

Special Soldier 851

Chapter 851 The Grave in the Suburbs

He Chenguang and the others stood in the corridor as outsiders, listening to the painful cries coming from the ward, "Oh, Er Niu, look at this irony! Fortunately, we caught the person who left the black screen and let Li Daming know. Despite our own mistakes, those of us who are soldiers are all for everyone, and we are almost safe, and even her grandmother will not be able to see her for the last time."

"That's right! I feel very sad when I said it. Sometimes we are helpless. We also have family members, but there is no way."

Grandma Anran's funeral was held in a local funeral parlor. Grandma used to be quite frugal, so the funeral was not too grand. Relatives and friends were invited to express condolences. Anran didn't eat anything recently, and she was very thin.

"An Ran, you are in a bad state. No matter what, you have to take care of yourself, otherwise you won't be at ease if grandma leaves."

"Qin Yuan, I know this, but my grandmother and I really have a very deep relationship. My grandmother brought me up since I was a child, so it was really hard for me to accept it for a while."

Seeing An Ran's haggard appearance, Qin Yuan couldn't bear it, and stayed by her side all the time. Many things were thanks to He Chenguang and the others who helped to greet her. My grandmother and her grandfather were buried together, but they were in their hometown, so I planned to take the urn with me.

An Ran's condition is very poor, Qin Yuan has been accompanying him and Gao Shiwei asked for a few more days off, and Li Erniu and the others also went down together. It's over in a few hours.

Originally, Anran's parents wanted to settle down first, and then let Anran bring the urn down, but seeing the situation, they all came down together, so that if something happened along the way, they would take care of them.

After An Ran's mother came to the cemetery, she searched around a few times, but she didn't find her father's grave. They haven't come to this cemetery for worship in the past three years, and they just simply burn paper at home to worship.

Although it has been three years, An Ran's mother can't even remember where her father's grave is. It's so strange. When she came to that location, she found that it was not her father who was buried, but a woman.

Moreover, the caretaker in the cemetery was gone. An Ran's parents searched around but couldn't find anyone, so they planned to go back to the hotel first.

An Ran was shocked when she heard the news, how could this be possible? Planning to go and see it in person in the afternoon, she went to the cemetery with red and swollen eyes, "I remember that it's right here. I've been to the side. There was a small poplar tree next to it before, and now the small poplar tree has grown so tall."

Then this is strange, how could it be that the tomb of Grandpa An Ran turned into another person? Could it be that they changed their own tomb privately, and their family has not received any notice in the past few years.

An Ran's mother immediately contacted the manager who was renewing the subscription at that time and called, but unexpectedly, it was an empty number. At this time, an old man picking up trash came over and said:

"Did you also come to find the grave?"

also? Isn't this the case with Enron alone, are there many of them?

"Old man, do you know what's going on?"

"Oh, what a crime, don't look for it, it's useless. A few groups of people came to look for it last month, and there were conflicts, but those bosses are rich and can't stand it. Anyway, you can go to the wasteland in the suburbs to have a look. , almost all those graves were moved there."

Hearing what the old man said, Fang Tian's mother almost fainted. What's going on? Qin Yuan hurriedly asked An Ran to take his mother back to the car, and he would check the situation here.

He Chenguang immediately understood. He ran over to buy two packs of good cigarettes and handed them to the old man, wanting to get some other information from the old man.

Unexpectedly, the old man waved his hand, saying that he just couldn't stand it, and talked to them casually. Not worth the two packs of cigarettes.

"Old man, don't be modest, take these two packs of cigarettes as my tribute to you, if you know anything, please tell us quickly!"

The old man pointed to the row of names on the tombstone in front, "Look at this row, they are all surnamed Chen. This place has become the ancestral grave of Chen Jinguo."

It turns out that Chen Jinguo is a very famous local entrepreneur, and also a rich businessman, very rich. Before that, this land was originally a cemetery, but later he found a Feng Shui master. It turns out that this cemetery belongs to a treasure land of Feng Shui. Going to this place will definitely protect the prosperity and wealth of his descendants.

So the construction started later, and they contacted all the people who could be contacted, because the cemetery has changed several batches of management personnel, and those who did not come to the cemetery did not have registration information, and many of them could not be contacted, so they put those who could not be contacted. The graves were moved to the suburbs in one go.

Anyway, there were people who came to make trouble later, so they just gave money away. The most important thing Chen Jinguo lacked was money. Of course, some people didn't want money, just to ask for an explanation. Unexpectedly, this Chen Jinguo found someone to beat him up. Those people found are all gangsters, and they are unreasonable at all.

The local police also investigated, but there was no way to file a case because of insufficient evidence, because this Zengguo is very rich, and money can make ghosts work. Those thugs voluntarily admitted that they wanted to beat those who asked for explanations, and Chen Jingguo did not relation.

Hearing this, Li Erniu said indignantly: "What is this? He has become a landowner. Is this supposed to be the announcement that the Chen family took possession of it? Is there no way to play?"

"Young man, it's not about whether the king's law is not the king's law, but that Chen Jingguo is too rich. Nowadays, there is nothing that money can't do. Most people are bought by him with money, and they won't say anything in the future. What's the matter, anyway, that's all I know, so hurry up and go to the suburbs, maybe you can find it."

"Thank you, old man, let's take a look now, and we'll ask you again if there's anything going on later."

"Okay, anyway, I live in this area, and I have seen too much of these fights, so if you have any questions, come here to find me!"

Qin Yuan planned to take Anran and the others to the suburbs to check it out. Anran's face was full of anger at the moment. Find that place.

"An Ran, don't worry, I will definitely ask them to give an explanation for our grandfather's matter. If it is someone else, forget it, but they met me, Qin Yuan, and this matter will definitely not end."

