

Special Soldier 761

Chapter 761: A task no one dares to take

An militant was scared and said loudly: "We will hide far away, we know we are wrong, please forgive us, it's too scary, too scary!"

Then Qin Yuan smelled a smell of urine, and he was holding his nose in disgust, "Okay, let's see clearly that this is the Yan Country armband, and then stay away from our oil base. I am in a good mood today, so I will let you go. , But next time I see you again, then I will kill him directly. Anyone who thinks of destroying Yan Country will only end up with death."

After speaking, Qin Yuan left in a few jumps. The militants next to him hadn't recovered for a long time. The speed of this person was too fast. When he came and when he left, it was a momentary matter.

These people recently estimated that they would be scared when they saw the people of Yan country. The militants who were scared to pee shuddered and said: "This man is a devil. I told them not to provoke the people of Yan country. The boss must not listen. This kind of dying It feels horrible!"

"Yes, please notify the brothers of other organizations. We can't afford to provoke everyone to avoid Yan Guo!"

Qin Yuan jumped quickly and returned to the armed base where Li Erniu and the others were stationed before dawn. He had just arrived at the gate of the base, and a beam of infrared light was directly aimed at his head. Qin Yuan was quite satisfied with this reaction. The helper is really good.

Wang Yanbing saw Queen Qin Yuan. A smile was raised in the scope, and Qin Yuan disappeared in the next second, what the hell? The Qin team's speed increased again, because it was dark, Qin Yuan took advantage of the dark night to quietly walk around behind Wang Yanbing.

"You brat, you want to fight with me!"

Wang Yanbing was so scared that he could not hold his sniper rifle firmly by Qin Yuan's sudden words, "Brother Qin, how did you do it? Aren't you still below? Why are you behind me now!"

"So, let you improve your agility and train more often. When you go back this time, I will train you! If I am really the enemy, won't you be finished?"

Wang Yanbing smiled, "Brother Qin, how many enemies are as powerful as you? And you turn your head to take a look."

He Chenguang had already aimed at his head with a sniper rifle on the opposite side. This group of stinky boys also knew to prepare two plans, which was not bad.

Li Erniu ran over with a smile, "Brother Qin, in fact, we knew when you went out, hurry up and honestly explain where did you go? An Ran explained that I would like to look after you before we leave."

Qin Yuan kicked Li Erniu's ass, "You stinky boy, dare to take your Qin brother to a joke, clean up and go home!"

"Ah? Aren't we looking for that group of armed groups?"

"Fifty kilometers away, it has been cleaned up by me, and it is estimated that I will never show up again!"

Several people were shocked, fifty kilometers! Qin Yuan went out, but within two or three hours, he ran for 50 kilometers, killed the group of armed organizations, and returned! His speed and physical strength are too bad! Since involuntarily applauded.

But think about it, otherwise, why did Qin Yuan go out in the middle of the night? This task is too easy. A few of them came and slapped soy sauce. Sure enough, following the great * is to lie down and win!

"Brother Qin, you are indeed a role model for us to learn from, the great * accept our worship!" After saying that Li Erniu will go to Qin Yuan. Qin Yuan directly gave Li Erniu a white, but he did not have a red envelope for him. .

Back in the car, Li Erniu drove Qin Yuan and leaned on the cushion to take a nap. In fact, this kind of raid would not cost Qin Yuan much at all, but he would just behave in front of them, otherwise he would not be tired at all. problematic.

After returning, Qin Yuan told Lei Zhanjun that the gang had been resolved. Lei Zhanjun couldn't care about the wound on his waist, stood up and patted Qin Yuan, "Good boy, that's great, that's it, to grow our Yan Nation's military might. !"

Because of Long Zhanjun's injuries, they stayed here for a few more days. Qin Yuan has been persuading Long Zhanjun to go back and have a look. They did not receive any scrutiny before going back. Moreover, Long Zhanjun is now injured again at this age. It's really not suitable for wandering outside. Long Xiaoyun has been looking for him for so many years, all he wants is a family reunion.

Under Qin Yuan's persuasion, the Long Zhanjun was a little shaken, He Chenguang and the others also stood up and spoke, "That's right, our dragon team misses you. We all know that you want to go back. This time, we will talk to us. Let's go home together!"

Long Zhanjun originally wanted to do something for Yan Nation quietly before, but he was imprisoned for so many years before, but he did not expect his reflexes to decrease. Now his waist is injured, and he sees Yan Nation Qin Yuan, there are young people like them. people.

I really should retire, and I can go back to enjoy the love of his children, so I agreed to go back with Qin Yuan and the others, plus I also wanted to see my old comrade-in-arms Gao Shiwei more than 20 years ago.

Qin Yuan didn't tell Long Xiaoyun the news. He wanted to give her a surprise. Everyone was very happy along the way. The Dragon Team had been looking for his father for so many years, and he was finally going back this time. Wang Yanbing said with emotion beside him: "I think There may be an unprecedented cry in the future! Everyone prepares tissues."

After a few people returned to the military area, Long Xiaoyun led the wolf squad and was training on the training ground. Qin Yuan brought the Long Zhanjun over. Long Xiaoyun just wanted to call Qin Yuan, but saw the man behind him.

That familiar figure, she had been looking for someone for so many years, she managed to find him before, and let him go. Now she actually appeared in front of her, tears streaming down uncontrollably, but she thought of something, facing the back The Wolf Warrior squad shouted: "Everyone has it, all turn around, squat down and cover your eyes and ears!"

The people in the Wolf Warriors team understood in an instant, and they all followed suit. Long Xiaoyun ran over and threw himself into Long Zhanjun's arms. His eyes were red, "You girl still wants face so much, it really inherited me! "

Long Zhanjun and Long Xiaoyun recounted each other's old times. Qin Yuan was watching this touching father-daughter relationship. It was a very warm scene. Unexpectedly, Long Xiaoyun suddenly picked up a gun and pointed at him, "Qin Yuan, you This * didn't even tell me, causing me to cry in front of so many people just now, I really want to kill you!"

Long Zhanjun shook his head and looked at the two people chasing and fighting on the training ground, and smiled somewhat relievedly. It seems that this is the love of children, watching the children play and fight.

At this time a voice sounded from behind, "Dragon boy!"

No one has called himself that way for many years. Long Zhanjun turned his head, and it was indeed the old fox Gao Shiwei, "Little Gaozi, I'm back!"

"You old guy, you are at this age and you are only willing to come back now, don't you?" Gao Shiwei stepped forward and punched him, Long Zhanjun stepped back two steps to support the wound on his waist.

"What? You are actually injured!"

Long Zhanjun hurriedly made a move, holding Gao Shiwei "It's not a problem, small wounds, don't be heard by Xiaoyun."

Gao Shiwei took Long Zhanjun to the office and talked about it, the brother who hadn't seen him in more than 20 years, when Long Zhanjun just disappeared, he thought that might be the last time they met. He didn't expect that in his lifetime, this old boy was back. .

"By the way, who, let Qin Yuan cook a few dishes tonight, and the money for the dishes will be deducted from his kid's expenses. Who made this kid hide it from me?"

He Chenguang snickered his mouth, and it seemed that Qin Ge was going to be bleeding again this time.

Long Zhanjun and Gao Shiwei were playing chess in the office. The red blood cell team and the Wolf Warriors team sat in the cafeteria watching TV, and laughed from time to time discussing. At this time, Qin Yuan's apron grew longer. Buddy.

It's really a mistake. Why did I show off so much at the beginning, or else I can let these people cook every day, eat melon seeds outside, and watch TV is not good? Sure enough, Qin Yuan, you have to keep a low profile in the future.

After a while, everyone sat at two tables. Long Zhanjun came back. Gao Shiwei was also very happy. He took out his treasured beer and asked everyone to toast and celebrate. A group of people were eating lively. Long Zhanjun was here. I felt that after wandering outside for so long, this place is still home.

Gao Shiwei arranged for Long Zhanjun to heal his wounds in the nursing home first, and then he would accept the normal process of political review. After all, Long Zhanjun's situation was special.

Li Erniu complained: "What's the situation with the people above! Uncle Long, how could it be possible to do something sorry for Yan Guo? I'm all this age, still thinking about Yan Guo, and paying silently."

"It's okay, this is a normal review. Let's be upright and not afraid of being investigated!" Because during the review period, we can't go out casually. A month later, Long Zhanjun's review results came out and his review passed!

Gao Shiwei knew that he couldn't be idle, so he arranged for him to work as an instructor and brought those recruits for training. This was also what Long Zhanjun himself requested. He has been detained for so many years and still wants to start with basic training, so he will stay with him. These recruits train together.

Long Xiaoyun was also very satisfied, but she found out about the injuries, and she often told Long Zhanjun to pay attention to his body and not to force himself too much.

Qin Yuan and the others are full of joy, while on the other side of Xiao Maoguo, an old man with white hair is sitting in the room, with a line of people standing in front of him. This old man is Basad's father, Baron. He took out Qin Yuan. Photo.

"Which one of you can kill him, I will reward 80 million yuan, and three generations of future generations safe and wealthy!"

There are conditions for this number and it is indeed very tempting, but the front row of people shook their heads one after another, "You cowards, they are all useless, and Buffett, a president can't save his brother and let outsiders kill. He died, speak, who can take this task?"

It's not that they don't want to pick it up, but they don't dare to pick it up. This Qin Yuan's name is very famous. First of all, it's an international mercenary. Everyone said that he must walk around when he sees this person. Live Hades.

From the drug dealers in the Golden Triangle to the international mercenaries, everyone is hiding from this person. After all, no one wants to die. The previous military bases were killed by this person alone. No one can do this ability.

The most important thing is that once he provokes him, or provokes Yan Nation, this person will chase that person endlessly like a madman. Qin Yuan didn't know that his reputation in the world was so terrifying at this moment.

Baron was disappointed to let this group of people roll away. At this time, one of his subordinates walked in, "Master Baron, this is already the fourth group of people, shall we continue to look for it?"

Balong stood up and smashed the cup on the ground angrily, "Continue to look for it, and make the conditions bigger, the arsenal under me, as long as anyone is willing to take this task and kill the Yan Chinese, in addition to 80 million, there are My arsenal!"

He believes that there must be a brave husband under the heavy money. Baron touched the photo of Bassad. Since your business brother is unwilling to help us, you can rest assured that his father will give you justice. How can I be a man from a small country? They kill as they say kill, and I will let the killer pay for it.

Qin Yuan is looking for an opportunity to increase the skill points of the two cow mice. The two cow mice have become very powerful since they increased their skill points. Their agility and strength have been improved, and ordinary little snakes can handle it by themselves.

"Ding~Congratulations to the host pet for successfully upgrading the skill points, killing the sparrows, gaining 20 skill points, pets reaching 60 skill points, and opening the field of vision to scan simultaneously."

Qin Yuan clicked on the detailed view, and slowly closed his eyes according to the detailed list method. At this moment, he suddenly felt a line in his mind. When he opened his eyes, he found that he had the same vision as Er Niu Mouse!

He controlled the mouse to run to the periphery. He didn't expect that every move that the mouse saw outside was transmitted to Qin Yuan's brain. It turned out that this was a vision skill! This is not bad. Isn't it equivalent to a 24-hour mobile surveillance? It doesn't need electricity, but it feeds something from time to time.

And in fact, there is no need for this mouse to find a way to eat, but Qin Yuan thinks it is a pet after all, so he should feed it or he has to feed it.

Suddenly an idea flashed in Qin Yuan's mindThe system even made a sound: "Host, remind you not to be too abnormal!"

"What kind of a pervert is my own woman?" The system felt a little speechless for a moment.

So he controlled the Erniu mouse and sneaked into An Ran's dormitory quietly. He wanted to use this mouse's skills to peek at An Ran's changing clothes. He didn't expect that he just went in and showed his head. A broom fell from the sky, and then a girl's voice sounded: "Look, everyone, there are mice!"

I'll go, this group of medical teams are too fierce, right? Normal women should scream when they see mice? But he was wrong. It was in the barracks.

I can only let the Erniu mouse escape quickly, iron basin shoes, broom and mop smashed behind him, seeing that this mouse is about to be caught, instruct it to jump out of the window and follow it outside.

The mouse also understood. He jumped from the window and jumped directly into Qin Yuan's arms. An Ran saw that Qin Yuan took out a saber after catching the mouse. "You happened to catch it. Hurry up and throw it in. It was dissected, and even dared to enter our dormitory. I don't know how many germs this mouse carried. We must disinfect the dormitory!"

Chapter 762: Landing at 3000 meters for rescue

Qin Yuan promised that he would kill the mouse without touching their hands. Finding the opportunity to flee with Erniu mouse, this group of medical soldiers is the most terrifying.

After coming out, Qin Yuan was very dissatisfied with the lesson: "I said, can you fight for a bit, you didn't see anything, and you were almost caught by others."

Unexpectedly, Long Xiaoyun came over and saw Qin Yuan squatting on the ground in the distance, whispering and talking to something. Affection hurriedly flicked it, and the two cow mouse was flew away.

At this moment, the mouse's heart was very broken, and it was okay to throw it away, but could it be gentler, the mouse was thrown directly on the opposite tree by Qin Yuan.

"Qin Yuan, how do you feel that you have been mysterious recently, who did you whisper to talk to here just now?"

"It's just a little bug. I'm too handsome. I can't help it. Even bugs will fly to my feet. So I talked to her about the great truth and talked about life!"

Long Xiaoyun touched Qin Yuan's head, "You don't have a fever either? Is it because you have been too idle lately, have you been suffocating something wrong?"

