

Special Soldier 771

Chapter 711: ?1 A good show just eat melon

"Fucking, I was almost killed by his * father. He was obviously saving his father. I didn't know that I was grateful and even pointed a gun at you. I have to settle all these accounts for him!"

The hygienist checked Li Erniu's injury, and there was no big problem. He hadn't seen the kind of herbal medicine Qin Yuan used, but the wound was slowly healing.

Because there is no helicopter, everyone can only walk back all the way according to the map. Qin Yuan looked at the map, wrote down the route, and explained that He Chenguang and the others should not disclose how he and Li Erniu were found. Their speed could not keep up. Qin Yuan, let them slowly come back with Li Erniu behind.

"Ah? Brother Qin, what about you, don't you go back with us?"

Qin Yuan sneered, "You will come back slowly in the back, I want to seek justice for my brothers first."

Everyone was very moved. Brother Qin continued to protect his shortcomings as always, but this can't be regarded as a short-term protection, this is just showing the facts.

Qin Yuan knew about this, if it was handed to Buffett, after all, this was his own father, and the old fox might find other excuses to shirk it. After all, the only insider at the time was the driver.

The driver should be controlled by Baron, and maybe the old boy just found an excuse to kill the driver, then there is really no proof, even if he has his own rhetoric, there is no way.

One is that He Chenguang and the others were treated like Buffett's group of people. In this tone, he must come out. In addition, he has also been conspired. This matter must not be so simple.

In the presidential palace, the driver was called into the room by Baron and handed him an envelope, "Inside this is the ticket for your family of three, as well as re-identification. There is a bank card in it, enough for your entire life. Up."

The driver was a little afraid that he could not figure out what the old fox wanted to do, and shook his head, not willing to accept it.

Baron's face changed, "You have to accept these things, and I only give you three days. After three days, I don't want to see you in Xiaomao country again. If I know you are still active in Xiaomao country, then I will Cut weeds and roots!"

The driver tremblingly took the envelope, and now there is no other way but to do as he said. It seems that the old guy is planning to let him go.

Baron looked at the back of the pilot leaving, snapped his fingers, and let the men from outside come in, "In three days, there must be an accident in the plane he was flying!" The men nodded and walked out.

He can't kill the pilot yet, but the pilot left Xiaomao and got into an accident on the plane. It's not his business. Baron smoked a cigar and showed a sinister smile. This time it's true. It is the perfect ending.

Not only did he avenge his son, but he also saved a lot of money. The mandala wanted an arsenal before, so dream it! Just push everything to the dead now, no one would doubt it in his identity anyway.

Qin Yuan ran all the way according to the map and out of the jungle. He was very confident of his speed. He was not tired of this situation. He saw the buildings on the street and quietly returned to the presidential palace. At this moment, there are many guards in the presidential palace. With his hands in his pockets, Yuan swaggered towards the gate and walked over.

The guard at the door immediately raised his gun and warned: "Who? This is the presidential palace. Please leave quickly. If you don't listen to advice, start looting immediately!"

Qin Yuan stretched out his hand and stretched out, and then a strange fragrance radiated from him, and the guards' eyes became confused, "all down the guns!"

Then the group of guards obediently put down their guns and opened the door. Qin Yuan walked in like that, suddenly remembering something, turning around and saying: "You guys take off your pants and give me a dance here. "

Qin Yuan couldn't let go of this opportunity to humiliate them. This world-class confuse ability is good. It doesn't cost a single shot, and it's so obedient. If you use a gun, it's not clear. After all, this is an action that they do voluntarily.

Then the guards took off their trousers, held hands, and danced around the circle. Qin Yuan burst into laughter. This was so enjoyable and walked in with his hands behind his back.

Then, where Qin Yuan walked, the smell on his body became more and more intense. He saw so many guards shouting loudly: "All heads squat down, and ears are not allowed to move." Then these soldier guards all squatted on the ground. , Don't be too obedient.

"Who used a gun at my brother to stand up last time!"

Then a dozen people stood up and looked at Qin Yuan with bewildered eyes, "I think you are too idle and courageous, all jump into the pond next to it, so be sober!" The pond next to it is just a view. At the viewing platform, the water was not deep enough to reach people's thighs, and Qin Yuan just taught them a little lesson.

Now it's time to find the old fox in Barong. The guards along the way were all confused by Qin Yuan. They went to Barong's room and opened the door. Qin Yuan saw the old fox leaning on the sofa, listening to music. .

Baron was interrupted, some dissatisfaction did not raise his head and said: "I said, when I listen to music, no one should come in, don't you understand?"

Qin Yuan walked over with his hands behind his back, "Old guy, we met again, are we surprised?"

Hearing Qin Yuan's voice, Baron turned his head in shock, "You, ghost! Help! There is a ghost here!" Baron saw a person he thought was mortal and appeared in front of him, and he was intact. Without loss, I can only think that it must be Qin Yuan's ghost who came to him to settle the accounts.

Qin Yuan had a smile on his face, "I said you, an old fox, even knows to be afraid. You have done so many murders and hurt so many innocent people. How many souls come to you for revenge?"

Baron was scared to say crazy at the moment, "I'm sorry, I was wrong, I will definitely compensate your family, you don't come to me, it was not you who killed me! It was the militants!"

Qin Yuan walked over and picked up the trembling Baron. This old bastard, who was about to die, didn't even know how to repent, and caused these wrong things to others.

"You  see clearly, Lao Tzu is a living person. Just your little meter and you want to kill me. Don't shout. The entire presidential palace is controlled by me. As long as I order you, you will be Kill."

Balong felt the temperature in Qin Yuan's hands, and was even more frightened. Qin Yuan exuded a murderous intent and was very terrifying. How did this man do it? It's just a monster. How did he survive a few kilometers in the sky? And he just said that the people in the presidential palace are controlled by him. Is this person a devil?

Unexpectedly, this old guy was too intimidated, his hands tightly clutching his chest, Qin Yuan looked at it, this time it was not pretending, this old guy did have a heart problem, and now is not the time to let him die so easily. Qin Yuan used deception to stabilize his mind.

Then he took out a tape recorder and asked Baron to tell all the sins he committed. Qin Yuan couldn't listen. It turned out that in addition to killing himself, his elder son Buffett was completely calculated by him.

It turned out that he was also involved in the germ weapon. This old guy is not simple at all. Compared to his dead little son, this old man is the real master behind the scenes. Everything is done under his command, and he is still behind the scenes. Li misappropriated funds from the entire country to conduct bacterial experiments and expand military power for his youngest son.

Qin Yuan shook his head. It was usually his son who cheated his father, but he didn't expect this to be his son! He couldn't listen to any outsider, he wanted to rush forward and kill the old man, but he still held back.

The voice recorder is just a backup measure of Qin Yuan. He wants this old fox to confess in front of the people of their little Mao country. Buffett is now handling government affairs in his office, and he doesn't know what's happening outside.

Qin Yuan easily hacked into the overall system of their Little Mao Kingdom. Qin Yuan always had grudges and would avenge him. This old boy would shame him once, and he should play with them.

Then the wireless system of the entire Xiao Mao country was connected because it was the signal from the presidential palace. The presidential palace belongs to the commander-in-chief and can control all wireless devices.

To put it simply, in Xiaomao country, wherever there is a big screen, a message is directly inserted.

The figure of Baron appeared on the screen. He was sitting on the sofa and was not threatened. Instead, he was crying bitterly, and then he narrated his crimes. Of course, the crying bitterly was only the result of love controlling him.

After all, he is only afraid now, and he is still crying. Qin Yuan was eating an apple next to him, "It's not bad, I don't mean you are good, I mean your apple is really good and sweet, you continue to say."

The people of the small Mao country did not expect that there would be such a thing. The previous candidate, Bassad, made the small Mao country a mess. He did not expect that the host behind the scenes turned out to be this Baron. Qin Yuan asked him to focus on the frame of Yan Ren. thing.

This has even aroused the anger of the people, because everyone cherishes peace now, but they did not expect their presidential father to frame the Yanren who helped them in this way and want to start a war.

At this moment, Buffett in the office saw his father from the computer screen. He just started to tell that Buffett felt that things were not easy. He must not be allowed to continue talking like this. He must stop him, otherwise the consequences would be disastrous.

She shouted loudly, let people come in, but didn't react at all, opened the door, trying to rush out, but unexpectedly the door was locked from the outside.

Buffett was very anxious, listening to Baron's words, very angry, but now he can only stop Baron, otherwise the whole country of Mao will be in chaos, he lifted the chair next to him and hit the door, but the door did not move.

This is for sure. After all, this is the office of the President of the Presidential Palace. The defensive measures have been done very well. Not to mention that he is a man who has no power to break it.

"Come here, are all the people on the outside dead? I'm the president, you dare to disobey the president's orders!" But letting Buffett inside, the people outside didn't respond, and Qin Yuan had already controlled the guards. , This good show, he can't let anyone destroy it.

Buffett knelt on the ground in despair and watched Barong's report in front of the computer. This was completely finished. At this time, Qin Yuan was in Barong's residence, searching everywhere. This old fox had a bad heart, but he had collected a few. With a good bottle of wine, Qin Yuan drank the wine while listening to Baron's statement.

Only in this way was he relieved of his hatred, and even dared to yin himself, and also caused him to lose a pet snake in vain, plus Li Erniu was injured, these are all he deserves.

When He Chenguang and the others rushed back, they saw Baron's report on the big screen halfway down the road. Everyone was very shocked. How did Qin Yuan do this and let the old fox come out to confess himself, and this kind of repentance The live video was definitely not released by Buffett.

"I said that Brother Qin is the God of War, but he is worth a few armies. These things are simply trivial to him. Let's just leave him alone and wait for the show to finish."

At this time, everyone was very relieved, and the grievances they had suffered before were nothing, because their status was indeed embarrassing. If they were not paying attention, they would rise to international politics. Then let them solve the problem within the people of the small Mao country.

Li Erniu and the others were watching a theater on the square ' People beside them saw the national flag of Yan country and recognized them as soldiers of Yan country. They came over to apologize, thinking it was their own country. I'm sorry, people They must all hope for peace.

He also sent Li Erniu directly to a nearby hospital, so that they don't have to worry. Since the president can't solve the problem, the people will solve it. Of course Qin Yuan understands that, so he can use water to carry the boat and overturn it. The truth is that the power of the people is terrible.

Sure enough, there was the Self-Defense Force, a non-governmental organization, and began the parade. Qin Yuan heard that the movement outside was almost the same, stopped exuding his own scent, and did not control these people. After all, the people parading outside were about to come.

Qin Yuan locked Barong in the room, anyway, now the old fox is going to die, he doesn't care, the goal has been achieved, and the actor can leave.

Buffett heard the voices of the people marching and shouting, he got up from the floor in a panic, and desperately tried to pull the door. Unexpectedly, the door suddenly opened, and the guards outside the door were also embarrassed.

Buffett ran outside angrily from the guards, and saw the chicken in the pond, "What are you * doing?" The guards didn't know what was going on, so they jumped into the pond and soaked.

Qin Yuan was sitting on the roof of the Presidential Palace with a bag of melon seeds at this time, observing the people below. I have to say that this is an excellent viewing position, even the angry people outside, he can see clearly. .

Qin Yuan only lifted the internal control of the presidential palace. He had forgotten the dancing guards outside, and those marching people saw the guard at the door.

I even took off my clothes and danced there, and I was even more angry. I really don't know what's going on in this country, how can I even attract these wasteful neuroses.

Chapter 772: ? I will pay back 10 times

Qin Yuan watched the play slowly with melon seeds, but didn't release the control of those people.

System: "Host, I don't think you forgot, did you deliberately?"

Qin Yuan smiled, how could he be this kind of person, but he also has some special methods for some people who have forgotten their faith.

The angry people who marched outside shouted: "Baron get out! Let Buffett step down!" This matter also affected Buffett. Although he did not participate in it, the people did not believe him. After all, his brother and father They have done things that are detrimental to the country of Xiao Mao.

Buffett has no idea how his father would live confess his repentance. Isn't this killing everyone?

Buffett immediately made an emergency plan to quickly let the guards come out to stop the angry people. The people behind the shield threw eggs and stones at the gate of the presidential palace, which was like a vegetable market.

Qin Yuan didn't want to know how Buffett became president. If this little Mao country does not make restructuring this time, it will be the people who are suffering, and he will help them. With such a leader's father, the country will be very troubled. Difficult to settle.

Buffett came out of the presidential palace. The people were very excited when they saw it. There were screams everywhere. Buffett picked up the horn and shouted: "Please calm down, everyone. Think carefully. I have never done anything since I came to power. I'm sorry about the little Mao country. I also love this country and my civilians very much. You must calm down and don't be provoked by others."

An emotional citizen jumped on the roof of the car, "What is provocative? This is the truth. It is all your inaction. Your brother and your father are going to push our little Mao country into the abyss!"

"Yes! It is precisely because this is our country that we have to work together to safeguard it. Since you can't do it cruelly, if the development of the situation causes an international war, it will be our people who suffer. What you say is love, we in the end Where is the love?"

Buffett smiled bitterly. This is a critical period for the diplomacy of the Little Mao country. The turmoil caused by Bassad has not been completely resolved, and country C is also eyeing its own side. Now the external instability has not been resolved, and I did not expect it internally. There was turmoil.

At this time, he could only extinguish his relatives righteously, hoping to calm the anger of these people. He himself did not expect that his father, whom he respected for so many years, was also his own child, would be so partial, and he did everything he did.

Those people hope that Buffett will step down immediately and demand that the government deal with the Baron incident seriously and remove all his influence.

Buffett has been patiently persuading the masses, and the elders of several countries are also appeasing, but it is easy to say, let him step down, where do they go to find the president to take office, a country is indispensable, the president does not have this leader, the whole The country is going to be in chaos.

Buffett ordered people to bring Baron out. At this time, he seemed to have lost his soul. He didn't know anything. He let the guards bring him out and looked at the excited people outside. Then he gradually reacted.

"I won't go out, where are you going to take me? You untouchables dare to rebel, son, hurry up and kill them all, kill them all against the people!"

Buffett shook his head. His father is really obsessed. It's about this time. He is still saying these unrepentant words. Did he think it was the time when the king was reigning in the last century? He was almost killed by his so-called father and younger brother.

"Shut up, you are not my father now. You are just a sinner in the country of Xiao Mao. I brought you out to give all the people an explanation. Everyone is equal before the law. You really want me to kill the country of Xiao Mao." Die?"