An Ran nodded with red eyes, his mother was anxious, and now her father has sent her to a nearby hospital, he really hoped to find his grandfather's grave in the suburbs, no matter what, it would be good if the bones were there.

After a while they came to the suburbs that the old scavengers mentioned. An Ran put the urn of grandma's ashes on the car, and got off the car with Qin Yuan and the others. There were indeed many graves scattered here and there. Conscience, did not remove the tombstone.

An Ran soon discovered Grandpa's tomb, but the situation at the scene was very bad, because the location of the tomb was not very good and it was in a low-lying area. Recently, due to the rain, there was water directly here, and Grandpa's tomb in An Ran was completely soaked in the In the pond.

She also recognized her grandfather from the inscription on the tombstone. She knelt down on the muddy ground and burst into tears. She felt that she was too unfilial. Grandpa was so kind to her before, and she hadn't come to see him for so long. , was ruined like this.

Qin Yuan's heart ached when he heard An Ran cry, this Chen Jinguo, he will definitely settle the debt with him, it is really disgusting.

Now that this is the case, we must move out Grandpa Anran's grave first and find a new cemetery. Qin Yuan ran around and found another cemetery. The location here is very suitable. After their bones are settled, they will go to Chen Jinguo to settle accounts.

After everything was arranged properly, Qin Yuan asked the management personnel of this cemetery about Chen Jinguo's cemetery. Unexpectedly, the management personnel here immediately shook their heads and expressed their ignorance when they heard about Chen Jiazuo's grave.

"Anyway, whether you know it or not, the situation over there should not happen again!"

"Mister, don't worry, we will never have such a situation. I just heard that there are rich people's affairs after all, but we are a formal institution here, so you can rest assured."

Qin Yuan nodded. It seems that the matter of Chen Jinguo is not so easy to inquire about. He asked around, and everyone who heard about this matter avoided talking about it. Qin Yuan planned to go to Chen Jiazuo's grave to ask about the situation. .

Unexpectedly, I met a few people on the way. They also went to the suburbs to find graves, but these people looked happy, without any sadness.

Out of curiosity, Qin Yuan took the initiative to talk to them. These people were quite happy to learn that Qin Yuan and the others had also found the tomb, "Well, how much did Boss Chen give you? He gave us 200,000, and this kind of good thing really happened to us."

Qin Yuan shook his head. He didn't know what these people were thinking. They dug up his mother's grave just for this little money, and they didn't care about it. It was solved, and it seems that most of them are such people.

Taking this opportunity, Qin Yuan and the group asked for Chen Jinguo's contact information. Unexpectedly, a woman answered the call, saying it was Chen Jinguo's secretary.

"Aren't you here just for those tombs? Make a price, no matter how much we will accept."

"Fart, is this something that can be solved by asking a price? If I dig up your mother's grave, I'll see if you can still make a price with me." Qin Yuan became angry when he heard the female secretary's tone, who is this? ah?

"Hehe, why are you pretending to be so lofty? Aren't you just calling us for money? Tell us how much it will cost?"

"Let me tell you, I don't want money. You tell that Chen Jinguo to come out and answer the phone. I will ask him face to face."

"Just because of you, you are not qualified to meet our Mr. Chen, you country bumpkin, don't you just want to ask for more money? I have already told you that no matter how much money you ask, we will accept the price. Even if you find Mr. Chen, it will be the same. ."

Qin Yuan hung up the phone directly. These people are completely unreasonable. It seems that he can only know where Chen Jinguo is through other methods. Fortunately, he made the call just now. If it was An Ran, he would probably cry angrily. Look it up online.

There are many companies under the name of Chen Jingguo, which involve many things. There are four private hospitals and many health care products. Now that he has money, he has five factories under his name. The old boy is really rich.

But those who make these health care products are not very good people. Many old people have been fooled before, and this Chen Jingguo casually dumped other people's graves in the suburbs. This behavior is enough to beat him up severely.

This Chen Jingguo was also very cunning, he was worried about being retaliated against, and he couldn't find any housing information on the Internet, which meant that the house under his name should be transferred to someone else's name, and there was no way to find it.

Qin Yuan used all means. He investigated from several directions and found no clues. This person seemed to appear out of thin air, and almost all the Internet praised him for his positive energy.

"It seems that we still have to go to the cemetery to find the old man who scavenged and asked about the situation Maybe he knows where Chen Jinguo is."

Unexpectedly, when Qin Yuan and the others arrived, they found that the old scavengers had died beside the cemetery. What happened? They were fine before they left, why did the old man die.

Qin Yuan hurried forward to check on the old man, and found a wound on the back of the old man's head. It seems that someone attacked him directly from behind, and killed him with one blow. After all, the old man who scavenged was not in good health, and there was half a brick beside him , should be the murder weapon.

The clues are interrupted here again. The most important thing is that there is a human life. This matter is getting more and more complicated. Qin Yuan and the others can only call the police first. This is the Chen family ancestral grave.

The captain of the criminal police who came to investigate originally suspected that Qin Yuan and the others did it. After all, in such a deserted place, who would attack an old man who scavenged waste, but when he knew the identity of Qin Yuan and the others, he immediately became respectful.

The captain of the criminal police is also very helpless, "Since they moved here, criminal cases have been happening in the Chen family's grave. It's even more strange, who would kill an old man who scavenged waste?"

Chapter 852 Strange company management

Then this situation is obviously aimed at Qin Yuan, and the murderers now must be the same group as before. Qin Yuan thinks that he should have something to do with Chen Jinguo. After all, when he came in the morning, he discussed with the old man Chen Jinguo was killed when he tried to find the old man to find out other situations in the afternoon.

Just how do these people know? If someone was eavesdropping, then Qin Yuan would not have noticed the existence of other people at the time.

