

Special Soldier 751

Chapter 751: Acquire national mahjong skills

Soaking in the mahjong table all day, the laoqian slowly came out from behind, and after being discovered, he was fighting and making troubles. The latter said that he was out of laoqian and no one noticed it. People who know his virtue generally don't play with him.

So he would go to some small mahjong halls to find newcomers to play. From afar, Qin Yuan saw a tea room in front of him. Some sounds of washing mahjong came from inside. The person wearing a black T-shirt was Dapeng sitting in it.

Yang Liang walked over, looked at the Dapeng who was playing mahjong, stretched out his hand and patted him on the shoulder. This Dapeng was playing on Xing's head, and when he was disturbed, he was about to get angry, but he turned his head and saw Yang Liang, scared. He had to shout: "Police! Brothers, run!" Yang Liang directly pressed Dapeng on the stool and took out the handcuffs to handcuff him.

The few people close to the door ran out quickly, and Qin Yuan and the others did not intend to stop them. What are they running, and playing mahjong will not be caught. It seems that they are usually guilty. At this time, the mahjong hall The boss walked out tremblingly, and took out the cigarette to send it to Yang Liang and the others.

Yang Liang waved his hand and didn't smoke, "Police officer, I am a serious shop here, just a few neighborhoods come here to play mahjong, I will charge tea money, this is not a crowd gambling!"

"It's okay. We came mainly to ask this person for something. If it's nothing to do with you, let's go down first." The boss of the mahjong room suddenly sighed in relief, and wittily pulled down the rolling door and walked out.

"Team Yang, no, Brother Yang, I haven't done anything lately!"

"I didn't commit anything, so what did your kid say just now with a guilty conscience? I still want to run. I came here today to ask you something. You'd better be honest." Yang Liang unfastened the handcuffs.

"Team Yang, there is no way. I am afraid of being caught by you, don't you worry? I will tell you what you ask."

Qin Yuan gave Yang Liang a look, and motioned him to stop talking and walk over and grab Dapeng's wrist? I don't know if this situation can be put into the grid. I can only try it. Dapeng saw Qin Yuan pulling his own. Hand? But found that this person is very powerful? I can't get rid of it at all.

Dapeng's hand just touched the grid? The system issued a prompt: "Ding Dong~ Congratulations to the host for reclaiming the Sparrow God skill. After the system evolves, the host can choose to acquire the following skills,"

"1. National mahjong techniques."

"2. National Thousand King Skills (only for Mahjong)."

"3. National mathematics ability."

This Thousand Kings skill is only limited to mahjong? There is no other way? This skill is not very good, or first choose the national-level mahjong technique.

"Ding Dong~ Congratulations to the host for acquiring the national-level mahjong technique. Remind the host? This mahjong plan can be recycled and improved." It seems that although this skill has undergone systematic evolution, it has only reached the national level? If it is stronger? Need to find A stronger opponent? But at this time you can use it to try your own Mahjong machine.

Qin Yuan let go of Dapeng's hand? "Don't worry, I just got my pulse for you just now, your heart is impetuous, now it's much better, we can start." He Chenguang was speechless for a while, and Brother Qin started talking again. of.

Dapeng let out a sigh of relief? It turns out that Yang Liang just wanted to play mahjong! But playing mahjong with these people, do you dare to win? At this time Qin Yuan looked into his eyes and said, "Don't deliberately want to lose to us. Besides, you won't necessarily win." Dapeng was so excited that he suddenly became interested. If you want to talk about other things, you really can't do it. , But Mahjong is his strong point.

"Hahaha, those three big brothers, I'm so offended."

He Chenguang was also worried that Qin Yuan wouldn't even be able to shuffle the cards, because he didn't listen carefully when he started speaking by himself, but he didn't expect that he would come in handy, like a veteran.

Moreover, Qin Yuan's cards are extremely fast, and the most shocking person should be Dapeng. He clearly thought of Lao Qian, and hid a three, but after opening it, he turned into a two. This kind of low-level mistake, he never would. For those who committed it, the three are already on Qin Yuan's side.

Dapeng was shocked. How this person did it was faster than his own, and he didn't even notice it. Qin Yuan was very relaxed, holding his chin and crossing Erlang's legs while waiting for He Chenguang to play the card.

He Chenguang just played a card, and Qin Yuan played a card! This is too fast, He Chenguang looked dumbfounded, "Brother Qin, this is not interesting enough for you, you still said you won't, I think you have a very good technique!

Dapeng also smiled and said: "It seems that this big brother is pretending to be a pig and a tiger, this time I really want to show my true strength."

The result was that Dapeng slapped his face. Qin Yuan slapped him several times. Dapeng was a little frustrated. He took Yang Liang and said, "Brother Yang, where did you find a master? I'm willing to go down. I really can't play."

Yang Liang smiled, this is better, Qin Yuan mahjong is so powerful, it should be able to quickly mix into the casino, the actual is almost the same, then now is to go to those mahjong halls to take a good look, this Dapeng suddenly stood up to hold Qin Yuan to apprentice, "Brother, why don't you accept me as an apprentice, I will pay you the tuition, okay?"

Qin Yuan thought it was a bit funny. How could he still charge for mahjong, so he deliberately teased that Dapeng and said, "Sorry, I'm a family heir to a female but not a male."

Dapeng didn't react for a while. After the three of them walked out, he carefully recalled how it was passed on to you if it was passed on from female to male. Only when they ran out did they find that Qin Yuan and the others had already left. The master of, is too powerful, so that you can win more money in the future.

Yang Liang found a boss in a gaming hall and inquired that if you want to enter that mysterious casino, it is still more difficult. That casino specifically recruits people with status and status to play, and some even those with money can play. People like Li Lei have a small amount of money, but are very skilled. This kind of person is used for surgery.

Anyway, people who have been to that casino seem to have signed some agreement and never reveal the news to the outside world. It seems that a few people want to enter this mysterious casino and need to dress up a little bit.

Qin Yuan took Yang Liang and the others to the mall to buy a outfit. Yang Liang picked up a suit tag and counted it. It turned out to be five digits, "I'm going, this dress is too expensive? I think we still Forget it, I'll go find a relationship and rent a few sets of costumes!"

Unexpectedly, Qin Yuan directly threw out the card and asked the waiter to prepare to swipe the card, "It's okay, Liangzi, this is my gift to you, don't be polite with me, everyone is brothers."

Yang Liang thinks this Qin Yuan is too generous. Five-figure items are given away as soon as they are given. This is worth the long-term living expenses of his family. He Chenguang next to him smiled and said: "Liangzi, you just accept it." , Brother Qin is not short of money!"

The three of them dressed up like this, wearing sunglasses, and wearing suits and shoes, really so decent, especially Qin Yuan specially selected a flowered shirt, looking like the second generation of prodigal wealth.

The waiter next to him looked at Qin Yuan's back idiotically. Sure enough, these wealthy people just came to experience life. They wore so ordinary clothes just now, and bought tens of thousands of clothes. The key is that they are so handsome.

The three people spent a day in the mahjong room without any progress, but Qin Yuan still won a few hundred yuan. It seems that there is no news about these mahjong rooms, so I can only look at some entertainment venues.

Yang Liang put on a mask. After all, he had personally investigated most of these entertainment venues to avoid being stunned. First of all, he pretended to be disguised. Then, with love, they came to the largest bar in the local area. Fine, there are several halls.

Since he is doing a play, he must make a full set. As soon as Qin Yuan came on the court, he ordered the most luxurious spades A set in the hotel, and then a group of exposed waiters, carrying wine and holding light signs, began to circle the bar. The lights inside have been following this group of people, and finally stayed in love, their card seat.

Qin Yuan and the others set up a deck on the second floor. This place is better to observe. The DJ shouted with a microphone on the stage: "Thank you for our VIP deck Qin for ordering 9999 luxury spades. I wish Qin all the way to 9999. 8888 all the way! Wow!"

Then the music sounded, and everyone's eyes were looking at Qin Yuan and his table. These eyes were full of envy and jealousy. With a smile on Qin Yuan's face, Qin Yuan whispered: "You two should not be so upright and relax. Some, shake with the music, don't show any flaws!"

Qin Yuan was quite relaxed. He stood directly on the sofa and jumped up. He Chenguang jumped up as soon as he was infected by the atmosphere. After a while, some beautiful women came up to have a drink, and Qin Yuan didn't care. It is easy to find out the news.

A * woman in a black gauze skirt came over and sat directly on Qin Yuan's lap. Qin Yuan also put his arms around her waist, "Brother, my name is Xiaoling, can I buy my sister a drink?" Qin Yuan poured her a glass of wine, the woman's hand was very dishonest, and she began to touch Qin Yuan's waist.

Qin Yuan pretended to enjoy it. After a few minutes, the woman made an excuse to go to the bathroom. Qin Yuan nodded with a smile. The music in the bar was too loud, and the three of them could only communicate with each other by typing on their phones.

He Chenguang typed a line and handed it to Qin Yuan, "Brother Qin, you are too bold. I think you are not a second-generation pretending to be rich. You are acting in your true colors. Fortunately, you are in the army. I'll tell the Dragon Team when I go back and see how she cleans up you?" Yang Liang next to him covered his mouth and smirked after seeing it.

Qin Yuan gave him a white look and typed quickly, "You stinky boy, are you completely relaxed? This woman is not a simple drunkard at all, just to check if the three of us are police officers, and touch my waist as soon as we come. It just depends on whether we have guns or handcuffs. It seems that we have found the right place. This bar must be inseparable from the underground casino."

He Chenguang touched his head awkwardly. It was indeed that after he came, in this case, he completely relaxed his vigilance, so Qin Yuan did not let Yang Liang wear gun handcuffs before. After all, he didn't care about these people at all. Can be resolved.

At this moment, the little Ling didn't go to the bathroom, but went backstage and said to a man in black clothes: "Brother, it's okay. I also looked at the clothes of the three boys. They are all famous brands. , Besides, how can the police afford the 9999 package?"

The third brother spit out a smoke ring. "It is a good thing to be cautious. I am more at ease when you do things. Whether you can win these three people is up to you today, and then the benefits will be yours."

Xiaoling was very happy. She stepped out and lowered her clothes. She had already figured out where these three people must be the rich second generation. The third brother was too cautious. After all, there is a policeman who is as rascal and too cooperative as the one just now. By myself, following the sway of the music, he went upstairs and walked towards Qin Yuan's deck. Qin Yuan smiled, "Brothers, get ready, the fish is hooked."

After this Xiaoling came up, she sat on Qin Yuan's lap. Because the music was too loud, she leaned on Qin Yuan's ear and said, "Brother, do you want to play with other things? It's too noisy here. My sister will take you over."

Qin Yuan nodded, Xiao Ling stood up and pulled them out. This Xiao Ling led them to the backstage of the bar. Qin Yuan noticed that there were people on duty along the way. It seemed to avoid drunk people from entering by mistake. Entering, passing through a long passage, several rooms appeared in front of them, carpeted on the floor, very luxurious.

The sound insulation effect here is very good. When the door of the passage is closed, the music outside can hardly be heard. Xiaoling almost hangs herself on Qin Yuan and leads them into a room.

At this time, a few beauties came up again, surrounded He Chenguang and Yang Liang. They were very nervous. Seeing Qin Yan winking at them, she still tried to relax herself, and then Xiaoling took out a bag of things. .

"Brother, this is a good thing. Would you like to taste it? This is the latest product."

Yang Liang squinted his eyes' It is indeed the kind of goods. No wonder the police have been investigating, but they have not found the passage inside. They are guarded by people around them. Once the police come, they will use partitions for this passage. Block it, I don't know there is still such a large space inside.

It seems that these things were traded here. Qin Yuan took what Xiaoling was holding and threw it on the table, and pulled Xiaoling in his arms. "Sister, but I'm not very interested in this thing, you guys. Is there nothing else to play here?"

Xiaoling began to pretend to be confused, "Brother, what else do you want to play? Are we not enough for you to play?" At this time, Xiaoling is actually still a bit entangled. This thing can be regarded as her performance. If these three people can use these things Accept it and take them to play at the back of the casino to make more money.

Qin Yuan pushed Xiaoling away, "It's really boring! The three of us came here to play here admiringly. I didn't expect that the young master still looks down on you guys. Forget it, don't play anymore, let's go! "

He Chenguang and Yang Liang were also ready to get up and leave. Xiaoling saw the three gold masters walking, and was anxious for an instant. She ran forward and pulled Qin Yuan. "Brother, don't be so worried, I know we are not good enough for you, but we There must be fun here. We have a big casino with more than 20 kinds of games. Do you want to play? My sister will take you there."

Chapter 752: Enter the mysterious casino

Qin Yuan pretended that his eyes were shining, "There is such a good place, I like this kind of gameplay, Xiaoye."

In order to avoid them being suspicious, He Chenguang went on to say: "Qin Yuan, this is okay! Last time we were abroad, we played hundreds of thousands in one night, but it's important to be happy!"

Xiaoling laughed at the sight of hundreds of thousands of moments. These three fat sheep should be thrown in and slaughtered severely. After saying hello to the third brother, she wanted to take the three people to the casino immediately and explained to Qin Yuan and the others. A few times, they said that they should go down to prepare first and let them drink the wine first.

Qin Yuan waved his hand and asked her to take these women out. They looked down on them and asked them to bring up the wine just now. After all, 9999, don't waste it.

Whether Yang Liang wants to contact the outside world first, after all, there are only three of them. It is a problem if he can get out safely if he goes to the casino, and he already has the evidence of drug trafficking in the liquor store, so he can call the brothers over first. .

Just as Yang Liang wanted to discuss with them, Qin Yuan saw his doubts and made a gesture inadvertently, because he was not sure whether there was a monitor or a bug in this.

He Chenguang pretended to pour wine on his shoes, and when he lowered his head to wipe the shoes, he found that there was a wiretap under the wine table. It seems that these people have done enough work, so they must be more careful in their next actions and not be exposed.

He Chenguang took Yang Liang to the toilet. After confirming that the toilet was safe, he whispered to him: "Don't worry, you can rest assured that you can follow Brother Qin. Before, Qin Yuan entered the armed men's building alone? Five in the building. More than a dozen militants were killed by him! And they were unharmed. Besides, isn't there still me?"

Yang Liang was a little shocked? This is no better than foreign countries, like foreign militants who have guns and ammunition, is he really as powerful as He Chenguang said? Is it a bit exaggerated? Although I have heard a lot of their news on TV? The most famous is the last high seas operation? But I didn't see it with my own eyes, or there was doubt.

Seeing He Chenguang's confident look, Yang Liang felt a little nervous in his heart? But now there is no other way, one step counts as one step? And even if you want to fight? Then he is not afraid.

After returning home, Xiaoling was already in the room preparing to take the three of them to the casino. Qin Yuan was holding that Xiaoling? She was even more sure that these three were definitely not police, and this person's hands were too dishonest.

