the morning, were slashed with a knife by a little miscellaneous hair, but men, they are handsome!"

Qin Yuan looked at it carefully, where was a stroke, if the knife were to be pierced into his eyes one centimeter further, it seemed that Yang Liang was also a man.

Yang Liang took the two to eat the local mutton hot pot. Yang Liang also had a good personality and was very straightforward. The businessman also came to chat very much. While eating, Yang Liang answered a phone call. There was a case and asked them to appear.

Qin Yuan and the others also went to study because of the relationship between the old and high. The three of them set off without having eaten their meals. It was the first time that Qingyuan had this kind of murder scene, because Yang Liang and the others were both serious crime teams and were responsible It is a major murder case.

It was discovered on a platform. The deceased was a man in his 30s. When they arrived at the scene, the forensic doctor was conducting an autopsy, and the rest of the criminal police were collecting evidence.

After preliminary examination by the forensic doctor, it was determined that the man was beaten and pierced the neck with a sharp tool, causing hemorrhage. There were arteries in the neck, and there were a lot of blood on the platform. Yang Liang and the others only detected no footprints on the platform. , And the victim grabbed half of the receipt.

The receipt only wrote an IOU, and the bottom half was lost. I don't know who I owed and how much I owed. The preliminary judgment was that there was a murder case caused by economic disputes.

Qin Yuan and the others also watched the excitement. After all, Yang Liang and the others are better at it. After their preliminary investigation, they immediately held a meeting. The deceased was named Li Lei, who worked in a financial company and had just been married not long after.

Yang Liang rubbed his temples. This was the third such death this month. They were all beaten up with a dagger stuck in their neck. The first two were social wanderers. The relationship was too complicated. The police investigation did not It seems that any progress can only start with this Li Lei.

According to the people around Li Lei, his family situation was relatively good. After graduation, he also worked in a listed company. Unexpectedly, after getting married, he became obsessed with gambling. At first, he lost a few hundred and thousands of dollars. It was sold, and Li Lei was frantic. He secretly mortgaged and resold the family house to a real estate agency, and then someone came to ask for debts every day.

Therefore, Li Lei's current social relationship is very complicated. I checked his bank's current situation and found that there was a sum of 1.2 million in funds recently. It seems that this is the money for selling the house. He Chenguang pouted "this 1.2 million a week." Is it all lost? There will be no other receipts later."

Yang Liang was planning to go to Li Lei's house to find out more about the situation with his parents. When he arrived at his house, he discovered that the family could only live in a small house of more than 20 square meters in Chengdong Village because the house was sold.

In addition to him, there is also a younger brother who is in high school. Li Lei's father heard the news of his son's death, and even felt relieved, "It's okay for this  to die outside, so that he doesn't have to drag the family, because the family is killed by him!" Li Lei's mother was crying next to him, and his father was not allowed to say this to his son.

Later, Li Lei's father said that the story was similar to what he had learned before. He was very happy after getting married. He didn't expect him to get involved with a group of friends and friends. He took him to gambling and started to win some small money, but then he lost. He seemed fascinated, all kinds of credit cards, online loans and even usury, now the family house is gone, and he has to pay all kinds of debts for him.

"Huh? Then do you know where Li Lei usually gambles?"

"Oh! This is not clear. Every time he goes out in the middle of the night beforehand, someone will drive him to pick him up. If the money he took out is not spent, he will not come back. Last time he quietly sold the house and hugged him. I went with that 1.2 million for five days, and there was nothing left after I came back. That's it, our family can only live on the streets."

Yang Liang recorded that Qin Yuan intervened and asked: "Then he was just married? Where does his wife know the address of the casino?"

"Speaking of my poor daughter-in-law, I can't help it. Because of this, I'm still in a lawsuit with my in-laws. I was taken out by this bastard. I didn't come back again. We also called the police and opened the case, but there has been no news. "

This disappearance case is the responsibility of the grassroots public security police. It seems that we should find them to match up. Qin Yuan and Yang Liang have similar ideas. Li Lei's wife disappeared, and Li Lei died on the rooftop. All this is related, but now It is unknown whether Li Lei's wife is still alive.

Yang Liang continued to ask about other situations. Qin Yuan put his hand in his pocket and looked around the house. The home was very simple, just a folding table, a double bed next to it, and a folding bed for Li Lei near the door. Younger brother lives.