Baron trembling, did not stand firmly and sat on the ground. He was more afraid of the angry eyes of the people. He stared at him. Looking at Buffett's indifferent eyes, he knew he could not go back.

Suddenly got up from the ground, "It's all you rebels. You don't listen to me. You have to pursue democratic policies. If this is the case, then everyone will die together!" After shouting, he took out a knife from his cuff and rushed towards it. Buffett.

The bodyguard next to him reacted quickly and kicked Baron's hand. Some of the pieces just scratched Buffett's arm. At the moment, he was clutching his bleeding arm, completely disappointed with the man on the ground.

Turning to the people at the door, he said, "I know you don't believe me anymore, but I only hope that I can do something for the country of Mao, Baron, and I will hand it over to the Supreme Court for the nation's trial."

"What about you? Get off the stage quickly!"

"I understand everyone's anger, but the current international situation is very severe. I can temporarily act as the agent of the small Mao country, Zhongtong, after you are elected, you can change my job immediately. This is my last point to make up for this country. ."

After Buffett finished speaking, he bowed three times to those people. Those people were still reluctant. Buffett could only let them elect representatives of the people, let several important veterans in the country supervise themselves, and help elect new ones. president.

Qin Yuan sat on the roof, and Guazi finished watching the play. This is indeed the best way to deal with this matter. However, looking at the situation, Buffett should not step down for the time being.

There were still onlookers at the gate of the presidential palace, holding banners in the street to protest. Buffett walked into his office decadently. There were too many things that happened today, and he really couldn't figure it out.

First of all, my father would take the initiative to confess, and he even controlled the satellite connection system of the presidential palace. The other is what the security personnel were like. If he could go out at that time, he would definitely stop Baron.

Qin Yuan slowly slid down from the roof to the window of Buffett's office. He knocked on the window and smiled. Buffett was a little shocked and got up and opened the window.

"You! You are still alive! Is this true, or am I hallucinating?" After all, Qin Yuan was dropped from an altitude of several kilometers in Baron's account.

Qin Yuan gently jumped in with his hands on the window sill. He came to the table and poured a glass of water. He ate too many melon seeds on the roof, and his mouth was dry.

"Honorable President, why can't I be alive? It's too easy to want to kill me with this small measure."

Buffett's brain is running fast. He remembers that this man appeared on the live broadcast of the election when Barcelona had trouble with the election. Could it be that this incident was entirely planned by him.

That's terrifying. How did he do it, quietly invading his own system in my home, and actually controlling people's thoughts, Buffett swallowed nervously, stepped back a few steps, and wanted to stay away from this man. .

"How did you do it! Just so provoke the relationship between the people of my little Mao country, did the Yan country send you? These are your conspiracies!" Buffett shouted out his conjectures, he felt that Yan country also wanted Take action on your own country.

Qin Yuan jumped on his desk and sat, "Hehe, we still look down on your small country, you, you really have been confused for a lifetime. What is meant by me to instigate, you understand, and now this situation It's all caused by you."

"Why! Then why did you do this? What kind of monster are you, and how do you do it!"

"I only tell you that the majesty of our Yan country cannot be challenged, and it is even more inviolable. I just settled the old and new accounts together, and I just don't want those innocent people to go into the abyss under the leadership of the incompetent president!"

Buffett lay down on the chair behind him as if lost, and Qin Yuan walked to the window, "Remember, this is the style of my Yan Nation soldiers. If you deceive me, I will return it ten times!" Then he jumped out of the window. A bounce disappeared in the presidential palace.

Buffett regrets it very much at this moment. He should have thoroughly investigated the matter at the beginning and should not take care of family affection. He not only offended Qin Yuan's devilish existence.

Now that it has caused irreparable consequences, he is even thinking that it is no problem to destroy his entire presidential palace by Qin Yuan's means.

Qin Yuan sent a signal to He Chenguang and the others to go to the hospital to join them. This time the matter was solved satisfactorily. The rest are their own affairs in their own country, and he is not easy to participate in it. Let it go as it develops. Now take everyone back home.

On the way to the airport, Li Erniu followed a few people with a walking stick, "I said you guys can walk slower and take care of me, the wounded person. The treatment is too bad? Obviously in the jungle, Brother Qin It's my back!"

Unexpectedly, a few people didn't answer him at all. Some talked and laughed, so they ignored him and speeded up, "Hey, I said you guys are too unreasonable! Did you listen to me? "

Qin Yuan and the others laughed suddenly, and ran forward quickly, "I said you kid, isn't this fast! Hahaha." Everyone just wanted to tease him, Qin Yuan looked at the people laughing and joking, none of them Little, everyone has come back for this mission.

After returning to the military area, Gao Shiwei and Long Xiaoyun were all waiting for them in the military area. They saw Qin Yuan's life alive from a distance. It was only that Li Er's corbel was injured, and he was relieved. They said there was no problem on the phone before, but After all, it was a few kilometers in the sky.

It is difficult for Gao Shiwei to imagine how they survived. At that time, Long Zhanjun comforted him. It is good for people to live. He has prepared for the worst. Even if Qin Yuan is paralyzed, he will find the best medical team in the country for treatment. they.

Sure enough, this kid had a big life. Long Xiaoyun's eyes were red, so she could return safely. When she first learned the news, she couldn't believe it. She didn't believe that Qin Yuan would die, and she didn't disappoint herself.

Qin Yuan probably talked to Gao Shiwei about the situation in the country of Xiao Mao, "Hehe, it can be regarded as a lesson to them, or else I really think that there is no one in the country of Yan?"

"Lao Gao, you are not angry with me for making a claim? Hey, then I can rest assured. Anyway, you will be responsible for everything in the future."

"You stinky boy, give you a step down, you are still proud of it. This time, it just happened that the little Mao country was in the wrong. Otherwise, let alone the commander of our military area commander, you can't keep you. It depends on your life, enough to play a few times."

"Team Gao, are you willing to save me? I think you almost cried when you saw me just now!"

"Get out of here, you kid don't give yourself gold, I was pierced by the sun!"

Qin Yuan learns experience every time he completes a task. This time He Chenguang and the others are accidentally confused by this poisonous gas. It seems that if they are not there, they will still be a little confused. This still requires separate training.

In the country of Mao, Buffett did not find any trouble with the country of Yan, but blocked the news. News reports said that Buffett may step down as the presidency for physical reasons. The next step is to see the election of the people.

Not long after Qin Yuan and the others came back, the commander-in-chief of the military region assigned them a task. The red blood cell team, led by Qin Yuan, wiped out most of the drug dealers near the Golden Triangle. Several military bases in the country.

Jin Guo knew about Qin Yuan's strength and sent a diplomat to negotiate with Yan Guo, but he also hoped that Qin Yuan would bring his team to give them some guidance from Jin Guo.

Gao Shiwei looked at the documents of the military region. This stinky boy is now well-known, and he is personally invited to give him guidance. Natural gas is just a cover. It is estimated that he wants this boy to do the guidance.

Li Erniu was very dissatisfied with the news. After all, he didn't have a lot of favor with the soldiers of the Kingdom of Jin before, "Brother Qin, why is this? Why should we give them our own things?"

Qin Yuan didn't care, because in terms of special training, that is, those events, in addition to bringing Li Erniu, they did the special training. Anyway, how to guide them in the past was the final decision.

"Well' it's okay, you guys don't be too arrogant, we used to learn from each other, maybe we can learn other things from others!"

He Chenguang also nodded, "Take what you need, learn from each other's strengths, and make up for our shortcomings, and it's Ge Qin who leads the team to guide you. You kid just listen to the arrangement. It's your leg. It's probably not recovered yet. Well, I should not be able to go this time."

"Who said that I didn't recover. There is no problem with 10-kilometer cross-country running back and forth. As you said just now, this is a learning opportunity. How can I let it go?"

Qin Yuan smiled, and gave He Chenguang a look. Sure enough, this kid just had to arouse him, so as not to talk too much.

Qin Yuan and the others were treated differently this time. It was Jin Guo's diplomat who took them back by plane. This diplomat was very polite and respected all the way.

After getting off the plane, there was a special fleet to pick them up, and there were some staff nearby to welcome everyone with fake flowers.

Qin Yuan was a bit speechless, what age is this, how did it feel so rustic, the staff stood in two teams with fake flowers, danced beside them, and let Qin Yuan and the others pass through the middle.

Chapter 773: ?Golden State Guidance Task

With black lines on their faces, Qin Yuan whispered: "Forget it, respect other people's customs, this may be their style."

Qin Yuan had visited Long Xiaoyun before in Jin Guo. After entering their main road, it turned out to be smooth. Qin Yuan noticed that there was a traffic police nearby commanding their convoy to pass first.

Li Erniu was very proud, "I'm a good boy, our battle is different! I feel that I have been taken seriously, and I can't say that people's awareness is really good!"

After a while, the vehicle stopped in front of a five-star hotel. Qin Yuan was a little curious. Shouldn't he go directly to the barracks, or meet their other officers, and the two sides began to communicate training tasks?

The diplomat patiently explained Qin Yuan's doubts, "Hello, Captain Qin, that's right, everyone has been struggling all the way, and it's very hard, so we will arrange for everyone to rest first, and after the rest of the specific situation, we will communicate tomorrow."

What the hell, they have been on the plane for four or five hours. However, the owner is not in a hurry, so let's follow their arrangements.

This five-star hotel was completely vacant for Qin Yan and the others. The diplomat took the people to the waiter later, and respectfully told Qin Yuan that he would inform him of the specific arrangements and let them rest well. What's wrong? Contact yourself whenever you are satisfied.

Qin Yuan smiled, what else could be unsatisfactory about this, such a big hotel, what they eat is buffet, and there are hot springs in the back, the service inside the hotel is very good, let them go to soak after dinner spa.

Qin Yuan wondered where this was here to guide this was a vacation. The stingy Lao Gao had never given him such a good treatment. After eating and resting for a while, he carried He Chenguang and the others on his back to the hot spring.

After soaking in the hot spring, there was a dedicated person who came to massage. It was really thoughtful to do push-ups. Everyone did take a good rest. However, Qin Yuan and the others woke up at six o'clock with the powerful biological clock. After all, everyone was ready to get up at this time. Wash and run morning exercises.

Although the service here is so attentive, they still maintain the style of being in Yan Country. The rooms are kept clean and tidy, and the quilts are folded into tofu blocks according to the regulations of the army.

There is a runway under this five-star hotel. Qin Yuan intends to take everyone down for a run. It is still relatively early, and the diplomat hasn't notified him yet. Unexpectedly, the waiter was very panicked when he saw them when he got up, thinking it was him. The manager even ran over to apologize after poor care.

Qin Yuan waved his hand, "Nothing. Your service is very good. We are very satisfied. It's just that our habits are different. Our Yan Army has strict requirements on ourselves. We can't relax at any moment. We will do our own things and we will go out. Run and run."

The manager immediately arranged for the waiter to clean the room for them, but the waiter was even more shocked. Does this room still need to be cleaned? It's cleaner than before they came to live.

The manager admired it very much. He was not the one who slandered his country. Indeed, the soldiers of the Yan Kingdom did a very good job. Only in this way can they have the aura of a soldier.

Soldiers from the Kingdom of Jin have also come here to live here before, and that is simply a difference. Not only does this Qin Yuan lack the prestige of an officer, his team members are also very polite.

The waiters were all whispering, "Their captain is so handsome! He is so temperamental."

"That is, it's not like the way Chief Park came before, yelling at us a little disrespect for people!"

The manager walked over and yelled: "Okay, hurry up and get to work, don't talk about it here!" This manager is indeed a bit sour at the moment, why is the army so good?

Qin Yuan and the others came back to take a bath after running. It was nine o'clock after breakfast and everything was over. It is estimated that the diplomat will almost take himself to the army, everyone is waiting in the hotel lobby.

Unexpectedly, it was almost 11 o'clock at noon. Qin Yuan couldn't help calling and asking if he could start training and guidance today without receiving the notification from the diplomat.

The diplomat's very polite voice came over the phone, "Captain Qin, don't worry. Today is just the weekend. Our army has a holiday, and there are only some personnel on duty. I'm very sorry, please stay there again. One day, is there something dissatisfied with our service?"

Qin Yuan was very speechless at the moment, and he was on vacation on weekends. How could their treatment be the same as that of domestic civil servants? If there were any emergencies, how would they be notified. In Yan Country, they were on standby 24 hours a day.

Qin Yuan really didn't understand. He just told the diplomat that he was very satisfied with the service here. He did things relatively straightforwardly. If he decides on something, he must hurry and do this kind of procrastination. It really does not conform to his own style. , But it's not easy to say anything, just wait for Monday to watch.

Later, Qin Yuan learned from the manager that on weekends, the army on their side has rest time and takes turns on duty. Most people and officers are on rest, so it is not good for those soldiers to come back and work overtime. In this case The next is overtime.

He Chenguang listened to the manager's explanation with a dazed expression. Just like that, it was called overtime. Then they usually do tasks and train every day. Didn't they never get off work? However, this is a regulation of the country, and respect them.

In this way, everyone stayed at the hotel for another day. There is also a gym in this hotel. In the evening, everyone did some basic training in the gym. The next day Qin Yuan still got up for a run.

Finally waited until ten o'clock, the diplomat brought the convoy and saw that Qin Yuan and the others were already neatly dressed, but their eyes were bright. The manager quietly went over and said to him, "Sir, they will get up at six o'clock, really It's amazing!"

Diplomats admire it very much. Sure enough, this diplomatic trip is very necessary. It is also their advantage. It is very principled to maintain the style of the army under any circumstances.

In this way, everyone finally arrived at their barracks at 11 o'clock. At that time, they were almost as they imagined. The soldiers were training. After Qin Yuan got out of the car, he stood by with his hands on his back and watched.

The diplomat smiled and walked over and said, "Captain, let's meet with our chief first!" Qin Yuan nodded. The basic training is almost the same, and there is no big problem at present.

There was a man sitting in a huge office. When the man saw his wish, they came in and stood up and shook hands and saluted him. The diplomat introduced him as the captain of their Black Panther team called Park Youtian.

This Park Youtian was also very happy. After finishing the introduction with Qin Yuan, let the diplomat go down first. Qin Yuan thought that it should start to exchange some training programs.

Unexpectedly, this Pu Youtian actually took out a set of tea sets and slowly brewed the tea, "Captain Qin, I know you like to drink tea, you can taste this is our local tea."

"Captain Park, thank you for your hospitality. I am a little curious. When will we start training and coaching?"

"Don't worry about it, take it slow, let's talk while drinking tea."