Qin Yuan hurriedly learned about the previous murder cases with the head of the detachment, and found that the same thing in these murder cases was that the victims all came to find their family's graves, and the tools used to commit crimes were all local materials, such as stones, bricks, sticks, etc. Wait, when the police discovered the first case, they thought it was a random killing.

After all, the tool for committing the crime is right next to it. This kind of situation is generally not purposeful, but there are more and more such cases, and they all have similarities.

"This feature is too obvious! It appeared here again at the grave of Chen Jiazu, and you should also know that it was a cemetery before. Those who came to look for the grave must have something to do with Zeng Guo. Didn't your police investigate this? "

These characteristics are too obvious, and all the motives of committing the crime are completely pointed to Chen Jinguo, but haven't the local police found out anything for so many years, Qin Yuan even wonders if there is some conspiracy in it.

Unexpectedly, the detachment leader shook his head helplessly, "Captain Qin, it's not that we don't investigate, maybe you have misunderstood us, we have never given up for so many years, but we also went to Chen Jinguo and found that there was no clue at all. "

The detachment leader and the others have also been searching for many years. Every time they find Chen Jinguo, they have no clue and no evidence at all, so it is difficult for them to conduct investigations. Chen Jinguo was even taken to the police force for interrogation. Every time there was a murder case, he was called to investigate, but there was no flaw at all.

"At that time, it was announced that all the surveillance cameras were broken, so we couldn't find any clues. We also specially installed surveillance cameras."

When Li Erniu heard that there was surveillance, he immediately became excited. If there was surveillance, he would definitely be able to capture the perpetrator. He raised his head and looked at the flashing red dot, "Then let's go to the surveillance first, maybe we can see some clues. "

The detachment leader has no hope for this. This is a dead spot for monitoring. Every time a crime is committed here, they also try to install monitoring, but it is strange that every time the monitoring is installed in this place, it will malfunction or be destroyed. .

And other places facing the Chen family's grave are all good monitoring, and they are all in normal operation, but they can't say that to Qin Yuan now, after all, they still have some distrust in themselves, if they reject them, they will feel that I am covering myself.

Unexpectedly, Qin Yuan raised his head to look at the surveillance, and then looked around, "Er Niu, there is no need to go, this is a blind spot for surveillance and surveillance does not make much sense."

The detachment leader was obviously stunned when he heard what Qin Yuan said. This person is too good. He can know the monitoring situation just by looking at it like this. But now he still has to go to Chen Jinguo to find out the situation. So many lives must be with him. Besides, he moved Grandpa An Ran's grave to the suburbs without permission, and he hasn't settled the matter yet.

Before, they tried every means to find Chen Jinguo's address, but now the detachment leader told them directly that this old boy has been living abroad, and he doesn't live in China at all. All the people in China are his secretary and some irrelevant people.

However, this secretary will handle any situation, including the compensation for many people who come to find the grave.

He Chenguang looked at the corpse of the old man who scavenged and asked slowly: "Detachment leader, after all, this is the ancestral grave of his family now. Do we need to directly notify Chen Jinguo to come here to cooperate with the investigation of the murder that happened here, and it will save us to look for it?" him."

The head of the detachment expressed some embarrassment, because this Zeng Guo has been abroad all the time, and the secretary came forward to solve the problem when he was approached later. He has a perfect alibi, and his company also has a team of lawyers who specialize in handling these disputes. Very tricky.

Hearing what the detachment leader said, Qin Yuan stepped forward and patted him on the shoulder. It seems that this detachment leader has not been doing well in the past few years. After all, people like Chen Jinguo, everyone knows it well, and some things must be different. He can't get rid of the relationship, but some things are so helpless. He has a professional lawyer team on his side. The police can't find any evidence, and there is nothing they can do about him.

"Detachment Captain, don't worry, this time I plan to go abroad to find out the situation with this kid personally, and the truth of all these things will definitely come to light. I, Qin Yuan, will not let a bad guy go."

"Captain Qin, we will go with you too. We are all brothers. No matter what, although we are not as capable as you, we can both help."

The detachment leader was very moved when he heard what they said. After all, it is not uncommon for them to go abroad. They did send personnel to conduct investigations abroad before. But that Chen Jinguo was so cunning that he was shut down by the police in every way.

"Captain Qin, I would like to thank you for your assistance in the investigation this time. I have heard of your name a long time ago. Should you do it? Then this matter is basically fine."

Qin Yuan nodded and asked the detachment leader to settle the body of the old man who scavenged. He felt a little sorry at the moment. After all, the old man who scavenged died because of him.

Originally, he planned to go directly to Chen Jinguo's secretary. After all, he would definitely be able to ask questions about these things. He could use the charm skill, but now the most important thing was that Chen Jinguo, and he didn't want to startle the snake. After all, this old boy was abroad.

Qin Yuan took He Chenguang with him, and they went back to An Ran's place first. He didn't expect that this time things would be so complicated. Fortunately, the two old people had already been buried, and they were considered to have returned to their roots.

An Ran's mother blamed herself very much. She felt that she was all to blame. If she had come here to sweep the grave for several years, she would have found that the situation would not allow An Ran's grandfather's grave to be in the wilderness like that, and An Ran's eyes would cry. It was red and swollen, and the successive events in the past few days made it difficult for her to accept it for a while.

"Mom, An Ran, don't worry, I'm going abroad this time to find Chen Jinguo, the mastermind behind the scenes. pass him."

When An Ran's mother heard that Qin Yuan was going abroad, she immediately became nervous, "Qin Yuan, mom knows you are a good boy, and I have also heard some news about Zeng Guo. This boss is cruel, so why do you three go?" That's fine, I don't want anything to happen to you."

"Mom, put your heart in your belly! You don't even think about who I am, I'm the most famous special forces member, and now it's a legal society, don't worry, there will be no problem."