Qin Yuan was speechless for a while, so he could only find an excuse to perfuse the past, and the two were playing around again. Long Xiaoyun didn't know what was going on with him. Since he got on well with this kid, he would always do something. It was naive, but fortunately the rest of the team did not see it.

It's just that she thinks so. The wolf squad, led by Fan Tianlei, is undergoing sniper training. At this time, everyone is aiming at the two with sniper rifles.

"Hahaha, I didn't expect the Dragon Team to have such a shy time!"

"It's rare to see that she always has a cold face. I thought she would not laugh anymore. I didn't expect to see Team Qin smile so happy!"

Suddenly a few pebbles flew directly in front of a few people. I went. Whoever lost the pebbles was Qin Yuan who was two hundred meters away from them. At this moment, he waved his hand and made one towards these people. Wipe the neck movement.

This is too six, right? Just this little stone, how did he throw it over? Fan Tianlei picked up the little stone and looked at it carefully. It was an ordinary stone. "It's OK, everyone don't look at other people's little lovers. That kid is starting to protect shortcomings."

At this time, an emergency assembly order sounded in the military area, and everyone quickly ran to the playground to gather. This is the general emergency assembly order of the military area, which shows that the situation is very urgent.

The red blood cell team and the wolf squad assembled quickly, and Gao Shiwei sternly carried his hands behind his back. "Comrades, this situation is urgent. To make a long story short, there was an eighth magnitude earthquake in Meizhou just at nine o'clock. This time I personally led the team to rescue the trapped people. Now is the golden time to rescue the masses. I only give you three minutes to gather all the search and rescue items and set off. Now, disband!"

These eight-magnitude earthquakes are high-level natural hazards. Natural disasters of this level have not occurred for many years. Yanguo, firefighting, special police, and special forces all assembled to Meizhou for rescue.

Because the earthquake road collapsed to varying degrees, the land from the waterway was doing everything possible to go to Meizhou for support, while Gao Shiwei led two special teams to directly airborne by helicopter.

On the helicopter, Gao Shiwei looked nervous and said: "Everyone, I know that you have done skydiving many times, but this time is different. There are collapsed buildings everywhere. We are going to the worst-hit areas. We have to be high in the sky. Landing at three kilometers."

Li Erniu patted his chest, "High team, don't worry, we have no problem!"

"Okay, I hope that while rescuing the trapped people, they will also ensure their own safety. I also believe that my special operations force will have us wherever it is needed, and the masses are the priority in everything!"

"Yes!" Because this is a high-altitude cable landing mission, the risk factor is still relatively high. An Ran and their medical team set off from the land with the other infantrymen. Qin Yuan and the others are the first team in the air to carry out the first rescue.

Parachuting at this level is trivial to Qin Yuan. From the helicopter, he saw Meizhou City, which was once prosperous, collapsed, with broken buildings and fallen trees mixed together.

Then everyone jumped down one by one. Qin Yuan took the lead and jumped down first, not worrying about his team members. They had done this many times before, and they had landed in the jungle before abroad.

Qin Yuan opened the parachute and swiftly jumped down on the ruins, and then quickly retracted the parachute. Just as your second cow was about to land, suddenly a strong wind blew and hung directly on the telephone pole nearby.

"Oh, my brother Niu, can you be more reliable?" Wang Yanbing and He Chenguang went over and pulled down Li Erniu who was hanging in the air.

Qin Yuan squinted his eyes and looked up. Unexpectedly, Gao Shiwei also jumped down. The situation was urgent. After everyone gathered, they started searching, and people's cries and shouts had already been heard.

Several citizens ran over and said, "It's the People's Liberation Army! You are like soldiers from heaven, we are saved!"

"Hurry up! Many children are underneath, hurry up and help!"

The area where Gao Shiwei and the others landed happened to be the school area. Many people ran to the school playground, with students, teachers, and nearby citizens.

Gao Shiwei asked Qin Yuan to lead them on search and rescue missions. He led two people here to organize emergency medical tents for the uninjured. After all, there are so many people, and the injured should quickly set up tents and place the injured.

Qin Yuan has a keen sense of hearing. With the red blood cell team, many trapped students came out. Li Erniu and the others scanned the underground life with an infrared detector. Qin Yuan also sent out the Erniu mouse. The buildings were quickly interspersed, and some students were pressed under several floors of buildings. Qin Yuan discovered through the mouse's vision. In this case, it was faster than an infrared scanner.

There was a ding-ding sound under a huge concrete wall. The students inside were knocking the concrete slabs with stones. Fan Tianlei heard it, and quickly went to use infrared to scan the four people underneath.

Some citizens nearby came to help lift this building urgently. This concrete wall should be the heavy wall before. With Fan Tianlei and the others, a total of eight people, they couldn't lift this concrete load-bearing wall because it was heavy. There are many other buildings pressed on the wall, which can only be smashed away bit by bit.

Qin Yuan walked over, using his world-class strength, only stretched out one hand to lift this load-bearing wall directly. The people next to him were shocked. If he hadn't seen it with his own eyes, he wouldn't believe it. What eight people couldn't move, he lifted it up with one hand!

Qin Yuan shouted loudly, "Don't be stunned, hurry up and rescue the child!"

Fortunately, the underneath collapsed to form a small triangular space. The four children huddled together and were not hurt. One child ran over to give Qin Yuan a salute. His body was covered with lime from the collapse of the building. "Thank you, uncle, when I grow up. I want to be a soldier!"

Relying on the power of system genes, Qin Yuan didn't feel tired. At this moment, he just wanted to save people and save more people. He just wanted to use his own power to bring them all. Rescued.

He ran quickly, searched and excavated the collapsed buildings with an ordnance shovel, and had blood blisters in his hands, but he couldn't stop at all. Aftershocks continued here, and these people must be rescued quickly.

In addition, the several roads leading to Meizhou City have experienced mudslides and collapses to varying degrees. The troops coming from the land are clearing the mudslides, and it will be able to clear the passages in as little as an hour.

At this time, Qin Yuan saw a small figure based on Erniu Mouse's field of vision. Although the infrared ray showed that there were no vital signs, Qin Yuan seemed to move when she saw her. As long as there is a glimmer of hope, he will not miss.

"Child, you have to hold on!" But in the end Qin Yuan digs out only a corpse. This child is just two or three years old, and still maintains the last action in his lifetime. It should be that he wants to run out and squat his body. .

The pain of losing their loved ones, the destruction of their homes, and the continuous aftershocks. These fears have been accompanied by the survivors, crying and helpless, but at this time a camouflage figure gave them strength, the Captain Qin in their mouth, Lian Shui Without taking a sip, he searched for the trapped people everywhere, and he rescued more than 60 people alone.

That is hope. Fire and other engineering organizations have also arrived. Everyone can't take a break and step up to participate in the rescue. Moreover, this is only the center of Meizhou City, as well as other towns and villages, but this is also the most severely affected area of the earthquake.

There are so many people and strength, An Ran and the others, as well as other medical teams, have arrived. Then they began to build tents in an orderly manner to settle the victims, and then An Ran and the others are there to treat them. For the first time, Qin Yuan felt that his abilities were so useful.

Before he killed so many terrorists outside, he even said it was easy to kill other people, but in this case, he can save other people, this type of pride is higher than those of fame of.

By the end of the night, Li Erniu and the others were exhausted, and other troops also added up and replaced Li Erniu and the others to rest. Qin Yuan knew that in this situation, time was life, and his own ability was stronger than others. Then there is a greater responsibility.

He didn't know how many people he had saved, but even people with world-class endurance and physical strength felt a little tired later. He didn't stop at all, and kept rumbling among the rubbles to survive. By.

Their search and rescue missions were also transferred from the city center to the towns below. At this time, Qin Yuan found a collapsed building with vital signs inside. He lifted the huge stone slab with all his strength. Inside was a woman who held his child tight. She was tightly guarded in her arms, although she was injured but still alive.

Li Erniu and the others had already rested, ready to come up alternately. Seeing this situation, they quickly dragged the woman out. Unexpectedly, there was an aftershock at this time. Qin Yuan quickly pushed Li Erniu out of the half-building that had not collapsed next to him. Smashed down instantly.

When everyone felt that Qin Yuan was about to bury the building alive, she did not expect that she held up the stone slab with both hands, pushed the building above it, and crawled out of it.

The soldier next to him was very shocked. They all knew that the special forces guys were powerful, but they didn't expect to be so bullish. It was a large stone slab of several hundred kilograms with a lot of steel bars on it. Since he did not hurt him, how did this guy escape? Those reinforced ones are really admirable.

What they didn't know was that Qin Yuan was not avoiding the steel bars at all, but that the steel bars couldn't penetrate his body at all. Because Qin Yuan and their rescuers were timely, the victims were promptly resettled.

Next, they will help these victims rebuild their homes, mainly by cleaning up the ruins, as well as the corpses under the ruins. Now it is a time when people are crowded, and the weather is hot. In the face of natural disasters, human beings are really small. If it is not handled in time, it is easy to cause an outbreak of the source of infection.

Gao Shiwei and the wolf squad are distributing food to the victims. The country first focuses on the materials here, but after all, there are so many people and some areas where the disaster is not that serious. Qin Yuan and the others drove them to distribute rice noodles and mineral springs. Water, some basic food.

The distribution of materials here is proceeding in an orderly manner. Qin Yuan and the others drove the trucks to transport the materials to a village. There were mudslides on these roads. They were all channels dug by the soldiers. There would still be some small aftershocks along the way. A stone rolled down from the nearby hillside, so Qin Yuan and the others drove slowly along the way.

When he arrived at the village, Qin Yuan felt that something was wrong. The normal delivery materials were all from the village committee. The villagers were organized to line up in an orderly manner, but here was a mess of people crowded together.

Qin Yuan and their car had just stopped, and a few villagers rushed up directly, and a man shouted: "Whoever grabs it is on a first-come, first-served basis starving to death is irresponsible!"

At this time, all the villagers panicked and climbed onto the truck to grab the rice noodles. Because this time they were mainly performing rescue missions, Qin Yuan and the others did not wear guns and could not fire warning shots.

Qin Yuan jumped out of the car and rushed directly to the man who just yelled. The man felt that something was wrong. He just wanted to run but was picked up by an eagle. He lifted it up, and then Qin Yuan jumped on the front of the car and took the man directly from the side. Lost it.

"Stop it! What are you doing?"

The men nearby gave a wink and ran back quickly. Qin Yuan was faster, jumped directly in front of them, swept his legs, kicked these people to the ground, and then tied them with a rope. stand up.

"Come on, the soldiers have beaten the people, they have killed them!" Qin Yuan took out a silver needle and pierced it directly on the man's neck, and the man couldn't make a sound instantly.

Several other people were so scared to say anything when they saw this situation. The speed of this person was too fast, and what kind of technique was that, as soon as the stitches went down, people couldn't speak. Li Erniu and others were also maintaining order. It gradually stabilized.

Chapter 763: God of War Qin Yuan

There was no shortage of supplies in their village because they had already sent a lot of supplies before, but these people quietly transferred the supplies to the cave and told everyone that there was no food. The road outside collapsed and soldiers could not send in. .

I want to instigate these villagers, take the opportunity to cause chaos,  supplies, and wait until the disaster is over, take these supplies out to collect ill-gotten gains.

Qin Yuan stepped forward and slapped the man's face with a slap. He was already restrained enough. The man's face instantly swelled up and his teeth flew out. "The most  thing you called was you just now. It's difficult for the country to make money, and it stirs up people's hearts. I tell you, if I have a gun, I can shoot you now!"

The man said fiercely: "You are dead. You are a soldier because you have this ability. I can't beat you. I'll admit it. But if you beat the people, I will let the media expose you later. , Expose your bandit soldiers."

Unexpectedly, a journalist with a camera came out from behind at this time. Because of this disaster, Yan Guoran and many enthusiastic companies in other regions have reached out and donated money and materials. The big media should let them know about this. Things are really used on these victims, so they are distributed to reporters.

Unexpectedly, it happened to be recorded, and it was live broadcast. The man was stunned for an instant. He wanted to take a bite back, but it was completely over.

"You must be calm, we are here to save you, and the country will definitely not let you go, don't be instigated by others, so as not to do wrong things."

An hour later, a car of people rushed to the top and several police officers came down. It was because the public outrage was very strong after the live broadcast. The matter outside was discussed in a mess, and the relevant departments were required to act quickly. There are still such cases. People who are in trouble for the country.

"Your kid is working against the country at this time, and you guys, you must abide by the law no matter what the situation, the law is not empty!" The next few people were handcuffed and sent to the police car, which was also distributed. The new village official came down and took over with his own hands, which was really good.

Those netizens outside who saw the live broadcast all applauded, "Are you only concerned about that kind of bastard? Didn't you find that the captain is so handsome!"

"Yes, yes, so did I, especially when rushing over to subdue those people, my goodness, what speed is that, it's so handsome, awesome!"

"What's the situation above, can you not just put nympho, is this the point? The point is that people have this ability, and one person can subdue those garbage in an instant!"

At this moment, Qin Yuan didn't know that he had become the subject of heated discussions among many netizens. After handling the matter here, he returned to the disaster area where he was stationed. Unexpectedly, when he returned, a group of reporters surrounded him. There were too many reporters. Fan Tianlei finally entered the tent under the cover of the others and breathed a sigh of relief.

Gao Shiwei patted the table angrily, "Isn't this a nonsense? Who leaked the news? The identity of this team cannot be exposed to the public." After all, this rescue only claimed to be a special force, and there was no specific unit number. , But once interviewed by those reporters, it is likely to be exposed.