Xiaoling took three people through a passage again? After opening the door, she found that she came to the back door of the bar? There was a crematorium car parked at the door? Yang Liang pretended to be unhappy and said, "What are you doing? Let us sit down. This kind of broken car to play? It's too unlucky, right!"

"This brother, listen to me. Now the investigation is too strict. This is also a disguise. I just said that the meaning is different. The meaning of this car is to get promoted and get rich, brothers."

"Hahaha, get promoted and get rich, I like it! I hope you are really so fun? Don't sweep away the interest of this young master, let's go brothers." This kind of crematorium cars are relatively large, all of which are uniform black. There are a few big characters on the crematorium, and normal people avoid this kind of car. Even if you travel in the middle of the night, you will feel normal wherever you stop. This is indeed a good disguise.

After Qin Yuan and the others got in the car, there were three rows of seats inside, and there were two big men sitting one behind the other, letting Qin Yuan and the others sit in the middle position. The little Ling stood outside the car and didn't get in the car.

"Why, beauty, don't you get in the car to play with us? This young master can take you to play with us."

That Xiaoling smiled, "I won't disturb the interest of the bosses. By the way, you need to wear this mask." After speaking, he took out three masks from behind. This mask is an ordinary white mask, on the eyes of the mask. It has been specially treated, and nothing can be seen after wearing it.

"Boss, please don't mind. This is also a protection method for us. You also know that casinos in Yanguo cannot exist. To avoid other unsafe factors, you should take a break and take a nap. ."

Yang Liang pretended to be dissatisfied and complained beside him. Originally, he planned to write down the route along the way, and then take the men and horses after he came back. Although he knew that Qin Yuan and the others were very powerful, there were only three of them. At present, they did not carry any weapons, and they were bare-handed. Still worried.

Qin Yuan and He Chenguang didn't take it seriously, and patted him on the shoulder, "Brother, it's okay, there will be fun later." Yang Liang had no choice but to obey first.

Seeing that they put on the masks in cooperation, the car drove normally. Xiaoling outside heaved a sigh of relief. After putting on the masks in the car, several people leaned on the seats to rest. Qin Yuan searched for various topics along the way. The big guy didn't speak, as if he was supervising them, but the driver was talking from time to time, but when he encountered a sensitive topic, like where the casino was, the driver hurriedly changed the subject and bypassed it.

Qin Yuan didn't know if they were deliberately detouring. They stopped seven or eight times along the way. They were supposed to be waiting for the traffic lights, because when they passed an intersection, there was a big store next to it that was broadcasting the autumn and winter clothes sale.

Although the stay time was very short, this sound appeared twice, and Qin Yuan determined that they should be detouring. After more than ten minutes, he felt the vehicle descend a * and then the sound of the door closing.

"Okay, bosses, we are here. You can wear this mask all the time. You can remove the black cloth between the mask and you can see it. I wish you all the bosses a good time." The casino has done a good job of various measures. In this case, everyone wears a mask and knows no one. Even if they meet the same person playing in the casino after going out, they cannot exchange information.

After getting out of the car, someone led them in at the door. This is a basement-like place with people on duty. There is a gate in front of them. Qin Yuan and the others pass through the gate, and the person leading them has a walkie-talkie in his hand, "Safe! Get ready! Open the door and I brought the bosses in."

The people next to them were respectful and respectful. They had the smell of a bathing center. After bypassing a long aisle, people began to hear people talking. After opening the door, a waiter came up to lead them, and Yang Liang was shocked.

The space here is very large, and there are three floors. The most important thing is all kinds of poker games. Every table is full of people. Those gamblers are shouting at the table excitedly. This space is full of the sound of machine shuffling. Those who bet, the joy of winning and the annoyance of losing money, are really diverse.

Except for the waiter, everyone wears a mask. There are more than a dozen tables on the first floor. According to the waiter next to them, the first floor is mainly for bullfighting, Texas Hold'em, blackjack and other poker-based games, and the second floor is mainly for mahjong. Qin Yuan squinted and saw that there were also many people on it. The third floor was a place for gamblers who came to play.

The waiter also laughed and introduced that there is also a bathing center here. If you are interested, you can also order to accompany you. These accompany players have professional accompany to play, and there are also beauties. The price is charged by the hour. Yang Liang smashed his mouth. These prices are ridiculously high.

Qin Yuan interrupted and asked, "Then what if we don't have so much money yet and want to play?"

"We also have loan services here. Don't worry, they are all formal lending institutions. If you have other things, we also accept pawns, including organs and women." Qin Yuan was speechless, so he was still called formal. Organs and human trafficking too.

This casino is really too big. Yang Liang has taken over so many cases. He didn't expect such a large underground casino hidden in Changzhou City. According to this situation, Li Lei did lose all of it with 1.2 million. The place is provided even where I live, and I simply don't want people to go. Then Li Lei's wife Zhao Min is probably in this.

The waiter took them to recharge and pay the fee first, the main thing is to exchange the game currency after the payment, so that everyone is not in cash, the game currency is divided into three colors, the green one represents ten yuan, and the red one fifty yuan. , The black one is one hundred yuan.

The young lady at the front desk was very enthusiastic and asked with a smile: "Hello, how do you top up tens of thousands?"

"First charge fifty yuan for fun!"

He Chenguang next to him almost got it wrong, fifty yuan! This is a red one. Looking at Qin Yuan suspiciously, the young lady is used to it, showing a professional smirk. "Yes, I will give you a fifty one first!" Then he handed it to Qin Yuanyi. Rose red game currency.

After Qin Yuan and the three of them entered the casino with this game ratio, the woman who charged just now showed a contemptuous expression, "Cut, you three are not badly dressed, what the hell, just charge fifty yuan, is it above? People who read it wrong are just three poor ghosts."

The man next to him counted his money. "What are you afraid of? Some rich people are like this. The richer they are, the more stingy they are, but as long as they enter this place, are they worried about not paying?" The man took out the walkie-talkie to the people inside. He said hello, "Watch out, there are three people here, and the black suit only charged a red card, let him win two, and then, keep losing!"

Therefore, the old people say that ten gambles and nine loses, especially in casinos like them, which are basically black-box operations.

"Brother Qin, I think we will lose the fifty yuan soon. Look at the bets next to you, the lowest is fifty."

"Don't worry, just relax, Brother Qin will lead you to win money." Qin Yuan was very confident.

Yang Liang is a little worried. There are too many people on duty in this area, and the boss behind this has not yet come out, and the route is not clear. If you go out this time, it is estimated that it will be difficult to come in next time. Yang Liang does not want to win money. I just want to reveal this place.

Qin Yuan looked around with his hands behind his back. He was very clear about the operation of these casinos, and he needed to attract the attention of these people to see if he could attract the boss behind. Anyway, if he wants to do it, these shrimp soldiers and crabs will not be his opponents, but if behind The boss of ran away, so it's not worthwhile to spend so much money before.

Therefore, the old people say that ten gambles and nine loses, especially in casinos like them, which are basically black-box operations.

"Brother Qin, I think we will lose the fifty yuan soon. Look at the bets next to you, the lowest is fifty."

"Don't worry, just relax, Brother Qin will lead you to win money." Qin Yuan was very confident.

Yang Liang was a little worried. There were too many people on duty in this place, and the boss behind this one hadn't come out yet, and the route was not clear. If he went out this time, it might be difficult to come in next time.

Qin Yuan looked around with his hands behind his back. He knew the operation of these casinos very well, that is, they need to attract the attention of these people and see if they can attract the boss behind them. Anyway, if they want to do it, these shrimp soldiers and crabs will not be his opponents.

At this time, the waiter next to him came over. These three people were the ones notified in the intercom just now, "You are here for the first time, right? We have a lot of ways to play here. You can start with the simplest one. I will take you over to see. Well, the easiest is to guess the size of the dice."

Qin Yuan nodded, and several people followed the waiter to the dice table. There was a circle of people in front of them. A waiter stood in the middle and was responsible for shaking the dice.

It started. Qin Yuan hadn't watched the new game yet, so he threw the game coin on the top, and He Chenguang said in a low voice, "Brother Qin, all I watch on TV are listening to the sound. Listen to the sound, then you have to wait for someone to shake it before placing a bet. Wouldn't it be too casual?"

"Don't worry, I believe in luck more!"

The waiter next to him thought it was funny. When he met a fool who didn't understand anything, it would be better to be fooled later. In fact, Qin Yuan knew this one, and they would let himself win anyway. After three, Qin Yuan lost all of them randomly.

From the beginning, one game coin won more than ten ' and converted into cash, it would be more than two thousand. Qin Yuan could already hear that although he could not see the specific points, but when After he placed a bet, if it was not the size he chose, he heard the trigger in the small dice box, and the dice rolled inside.

The voice was very subtle, and Qin Yuan's hearing was good. This was similar to what he had guessed. The waiter hit the iron while it was hot and said:

"This boss, you have won more than two thousand now. You can choose to exchange cash at the service desk, but we need to charge a 10% service fee. If you change it, you will not be worthwhile. You can continue to play, bet You can bet a bit bigger."

Qin Yuan smiled. He knew that these people were about to start slaughtering guests. He Chenguang was a little excited by the side. These people just got the greed of people. If they win fifty, then you want to win five hundred. Higher and higher.

Sure enough, Qin Yuan lost with this one. He pretended to walk over, touched the dice box, and planned to put it in the system grid. "I said you will have any tricks in it!"

His hand just touched, "Ding Dong~ Congratulations to the host for successfully recovering the dice items. You have obtained the following skills, please choose!"

Chapter 753: Boss behind shows up

"1. Unlucky doll (can make the other party unlucky again and again!

"2. World-class King of Thousand Kings (Thousand Kings technique, perspective ability, etc.

"3. National level luck (you must win every gambling, only limited to gambling

Qin Yuan probably took a look. These three are not bad. This unlucky doll is quite fun. It can also make the other party unlucky if you go out in the future, but the king of thousand kings is what you need most at the moment. After all, there are all kinds of old people. Qin Yuan immediately made a choice because of his tactics and the ability to see through. This is absolutely invincible in the casino.

"Dingdong~Congratulations to the host for gaining the King of Thousand Kings skill!" Qin Yuan pretended to pick up the dice and shook it. Those people were not nervous, he expected that he couldn't tell.

"The boss, don't worry, there is absolutely no problem with our casino, you can check it at will."

Qin Yuan already knew their routine and stretched a little lazily, "It's boring to guess the size, it's boring to guess, let's take a look at poker!" This was in the hands of the waiter, and the poker bets increased exponentially. Just like Doudizhu do double, so that the quicker to lose and the quicker to win.

After the game started, Qin Yuan and the others had four people at the table. One of them was supposed to be a casino. The waiter first issued two cards to each house. From the second card, they were automatically displayed. Everyone can see the bright cards. Starting after the card, for each card dealt, the player with the larger face is given priority, and bets are made.

The waiter introduced by the side: "After someone places a bet, other people who want to continue to play should press the "call" button, or choose to raise the bet. If you don't want to call, please press the "abandon" button. , And cannot be retrieved. When the last 5 cards are all dealt, it is allowed to "shuttle" that is all the chips? The final winner gets all the chips on the table! "

Qin Yuan has been following the cards here, Yang Liang silently calculated by the side, according to this gameplay? Qin Yuan's two thousand chips will soon be all-in? Although I don't like gambling? But at this time also Then became nervous.

And Qin Yuan is more relaxed, crossing Erlang's legs? He has seen through all the cards, the person on the opposite side should be the casino? Has quietly changed the cards twice? After the love has the skills of the King of Thousand Kings, these Can't escape his magic eye.

Qin Yuan used the skill of the King of Thousand Kings to change that person's card? The man on the opposite side didn't even know, he was very confident and didn't even flip the card? After all, he was very familiar with this set of skills in the casino? Will change cards quietly.

In the end everyone opened the cards together? That man was dumbfounded in an instant? What happened? The player card in front of him turned out to be the biggest in the audience. He immediately saw the waiter next to him. The waiter also looked at him dumbfounded. Could it be that the system went wrong?

I hope that the waiter who came to play poker will have a green face, because Qin Yuan directly won more than 20,000 yuan this time, he let He Chenguang and Yang Liang next to him hold the game currency and continue to walk with him.

"Right? Don't bother you. I'm a person. I always believe in luck. I will just take a look and go down!"

"Okay, sir, if there is anything unclear behind, you can call me anytime!" The waiter looked at Qin Yuan and their backs, took out the walkie-talkie and whispered: "Attention, the three people in black suits don't care what they are playing. , Give him all the other way around, he must lose!" I don't believe it anymore. The first time you are lucky, what will you do later?

Yang Liang looked at Qin Yuan, wandering around here and there with a relaxed expression on his face, holding a pile of game coins in his hand, a little unhappy and said, "Brother Qin, you are still addicted to gambling, don't you Forget the real purpose of our coming here."

"You stinky boy, you can't bear it now. You are also the leader of the team anyway. This is really not a good morning light. Do you think the boss behind this can come out casually? All things are controlled by a dark box, but I, Qin Yuan, is naturally lucky. I plan to win them all over here. Do you think that boss can sit still?"

"What! It's impossible to win here. I'm afraid it's impossible. I usually have bad luck, and I don't know anything about these pokers. Can we do that?"

He Chenguang pushed Yang Liang next to him, "You kid, don't talk nonsense. I believe Brother Qin, just watch the excitement and put your heart in your stomach."

Yang Liang looked at the two people who were like old gamblers at the gambling table, wondering, are these two really special soldiers? I suspected that I had picked up the wrong person at the station.

Half an hour later, the man who was directing at the cash register just now appeared in the casino lobby, "Brother Hong, it is those three people. They have won all the cards below us!"

"Fuck, what the * did your trash do? Didn't you use a machine to adjust it?"

"Brother Hong, this is wrong! How dare we not adjust, but it is too strange, no matter how we change, the kid has good cards in his hand, and the same is true for playing dice. We obviously changed the machine to the big one, but didn't expect to open it. He has become a little boy, and now that kid has more than two hundred thousand in his hands!"

"Grandma's, I don't believe me anymore, I will bring him here personally later!"

At this time, the three people of Qin Yuan, the waiter had already brought them a pocket game currency, which attracted the attention of many people. The waiter walked over and asked Qin Yuan and the others to come over. There is a better way to play. They brought it to that Hong brother.

Qin Yuan sat face-to-face with him. This Brother Hong didn't use a machine to tune it. He used his method. Since the machine is not reliable, rely on himself. What tricks this kid does? He wanted to see it in person, and when the cards were dealt and the times came down, Qin Yuan said directly: "This bet is too slow, let me bet all over 200,000!"

"Hahaha, it really is a refreshing person, then I am not ambiguous. I have half a million here. If we want to play, let's play the big one. If the boss wants to bet half a million, we will decide the winner!"