Qin Yuan and the others only have patience. This group of people is too calm. The pace of doing things is too slow. Qin Yuan and the others can't keep up for a while. Only after Pu Youtian's introduction did he realize that such a big office was actually his. Human, the specifications of this office are up to the old ones.

After all, all soldiers in Yan Nation must be strict with themselves, and these things are too fancy and unnecessary.

While drinking tea, Park Youtian talked about his recent training projects, which were all basic load-bearing raids, hostage rescue, sniper training, etc. After a while, there was a bugle outside.

Park Youtian raised his watch to check the time, "It turns out so fast, it's time for lunch, Captain Qin, brothers Yanjun, let's go to dinner first, and talk about it after we finish."

Qin Yuan could only slowly adapt to their rhythm. If it were on their side, the character of the captain would have been kicked out by Lao Gao.

Park Youtian took Qin Yuan and the others to the cafeteria. Soldiers saluted along the way. Qin Yuan looked at the cafeteria in front. The soldiers lined up in an orderly manner and smelled the food. The food was good.

Unexpectedly, Park Youtian took them directly. It turned out that this is a soldier canteen. They also have an officer canteen. The officer canteen has better food than ordinary soldiers. There are more than 20 dishes and fruits, all of which are self-service.

Li Erniu grinned, "Brother Qin, let's also advise Lao Gao when we go back, suggesting that we should do this too. Didn't it mean that we should learn from other people's advantages? I think this is good."

Gong Jian gave him a blank look next to him, "I think your kid is dying. If you don't learn to learn something fancy, we will have to endure hardships as soldiers, and keep everything simple and focus on the people. These things Not for us!"

Qin Yuan gave Gong Jian a thumbs up. This kid has a good sense of consciousness. It is true that their army is a bit sloppy, but there is a saying that the taste of one person is really good, but they are eating and chatting slowly.

Qin Yuan and the others had finished eating quickly. They sat next to him and waited for Park Youtian. This sluggish one really couldn't learn. After the meal, there were iced drinks for free.

Park Youtian politely took Qin Yuan to the guest room of their barracks and asked them to take a nap at noon and get up after two o'clock.

Qin Yuan and the others also have a lunch break in Yan Country, but it hasn't been so long. Now they have just eaten and went to sleep. Everyone sat and exchanged a few words. Anyway, everything should be done according to others.

After taking a short break, Qin Yuan originally wanted to go out for a walk, but after all, this was someone's barracks, and it was not easy to walk around, and finally waited until two o'clock.

In this way, Park Youtian finally took them to the training ground. In the afternoon, these soldiers conducted sniper training. Park Youtian was very proud of the situation introduced to them. He introduced several sharpshooters in his team.

Qin Yuan glanced at it. It was a medium-caliber sniper rifle. This sniper rifle had a range of 800 meters. If they trained, they would have shot them at 1,800 meters like He Chenguang.

The opposite of their 800-meter range is to hit the ring, and they are all dead targets. For Qin Yuan and the others, they are all pediatrics. Now their sniper training is to hit moving targets, not machine control, Qin Yuan randomly throws things. , After all, on the battlefield you don't know where the enemy will emerge from.

The person next to him reported the number of rings with a telescope. These people were all nine rings and ten rings. The soldiers of the Golden State Black Panther Team saw Yan Guo's guidance and desperately wanted to behave.

Park Youtian smiled and said: "Captain Qin, your video is of interest, shall we play it? Anyway, the guidance is to learn from each other."

Qin Yuan understood that Pu Youtian also wanted to see their strength, "Who would like to come out and play?"

He Chenguang stood up and said: "Captain, I will come, but this goal is too simple, can you let them move the goal?"

The soldiers of Jin Kingdom over there also felt a little confrontational when they heard it. They were all training to sniper with moving targets. They were all okay. Then Park Youtian ordered to change to moving targets.

Then the target on the opposite side just moved. He Chenguang shot quickly, accurately hitting the head and chest of the moving target, each with two shots. After a while, he solved all the targets on his side, and the soldiers next to Jin Guo also Not to be outdone, shot quickly.

This kind of 800 meters is too simple for He Chenguang. It was left over during the training of the recruits. Then the people on the opposite side came over with the moving target. He Chenguang hit the target accurately, and Jin Guo and the others There was a miss, but it was just a small mistake.

Park Youtian next to him still admires him. This man's marksmanship is very fast, he takes aim in such a short time, and fires two shots in a row.

The two sides gave instructions and exchanged experiences. Park Youtian felt a little bit unsure on his face. His own person made a mistake in his own territory. He clapped his hands beside. On the one hand, do you have any guidance?"

"Otherwise, let's just replace the 1800-meter training ground' I can pick one of these soldiers to fight!"

The Jin Guo soldier next to him was very unconvinced. This man's tone was really big, and everyone was able to hit the 1800 meters. Then go to the training ground. If you can hit, everyone will do it, but you must hit the target accurately.

Then everyone changed the sniper rifle with a long range, and Wang Yanbing also wanted to try it out. This time the difficulty of the mission was increased by moving targets 1800 meters away.

Qin Yuan was very relieved of them. They trained every day with these things and they had no problem for a long time. Unexpectedly, their goal of 1800 meters was too big, just hitting a humanoid card with a balloon in his hand.

Wang Yanbing stood up and asked to replace the balloon with a smaller ping-pong ball, or replace it with an egg. The Jin Guo soldier next to him felt that this person might be bragging.

The wind direction is still so big at 1800 meters, and the balloon is also a more conspicuous color. He even asked to replace it with table tennis  or eggs. One is that the color is not so conspicuous, and the other is that the target is small.

Li Erniu looked at Wang Yanbing contemptuously while holding his hand next to him. The kid began to pretend to be forceful again. There was something about this, and Brother Qin hadn't done anything.

Chapter 774: ?? Train them well for me

The Jin Guo soldier next to him, after hearing Wang Yanbing's request to change to table tennis, also raised his hand to signal that he was like him. It seemed that he was also very confident in his sniping.

Then, arrangements were made over there. A ping-pong ball was hung on the human-shaped stand and swayed in the wind. Park Youtian said that the two had three chances to shoot. Wang Yanbing shook his head and said that he only needs one time.

The Jin Guo soldier next to him was very contemptuous. This man bragged before he even started. Later, he must be shown what the gun king is. Qin Yuan realized that this soldier was the gun king in their company.

Qin Yuan didn't say anything, with a smile on his face, if he called the gun king, wouldn't his entire team be a gun god.

Wang Yanbing made a sign to ask the soldiers of the Kingdom of Jin to start first, sniping at 1,800 meters away, taking into account the speed of the wind direction bullet and then the target.

The soldiers of the Golden Kingdom aimed for half a day, measuring the wind force and adjusting the focus. Then the first shot went out and missed, and even the target's hand was not up. Then the second shot still missed, ready to hit At the third shot, she was very nervous, and Park Yootian was beside her and said, "Boy, take your time, don't worry!"

This was in front of the soldiers of Yan Nation. He had to fight for his breath, and thin beads of sweat appeared on his face. Then the third bullet flew out, and it did hit the target, but it was a little too far, and the bullet was scratching fake. The man's thigh passed.

Unexpectedly, at this level, the soldiers of the Kingdom of Jin cheered instantly. Qin Yuan looked speechless. These people were bluffing, what did they see. Park Youtian looked at it with a telescope and said, "Not bad, yes, but The deviation is a little bit, this does not affect."

At this distance, Qin Yuan doesn't need a telescope at all. He has already seen the results. At this level, what's so embarrassing to call it, and it's a bit deviated. If you deviate a little on the battlefield, you will shoot the hostages directly. That's not called rescuing the hostage. Called to assist the gangster.

Next, the soldiers of the Kingdom of the Kingdom looked at Wang Yanbing as if they were watching the show. Wang Yanbing just adjusted the scope and shot out quickly. Without so much preparation, the first shot hit the table tennis ball.

The people over there reported from the walkie-talkie, and they hit the target. The soldier of the Kingdom of King couldn't believe it. They sent the ping-pong ball up, but the ping-pong ball hit a bullet hole. Now he completely believed it. After only one shot, he hit the target without making other adjustments, but he believed it might be luck.

Park Youtian felt that his face was a bit unkempt, so he planned to demonstrate it personally and let people change a table tennis ball. This good guidance turned into a feeling of PK between the two teams.

Park Youtian shot the ping pong ball. The soldiers were even more happy, and raised Park Youtian directly. Qin took the gun with a smile, "Since Captain Park has done everything, then I'll have a fun too."

"Yes, I also want to really see Captain Qin's marksmanship, I have only heard of it before."

After a while, the target was replaced with a new one. It was a thin wire hanging a ping pong ball swaying in the wind. Qin Yuan raised his hand and fired quickly. The observers 1800 meters away were all blinded. What happened? There is no target, but the target is missing.

Pu Youtian didn't know what was going on. They thought Qin Yuan missed the shot. They showed a smug smile beside them, and said pretendingly: "It's okay, does Captain Qin have two more chances?"

Qin Yuan smiled and took the walkie-talkie, "Go six steps at five o'clock and pick up the ball!"

Then the observer cut the ping pong ball to the thread, and everyone realized that it was not the ball at all, but the thin thread that directly hit the ball! Park Youtian, who was next to him, looked shocked, and directly grabbed the thin thread in the observer's hand. There were traces of bullet burning on that thin thread. This is too awesome!

Suddenly, Park Youtian was beaten in the face, and the soldiers of the Kingdom of Jin next to him were shocked and speechless. It wasn't luck that could be hit. Qin Yuan just smiled and put down the gun. "It's been a long time since I played, so just have a fun with you today, right? Captain Park, everyone have fun."

Although Park Youtian was shocked, he wondered if he could compare with Qin Yuan in other respects. They Jin Guo is well-known for judo and fighting. He raised a smile on his mouth and said, "Yes, everyone, have a fun, Captain Qin takes it. Come down to combat training, you can give us some guidance!"

Qin Yuan nodded. He had already seen through Park Youtian, and then Park Youtian picked a strong tall man from the soldiers. According to him, this soldier was a very powerful fighter in their military area, and he was very good in close combat and assassination.

Qin Yuan rose to a lazy waist, "Captain Park, don't have to worry about one-on-one, you can all join the Black Panther team."

"Captain Qin, did you make a mistake here? There are 12 people in our team!"

Qin Yuan nodded, "It can't be wrong, I mean 12 of them, if you want, you can go together!"

The soldiers instantly felt that this man was too arrogant. Are they that bad? They were all so despised. By the way, the captain was also humiliated. Their Black Panther Special Forces are more famous in the Kingdom of Jin. Yes, I have always been taken seriously, but I have never been so underestimated.

Seeing Qin Yuan's persistent attitude, Park Youtian had no choice but to nod his head in agreement. Anyway, he had already given him a step just now, but he didn't cherish it. The 12 special soldiers wanted to see how he would end up?

Park Youtian held his hands and watched the excitement. He thought that Qin Yuan's subordinates would be worried about their captain, but he didn't expect that the few people would sit cross-legged and still chat next to him. black line.

Then the soldier stood up, clasped his fist and said, "I offend the sir!" Then 12 people formed a circle and surrounded Qin Yuan. Everyone made a fighting posture. Unexpectedly, Qin Yuan stood up. One hand, what's the situation! Is he planning to use one hand?

This was too humiliating to myself. Those soldiers rushed up with eyes full of anger. He took a soldier with one hand and threw him out with a fist. Then the second, the first Three fell over their shoulders and kicked sideways. Those soldiers didn't even hit him. In less than two minutes, 12 special soldiers were knocked to the ground by him.

At first, the master fighter was a little unconvinced. He got up and kicked at Qin Yuan. Qin Yuan also raised his leg to block it. The master fighter instantly felt his calf numb and trembling a little unsteady. Qin Yuan reacted very quickly. Then another punch hit the jaw of the fighting soldier.

This punch was so powerful that the combat soldier fell directly to the ground with a backflip and couldn't get up. The referee next to him and Park Youtian were stunned. It was too fast. The referee found that he hadn't pressed his watch. Pay attention to see that they are fighting.

Qin Yuan stretched out his hand and pulled up the soldiers on the ground, "Everyone is brothers, how offended me!" A soldier whispered, touching the back of his head, why he flew to the ground before he could react.

This person's reaction power and speed are really too fast, as if you are going to make some trick, he knew in advance, Park Youtian has not yet reacted from the shock, one hand! He just used one hand how to do it.

Soldiers like him are not made of dough, and they train solid people every day! Especially the one who fell over the shoulder just now, he seems that the soldier weighed 80 kilograms less, so he lifted him easily.

Only at this time did Park Youtian know the gap between him and others, so the above asked them to guide him in training. Only he has to learn from them. Just now, he was still in front of others. When thinking of this, Park Youtian was a little embarrassed and made a direct bow to Qin Yuan. bow.

"Captain Qin, I am sorry for our rude and contemptuous behavior. I saw your strength and admired me very much. Please guide us more. You are a role model for us!"

"Don't say that, Captain Park, everyone is doing things for their respective countries. We learn from each other and make progress together!"

It seems that people's arrogance also has the capital of arrogance, and this is not arrogance, he is just using his ability to speak, this person has no airs, and is indeed a master of the master.

Next, Qin Yuan took the red blood cell team to their large training ground, and personally demonstrated to them that they usually use basic training to climb over obstacles, rush with heavy loads, and become too strong.

There were constant applause and shouts from the scene. Qin Yuan and the others are indeed very powerful, and this is just some basic training of Qin Yuan and the others. How can their real special training be shown like them, but for them, this is already very impressive. shocked!

Park Youtian was watching carefully. Qin Yuan led the team and the whole team had a high degree of understanding. The movements were neat and uniform, and even felt that they were all the same person. Many things have formed a powerful muscle memory. How long does it take to practice? The extent of it?

After Qin Yuan took the red blood cell group to demonstrate, he asked Park Yootian and his group to train. They spent 15 minutes and 25 seconds instructing by themselves. These soldiers of the Kingdom of Jin were also excited when they watched their training, and they aroused their fighting spirit. Not only is the speed response ability, but they were training with weights just now.

This is what Qin Yuan has always asked for. If you eat more hardship in training, you can reduce more casualties on the battlefield. He not only wants to be strong, but also the whole team is strong together.

It seems that the training intensity of the soldiers of the Golden State is not enough, the speed is reduced, and the reaction power is not fast enough. You two cows are nearby, covering your mouth and laughing. When the old Gao was training, he was chasing behind his * with a gun. People are comfortable.