At this time, a person walked in and said loudly: "Why, I have leaked the news. Isn't what I said is not enough?" This person is the deputy general secretary, and a group of people follow him.

Gao Shiwei was a little helpless, "Leaders, but this is not in compliance. I don't want their identities to be exposed."

"Don't worry, I have said hello to these media. Those sensitive questions will not be asked, Commander High. You must know the current situation. The people urgently need a tall and positive image, and Qin Yuan is in the rescue process. In China, it can be said that the person who has done the most credit, he can represent the military!"

When Gao Shiwei heard him say this, he was relieved, after all, this is the deputy general secretary, his words, but how much is against him? So this time, let Qin say that the kid is more of a show.

The deputy general secretary walked over and patted Gao Shiwei on the shoulder, "You are a good commander, and you are quite protective of the people below. I understand the truth, don't worry!"

Now that the deputy general secretary has ordered, let the media interview him. Qin Yuan is stunned. In the tent, she is sitting on a stool, and a dozen cameras are facing him like this. Helpless, eldest brother and elder sister's shrimp, can you guys not zoom in so close, it's too big.

These reporters are also very acquainted, asking about what happened during the rescue process, and Qin Yuan patiently answered them one by one.

"Captain Qin, I heard that you rescued a total of 166 people in this rescue. Is it true?"

"Hey, I don't have specific statistics on this, and I don't know how this number came from, because I was patronizing and saving people."

At this time, a man rushed in with a notebook, "I am sure there are 166 people. I am the principal of Lingshan Middle School. When the earthquake occurred, I only suffered a little abrasion, so I followed them all the way to participate in the rescue. Captain Qin rescued everyone. I remembered all of them! Especially when they parachuted, they were simply magical soldiers!"

Qin Yuan was suddenly praised in front of the camera like this, and I was a little embarrassed. It was also the principal who was very eloquent. How to save Qin Yuan to the students and how to dig for survivors in the ruins, after his vivid explanation, The reporters all cried together.

"Captain Qin! You are so respectable, thank you for having you!"

Then, after the video was broadcast on the news, a huge headline was printed on the news and in the newspaper, "The warrior of the Yan Kingdom!" Next to it was Qin Yuan, who was standing straight.

For a while, Qin Yuan became famous outside, but at this moment, Qin Yuan and the others were helping the local people rebuild their homes, and they didn't know the situation outside.

Things here are finally handled, Qin Yuan and the others will also return to the military area. On the day they went back, the ordinary people surrounded the car and kept throwing some food and drink on Qin Yuan's car.

And some people shouted: "Qin Shenbing has a good journey!"

The point is that this man's Mandarin is very substandard. Li Erniu has been holding back his laughter all the time. This man yelled a few more times. The people in the car couldn't help but burst into laughter. What he shouted became, "Spirit Soldier!"

Due to the special nature of Qin Yuan and his team, there is no media follow-up, but many people want to join the army because of this, and even go to the army to find Qin Yuan.

Li Erniu and the others watched the news on TV, "Brother Qin, you are so famous now, you have so many fans!"

"These are nothing. Do you know what the 166 people who were rescued by Qin Yuan did? They are resting now. The road is named Qin Yuan Road directly. It is to commemorate Brother Qin. This is the most important thing. strong!"

"You don't want to think, who can save so many people, and with my own strength, only my Qin brother can do it. Qin is really the  of war!"

Qin Yuan accepted this kind of honor at this moment. The Deputy General Secretary personally sent someone to send a commendation order to the whole district for a week. This time, it was a storm, and everyone knew his name. The name of God of War also spread.

The ordinary people outside only knew that Qin Yuan belonged to the special forces, but they didn't know which type it was, and they all followed them as God of War.

Qin Yuan knocked on Erlang's legs and looked at the newspaper with some pride. Gao Shiwei walked over with his hands behind his back, holding a document in his hand, and slammed directly on Qin Yuan's head. He swiftly avoided, turned his head and smiled at Gao Shiwei. .

"Lao Gao, I am the God of War, you must pay attention to my image, and don't hit me casually in front of outsiders in the future!"

"I said that you are a stinky boy, you don't have a seated statue, and you are still a  of war. I fight the  of war. The  of war is also trained by me, you know?" Qin Yuan has a black line on his face. This old man is really good. Not modest at all.

However, this old Gao also brought news that the commander-in-chief of the military region will come down to inspect the military region in a few days because of Qin Yuan's affairs, so a small military parade will be held, mainly to review Qin Yuan's combat capabilities.

Gao Shiwei asked Qin Yuan to take the red blood cell team and the Wolf Commando for training, mainly to inspect their training situation when the commander of the military region came after a set of procedures.

"But the commander-in-chief of this military region has watched too many special training operations, and he has also gone abroad to participate in training project trials abroad, so he has seen too many basic trainings. I think you guys have more ideas. See if you can get something new."

"Uh, for example, broken boulders in the chest, going up to the mountain and down to the sea of fire?"

Gao Shiwei jumped up and gave Qin Yuan a kick, "You stinky boy, it's not serious now. Anyway, I leave this task to you. In just one week, the chief will come to inspect it next week. You can figure it out! "

This old man can shake the pot really fast enough. There are only a few special training operations. What does the leader want to see? Qin Yuan saw the rope outside the training field, and suddenly thought of an idea. He raised a smile at the corner of his mouth. You are a dog-headed man. Since you throw the pot on my head, let me decide. Anyway, what happened behind You are also responsible for things.

Gao Shiwei suddenly sneezed outside, with an unknown premonition, always feeling that he would be pitted by this kid.

Qin Yuan assembled the red blood cell team and the scum team, and after talking to them about the situation, Long Xiaoyun frowned and said: "I heard that the commander-in-chief of this military region was also a special soldier before. Our training programs are also human. What other things have I played with at home? This is a bit difficult."

At this time, Qin Yuan smiled mysteriously and told them the idea he had thought of. Fan Tianlei stood up and said: "Although this is really new, I always feel a little bit of a fool. If I provoke the chief, then we can't eat it. Go around."

"It's okay, it's okay, the sky is falling down, and the old man is standing high, and there is me above you, when something really happens, you will put all the blame on me, and say that I instructed it!" Qin Yuan felt that His idea of using the commander-in-chief's style of general is definitely not to be compared.

"I agree. Anyway, we will do whatever Brother Qin does. We will listen to Brother Qin. Whatever happens, everyone will come here for life and death together." In this way, the idea was passed.

A week later, three military vehicles drove into the military area compound. The four seniors dressed in formal suits personally greeted them at the door. As for the stinky boy Qin Yuan, he never appeared. At this time, a soldier came to report that Qin Yuan and the others were in the training ground Now, let Gao Shiwei take the chief directly to the training ground.

Gao Shiwei's face turned black and whispered, "Isn't this just a fool? The chiefs are still here, and you should come to meet the chiefs first. What the  does this kid think, don't hesitate to clean up? Let this kid roll over for Laozi quickly. "

The chief standing in front was not angry when he heard it. Instead, he smiled and said, "Xiao Gao, you still have this temper. This is good. If you don't rectify these falsehoods, I like it. Just be straightforward. It's good. , Let's go, take me to your training ground!"

Gao Shiwei breathed a sigh of relief. Fortunately, the chief did not care, and hoped that Qin Yuan would best give him a satisfactory training program, otherwise he would have to show this group of boys good-looking and almost prevented himself from coming to stage.

After Gao Shiwei took them to the training ground, he found that the whole training ground was empty. What the  was this kid doing?

At this time, a few smoke bombs were directly thrown at Gao Shiwei's feet. The smoke bombs were pulled in advance, and white smoke appeared just after they landed. People around them did not take precautions. After all, they were in the military area.

The smoke bomb made people choke with tears and couldn't see things clearly. Gao Shiwei coughed and shouted: "Ahem, Qin Yuan, you stinky boy, what are you doing, get out of me!"

Then there was a sound of footsteps The wolf squad was dispatched, and several people around the leader were quickly knocked down. The commander was also a special soldier before, not a vegetarian.

Gao Shiwei suddenly understood, what these boys are going to do, and now it's a good time to cooperate with them in this scene, and now he wants to quit, it will be even more troublesome if he takes action and destroys their plan.

The commander of the military region reacted quickly. He squatted on the ground and kicked someone down with a sweeping leg. Qin Yuan had expected it, so he could only come to play with Yin, and then a big net was thrown on the head of the chief, Fan Tianlei and the others. The man pulled the rope and ran away directly on his back.

The smoke cleared, Qin Yuan appeared, and the leader at the moment was in a building on the training ground. This leader squinted his eyes and seemed to know what the kid was going to do.

Qin Yuan yelled below: "Chief! Other training programs are too common. This time our training program is to rescue the highest officer. I have wronged you to be a hostage, so that you can see our combat process with your own eyes. Make a review."

There was no movement inside for a long time. The chief closed his eyes and did not speak. Fan Tianlei was also very nervous. Is this the highest officer angry? After all, doing this is indeed too risky and somewhat disrespectful to the chief.

Chapter 764: Want to poach Qin Yuan

The guards around the chiefs who were overthrown by Qin Yuan and others were very dissatisfied, and rushed over to question: "I think you have to explain this action!"

"That is, if something happens to the chief, can you bear this responsibility?"

Seeing that there was no movement inside, Gao Shiwei was a little panicked. At this time, the chief's voice came from inside: "Didn't I say you started just now? Do you have to wait for the hostages to start calling?"

Hearing this tone, Gao Shiwei breathed a sigh of relief, and looked aside with his hands behind his back. The guards heard the chief's speech and did not say anything.

The corner of Qin Yuan's mouth rose slightly, and it seemed that he was betting right again. Since having the skills of the King of Thousand Kings before, it seems that his luck has always been very good.

Fan Tianlei was very nervous at the top. After all, this was the commander-in-chief of the military area. He couldn't help but say, "Chief, I'm sorry."

"I think it's quite interesting, but I want to see your true strength. Don't let go because I am the chief. Remember, you are kidnappers now. From now on, you will be a kidnapper. My identity demands myself, and I will be unhappy if I release the water."

Fan Tianlei also nodded. With the chief's words, he can do it with confidence. Fan Tianlei is thinking that he is now a kidnapper. The first task is not to let them rescue the hostages. They must threaten them and escape from this place. .

These have not been trained before, because it is also to maintain the truth. The building where the war wolf squad is holding the leader is a six-story building. Listening to the voice of the leader just now, it should be in the direction of the third floor, Qin Yuan signaled Li Erniu and He Chenguang cut in from behind to let Wang Yanbing find the commanding heights, and fired immediately once the people inside appeared.

He launched an assault from the front. At this time, Fan Tianlei inside said: "I know your tricks, give up! I know all your routines, prepare 5 million, and a car. Remember, the hostage is in my hands. "

Then Fan Tianlei pulled the leader over and hid behind him and shouted outside: "Captain Qin, I know your methods, don't move, otherwise I will directly kill the hostage."

Gao Shiwei felt amused below. This kid was acting quite like it. Qin Yuan raised his hand to indicate that he did not move randomly. He was here to attract Fan Tianlei. He Chenguang and Li Erniu had already gone up from behind.

Unexpectedly, there was a movement from behind. Li Erniu's helmet was glued with a piece of paint. He Chenguang took a few people and had to withdraw from the back first.

It turned out that it was Long Xiaoyun behind. Everyone was a special fighter and was familiar with this rescue plan, so the latter part was Long Xiaoyun personally making the battle.

The hospital has never done anything, mainly because it wants the chief to see the teamwork ability of the people he leads, otherwise he can really save the chief quickly at his own speed. At this time, he will test his leadership and combat ability.

If this plan fails, then change to another plan. Qin Yuan stood up and said, "I'm here to exchange hostages. You can kidnap me. What about this idea?"

Unexpectedly, an empty bullet flew out from inside. I would rather roll over and avoid the bullet. Long Xiaoyun said inside: "Let you kid in, is there still a scene? From now on, I will stare at you." Every move."

"Oh, then I want to see Captain Dragon's speed." Qin Yuan jumped forward with a light tip toe after speaking, and Long Xiaoyun shot quickly, but Qin Yuan cleverly avoided it, as if playing deliberately. Long Xiaoyun, and two people stood beside the window and shot. One of them was shot down by Wang Yanbing as soon as he appeared.

Long Xiaoyun was completely attracted by Qin Yuan. She knew she had to stare at him. She was a robber now, and the hostage was her last guarantee.

Then came a movement from the second floor. Two members of the red blood cell team took the lead and rushed forward. Long Xiaoyun calmly said: "Old Fan, you go down and solve them yourself. I'm going to stare at Qin Yuan here."

After Fan Tianlei went down, there was a fierce gun battle on the second floor. The head of the military district was sitting on a stool with a smile on his face. This was exactly what he wanted. What he wanted was this kind of real on-the-spot reaction. No one knew the next step. What will happen, too many training items are dead, but on the battlefield is changing rapidly, because the enemy can not cooperate with you according to the script.

He Chenguang and the others directly threw a shock explosive bomb, this kind of real explosive bomb, can make people blind for seven seconds, they have been prepared in advance, and in these seven seconds, with the cooperation of a few people, they directly killed Fan Tianlei.

Long Xiaoyun pulled the head of the military region to the window, "Qin Yuan let your people retreat, otherwise I will shoot and kill the hostages."

Long Xiaoyun knew that he was consuming his own ammunition, and Qin Yuan actually played a psychological war with him. "You will not kill him. If you kill him, there is no guarantee. We will rush in and destroy you all." ."