Qin Yuan said with difficulty, "But I don't have that much money, what can I do?"

The waiter next to him immediately stood up, "Boss, here can quickly handle the loan for you, you only need to sign a name first, and we will exchange enough game currency for you immediately!"

Qin Yuan nodded and asked them to bring up the loan agreement. The man on the opposite side was delighted. The big fish was hooked. Anyway, he just signed a name, and Qin Yuan was determined that he would not lose. After signing the name He Chenguang glanced at the side, and the signer actually wrote the words Li Erniu!

He Chenguang had a black line on his face. Fortunately, he followed him. If Li Erniu followed, then maybe the name signed now is his own. Qin Yuan smiled badly beside him, "These are all small problems, don't care. These details!" At this time, Li Erniu, who was far away in the barracks, sneezed and wondered who was talking about himself.

Brother Hong had already replaced all the good cards in his hand, and the waiter was still dealing the cards. Qin Yuanshen secretly changed the cards again without knowing it. When the cards were finally opened, Brother Hong was proud of his hand. A handful of cards were turned over and smashed on the table, "Hahaha, little man, it seems that you have run out of luck!"

"Huh, I didn't hear clearly what you are talking about. Let's take a look at the cards first!" Brother Hong cast a glance, how could all his cards go to his side! How this kid did it is really a ghost. He really can't figure out how to do it. No one can do it faster than him. Is this kid really lucky? He Chenguang and Yang Liang brought the five hundred thousand game coins from the side.

Qin Yuan threw 300,000 yuan to the waiter, "It seems that my luck is really good, so I will return it to you now!"

The brother Hong was about to vomit blood. Qin Yuan walked to him and said in a humble manner: "Thank you for the game currency this brother gave!" Brother Hong just wanted to kill at this moment. He wanted to smash these three people into pieces. Duan, helplessly, there was too much noise this time, which attracted the attention of many people. After all, he won half a million in one round.

Qin Yuan continued to play cards at various poker tables. In an instant, he won more than three million in these poker games on the first floor from the first fifty yuan. Yang Liang also began to admire him, "My God, Brother Qin, you are too good. I finally know why there are so many gamblers. I am also strong enough in my heart. Now that I see so much money, I want to bet a few!"

"I told you just now, relax, trust me, and wait for Brother Qin to take you to fly!"

Qin Yuan walked up to the second floor with his hands behind his back. The first floor has already been played. Then go to the mahjong hall. That Hong brother gritted his teeth and sent out some of the most powerful mahjong masters in the casino. Take a look at Mahjong.

Brother Hong was walking around in the room anxiously at this time. He really couldn't figure out how that person won at the time. This was really a kind of career humiliation to himself. In the past, he paid thousands of dollars to others. Thinking of staggering this time.

After a while, the waiter ran in anxiously, "Brother Hong, it's not good, that kid is really going against the sky! All the people in the casino lost, and the kid also won more than 2 million."

"What! Damn, if you encounter a smasher, no matter what, let the kid out first and make them three!"

At this time, several staff members came in with a middle-aged man wearing glasses. The Hong brother immediately said respectfully: "Master Liu, why are you here at the casino? They didn't notify me. I'll go. Pick you up."

"Hehe, if I don't come again, you are afraid that you will lose our casino to others. I said Dahong, you are also an old man of the casino, how did you do it!" The man walked to the sofa and sat down. The person next to him immediately served his cigar.

"Liu Ye, Jin Tian is too strange. These three people are here to hit the scene. I took the shot myself just now, but I don't know what happened and let this kid win, but I won't let him be proud of it for too long. Go down and do him!"

"Oh, you didn't even take this kid, monitoring, I want to see what's going on? Can this kid's technique be faster than you?"

The Master Liu frowned when he watched the surveillance. It was strange. He couldn't see any flaws at all. Could this kid also be such a prodigy, luck, that he would never believe it for so many years.

Dahong, who was next to him, saw that even the boss had come and was worried that his status would not be preserved. This Master Liu was cruel, unable to do things by himself, and didn't know when there was nothing, so he decided to take someone out of him immediately.

Unexpectedly, Master Liu stopped him, "Don't move him first, bring him up, this kid is better than you, see if he can become our person!"

There was a fire in Dahong's heart, he was very upset, and he really made Cheng Yaojin halfway, but after all, this was the boss's order and he could only bring Qin Yuan and the others up.

Dahong saw that Qin Yuan was eager to tear him to pieces, but he forced a smile, "Mr., our boss is on it, and I want to invite you up for tea."

"Oh, invite me to have tea? I'm afraid it's not it. Are you trying to kill me and see if I win you so much money?" Qin Yuan's call attracted the attention of many people. Da Gong has already With anger in his eyes, he looked at it again, and bent down. "This gentleman, you are joking, how could we do that kind of thing? We are all regular business."

When Qin Yuan heard this, he just wanted to laugh. Just open a casino and do some serious business. Forget it, now that the big fish has come out and don't want to play with them, Yang Liang next to him is very excited. This Qin Yuan is really powerful, not only has it messed up their casino, but also brought out the mastermind behind the scenes.

However, there are only three of them here. There are so many people here. It's definitely not enough. After thinking about it, I will find something to defend myself. When I see the master behind the scenes, I will hijack him first. Yang Liang thought about it. Heap, how do you want to hijack it? How to let the three of them go out safely? I feel my head is a bit bigger.

Qin Yuan and He Chenguang are leisurely and leisurely. Although Qin Yuan's bet is too lucky, the two of them are so unreliable to look at it' You may need to hijack this by yourself. The boss came to rescue them.

Qin Yuan looked at the man sitting on the sofa and did not shy away from it. He sat directly opposite the man. He was even more dissatisfied. Everyone was standing. He even dared to sit down. It was Qin that shocked him. What Yuan said next.

"Hey, are you the boss of this casino?"

At this time, Master Liu is not angry yet. He knows that these capable people are somewhat temperamental. The ability of this person, he just looked at the monitoring, is indeed very strong, and will bring him endless wealth later, he is just a businessman. Just make money, nothing else matters.

"Yes, it's also your honor for you to meet me. I know you have won a lot of money with me. I am a more straightforward person. Now I will give you two paths. One is to stay and follow me and use yours. Craftsmanship, the other thing is that you can't get out of here."

"It's really hard to choose, ah, so I choose the third way, which is to clean up all your garbage!"

Dahong next to him rushed up, "How the * do you dare to talk to Master Liu like this?" He didn't expect to be directly punched to the ground by He Chenguang, a standard grab, directly making Dahong unable to move.

Chapter 754: This person is terrifying!

Next to Master Liu looked shocked, "Who are the three of you? No, you are a note! Come here, kill them for me."

"It's a pity that you know it's too late! Playing with you all night, it's really exhausting, you don't have to come out early, you can hide in the back! It made me wait so long."

The beater next to him rushed up with an iron rod. Qin Yuan's speed was very fast. A sweeping leg directly kicked these beaters down, picked up the iron rod, and beat the group of people severely. Many beaters rushed outside. When he came in, he carried two iron rods and attacked left and right. The thugs didn't even get close to him, and they had fallen.

Yang Liang next to him was already shocked and speechless. Originally, he planned to do it. It seemed that it was really unnecessary. A thug rushed towards him. He was about to fight back, but he was kicked into the glass by Qin Yuan. On, Yang Liang has been blinded, how did this person achieve his speed! It wasn't the one who was on the other side just now, why was it in front of me in an instant?

Yang Liang was thinking about waiting for a fight just now to prepare to save Qin Yuan and He Chenguang. It seems that this is really unnecessary. The boss saw that the situation was wrong and wanted to escape. Qin Yuan kicked the boss on the back. I wanted to bring the boss back, but I didn't expect that this person couldn't help beating too much, and his shoulder was directly dislocated.

There was a scream and constant wailing, Qin Yuan was too annoyed to listen, "That Yang Liang, you go and shut his mouth, look after him, don't let him run."

The chaos under the casino at this moment has turned into a pot of porridge, and the staff have also taken out their weapons from under the table, and many hands have rushed towards the room. The current gambler is unknown. Therefore, the door is closed and can't run out and can only hide under the table.

At this moment, Yang Liang was like watching a martial arts movie. Watching Qin Yuan and He Chenguang clean up the group of thugs, Qin Yuan directly picked up one person and threw it out like a whip. The thugs next to him fell down. How did it do it, the power, speed, and response power is simply not human!

Qin yelled unhappily as he played, "Oh, you guys all come together, don't hold back! Hey, say you, what are you running!"

These thugs are like prey, being played by Qin Yuan. These people are really too weak compared to the mercenaries. It is better to change this room and fill up with thugs.

Some thugs lost their weapons and fled outside. This person is too powerful and can't beat the sky. He can only run. A few thugs quickly ran outside. Unexpectedly, love started and jumped directly in front of them. "I said Do you guys have any professional ethics? Since you are the security guards, you must do your utmost to protect the safety of your boss!"

Yang Liang saw Qin Yuan chasing the thugs everywhere from upstairs. How could he feel the other way around? The thugs fled and screamed for help.

All these people thought in their hearts that the person in front of them must be a lunatic, not just a devil. It is really ironic that one of the thugs even took out the phone to call the police. The group was directly scared by Qin Yuan and took the initiative to call the police.

"Hey! I want to call the police, help, someone wants to kill me!"

"This citizen, please take care to avoid and protect yourself. Tell your specific location and we will dispatch the police immediately!"

At this time, the thugs stopped talking, and suddenly thought of something, this should not be said. Qin Yuan knocked the thugs over and took the call. "The address is at the Starry Sky Bar on Qingshan Road."

Yang Liang came down and asked, "How do you know where we are and we are still in the bar? I remember the car was still driving quite far."

"Well, I found that they were driving on a deliberate detour. We should be back to the original point after going around twice. We came down a big  when we came in. I wonder if you noticed when we entered the bar before. , There is a parking lot at the side entrance of the bar, there is a small exit, but there are eight or nine people on duty, which is very strange."

"So you think we've been in the bar and haven't gone out. It seems that these people are really cunning."

Yang Liang called here and the bureau to report the situation and told them the specific location. In order to confirm his conjecture, Qin Yuan walked out of the gate. The thugs here were basically eliminated, and he saw a big  and followed the big slope. Going up the slope, it turned out to be the parking lot entrance of the bar door.

As the sirens sounded, Yang Liang led one of the police forces into the back passage first and found the illegal staff in the bar. Then they scared the underground passage. Everyone was shocked. Such a big underground casino, ten A few gambling machines, I won't talk about that, mainly because so many thugs were overpowered by Qin Yuan and the others.

The boss was called Liu Fei, and he was limp on the sofa because of a dislocated shoulder. He didn't expect the boss to say to Yang Liang before he left, "Hehe, do you really think it's that simple? I tell you, you are offended Those who shouldn't offend, you will all be finished."

Qin Yuan came over, that Liu Fei was so scared that he kept backing away. This person is really terrifying. With so many thugs, he didn't hurt him at all. "I heard that you are threatening my brother. It seems that you have another shoulder. I don't want it anymore!" Qin Yuan just finished speaking, and he pulled his other shoulder directly with a light lift.

"Oh, I didn't expect you to be so weak, and I couldn't help but touch it!"

Everyone rummaged through this underground casino but did not find Zhao Min. It seemed that Liu Fei could only be interrogated first. In the end, Liu Fei only confessed that Li Lei was indeed killed by them, including the previous few people. He also took out Li Lei. The IOU.

Originally, Li Lei still had the few people in front of them, and they didn't intend to kill them. After all, if they were alive, then they would have money to make money. It was only because Li Lei and the two people who died before quietly contacted them. The huge amount of money under the money, countless usury and rolling profits overwhelmed a few people.

The three people even guessed the location of the casino after speaking out their respective information. They planned to use this to threaten the casino and finally get rid of the casino, but they never thought that the casino was very powerful, so they dared to kill them outside. Originally, the casino had already found a scapegoat, but some circumstances were delayed, which gave Qin Yuan and the others a chance to investigate.

It turns out that under the temptation of their serial routines, Li Lei lost all the 1.2 million that sold the house. She chose her own organs. He was unwilling. Finally, he hit his newly married wife Zhao Min. For fifty thousand yuan, Zhao Min was sold to the people in the casino, but Liu Fei did not explain the fate of Zhao Min.

In any case, give him lenient treatment, and tell him the following interests, but this Liu Fei just insists that he doesn't know anything. It seems that there are people behind Liu Fei, and the influence is relatively strong, Yang Liang Looking at him firmly, "No matter how powerful the umbrella behind you is, Yang Liang, I, will definitely catch all of you trash that is harmful to the people, and leave no one behind!"

Because the matter here is not over yet, the police can only continue to investigate, but the matter seems to have turned into a dead end. There was no financial contact with Liu Fei, and no people in close contact with him. In fact, this Liu Fei is a puppet.

Qin Yuan and He Chenguang have been here for a long time, but things have not progressed. They can only return to the military area first. If there is news, they will come together to assist.

Yang Liang drove the two to the airport. After this incident, his admiration for Qin Yuan's five-body attitude, he underestimated them.

"Brother Qin, I'm sorry! Before, I had no knowledge of the frog at the bottom of the well, and I still had doubts and misunderstandings about you. Your skill is really great. This time I said that you are here to study. In fact, I learned from you! I didn't invite you to have a good meal."

"It's all my own brothers, don't say so much. Everyone is doing things for the people. When the case progresses, we will work together to wipe out this group. Then we can celebrate it. It's not anxious."

"Just tell your kid, I believe Brother Qin, no one is more reliable than him, if possible next time, call Li Erniu and Wang Yanbin, and our brothers will get together."

After bidding farewell to Yang Liang, Qin Yuan and the others returned to the military area. They did not expect that they just arrived downstairs in the dormitory. Li Erniu rushed over in a hurry, "Qin Yuan, you are back, but you have to be careful. Looking for you everywhere! I am taking the risk to inform you."

"What's the situation? I just arrived, and he can't wait to miss me!"

"You can pull it down, Brother Qin, you can have a snack, I think the Dragon team does not miss you, she wants to chase you down!"

Then Li Erniu quietly handed over a document. This is a commendation order issued by the director of the Changzhou Public Security Bureau. I don't know which one wrote it. He wrote the process in great detail, especially Qin Yuan's sacrifice of hue and Xiaoling hugged the ambiguous section.

Oh, let me go, who did it, is this a reward or harm me? However, I heard from Li Erniu that because this award order came to the military area, Gao Shiwei and Fan Tianleilong Xiaoyun knew about it at present, but Enron and the others are not aware of it.

The three of them were talking, and Long Xiaoyun rushed over with a training gun aggressively, "Qin Yuan! Finally found your kid!"

He Chenguang saw that something was not going well, and quickly retreated with Li Erniu. Let them solve their problems by themselves, or don't get mixed up.

"Well, Xiaoyun, listen to my explanation, I'm all here to complete the task, you know."