There are still pictures of a family of five on the wall, taken when they were just married, but Li Lei looks good in appearance. On the left is his new wife, who is also very beautiful, and on the right is a boy with a smile on his face. It should be Li Lei's younger brother.

After understanding the situation here, Yang Liang planned to go to the airport public security office to retrieve the missing case of Li Lei's wife Zhao Min.

Yang Liang drove the car, and the two of them sat in the back, "It's too hard for you. I can't do our business. I just have to run around and investigate and collect evidence."

"It's okay, just to learn from us, this kind of patience and criminal investigation ability is also good."

A few people chatted, and in a short while, they went to the grassroots public security bureau and retrieved Zhao Min's case in the archives room. All the clues were packed in a kraft paper bag, which contained Zhao Min's basic information, as well as some relatives and friends. My friend, I finally saw the record of her questioning. The U disk in it was the surveillance record collected by the police when Zhao Min disappeared.

Qin Yuan and the others opened it and discovered that Zhao Min was indeed in the car with Li Lei. The minivan was a licensed car. No information was found. The car turned left and right and disappeared into the unmonitored dirt road.

This is the last time Zhao Min appeared in the surveillance scene, but Zhao Min didn't seem to be in the car voluntarily. Qin Yuan pointed to the surveillance camera and said: "Look carefully, although Zhao Min followed along, but the pace was unstable. The cars were all supported by Li Lei, and it is very likely that Li Lei was drugged."

"Then where did Li Lei take his wife? Now Li Lei is also dead, and the clue is broken. There is no way to check this kind of licensed car. There are too many cars with the same color. However, the surveillance captured half of the driver's face. This can only be checked slowly, which is too much work."

Qin Yuan thought for a while, and at this moment blurted out at the same time as Yang Liang, "Casino!"

"Hahaha, I didn't expect to have such a tacit understanding with Captain Qin, we should have thought of getting together."

"Yes, I also think that since these clues are broken, but the casinos have surrounded them from beginning to end. The people in these casinos are very mysterious. It seems that we need to hide and pretend to be able to get inside."

Yang Liang arranged for people to continue to guard the surveillance to see if the driver of this deck of vans appeared in other surveillances. He prepared to go to the casino with Qin Yuan to lunch.

They plan to start with some small mahjong rooms in the city, and now there is a big problem, that is, Qin Yuan can't play mahjong.

He Chenguang smirked and said, "Brother Qin, I didn't expect that there are things you don't know. It seems I have to teach you well."

It's not that Qin Yuan doesn't know how, but he has never had the opportunity to contact him, but he has a system. When he gets the mahjong, he will try to put it in the system first.

After a while, He Chenguang patiently told Qin Yuan about the distribution of various cards. Qin Yuan touched a mahjong, and actually put it in the system grid quietly. Unexpectedly, the system did not respond, Qin Yuan Just try to call the system and see what happens.

"Host, can you give me a good rest, stop barking, this is just a pair of ordinary mahjong, what can I do, I am just a system, you think I am a god! If you can find a mahjong master, then Can be converted into skills."

Qin Yuan was speechless for a while, this system still had a temper. Isn't it a good thing that he is enthusiastic about asking questions? Everything has to be tried It seems that you have to find a mahjong master.

Seeing He Chenguang's serious look next to him, Qin Yuan felt a little funny. "Well, let's do it. After all, Mahjong is played by four people. We only have three people. Team Yang, do you have any mahjong masters here? People often deal with each other, should there be some?"

"Brother Qin, you are too polite, you are just like them, just call me Liangzi, everyone is brothers, this time you are here to help, well, there is one person who is famous for playing mahjong, but That person is very powerful and often makes trouble. Why, do you want him to learn?"

He Chenguang looked at Qin Yuan sadly, "Brother Qin, I think you are despising me. Although I don't usually play, my parents used to play mahjong. This is inherited from the family. Don't worry. Your church."

"We are just going to find a cover, and Mahjong must have four people. We only have three people and it is not easy to develop. Let's learn the enemy's internal technology. Let's go and see first. Maybe I will do it." Qin Yuan could only perfunctory and asked Yang Liang to quickly lead them to find this mahjong master.

Yang Liang also changed into casual clothes. He introduced this mahjong master named Dapeng. Mahjong skills are indeed quite famous, but he is also addicted to mahjong.