In this way, Park Youtian practiced for a lap, all lying on the side panting. This kind of training intensity was too high. They had never reached such a high training intensity before. They admired how these Yan Nation soldiers persisted. How to do it.

But after the Black Panther team trained, it actually took more than an hour, and Qin Yuan didn't use the meter to count later, because it didn't make much sense.

Park Youtian panted and said, "Captain Qin, I just saw you do it smoothly and easily. I didn't expect us to be too tired after doing this. You Yan Nation soldiers are indeed very good. No, your team is too strong. , With such a good leader as you!"

"Captain Park, this is some of our basic training. I suggest that you can train according to this set. Not only is the training reaction speed, it will be greatly improved."

Only then did Park Youtian know that this man was not a legend before, a veritable God of War. In fact, he was still skeptical about Qin Yuan's destruction of the military base of the Mao Kingdom, and he was completely convinced now.

So when it was time for dinner, Park Youtian asked, "Captain Qin, is this your training all day?"

"We train a lot. We get up at 6 o'clock in the morning to run morning exercises, and after breakfast, we start morning training, and then there will be training in the afternoon, as well as occasional night training."

Next to him, Park Youtian almost took a sip of soup. He has been training all day. No wonder they are so good and I have to admire him.

"Your training is too intense, how can your body stand it! Are you not tired like this?"

"Captain Park, you and I are both soldiers. Our training is to give our people the greatest guarantee, including when we perform tasks outside. The better you train, the higher the chances of success in performing the tasks."

Park Youtian felt that he and Qin Yuan were not only different in abilities, but also in their vision and temperament. They really had to be strict with themselves. This way, it was far worse than his own.

After dinner, Park Youtian mysteriously took Qin Yuan and the others to a club. Gong Jian was very speechless, and the club, did they come to serve as a soldier or to enjoy it! The country spends so much money to nurture them, so letting them come and play like this is really worthless for their country.

As soon as he arrived at the entrance of the club ', there was a very loud sound of music. Gong Jian resisted and didn't want to go in, but when they saw Qin Yuan, they had no plans to leave, so they could only follow in together.

As soon as they entered, they were shocked by the scene in front of them. Inside were the soldiers who had been training during the day. They drank and twisted their bodies crazily under the stimulation of alcohol, and took off their clothes when they were playing. Show muscles.

Within a few minutes, Qin Yuan and the others couldn't take it anymore. They found an excuse to come out quickly. What's the matter, training and training can't keep up, but they can enjoy it very much, they don't look like a soldier.

Park Youtian came out with a glass of wine to find Qin Yuan and the others. "Captain Qin, why don't you go in and play? You may not understand. Everyone is too tired to train, so they will relax at night. Don't worry, we won't play too long after ten o'clock. It's over."

Qin Yuan shook his head and took He Chenguang back to their resting place first. What is meant by playing too much? Ten o'clock was the time for them to turn off the lights and go to bed. They couldn't keep up with them. They were indeed too relaxed.

Unexpectedly, this Pu Youtian chased out reluctantly and pulled Qin Yuan to drink. He could not be better than him in anything. Drinking would always be comparable. Looking at Qin Yan and the others, they probably don't drink often. .

Chapter 775: High bonus survival adventure

But he didn't know that Qin Yuan was not drunk in a thousand cups. He Chenguang and the others knew that nothing would happen. They only let Qin Yuan go, and everyone would rest in the dormitory.

This Pu Youtian was really good at drinking, he first offered Qin Yuan a glass of wine when he came, and he was not to be outdone, and immediately replied.

After Piao Yutian drank a few times back and forth, he found that Qin Yuan didn't change his face directly, and he felt a little floating on his side. Then he winked aside and several soldiers walked over.

"Captain Qin, today I finally saw your mighty power, it is amazing, we come over to offer you a few glasses of wine."

Qin Yuan knew that these people wanted to get drunk, and didn't expose them to pretending to be stupid with a smile. Anyway, they didn't get drunk. In the end, seven or eight soldiers, plus Pu Youtian, were all drunk by Qin Yuan.

Qin Yuan didn't have the slightest drunkenness, stood up and burped a drink. This was nothing. The liquor of their Yan Country was much higher than this.

That Pu Youtian was probably drunk. When he went back with Qingyuan and the others, he suddenly rushed to the playground, * and dancing. Qin Yuan laughed with joy, but he saw a good show. It seems that this drunk is not Divided, a person so serious during the day, once drunk, reveals his nature.

Li Erniu heard the noise and knew that Qin Yuan was back. Everyone knew that Qin Yuan was definitely fine and couldn't get him drunk at all. It's just that everyone wanted to go back to China very much at the moment, and they really couldn't blend in with these people.

He didn't look like a soldier, it was too loose, this kind of thing was suitable for Lao Gao to clean up himself, Qin Yuan felt that he would be at ease with him, any task he could meet.

Unexpectedly, the night was not peaceful. The supreme commander of the military region of Jin Country suddenly came to inspect. This supreme commander had also studied in Yan Country before. It happened to see Park Youtian, who was like a drunk cat, came out of breath and gathered urgently. , To gather those soldiers together.

Qin Yuan called Li Erniu and the others to get up and watch the show. The highest officer was also relatively rigid, and directly dragged the water pipe in the flowerbed next to them and poured them towards the soldiers.

"Have you group of drunk cats sober, I specially invited people from Yan Country to train you, so you shame me like this?"

The supreme official preached for more than an hour, and Qin Yuan finally saw someone better than Lao Gao, but he could also understand the official. Although it is a half-peace period, these countries have not happened yet. War, but there is no guarantee that it will not happen in the future.

These people are the country's most comprehensive guarantee. This kind of peace will let people relax. This officer also hates iron but not steel. After a while, the highest officer disbanded the soldiers and walked towards Qin Yuan's dormitory.

Standing outside the door with his hands behind his back, "Captain Qin, I know that you have not rested yet. I made you laugh today. They are actually very good seedlings, but they lack training. I and you are high commanders, but I borrowed you for a week. I hope you will train them strictly tomorrow, just like training your own soldiers."

After speaking, he stayed at the door for a while, and then said, "I am a strong person. I have never asked for someone. This time I beg you to train them."

Qin Yuan opened the door and entered a military salute, "Sir, don't worry, I will definitely train strictly. We serve as soldiers, no matter which country we are in, we should be a soldier!"

"Good boy, what you are waiting for is what you said, Park Youtian, don't worry about training. I have temporarily removed their position. He is an ordinary soldier. You will train well tomorrow!"

It seems that this highest official is also really acting. To put it bluntly, he was exchanged for natural gas. They must not miss this opportunity, but this group of people should really train.

At 6 o'clock the next morning, Qin Yuan asked Li Erniu to take out their bugle and blew the emergency assembly in the playground. Although Park Youtian and the soldiers were dumbfounded, it was probably the highest officer who had warned them last night. There are no complaints.

In this way, they followed the red blood cell team for exercise training. They still have the basic qualities of a soldier, but because the environmental factors are too relaxed, the old saying goes well, soldiers should not not practice for a day.

In the beginning, they couldn't keep up with the intensity of training. That Park Youtian seemed to be enlightened by the lessons that night. The training was very active. He really had to fight for this opportunity. He had already wasted too much time before.

After training in this way for a week, their overall condition is already very good. The highest official came to test their results. It is much better than a week ago, but training this kind of thing depends on long-term persistence.

But what made Park Youtian admire even more was Qin Yuan's physical strength. He led the team to participate in training all day long, and he had never been lazy. This man was really strong and very responsible.

He remembered that during training, there was a huge boulder rolling down on the hillside next to him during the field training. He hadn't seen his wish clearly. He had already jumped over and supported the boulder with his hands. The six of them in the back carried the boulder away. Down the hill, this person's strength, speed and agility are all high.

The highest officer looked at Qin Yuan and their backs, and said to Park Youtian: "We are most afraid of encountering this kind of soldiers on the battlefield. Their entire team has absolutely no weaknesses, especially Qin Yuan. It seems that we have to fight Yan Guo more. Make a good relationship."

This study and guidance task ended perfectly in the end. Park Youtian also regarded Qin Yuan as an idol, and sent him several letters after returning home.

After Li Erniu returned to the military area, he saw some simple dishes in the cafeteria, and whispered, "Speaking of which, the food there is really good, this old man is too picky!" He did not expect a loud voice from behind him. sound.

"Li Erniu!"

"To!"

"Running around the military area for five kilometers, and come back for dinner after running!" Gao Shiwei looked at Li Erniu with a bitter face, a stinky boy. He went out to eat a few foreign meals, and ran for five kilometers. It will be fragrant to eat at the table when you arrive.

Qin Yuan laughed a few people nearby. This kid deserved to owe his mouth. Gao Shiwei cast a look at him, "Yan Bing, look at how delicious the dishes in our military area are, hurry up and eat more!" Qin Yuan hurriedly under cover, this Gou Tau Lao Gao, wait a while for a bad mood to let all of you go for a run, and quickly perform well.

Because of the beginning of diplomacy between Jin and Yan, there have also been many trade and economic exchanges. Park Yootian also sent them training videos. It seems that the training results are good.

Long Xiaoyun took the wolf squad to the following subordinate units for training. It was a small-scale exercise. Anran and his medical team followed to ensure safety.

Qin Yuan was idle for a while, and was even bored to help the people in the villages under the military area pick hornet's nest. When the fire arrived, the ant's nest had been removed by Qin Yuan and the others. The fire chief looked at Qin Yuan and the others. Overkill.

Qin Yuan really had nothing to do, so he called out Erniu Mouse and slowly trained him to upgrade. On this day, Park Youtian sent an invitation and they also had vacations. During this time, he performed well and he approved a half-month vacation. , I found out that there was a wild adventure going on in Yuanguo.

However, this wild adventure requires a partner. It must be a team of two. Most of his team members have gone home. He can only ask Qin Yuan if he is not interested. It turns out that he will be rewarded 200 for participating in this survival adventure. Ten thousand dollars.

Qin Yuan is not short of money, just thinking about playing wild adventures anyway, maybe he can gain some other skills, there are no tasks here, Gao Shiwei also agreed and let him go outside to learn. If you have any experience, I will teach you back.

Li Erniu also wanted to follow. He missed the chicken that Qin Yuan had roasted before. After all, it was in the wild, so the food should be indispensable.

Qin Yuan directly rejected him, "Captain Park only invited me, so please take good care of your home!"

"Excessive! Just as soon as the dragon team left, you were everywhere, and I want to tell the dragon team that you and that Park Youtian are going to spend the sweet duo together!"

Qin Yuan jumped up and kicked Li Erniu's ass. This stinky boy, who didn't hit Fang Jiewa for three days, still teased himself like this.

Park Youtian and Qin Yuan agreed to meet at the airport in Yuanguo, Qingyuan looked at the big adventure leaflet in his hand. It was shabby, just a piece of rag, not as good as those street advertisements.

Somewhat suspiciously asked: "Uh, Captain Park, where did you get this flyer? Why do I feel so unreliable, it's like a prank."

"Brother Qin, don't call me Captain Park when you come out. You can call me Xiaotian. Don't worry, it's the cook from our side who went to buy groceries, and they sent him 2 million US dollars. It's attractive! With your ability, plus mine, don't we get it easily?"

"Well, Xiaotian, let's find this address before talking!"

Unexpectedly, the two of them took this leaflet and asked around in a taxi near the airport. They didn't know the address at all, and Qin Yuan felt that Park Youtian had been fooled.

Unexpectedly, it aroused the boy's desire to fight. He vowed to say that this place must be very mysterious. Otherwise, it must be true how many people will participate, but these ordinary people don't know. As a result, the two are looking for it in Yuan Dynasty. For a whole morning there was no result.

Qin Yuan took the leaflet and looked at it carefully. The address on the page was: "Werner Book House!" This place didn't look like an adventurous place. Could it be that this leaflet had other problems, so he took out a lighter and asked him to take it. Good leaflet, Park Youtian had already given up, he thought Qin Yuan would burn the leaflet.

Qin Yuan just took a lighter and bake it along the sides of the leaflet. He didn't expect a row of small words to appear on the side, "Congratulations on completing the first step of authentication, accurate address, 103, Block A, Rubik's Cube Building."

"Brother Qin, I didn't expect you to be so good at this kind of decryption game. It seems to be true. You just came here to be so tall. You have to pass their test before you know the address. With you, a great  Take me and we will win!"

Qin Yuan only tried it randomly. He was so lucky to try it out. Qin Yuan was also curious about this place. He liked this challenging thing very much.

Then they walked into a building according to this address and arrived at Block A 103. In front of it was an office. The plaque next to it read "Adventurer Game Development Co., Ltd.!"

The two rang the doorbell at the door, and two staff members came out to receive them. They were very enthusiastic. They asked them to fill out the form to register. Congratulations that they had passed the first level test and also told them a news because the number of people in the adventure increased. , The difficulty has also increased, so the reward has also increased to 5 million US dollars!

Park Youtian was very excited and quickly filled in the information. The staff introduced that their real adventure is on an island surrounded by the sea. There are a total of four small islands, but there are seawater adjacent to each other, which belongs to the random delivery personnel. No one knows exactly what is on the island.

There are more than 100 people participating in this adventure. It is a random release. The task requirement is very simple, that is, they need to live on the island for 15 days.

When Qin Yuan heard this word, he was a little curious. Are there any other dangers?

"Yes, this sir, because we only provide equipment once, that is, when you set off, the most dangerous thing is often not the environmental animals that survive in the wild, but humans! I hope you can get bonuses, but other safety guarantees. Both."

Qin Yuan looked at the staff member's ill-intentioned smile, and always felt that this was a bit difficult, but, well, he just liked to participate in these difficult things.

"Oh, what's the meaning of your survival adventure?"

"We are a live broadcast platform, which mainly broadcasts everyone's survival adventures, so as to attract ratings!"

Qin Yuan nodded ' This kind of explanation seems very reasonable. When filling in the occupation line, Qin Yuan touched Park Youtian quietly with his foot. Some things still need to be kept secret, and Park Youtian read it. A glance at what Qin Yuan wrote, was instantly shocked, occupation: "A cattle herder!" Then Park Youtian wrote a big pig farmer.

After filling in the information, the staff here provided them with equipment, that is, a camouflage uniform, an outdoor backpack, which contains a saber, machete, flint, gauze, and emergency medicine.

It seems that this preparation is relatively sufficient, and then sent Qin Yuan and the others a bracelet, "Two gentlemen, you must wear this bracelet with you. You can't take it off at any time. There is a positioning system in it. In case of any accident, we have medical staff to go for treatment immediately!"