"Yeah, I know the truth, but with my hand, I just can't help but want to hit someone." After Long Xiaoyun finished speaking, he directly carried the gun and hit Qin Yuan. Although it was an empty bullet, it hit. It was still a little painful, and Qin Yuan could only keep avoiding.

Gao Shiwei in the office looked at the two people chasing in the playground with his hands behind his back. He took a sip from his teacup and said slowly: "Look at these young people now that they are full of vitality. They just came back and just played around like this. "

Fan Tianlei said coldly beside him, "Team Gao, if I remember correctly, you deliberately let Long Xiaoyun see that report, right?"

"Hahaha, since your kid has spotted him, come over and eat melons, when have you seen that kid Qin Yuan be so embarrassed and chased."

Then the two of them acted like melon-eating crowds by the windowsill, and from time to time they acted as martial arts instructors, "Oh, Xiaoyun, hit him in the stomach, it's a pity, almost!"

Qin Yuan said or said, he was let go after Long Xiaoyun tidied up. In fact, he was already very conscious, this time it was really for the task! Looking at Li Erniu and He Chenguang who were snickering next to him, Qin Yuan smashed the bread in his hand, "By the way, you two stinky boys just left me and ran away. I'm so embarrassed to laugh here and get Lao Tzu up all ten kilometers Strike with a heavy load!"

"Brother Qin, we were wrong, are you kidding?"

"Do you think I am joking? Everyone has gathered. It's really that I haven't been here these days. Your skin is loose. You have to train you."

Wang Yanbing was taking a bath and suddenly the assembly call sounded, and the shampoo on her head had not yet been rinsed off. After knowing what happened, she carried her bag and whispered: "I knew that I was venting at us. I have the ability to find Long Xiaoyun. Afraid of my wife!"

Qin Yuan chased after him with sunglasses, "I thank you, I am not deaf yet. Seeing that you still have the strength to speak, then I will give you a five-kilometer package and 100 push-ups!"

A few days later, Gao Shiwei asked Qin Yuan to lead the red blood cell team to carry out an * mission. A prison in Songcheng had to be relocated because the old prison had a long time, many lines and facilities were aging, and various insecurity factors , A new prison has been built, and some lightweight prisoners have been sent over in batches.

Now there are some heavy prisoners and death row prisoners. These prisoners are most prone to accidents to avoid accidents on the road. The prison has applied for special police to cooperate, and for safety reasons, the military area is used for defense.

Qin Yuan talked to everyone about this mission in the car' One is to prevent prisoners from escaping in the car, and the other is to prevent someone from robbing the prison car. There is a total of 25 kilometers on the road from the old prison to the new prison. , It's not too far, but the goal during the day is too big, so it's all night.

After one o'clock in the morning, the police set up special cards for some roads. The traffic police cooperated with the clearing to ensure that the prison cars were smooth and quiet all the way. There was no problem. When the front was approaching a school, a prisoner suddenly stood up from his chair. stand up.

The guard next to him immediately stepped forward and held the man "Zhang Hengyu, what are you doing? Sit down!"

"I'm sorry, instructor, this is my son's school. Let me have a look. Since I came in, I haven't seen him for three years. Next month, I won't have a chance!"

The guard next to him sighed and seemed to have acquiesced to Qin Yuan to walk over and guard him. At this time, only the security room was lit at the school entrance, and the teaching building was dark. At this time, the students should have gone to bed.

Qin Yuan glanced at it. A small head was exposed on the school wall. He was a little alert. He wanted to pick up the gun, but saw that it was a child, so he patted Zhang Hengyu next to him and pointed at the wall.

Chapter 755: Yang Liang sacrifice

He glanced at it, and suddenly leaned on the glass with excitement. The guard next to him hurriedly controlled him. Zhang Hengyu was handcuffed on his hands and the glass was tightly clasped. His eyes were red. "Xiao Fang! It's my son! Why is he there? What is this kid doing this night?"

The prison car did not decelerate. It was only for ten seconds. Gradually, nothing was seen. Qin Yuan looked at him and slowly said, "The whole Songcheng knows that the prison is about to be relocated. I think he wanted to see it in this way. you deside!"

Zhang Hengyu seemed to understand something. He raised his hand and cried with a headache. The clothes in the prison were all colored according to the sentence of the crime. He wore a death sentence. Combined with what he just said, it should be next month. Executed.

After a while, Zhang Hengyu stopped crying. The carriage was very quiet. He was about to enter the new prison. He turned his head and looked at his reflection in the window, and said, "Instructor, I want to understand. I have something to explain. , I want to explain about Liu Fei in Changzhou!"

Qin Yuan became interested when he heard Liu Fei's words. Isn't this the leader of the underground organization they had just captured some time ago? Could it be that things have changed, but now he is in the car, and I will ask him carefully later.

After arriving at the new prison, the prisoners were settled. Qin Yan and the prison guards here talked about the situation. This Zhang Hengyu may have something to do with the Changzhou case that he had taken over. He applied to sit on the sidelines. This is not a problem.

Next, the policeman in charge of Zhang Hengyu's previous case came to record. Qin Yuan looked at the map. How did the distance between Changzhou City and Songcheng connect Liu Fei?

Zhang Hengyu was charged with intentional murder. The surveillance at the time showed that it was indeed the person who killed him, two lives. However, he killed him without even knowing who he was. How he refused to explain it back then may be seen now. To my own child, plus the death penalty will be executed next month, I want to tell the story.

It turned out that Liu Fei instructed Zhang Hengyu to kill this person. At that time, Liu Fei also had an underground casino here. Zhang Hengyu was just one of the gamblers, but he was wiped out by the police when he was just established.

At that time, Zhang Hengyu owed a huge amount of gambling money. He had no choice but to listen to their instructions to kill people to pay back. He had no experience at all. After committing the crime, he was arrested by the police. Liu Fei was very powerful and warned him not to ask the police. Tell any news, otherwise he will start with his family.

Zhang Hengyu only knew that Liu Fei asked him to kill at the time, as if it was because these two men had offended the local wealthy businessman, but he didn't know the specific situation. Liu Fei asked him not to inquire, because these people were very strong backstage.

It seems that after going back, you can make a call with Yang Liang and ask him to start with a few wealthy local businessmen to check whether their recent trading network is related to Liu Fei, because the previous investigation of Liu Fei's background was even too clean. Nothing is involved. Money can make ghosts go around. These wealthy businessmen are suspicious.

The * mission of the prison here was successfully completed, and they also accidentally learned the clues of the previous case. Qin Yuan and the others had just returned to the military region. Gao Shiwei was already waiting for Qin Yuan in the office. This time he called He Chenguang, Li Erniu, and Wang Yanbing. Came in.

A document was placed on the table, and they beckoned them to open it. They didn't expect that the document contained a notice of Yang Liang's sacrifice! He Chenguang couldn't believe it. Before he left, this person was fine, and everyone had agreed to go to dinner together, so he suddenly sacrificed.

Not only Yang Liang reported the deaths of five criminal police officers in Changzhou's report. They were all members of the team led by Yang Liang. Yang Liang and his team were serious crime teams and they paid great attention to it and immediately established an inspection team. These people investigated and found that the last case they took over was Liu Fei's underground casino case. Qin Yuan and the others were also involved in this case, so the police notified Gao Shiwei.

One is that they want the military to provide assistance. On the other hand, they have participated in the detection before and should have some understanding of the case. After all, the only people handling the case are Qin Yuan and He Chenguang.

Both Yang Liang and Li Erniu knew each other, and Gao Shiwei let the four of them go over together and set off immediately, one was to assist in the investigation, and the other was to see Yang Liang off.

He Chenguang really couldn't figure it out. Yang Liang had also been a soldier before, and there was no problem with close combat captures. The five members of their serious crime team were not weak in combat effectiveness. Who could kill them all.

Qin Yuan was very regretful sitting in the car. If he and He Chenguang were not in a hurry to come back, but stayed there to investigate with him, this would not happen. He should have found some important clues before being behind. Of the organization.

Qin Yuan and the others came to Changzhou again to pick them up. It was a young criminal policeman. He was Yang Liang's apprentice named Li Yong. Because he did not participate in their action this time, they escaped, but only a few days later. People are separated from yin and yang, and there is no time to grieve, so they rushed to the public security bureau with Qin Yuan. Now Yang Liang and their bodies are still parked in the forensic room of the bureau.

Li Yong talked about the details of what happened. After Qin Yuan and the others left, Yang Liang immediately started the case and visited and investigated. He had many informants, some of whom were small gangsters, but it was these gangsters who reported the news. More informed.

That day there was an informant who said that there was a new situation and he wanted to report to Yang Liang and the others. It was very likely that they found their party members. Because it was still uncertain, Yang Liang took a few team members and planned to investigate the situation first. The meeting place was a three-story building. Yang Liang and the others were ambushed as soon as they entered, and they were shot.

"What's the situation? That group actually has guns!" You know that guns are prohibited in Yan Country. No wonder the police immediately sent a notification and the military to ask for help. When guns are involved, this is a big case, and the sacrifice is still on the front line. Criminal police.

In the forensic room, according to the forensic doctor's introduction, Yang Liang was the last to die. He had six shots in his body. According to the extent of the wound, the forensic doctor inferred that the first shot hit Yang Liang's calf first and then hit his thigh. Yang Liang had two shots in his arm and shoulder after he fell to the ground with heavy bleeding, and the last two shots were fired to the heart.

The rest of the detectives were killed by a single shot, very accurate, so they inferred that they should be a professional killer. There were no effective footprints and fingerprints on the scene, and they were obviously cleaned up. The police do not even know whether the killer was a single person or a group of people.

Li Erniu patted the table angrily. "Fuck, this group of beasts is simply torturing and killing, and Liangzi watched his brother being killed, and finally he was tortured again. This group of scumbags, I really want to personally kill him. Catch them!"

Yang Liang's corpse was just like that, lying quietly on the dissection table. Except for the scars on his face, the bullet holes on his body were very obvious. Qin Yuan was full of anger. He would definitely catch this group of scumbags with his own hands, "Li Yong, you Take us to the scene of the crime, I want to see if there are any clues?"

When they came out, a few people passed by the office, Yang Liang's wife, and the family members of other policemen came to collect the relics, because their remains could not be cremated for the time being, everyone was very sad and angry. Yang Liang's wife was followed by a three-year-old child. The child didn't know anything, so he sat quietly and watched his mother tidy up things.

Qin Yuan couldn't bear to walk through the office quickly. He Chenguang beat the cushion in the car. He regretted why he didn't stay for a few more days. Yang Liang's child was so young that he had no father.

The car was infected by the grief and speechless all the way. The three-story building was cordoned off by the police. After entering the room, a case found a white circle out of the scene.

Qin Yuan closed his eyes and thought. The killer should be one or two people. Yang Liang and the others had no lights when they entered. The door was locked by the authorities and attacked in the dark. The first policeman fell at the door on the left, willing to watch. Some traces of ballistics should have been caused when Yang Liang and the others fought back.

The assassin's hiding position is very professional, and the angles and heights are all in place. He Chenguang is a little confused, is this assassin also a sniper? "Sniping is only one of the items that professional killers must train. We spread out and looked around. If it is a person, he will leave flaws and clues."

Everyone looked for it inch by inch and didn't miss any place. Li Yong said with a little discouragement: "This place has been cleaned up too clean. Before, more than 30 comrades from our criminal investigation team searched together, and there was no clue!"

Unexpectedly, as soon as Li Yong's voice fell, Qin Yuan discovered the situation, because according to the report, the murderer turned the window and fled. At that time, the only passage was the gate, and there were institutions inside the gate that were not destroyed. The door was opened violently, only the windows on the second floor were open.

Qin Yuan felt a bit counter-intuitive, and there were windows on the first floor, so why didn't he run from the first floor and had to walk from the second floor, so Qin Yuan went straight to the first floor, he lay on the ground, knocking on every tile, Finally there is a different sound.

He carefully pried the cracks in the floor tiles with a saber. After opening the floor tiles, there was a dark passage below. It seemed that the killer was very cunning. He did not escape from the outside at all, just to mislead the police to investigate and monitor and waste police force. The underground passage escaped and bought time.

Li Yong was a little shocked. Over 30 of them hadn't found this place. Qin Yuan asked him to go back and inform the others that the four of them would go down first.

"Captain Qin, or wait until our big troops come, we'll go down together." Qin Yuan jumped down directly. "It's too late, one day has passed. If you delay it for a while, there will be no clues. Don't worry. , You just go back and report."

Then Li Erniu and the others jumped into the passage. There was a row of footprints in front of them, which was just one person. It seems that there is only one killer. This passage should be newly dug. Only half-person tall cannibalism has been bent over. It is very fresh. The smell of earth.

After walking for more than 20 minutes, this passage has come to an end. There is a wooden board on it. Li Erniu pushed it. It should be pressed against the heavy object. Qin Yuan walked over and pushed his hand hard, and there was a sound of something broken. , The board broke directly in half.

It turned out that it was a big water tank, but after the skill jumped up, it was found that it was a rental house. The furnishings in the house were very simple, with only one bed and nothing else.

Qin Yuan found the landlord and inquired about the renter's information. He Chenguang checked it and shook his head. It was a fake ID. The landlord thought about it carefully. He only remembered that it was a man, wearing a mask and a hat. , So I never saw that person's face.

The clues here are broken again, but fortunately there are surveillances around. When the police come over, they can ask them to look for the surveillance first. Qin Yuan and the others are all in casual clothes and plan to look around first.

Qin Yuan and the others found a teahouse, sat down on the second floor, and they could just observe the small building. He looked outside, and all kinds of people came and went on the road. At this time, he found that there was a person in the opposite restaurant. Like him, he is watching people on the road.

As soon as Qin Yuan saw the man, he jumped up and "found it!" The people on the opposite side were also very alert and quickly evacuated from the restaurant kitchen. Qin Yuan and the others were chasing after him. Qin Yuan was very fast, and logically he would not chase. Lost, but after rushing to the back door of the kitchen, there was no one.

Ok? There was something wrong. Just now, an employee in the kitchen kept looking at them. Damn, this kid was really cunning. Qin Yuan immediately turned his head and turned back. As expected, a worker ran out quickly.

The man knew where he was caught and ran away desperately. Several people started chasing in the restaurant. Qin Yuan jumped forward and grabbed the man's shoulder. He didn't expect that the man would throw a handful of pepper noodles on his backhand. Qin Yuan quickly evaded, this despicable The villain really angered himself, rushed to the previous one who turned and grabbed the man's cunning, directly turned the man up, and smashed it on the dinner table, twice and three times, the man was no longer lying on the ground. move.

The people in the restaurant were frightened and fled. He Chenguang rushed up and picked up the man. "You * shit, didn't you kill those policemen, '?"

The man vomited a mouthful of blood. "Hehe, I'm already planted today, I won't say anything if I want to kill or slash!"