What Qin Yuan said was just to comfort An Ran's mother. An Ran knew very well that she was not subject to these controls abroad at all, and they didn't know what kind of power was behind that Chen Jinguo. It must be very dangerous for Qin Yuan to go this time.

But it's hard to say anything in front of her mother, An Ran, and the matter here has been dealt with. Qin Yuan plans to send An Ran and his family back first. She doesn't want to make any mistakes along the way, so she should send them home safely first. , go abroad by yourself.

During the period, Grandma Sun also called to express condolences. In order not to worry Grandma Sun about the grave, Qin Yuan didn't tell her about these things, but said that the old man had already been buried and there was no problem.

After sending An Ran's parents home, An Ran walked out quietly. She wanted to go abroad with Qin Yuan. She trained for a period of time in order not to drag Qin Yuan down. Now her self-defense skills are already very good. Although she and Qin Yuan are married, but this is her family's business after all, she doesn't want Qin Yuan to take risks alone.

"An Ran, don't go with me. Seriously, you must trust me. This trip will be absolutely fine, and Erniu and the others will be there."

"Yes! Sister-in-law, you can leave these matters to us. To be honest, I haven't taken him seriously. After all, he has experienced all kinds of storms. Isn't he just a businessman?"

"But I'm really worried about you, and I just want to help you."

"An Ran, look at our mother's situation is not very good now, after all the successive blows, you should stay with her at home, don't worry, we will come back safely."

When Qin Yuan said this, An Ran was also shaken. It is true that her mother's situation is not very good now, and she has to stay at home to take care of her. Besides, it is very likely that going by herself will become a drag.

This time Qin Yuan went to Chen Jinguo, and the local detachment leader also specially reported the situation with the army, and typed a document, reporting that Qin Yuan had seconded their resources. With this document report, Qin Yuan even more It was to carry out the task aboveboard, and Gao Shiwei even sent a special plane to send them abroad.

The detachment leader and the others couldn't bear it with Chen Jinguo. Everyone hoped that Qin Yuan could find out the truth of the matter, bring the murderer to justice, and give justice to those innocent lives.

After all, it was a mission this time. The guns that Qin Yuan and the others distributed were not assault rifles. The three of them each took a Type 95 pistol. This kind of gun is usually a police pistol, and its main feature is that it is easy to carry. .

After all, when going abroad, Chen Jinguo is located in a country called Gilsey on the American continent. This country legalizes the possession of guns, so it is safer for Qin Yuan and the others to bring guns.

"What the ***** is this Chen Jinguo doing? How did he come to such a far place? There are many companies in his country. These companies should be enough for him to eat for the rest of his life. It's really unpopular."

Qin Yuan sneered, looking at the survey sent by Gao Shiwei, he felt that the matter was not so simple. This once-state-owned enterprise in China seemed to be very large, but in fact all of them were in a state of loss. According to the capital flow of their company, the recent few All the years are losing money, let alone making money.

But what is strange is that the company's operation has been in a downhill loss-making situation, but it is still operating. What kind of situation can make a boss so persistent.

"Maybe it's because this kid doesn't give up. He thinks he's really good at business."

"But his loss is too exaggerated. The annual loss of his companies is about 70 million."

what! When Li Erniu and the others heard this figure, they instantly shocked the world of these rich people. They really didn't understand that they would lose 70 million a year. Is it necessary to open such a company?

"Hey, so much money, did this person get his money from a strong wind? It's not okay to pretend like this!"

"So based on these circumstances, I suspect that these companies in China are just a cover for him. They look very good on the outside, but in fact they have been losing money. He still wants to open them, which means that what he is doing abroad is the real project. These domestic companies are just covering for him."

Qin Yuan's doubts are not unreasonable. After all, a mysterious drug lord suddenly appeared in the past few years, and instantly monopolized the drug markets in countries A and C. You must know that Qin Yuan was in the Golden Triangle area before. Excessive sweeps, big drug lords like this no longer exist.

This mysterious drug lord who suddenly appeared has no trace at all, just like a blank, only knowing that there is a steady stream of goods being sent to various places, but the source cannot be found.

"Brother Qin, then you suspect that this drug lord is probably Chen Jinguo."

"Yes, so we must be more careful when we go to investigate this time. We may have to use a certain amount of camouflage. We must not startle the enemy. If he is a drug lord, This mission is still more dangerous. If it doesn't work, you two will wait for me on the outside, and I will sneak in and see the situation first."

"Brother Qin, what are you talking about? We are all brothers, and besides, we are also members of the Special Forces. It is also our duty to exterminate this kind of drug lord. I, Li Erniu, will never give up."

"Me too, even if it's a mountain of swords and a sea of fire, we brothers will fight together."

Qin Yuan smiled, as expected of brothers who live and die together, they will support him under any circumstances, after three hours they arrived at their destination and got off the plane, Brother Qin went to Chen Jinguo's residence according to the address provided by the detachment leader.

According to what the detachment leader said, this Chen Jinguo was very cunning and careful. When their team members came to him, there were guards around them, and someone notified them just as soon as their team members came to the door. The police run in circles.

So Qin Yuan planned for them to put on a disguise first. Since he guessed that Chen Jinguo was a drug lord, he must find evidence. He is not finished.

Qin Yuan took out some tattoo stickers from his bag, "Let's put these on our arms and chest, this is also a way of camouflage."

Chapter 853 Havoc at the Bakery

"Hahaha, this thing is quite fun. I didn't expect that tattoos can be pasted on. But, Brother Qin, can this be washed off? Don't wash it off when the time comes, the tattoos of us can't even enter the army."

"Don't worry, when did I cheat you, this thing fell off after just rubbing it with alcohol, and I will be more vicious later, remember that we are the bad guys now, do criminals need to know in this capacity?"