What Long Xiaoyun didn't notice was Qin Yuan's talk with her while slowly approaching, but Long Xiaoyun also knew that this was the third floor, and there was a clearing below, could he still fly up.

Qin Yuan suddenly closed his eyes and smiled, "Captain Dragon, haven't you noticed that there is no sound on the second floor?"

Long Xiaoyun just turned his head, Qin Yan stepped on the wall below, a bounce jumped onto the window sill on the second floor, another turned over, and went straight to the third floor, and then threw a smoke bomb from inside, fighting in the smoke. The men in the Wolves team lost their sense.

Qin Yuan didn't want to hurt Long Xiaoyun, but just lightly hit Long Xiaoyun's joints, letting Long Xiaoyun let go of the commander of the military region, and the red blood cell team below also rushed up. Qin Yuan's speed was very fast. , And then took out the handcuffs and handcuffed Long Xiaoyun. In the smoke, his eyesight can penetrate the smoke, and everything can be seen clearly.

In the smoke, the members of the Wolf Warrior squad could only feel their helmets and shots in the chest. After the smoke dissipated, the commander of the military region had been loosened and sat next to him. Long Xiaoyun was handcuffed, and Qin Yuan was shameless. Even holding her tightly, Long Xiaoyun blushed instantly and stepped on Qin Yuan's foot to let him let go.

This kid was too strong. He was held by him, and he couldn't move. "How dare I put you down? All of your team members were killed by me. You are now a dangerous person. Then I must bear the brunt of holding you. Let you mess around, otherwise it will threaten the safety of the chief."

The commander of the military region was very satisfied. He watched the paint on the squadron of war boys was very precise, sat on the stool and clapped his hands, then walked on with his hands behind his back.

"Now that the chief is gone, you kid don't let go quickly." Qin Yuan let go of Long Xiaoyun, and helped her open the handcuffs and unhook them. As soon as he raised his head, he was kissed on the face by Qin Yuan. Long Xiaoyun really wanted to kill Qin Yuan in front of so many people at this moment.

The wolf squad was speechless. The two of them were spreading dog food again and hurry away. As soon as He Chenguang turned his head, he saw that the two were very close, "Oh my god, when will the two of them pay? Do you want to show affection? It pierced my eye."

Unexpectedly, Qin Yuan turned around and said, "I said you guys are not fast enough. The chiefs are all waiting below, hurry up and get together."

Everyone was speechless for a while, just now who was there showing affection and refused to leave, and then everyone gathered below.

The commander of the military region was very satisfied. He seemed to be in a good mood. He stood in front and looked at Qin Yuan and asked, "How do you discern the direction in the smoke and still hit it accurately?"

"The head of the report is to keep training. I closed myself in the room before, put in smoke bombs, and let myself shoot in the smoke for training."

System "Your kid is starting to brag again, will you die if you don't brag? It's obviously the skill power that Lao Tzu gave you!" Qin Yuan could only tell the truth and go back with this lie.

The chief over there nodded very satisfied, "Xiao Gao, you soldiers are very good, especially this Qin Yuan, the team can cooperate with him in the back, and come to attract temporary plans. The brain is really good, and the skills are very agile."

"Thank you for the approval of the chief, we will definitely continue our efforts, not only to the chief, but also to the so-called people of us to submit a satisfactory answer."

Of course, the team of Wolf Warriors was also praised by him. Both groups were very good, allowing him to see the most real special operations capabilities. He had read many reports from Qin Yuan and others before, and the missions completed abroad are indeed very beautiful. , This time I personally followed the experience to participate, in short, he was very satisfied with this training.

On the contrary, the guards were taught a lesson by him. "You guys, let you train more often. If you get overwhelmed by others in less than a minute, I will be kidnapped. This is really to learn from others. ."

He actually wants them to know that they must be vigilant at all times, even in the places he is most familiar with, and they are also the most prone to accidents. Today, Qin Yuan and the others did give him One lesson, if Long Xiaoyun and the others are really robbers, it is indeed more dangerous.

These guards were also unlucky. Originally, I thought that there would be no accidents in the military area. I didn't know that Qin Yuan would give them something like this. The most important thing was that their skills were indeed great.

At this time, the commander of the military district suddenly turned around and looked at Qin Yuan and said, "By the way, the training method you just mentioned will also train my soldiers. I will be here for a few more days."

Qin Yuan had a black line on his face. This was just what he said nonsense. How can a normal person do it? It seems that these guards are going to suffer from training in the smoke, and silently cast a sympathetic look at them. I can't refuse, I refuse other leaders, and feel that you are petty and unwilling to share.

"Chief, I promise to complete the task. I will give you all the comrades that I know, but this method is not suitable for everyone. It may be that my own innate vision is better."

"It's okay, you guys just need to be in charge of training. Whether it works or not depends on their own comprehension ability!"

This hand leader, now in a very good mood, asked Lao Gao to take him to prepare for dinner. The senior four, this time he was really stunned by the kid Qin Yuan. He walked beside him and gave him a thumbs up silently. .

The next few days began. The training of those guards was rather miserable. They were soaked in the smoke all day, and their eyes were flushed. Let alone seeing things in the smoke, it was very difficult to open them behind, Qin Yuan quietly Laughing around, if it really works, then it's a hell.

Li Erniu looked at the guards very sympathetically, "I said that Brother Qin has his own training method, why wouldn't he not teach us? It seems that this thing is still not suitable for everyone, but this group of brothers is suffering."

At this time, the group of guards admired Qin Yuan even more. This person was able to train in the smoke, and quickly aimed and shot in the smoke, which was indeed the God of War level.

Because Qin Yuan had told them before that his training method was not suitable for everyone, the commander of the military district didn't say anything, he just felt that the people around him were indeed not as strong as others.

The head of the military area was also there for a few days, and was about to go back. He suddenly looked at Gao Shiwei and said: "Xiao Gao, I see Captain Qin on your side, but it is against the ability of a guard company on my side! Or let this kid follow. I forget."

Gao Shiwei's expression changed in an instant. This is really too difficult. His own soldiers are not good. Then he must be taught by the chief. He is too good and afraid that he will be poached. This kid is really a treasure, and he can't bear it.

Qin Yuan is also a little flustered here, what's the situation? Letting myself be his guard was too awkward, so I didn't do it. The point is that I have to leave my brothers, and Enron will not see them either.

The chief of the military district next to him saw Gao Shiwei's tangled and painful expression, and laughed loudly, "You kid is still so stingy, and finally saw your tangled appearance. Okay, don't tease you anymore, I know his ability is very good. Qiang, staying by my side as a guard is too wronged for him. His skill is suitable for other tasks. Gao Shiwei has a black line on his face, how can he be so cute? I take it seriously, at that moment, He thought about many reasons, how to reject him.

After sending away the commander of the military region, Gao Shiwei kicked Qin Yuan's ass, "You stinky boy, you can keep me back in the future, don't attract the bee and butterfly."

Qin Yuan always thinks these words are weird. Isn't this what Long Xiaoyun and the others should say, "I have nothing to do, I haven't listened to your high team's command. With your order, I can be better. Performance."

"Your kid is itchy, go and cook two dishes for Lao Tzu. Your kid's craftsmanship is really good, and it's memorable after eating." He Chenguang and the others were also booing and asked Qin Yuan to cook.

Under what circumstances, I am going to be a partner again. I would rather look helplessly at the convoy that the military commander is slowly driving away, shouting: "Chief, you don't go, I want to be a guard with you!" Then he was Li Erniu. They dragged directly to the cafeteria.

Qin Yuan found out that he had the skill of the King of Thousand Kings. Afterwards, it was really boring. Playing poker with them was originally something he didn't want to watch, but this skill would always show up all their cards. He knew it and wanted to lose. It's all a luxury.

Chapter 765: Barron's Conspiracy

He raised his head and said, "How lonely is Invincible!"

System: "Host, please converge, don't be so narcissistic!"

At this time in Xiaomao's country, Buffett always felt that his father seemed to be doing little tricks. Before, he came to his own trouble every day and asked him to do justice to his brother and apply to arrest those who killed Bassad. Recently, there has been little movement. No, he hoped that his father would let go of his hatred and face this matter squarely.

He definitely can't do this. Bassad is to blame. He has done enough to kill him several times, especially bacterial weapons. This is a banned topic in the world. He didn't even know that his little son made the entire country of Mao Zedong. Shame, this is no longer their family affair but has risen to the world.

Batch after batch of people came to Baron, and no one dared to take this task. He was very disappointed. He even wanted to rush to Yan Country with the bomb on his back, and die with the murderers who hurt his little son. But the reality is He may have been intercepted as soon as he arrived at the airport.

At this time, a person wearing a black gauze walked in with a cloak. Barron looked at this person as very short and waved his hand helplessly, "You better go back, don't die."

This person took off the black veil without speaking, and as the veil took off, a strange fragrance floated out. Unexpectedly, it turned out to be a woman. This woman is very beautiful, with a mixed face, but the more beautiful person Often the more dangerous it is, the woman's speed is very fast, a dashing body rushes directly behind Baron, his bodyguards have not yet reacted, a knife is directly placed on Baron's neck.

Those bodyguards were all 1.8 meters tall. Just about to rush over, they felt weak and slumped on the ground. Baron also felt a little breathless at the moment. The woman put away the knife and took out a candle from her sleeve. Only then did Baron's symptoms ease.

"Sorry for offending the old gentleman, but I just want you to believe in my ability. I also have a team. It's just that I am here alone today, but I can easily take the old gentleman's life just now! I don't know if you think I am enough. Where's the grid?"

Excitement flashed in Baron's eyes, "Yes, as long as you can take the task and kill that person, I can promise you any request that I can do! The chips I raised before can be added."

"No, old sir, I don't lack money. I want that military base. Also, you have to find a few more scientific research experts for me. As for which aspect, I will tell you when I finish the task. ."

"Yes, no problem, when will you start to act?"

"You don't need to worry about this, when the time comes, we will naturally act!"

Baron originally wanted to ask how to contact the woman. A white smoke rose around and the woman disappeared. In fact, Baron and the others had limited abilities. Seeing that the woman disappeared out of thin air, the woman actually walked out with the help of the smoke.

Baron is very happy. He thinks that he has met a great person, this person will be a stranger, after all, so many people in the world will have some of this strange ability, but as long as he can avenge his son, no matter how much he pays, He is willing.

The bodyguard next to him felt that Baron should be crazy. For the sake of a dead young son, he did not hesitate to fight his eldest son below and disrupt international relations. Moreover, this woman did not look like a good person, even though he was Barron's bodyguard, but also worried about his country.

He wanted to inform Buffett that he was rushing on the aisle. He didn't notice a shadow behind him. He was approaching quietly. Suddenly there was a blast from his neck. The man convulsed, unable to move, and fell to the ground. A red and white viper came from the man Wander around.

Many guards rushed to hear the movement. They only saw two deep tooth marks on the man's neck. The entire skin was already filled with black. The man died like this. The guards felt very puzzled. This is the place of the president. How come a snake came suddenly.

The woman wearing black gauze at Baron went back and reported the incident to him, "Old sir, you'd better take care of your people. I don't want to be ruined by other people. Even if I help deal with it this time, But also for the success of this event."

Baron nodded constantly. At this time, he fully believed in a woman's abilities. After the woman left, Baron found a group of people to kill all the bodyguards who saw the incident today. The dead could not speak.

This mysterious woman is called Mandala. In addition to wanting to get a military base through Balong, on the other hand, she and Qin Yuan also have hatred.

Before, Qin Yuan and the others carried out high seas operations to wipe out the drug dealers in the Golden Triangle. Among the drug dealers who were killed were his brother and father. This mandala is best at using poison and has hidden weapons. His body has been trained since he was a child, and his speed is very fast. Quickly, there are also various poisons on his body. It can be said that killing is invisible.

She also has a mysterious team under her. They are all people who are good at using poison. She has been looking for Qin Yuan, wanting to avenge her brother and father, but she has never had a chance, especially since he returned to the country of Yan. No, so this time she wanted to use Baron's hand to see if she could draw Qin Yuan out.

She also knew that this Qin Yuan was very powerful. None of the previous germ weapons could harm him. This person's physique may be very special. For this plan, she made a lot of preparations, and now she needs Baron's cooperation.

Qin Yuan accompanied An Ran back to take a look at her grandmother. As expected, the father and daughter next door did not come back again, and they have been replaced by other people. Qin Yuan is very satisfied with this. After all, these people must let him know that he is afraid. .

An Ran's grandmother hadn't seen her granddaughter for a long time and was very happy. She made a large table of dishes and ate together happily. Suddenly, An Ran's grandmother said: "Xiao Qin, I think you have been with An Ran for a long time. , Do you plan to get married when? I even have to buy clothes for my future grandson."

Qin Yuan almost couldn't come up with a mouthful of soup. Why was it so straightforward that he even had to buy children's clothes in the future. An Ran was also blushing beside him and told grandma to leave their young people alone. They would make their own plans. An Ran was really very Empathetic.

But An Ran's grandmother did not intend to let Qin Yuan go in this way. After all, she must ask clearly about her granddaughter's happiness. At this time, Gao Shiwei's call came. Qin Yuan felt that this call was like a life-saving straw, too timely. I have never missed Gao Shiwei so much.

"Qin Yuan, urgent task, return to the team quickly!"

In a simple sentence like this, I would rather put down the tableware and say to An Ran's grandmother very sorry: "Grandma is sorry, there is an urgent task in the military area here, I can only go out the task first, there is still a fake here in An Ran, let her Stay with you for a few more days."