It seems that these safeguards are also doing well. This risky problem shouldn't be big. Qin Yuan and the others didn't notice a meaningful smile from the staff next to them.

The staff took them to the top of this building, and there would be helicopters to pick them up, and then take them to the location on the island. The locations were all randomly dropped. Park Youtian was very excited along the way. This kind of wild survival adventure is for them, special forces. It was easy to say, they settled the 5 million dollars.

Chapter 776: Gunshots in the middle of the night

Soon the helicopter came, and there were already four people sitting inside. A staff member in a suit looked at them with a smile and asked Fang Tian to come up first.

Then I also started to introduce the rules. Anyway, it probably means that this time, the number of adventurers has increased to 50, but because the four islands are very large, it is difficult for more than 50 people to meet, so the bonus has also increased to 5 million.

Qin Yuan and the others are the second batch of personnel. The first batch of personnel was yesterday. Park Youtian said with some dissatisfaction: "Then you guys are too unfair. They came first. They must have seized the first supplies! We! Those who go later will not suffer!"

"Mr., you can rest assured, because the area of the island is very large, we will not re-deploy people. The place you go is a new area, but you must wear a positioning watch to prevent accidents."

Qin Yuan is just a little curious, why these staff have been emphasizing this positioning watch, even if it is for safety, there is no need to repeat it again and again.

Park Youtian shook his hand impatiently, "Okay, you have all said the same way, don't worry, take it! How can we make fun of our lives."

An hour later, the helicopter arrived in a sea area. From far away, Qin Yuan saw a few small islands. The area was indeed very large. The helicopter landed slowly, and a man and a woman sitting in front of them let go.

Then there are the two men on the left. The two men on the plane talked a lot. They are outdoor adventurers. They especially like this kind of adventure, and they happen to have a bonus, so they came.

He also told Qin Yuan that they had a lot of common sense about wild adventures, and he just smiled and nodded. On this kind of wild common sense, he was much richer than them, but people's kindness would not be disappointed.

Then it was Qin Yuan and the others who landed last. After coming down from the helicopter's soft ladder, the huge propeller of the helicopter swept up a cloud of dust. Pu Youtian looked at the grassland around, and there were several hillsides in the distance. There was a jungle in the past .

This kind of grassland is exposed to the outside and is very unsuitable for survival. It seems that you have to go to the jungle there before dark.

After all, both of them are special forces, this kind of attack is nothing, after all, they usually have to add weight.

Qin Yuan and the others saw a waterhole on the way, and two young deer were drinking in front of them. Park Youtian suggested to make a rope trap, otherwise the speed of the road would be too fast, and if they were alarmed, they would not be able to catch it.

He was still fiddling with the rope next to him, thinking about how to make a trap, and Qin Yuan next to him had already dispatched.

A flying knife flew directly out of the neck of the little deer in the second, and a large amount of blood spewed out instantly, and the little deer fell by the water and twitched.

I went, so far, more than 100 meters, how did his flying knife fly out!

Pu Youtian looked at Fang Tian in shock. Before training with them, people hadn't used their real strength yet. This flying knife was enough to surprise him, and he couldn't do it at all.

"Get up, go and chop two branches next to me. I will deal with it first. We will carry the meat directly to the mountain for roasting. This wild road is our dinner."

Park Youtian nodded and immediately followed Qin Yuan's arrangement.

Qin Yuan was just about to walk over, but there was movement in the water. It turned out that there was a crocodile in the pond. The blood of that deer was spreading in the water just now, and it attracted the crocodile's attention.

Damn, how could you let it grab the meat you got?

Huge splashes of water splashed up on the surface of the water, and Pu Youtian saw only a black tail covered with scales. This wild crocodile really wasn't covered.

It seems that the dinner has been preempted. In this natural environment, the strong will survive every step.

"Brother Qin, let's take a look at other prey!"

Unexpectedly, Qin Yuan drew his saber and ran towards the water pool quickly.

What is he doing? are you crazy? That's a crocodile!

And I don't know what is going on underwater, whether there are other crocodiles, it's really desperate!

Qin Yuan's speed is very fast, he has no time to stop.

The crocodile dragged its prey and rolled in the water. Qin Yuan jumped directly onto the crocodile's back and stabbed several times into the crocodile's eyes. Lao Tzu's food was not that easy to grab.

The crocodile was instantly enraged, let go of its prey, and opened his mouth to bite Qin Yuan. Qin Yuan jumped directly into the pool. The leather armor on the crocodile was too hard, so he could only attack from its abdomen.

His speed reaction was very fast. That time the crocodile couldn't bite him at all. He stabbed several times directly into the crocodile's abdomen, and with the last cut, it directly pulled the crocodile's intestines out.

In an instant, the entire pool was full of blood, and the mud in the water was stirred up and it was very muddy. Pu Youtian ran to the edge of the pool and was very anxious. He only saw blood pouring out of the pool. He didn't know whether it was a crocodile or Qin Yuan's, shouting his name on the shore.

At this time Shui Tan suddenly became quiet, and Qing Yuan got out of the water. With a crocodile tail in his right hand, he threw the crocodile to the shore with a strong flick, and then dived again, taking the little deer. Also lost it.

This is too great, right? Qin Yuan killed a crocodile just after the start.

Park Youtian opened his mouth and walked over and kicked the crocodile. It was a real man.

Then the two began to dispose of the corpse, because the food was plentiful and the internal organs were not needed. Qin Yuan just found a good piece of meat and hung it on the tree trunk.

Two hours later, they walked through the grassland and came to the jungle. There were no worries about things in the jungle. There were streams for drinking water, and trees and bamboos could be used to pitch tents.

After the bonfire started, Qin Yuan made a simple grill beside him, smoked and roasted venison.

Park Youtian looked at the big tree next to him, and proposed to sleep in the big tree tonight. Although it was not that comfortable, it could avoid many dangers. After all, there are leopards and wolves in the jungle at night.

"It's okay, now I'm looking for palm leaves for building tents. This kind of leaves are very wide and they are also a good roof shelter material!"

"But Brother Qin has so much raw meat here, it's easy to attract wolves!"

"It's okay, isn't it a wolf? As long as it dares to come, I will make it obedient. I'm afraid it will not come."

Qin Yuan hoped to meet the wolves so that after controlling the wolves, he would have free helpers for hunting in the future.

Qin Yuan was in charge of turning the roasted venison. Park Youtian found a lot of palm leaves and chopped some bamboo. He believed Qin Yuan quite a bit. Anyway, let's watch it when the time comes. After all, such a big fire wolves dare not come close. .

Qin Yuan gave him a piece of roasted venison one day before he took a bite. Originally, he wanted to complain that he should bring some condiments, but he didn't expect it to be so delicious. It was simply delicious.

He only saw Qin Yuan put some salt on the venison, how did this do it? Why is it so fragrant? Is this game so delicious!

Qin Yuan smiled and did not speak.

Then the two began to set up a tent. Anyway, there was a place to shelter from the wind and rain. After all this, it was almost dark. Qin Yuan added a huge piece of wood to the fire.

This should be able to burn for an hour or two, anyway, go to bed first, and keep it safe.

In the middle, Qin Yuan got up and added firewood. Pu Youtian was sleeping soundly. Suddenly, there was a gunshot in the distance. Qin Yuan immediately became alert and stared at the surroundings.

When Park Yootian heard the movement, he quickly got up.

Where is the shooting and what is the situation?

The gun body should be very far away, because the sound of shooting in this kind of jungle is still far away.

"Could it be that the indigenous people here are hunting?"

"Which indigenous people have you seen? They hunted at more than two o'clock in the evening, and you heard this gunshot, typical AKM, and the gunshot is very chaotic, obviously you are tracking something."

"How did you hear the gun type at such a long distance? The previous guide said that there are no other people on the island, only people who participate in adventures. Can adventurous people still bring guns?"

"No way, the listening is more advanced, I think there must be other problems in it."

In such a sudden situation, Qin Yuan decided to put out the fire first. After all, it was not clear whether the opponent was an enemy or a friend, and they had guns in their hands, which was very dangerous.

Then he moved forward and climbed, and reached the big tree in front which was more than 50 meters away from the camp.

Qin Yuan was still a little cautious and asked Park Youtian to take off the positioning watch and give it to him.

"Brother Qin, the staff member of this watch said it is very important, shall we not bring it?"

"This kind of thing has a positioning, I don't think it is safe, and follow me, what are you worried about?"

"Hey! This is also true, you are much more reliable than these positioning systems!"

Then Qin Yuan used his charm ability to call the two birds on the tree, but Pu Youtian next to him didn't notice it, because he couldn't see anything under this kind of light.

Fang Tian tied the positioning watch to the bodies of the two birds, and then ordered the two birds to fly away.

Fang Tian and the others are lying on the tree, which is convenient for observation and safer.

Fortunately, nothing happened all night, and Park Yootian breathed a sigh of relief as the sun slowly rose.

The two raised the fire again, planning to roast a part of yesterday's meat and make the rest into jerky, which is also convenient to carry.

Qin Yuan planned to put the jerky on this after eating early and roast it slowly. They went to check the place where the gunfire sounded yesterday. After all, this unclear feeling was really uncomfortable.

In order to get closer, Qin Yuan took Pu Youtian to walk down the cliff next to him, using the tree and vines beside him to make a natural rope, and then slowly descending, which directly shortened the distance by half.

At about noon, the two arrived at the place where the gun shot yesterday. Bloodstains can be seen here, and there are still many cartridge cases. It is indeed AKM!

There are many human footprints on the ground, there are at least five people, and it is not clear whether it is animal or human blood. The place with the most bullets was around a big tree.

Park Youtian walked over and looked at the blood stains on the ground, leaned against the big tree, and compared it. It was obvious that this was a person!

They were killing people, but this was their preliminary judgment and there was no direct evidence.

Qin Yuan felt that this place was too unsafe. Although it was far away from the camp, it was not ruled out that these gun-holders would find it. They would return to the camp first, bring the dried meat, and change to another place.

Park Yootian doesn't know whether this is the arrangement of the program group, or is there someone else involved?

Qin Yuan and the others continued to climb up the cliff. They took the meat yesterday, which was inconvenient. There was nothing today, so the two of them carried their backpacks and went up easily.

Not long ago, Qin Yuan suddenly made a gesture to make Park Youtian squat down, there was someone in front of him! And there is a very heavy smell of gunpowder!

Qin Yuan and Park Youtian hid in the bushes nearby, and then the voice of a few people talking came in.

"Damn, can those two boys run so fast? Look, I said the action last night, you must not listen!"

"The strange thing is that the positioning shows that they are already five kilometers away. How did they achieve this speed?"

"And the bonfire just burned obviously not long ago, and the barbecue has not been taken away! The two people were quite able to run last night, but we couldn't see clearly at night, and they fired a few more shots, which is quite interesting."

"Could it be that other prey came in? Hahaha, but this is more interesting. This kind of hunting feels really cool."

Qin Yuan listened to these conversations, prey? Do you get these preys for adventurers like yourself? And they also mentioned positioning just now. This positioning watch is provided by the program group. It seems that this program group really has a big problem.

"Don't look for it blindly. If there are other prey, it's better. We will squat near their camp and shoot them directly as soon as they come back!"

Qin Yuan squinted his eyes and saw that there were four people wearing camouflage uniforms all holding AKM, and a man holding an instrument in his hand, which should be the positioning system in their mouths.

Qin Yuan smiled ' These people still want to ambush themselves, so let's teach them a lesson first.

Asking Pu Youtian to hide, he is about to prepare to act, and Park Youtian nodded vigorously. At this moment, he understands that he can only add confusion when he goes out.

Qin Yuan quickly rushed out of the grass, and a man in front said: "Hey! Have you heard anything? Are there other animals?"

He just turned around, and a flying knife hit his forehead directly!

The two people next to him raised their guns and wanted to shoot. Qin Yuan flipped back and jumped directly into the bushes. Without seeing anything at all, he jumped behind the tree.

These people had no combat experience at all, and they carried their guns and fired randomly in that bush.

At this moment, Qin Yuan had already circled behind them, and the man only felt a chill in his neck, then blood spewed out and fell to the ground instantly.

The person next to him wanted to run, and Qin Yuan was very fast. One of the two flying knives pierced his head and the other pierced his heart. It instantly solved the three of them, leaving only one to survive. He planned to ask words.

Chapter 777: ?? are all prey

Piao Youtian looked at Qin Yuan from behind the tree as if killing a god, and solved the three people in an instant. This person was too powerful. Fortunately, he was on the same front with him, and his strength was very terrifying, and he couldn't see through.

The remaining live mouth looked at the companion who fell on the ground, very frightened, holding the trigger with trembling hands, trying to shoot Qin Yuan.

"Damn, don't you * come here!"

Qin Yuan smiled and rushed up with a sprint, hitting him directly on the ribs, knocking down the man.

Take the AKM in that person's hand and check it carefully. It is indeed an authentic American product.

"My friend, I want to remind you that if you want to shoot someone, you must first remove the insurance. The insurance is not open. How can you hit someone?"

Then Qin Yuan opened the insurance and pointed the gun at the man on the ground, "Let's talk, who is instigated by you? Why are you here to hunt us?"

Qin Yuan had already observed it just now. He was just an ordinary man, not a soldier, because he didn't even know the basic common sense of using a gun. This kind of person is very good, and he should be able to ask if he threatens him.

Sure enough, the man knelt on the ground and trembled again and again, "I said please, don't kill me, we were not instructed, but just participated in a game."

After the man told him, Qin Yuan knew that the survival game of this wild adventure was basically a conspiracy, and it was a game of fun for their rich people.

This company used survival adventures and had bonus titles and distributed advertisements everywhere. It recruited many adventurers and threw them on the island. In fact, they have been used as prey for these rich people to kill.

Pu Youtian couldn't listen anymore. He was taken as a prey for the first time and was very angry. He didn't expect it to be a conspiracy from beginning to end, and he also pulled Qin Yuan in.

Rushing up, pulling the man's neckline and hitting the man frantically.

"Okay, it's not too late to wait until he finishes talking."

"I have told you everything, you must promise not to kill me, and now I tell the secrets of the game company, it is difficult for me to survive outside."

After speaking, the man knelt on the ground and started crying.

Qin Yuan really couldn't listen, let him speak quickly, otherwise he would shoot.

After the game company recruited those adventurers, it then invited the children of the rich to play. Those children of the rich are not short of money, what they lack is fun.

They hit those wild animals too much, it's not interesting at all. The game company told them to kill people as prey.

When I started playing, because the island was too big, it was difficult for these rich people to find the location of those people. How to kill them blindly? It was too energy-consuming and time-consuming. What those rich people wanted was the fun of killing.