After a few people put the tattoo stickers on, they wished that the short-sleeved tattoos they were wearing were very obvious, but Qingyuan felt that it was not enough. The fattest among them was Li Erniu, so he went to the side to give Li Erniu Niu bought a vest for him to put on, and also got a pair of sunglasses. This time, the tattoo on Li Erniu's shoulder was also exposed, and he looked very vicious.

He Chenguang sighed and said: "Er Niu, let me tell you, I am the first to investigate in China with your kid's attire. You are not a good person at first sight. Fortunately, your kid joined the army early, otherwise it might be true." I'm going to mix with the society."

"What the hell, I never thought about being in a society. I just wanted to cook at the time. The food I cooked was delicious, and I was pretty good as a cooking soldier. How did I know that I became a special soldier?"

Brother Qin held his forehead in a very speechless manner, and told Li Erniu not to speak for a while, his silly tone was immediately revealed.

Several people came near Chen Jinguo's residence. This is a very busy street, but if you look carefully, you can see that the vendors around are not normal. Although they seem to be doing business, their eyes glance outside from time to time.

Qin took a closer look. These shops were all around Chen Jinguo's residence. There was a bakery, a bar, a weapon shop next to it, and a private clinic.

"Brother Qin, should we go up and knock on the door now?"

"No, we're just waiting here for someone to come to the door. It's too obvious for us to go up now. It's not us looking for him, it's him coming to us. We want to take the initiative, you know? This is called Jiang Taigong fishing." ."

Li Erniu couldn't understand what Qin Yuan said, anyway, he was right. If Qin Yuan's observation was correct, the people in the shop should all be from Chen Jinguo, and they can't investigate now. something.

They sat like this for an afternoon. Although the people on the opposite side had been observing them, they did not take any action. Li Erniu almost vomited from drinking coffee in this coffee shop. He was really not used to drinking this stuff. , Drinking coffee all the time is definitely not enough, Qin Yuan took them to eat at the nearby snack bar.

"Brother Qin, we are drinking and eating here. When will we start performing the mission?"

"Start now."

Before Li Erniu could react, Qin Yuan had already stood up and walked directly to the bakery. He and He Chenguang hurriedly followed.

Now that these people have been watching them all afternoon, it's time for him to take the initiative. Brother Qin walked in and said loudly, "Boss, bring me three servings of noodles."

The cashier next to him was confused, and hurried forward to explain, "Hi sir, we are a bakery here, and we don't have noodles."

"What kind of shabby shop are you guys? Does the bakery have a face? Can it make noodles? I think you just don't want to sell it to us on purpose."

Li Erniu and He Chenguang next to him were stunned. When did Brother Qin become so unreasonable? It's too exaggerated to come to someone's bakery to order noodles! The cashier next to him and the staff felt that these people were here to make trouble.

The cashier is a blonde beauty. She is not afraid of seeing Qin Yuan's tattoos. After all, the people behind her have the strength to protect themselves. The cashier took out a walkie-talkie and said unhurriedly: "Yanio, Come here quickly, there is trouble at the bakery."

Qin Yuan stepped forward and stepped on the cash register next to him, "Why does the little beauty want to find rescuers so quickly, I tell you that my brother is not afraid of anything."

"Hehe, you don't even look at whose territory this is, and you dare to come here to make trouble, so save your energy! You won't even have the energy to beg for mercy later."

Qin Yuan laughed loudly, and walked up to Li Erniu and the others, "I'm going to fight later, let go of the fight, trust me."

This Qin Yuan is playing too much. This is a normal business. They come here to suddenly make trouble for no reason. Anyway, they feel a little sorry. But since Qin Yuan said so, Li Erniu and the others are not good at saying anything, anyway, they listen to him. Yes, everyone is brothers, it's over, and Qin Yuan's judgment intention is not wrong.

Within a few minutes, a few big men with sticks walked in from the outside. At this time, the shutter door of the bakery was also pulled down, and a few people in work clothes appeared at the back door.

The blond beauty stepped on her high heels and walked up to the leading man, "The three of them dared to come to our side to make trouble on purpose to find fault, especially that kid, we must break his leg."

The blond beauty was talking about Qin Yuan, and Yanio shook his neck, "Brothers have heard it, give it to me, we don't have anyone who can find fault here, ***** it! It's been a long time since I showed my power. Now, we really think we are sick cats."

"Today, I will beat you to your knees and call you grandpa."

As soon as Yanio's words fell, Qin Yuan rushed up and kicked him in the chest. This Yanio was very strong, and was kicked back by Qin Yuan. He patted his chest, "Good boy, I really have some strength."

Then he took out the club in his hand and swung it fiercely at Qin Yuan, the people behind also rushed up, immediately surrounded them, Li Erniu directly picked up a staff member and smashed him to the opposite side on the bread rack.

Qin Yuan actually raised his hand to catch the club swung by Yanio. Yanio wanted to withdraw his hand, but found that the club didn't move at all. This person's strength was too great, and then Qin Yuan kicked Kicking Yanio in the jaw, he did a backflip and fell directly to the ground.

Qin Yuan lifted the stick and pointed it at Yannio's head. In an instant, blood gushed out from his head, and the stick was directly interrupted by the group members. The people next to him rushed up one after another. Qin Yuan dodged while Lifting a big man flew out directly, and the rolling shutter door next to it was blown into a dent.

Then he directly broke a bat that was hitting him with a punch, "I don't like this kind of thing, it's better for me to fight you with bare hands."

The blond beauty just now was completely stunned and hid behind the cashier in fright. She didn't expect these people to be so strong. Within a few minutes, Qin Yuan and the others calmed down the people who rushed in just now.

The strongest Yanio was lying on the ground unable to move. His jaw was completely broken by Qin Yuan's kick just now, and now he couldn't close his mouth. He was lying on the ground drooling, with blood flowing from his head. He was in a very embarrassing situation. .