Qin Yuan looked at the calluses on the man's hand. It was a trace of holding a gun for a long time. It seemed that he had encountered a hard bone this time, and it had already been smashed into this way.

I am willing to step forward and grab the man's hair and smash it to the ground fiercely, "I tell you, Lao Tzu is not a good person. You think I will simply let you die like this. I have a hundred kinds of torture. Your way!"

The foot stepped on the man's shoulder and broke the man's arm directly, and the man screamed in pain, "You are a * lunatic!"

"I'm a lunatic? I see you. How did you torture that policeman? I want you to pay back with a hundred times the pain." Li Erniu took out a leather bag beside the clothes that the man just changed. Hidden weapon, two wads of cash, and a picture of a woman.

Qin Yuan picked up the photo and smashed it on the man's face, "Lao Tzu's style has always been revenge, if you don't say anything, then I will ask the person in the photo, it is not difficult to find her with my ability! "

Chapter 756: Old k's cooperation

The man lying on the ground, when he heard this sentence, endured the desperate struggle with a broken arm, "Fuck you, dare to move her, I will not let you go when I die, you fools, I will take you Kill them one by one!" He was scared, afraid that Qin Yuan would really move that woman.

Qin Yuan punched the man in the face, "You know how to be afraid of rubbish, you know, the policemen you killed also have family members, and the man you killed and killed his child was only three years old. You  bastard, I can't wait Divide your five horses!"

Hearing this, the man was silent and did not speak any more, because he was the key suspect in the case and had to be handed over to the police first. When Li Yong and the others came to take the person, the suspect was bleeding and unconscious and could only be sent to the hospital first.

"Sorry, the shot is a little heavier."

Li Yong had a black line on his face. The doctor said that this man had a whole body fracture, his right hand was useless, and his nerves were injured. Afterwards, he would struggle with chopsticks, and his head was still full of blood. Is this a little bit?

"Anyway, this kind of  is carrying five lives, and it will be a bullet at the time. When he wakes up, he will quickly ask questions and dig out the master behind him."

While waiting outside, Li Yong asked: "Brother Qin, how do you know that he is the killer."

"It's very simple, the eyes still have experience, how to put it, it is the first time I saw him, it was confirmed."

Although the murderer of Yang Liang was found, he should have been instigated, but no matter how powerful the people behind him were, he would give Yang Liang and them a fair truth.

After a while, the doctor came out and said that the person was awake and could enter the questioning, but the patient was very weak, try not to irritate him too much, Li Erniu gave a cold snort, and it was fine if he didn't kill him.

This time, the deputy director of the Changzhou Public Security Bureau was responsible for leading the investigation. Two policemen were holding notebooks to prepare records. The deputy director came to interrogate himself.

"Come on, who is the chief envoy behind you? How did you communicate?"

The man didn't even look at the deputy director, turned his head and said nothing, "I'm telling you, what's your attitude? You have to figure out your identity, that's five lives! Five families are involved, you'd better treat you Tell me honestly!"

But the man on the bed was still unmoved. Li Erniu couldn't help but want to rush over to beat the * off. At this moment, the man opened his eyes and looked at Qin Yuan standing next to him.

"All of you go out, I just want to talk to him alone!"

The deputy chief saw that the man had this attitude, so he didn't put him in his eyes at all. Instead, he wanted to react with Qin Yuan. He immediately got angry and raised the man directly. "Do you really think I have good patience? Here? You have the final say!"

"Hehe, I have lived enough anyway. They are all people who are dying. I want to talk about it now. I will change my mind and say nothing!"

Facing this kind of person, there was really no way. The deputy director glanced at Qin Yuan. He had heard that this person had knocked down all the thugs in the casino. In order to solve the case as soon as possible, he had to agree to the man's request first.

Seeing everyone going out, the man slowly said, "I have forgotten my name and haven't mentioned it for a long time, but everyone calls me old K. Anyway, it doesn't matter, what's important is what I said next. ."

Qin Yuan pulled a stool and sat opposite him and looked at Old K. This old K is a professional killer. He used to be a soldier abroad and a bodyguard for others. His anti-reconnaissance awareness is very strong. His skill could indeed run away, but he stayed to wait for Qin Yuan. He heard that Qin Yuan had killed all the thugs in that underground casino alone.

After fighting Qin Yuan, he knew that Qin Yuan was very good, so he just wanted to tell him that he wanted him to help himself.

Although he did not want to kill, he did it for the girl in the photo. That girl was his sister. She was mortgaged to the casino by her boyfriend a month ago. This old K looked around because her boyfriend was also inexplicably disappeared, all the clues were broken, he did not give up frantically inquiring about clues to the underground casino.

A man at the back came to him. The man was very mysterious. He wore a white mask and asked him to kill a few people. After the end, he would tell his sister where he was. Old K didn't want to be controlled by others, and the masked man still took it. A bunch of his sister's hair threatened him, and if he didn't obey, it would be her sister's finger next time.

Old K was about to kill the person with the white mask, but the man told Old K that if he died, his sister would not survive. There was no way to find his sister. Old K could only agree to him. Claim.

"As for I tortured and killed the policeman, it was just because of their inaction. My sister had been missing for so long, and I also called the police, but they did it every time. I don't even know if she is alive in the world now. He and them all deserve to die!"

Qin Yuan looked at Old K coldly, took out a document bag from the bag behind him, and threw it directly in front of Old K, "You can open it yourself! The so-called inaction policemen in your mouth are for a How much effort did the stranger put in!"

Old K opened the file bag. It contained all his sister's information photos. The details of everything that her sister did the day before her disappearance, every thing recorded by every surveillance camera, are densely recorded, and old K has some Can't believe "How is it possible? So they have been investigating!"

"They are even more careful than you. They have not let go of any monitoring. They have given up the opportunity to reunite with their families. They work overtime and visit everywhere just to find the missing person, and you kill the person who helped you personally, and you are likely to miss the rescue. Your sister's timing, you indirectly killed her!"

At this time, Old K couldn't hold back anymore. He picked up the quilt and covered his face, crying, crying and pounding his head with his hands, "Sorry, sorry, I am a sinner! I damn! I am guilty."

"Well, it's useless to say that now. Now it must be to find the behind-the-scenes envoy. It is possible to find your sister. Tell me in detail. Where did you meet?"

The man was panting because of his emotions. After a while, he slowly said, "The man said that I should take care of things. He will come to Maple Leaf Park to find him in five days. He will take me to see my sister."

Qin Yuan looked at his watch, "Do you have any specific contact information and time?"

Old K shook his head. The man was very cunning and didn't give any contact information, "But I can be your undercover agent, and I will go to Maple Leaf Park later, because I trust you, I think you can definitely beat you He, although I am guilty, my sister is innocent. I hope you can save her."

"We have an obligation to save every innocent civilian. You don't need to remind you!"

When Qin Yuan walked out of the ward, he said that the poor man must be hateful. He had no sympathy for this man. When he killed Yang Liang and the others, they never thought that they would have family members. This old K is a selfish little boy. people.

Qin Yuan and the deputy director outside reflected what Old K said, and now that the news of their arrest of Old K has not spread, they can use Old K to fish out the behind-the-scenes master.

Two days later, old K appeared in Maple Leaf Park as scheduled. Qin Yuan and the others pretended to be tourists and scattered around. Old K sat quietly on the bench in the park. From morning to afternoon, the brothers at the door heard news. A strange man with a clown mask walked in through the park gate.

All departments got ready, the clown walked up to Old K, bent down and whispered: "I didn't expect you to be such a ghost, but you are still alive!" At this time, old K was bandaged on his hands and hitting his feet. The plaster looked very embarrassed.

"Hehe, thanks to you too, now I will kill for you too, what about my sister?"

"You did very well this time. Your skills are much better than those wastes, so how am I willing to let you go? Just stay with me and do things for me. Don't worry, your sister is very safe! "

"Damn, you bastard, you said yes, I did something for you, so take me to find my sister!"

At this time Qin Yuan and their headsets received instructions for action, and Qin Yuan ran up with a sprint, and the clown noticed something was wrong, "Old K! Fuck you, you look for me! Then you don't want to see me again in your life. Your sister!"

The clown took out a pistol from his waist. Qin Yuan took the brunt. He removed the magazine directly before he pulled the trigger and punched the man on the ribs. He didn't expect that he would take the punch. The clown's jumping ability is very good. Qin Yuan looked at it. It was not a particularly powerful move, just a Muay Thai.

"Do some fancy one day, can you be practical!" After Qin Yuan finished speaking, he directly grasped the man's fist, and then slammed the man to the ground one by one, suppressing him with his backhand.

Unexpectedly, this man seemed to have the ability to shrink bones. His body was so soft that he broke free of Qin Yuan. He took out a mysterious ball from his bag and smashed it on the ground. In an instant, there was white smoke billowing all around, Qin Yuan smiled. Little tricks can't bother him.

Qin Yuan saw clearly in the white smoke. He walked over and pressed * the man's shoulder. The man couldn't move for a moment, but he took out a Swiss army knife with his left hand and stabbed it towards Qin Yuan. He slightly raised his hand, two My fingers clamped the saber, and he bent the saber with a slight force.

The clown was very shocked. He felt that it was impossible. How powerful was this man to bend the knife with two fingers! Qin Yuan kicked him out of the range of white smoke, then the others rushed up, pressing the man firmly.

Qin Yuan walked over and took off his mask. He didn't expect that it was the driver who sent them to the bar before! Because Qin Yuan glanced when he got out of the car, no wonder he felt his voice was familiar.

At this moment, the man was pressed to the floor, before he came out of Qin Yuan's shock of bending his saber. After he brought the man back to the police station for questioning, this man knew he was arrested and gave up. After all, he was not the direct attacker. , There is still a chance for leniency, so I immediately explained everything.

It turns out that this underground casino was opened by a few rich people in Changzhou. These rich people are ranked in Changzhou. These rich second-generation sons don't need money. They just want fun. With money, everything is fine. Office, the so-called loan sharking companies are all their own.

These wealthy people started playing by themselves, but later found that this was more profitable than their normal business, so they raised a large group of thugs and used money to win people's hearts. After all, they are all sturdy figures in Changzhou and it is not convenient to show up. I found Liu Fei, a puppet.

As for the gamblers who took out their wives and girlfriends for mortgage, these people were secretly sent to some bathing centers to be young ladies. At that time, Yang Liang and the others happened to find a bathing center. Yang Liang already felt that there were some problems. There are a lot of eyeliners, but after all, it is a policeman and no one dares to pick up this stall.

Several people thought that if things were exposed, everyone would have to enter the game. This Zhang Wei was a Muay Thai coach before and had some kung fu. These rich men gave Zhang Wei 5 million to let him solve the previous police. In order to monopolize the 5 million, he just came down to report that someone was investigating the missing woman.

He investigated the background of old K. This man is a professional killer. The main ability is very reliable and will not miss, so he used old K's sister to threaten him.

Looking at Zhang Wei's explanation, the deputy director frowned solemnly, "These people belong to Changzhou's economic lifeline and have strong financial resources. If the evidence is conclusive, then once they step down, Changzhou's entire economic lifeline will be hit hard! "

"What do you mean if the evidence is conclusive? Do you want to let them go? The economy of Changzhou is not in your control! This is not just the lives of Yang Liang and the five of them. Their case involves a lot of them. , The abduction and trafficking of people's underground casinos, special goods from wine yards, and illegal possession of guns and ammunition. Any of these is enough for them to sentence."

"I know everything! But you are not in my position, you don't understand!"

He Chenguang was very annoyed. How could this kind of person become so material? And this is a matter of principle, anyway? He and Qin Yuan will investigate this matter to the end, and everyone involved in this matter will not let it go.

Qin Yuan slammed the door, and He Chenguang and Li Erniu followed, so they went to investigate by themselves, because after all, this is only Zhang Wei's one-sided words. If it is true that these rich men are rich, there are many things. It will be resolved, and the evidence can be forged. When the time comes, they will kill them and push them all on Zhang Wei.

Therefore, Qin Yuan intends to go out to find evidence by himself, and start with Liu Chen, the first rich man. This Liu Chen belongs to his son's father's business. He has many business projects, including real estate projects, and several large foot baths in Changzhou. The city is also his, but it is still difficult to see this Liu Chen.

Chapter 757: The truth emerges

It is estimated that there are many bad things. Liu Chen does not have a fixed residence. He lives in several hotels, and a group of bodyguards follow him wherever he goes.

Qin Yuan and the others have followed Liu Chen for the past two days. Because of the hacker invading the system, Qin Yuan easily hacked into his mobile phone. These people were too cautious. There was no information about the casino in the mobile phone. It seemed that they were just meeting and talking. , Or there are other written contracts.

Although no valid evidence was found in the mobile phone, I was willing to find a news that this process invited several other wealthy people to come to the house to eat new things. This was a good opportunity. In the evening, Qin Yuan and the three followed Liu Chen to a senior Clubhouse.

"Brothers, what we did this time may not be thankful. Are you willing to take this risk with me? In fact, I can go alone. If there is any problem then, I will be alone!"

He Chenguang took out the prepared recording pen, "Brother Qin, our brothers have been fighting side by side for so many years, do you think we will let you bear it alone? No matter what, I have to be fair."

"Yeah, Brother Qin, don't worry, we are not afraid of the fall of a few days, any brothers will come together!"

This kind of clubhouse even had to show a VIP green card to enter. It seemed that the only way to start was from the bodyguards. The three found a chance to knock out a few bodyguards, put on the clothes of the bodyguards, and walked into the hotel openly.

The guard below asked strangely: "Where are the three of you? Why haven't I met you?"

"Brother, we are President Liu's bodyguards. It is because some of us are new and ignorant, so we are late for a while. Now we have to tell us to go up and give him things. This can't be delayed, and we will have to be scolded again! "

"Yes, oh, it's really hard to be a bodyguard for these rich people, go up there, brothers!"

Qin Yuan and the three people successfully mixed in. These rich people would enjoy it. They booked a presidential suite. Qin Yuan and the others quietly solved all the bodyguards outside, opened the door and went in. These people were taking drugs. There were some women who were exposedly dressed and were suddenly disturbed, very upset.

Liu Chen said with an impatient look: "Get out quickly, who let you in? Don't distract me!"

Qin Yuan pretended to be alarmed and said: "Mr. Liu, it's not good, Zhang Wei has been caught by the police. We just learned the news, so we rushed to report."

A few rich people suddenly panicked when they heard that they waved to let the women go down, "Fuck, this idiot is so unreliable, I hope he won't confess us."

The person next to me said: "I said at the beginning not to touch the police. You must not listen. This is a big deal!"

Liu Chen knocked the medicine at the moment, and Yao Jin started to come up a little crazy, "You are a bully, and you have to make money, and you are afraid of this. Hahaha, are you just a few policemen? I have money. You can take the money to kill them as much as you want!"