Knowing the importance of the task, An Ran quickly packed Qin Yuan's luggage and told him to leave quickly. The grandmother complained with dissatisfaction, "This grandson-in-law, everything is good, but time is too short."

When Qin Yuan rushed to the military area, the red blood cell team and Gao Shiwei were already waiting for him in the playground, "Qin Yuan, the incident happened suddenly. This is mainly related to the international community. I have asked Li Erniu to collect your equipment and luggage. Well, you can go to the plane to change clothes! The specific combat missions are in the file bag, you can go on the plane to see."

Qin Yuan looked dumbfounded. What was the task this time? Why was it so urgent? He didn't even have time to change his equipment. Seeing that Gao Shiwei was very serious and related to the world, Qin Yuan organized to set off immediately.

On the helicopter, Qin Yuan opened the file bag. It turned out that there was an accident in the country of Xiao Mao. The father of their President Buffett was kidnapped. Unexpectedly, the kidnappers didn't want any ransom, and only demanded that Qin Yuan of Yan country be found.

Qin Yuan thought for a while, it might be that this group of people had an enemy with him, but they were in Yan Nation and they couldn't do anything, so they could only use this method to draw them out.

He Chenguang said: "The tasks we have accomplished over the years have offended a lot of organizations, and this enemy is too difficult to count."

"What's there to be afraid of? With our brother Qin, I think this group of people has not been beaten. If they are afraid, they should be killed at once, so that the world can be peaceful."

"You silly bull, as long as there are people, there will be disputes. The other group of organizations that we extinguished the hottest will also rise, but we do have to deal with this incident. After all, we were named by others."

Gao Shiwei did not want Qin Yuan to take action. After all, this is an internal matter in their country, and this should be solved internally by them, but the president of Xiao Maogou personally called this side and asked Gao Shiwei to send someone first. Because Xiao Maogou was talking about asking for help from Yanguo.

What made Qin Yuan unable to figure out, how did it have something to do with this little country of Mao? The previous Basad had caused him to be framed here. Will this matter be related to him, but everything can only wait first Let's talk about it when we get there.

After getting off the plane, the president's vehicle came directly to meet them and took them to the presidential palace. Buffett had also seen Qin Yuan before. During the live election, the presidential palace was full of guards and patrol personnel. Increased three or four times.

Buffett was very distressed at the moment. This group of people kidnapped his father in his presidential palace, and his subordinates were unaware of it, so patrols increased. They were relieved to see Qin Yuan coming.

He has also heard about Qin Yuan's previous events and he has also seen how good he is. After a basic greeting, Buffett asked them to take them directly to his father's residence, because the conference fee did not leave any address, just keep it. The next letter requested Qin Yuan to come.

As the president, he is indeed very capable and has used a lot of relationships, but he couldn't find the organization that kidnapped his father, nor any trace. In the end, there was really no way. He could only explain the situation to Yan Guo. Hope Yan Guo can help.

After Qin Yuan and the others entered this room, although it was very light, he could still smell a scent. According to the person next to him, there were five bodyguards who took care of the president's father. They were the servants below. When they came up, all five bodyguards were killed.

These bodyguards are all well-trained. I didn't expect that they were not even able to fight back. They were killed by a single move, but the entire assistant was very tidy, as if there had not been a fight. Qin Yuan asked, "You have the forensic doctor. There is no bleeding test report, is there anything in the blood of these bodyguards?"

The person next to him looked at Qin Yuan in shock, "How did you know? These bodyguards do contain harmful substances, but we can't detect what they are? They only know that it is a foreign substance that can paralyze people's nerves."

Qin Yuan looked at the scene carefully and did not speak. The question is very simple. Because the five people are in the presidential palace, they can make some noise no matter what, and there is no fighting at all. It only shows that these people are He was killed after he had no sense of resistance.

Qin Yuan and the others looked around and found nothing, because the room was so clean, the group did not leave any clues, Buffett asked very anxiously, Qin Yuan just told him, let him not worry, after all What this group is looking for is themselves, and now that they have come, all they need to do now is to wait and wait for them to take the initiative to contact.

Qin Yuan is very confident. He has completed the task of rescuing hostages many times. As for the poison, he currently has system skills and no poison can harm him.

In this way, everyone sat in the reception room and waited. After a while, the president sent someone to let Qin Yuan pass. It turned out that it was the robber who called to find Qin Yuan by name.

Qin Yuan picked up the phone in the past, and the person next to him made him prepare, try to extend the talk time as much as possible, they are easy to locate, after all, they are all global positioning systems, and he is in an OK posture.

"Hey!"

"Sure enough, it's you, I also admire your courage, but if you dare not come, then I don't need to make such a big preparation, I know you will come!"

It was the voice of a man. It was the first time that Qin Yuan heard this voice. He couldn't tell which organization it was from. "Say, what are you looking for me for?"

"At 12 o'clock in the evening, you brought your team to Songshan Prison! Remember, you are the only person with you. If there are other people, we will tear up the ticket immediately. We will not see you or leave!" Then the phone was hung up. The fire organization actually asked itself to bring the team together. This was the first time I heard of such a request. In order to avoid risks, the general kidnappers only require one person to go there. What the * does this group have?

At this time, the detective next to him shook his head. The location system could not be tracked. I don't know what method was used to block the location. However, they had already given out the address of Songshan Prison. If the location was located, they were just worried that the criminals had other addresses.

The agent next to him said: "Songshan Prison is an abandoned prison, but the cells are still there. Because of the developer's problem, the land has been processed, so construction has not been started. The previous prison buildings are still there. ."

Chapter 766: ? Mandala plan

The detective went to solicit the opinion of the president to see if he followed the kidnapper's request, or he should do the second set of plans on his own and lead people to prepare.

Buffett is very upset. He has always been so passive. The president of a country was threatened by someone like this. He asked agents to bring a small group of elites to investigate first near Songshan Prison. Now even who kidnapped his father. do not know.

"Are you people like rice buckets? People take people away from the presidential palace. You don't know what else do I raise your group for? Will they quietly take me away next time!"

Qin Yuan wanted to go to Buffett to explain the situation. He didn't expect to hear Buffett getting angry when he arrived at the door. Qin Yuan could actually understand his current mood. After all, as a president, the kidnappers ignored his authority. Let other countries save his father. At this time, he needs to step down.

Qin Yuan knocked on the door and walked in, "His President, hello, in view of the conversation with the gangster just now, there should be a special way to understand our actions later, after all, I just came, they know , I am worried that sending troops rashly will affect the safety of the old man. Don't worry, I will lead the team, Qin Yuan, and I will definitely rescue the old man."

"No, Captain Qin, I think you have misunderstood. The main reason is that there are a lot of things in it. I can't figure it out now. That gang of gangsters asked you to go by name. This is obviously a trap. China asks for help, but I also want to guarantee your safety."

Qin Yuan smiled, "Your Excellency President, don't worry, the people who can hurt me Qin Yuan have not been born yet, and your people can follow along, but they will be on the periphery, wait for the team to close!"

The agent next to him was very upset. He was too arrogant about what he said. He was also an elite agent of the Little Mao Kingdom, and even commanded himself, even though he was a special soldier from the Yan Kingdom. The strength is really strong, but he is not bad.

But when I turned around, I saw that the President seemed to agree. There was no way. I had to do this first. But when we got to the prison, they didn't have the final say. People were indeed lost from the presidential palace, but they belonged to their own country. Regardless of the matter, you have to bring people back by yourself and let the president see his own strength.

The president distributed new equipment to Qin Yuan and the others, because this time Qin Yuan judged that the other party might use poison gas. After all, those brawny bodyguards were killed without resistance. Qin Yuan himself was not afraid, mainly because Worried about the members of the red blood cell team.

The detective led the group to drive, and Qin Yuan and the others followed. He took out a map of the prison and looked at it carefully in the car. This prison is a very old-fashioned one. The prison was abandoned before the power grid. The power grid is out of service, but the inner walls of the prison are very strong. It is still difficult for them to break through from the outside.

After all, the construction of prisons is very costly. The buildings of the prison are very strong and there is little hope of forced entry. However, this kind of building also has an advantage. People outside cannot easily enter, and people inside cannot get out. Choosing the position here is so confident to escape?

Qin Yuan also didn't understand, and explained that everyone will wait and be vigilant. The real purpose of this group of gangsters is still unknown. After a while, the agent in front said on the walkie-talkie: "Captain Qin, the Songshan prison is ahead!"

The Songshan Prison is built halfway up the mountain, so it is also a good place to observe. Qin Yuan intends to get off the car here and take everyone up on foot. The target of the car is indeed very big, let the detective take his team members. Waiting on the periphery.

Unexpectedly, the agent threw the walkie-talkie out of the window and gave Qin Yuan a  at the speed of the car behind them. He was very dissatisfied with Qin Yuan. Why can Qin Yuan command him? He also belonged to the national special forces. He would personally save the hostages. come out.

Li Erniu next to him was very angry, "Brother Qin, what are these calves doing? They have disrupted all our plans!"

Qin Yuan was not in a hurry. He closed his eyes and leaned on the cushion in the back to rest. "Young man, don't be so angry, relax, let them explore the way. Anyway, that old gentleman is not ours. Even if the rescue fails, he is still mainly responsible." Qin Yuan knows that you can't stop him from this kind of person, and the more you persuade him, the more energy he will get, and he will suffer a bit.

When Li Erniu heard Qin Yuan say this, he didn't say anything, just watch the show, and see how the group of people will toss.

The group drove the car and rushed up directly. Unexpectedly, there was a mechanism on the way, and iron wheels appeared on the ground. The detective could only go down and walk with someone cursing. At this time, the prison yelled with a loudspeaker: "It seems You don't know the rules at all, and I already understand what I said. As long as Qin Yuan and his team come, then all of them stay!"

Then a lot of grenades flew out, and the agent shouted, "There are grenades, spread it out!" Then those grenades exploded and the ground was blown out of a big hole. A man reacted slowly and was killed on the spot. Individuals were also injured by grenade fragments.

The agent led everyone to jump into the nearby bushes. Unexpectedly, there were organs in the bushes, but they were all noose traps. Several people stepped on them and were hung upside down.

The agent was a little anxious. He asked the remaining hands to save the people and retreat first. He just wanted to retreat, but unexpectedly fell behind a huge iron gate. The person inside was about to throw a grenade for the second time. The team members rushed up and knocked on the iron door, but the iron door did not move.

Baron inside saw that his person was wounded and shouted to the woman next to him: "Hey! What are you doing! Stop it, they are the elites of my little Mao country, what you have to do is to deal with that Qin Yuan! Don't hurt others, or I won't give you anything."

"Hehehe, I didn't expect Mr. Baron to care about his people so much. Forget it, who made you an employer?"

Unexpectedly, Qin Yuan rushed over at this time, and the huge iron gate was kicked down by him, raising a huge amount of dust. The agent next to him was shocked. Just now seven or eight of them kicked and kicked, and the iron gate had nothing. The reaction, I did not expect to be kicked down by Qin Yuan, how did this man do it? Is his power normal human!

"Mr. Agent, take your people to the back to rest first, leave it to us here!"

The agent's voice was a little trembling. I only heard that Qin Yuan from Yan Country was very strong. I didn't expect to see it with his own eyes. It was really shocking. He stepped forward and stepped on the iron gate on the ground. It was very thick. The power is really strong.

"Then, then it will trouble Captain Qin, you guys pay attention to safety."

Li Erniu looked at the shocked and admiring eyes of this group of people. Sure enough, Brother Qin was still so arrogant, and those who had never seen the world were so arrogant, it was time to show them that the strong were low-key.

The mandala inside saw Qin Yuan with red eyes staring at him. "Hehe, you are still so personal heroism. When you enter the prison, I will see how you escape behind. I will let you back and forth!"

Mandala ordered his men to prepare the grenade. In an instant, the grenade flew out. Qin Yuan was very fast. He aimed his gun at the grenade and hit them quickly. One shot of one grenade, those hands exploded in the air, countless ammunition fragments and gunpowder. Falling from the air.

The agent behind was completely dumbfounded. What the * was this speed? The dozen or so grenades were destroyed and the bullets were all fired. I knew that the angle and speed of the grenades were all different. As if it had been sensed long ago, one shot at a time.

One of his subordinates whispered, "Boss, we should have listened to him just now and let his people come forward. He is really strong, so we won't have any casualties."

The agent next to him was also very regretful at the moment, looking at the two injured brothers, "I'm sorry, brothers, but I will be responsible. I didn't take you well. I am not a good commander."

"Boss, in fact, I understand that the people who were kidnapped in this situation are people from our country. We also want to take a breath, but the disparity in our strength is indeed too great."

The agent nodded, and now he fully believed that Qin Yuan could save the hostages. Although he was not convinced before, he was shocked by his strength after seeing Qin Yuan's strength.

The mandala inside was very angry and kicked on the table, "Fuck, this kid is lucky, he escaped the grenade, and now he throws the incendiary bomb!" Mandala also knows Qin Yuan's strength, so he does After a lot of preparation, I planned to consume their energy before Qin Yuan went to prison, so that the possibility of defeating him would increase.

Qin Yuan sniffed in the air, it was the smell of gasoline and alcohol, and said to He Chenguang next to them, "Brothers, get ready to play a baseball game."

Before this kind of incendiary bomb, Qin Yuan had already trained He Chenguang and the others, and he knew that he was alone after all, but he was carrying the entire team, so it still needed to improve the strength of the entire team.