Qin Yuan walked over and mentioned a thug who was screaming, "Hehe, weren't you very arrogant just now? Just this is not enough, our brothers started the fight."

After finishing speaking, he just threw it away, threw the thug out, and smashed it heavily on the glass cabinet behind. At this moment, Qin Yuan came to the cash register and looked at the trembling blonde beauty.

At this time, the blond beauty was so scared that she was speechless, she stood up and looked at Qin Yuan, "Brother, brother, I'll give you whatever you want, don't hit me."

"Don't worry, I won't hit women. Take out all your money. Look at the fact that you cooperated with me earlier and gave us some money. Why did you make such a fuss?"

At this moment, a thug said, "You are so arrogant. It's no use for you to knock us down, but you offended our boss, and you are doomed. It seems that you really don't know who is in charge of this area."

Qin Yuan walked over and stepped on the back of the thug, "Anyway, I have already taken many lives on my body, and I don't care about you guys. If you want to beat or kill me, I will accompany you at any time."

At this moment, the shutter door opened, and another good man rushed in with a gun. Qin Yuan saw that it was the owner of the weapon shop next door. It seemed that he had guessed correctly. These people were all subordinates of Chen Jinguo.

The man who came in had a mustache and looked at Yannio who was lying on the ground, "You kind of trash knows that the people who killed you have told you. In what era is it now, the gun is the most important thing. madness!"

After the man finished speaking, he raised the shotgun in his hand and shot at Qin Yuan. Qin Yuan was faster than he could shoot. He turned over to dodge, and then jumped directly in front of the man, punching him. It hit him on the shoulder, and instantly snatched the shotgun from the man's hand.

The man was taken aback, and before he realized what was going on, the shotgun in Qin Yuan's hand was already on his head, "Your speed is too slow, so I'm ashamed to show myself."

At this time, the subordinate next to him raised his gun and wanted to shoot Qin Yuan. Qin Yuan picked up the mustache with one hand, and pulled the trigger with the other hand, and the bullet flew out, directly knocking the man who was about to shoot away. Going out, this shotgun is very powerful and has a great impact. I didn't expect Qin Yuan to be able to control it with one hand, which is too strong.

At this moment, everyone was stunned. The person in front of them was so powerful that no one dared to act rashly, for fear of being beaten to death by Qin Yuan in the next second.

"Don't try to do little tricks under my nose."

Qin Yuan was talking, and the mustache was dishonest, and he quickly touched his waist. There was still a pistol at his waist. Qin Yuan smiled. These small movements could not escape his eyes. He directly grabbed the arm of the mustache, and held it. He flew out violently and hit the shelf next to him.

The pistol on Mustache's body flew out, and Li Erniu stepped forward to pick it up, "I told you just now, don't make any small moves in front of me."

At this time, the mustache was not lightly hit by this blow. He lay on the ground and yelled. Qin Yuan walked over slowly, changed the magazine, and aimed directly at the head of the mustache. The mustache trembled with fright. Beg for mercy.

"Brother, I was blind just now, I'm sorry, I was wrong, please, please let me go!"

"boom!"

The mustache trembled instantly, unexpectedly, Qin Yuan laughed out loud beside him, he just made a falsetto and some movements, just to scare the man in front of him.

The mustache was a little annoyed that he was teased by Qin Yuan like this, but he didn't dare to say anything, after all, he had a gun in his hand now, and this person was a master of guns.

Qin Yuan also didn't want to make a fuss here, after all, his purpose was to lure the people behind, "Look at the trouble, I just planned to make some money, and we brothers also wanted to eat something, since If you want to make trouble like this, at least give us some compensation, give us three brothers $300,000, and a car."

Standing behind Li Erniu tried his best to hold back his smile and keep a serious face. It was the first time he saw Qin Yuan like this. Usually they would face such criminals, but today they acted as criminals, and Qin Yuan The acting is also very ruthless.

In an instant, I felt that it was a pity for Qin Yuan to be a soldier. With his performance, he could be an actor. He is simply a complete bastard, and he perfectly interprets the aura of a villain.

Qin Yuan saw that the mustache on the ground did not respond, so he fired directly at the side of the mustache. The huge force made a big hole in the floor next to him, flying sand and rocks in an instant, and the face of the mustache was also scratched by the flying shrapnel.

"I'm talking to you, can you give me some feedback? And we have three women."

Mustache got up immediately, "Brother, I'll do it now."

Immediately afterwards, Mustache ran out of the bakery as if fleeing. Although they had an advantage in numbers and everyone was holding weapons, the man in front of him was really terrifying. His speed and reaction were faster than theirs. Hurry up, you just can't beat it at all.

He wasn't going to prepare any money, he was going to report to the boss and ask the boss what to do? Otherwise, call more brothers over.

Qin Yuan pointed a gun at the few people who came in and told them to throw all the guns to the front. These people did not dare to disobey. He Chenguang stepped forward, collected all the guns together, and whispered to Qin Yuan The side said: "Brother Qin, it's fine to ask for money, it's too much for you to ask for a woman, isn't sister-in-law satisfied?"

Qin Yuan rolled his eyes at He Chenguang. He had to do enough to act. Now that he was pretending to be a murderous criminal, he had to convince Chen Jinguo, an old fox, without some special means.

At this moment, the mustache stood in front of Chen Jinguo, covering the wound on his face, "What about the boss? This troublemaker is too strong, we can't beat him."

"You're a bunch of ***** trash. I usually feed you with good food and drink. Are the guns in your hands fire sticks? Is it so easy to be snatched away?"

Chapter 854 Six-digit things

"No, Boss, those three people are really unusual. They look quite fierce. The leader is too strong. One of our brothers was killed by him with a shotgun with one hand."