So the game company made a change. The positioning watch is a means for these people to track, so no matter where they run? As long as there is this positioning, the watch can find its prey, and there are rewards for killing it.

If you want to participate in this game, you also need a registration fee. Each of them paid a registration fee of 100,000 yuan. After entering, they will see their abilities. They will be rewarded 500 for killing a prey and 1,000 for hitting the head!

The man said he was only here to play this game for the first time. He heard from a friend before that he did not expect to meet Qin Yuan and the others the first time he came to play.

Qin Yuan couldn't help it. He kicked the man to the ground in the past. These beasts, a lively life, are worth 500 yuan in their eyes, and they even used other rewards to motivate them. Kill.

After the killing, there will be special staff to deal with the corpse. The corpse is also used as a reward. Some abnormal women even take the corpse back, thinking it is their own spoils.

The boss behind this game company is also a pervert!

"I also want to know a question, what if you can't complete the kill mission within 15 days?"

"This, this won't, there are a lot of people who come to play this game. We all come in with time limit. We come in for three hours and get out, and then the rest of the people come in again, and..."

"And what, you kid keep talking."

"Moreover, all the prey dropped before have been killed. Your batch is newly dropped. Although there are more than 50 people, there are many hunters. There are still many people in line behind me."

Qin Yuan took a breath of air, how these people are so cruel, they are inhumane, and they kill lives at will.

After Park Youtian's beating, the man said that after three hours, they would arrive at the designated location and there would be a helicopter to pick them up and drop other hunters back down.

The man had just finished speaking, and Qin Yuan kicked his chin, and the man flew back instantly, hitting the big tree behind, and fell dead.

For these cruel people, there is no need for him to be kind, and so many innocent lives have been harmed by them.

Park Youtian asked, "Brother Qin, do we want to put on their clothes as a disguise? Then enter their base and escape."

"Escape? I didn't want to escape yet. I was still holding a sigh of relief. I dared to call it a hunter in front of me. I want them to see who the real hunter is!"

Piao Youtian was somewhat motivated by Qin Yuan's remarks. Since Qin Yuan was there, he was not afraid. Besides, this kind of criminal company was condemned by everyone, and it was rare for him to follow Qin Yuan on behalf of Heaven.

Qin Yuan took Pu Youtian and threw the bodies of these three people into the bushes, covering them with branches.

Then quietly wait for other hunters or staff to come on the field, as long as they dare to come down, let them come back.

At this time, the staff looked at their watch and made the helicopter ready to set off. Three hours later, the helicopter took a few new hunters and was going to pick up the previous ones and take the hunters back. Put it down.

Unexpectedly, when I arrived at the agreed place, but did not see a few people, the staff said on the walkie-talkie: "Dear members of the Black Tiger team, your hunting time is up, please go to the meeting place quickly and let other teams enter!"

At this time, the walkie-talkie had reached Qin Yuan's hands. He smashed the walkie-talkie against the opposite rock, and the walkie-talkie instantly shattered.

The staff only heard a loud noise and a pain in the eardrums. Damn, what are these idiots doing?

The four hunters on the plane were a little dissatisfied and began to complain.

"What are you playing here? Can the people in there be a bit of a rule? If you can't be punctual, don't let them participate next time. Next time I will pay for you to re-contract a production area and put more prey in. ."

"Yeah, can it work? The blood in my body is boiling, I want to go down and kill! Quickly let us go down."

"I'm sorry, a few respected guests, don't worry, maybe something happened to them on the way, they will be there in a while, we will wait a few minutes."

"Hehe, wait a few minutes, but no one has ever dared to tell me something like this, what are you, tell your boss, I add 50,000 yuan, we have to go down first!"

At this time, a voice came from another walkie-talkie, "Yes, let this group of guests go down first!"

"Okay, I wish a few guests a good time, I will come here to pick you up in three hours, please be there on time!"

The staff are very speechless. These uncles can't afford to provoke them at all. Some stinky money is really terrible, but when your boss hears of the increase, the rules are not a problem.

The staff can only let these people go.

On the other side of the working room, red dots are exuding on the big screen. These red dots are positioning watches for adventurers. Hunters release it once every three hours, with four groups of people each time, because there are four islands.

A staff member looked at the two red dots moving fast on the map, and was a little curious. Are these two people good athletes? How can you run so fast?

According to the serial number of the location, the staff retrieved their data sheet after searching, one is a big pig farmer and the other is a cattle herd!

What's the situation? How can the two breeders run so fast!

"It's okay, don't worry, no matter how fast we run, will our bullets run faster? Let these people run more. Before, the rich people still complained that their prey didn't run. They have no interest in killing, and they demand so much."

Qin Yuan crouched on the hillside and saw the helicopter flying far away. He didn't pay attention to these people at all. He just threw the gun to Park Youtian, "Can you solve these people? They are not regular soldiers. Just ordinary civilians with guns!"

"Yes, Brother Qin, no problem, but where are you going?"

"I'm going to walk around and see if I can find other survivors? One can save one!"

Pu Youtian looked at Qin Yuan with admiration. He didn't expect that he was so profound and righteous. In this case, he was still thinking about saving others. It really is a soldier's bounden duty!

In fact, Qin Yuan's real purpose is to go around on this small island. Here you can see if there are other channels to reach other small islands. If you can meet survivors, it's better. After all, this small island is very big. He didn't know how many people were thrown from this by those people.

Qin Yuan walked into the depths of the forest, and just as he walked in, he heard some movement from the tree, raised his head, a baboon, and looked at him sternly.

The baboon creaked and barked, then jumped under the tree, picked up a stone and threw it towards Qin Yuan.

I'm going. I haven't provoke this baboon yet. Why did I start with it first, but I soon figured out how many people have come to this island. The baboon has a very strong ability to imitate. It should be someone before. Hit it like this, so it will attack when it sees humans.

Baboons are gregarious creatures. Qin Yuan wanted to leave quickly, but suddenly thought of a clever plan. Sure enough, after the call of that baboon, countless baboons appeared from the top of the tree and kept screaming.

It just happened! Qin Yuan opened his hands and exuded a bewildering scent, and the baboons roared from the beginning to look at Qin Yuan with dull eyes at the back.

Qin Yuan didn't need them to order them to calm down and hide in the trees. He wanted the beasts to suffer first, and finally die under his gun.

By the time Qin Yuan returned, Park Youtian had already disposed of the corpse. Although these people were armed with guns, they had not received professional training and had insufficient aiming. AKM originally had a strong recoil. How did these wealthy children experience this? I can't hold it down at all, I only know that it's a waste of bullets.

"Good job, go, I will take you to a good place, the next two groups of hunters disappear, they should send people down to find, we should also be lurking."

Qin Yuan took Pu Youtian to the woods with baboons and collected all the dried meat before Qin Yuan blew a whistle, and the baboons jumped out.

But it was very quiet. Park Yootian swallowed his saliva. This situation is so weird. Dozens of baboons just stood on the tree and stared at him like that.

"It's okay, relax, this is our natural sentry!"

"Brother Qin! How did you do this? Don't tell me you can train wild animals!"

"Um, I trained the monkey a few days ago, the monkey and the baboon are almost the same anyway!"

Seeing Park Youtian cast envy and admiration in his eyes, Qin Yuan couldn't bear to tell him that the monkeys he said were referring to their soldiers from the Golden Kingdom. They had helped in training for a few days before, and they happened to be right.

These baboons all live on trees, and Qin Yuan also climbed up. The trees here are very high, and several big trees are connected together. It is quite comfortable to sleep on them.

Although Park Youtian knew that Qin Yuan had trained this, he was still very nervous, for fear that he would be torn to pieces by the group of baboons when he fell asleep.

"Go to sleep. I didn't rest well last night. Don't worry, it's okay. Their loyalty is much higher than that of humans!"

Three hours later, the helicopter ' did not bring the hunters over this time. After all, two batches of hunters were to be brought back this time. They arranged to bring them back, and then bring other hunters back.

Unexpectedly, after arriving at the designated place, a hunter still did not return. The staff was very dissatisfied. What is the situation of these rich people? Even if there is an extra time, you have to notify the increase in the intercom in advance!

And this is indeed too unruly. The previous group of people have been there for six hours. The staff kept shouting into the intercom, but there was no response.

He felt a little strange, he shouldn't! If a group of people overtime, why the second group of people also overtime, mainly because they still can't be contacted.

Could something have happened? But almost all of the large creatures on the island were solved by them first. They were mainly armed with guns, and there should be no threat. This game has been developed for several months and there have been no problems.

Then he picked up the walkie-talkie and contacted the headquarters, "Headquarters, please check the prey situation in Area A, especially the quantity!"

"Received! A total of eight people were put in area A. Four people were wiped out last night, and now there are four people left!"

Chapter 778: The boss behind the scenes shows up

what's the situation? These two groups of people were all armed with guns. Unexpectedly, the prey had not decreased at all. Four people were still alive, but the hunters were gone at this moment. Could it be that these people are the ghosts?

The staff is also a bit anxious at the moment. These hunters are rich people in various places, all of which have different status, and their identities should not be missed.

An emergency report was sent from the studio, and a team was immediately sent to search.

This time, the people who led the search were not ordinary civilians, but mercenaries. They were also responsible for the security and killing missions. These mercenaries had a strong sense of detection and immediately found some traces.

There have been fights, blood stains and a lot of bullets at the scene, but no people or corpses can be seen.

These baboons are very capable of climbing. Qin Yuan has sent two baboons out to watch. He knew it after the mercenaries came down.

He was lying on the tree and yawning. This group of people moved too slowly, because the latter batch of corpses, he deliberately told Park Youtian not to hide too deep, just hide it on the surface and cover it with branches.

At this time, several drones flew over the island, and the voice inside was playing in a loop.

"Dear survivors on deserted islands, due to emergencies, this adventure is over. Our company will make certain compensation. Please gather on the grassland as soon as possible, or pull off the signal flare in your backpack, and we will send a staff to meet you. ."

It seems that these people are in a hurry. Qin Yuan doesn't know how many survivors are on this island? Now I just beg these survivors not to come out stupidly.

It seems that because of the disappearance of those people before, they were a little scared, and they didn't even dare to enter the forest. Even with the positioning system, they didn't dare to enter, just let these survivors out.

Qin Yuan climbed up the tallest tree with a small stone in his hand, and aimed at a drone. The stone in his hand shot out quickly, and it directly pierced the drone's wing.

The drone broke down and fell down!

Damn, who the * is doing the trick there? He also destroyed one of my drones.

"Black Dragon! The drone crashed into the victory above you, go in and check!"

The black dragon is the leader of the mercenary. The boss issued the order, and they can only execute it. They didn't take it seriously because they had cleared the island before and there was no threat.

"Boss, I think it's the rich people who think of ways to toss us. Maybe they are now where they can enjoy the sun and food?"

"Damn, what are these * up to? Forget it, let's go in and check if we were beaten by the baboons over there. When we go in, be careful. Those dues are not easy to mess with."

At this moment, these mercenaries have not realized the seriousness of the matter, and Qin Yuan is going to bring them in. This forest is the best camouflage, and even if they use heavy weapons, there are good obstacles in the forest. .

It seemed that it wasn't that they couldn't find the corpse, but they didn't feel that those people were dead. One soldier even stepped on the air, stepping into the bush where the corpse was placed, but didn't even find it.

Then the team entered the forest.

Heilong felt a little strange. When he came here before, baboons yelled at them and lost things just after entering.

But now there is no one. It is too difficult to make everyone pay attention to things like baboons, and the revenge is very strong. If it is not a special situation, let everyone not shoot.

The forest at this moment was quiet and terrible. Only the footsteps of these people were heard. Heilong was very happy to see the drone falling in front of him, and quickly picked it up and left this ghost place.

He just walked over, but he didn't expect a sound from the tree. There was no baboon in the tree just now. Suddenly dozens of baboons appeared, and all of them were staring at them viciously.

In this scenario, a mercenary couldn't help shooting and killing a baboon.

"Cut! Captain, I think you are too nervous. You can't talk about the climate after just a few shots! Hahaha."

And the black dragon was already a little flustered at this moment, even too late to pick up the drone, planning to evacuate quickly.

He has witnessed how powerful these baboons are.

As soon as the man's voice fell, the baboons began to become active on the tree, and the guns hopping around were not accurate at all, and the bushes under the big tree were staggered.

The baboons were very fast. Two of them jumped directly to the nearest two mercenaries, biting their facial ears with their mouths wide open.

When Park Yootian saw this scene in the tree, covering his ears, this thing was so powerful.

Qin Yuan doesn't plan to take action yet, let these baboons consume their physical strength first!

Unexpectedly, this black dragon still had two brushes. Since he couldn't beat it, he threw it directly out of the tree trunk beside the grenade. The power of the grenade was very powerful, and the dues were instantly scared.

In an instant sparks flew, and the explosion of the grenade caused a forest fire.

Damn, it can't be done, now it seems that only oneself will come out and solve it personally.

Pu Youtian was still lying on the tree, and Qin Yuan could not be seen in a blink of an eye. He threw out a flying knife while he was messing up. For these people, he didn't need to shoot. Heilong didn't know what was going on and how his men fell one after another Up!

Suddenly saw two throwing knives stuck in the head of one of his men!

"Don't mess around, everyone, watch out, there are enemies! Who is his grandma's coming out?"

Because of the fire caused by the explosion, the forest is now full of smoke, and the baboons are constantly screaming in the trees. The black dragon can't tell where the enemy is. Can only carry the gun and shoot everywhere.

Qin Yuan turned over and jumped over, the flying knife skill is getting closer and closer to vividness under its use. He threw out six flying knives at once and solved the remaining few people. Now there is only one polished commander Black Dragon!

Qin Yuan appeared with his hands behind his back, and the black dragon raised his gun to aim at Qin Yuan, "I advise you not to shoot, otherwise you will regret that your gun is not as fast as mine!"

"Damn it! What kind of thing are you threatening me!" After speaking, he pulled the trigger.

Qin Yuan jumped past the bullet, and then threw a flying knife, hitting his chest.

The black dragon staggered down, "Puff! Who are you? I know, did you kill the hunter before? You murderer."

Qin Yuan walked over and drew out the flying knife from him, "I said you have such a thick skin. At this moment, I still accused me of being a murderer. I told you that Lao Tzu is a hunter, and he is acting for heaven. !"

Then the black dragon stopped breathing unwillingly.

I'm going, awesome, Brother Qin! This speed is beyond human.