He Chenguang and the others nodded intently, and then the ignited Molotov cocktails flew out of it. Qin Yuan took the brunt of it. He directly hit a Molotov cocktail with his * back like a baseball, and turned on his side again, with his left and right feet open. Kick away two incendiary bombs.

The kicked incendiary bomb exploded and burned on the prison gate, and the kidnapping organization inside reported to the boss in a panic, "Boss, this man outside is too fast, these incendiary bombs, he actually kicked them back!"

This time it was not only Qin Yuan, but He Chenguang next to them also used their rifle butts to fire the incendiary bombs back one by one, but it was not as fast as Qin Yuan. He Chenguang happily waved the incendiary bombs, "Hahaha, just for them The speed is not as fast as Qin Yuan trained us."

Qin Yuan squinted his eyes and looked at the window where the incendiary bomb was thrown. A bouncing left foot directly kicked an incendiary bomb into that window. The agent behind was completely shocked. He didn't know how this speed and strength were done. When he arrived, he rubbed his eyes repeatedly, seeming not to believe what was happening before him.

The incendiary bomb flew directly into the window, and fell on a kidnapping organization. It exploded and burned instantly. This incendiary bomb was a combination of gasoline and alcohol, and it burned very quickly. Those kidnapping organizations were wearing long black veil and were The burning person yelled desperately and rolled on the ground. In an instant, the fire spread rapidly with combustible materials, and the two or three people next to him burst into flames.

Mandala heard the screams of his subordinates, and the quick commander took mud and poured them on them, covering up the fire, but the fire was too strong, and two people had already been burned to death.

The surviving person next to him shivered in fright. Although he was not burned to death, his skin was also burned. A blockbuster, "Ah! That's terrifying, how did that person's power do it? He was able to do it from a low point." Kick our Molotov cocktail in, too scared, boss, let's surrender!"

Mandala touched the face of the subordinate with his hand, with a smile on his face, "Those who shake the military will die!" Then quickly shot, a bloodstain flew out, and the kidnapping organization instantly lost its breath.

The person next to him seemed to be accustomed to it, but silently dragged the corpse out. Mandala said with his back hand: "You have to know that choosing to join our organization is a life of nine deaths. Your life is up to me, and you must remember that you don't Just living for you, there are your family behind."

Mandala knew that there were some incendiary bombs. These small methods could not harm Qin Yuan, but he didn't expect that he could use his own incendiary bombs and hurt his men. He wanted to block his footsteps. Inspired Qin Yuan's fighting spirit.

Qin Yuan kicked an incendiary bomb directly on the prison gate and then quickly fired a shot. With the explosion of the incendiary bomb and the power of the armor-piercing bomb, the gate was already uneven and deformed. Qin Yuan changed his submachine gun again. , Hitting quickly in the weak burning place, the gate instantly became a sieve, kicked it up, and a big hole appeared.

Entering from the cave with the members of the red blood cell team, the prison is very large. What you see in front of you is a square seven-story building. Qin Yuan has read the map. The first floor and the second floor are all coming to Kang to take care of some minor crimes. The lighter criminals, the higher the higher the defense, the heavier the defense, they are all serious criminals, so this organization is likely to hold people upstairs, because the walls or glass upstairs are bulletproof reinforcements.

This group of armed organizations also threw grenade incendiary bombs, and now there was no sound when Qin Yuan and the others actually came in, Qin Yuan made a gesture to make everyone vigilant, and the whole squad appeared in a triangle, and the attack state slowly advanced.

Baron next to him was very angry. "Is this what you said? You have put him in. So far, I haven't seen him suffer any harm!"

"Mr. Ba, don't be too anxious. Next is when the good show begins. If he is really easy to solve, why is there no one to pick up the tasks you assigned before? This person is really difficult to deal with, so I do. After a lot of preparation, you can rest assured to wait to see his body!"

Chapter 767: Qin Yuan almost hit

Because this prison has been abandoned for a long time, the monitoring and lighting measures have failed. Although it is daytime, it is dark when entering the prison. The entire style of this prison is very dull.

Qin Yuan and the others opened their heads and fumbled forward slowly. At this time, Qin Yuan heard a hissing voice from the dark passage, "Attention everyone! There are living creatures in the passage!"

Then everyone's lights were shining on the channel type. Unexpectedly, all the densely packed channels in the channel at this moment were poisonous snakes. Those poisonous snakes spit out scarlet letters and quickly approached Qin Yuan and the others. Could it be that the people of this organization still control snake art? After all, it is late autumn and winter is approaching, and snakes are about to enter a hibernation state, but these snakes are extremely active.

Qin Yuan raised his submachine gun to signal that everyone is ready to give these snakes a shuttle. Li Erniu smiled and said, "Brother Qin, wait a minute, I have good things here!" Then he took out a packet of powdered medicine from his bag. Qin Yuan smelled the smell of sulfur.

"Their Little Mao Country is too humid. Last time I was in the jungle, I was frightened by their mosquitoes, so this time I brought my secret weapon. It just happened to be useful!"

Qin Yuan put up a thumbs up and motioned to Li Erniu to throw the medicine packet at the snakes. He shot the medicine packet quickly, and the sulfur powder scattered along with it. Then he threw another grenade because of the explosion of the grenade and sulfur. Pink, those folds constantly twisting their bodies, they burned, and an unpleasant smell filled the air.

Qin Yuan asked everyone to wear a poison gas mask. Although the gas is not poisonous, the smell is really unpleasant in this closed situation. If you smell it, your head will feel dizzy. If you wear a poison gas mask, you can filter out some of the smell.

Half of the snakes actually exploded and flew over and fell on Li Erniu, "Oh, let me go, the touch of this mollusk is really disgusting!"

"Er Niu, Brother Qin, I invite you to eat grilled snake meat, hahaha, bring a little chili powder and eat it!"

Mandala heard the report from her men that her own poisonous snakes were easily solved by Qin Yuan. She smiled coldly, "Since these little snakes are not good, then take out the things at the bottom of my box, not everything. , We must disperse them, you must start to act, pay attention, as long as you attract and disperse them, don't love war!

Then everyone went through the passage and walked up the stairs of the prison. Qin Yuan heard a lot of flapping wings, and there was also a sound of mollusk rubbing on the ground.

He squinted his eyes and saw what seemed to be a bug approaching in front of him, "Er Niu, give me two flares." Qin Yuan had actually seen it in the dark, but the people in the back group could not see clearly, he Plan to steal two flares to see the situation.

As the flares rolled into the prison passage on the third floor, everyone took a breath of air-conditioning. Centipede spiders were crawling densely on the ground. The most important thing was a big snake with a thick bucket behind it. The body was wrapped around the prison gate on the third floor. Looking at everyone with green light.

"I drop a good boy. This is the first time I have seen such a big snake." Then Li Erniu wanted to raise his gun and hit the snake. Qin Yuan stopped him. This snake is useful, and now he has pet skills. You can accept this snake as a pet.

But the nature of animals is still more afraid of light, those bugs are all around the flares.

Qin Yuan looked at this passage and directed a quick retreat from the Wushi Building. Because the speed of the insects was very fast, he threw two grenades, a big hole was exploded on the floor of the third floor, and then he threw it out again. The floor of the building exploded, and the insects fell to the second floor one after another, but at this moment the big snake was gone.

This big snake is always a danger. He confessed that He Chenguang took people up and waited. He relieved the danger below, and then came up. Although this big snake is non-venomous, its eyes can deceive people's hearts. Qin Yuan carefully walked over the corner and went up. There was a cold look, Qin Yuan raised his head and hit the big snake just in time.

The big snake spit out apricots and stared at Qin Yuan like that, thinking that the big snake could not confuse Qin Yuan at all, because his psychology was a hundred times stronger than this snake. Qin Yuan walked over and the big snake quickly attacked. It was provoked. Thinking that this human being is not afraid of it, Qin Yuan just turned sideways, avoided the big snake, and then lifted the big snake's tail.

Sweeping directly towards the remaining poisonous insects, those poisonous insects were crushed to death by the huge body of the snake. The snake had hard scales on its body. This time the snake felt flying for the first time.

Qin Yuan held the big snake's tail and flicked it left and right. After playing for a while, the big snake had no resistance at all, so Qin Yuan put the big snake into the system grid.

"System, can this big snake be a pet?" Because of love, since there are so many systems now, this big snake is pretty good as a pet, and it can be directed to confuse the enemy.

"Ding~ You can recycle it as a pet. Remind the host that the snake is very weak and needs training. The host can put the snake in the grid for training.

Then Qin Yuan clicked for a detailed check. The skill points of this big snake turned out to be 80 points, which is much more powerful than that of the Erniu mouse. However, each has its own advantages. The mouse is good at searching for holes. A snake, let's look at its skills later.

At this time, there was gunshots in the corridor above. Qin Yuan quickly jumped up to check. There were several kidnappers on the opposite side. However, the equipment used by this group was the commonly used weapons and equipment of the Xiao Mao country. Qin Yuan was a little confused. Under what circumstances, is this group of people from the country of Xiao Mao?

The few people on the opposite side continued to entangle Qin Yuan and others unintentionally, and quickly retreated without fighting, seeming to want to lead them somewhere.

"Okay, don't chase, there is fraud!" Qin Yuan stopped Li Erniu and the others. At this time, there was also a slight footstep behind, "Everyone get down!" Then there was a burst of gunfire, and the bullets hit the opposite side. On the gun.

"Three o'clock!" Qin Yuan shot quickly, and a kidnapper was hit, and then armed gangsters appeared all around. Everyone shot separately, and the group also cooperated with the thunder. Qin Yuan and the others are not weak. , Everyone launched a fierce confrontation for a while.

Because the inner wall of the prison is very strong, in this case, a very good defense is formed, and then I heard a voice "Help! Are you soldiers here to save me? Don't shoot, I am in their hands!"

Qin Yuan motioned everyone to stop. At this time, a man's voice appeared again, "Don't shoot, we don't want to die. Now this old man is in our hands, and now you come alone, our boss wants to see you! The weapon is lost!"

Qin Yuan asked He Chenguang and the others to wait for him in place. It was easy to move by themselves, and the gangster asked him to go there alone.

Qin Yuan dropped the gun, but he was very confident. Love saw four men holding an old man in the dark. It seemed that the old man was Baron. Qin Yuan raised his hand to indicate that he had no weapons.

"Hold your hands on your head, walk over slowly, don't make any other movements."

Qin Yuan had already planned to get better, as soon as he got close to this group of people, he would quickly resolve them and bring the hostages out. That Baron had been begging  the other side, "You guys come and save me, my heart is not good and I didn't bring medicine. Keke~" Qin Yuan was completely attracted by this old man at this moment.

He didn't guard against his feet. Unexpectedly, Qin Yuan reacted very quickly when he suddenly felt empty.

And this space is very large, almost the size of a room, shit, this time I loaded it, and it really went too smoothly in front of it, so I underestimated this group of people, and in order to prevent Qin Yuan from jumping out, it was covered with a big net. , There are sharp spikes beside it.

Then this space quickly closed, and He Chenguang behind could see Qin Yuan suddenly fall off the trap, and rushed up, "Brother Qin! Captain!"

I planned to fight the armed groups, and rescue Qin Yuan first. The soundproofing effect of this space is very good. Qin Yuan's hearing is so good that he can't hear the movement outside. Qin Yuan originally thought there would be some mechanism. He didn't expect five minutes. It passed without any reaction. Qin Yuan knocked on the wall next to him. It was very thick and he didn't wear a grenade on his body. Moreover, if he exploded with a grenade at this distance, he would be injured.

At this time, He Chenguang above and the others are fighting the militants, "Er Niu, this is the position, Qin Ge fell from here, we attract firepower, you throw the grenade, explode it!"

Unexpectedly, I lost a few grenades. After the cement on the surface was exploded, a thick layer of bulletproof steel plate was found underneath. Li Erniu raised his gun and shot it quickly, only to find that only some white spots were hit on the steel plate. "Grandma Yeah, what the * is this, why can't you wear it."

And Qin Yuan below calmly analyzed that there was no oxygen in it, it was a confined space. Only when he dragged it down, he would run out of oxygen. He raised his hand and quickly hit the wall, knowing that he had world-class power. The wall did not respond.

"I'm going, what kind of material is this! It can't be touched!" Qin Yuan kicked a few more quickly, but still did not respond, because the oxygen gradually decreased, Qin Yuan sweated out of his head, it seems that he really underestimated the enemy this time. Up.

Qin Yuan quickly thought about which genetic ability to use, and suddenly thought of the previous world-class corrosion ability, just to give it a try. Then Qin Yuan used the system and put his hand on the wall. Then the wall corroded and the cement stone wall appeared. After the white smoke, many stones fell, and then the steel plate of that special material appeared.

Qin Yuan put his hands up, the steel plate was instantly dissolved, and then a passage was revealed, and Qin Yuan quickly jumped along the passage. At this time, there were lights in front of him, and there was a smell of smoke, and the voice of the two people talking came out.

"In a few minutes, let's go and see, that kid is probably deprived of oxygen."

"Hahaha, relieved, just happened to avenge the youngest and the others, and I will cut off his head later in a tribute to the youngest!"

Qin Yuan appeared behind the two like a ghost, "Are the two friends talking about me?" The two were shocked, Qin Yuan quickly shot, pinched the necks of the two, lifted the two of them up, and pressed hard. Cut the necks of the two directly off!

Hehe, I still want to kill me. The person who can kill me has not yet been born. Then Qin Yuan followed this passage to a room. There were several armed groups in the room. He saw that he was willing to come out and shoot quickly, "Damn, this kid is a ghost. ?"