"Is your kid giving me false information here? How is this possible?"

"Boss, how dare I lie to you. Now my brothers have been kidnapped in the bakery. This is the first time I have encountered this. Usually we are the ones who kidnap others, but I didn't expect to be kidnapped by others."

Mustache is also very helpless, this incident is so troublesome that people don't believe it, and this is their territory, and it is too embarrassing to be cleaned up by others on their own territory.

"Boss, why don't you transfer more brothers to me, and let's just vent our anger, this kid is really crazy."

Chen Jinguo had his own plans. He pondered for a while. These people suddenly came to him mysteriously and made trouble as soon as they came. Worried that his affairs would be exposed, in Yan Country, shooting him several times would not be enough.

"Tell me again about the characteristics of those people, whether they are from the military or the police."

"Boss, this is absolutely impossible. Those people not only have tattoos, but also swear words, and the most important thing is to ask us to give them women. How could this be someone from the military? But the leader said that he carried a lot of lives on his body. Look Come is also a desperado."

Hearing what Xiao Huzi said, Chen Jinguo was still a little worried. This matter must not be sloppy, and he planned to go out to see these mysterious people himself.

He has been hiding for so many years and has laid so many foundations. Being careful is the way to survive, and these people are still from Yan Kingdom, so he has to be careful.

Chen Jinguo came to the bakery with Mustache, surrounded by countless bodyguards, and the street was empty. After all, there was a gun battle here, "Boss, this man's marksmanship is very fast, you have to be careful later."

"Understood, how fast can it be? There are so many people around me, don't they all eat soft food?"

After a while, the door opened, and Qin Yuan looked up to see a man in a suit, who was the same as what they knew, that was Chen Jinguo. Qin Yuan looked at him surrounded by so many bodyguards, who looked afraid of death, he sneered With a sound.

Zeng Guo looked at those subordinates lying on the ground with their heads in their hands, and became very angry. There are so many people, and three of them can't deal with it. He raised a bunch of trash and spread the word, so how can he be the boss.

"You bastards, what does I raise you for? Get out of here."

As soon as Chen Jinguo's words fell, the bodyguards around him quickly fired and shot at Qin Yuan. Qin Yuan turned over and hid behind the bread rack. Li Erniu and the others also picked up shotguns and quickly returned fire.

There was a fierce battle between the two sides for a while. This Zeng country was not timid about this kind of battle scene, and took out a desert eagle from his waist to quickly counterattack. Brother Qin turned over and came in front of Li Erniu and the others, "Remember The bodyguard next to him can hit Chen Jinguo in the middle at will and don't hit him."

"Don't worry, Brother Qin, we will fight wherever you say."

These bodyguards are not vegetarians, they have been well trained, and their weapons are also short submachine guns. This kind of submachine gun has a large number of clips, so there is no need to change the clips frequently. On the contrary, although shotguns are powerful, they need to be Replace magazine.

Brother Qin threw a few throwing knives without using a gun at all, and killed all the bodyguards standing next to Chen Jinguo. Chen Jinguo was shocked, what happened, this knife technique was too fast, and he didn't even see it.

Before fighting for a few minutes, of the dozen or so bodyguards brought in by Chen Jinguo just now, there were only seven or eight of them left in an instant.

"Boss, the people on the other side are too strong. Let's cover your retreat first, and we'll blow up this place with grenades."

Hearing that the person on the other side wanted to use a grenade, those thugs lying on the ground quit, but they were still in the store. If they were to use their hands, wouldn't they be blown to death together? I couldn't control that much in an instant, and everyone got up, and the scene was very chaotic for a while.

Chen Jinguo didn't expect these three people to be so powerful. In order to prevent the situation from getting worse, he could only quickly stop them, and the two sides stopped.

Qin Yuan said disdainfully: "Hehe, I asked you to prepare what I want. Why did you bring these people here? Let me tell you, my patience is very limited. I don't mind killing some more people. I even want to Kill you all."

Chen Jinguo gasped. This man was really arrogant, and he really didn't look like someone from the military. Unexpectedly, what surprised him even more was behind him. Qin Yuan directly raised his gun, "Just now I just wanted to Asking for money, now I've changed my mind, I'm going to kill you all."

Chen Jinguo is a little anxious, this is not the result he wants to see, "We can sit down and talk slowly about what this brother has, whether you need money or something, I can satisfy you, just now it is our side How offended, sorry."

"I made it very clear just now. I need 300,000 US dollars, a car and a few women for us, but now you have completely challenged my patience. I need 600,000 US dollars."

"Hahaha, brother, things like money are trivial things, and we don't know each other. I think you are very skilled. Do you want to consider working with me?"

"Hehe! What can I do with you? Is it as a clerk in this bakery or as your bodyguard? I have never been interested in these things."

Chen Jinguo was not angry when he heard Qin Yuan say this, but rather happy. He knew that such a talent is very rare, and this person is very capable. If he can recruit him as his subordinate, he can just strengthen his own strength.

The mustache next to him also didn't understand, his arm was already heavy in the scuffle just now, and now he was covering the wound on his hand, "Boss can't do it, this person killed many of our brothers, so it's against the rules to recruit him in like this !"

"It's up to me to decide whether to comply with the rules or not. I'm the boss here. You have to recognize it clearly, and you can see that he is 100 times stronger than you trash, so I don't have to spend money to hire you trash. ."

When Xiao Huzi heard what Chen Jinguo said, he lowered his head silently. This is also true. Their strength is indeed not as good as the three people on the opposite side. This is the reality of this society. forgive.

Chen Jinguo smiled, looked at Qin Yuan and said, "Don't be so angry, brother. You see, the people you came here to hurt me even smashed up my shop, but this doesn't affect it at all. These things are all minor problems. , I know that your past must have been difficult, but I will never wrong you here, and I am also a person who does great things."