"After all, those poor ghosts don't want to use these police affairs to ask for money. I will give him 2 million yuan. See if he is enough? Hahaha!"

The person next to him also laughed, "Yeah! We have money. I want to hire the best lawyer, and I will pour all those things on Zhang Wei. They have no evidence anyway!"

Qin Yuan had already squeezed his fists in anger at this moment, and that Liu Chen walked over staggeringly, "Don't you? Don't those poor ghosts just want money, screaming grandpa, happy to give you fifty thousand, money this Things are omnipotent."

Qin Yuan punched the man directly in the face. The man was still not awake, he fell directly to the ground, his spirit was crazy, "Hey! You bugs, you dare to hit me, I, I will shoot you now. Done." After speaking, he staggered to the side of the cabinet and took out a black pistol from the drawer.

The insurance didn't open and pointed at Qin Yuan's head, "Have you seen? This is a real guy, an authentic American product. As long as I have money, I can buy anything. You bugs, you can't get something for a lifetime. !"

Qin Yuan grabbed the pistol and pushed Liu Chen back. After he fell to the ground, he bumped into the sofa at the back. He fainted like this. Qin Yuan was speechless. These people were too weak. I was afraid to hit them directly. dead.

Li Erniu * the remaining maddened rich men with ropes. Qin Yuan and He Chenguang rummaged around inside. No contract or the like was found for the items brought by these people. At this time, Li Erniu tore down. A very delicate wood-carved gourd that Liu Chen hung on his waist.

After twisting the gourd, a U disk fell out of it. Qin Yuan turned on the computer next to him, praying in his heart that it shouldn't be a movie or something. The U disk still needs to enter a password, but Qin Yuan easily cracked it. Up.

It turned out that there were a few people's financial transactions, and there were also some murder videos. It is estimated that they had known the casino information before. These rich people really have a taste for them. Keep these things in it. It seems that this U disk is the evidence.

At this time, the police can be allowed to come and collect the team. Qin Yuan doesn't care. He already has substantive evidence. If the deputy chief dares to cover them, he will definitely not let him go.

After a while, these tycoons slowly came to their senses. They were shocked when they saw Qin Yuan and the others. Liu Chen slowly recalled what he had just said, and immediately looked at Qin

Yuan and said: "We will give you three 3000 Wan, you put down the U disk, nothing happened today!"

Qin Yuan shook his head, "Your price is too low, you want to spend this little money on something like this, I still look down on it!"

"Then how much do you want? I can accept the price you offer, or what do you want?"

"Money is too material, and I don't want it either. I just want the lives of a few of you. After all, murder pays for your lives! Just give me your life."

Liu Chen saw that it didn't make sense, so he said viciously: "Since the soft ones don't eat, then give you the hard ones. Do you know how many bodyguards I have here? You can directly beat you into meat sauce."

Qin Yuan said humbly: "Is it so powerful? Then I'm so scared! Should I let you out?"

At this time, the women who had just gone out ran back quickly, screaming in the room, and a woman tremblingly said: "Out there are the bodies of those bodyguards. It's terrifying. Are there any outsiders invading here?"

"Miss, correct you, it's not called a corpse, they just fainted temporarily!"

At this time, Liu Chen started to panic. He kept saying all kinds of good things and offered all kinds of attractive offers. "As long as you don't hand over us and the U disk to the police, Changzhou, which piece of land do you want? Choose whatever you want."

Qin Yuan was already impatient and kicked him over. This person was quite arrogant just now, but now he is still clamoring that he wants to use money to buy love to buy the judge to buy everyone. Qin Yuan feels that this person has gone crazy and deeply. The land fell into the eyes of money, and he didn't know that some things could not be measured by money.

"Haha, are you already expecting your ending, are you choosing your own graveyard?" Qin Yuan and the others are not interested in these things, Yang Liang and the others are very innocent, just because they have moved the interests of these people. It came out that there are many videos in this U disk, how many innocent lives are involved.

Qin Yuan and the three of them planned to take them back to the police station first, but there was a sound of footsteps outside the door. Qin Yuan made a gesture and hid behind the sofa, only to see a back, this People wear waiter clothes.

"Hey! What do you do?"

The waiter was startled, and turned around, only to find out that this was not the deputy director? At this moment, you look at me, I look at you, the atmosphere is a little bit awkward.

He looked at the three of them wearing the clothes of bodyguards, "Uh, the three of you are also here to find evidence?"

Li Erniu teased: "I think this suit is suitable for you, hahaha, but it can still be strengthened. The footsteps are too heavy, and I can hear them from far away. Fortunately, we have solved the people here. , Otherwise you would have been exposed like this."

It turned out that the deputy director also wanted to find evidence quietly by himself. Qin Yuan and the others misunderstood this person. He was not so much seeking material. He was just worried that because these wealthy forces would cover the sky with only one hand, he would destroy the evidence and start to stun them.

But worrying that other colleagues would be involved in this dispute again, I quietly came to inquire about the news. Everyone was kind, and the evidence was found and obtained, and they returned to the bureau together.

It became clear that the underground casinos and entertainment venues established by this group of wealthy people involved more than 20 murders, involving more than one billion yuan. The dark cloud of Changzhou was finally pierced. The deputy director personally handcuffed them, whether you are. Whoever, how much rights and status you have, as long as you violate the law, you will be punished.

The bodies of Yang Liang and the others could also be cremated into the earth for safety. Yang Liang's wife came to collect his ashes and bowed deeply to Qin Yuan. "Captain Qin, I heard them all. This time Liangzi Thanks to you, thanks to your comrades-in-arms, I thank you for Liangzi!"

"Brother sister, don't say such things. This is what we should do. I said before that we must find justice for him. What I said will definitely be done!" Qin Yuan left him again With a phone call, if you encounter any trouble in the future, you can always find him. After all, the pillar of the family has fallen, and it's an orphan.

He Chenguang personally handed Yang Liang's urn to his wife. Yang Liang's three-year-old son was holding the photo. On his death photo, Yang Liang was wearing a police uniform. He was upright and the child was young. He didn't know what was going on. He just watched. Looking at the photo, He Chenguang couldn't help turning his head and crying quietly. It is because of these unsung heroes who pay silently behind that the people's lives can be more stable.

The matter here is finally resolved. Qin Yuan and the others have returned to the military area. They are all doing their responsibilities. Although Yang Liang has fallen, there are countless Yang Liang. Qin Yuan and them are all unknown heroes and they are silently defending. The security of the motherland.

Before, Qin Yuan and the others escorted diplomats out to discuss the oil issue. Now the oil base there has been established, but the local war is getting more and more serious. In order to ensure the safety of the citizens of Yan country, oil has not been delivered.

However, it is still being exploited. I did not expect that the oil base was provoked by local armed organizations. The most recent violent terrorist incident was that local militants threw grenade near the oil base. At present, it is only a test because they are also worried about the strength of Yan Country.

Gao Shiwei asked Qin Yuan to lead the red blood cell team to  the oil workers over there and deliver the oil safely to the airport. On the other hand, there was a lesson in the past for the militants to let them know that Yan Nation cannot provoke at will.

When Qin Yuan and the others came to this country again, the war really got worse. Many people were displaced. There were refugees everywhere on the street. Once a car passed by, the refugees would rush to ask for food, but Qin Yuan and the others were military vehicles after all. Those refugees are hiding far away.

After a while, I arrived at the oil base. There were more than a dozen staff members in this oil base. A man with the appearance of a leader ran over and shook Qin Yuan's hand and said, "Captain Qin, I am the person in charge of this oil base. My name is Zhao Gang. , You came last night, why didn't you say hello to us, and quietly helped us solve those people. It's great that you came, and we have the confidence to teach them some lessons!"

Qin Yuan looked dumbfounded, what happened, "Wait, we just came today, did something happen yesterday?"

"Ah? Didn't you do it?" Zhao Gang was also surprised.

It turned out that the militants also needed material. Several nearby villages were robbed by them, and most of them were refugees, and they didn't grab anything, so they set their sights on the oil base' but She was also afraid of Yan Nation, and only dared to make some small actions on the periphery.

Every day they surrounded the oil base, lit a bonfire not far from the oil base, and sometimes threw stones and garbage at the oil base, and squatted behind a grenade. When the distance was relatively close, the person in charge of the oil base came out and shouted, no Thinking that it was useless, the distance behind the grenade got closer and closer.

Once the oil was detonated, the consequences would be disastrous. Unexpectedly, this group of people disappeared suddenly last night and did not reappear. Zhao Gang felt that it might be the people sent by Yan Guo who set off early and quietly settled this group.

Qin Yuan shook his head, feeling a little curious. This group of people did not do it by themselves. They might just hide somewhere or plan something. It seems necessary to investigate it first.

Zhao Gang pointed, just 100 meters away from the oil base. The tents of those armed organizations were still there. Qin Yuan walked over with people, and Li Erniu kicked half of the canned food on the ground. Brother Qin, this group of people should have been eating, and then how come they suddenly disappeared? If they are short of supplies, then there is no need for them to lose half of their food.

Then Qin Yuan and the others carefully searched, and although the scene was cleaned, they could still smell blood.

Chapter 758: escort

Qin Yuan's sense of smell was extremely sensitive, and no one else could smell the * smell. He led everyone to search nearby. Not far from these military tents, there was a dilapidated building that was half destroyed by a bomb.

After Qin Yuan approached, he smelled a strong smell of blood. It seemed that people were in this one. "Everyone, beware of problems!"

Everyone opened the safety bolt, presented an attack formation, and slowly walked into the building, but there was nothing inside. This half of the building was trampled on by the bomb. Qin Yuan walked to the underground soil in the middle and was just overturned. The new soil is on it.

Let everyone use an engineer shovel to dig and see. A huge dirt pit will soon be dug. There are eight or nine militants' corpses in it. Qin Yuan jumped down to check the wounds of the corpses. Most of them were killed by one move. It is a cold weapon, and this technique is also very professional.

He Chenguang said puzzledly next to him: "Who did this? It's really amazing! Silently killed this group of people."

Wang Yanbing also said: "Moreover, this place is very close to our oil base. Did some organization kill these militants, and then set the blame on our Yan Army to provoke the war?"

Qin Yuan climbed up from the dirt pit, "It shouldn't be trying to blame us, otherwise this person would not spend so much effort in digging the pit and burying the corpse. It should be difficult to deal with. I still smelled gasoline. , He should want to burn directly, but for some reason, he has no choice but to bury it first."

"What! One person, Brother Qin, do you think it was one person who killed these armed organizations?"

"Yes, the wounds of these armed groups are all from a single person, and the assassination position and intensity are the same, and this person is also very difficult."

Qin Yuan asked Li Erniu and the others to cover up the pit, and then moved some bombed building bricks from behind and threw them on top of the pit. Although I don't know who killed these armed organizations, these corpses are still not allowed. People found that otherwise it was so close to the oil base, and it was really unclear.

After coming out of the building, Qin Yuan probably understood why she chose this building because there was only one building around the area, which was very desolate.

Qin Yuan was a little worried. The armed forces here were too complicated. He didn't want to provoke too much. After he came out, he threw two grenade from inside and completely destroyed the whole building before leaving.

After returning home, he cleaned up the place where the armed groups had stayed. Zhao Gang also ran over and asked: "Captain Qin, I heard an explosion in the distance just now. What happened?"

"Nothing. We have dealt with some minor issues. Are your oil bases ready? When can we leave?" Qin Yuan didn't plan to tell Zhao Gang. The less people know the better now, and he knows these things. Is not helpful, it will only cause panic.

Zhao Gang also understood with interest. In the past, he asked the team to prepare. After a while, all the oil was loaded. The team set off in a mighty manner. Qin Yuan and the others would * Zhao Gang and his party to the airport first. Replace their staff.

Oil is inflammable and explosive. There is no way to transport it by plane, but tank trucks. In this case, the risk is still relatively high on land. The main danger lies in this war-torn country. After going out, there is no threat in other places. .

As the convoy drove onto a piece of sandy land, Qin Yuan squinted at the scenery outside the window, suddenly got up, picked up a sniper rifle, and shot towards the window.

Zhao Gan's nervous voice from the team behind came from the intercom: "Captain Qin, what happened?"

"It's okay, you can rest in the car at ease. I saw a rabbit."

"Oh, that's good, it's not an enemy."

He Chenguang looked at it with a binoculars and said, "Brother Qin, this rabbit you are talking about is really big! It's awesome, you can hit a car that is shaking at such a long distance!"

He Chenguang saw it. It was not a rabbit at all, but an enemy sniper. The sniper lurking in this kind of sandy land is very concealed. The armor-piercing bullet of the sniper rifle, if it hits the tanker, the tank When the car exploded, the people in this convoy were gone.

Fortunately, with Qin Yuan's presence, his marksmanship is still so stable and accurate. Seeing Qin Yuan cast an admiring look, Qin Yuan smiled, did not speak, and continued to look at the scenery outside the window.

After the car drove for a while, Qin Yuan squinted his eyes and saw a group of refugees standing in the middle of the road. He picked up the walkie-talkie and said, "Everyone, be careful that the windows are closed. No parking or getting off the car!"

Then he motioned to He Chenguang to pick up the loudspeaker and shout, He Chenguang nodded, "Attention civilians in front, we are the Yan Nation army, please quickly avoid, warn, please do not do anything extreme, otherwise they will all be shot."

It's not that Qin Yuan and the others are inhumane. They want to threaten the refugees like this. At this time, the refugees are hungry, holding wooden sticks and stones in their hands. These military vehicles are bulletproof and stronger, but the buses behind them are not necessarily. Plus there are tank trucks.

The driver in the car was very nervous, and Zhao Gang next to him comforted him, "It's okay. Captain Qin is here. I heard his name when the diplomat came last time. He is very powerful and he will surely take us back safely. ."

The driver nodded and swallowed nervously. It wasn't that he didn't believe in Qin Yuan, but facing the scene at this time, a group of menacingly holding wooden sticks and stones was personally scared.

After He Chenguang shouted, these refugees did not evade. If special circumstances occur, they can indeed shoot. War has already occurred in this country, and even the government has no time to take care of its own people.

As for Qin Yuan and others in their own country, if their lives are threatened, they will shoot without hesitation.

Seeing that they were about to reach the refugee group, but they still did not disperse, the convoy could only slow down, Qin Yuan opened the sunroof on the car, climbed up, picked up the gun in his hand, warned the sky, and the refugees in front of him hugged in fright. head.

Qin Yuan shouted: "We are the Yan Nation army. Please leave quickly. If you do any aggressive behavior, my next bullet will not go to the sky."

The convoy had been forced to stop by these refugees. At this moment, the refugees suddenly knelt down. There were women and children in front of them, begging for food and water.

A scrawny woman with sunken eyes, holding a child, crawling on her knees and climbing to the rear of the convoy, kept kowtow, "Please give my child something to eat. Anything is fine, please, kind people He is only three years old, and I don't want him to starve to death!" Then refugees kept approaching and kowtow on the ground.