There was a panic in the studio at the moment. In addition to the two pairs of hunters who had disappeared before, now this team of security mercenaries has been sent, and they have also disappeared.

And they don't even know what the situation is. The manager in the studio is staring at the two moving red dots on the screen. It must be the ghost of these two people. This is the case and they are still running like crazy. Don't you know to stop and rest?

Suddenly, the manager could only contact the boss, who was smoking a cigar and playing golf.

He threw the golf club angrily after hearing the situation here.

"I spend money to support you, what do you do with these wastes! This little thing is not handled well, and I have lost so many customers! Assemble all the mercenaries and wait for me to come!"

What Qin Yuan has to wait for is this boss behind the scenes, he just wants to anger him and let him come to the scene, otherwise he doesn't know where to find someone after going out.

Park Youtian jumped down from the tree, this Qin Yuan was simply too powerful, those mercenaries had no chance to shoot, so he killed them all!

It seems that the forest can't stay any longer. The fire here is getting bigger and bigger, and it seems that you have to move back.

At this time, Qin Yuan and the others made basic disguise with leaves draped in their bodies, and they lay on the hillside, because the fire attracted two other people who were adventurous. They seemed to be a couple. They were still at the foot of the hillside, away from Qin Yuan. They are far away.

Park Youtian stood up to greet them and told them to come over quickly, because the distance was too far to hear him, so he could only sing and wave.

Unexpectedly, the two people regarded Park Youtian as a savage and ran in the opposite direction quickly.

Do these two people have problems with their brains?

Qin Yuan was also very speechless. He wanted to save their lives, but they shouldn't be so unlucky. They would come across someone searching for it!

Because Qin Yuan and the others are on the hillside, in a high downward posture, they have a very good observation position.

Unexpectedly, the two civilians ran into the bush where they hid their bodies by mistake. After seeing the corpses, they yelled in fright. It was even more certain that Park Youtian, who I saw just now, was a dangerous person.

As for the boss of the game developer, he personally led the team to set off at this moment. This boss is a ruthless character. Since the problem lies on this map, looking at the information filled in by the two people, he must have concealed something. No matter how powerful they are, there are only two of them.

This boss dispatched almost all the security mercenaries. He was very angry at the moment. Someone broke his rules, and the prey should be the prey.

The staff member just reminded in a low voice: "Boss Li, these two men seem to be special forces, because judging from the voice from the walkie-talkie when Captain Black Dragon finally died just now, that person seems to be very powerful, or you should not attack rashly. !"

"Haha, are you special forces? I am here before the mercenaries, all of them were special forces. I must commit suicide for this person. I stabbed me with such a big basket. He is dead!"

He is very confident, because there are only two people on the other side, and there are more than 30 people on his side, all of whom are real guns.

The helicopter slowly put the boss down, and at this time the two adventure survivors in the distance were very excited when they saw the helicopter.

Seeing a savior, they ran towards the helicopter, thinking that the staff there had sent a helicopter to pick them up.

The boss who hadn't ran to the front shot quickly and directly killed the two men on the spot.

Qin Yuan and the others heard gunshots and the sound of helicopters. It seems that people are coming! They decided to launch an ambush on this hillside.

That Boss Li was surrounded by the mercenaries. There was a leader in the front, and a post-breaker in the back. These mercenaries had more experience than the black dragons. They were sure there were enemies, and they were very cautious in the future.

Slowly they approached the hillside, Qin Yuan picked up the gun at the moment, but felt a pity that it was not a sniper rifle, and Pu Youtian next to him was very nervous. The number of people was much larger than he thought.

Qin Yuan should have no problem. He can only take care of himself first, and admire Qin Yuan's general spirit even more. Under such circumstances, he can still be in danger.

The mercenary who took the lead was very accurate. Judging from the terrain, if the forest was on fire, they would definitely go up the hillside and let everyone go to the front hillside to search carefully.

Getting closer and closer, they were already on the hillside, Qin Yuan quickly flew out a flying knife and hit the commander who took the lead directly!

"Attention everyone, there are enemies!"

"I'm going, what speed is this kid?"

"I didn't see clearly what passed, what was the situation, how did Captain 3 die!"

As Qin Yuan's flying knife was dispatched, Park Youtian next to him also started to pull the trigger and fired at those people.

Qin Yuan turned over and jumped directly into the crowd. His goal was very clear, that is, the boss in the black clothes in the middle, Qin Yuan stared at him viciously, and the boss was a little horrified.

"Damn, why are you shooting in a daze, killing this kid, I will reward 1 million!"

Park Yootian used AKM to shoot quickly outside. Only two people caused these mercenaries to mess up their positions. Then they reacted, as if the person inside was even more powerful.

"Old Miscellaneous Mao, your standard for me is too low, I'm not only worth 1 million!"

After speaking, Qin Yuan directly pulled a mercenary next to him, took the soldier's gun, and quickly fired at the person next to him.

One of these mercenaries turned out to be holding a small howitzer. Qin Yuan aimed at a bullet and directly exploded the howitzer.

The remaining mercenaries shot at Qin Yuan' instead of hitting Qin Yuan, they beat the mercenary into a sieve.

"I didn't expect your group of beasts to be so cruel to your own people! Yes, this style should continue to be carried forward!"

Qin Yuan picked up two AKMs and dodged the bullets and fired frantically at the crowd. Those people were not his opponents at all, because this person was so fast.

And he can control the recoil of AKm with one hand. How strong is his power?

That Boss Li was a little panicked. It seems that he really shouldn't have come down just now. So many people have been killed by this kid in this way!

"You all give it to Lao Tzu, and you must resist! Whoever resists me will give him 5 million!"

At this time, the boss mainly wanted to escape, so he threw out the temptation of money, took out the walkie-talkie, and asked the helicopter to come and pick him up.

The helicopter pilot is also very helpless, "Boss, the helicopter can't land where you are!"

Chapter 779: Lord Bear Appears

"I don't care, hurry up and land for me, and lower the ladder!" At this moment, he just wanted to escape quickly, this man is simply a killer!

Qin Yuan knew that Boss Li should not be the real master behind the scenes, but should belong to the cooperating party. The boss behind the scenes was not so impulsive to come down. It seemed that he was going to use Boss Li.

At this time those mercenaries had been completely resolved by Qin Yuan. Boss Li was so scared that he knelt on the ground and kept kowtow, "Big brother, don't kill me, I have a lot of money, and I can give you as much as you want! "

"Oh! I want money too, but what I want to know is where is the real boss behind this game company?"

Qin Yuan used a little charm skill at this moment. Boss Li only felt that the person in front of him, what he said made him feel a little flutter, his eyes were a little confused, and he slowly said: "The boss behind the scenes is called Lord Xiong. He is sitting in the base camp! "

"Take me to your base camp to see!"

"Ok!"

At this time, Boss Li was like a robot, only mechanically repeating Qin Yuan's words to answer questions.

Park Youtian ran over and looked at Boss Li in front of him, "Uh, Brother Qin, how did you do this? How can this person listen to you instantly!"

"Hypnosis! Hypnosis, you know, I still learned a little hypnosis!"

What the hell? So he hypnotized Boss Li. Although he didn't know how to do hypnosis, the people who watched hypnosis on TV used a watch. He didn't do anything, so why did he hypnotize people?

"I told you that the real master hypnosis is just a few words, do you believe it or not I will hypnotize you now?"

Park Youtian hurriedly covered his eyes, because he heard that he could not look at the hypnotist.

"Brother Qin, I believe I believe, don't mess with me!"

This hypnosis is really horrible, and one person is completely mastered in this way. Pu Youtian believes that even if the grenade asks him for the bank card password, he will honestly say it.

After a while, the helicopter came, and it was indeed difficult. I couldn't lower it after several times, just lowered the ladder.

The driver saw that there were three people below, one of whom was his own boss, and he did not know the other two, but the boss below did not say anything, and he did not dare to object.

In this way, Qin Yuan and the others climbed up the helicopter down the ladder, ready to find the boss behind the scenes.

Boss Li took them back to the studio. The staff in this room didn't know what happened. Qin Yuan didn't plan to kill them. After all, these things are not under his control. He is responsible for destroying the main boss, and these people will be handed over. Let the local police handle it!

Boss Li drove the car and took them to find the Lord Bear. This Lord Bear was in his own private villa, which was also turned into a playground by him. This Lord Bear is very rich and loves to play. The game projects are all his ideas.

The guard at the door saw that it was Boss Li, but she brought two people with strange faces, "You can go in, what's the situation with these two people! You don't know the rules, do you? The boss is the one who dislikes strangers the most. ."

Qin Yuan didn't want to use force, now he has this charm skill, so let's implement it!

Just slowly said, "Let's go in!" The charm was also exuded.

"Ok!"

The guard was very obedient, opened the door, and Park Youtian saw that in the future, he was sitting far away from Qin Yuan. There were so many things that this man knew, and everything was so strong.

The Lord Xiong was on an island in the heart of the lake at the moment, drinking tea leisurely, and heard a notification from outsiders saying that Boss Li came to him.

What the * is Boss Li? The island is inseparable from people. Someone has to guard him all the time. What's wrong with him at this time, and he didn't call him before.

From a distance, he saw Boss Li approaching with two strangers. This bear was also very vigilant. He didn't believe anyone. Boss Li's behavior today was very abnormal.

He asked the staff next to them to stop the three of them, "Hey! What the  is your kid? I said that I don't like strangers to appear. Before I get angry, get out!"

What about the guards at the door? Put them in!

He only saw a young man next to him, and said a few words to the staff, those staff who blocked them unexpectedly stepped away.

There is a problem, the problem is big!

Master Xiong quickly pressed a button in front of the stone table. The stone chair he was sitting on suddenly separated into a big hole, and he quickly installed it.

Fortunately, he is usually cautious enough to design escape routes everywhere. He knows that those things he has done are enough to die hundreds of times, and he thinks about all the way back.

It was not so easy to catch him. When Qin Yuan and the others ran to the island in the lake, the bear master had disappeared, and the big hole in the ground was tightly covered.

Qin Yuan took Pu Youtian with him, beating and beating, but he couldn't find the organ at all. After asking the staff nearby, no one knew.

This old guy is really cunning, it seems that this mechanism should be turned on once, and it will fail the second time.

Unexpectedly, Park Youtian next to him threw a grenade directly at the stone table.

After the explosion, a big dark hole appeared before their eyes.

I go, this is fine too!

Park Youtian said with some embarrassment: "Although I am not as good as Qin Ge you, I used stupid methods and more violent methods. I wanted to try it, but I didn't expect it to succeed!"

Unexpectedly, it was so simple. It seems that Qin Yuan made the problem complicated.

The two entered along the passage, Qin Yuan walked in front, and Park Youtian followed him.

This passage was very long, and it was dark inside. Qin Yuan couldn't even see through using his skills. He didn't know where the end was, it was just a dark passage.

Park Youtian was slowly sweating out of his body. It was stuffy, hot and dark. Why didn't he finish it? In such a small space, he is a little irritable.

He lowered his head and stomped his feet vigorously, walking around with this kind of stone brick floor, but when he looked up, he found that Qin Yuan who was walking in front of him was not there!

How can it be? He started yelling, "Brother Qin! Where are you?" But there was no response. There was only a dark passage in front of him. Even if Qin Yuan walked too fast, footsteps could be heard in front of him, but the passage was quiet at the moment. Quiet, only his own heartbeat and breathing.

He was very nervous, why would people be gone when he bowed his head? He knew that Qin Yuan would not abandon him, it should be because there was some mechanism in this passage, he and Qin Yuan were in this mechanism.

At this time, Qin Yuan also encountered the same problem. At the beginning, Park Youtian had been complaining. Qin Yuan thought he was annoying, so he shut up and walked well. Only the sound of his heavy footsteps and breathing were heard behind him.

But it seemed that after a minute or two, there was no sound. He turned his head to find that Park Youtian was no longer there. He knew that things were not that simple. How could this kind of passage be exposed when it exploded.

This kind of passage is like something in the tomb passage, and they have fallen into an endless loop unknowingly, and Qin Yuan started an experiment.

He has world-class speed and strength. He ran forward quickly, which was equivalent to running several hundred meters in an instant. Looking at the time on the watch, two minutes had passed, but the passage had not yet reached the end.

It seems that the mechanism must be found first, and then the mechanism can be hacked to get out.

Qin Yuan thought for a while, and took out the Erniu mouse from the system grid. Rats are still good at finding mechanisms like this, after all, they are digging holes everywhere.

And he can use the vision of Erniu Mouse to see the situation of the passage.

The Er Niu Mouse digs a hole under the floor tiles with his heart, and as it digs deeper, a map of vision also appears in Qin Yuan's mind.

Looking at it this way, Qin Yuan instantly understood that there were two rectangular passages. Once they went up and down, there was a back shape in the passages. No matter how they went around? They will all go around to the origin and compete with themselves again and again.

The two channels are moving slowly, very slowly, so I didn't feel it. It should be staggered every five minutes.

The stagger just now caused him to separate from Pu Youtian. Now that he has a field of vision, he is suddenly clear. At this moment, Pu Youtian is running wildly in the passage below. Qin Yuan only sees him running to the starting point, and then back to the end.

It seems that you have to find the intersection of these two rectangles to escape.

Qin Yuan quickly ran towards the intersection, tore off a piece of his clothes, and asked Er Niu Mouse to find Park Youtian and take him to the intersection.

After Qin Yuan arrived at the intersection, sitting on the ground waiting for Park Youtian to come.

At this time, Park Youtian was running earnestly. While running, he stomped the floor tiles under his feet vigorously. He thought that if there was a laser, he would try them one by one, but he didn't expect the mechanism to be on the top.

At this time he heard a little movement, but the passage was dark and it seemed that something was punching a hole.

After he took out the lighter and turned it on, he saw gravel falling from the front, and then a huge mouse came out.

"Damn! Such a big mouse! Fuck! I am most afraid of mice, why are there mice in this passage!"

Qin Yuan despised Park Youtian at this moment. What's wrong with this person? Little mice are afraid.

However, this is what Qin Yuan thinks is a small mouse. At this time, the Erniu mouse is the size of a kitten as it upgrades. A mouse of this size will be a little scared no matter who sees it!

Park Youtian was frightened and ran away, but vaguely he saw that the mouse was holding something in its mouth. He didn't dare to stop thinking about this now. He just wanted to hurry up and stay away from that mouse. Such a big mouse would Wouldn't there be a litter of this size?

The more he thought about it, the more frightened he became. Qin Yuan controlled a second-rate mouse to chase him behind. How could he run past the mouse? Panting on the ground, Er Niu Mouse looked at him triumphantly.