"The boss is right, he really wants to prevent second-hand use, brothers greet him with grenades!"

Qin Yuan quickly ran behind the group of people, "Where is this kid!"

"I'm behind you!" Then Qin Yuan quickly attacked with a saber. The throats of these people were instantly cut, and they fell to the ground with very wide eyes. The speed of this person was so fast that they did not react at all. Has become a corpse.

Qin Yuan wanted to find the hostages quickly and ended early, but he heard a news unexpectedly.

"Hahaha, the boss's solution is good, now their head is trapped by us, and the boss takes the shot himself, those people are probably going to die!"

Qin Yuan was very worried. He quickly stepped forward and kicked the talking man against the wall. "What the hell, take me to your boss."

Unexpectedly, this armed organization was kicked to death by Qin Yuan. Qin Yuan shook his head. It was too weak and looked at the person next to him.

"Brother, you, don't kill me, I will take you there!"

Unexpectedly, as soon as Qin Yuan approached him, the armed organization sprinkled a pack of white powder. Qin Yuan closed his eyes, held his breath, listened to the surrounding sounds, and judged the position of the armed organization, and quickly punched out the armed organization. Flew out.

Qin Yuan walked over and mentioned him, "Damn, don't play these tricks with me."

The man was spitting blood in his mouth and took Qin Yuan to find the boss. This abandoned prison has been transformed by them. Before, there were iron cages one after another. Now those iron cages were removed and turned into a very big one. Space.

The armed organization brought Qin Yuan into this space, and then a strange fragrance floated. This is not poison, but a kind of bewildering. Qin Yuan's world-class anti-poison serum is useless for this.

He shook his head in confusion, but saw An Ran slowly approaching him. Qin Yuan subconsciously stretched out his hand. At this moment, an armed organization suddenly appeared behind "An Ran", and Qin Yuan quickly stepped forward to resolve the armed organization.

"Host, wake up! Hurry up! Don't be confused!"

Qin Yuan suddenly reacted, he was not in the barracks, and it was even more unlikely that An Ran would appear here. It was just the enemy using his emotions to turn it out.

The "An Ran" slowly walked towards Qin Yuan. This fake An Ran was a mandala. At this moment, she was very confident. Looking at Qin Yuan's bewildered eyes, she had determined that Qin Yuan was bewitched, and there was a sharp knife hidden behind her. , Wanted to approach Qin Yuan and quickly assassinate him.

In fact, Qin Yuan was already awake at this moment. He waited for an opportunity and waited for her to get close to absorb her skills. This was the first time he encountered this skill, and he was almost hit.

Chapter 768: Acquire world-class obfuscation skills

Mandala has approached Qin Yuan, and the fragrance is getting stronger and stronger. Even though Qin Yuan has strong willpower, the mysterious woman's face and An Ran's face are constantly alternating. Anyway, now that she knows that she is not Enran, just kill it. , Suddenly rushed towards the mandala.

The saber in his hand quickly pierced out, and the mandala reacted extremely quickly. When he stepped back, he sprinkled some poisonous powder on his hand. Qin Yuan was already immune to these poisonous powders and kicked the mandala directly. In the abdomen, this kick was so strong that the mandala almost fell to the ground unsteadily.

"I just want to know how you got out of the cage I designed?"

"Well, it's too pediatric, it has been destroyed by me!"

Mandala was taken aback. She thought that Qin Yuan was rescued by someone from outside, but she did not expect it to be destroyed from the inside. The cage took her three months to build and tried countless times.

She let her submachine guns, flame guns and explosives have been tried, because there is lubricating oil around the walls, a little spark from these things will cause fires, and explosives are impossible. The range is too small, and it will explode anyway. Hurt yourself.

So she really couldn't figure out how this person came out. At this time, Qin Yuan was very fast and rushed directly to her. The sharp saber cut her back in an instant. The huge pain caused her to take a breath, but Then the next knife slid directly to her neck, and she watched the knife approach.

A little snake flew out from the cuff and blocked the knife instantly. Mandala took the opportunity to jump away, "Wait, don't kill me, don't you want to save your men?"

Qin Yuan just remembered what the two militants said just now, because he had just arrived, and he was fighting this mandala. He thought that the two brought him over, but set a trap.

"What did you do to them?" Qin Yuan was full of anger.

"Hehe, I didn't do anything, just made them unable to act..."

Before Mandala had finished speaking, Qin Yuan rushed forward and stretched out his hand to pinch her neck, just like that, lifting her up out of thin air, "You are really looking for death! Antidote!"

Unexpectedly, that mandala burst into laughter. It turned out that her purpose was to hold Qin Yuan. She had no plans to give Qin Yuan an antidote. In her mind, Qin Yuan was already an unkillable monster at this moment. From his subordinates, let him lose the brother who fought side by side, just like he lost his father, let him know that feeling.

Mandala's face has turned blue and purple at this moment, but he still summoned a small snake from his body. The small snake was green all over, with a triangular head and scarlet eyes looking at Qin Yuan. It was very fast, and bit on Qin Yuan's hand. .

Mandala knew that he had won. This snake was cultivated by him all the time. Although it is small, a drop of venom can cure the death of an elephant, let alone being bitten by it, so that it is not a loss to die with his enemies.

Unexpectedly, Qin Yuan just raised the corners of his mouth and smiled. There is a world-class anti-venom in it. This little snake bit her, but was backlashed by the powerful toxins in his body. It slipped off Qin Yuan's arm and fell. Twitching on the ground, he died in two seconds.

Mandala looked at Qin Yuan with an incredulous expression. This man was really a monster, he couldn't kill him. Is there such a person in the world? If it was all luck before, then this time I saw it with my own eyes, how he did it, it turned out to be more powerful than the viper he had cultivated for a lifetime.

Qin Yuan increased the strength of his hand, the mandala died in horrified eyes, Qin Yuan threw her body out of the system grid.

"Ding~Congratulations on the successful recovery of the host. Please make a choice when you obtain the following abilities."

"1. World-class enchantment!"

"2. World-class charm technique!"

"3. World-class toxin refining!"

Qin Yuan clicked on to check these three skills in detail. This world-class enchantment technique can confuse anyone with the smell of his body, tell his true thoughts, and control all living things.

And the second words can actually charm anyone, arouse people, make the charmed person have a voluntary relationship, and it is not limited to men and women, Qin Yuan is very speechless, what kind of skill is this second, not limited to men and women, himself But no hobby.

The third one is that he can control those poisons, which is similar to the refining Gu technique. He can directly extract the toxins from them through those poisons. This skill looks good, but he wants the toxins to be useless. He is now Belongs to a state of inviolability.

Qin Yuan thought for a while, let's choose the first one. It's better to be confused. If you are charmed, you don't seem to need it. After choosing a good skill, the system will also give a prompt.

"Ding~ Congratulations to the host for gaining world-class confusing ability!"

After dealing with the system here, since there is no cure, use your own master of traditional Chinese medicine skills to see if you can save them. Qin Yuan took note of the entire map in the prison and ran towards the passageway on the fourth floor. Go, they were ambushed there just now.

When Qin Yuan arrived, the militants had already been killed. He Chenguang and the others were already unable to move, but they were still holding their guns tightly in their hands. It seemed that they were shot to death with strong willpower at the last moment. Militants.

He Chenguang looked at Qingyuan excitedly, but couldn't speak with his mouth, his eyes kept moving, "It's okay, I'm here to save you!"

Qin Yuan stepped up to the faces of the observers and gave them pulses. This toxin penetrates directly into the nerves from the breathing skin, so it takes effect very quickly. Fortunately, everyone wears a gas mask and does not absorb too much. The toxin only stayed on the surface of the body, but it still paralyzed some nerves, because the master of Chinese medicine Qin Yuan quickly learned how to detoxify.

He took out the silver needle from the backpack and pierced the fingers of several people. The blood that began to accumulate slowly was dark and purple until there was only bright red blood. Then he took out some neurotoxin inhibitor drugs from the backpack. He knew those before. The bodyguards were all poisoned and killed, so they were ready.

After bleeding several people and taking the medicine, they slowly came over. He Chenguang was able to speak and the first sentence was, "Brother Qin, go and see Er Niu. He stayed behind to do sniping, and there was no poisoning. At that time, none of us had a poisoning reaction. The militants ran forward with the hostages, and he has already gone after them!"

what's the situation? Why didn't he meet? Qin Yuan always felt that the hostage was very strange at this moment, but he couldn't tell where he was. At this moment, he could only search inside the prison to find the whereabouts of Li Erniu and the hostages.

what's the situation? Why didn't he meet? Qin Yuan always felt that the hostage was very strange at this moment, but he couldn't tell where he was. At this moment, he could only search inside the prison to find the whereabouts of Li Erniu and the hostages.

At this time, Qin Yuan heard the sound of a helicopter coming from the top of the prison, and quickly ran forward along the corridor. He jumped to the top floor with a few bounces. The door was open. He kicked it open and he watched as soon as he went to the rooftop. When Li Erniu jumped into the helicopter, he almost grabbed the helicopter's chassis.

In addition to the pilot, there are three people in the helicopter, there are two militants, and the other is the Baron. But looking at what he looks like at the moment, it doesn't appear to be threatened. Instead, he is escaping with these militants.

Li Erniu, the boy, had a bad temper again. In order to save the hostages, he didn't even care about his own life, but he couldn't think of so much at the moment. Qin Yuan couldn't let his brother take the risk alone, and a jump directly caught the bottom of the helicopter. .

Because the sound of the helicopter propeller is very loud, you Er Niu saw Qin Yuan, with excitement flashing in his eyes, and shouted: "Brother Qin, what are you doing?"

"You brat, I won't come, let you go to die?" Qin Yuan's arms were amazing, grabbing the bottom of the helicopter and slowly climbing, trying to climb into the cabin.

In the helicopter, Baron found the two jumped on the helicopter and instructed the pilot to sway from side to side. He wanted to throw them off. Li Erniu almost slipped his hands. In the depths of the courtyard, one hand pulled out a rope from the bag behind him. , Put it directly on Li Erniu, and tie the other end to himself.

"I'm a good boy, Brother Qin, you are still so good, you can hold it with one hand and tie the rope, some day you teach me to chant!" Li Erniu was already a little bit unable to hold his face at this moment, and his face was flushed. After all, this one is in mid-air, not to mention the wind, and it is still swaying left and right, and it can still talk to himself.

"You kid, just say a few words less and keep your strength." Qin Yuan was not affected. On Li Erniu's side, he had already given him a guarantee. As long as he didn't fall, he would have no problem.

At this time, the helicopter suddenly slammed to the right, preferring to use this slam to pull it to the shelf of the cabin door on the left. When I just wanted to go up, I didn't expect that it was two black hole muzzles oncoming.

One is held by the militant, and the other is the Baron, damn, this old boy really has a problem. It seems that this was a bitter trick before, he was not kidnapped at all, and he and the kidnappers are just A group.

At this moment, Baron smiled sullenly, "Hehe, you kid can't toss me, see how you toss in this sky, even if I don't shoot and beat you into a sieve, you can fall down at the height of several kilometers. It has to fall into a meat sauce! Hahaha." After Baron finished speaking, he shot quickly.

Qin Yuan could only let go of the bullet and leaned back, hooked the frame with his feet, and then climbed to the bottom of the helicopter. This was a blind spot. As long as they did not probe down, they would not be able to hit him. The wind at the height of meters is so strong, they should not dare to take risks. If they rush out, the helicopter will easily be thrown out if it is unstable. At this time, Li Erniu has been swayed by the wind, and it is almost impossible to hold on. Up.

That Balong was frantically disregarded of the danger, used a gun against the head of one of the militants, and told him to go out and shoot Qin Yuan.

There are only two guns, one is held by the militants and the other is held by Baron. Although the old man seems to be old, he always plays tricks. The gun is tightly pressed against the militants' heads. He came up with a gun to fight back, but without the courage, he knew that this man's gun must be faster than him.

I could only risk leaning out and shooting towards the bottom of the cabin. The militant fired at will. Under this shaking, there were two people hanging under the helicopter, which was very unstable. Li Erniu was hit in the leg at this moment. The gun, pain caused him to let go. He couldn't hold on before. Fortunately, Li Erniu was hung in the air with Qin Yuan's rope.

The helicopter tilted suddenly, and the militant rolled directly out of the cabin, and disappeared into the air following the screams of the man. At this moment, Qin Yuan wanted to climb into the cabin quickly, but he was hanging from Li Erniu. The rope can't hold it.

Li Erniu looked at Qin Yuan firmly, "Brother Qin, help me take care of my parents and my daughter-in-law!" Then he took out a saber from the trouser leg and cut the rope with his hand. He knew that this was with the rope. Under such a high altitude, he couldn't bear such a heavy gravity. If he continued to drag him down, maybe Qin Yuan would also be dragged by him and fell down. Two people might die first.

"Li Erniu, you silly boy, don't move, we can all live!"

Unexpectedly, that boy Niu's temper came up and he didn't care at all. Qin Yuan's eyes were red, watching Li Erniu cut the rope and fall down. At this moment, he couldn't control so much. Isn't it three kilometers in the sky? He has a world-class level. With hard armor ability, let go of your hand directly, and a turning light jumped towards Li Erniu at the bottom of the cabin.

Baron in the cabin was very happy, "Hahaha, how are you still alive in these thousands of meters in the sky? Son, my father finally avenged you!" At this time Baron suddenly pointed at the armed men next to him. The militant was killed with a shot, and then the corpse of the militant was kicked out of the cabin. The pilot next to him was trembling, for fear that the old man would suddenly shoot.