In this case, they did not do anything to harm the convoy, and Qin Yuan and the others were unable to take action, and indeed these refugees were also poor people. When war broke out in the country, the people who suffered most were the people.

Zhao Gang said from the intercom: "Captain Qin, we have some food and water in the car. Otherwise, they will be really pitiful, and then we will leave."

Qin Yuan just said coldly: "Don't open the window, don't open the door!"

Zhao Gang was a little uncomprehending, but still listening to Qin Yuan's inaction, Qin Yuan looked around for a while to make Li Erniu and the others ready for battle.

"What's wrong, Brother Qin, did you find anything?"

"Looking at the group of these refugees from a distance just now, it is very large, but now there are only women and children in front. What about the remaining people? Anyway, everyone should be wary."

After a while, the woman who knocked her head in front had blood on her head, and the child was crying, and then those four or five-year-old children began to slap the carriage, "Please give us some food, give us food, we Just go!"

Two staff members couldn't help it. They opened the window and threw out a box of biscuits. Unexpectedly, it was this box of biscuits that caused chaos in the crowd. All refugees rushed to fight for the box of biscuits.

Qin Yuan picked up the walkie-talkie and shouted, "What are you doing? Hurry up and close the window, and let me go back!" The two staff members were so scared that they quickly closed the windows.

The refugees scrambled for the box of biscuits with red eyes. The cardboard box containing the biscuits was robbed, and the biscuits fell out of it. Some people madly stuffed the biscuits in their mouths, even though they fell on the ground and were trampled by people. Hungry, I picked it up and sent the dirt to my mouth.

Then a large number of refugees poured out from behind, and an old man who took the lead yelled: "Sooner or later, I will die anyway. It is better to grab food from their car if I starve to death. No matter what the Yan army is, everyone!"

The refugees rushed up with stone and wooden sticks. Qin Yuan shot the old man with one shot, and then shot again quickly. The few people in front were all knocked down. Zhao Gang and the others squatted in the car with fear when they saw the gunfight. head.

After shooting these people, the crowd instantly calmed down. The refugees raised their hands and hugged their heads and lay on the ground, crying in a low voice. Qin Yuan felt uncomfortable when he saw this scene. These refugees had mastered the surrender position. I'm just hungry, there is no way.

"If you don't act excessively, I won't shoot. Our Yan Army is not the kind of killing innocent people. I just want to ensure the safety of our people."

Qin Yuan picked up the walkie-talkie, "How much food is there in your car? A little bit. You will eat it later. Throw the rest to them!"

The driver next to them reminded them that they had to drive the oil back. I don't know how many days it will take on the road. After the food is thrown out, what should the people behind do?

"It's fine if you leave this country. I will buy food for you later. You can rest assured that you won't be hungry."

When Zhao Gang heard Qin Yuan say this, he was relieved, and he would do something for these refugees.

Qin Yuan shouted to the refugees again: "Don't move. We will give you food. I don't care how you will distribute it. I will only be responsible for it. After we leave, you will get up again."

Then the window of the bus behind opened, a few boxes of instant noodles and mineral water bread were thrown out. This is also most of the food for Qin Yuan and his team. After all, they did not expect to encounter this situation, but these foods can also be used in this group. A small percentage of people survive, and it is better to have something to eat than nothing.

The refugees looked at the dropped food, their eyes were full of longing, but they did not dare to move. They were still very grateful to Qin Yuan and the others. They slowly moved away and opened a passage, lying on the ground, shouting in their mouths: "Thank you Yan Guo soldier!"

A woman cried and said, "Please forgive us for our previous rude behavior. Thank you. People from many countries have passed from here, but only you stopped. Other countries drove directly into us or took out machine guns. Shoot us, thank you for giving us food!"

Qin Yuan threw a backpack in front of the woman, and let the child live well!

Then the convoy set off slowly, willing to see in the rearview mirror that the group of refugees began to fight again, this is no way.

At this time, Li Erniu suddenly said, "Huh? Brother Qin, why did you throw my backpack? I have all of your food in it! The beef jerky I brought back from China!"

"What's the name? You just lost your backpack by the side, and we really didn't bring anything to eat, so you brought the most."

"My God, Brother Qin, there is still such a long way to go. I think I will become those refugees too."

"Just treat it as a hunger training. After this country goes to the front, I will make you delicious, are you stupid? We have guns! We will give you game to eat after going out."

"Hahaha, this is okay, isn't it just beef? Bring more next time and throw it away."

Then the convoy arrived at the airport. Zhao Gang shook his hand after getting off the car. "Captain Qin is fortunate to have you on this road. Thank you very much. You must pay attention to safety behind you. I am waiting for you in China."

"Okay, go, rest assured!"

This time, there was a lot of oil transported. After Zhao Gang and the staff got off the car, only ten tank trucks remained, each with two drivers, alternately driving, 'Qin Yuan It was better to lead the team by himself, and let Gong Jian lead a few people behind to break.

Except for this small country, it will be very desolate and almost no one will live in the future, because this small country is also frequented by wars, and then there are endless highways. Qin Yuan raised his watch, looked at the time, and asked the team to drive to the grass next to it.

The tank trucks were lined up, with their heads facing the highway, so that if something special happened, they could get on the bus. Qin Yuan left a few people on guard and only took Wang Yanbing and Li Erniu to the opposite woods. Get ready to get something to eat.

Qin Yuan asked everyone to take out the silencer and install it. Although he was in this deep mountain, he didn't know if there were other organizations at the time. He didn't want to disturb too many people.

The three of them searched in the woods. At this time, Li Erniu saw a small deer in front of him. He was grazing with his head down. He raised his gun to trigger the trigger. He did not expect that Qin Yuan would also trigger the trigger at the same time, but Qin Yuan's bullet was directly The bullet that hit Li Erniu was intercepted.

The deer was startled by the movement and ran away quickly.

Li Erniu was shocked, "I'm going! Brother Qin, how did you achieve this speed? You can actually use bullets to block bullets, a master!"

Chapter 759: Encounter the Dragon Army Again

"That deer is pregnant. Look at the others. I see the footprints of wild boars here. Let's go and see the head wild boar."

"Brother Qin, how did you know that deer was pregnant? Could it be you?"

Qin Yuan grabbed the branch next to him and hit Li Erniu, "I said your kid has a loose skin, right? You kid can't see the big belly of that deer?"

"Well, Qin Yuan knows that I was wrong, how can I see that my eyesight is not as strong as yours."

Then Qin Yuan and the others followed the footprints of the wild boar, and they heard a movement in front of them. It turned out to be an adult giant wild boar with long fangs, digging something to eat by the root of the tree.

Wang Yanbing said in a low voice, "I'll be a good boy, this wild boar's tusks are too long, it seems a bit uncomfortable." Beside Li Erniu, he was ready, thinking about  the wild boar.

After all, this kind of adult wild boar is still very hurtful, and the skin is thick and thick. If it is not killed by a single blow, if it is angered, the fangs can break people's hands and feet.

Qin Yuan smiled, no matter how irritating it was, it was it for dinner tonight. He raised his gun and aimed at the wild boar, and shot through the neck artery of the wild boar. Blood spurted out, and the wild boar fell to the ground. twitch.

Wang Yanbing looked at the wild boar lying on the ground in shock. What's the situation? Is it so fast? He didn't even start, Li Erniu ran over, Qin Yuan was too bullish, and the wild boar kept digging under the tree. The thing's head shook, and he was able to accurately aim at the artery that shot through it.

Qin Yuan kicked down the thick-wrist tree next to him, "When Xuefan has something to say, then tie the wild boar to the trunk and we carry it back."

Wang Yanbing came over and weighed the tree trunk. The group of members kicked the tree trunk down just now. The wild boar looked at an estimated weight of more than 300 kilograms. Can this tree support it? Unexpectedly, the trunk of this tree is very heavy. Although Qin Yuan didn't take much effort to look at it, it was actually very strong.

"Brother Qin, you are still such a bull!" A thumbs up towards Qin Yuan.

Qin Yuan can actually carry this pig by himself, but the pig is now full of blood. He really doesn't want to be infected. Qin Yuan put up a tree trunk behind, letting Wang Yanbing and Li Erniu carry it on his own. The person is holding the front.

Just like this, Li Erniu and the others didn't feel any gravity at all. In fact, most of them were quietly transferred by Qin Yuan. Li Erniu was a little puzzled. The wild boar looked so big and didn't weigh much.

After returning to the camp, He Chenguang and the others have set up the tent and raised a bonfire.

"I'm going, this wild boar is so big, Captain Qin and the others are amazing!" The driver next to him kept exclaiming after seeing it.

Gong Jian ran to help prepare to unload the pig, and took the initiative to take the trunk that Qin Yuan was carrying. Your two cows bluffed and said, "Actually, you don't need to come and help. This wild boar looks big, but actually Not very heavy."

Unexpectedly, Qin Yuan just let go of his hands, and these three people fell to the ground at once.

"You bullshit, isn't that serious?"

"No, I didn't feel anything at all on the mountain just now, it was really not heavy, it was just that Brother Qin let go..."

Only then did Li Erniu realized that it was not that the wild boar was not hit, but that Qin Yuan's weight had been carried by Qin Yuan, over 300 kilograms! He felt that Brother Qin was simply a god.

After a while, several people separated the wild boar. Qin Yuan was grilling pork chops next to him, and the rest was boiled in a cauldron next to him. It was the first time those drivers tasted Qin Yuan's craftsmanship, do they think it's the wild relationship? This wild boar is especially delicious.

And Li Erniu had long known that it was Qin Yuan's roasting technique. No matter what was cooked by Qin Ge, it would be delicious.

"Captain Qin, it's great to be with you. There can be wild boar here. It's a great day!"

"Captain Qin, I saw your marksmanship just now during the day, and it was really perfect! Are you the sniper on TV?"

Qin Yuan felt a bit funny, and nodded perfunctorily. There are some things and some identities that ordinary people don't need to know.

"It turns out that the sniper is so powerful, so we are relieved along the way. To be honest, I said that I was going to transport oil. I bought all insurance in China. Hahaha, it seems that the insurance money was paid for nothing."

Li Erniu snickered next to him, "I'm still a sniper, my love brother is a sniper hundreds of times more powerful than a sniper, hahaha!"

After eating, the sky was completely dark. Everyone's tents formed a circle, and the tents were left in the middle. Someone still had to be on duty. The staff on duty were arranged, and everyone went to rest separately.

There was no problem overnight, and the next day the convoy continued to move forward. A week later, the convoy finally arrived in Yan Country. This time the mission was half completed because Qin Yuan and the others had to * the convoy back.

I taught the refugees some lessons before, but the mysterious militant on the oil base died before. The mysterious man was very strong and didn't know whether it was an enemy or a friend, so Qin Yuan planned to go back and see later.

Going back for the second time, the convoy was not hindered in any way, and there was nothing unusual about the remaining staff at the oil base.

The staff on this side of the oil base all belonged to Yan Nation. Not far away, a head suddenly appeared, quietly looking at it, Qin Yuan pretended not to see it, and gave He Chenguang a look at them, and he continued to sit. Drink tea by the side.

After a while, He Chenguang brought a man over. The man was shaking and very nervous.

"Who are you? What do you want to do near our base?"

The man was very nervous and couldn't say a word for half a day. Qin Yuan asked him to take a stool for him and sat next to him for a while.

After a while, the man said, "I'm here to find a savior. He is also from your Yan country."

Savior? And it's from our country. Could it be that mysterious person?

According to the man's account, he originally lived in the village in front of him, but it was very far away. After the war broke out, many people ran to the countryside, and those armed groups were no exception.

They burned, killed, and robbed in the village, doing nothing wrong. The man dug a cellar at home. As long as armed men came in, he took his wife and son to hide in that cellar. However, one day the armed men came very suddenly and they came to  again. thing.

His wife was too late to escape and was discovered. The militants wanted to take his wife away. He had been kneeling on the ground, begging hard. The militants shot and wanted to kill him. At this moment, one was covered with a black scarf. The man with the face rushed in. This person described the man with the black scarf as a god.

"He came like a god, and she quickly solved those demons with a knife, saving our family and giving us a lot of food."

The man said that the person who rescued them also spoke the Yan Guo dialect, but the only oil bases with Yan Guo people nearby, so during this time he came here to observe and wanted to find the savior. He was very scared at the time. I didn't thank my savior well.

Qin Yuan asked the man to look around in the room, but he didn't find the mysterious person he was talking about. Is the mysterious person among the group of Zhao Gang and others who went back before? They were asked to take out photos of them and let him recognize them, but he denied them.

"Brother Qin, he said that the mysterious man was wearing a black scarf. Since he didn't see his face, he would definitely not recognize him."

Unexpectedly, the man waved his hands very excitedly, "No, no, I know his eyes, his eyes are very firm, he is my savior, I will not forget."

I couldn't ask Qin Yuan later. They let the man go, let him find any clues, and then inform himself that several people in the oil base have different opinions on this mysterious man. He Chenguang thinks that this man can save the refugees. That means He is not bad.

"But why does this person help us for no reason?"

At this time Li Erniu stood up suddenly excited, "I see!" Everyone looked at him expectantly.

"I see, this person must be Brother Qin! Who can be so professional, kill those militants, and use cold weapons, is this also Qin's strong point?"

Everyone was very speechless, especially Qin Yuan, "Er Niu, can we stop guessing, how could it be me? Haven't I been with you all the time?"

"Oh, my pig brain, I forgot all this!"

Qin Yuan and the others have been at the oil base for two more days. The situation here is temporarily stable and there is no problem. They plan to patrol the vicinity. There is indeed no situation, so they can consider going back.

Unexpectedly, he met the man on the day of the patrol halfway. The man saw Qin Yuan and the others quickly running over, panting, and said: "You guys come with me, I found the savior, but he was injured. !"

Qin Yuan and the others ran quickly with the man. On the way, the man said that when he went outside to work in the morning, he found the man with a black scarf lying in front of his house when he went out. He knew that he was his lifesaver.

After taking him back, but there was no medicine or doctor at home, so I hurried to the oil base to ask for help. I didn't expect to meet Qin Yuan and the others on the way.

Follow the man and return to the village. There are very few people in this village. The man's house is a low-rise building. Today they saw a man lying on the bed after they entered. Familiar with.

Stepping forward and pulling down the man's black scarf, he didn't expect it to be the Dragon Army! At this moment, his face turned pale, no one else had seen the Dragon Warrior, so he didn't know him, and Qingyuan explained to everyone that this person was the Dragon Warrior.

The hygienist came to inspect his wound. His wound was on the waist. It was shot with a shotgun. This shotgun has a very dense bullet and requires surgery. Now there is no way for this situation. The bullets cannot stay in the body for a long time. In the case of the man, it has been one or two days since he was injured. The wound has been infected. The man is now feverish, so he passed out.