Park Youtian had an illusion that this mouse seemed to despise him.

This is not an illusion, it is really despising!

At this time, Pu Youtian discovered that the mouse was holding a piece of cloth in his mouth. The mouse spit out the cloth and threw it in front of him. The color seemed to be Qin Yuan's clothes!

Could it be that Qin Yuan has been eaten by this mouse? With this idea, Park Youtian immediately denied it again. It is impossible for Qin Yuan to be as powerful as Qin Yuan. Could it be that Qin Yuan sent it?

Tentatively asked "Can you lead me to the owner of this cloth?"

The bull mouse raised his front paws and stood up, nodding his head.

Damn it! It can understand people's words, and it nods to me. Am I wrong?

Because Pu Youtian always relies on the light of the lighter to illuminate, the flame of the lighter burned to his hand in a daze, and he instantly felt pain. It seemed that this was not a dream.

Then, under the leadership of the mouse, he arrived at the intersection and watched that the mouse did not move. He wondered if he wanted to wait for Qin Yuan here.

After a while, he still wondered if he was thinking too much? Why hasn't Qin Yuan appeared yet?

Just thinking about it suddenly stretched out his hands, and directly lifted him up, it turned out to be Qin Yuan.

At this moment, he was holding Qin Yuan's thigh tightly as if he had seen a savior.

Qin Yuan was very speechless, and pushed him away, "I'm sorry, male or female can't be kissed, don't hug so close!"

"No! Big brother, I won't hold you. I'm afraid of what kind of mechanism we will be involved in later!"

Qin Yuan didn't speak, but stared closely at the passage above them. Now they are in the same passage, but the passage is still turning, and they need to wait for the next crossing time to get out.

This time the intersection was very fast, Qin Yuan quickly threw Pu Youtian up, and then he bounced up.

Pu Youtian flew out in an instant, and smashed into the ground with a roll, Qin Yuan's strength was too great! It hurts all over my body, huh? No, I came out, hahaha!

Then Qin Yuan also jumped out of that channel' The mouth that came out was the channel they had blasted before, and it seemed that it would not work to go through this channel.

Unexpectedly, at this time, there was a speaker on the rockery on Huxin Island, and a man's voice came out from it.

"You two are really amazing. You can escape from my cross tunnel. It's been a long time since no one played this kind of game with me. You can have fun now. Don't you want to find me? I'm in a haunted house. Waiting for you!"

"Damn! Get out of me, so I don't care to play any games with you? I have the ability to come out and do a fight!" Park Youtian yelled into the loudspeaker.

"Right, to remind you, you can't stop playing, because the rules are set by me. I already know the purpose of your coming here. If you don't cooperate, then I will detonate the explosives of this game base!"

He had just finished talking about explosives, and suddenly the bridge where Qin Yuan and the others came in exploded. It turned out to be an a4 bomb. The shock wave was very big. The calm lake was tumbling with spray, and many fish were stunned by this shock wave. On the lake.

I go! This old kid is too big to play!

Chapter 780: ?Peacekeeping Selection

Damn, this person is simply a lunatic, but if you think about it, you can think of abnormal games with abnormal brains and treat human lives as a child's play. This kind of person Qin Yuan will definitely not let go.

Park Youtian was a little stunned by the explosion of the bomb, "Brother Qin, do we really want to play a game with him? Or let's find a way to escape first. After all, we only have two people, and it's him. On the site."

"Playing games is my favorite, then play!"

"Brother Qin! No, this is real explosives. This is too powerful. My ears are buzzing now. Should we go out to rescue soldiers?"

"Don't worry, there will be no problems with me, just relax and play."

Park Yootian didn't dare to go forward. After all, the explosion just happened. In case this person is in a bad mood, he presses a bomb again.

Unexpectedly, Qin Yuan walked out from the Huxin Pavilion with his hands behind his back. Although this kind of madman was frantic, he was better able to deal with him with a straightforward purpose. Just like now he just wants to play with himself, then play with him.

So Qin Yuan was sure that he would not press the bomb casually, and just threatened himself just now.

At this time, the eyes of Lord Xiong behind the monitoring screen flashed excitement. This person has too much appetite for him. There is very little lack of such brave here, and it seems that he can have a good game.

At this time, there were no staff in the huge game manor, including the ones who brought them in before. Boss Li didn't know where to go at this moment.

Qin Yuan took an atlas in the instruction basket next to him and found the location of the haunted house.

Park Youtian looked at the haunted house, very reluctant. He was embarrassed to say that he was afraid. He was not afraid of going to the battlefield with a knife and a gun. Although he knew it was fake, after this kind of thing went in, the sound effects and the atmosphere were still very scared. .

Qin Yuan didn't have any fear, he really regarded coming here as a play.

The design of this haunted house is quite good. There is a small train outside. According to the instructions on the map, they need to take the train to enter the haunted house first, and then start the real adventure.

Qin Yuan jumped slightly and got into the little train, originally thinking how to turn it on? Unexpectedly, a staff member suddenly appeared next to him and pressed the button. Park Yootian was taken aback by this person. In broad daylight, how could he walk without any sound?

Qin Yuan has been holding back his laughter, but don't laugh, after all, this hurts his self-esteem too much.

"Kachachachachacha..."

With the sound of this machinery, the train slowly drove towards the dark passage inside.

The most common ones in haunted houses are hospitals and schools. The ones here are quite special. They actually imitate a temple of Yama.

The train stopped at the gate of the Yan Luo Temple, Qin Yuan wanted to see how such a cruel person wanted to play?

The light inside is very low. After entering this Yan Luo Temple, it is a lobby, and a man sits in the middle of the lobby.

Qin Yuan scanned it and found that there were quite a few living people in this one. It seemed that they were all the staff inside this one, but I don't know if that man was Lord Xiong. After all, he has a thermal imaging sight, and there are other dummy props.

Pu Youtian couldn't see anything, he just felt like seeing everything like a ghost, afraid, and embarrassed to pull Qin Yuan, so he could only hold his own hand to pretend to be calm.

At this time, the man sitting in the middle of the main hall suddenly slapped the table and said loudly: "This is the Temple of Yama, you can repent of the wrong things you did during your lifetime, and sincerely repent, you can avoid punishment. mountain!"

Qin Yuan laughed loudly, "I thought about it, I haven't done anything wrong in my life, but you, why don't you confess in your heart?"

"Bold! You dare to question this judge, and someone will leave them two to me!"

As soon as the voice fell off, the staff next to him walked towards the two with electric batons. It seems that the person sitting on the stage should be the bear.

Qin Yuan stretched his waist, really didn't want to play with them.

Two punches knocked down the worker in front and snatched the electric baton in his hand.

Park Youtian was scared enough before, but when he found out that it was a human being, he was not so scared and a little annoyed. He also rushed to grab the electric baton and beat the so-called ghosts.

But Qin Yuan quickly moved in front of the man, patted gently, and the table in front of the man shattered instantly!

"Ah! Are you a human or a ghost? How did you come here?"

"Of course it's floating here!"

Unexpectedly, the man who played the judge was so scared that he backed away in an instant. Qin Yuan shook his head. It seemed that he was not the bear master he was looking for, but someone with a similar voice.

"Where is Lord Bear? Tell me to spare you not die!"

"He, he's on the roller coaster, he just told us to come in and take responsibility for holding you in. The other things are none of my business, I don't know!"

Qin Yuan stunned the judge with a palm. This kind of person really wasted his time.

Park Youtian has already dealt with all the staff. Wasn't this kid afraid of ghosts just now? Why is the fighting power so strong?

Park Youtian said with some embarrassment: "I was caught in their voice and atmosphere just now when I came in, but after seeing a real person playing it, I became less afraid. The main reason was that their behavior made me very annoyed. So it's more serious."

"Okay! There is nothing fun, hurry up and solve this bear master, we have been out for too long this time, I have to go back."

At this time, Lord Xiong was sitting on the roller coaster with a remote control in his hand, approaching crazy laughing.

He took out a microphone from the side, this bear master knocked a lot of medicine, his mind was already a little unclear, he had already seen Qin Yuan and the others below.

"Hahaha! You really are here, don't you want to save people? Then it depends on whether you can get off this time!"

As soon as the voice fell, the bear master pressed a button, and three people suddenly rolled down the long track.

Qin Yuan subconsciously wanted to run over to catch it, but he didn't expect that the three people did not roll down, but rolled out a certain distance. The rope on his body began to shorten and hung in the middle of the track.

"You only have three minutes, don't you want to save people? Come on, in three minutes, my roller coaster will run over their ropes, then no one will live!"

"The game starts!"

"Ah! Help! Madman, you lunatic!"

The people hanging in the air began to cry frantically for help. Lord Xiong felt the stimulation of speed at the moment, and laughed frantically on it, ignoring the calls for help from those people.

Qin Yuan asked Park Youtian to find the power facilities of this playground first. Time was too late. The two of them moved separately. He climbed onto the roller coaster track to see if he could save these people.

"What! You have to climb this roller coaster track without any safety measures. This is too dangerous."

"What's dangerous in this? I have climbed those taller than this when I usually train. Now you can do as I say, don't waste time!"

When Park Youtian ran to the back and turned his head, he found that Qin Yuan had already jumped onto the track in one jump. How strong was his arm strength, and he was climbing toward the front one after another while hanging on the rail!

Park Youtian touched his muscles and felt sore instantly. It seems that he still has to train well later, which is really too strong.

He ran fast in the amusement park, searching everywhere for the main switch of the power supply. After all, this was about human life, and that kind of lunatic was just playing with human life.

Qin Yuan originally wanted to climb and jump directly to those  places, but he also thought that this lunatic was still on it. He drove a roller coaster, which was a threat anyway.

At this time, Master Xiong seemed to see Qin Yuan jump up, rubbing his eyes, "I said, I should have misunderstood, how could it be such a high platform? He can climb up, even if he can. , He didn't dare to measure!"

At this time, Qin Yuan was hiding in the shadow of the track, and the darkness was not easy to be seen. He planned to wait for Lord Xiong to jump on the roller coaster and solve him directly.

Watching the roller coaster get closer and closer, right now!

Qin Yuan turned over, threw himself out with his own strength, and then jumped to the back of the roller coaster.

Master Xiong, he turned his head when he heard the movement, this person actually came up!

"Damn, I really underestimated you, but hahaha, I have a gun!"

Then he took out his pistol and turned around, trying to shoot Qin Yuan, but he knocked too much medicine, a little confused, feeling that people were on the left and on the right, shooting randomly into the air.

At this time, Qin Yuan had already stood up and jumped to the front of the car. He quietly watched the performance of Lord Xiong. He was afraid that he was a fool!

Then there were two more throwing knives in his hand, which quickly slashed Lord Xiong's neck from a cross.

In the end, the developer of this abnormal game was also solved, but it was a pity that he died so easily. Those survivors who were fooled by him to venture on the island had to face much fear before dying.

Although Lord Xiong died, the roller coaster still didn't stop. Qin Yuan tried it and wanted to stop the roller coaster manually, but the speed of the roller coaster in this mid-air is too fast.

Thinking how to stop the roller coaster, the speed was very fast, and he rushed towards the place where the three-person rope was hung.

Three people screamed in horror!

"Ah, no!"

"Help! Stop that  car!"

But I didn't expect that the rope didn't break, but it was just a fluke. If you do it again, the rope will definitely break. If you do it again, it will take another three minutes.

At this moment, the roller coaster stopped abruptly, and it seemed that Pu Youtian had found the power switch.

Qin Yuan stepped onto the track and rescued the few people. Park Youtian also contacted the local police. After all, although the boss of such a big game company is dead, there are still so many involved staff behind the scenes.

And those rich people who know the law and break the law, these are the local police affairs, and they have nothing to do with them.

When the two arrived at the airport, they were going to part with each other. Park Youtian suffered a lot. This time it was really a loss. He didn't make any money, and he caused so many troubles for himself.

The most important thing was that Qin Yuan followed him for a while, feeling a little sad, and took out the bank card from his backpack.

"Brother Qin, I was a little embarrassed to let you run for nothing this time. Although I was cheated, I saved the money in this card myself. Not much. I will give you 50,000 yuan!"

Qin Yuan didn't accept, "Take your card, we don't need to talk about it, we just have to play around, but you really have to train well when you go back!"

Park Youtian nodded very gratefully, training must be inevitable, this time he witnessed the gap between himself and Qin Yuan.

This gap will never be able to catch up, but at least let yourself have a goal of action.

At this time, Qin Yuan was thinking in his heart that fortunately, this Pu Youtian was not their soldier, otherwise he would really have to train him.

No matter whether it is physical fitness or mental tolerance, it is not worth mentioning when compared to their Yan Nation soldiers.

After Qin Yuan returned to the barracks, the atmosphere in his home was still good. No matter when, everyone was training and strictly demanding themselves.

After Gao Shiwei heard Qin Yuan's return, he asked her to come to his office first.

"I said it took a long time for your kid to go out this time! I won't call you, you really won't be back!"

"Um, isn't it a sudden incident? It helped their country and solved a few scumbags by the way!"

"Hehe, I think you are still very busy, I think your kid is a pit, you have problems wherever you go."

Qin Yuan was a little speechless, he didn't want to be like this either, but he didn't know what the situation was, he could encounter these messy things every time.

"Okay, don't talk to you guys. This time there is a selection task, mainly to select peacekeepers. There are quite a lot of people who signed up. There are many people in the entire military area company. Your kid has a poisonous eye. , You can also find many good seedlings!"

"This is very simple, then I will act as an instructor once, so take a good look at the good seedlings!"

"What I think is beautiful' You will have to train after you have selected it. This time you will be the chief examiner of the training. Originally, Fan Tianlei and the others did it this time, but now it looks like you guys are quite leisurely, leave it to you Right!"

The reason given is that I am quite idle.

In fact, Qin Yuan knows the real reason for Gao Shiwei. These selected peacekeepers are to perform world-wide tasks, and they are cooperating with various countries. The tasks are difficult and special.

Whether it is physical fitness or personal combat ability, the requirements are very high. This selection and training must be controlled and very strict.

Gao Shiwei wants Qin Yuan to strictly enforce it. After all, he must choose the real ability, otherwise he will be sent to death on the battlefield. Those peacekeeping troops are facing war death every day.

But this is international, and it won't work if you don't send people. Qin Yuan looked at the list of selections. It seemed that everyone was very enthusiastic, and there were more than 100 people.

However, it is quite difficult to select 20 people from these more than 100 people. These people have already undergone basic selection in the local company.