Baron walked to the driver and said, "I want to see if you are smart? When I go back, if my presidential son asks you, how would you answer?"

The driver was very nervous, "I killed those militants and saved Lord Baron."

"No, this is not enough. After the plane stops, you may have to suffer a little injury. This is true enough, do you know? I think your accent is also a local. You should also have a family?"

The driver nodded frantically. He knew that he couldn't fight him with his own ability. In this case, he could only protect himself, especially his family. This old man was the most terrifying. Everyone felt that he had nothing to do with him. Zhili, I didn't expect to kill people without blinking, and in this case, he could calmly make countermeasures.

The driver is only sympathizing with his presidential son Buffett. His younger brother is always thinking about how to get the presidential position, and his father is a murderous demon who has to be deceived by such people, but this is just them. For his family affairs, he is only a driver and can only protect himself.

On Qin Yuan's side, he jumped quickly and grabbed the half of the rope. Li Erniu saw Qin Yuan's tears come out instantly, but the wind in the sky was too strong to say anything, plus the huge pain in his thighs. Under the stimulation, he fainted directly.

At this time, Qin Yuan called out the big snake and ordered it to entangle the two of them. Although he had a systematic bodyguard, he did not dare to underestimate the altitude of several kilometers.

Chapter 770: ?Great Black Leads the Way

Originally, he wanted to take Li Erniu out of the forest directly, but seeing the condition of Li Erniu's wounds, he had to slow down first, but it shouldn't be a big problem to have Gong Jian there. Qin Yuan found a few more leaves. He set up a simple tent to maintain the fire, and he also hoped that Gong Jian and the others could see the fireworks if they really came to him.

At this time, Gong Jian and the others were completely deviated from the direction by the helicopter pilot, and went straight back. The bow and arrow looked at the map against the route.

"No, why did you make such a big circle? According to what you said, after you were injured, you insisted on driving the plane to the vicinity of the presidential palace, but your position deviated too far?"

The driver was wearing sunglasses and couldn't see his eyes. He was still very panicked at the moment. After all, these people are experienced special soldiers, but his family is now in the hands of Baron.

"At that time, we were threatened by those militants. Your captain and that team member did come up, but they were hung on the bottom of the cabin at the beginning. They climbed up from this position. The militant was about to pull the explosives away. Your captain hugged him and jumped out, and the other team member also jumped."

Hearing this, everyone felt sour. This situation is likely to be true, because according to Er Niu's character, if something happens to Qin Yuan, he will not hesitate to rush down, Gong Jian looked at the darkness below. Dashan said, "Brother Qin, where are you? You must wait until the brothers find you and hold on!"

Li Erniu next to him was already asleep. Qin looked at the beating flame and thought that the snake hadn't been used before and it was gone. He felt a little heartache in an instant. He was really a prodigal. The good things were gone in a few seconds. Yes, but thinking about saving Li Erniu, it's worth it.

Qin Yuan climbed to the tree just before dawn and saw only a green patch in the air. Now it climbed to the tree and looked into the distance. It was still a patch of green. It seemed that he could only go to higher places. A bonfire was lit on the hillside, I hope He Chenguang and the others can watch it.

If there is no such situation in China, it would be fine to live in this kind of jungle for ten and a half days, but now he is more worried about He Chenguang and their situation and wants to go out quickly.

Qin Yuan also closed his eyes to prepare for a break. In the middle of the night, he felt a dangerous aura approaching. He opened his eyes slightly, and a group of animals in the bush opposite was approaching.

It was a group of coyotes, staring at them with green eyes in the dark. Qin Yuan burned the fire very vigorously. The wolves were still quite jealous and did not step forward.

The wolf was standing on the rock behind, directing the wolves to come forward and looking down at Qin Yuan. It did not expect that this human being was fast, and the wind passed through the wolves and grabbed a wolf's tail.

The wolf howled, and the rest of the wolves rushed over quickly. Qin Yuan smiled and threw the wolf out.

He still looks down on these little soldiers. His target is a wolf. Those wolves can't bite him at all. They all have their fangs, and they are all avoided by Qin Yuan. One by one, he dives and jumps onto the rocks, just like that. The wolf looked at each other, and at this moment, he used a world-class deception technique.

This wolf could have been used as a pet, but Qin Yuan still wanted to try the power of this deception technique. The wolf stared at Qin Yuan with a fierce gaze just now. At this time, his eyes were full of confusion, "Sit down! "

Qin Yuan issued an instruction, and the wolf sat down obediently. The rest of the wolves saw that the wolf king hadn't moved, and they wanted to jump up on the stone. In addition to the leadership role of the wolf king, the wolf king would also protect the wolf. Wang, what Qin Yuan wanted was this kind of opportunity, spreading his hands and exuding a strange fragrance.

This group of wolves were all bewildered in an instant, just as froze in place, it seemed that this world-class deception technique was really good.

However, he needs the wolf to lead him to find a way out, so he should temporarily accept the wolf king as a pet, reach out his hand to touch the wolf king's head, and call out the system.

"Ding~Congratulations to the host for successfully reclaiming pets. The current pet skill points are 120!"

This wolf king is different. The skill points are higher than the others. After Qin Yuan's consciousness is connected with the wolf king, he orders the wolves to stay around so that he can sleep well. After all, animals' hearing and vision are beyond For humans, you can rest assured with these guards.

The sky was already bright, and Qin Yuan stood up and stretched out. That time, the wolf king grabbed a pheasant that was bitten to death. Qin Yuan patted it to praise it. The wolf king was like a second ha, with his tongue sticking out. With a face begging to please, he lied on Qin Yuan's feet and acted like a baby.

Qin Yuan was roasting chicken on the fire, and the smell of meat wafted out. Qin Yuan glanced at how Li Erniu was still sleeping. This was a bit abnormal. Even if he was there, he should be alert as a soldier. He does.

Moreover, the sound of the wolf howling and fighting sounded last night was not small. This kid didn't seem to have woken up. Qin Yuan walked over and patted his face, only to realize that Li Erniu was terribly hot. It is fever.

Sure enough, this kind of wound was not suitable for treatment in the field. There were too many restricted conditions in the field. Qin Yuan inspected the wound. Although preventive measures were taken at the time, infection still occurred.

It seemed that he had to find herbs to heal injuries in this forest. This was not difficult for him. He asked the wolves to guard Li Erniu and set off.

Qin Yuan searched for his own memory. He needed to find a medicine called Dragon Snake Grass to prevent infection and treat trauma. There must be this kind of herbal forest. He looked around and suddenly saw a waterfall in front of him, and a stone crack beside the waterfall. This dragon snake grass grows in it.

The flowing water of the waterfall kept hitting the stones. Those stones, covered with moss under the long-term impact of the flowing water, were very slippery. It must be more difficult for ordinary people.

After Qin Yuan only squinted his eyes to confirm, a bounce lightly stepped on the next stone, and then jumped to another with his strength, very stable, so he easily picked the agave.

When Qin Yuan returned, he found that Li Erniu had actually stood up. The surrounding wolves were all squatting around him in the grass. Li Erniu was holding a wooden stick in his hand and looked around vigilantly.

"You brat, what are you doing?"

"Brother Qin, you have come back. I thought you were eaten by these wolves? You don't know if I just woke up, these wolves were around. It's too scary! The main reason is that I don't have a gun in my hand and I feel uneasy."

"Oh, these wolves, the misunderstandings and misunderstandings are all my own!" Then Qin Yuan blew a whistle, and a huge coyote jumped in front of him. Li Erniu was really taken aback. This wolf was better than the others. Even bigger, the next scene shocked him.

The wolf looked fierce, and actually groaned at Qin Yuan's feet. Li Erniu looked dumbfounded. Is such a big wolf acting like a baby? This is what people say that the fierce man is acting like a baby!

"Let me go, Brother Qin, how did you do this? Even the wolf king listens to you, even better than the army dogs of our troops!"

"Hey, this is a trivial thing. I can train dogs and wolves. You have a fever. I will find herbs for you. I am worried that there will be any accidents. So I arranged these little brothers to guard you around. Well, his name is Dahei, I The new name given to it."

The wolf seemed to understand, and was very happy. Li Erniu frowned when he saw the wolf. The wolf was obviously khaki. How to name it big black? This Brother Qin really did whatever he thought of.

"Okay, let's not say that I will apply medicine to your wound. This is a medicine to prevent infection. I will treat the wound for you. Try the calligraphy I made. Then we set off and can go out today."

After using the herbal medicine, Li Erniu's face was not so bad, and Qin Yuan asked him to take two antibiotics again, which was double insurance.

Li Erniu ate the chicken called the chicken and almost chewed the bones. This brother Qin's craftsmanship is so good that he didn't even put any salt. The chicken is a pheasant on the mountain. The meat is firm and it is really fragrant.

"Brother Qin, how are we going out? Did you find the compass?"

"You stupid boy, we have a navigator now!" Qin Yuan finished taking a picture of Da Hei next to him. He was very proud and held his chest up. Seeing that, he would definitely be able to take them out.

Then Qin Yuan carried Li Erniu on his back. Under the leadership of Da Hei, the signs in the jungle were all the same. There were green plants everywhere. If there was no Da Hei, it would be easy to get lost even with a compass.

The speed of Qin Yuan carrying Li Erniu on his back was not affected. The forest was huge. After three hours, he finally walked out of the forest. It seemed that this was an undeveloped virgin forest. Qin Yuan glanced at it. The hillside is relatively high in this area.

It seemed that I could go to the top to light a bonfire. Li Erniu was very happy. The two finally walked out and would be saved immediately. Da Hei still followed Qin Yuan loyally.

Qin Yuan patted its head, "Go back and take good care of your race." Da Hei seemed a little confused, sobbing not to leave. In this kind of nature, the Wolf King is a very important existence.

Let it protect its own ethnic group here, and maybe it can be used in the future. This is equivalent to putting a real-time monitoring, Qin Yuan gave another order, Da Hei looked back at Qin Yuan one step at a time, and finally Say goodbye to him with a howl of wolf, and then quickly ran into the jungle.

"Brother Qin, I really admire you! You can still communicate with the wolf. The wolf still listens to you. You are a wolf training, you are simply submissive!"

"Okay, don't be poor, your kid, we climbed that hillside, this time we have to go back and clean up the baron!"

Li Erniu also clenched his fists. He was the old boy who caused him to look like this. He didn't expect to be an old fox, and he would not let him go back.

Gong Jian took He Chenguang and they had been looking for the place the driver said, but they searched all night and found nothing. Although it was such a high altitude, at least there were some pieces of clothing or guns, but what? nothing.

"Brothers, I think this is definitely not easy. I always feel that the driver didn't tell the truth."

"I also found out. Let's follow the route on their helicopter and search again. The problem is how do we know their route!"

He Chenguang smiled mysteriously, "I'll just say that you guys have elm heads. This helicopter has GS positioning and can record the flight path of the helicopter. When you interrogated him just now, I already His GS positioning route has been copied."

"Hahaha, you are a good kid, you deserve to be a special soldier, our special soldier will have some special means!"

He Chenguang used the computer to open the GS positioning route, only to find that the pilot was lying because the pilot told them that the helicopter had not passed by at all.

As a result, they wasted a whole night in vain. It seems that the things in this are definitely not simple. Gong Jian led everyone to search for the correct positioning route of the helicopter.

After a while, Qin Yuan and the others also climbed to the top of the mountain and lit a bonfire. The fire was very strong. Qin Yuan found some fresh branches, soaked them with water, and then covered them on the flames. After these wet leaves meet the fire The flames rose instantly.

Qin Yuan observed the surrounding area. The top of the mountain was the highest point in this area. The smoke was so heavy that ordinary people could notice. Not to mention that He Chenguang and the group of special soldiers, with root grass in their mouths, leaned against trees. Take a rest, is like fishing now, he is fishing for these boys.

When Gong Jian and the others came to the correct route, Wang Yanbing saw a puff of smoke rising in the distance, raised his sniper rifle, and saw it with the scope. It was indeed a puff of smoke. In this kind of jungle, who would light the cigarette and set it on fire. ? They must be Li Erniu.

A few people were very excited and rushed towards the dense smoke area. Everyone used to train with heavy load before. Walking in this kind of mountain forest was a trivial matter, but it was a bit far away. It took two hours to reach the foot of the mountain.

He Chenguang couldn't help shouting, "Brother Qin, are you two on top of the second cow?"

Qin Yuan leaned half of his body from the top of the mountain with his hands behind his back, "I said you guys are so inked. How long has it been before I found us? It seems that I have to go back and train you."

The people were very excited. It was Qin Yuan and the others. They were still alive, and they were full of anger when they heard Qin Yuan's voice. They didn't suffer any injuries at all. They ran all the way to the hillside.

He Chenguang jumped directly on Qin Yuan with excitement, "Brother Qin, I knew you would have nothing to do. I finally found you. Those kings and balagos are cheating!"

"Hey, the person who can kill me Qin Yuan has not yet been born! But Er Niu is injured. Let the hygienist show him the wound. I just gave him some simple treatment."

Next, everyone exchanged information, and it turned out that Baron controlled all of them. Everyone's eyes were full of anger, wishing to rush in and kill that Baron now.

It was a few thousand meters high, and Qin Yuan and the others were lucky, and they just fell into the lake. If something happened to Qin Yuan, it would happen that there was no evidence, this old boy had a good calculation.

When Qin Yuan heard that Buffett had his subordinates holding guns at He Chenguang and the others, his eyes were angry.