Qin Yuan and the others set up a temporary operating table in the man's house. The hygienist has all the equipment here. Qin Yuan decided to use it himself. After all, he had the skill of rejuvenating medicine before, and this kind of surgery was no problem.

The hygienist didn't expect Qin Yuan to be so proficient in surgery. He was a little surprised and asked: "Team Qin, I just want to know that you are good at surgery, what else can you do? You are simply an all-round talent!"

"Hurt, it's a trivial thing. It's easier to get hurt when doing our job. I have learned a little before, and the class has gotten anxious."

The hygienist looked at Qin Yuan very enviously. The operation he performed was really too powerful. He took every bullet very stably, avoiding every nerve. What is called this technique? It is placed in the hospital outside. , How are they all at the professor level.

Under Qin Yuan's super surgical skills, he sutured the wound of Long Zhanjun and gave him a good medicine. Qin Yuan asked Li Erniu to go back and drive. He must be unable to walk in this situation, but it's not going back to be here all the time. After the car comes, go back to the oil base together and make plans.

After a while, Long Zhanjun woke up, opened his eyes, and looked around vigilantly. The black cloth on his face was gone, a little panicked, but he accidentally pulled the wound, "Hiss!"

Qin Yuan heard the movement and quickly walked to the bed, Long Zhanjun saw that Qin Yuan was relieved.

"Let's talk about it, my father-in-law, what's the matter with you? Study and do good deeds?"

"You brat, I'm hurt now, and I'm still poor with me."

"I think you are in good spirits now. Don't worry, they are all of us. Everyone knows your situation."

"By the way, Xiaoyun, how is it now? After I left, she shouldn't do anything stupid, right?"

"I think if you care so much, why don't you just go back and see her? She's not doing well at all. She misses her father every day and she doesn't think about it."

Long Zhanjun frowned slightly ' suddenly changed his mind, his daughter is similar to his own personality, should not be that fragile, it seems that this kid is fooling himself again.

"Tea Busi, Fan does not want to, that means you didn't take good care of her, I'm going to get your kid cramped!"

At this time, Li Erniu and the others came in a car, and the man rescued by Long Zhanjun ran over and knelt in front of Long Zhanjun to thank him. Long Zhanjun asked Qin Yuan to help him up, "It's okay, it's just a bit of mine. With a little effort, you can take your wife and children and have a good time. I also want to thank you for saving me."

In the car, Long Zhanjun talked to Qin Yuan about his own experience. Although he chose not to return to Yan Nation, it does not mean that he does not care about Yan Nation. He knows that Yan Nation is in the oil base here. War has begun in this country. When he came in, he sneaked in.

In fact, there are some brave armed organizations that wanted to rush into the oil base, but they were all found and quietly solved by the Dragon Army. The armed organization in the pit was indeed homicided. He overheard the armed organization and will have to do it at night. Action, so he can't wait and can only start in advance.

He also heard that the people in the oil base said that Qin Yuan would come, and they could only deal with it in the pit first. He believed that Qin Yuan could find this place, and he did not disappoint.

Chapter 760: Acquire pet skills

Long Zhanjun has been silently protecting these people from Yan country. Later, he found that the refugees caused by the war here were really pitiful, and he helped these refugees behind him.

He sneaked into an armed base to rescue the kidnapped children, but he overheard a secret. This group of people inquired about most of the staff of the oil base and Qin Yuan and they had already evacuated, and wanted to take advantage of this gap to attack the oil base. .

They also sent a sniper to intercept it halfway, but they did not expect to be solved by Qin Yuan. Then they planned to ambush the oil base at night. Long Zhanjun rushed in to solve the group and break their plan.

But he was hit by a shotgun by one of the militants. He ran away all the way. He wanted to run to the oil base for help, but the oil base was too far away and the wound was bleeding all the time. He couldn't hold on. He thought about the refugee he had saved before.

In the end, the wound was infected and fell at the door of the refugee's home. Qin Yuan and the others just came back, and they ran into it.

"Qin Yuan, their armed base has sufficient ammunition. They plan to directly blow up the oil base with bombs and help me get up. I will now take you to find the armed organization."

"How can you go with us like this? Then your wound has been infected before. Leave these things to me and you can rest!" Qin Yuan asked Long Zhanjun to draw him a map, according to him The map takes people over.

Li Erniu stood up and said, "You can heal your wounds at ease. With Brother Qin, you can rest assured that there is absolutely no problem."

Long Zhanjun sent a simple map based on his memory, but he could understand it. He also wanted to go together, but he really couldn't help it because of his health. Looking at the back of Qin Yuan leaving, when he was young, it was a little bit small. Injury is not a problem at all, it seems that I should really take care of the old age.

Qin Yuan wanted to give revenge to the Long Zhanjun. On the other hand, he also wanted to teach these armed organizations a lesson. He didn't deliberately conceal the symbol of Yan Nation, but wanted them to know that Yan Nation was not easy to provoke.

Qin Yuan and the others did find a base along the map. They said that the base was actually a few buildings, but they had already been empty. It seemed that this group of armed organizations was still more vigilant and evacuated immediately after being discovered by the Dragon Army.

"Brother Qin, what can we do? If these militants don't solve it, they will definitely come to trouble the oil base after we leave."

Qin Yuan thought for a while with his hands behind his back, "Don't worry, I have a way."

Qin Yuan thought of using the system to control the mouse to help him find the missing person. The words of the mouse are the most indispensable. They are everywhere. Qin Yuan asked everyone to look for them separately to see if there were any clues. Then he took the opportunity to find the mouse.

He kicked open the door of a building. The inside of this building was fairly clean, and there was some smell of food. It should be the kitchen of this base, and the probability of finding rats in it was very high.

Qin Yuan turned his ears to listen carefully. He should be in the cabinet and opened the cabinet door. A fat mouse was watching Qin Yuan vigilantly. The mouse just wanted to run, he quickly shot and put the mouse into the system. Grid.

"Ding~Congratulations to the host for the successful recovery of the mouse. The mouse gene is too low. The host can choose to recycle it as a pet!"

what's the situation? This mouse was recycled as a pet, and Qin Yuan pointed to the next detailed introduction.

"Pet type: rat."

"Pet Skill: Hole Search."

"Pet ability value: 10 points."

"It is reminded that the host can control the pet, and the pet will turn on its wisdom and fully obey the owner's command. Only one pet can go out at a time!"

Qin Yuan looked at it again. It turned out that this pet can also be upgraded with his killing, that is, if this mouse kills another mouse or other animal, then his skills can be upgraded. Of course, he can also choose other animals as Pets, if you want to use the skills of this mouse, let it be your first pet!

Qin Yuan thought for a while, looked at this mouse glisteningly, planning to name it, and then...

"Er Niu, go and call all the relatives of your seven aunts and eight aunts. You have too few rats."

System "Host, do you know Li Erniu like this?"

"It's all a small problem, isn't it just a name? Anyway, I don't use his name once or twice."

The mouse seemed to understand it, and ran back with a swish. Qin Yuan knocked on Erlang's leg and sat on a stool. After a while, only felt the floor tremble slightly, and then Qin Yuan saw the densely packed mice running. Come here, there are probably hundreds of them.

I'm going, Erniu, there are too many relatives in your family, right?

Seeing it made people numb, Qin Yuan yelled: "Hey! Stop all for me!" Qin Yuan saw the mouse and cow squeaking to the side, and the mice quieted down instantly. It turns out that the wise mouse is different, and it can control them.

"Okay, Erniu, since you can understand, you take your relatives to find out the humans who lived here before, and then inform me."

The mouse looked at Qin Yuan and nodded unexpectedly, and then the mouse army went into the floor and disappeared.

At this time, the real Li Erniu opened the door and came in, "Brother Qin! Did you call me just now? I heard you called me several times."

Qin Yuan said embarrassingly, "No, no, you got it wrong, how did you look outside?" He quickly changed the subject.

"Brother Qin, don't talk about it. They took away everything that can be taken from this place. It is cleaner than my face."

After Qin Yuan came out, because he was waiting here for news from the mouse, Gong Jian took a few people back first, worried that these militants would take the opportunity to attack the oil base, and he was guarding the militants' nest here. As soon as they come back, it just happens to be missing.

In order to avoid stunning the grass, Qin Yuan and the others hid in the building, and there has been no news of the mouse. Qin Yuan felt that this thing was not reliable at all, would he escape for his life on the way?

After waiting for a while, Qin Yuan suddenly heard the sound of a mouse, and found an excuse to go out to the bathroom. When he saw that the two cow mouse came back, the mouse's eyes flashed brightly and he was very proud.

With a small piece of camouflage cloth in his mouth, it seems that this guy has found someone, but I don't know if it is that group of armed organizations. After all, this can't be communicated. Qin Yuan can only ask the system to see.

"System, how can I communicate with it?"

"Answer to the host, the current pet's ability value is 10, which just activates the basic spiritual intelligence, can understand some instructions, and wants to communicate, only needs to be upgraded to 30!"

It seems that you must upgrade this mouse before you can communicate with her. This must be communicated clearly, otherwise if it is not the group of militants you are looking for, but some ordinary civilians, then you will have to run for nothing. After all, some civilians also wear camouflage uniforms.

Qin Yuan squinted outside to search for living creatures. At night, her vision was not restricted at all. Several bounces jumped into a dirt pit, suddenly used a flying knife, and the blade stuck straight into the tail of a small snake.

The snake struggled fiercely, but there was no way to escape, "Go, kill this snake."

The mouse was trembling all over, looking at Qin Yuan dumbfounded, before he realized that this snake is a natural enemy of the mouse. He would definitely be scared. He threw another blade to control the head of the snake. Just nailed to the ground, the body in the middle is still twisting.

The Second Niu Mouse was not afraid to see this situation, rushed up and used two front teeth to bite the seven inches of the snake tightly. Without doubt, the snake died.

Originally, the snake was a natural enemy of the mouse, but under Qin Yuan's control, the snake was killed by the mouse.

"Ding~Successfully kill the prey, the pet gains 30 skill points, the current pet ability is 40 skill points, and the ability to communicate with the owner is gained. The skill upgrade to 50 points will open the vision skill."

What is this vision skill? Well, I'll study this until the next time. Now it's an urgent matter to communicate with it first. Qin Yuan can't wait to communicate with the mouse.

At this time, Qin Yuan looked at the mouse again, and he could understand the mouse squeaky. It probably meant that the mouse scattered more than 200 rats and asked them to investigate. One mouse found it before. The humans living here have a very developed sense of smell because of mice.

"Are you sure they are the same people before?"

That Erniu mouse even learned the movements of human beings. He half stood up and patted his chest with his front paws. Qin Yuan thought it was funny. This thing was so fascinating to learn.

I planned to believe this mouse and let him lead him to see it. Qin Yuan didn't tell Li Erniu to act alone. It would be more convenient. The mouse took the lead and ran ahead. Without those worries, Qin Yuan speeded up. After gradually surpassing the mouse, Qin Yuan lifted the mouse's tail, threw it on his shoulder, and led the mouse forward quickly.

After a while, I saw some military tents, which were the same as the tents near the oil base before. Because these tents have numbers on them, it seems that they are definitely the same group.

Qin Yuan looked at it. No wonder the mouse came back after looking for so long. It was more than fifty kilometers away from the previous camp, but Qin Yuan was very fast and ran there in an hour.

This group of armed organizations lit a bonfire. There were two people on duty in front of and behind the tent, but they all fell asleep leaning on the side. Qin Yuan didn't want to kill them quietly, but wanted to teach them a lesson in an honest manner and let them know about Yan The army is terrible.

Qin Yuan walked to the tent and coughed a few times. He didn't expect these two guards to sleep so badly. He didn't hear anything like this. Qin Yuan was very speechless. Fighting against this kind of enemy really pulled himself down. !

No way, Qin Yuan stepped forward and slapped the man in the face. The man woke up, saw a living person in front of him, and yelled in fright: "Get up, there are some people!"

The person next to him stood up in a daze and wanted to shoot, but he didn't lift the gun. One didn't stand firmly and fell directly beside him. Qin Yuan picked up the gun and handed it to him, "I said, can you be more professional? Take the gun to Lao Tzu."

The militant even raised his head and said, "Thank you!"

Then the militants in several military tents all ran out. The bearded leader looked around and made sure that Qin Yuan was the only one. He laughed loudly, "You guys are so courageous, you dare to come here alone. We, which organization are you from..."

Before the man was finished, Qin Yuan hit the man's head with a flying knife, and the person next to him shot quickly, but faster than their bullets, and directly bypassed them and stood behind the two men who shot. , Holding two blades in his hand, directly cut the two of them.

The militant raised a light machine gun and fired at Qin Yuan. He bounced and stepped on the shoulder of a man next to him. With the help of the bullet, he quickly threw out a throwing knife, and three blades were inserted into the man's head and chest.

In an instant, the boss of this group of militants died, and seven or eight people were killed by Qin Yuan with a flying knife, and the rest were so scared that they dared not move.

"You, who are you? Are you a ghost? Why are you so fast?"

"Listen to Lao Tzu. Lao Tzu is a soldier from the Yan Kingdom. I heard that you want to attack our oil base, so I will teach you a lesson."

The rest of the people took a deep breath. They had heard that the soldiers of the Yan Kingdom were very powerful before, but they didn't expect this person to be super god! Although he had a gun on his side, he didn't dare to shoot rashly, because he just launched an attack and all of them died.

This person's speed is too fast, and the strength is surprisingly large, that small blade, he just throws it gently, can hit the person's head.

"Then I would like to ask, at that time you also injured a person in our Yan Country, which one of our hands came forward?"

An militant pointed to the ground tremblingly, "Brother, that person has been killed by you."

Qin Yuan squatted on the ground with his hands behind his back to check ' A few militants took the opportunity to shoot. Qin Yuan quickly lifted the body on the ground to block the bullet, and then five more blades flew out, this time with even greater power , The blade passed directly through the brain.

The five people stood upright, and they became five corpses instantly when they fell down. "I'll tell you, don't engage in tricks with me. Why are you so anxious to die?"

The militants next to him were directly frightened and knelt on the ground. This man was simply a devil. How could a normal human being have such a great power? It was really terrifying!

The most important thing is how this person found the organization here. You must know that they were trying to escape, but they didn't sleep all day. Hearing what the person said just now, they have discovered that their previous base, how did he come here, these few I don't dare to think about it, I just think the man in front of me can't mess with it, it's very scary.

Looking at the armed organization with only four or five people left, I would rather carry your hands on your back like a class teacher, "Okay, now the teacher will ask questions, what will you see from Yan Guo doing?"

The group of armed organizations did not dare to speak, and looked at Qin Yuan in fear. He threw a flying knife directly into the arm of an armed organization, "Why don't you answer the question when the teacher is speaking? I'll just call it."