Brother Qin knew that he had achieved his goal, so he said calmly, "What's the big deal you're talking about? Is there anything more profitable than our way of robbing money? Our brothers don't care so much now, and we have taken a lot of lives anyway. All I want now is money."

At this time, Chen Jinguo directly threw the Desert Eagle in his hand on the ground, expressing his sincerity. The bodyguards next to him turned pale with fright, and rushed to surround him, trying to protect him, but he berated them and told them to go away.

"What are you doing? I want to express my sincerity first. I believe this gentleman is also a smart person."

Qin Yuan knew that Chen Jinguo was also testing him. Although Zeng Guo had lost his pistol on the surface, there were no less than five grenades hidden in his arms. He was indeed an old fox.

But in order to pretend, Brother Qin also pretended not to know, and threw the shotgun in his hand to the side. Chen Jinguo laughed. It seems that this time he made the right bet, and these three people will definitely become his subordinates.

"Brother, you see that we have all met each other frankly, and I'm telling you the truth. I'm telling you that what I'm doing now is the largest white * powder business. With your guts, you shouldn't dare to do it! You guys If you want money, this is the most profitable, and the market here has been monopolized by me."

"If we talk about doing this business, it must be very profitable. There is nothing we brothers dare not do. After all, we dare to kill and are not afraid of death. As long as we can make money, we will follow you."

"Hahaha, not bad, this brother is indeed a bold person. From now on, you will follow me. Don't worry, I will never treat you badly."

Standing behind Qin Yuan, Li Erniu and He Chenguang were shocked. This Qin Yuan's guess was too accurate. Before he guessed that Chen Jinguo was the biggest drug lord, he did not expect that he really guessed it, and now they also It can be regarded as successfully lurking in, and now it is necessary to find evidence of Chen Jinguo's drug lord, and then take him down.

"Bilson, you can make arrangements now. I want to have a good meal with these three brothers and talk about our big business."

"Yes! Boss!"

Qin Yuan smiled. It turned out that the mustache was called Bilson. At this time, he was very unconvinced. Obviously these people killed so many of their brothers, but the boss just recruited them in like this, but there was nothing he could do. This Chen Jinguo was so powerful. Money, they are only doing things with money.

"Our three brothers are not sensible when they first arrived. We just wanted to make some money, but we didn't expect to destroy your place and kill so many of you. Are you really not going to care about us?"

"Brother, you are worrying too much. My name is Chen Jinguo. You can rest assured that you will never treat you badly when you follow me to do things. These things are trivial matters. As for the trash you killed, it can be regarded as helping me clean up the house. , Raising them for such a long time is of no use."

At this time, the thugs on the ground had stood up silently to clean up the mess in the bakery. In this situation, no one complained. It seems that the rich are indeed king. From this, we can also see that Chen Jinguo is ruthless. There is no affection at all.

Qin Yuan originally wanted to use a pseudonym, but he didn't expect that Birson to come out and say: "Mr. Qin, our boss has already made arrangements, you follow us to this way."

This Bilson's attitude is really different. When I went out just now, I looked at my eyes and wanted to kill myself, but now I am willing to lead the way for myself. This kind of person is really too cunning. He is just a fool. The only thing is how he knew his last name.

"This is my offense. During the sparring with you just now, I heard the other two brothers call you Brother Qin, so I also call you Mr. Qin, or I can call you Brother Qin like them. "

"You don't need this one, it's just a title, you can do whatever you want!"

Qin Yuan shook his head, he was really careless, but it's not a problem if he only knows his last name, he can use Qin Zhengyang's name! As for Li Erniu and He Chenguang, their names should not be so outstanding, and there is no problem with using their own names.

When it came to the dining place, Brother Qin could only describe it as luxurious. The difference between this place and the outside was quite different. After entering, it was very luxurious. The walls were covered with exquisite wallpapers and pictures, and the floor was covered with soft carpets. A fine porcelain.

Li Erniu looked at a large blue-and-white porcelain vase in front of him, stepped forward and tapped twice, and the blue-and-white porcelain made a crisp sound, "It's too luxurious to make your decoration! Just this big vase, it is estimated that several Hundred!"

Bilson smiled and explained: "You are joking, this blue and white porcelain was specially auctioned by our boss, and its price is six figures!"

Li Erniu gasped, and quickly withdrew his hand, this man is too exaggerated! The six-figure vase is just placed casually like this, if it is accidentally knocked down by someone, it will be blackmailed.

"It's too exaggerated to buy this broken vase for six figures!"

"Mr. In this dining room, all the porcelains are above six figures, and this vase is the cheapest."

He Chenguang was also very shocked, how much money would he have to earn to get these things!

Bilson looked at Li Erniu's little actions and felt a little funny. No matter how powerful or powerful they are, they are just a few country bumpkins. I really don't know what the boss thinks.

Although they were scolding Qin Yuan in their hearts, they turned their heads and said with a smile: "Mr. Qin, you wait here for a while, the boss is going to change clothes, and the dishes will be served soon."

When that Bilson walked out, Li Erniu said in a low voice: "Brother Qin, if we want to touch these things in the future, don't touch them, let's take them back."

Qin Yuan was very speechless. This kid Li Erniu started to be greedy again. He just wanted to educate him, but he didn't expect him to say: "If these things are exchanged for money, it will be enough to build many schools in our impoverished mountainous areas."

He Chenguang also nodded beside him. Qin Yuan didn't expect Li Erniu to be so enlightened. Before, he thought that this kid was greedy for cheap and wanted to take these things for himself, but he didn't expect to think so far.

Chapter 855 World Class Chess King

"This is no problem. The most important thing is that we collect these evidences and bring these drug lords to justice. That will benefit many people. All these drug lords are the most hateful. How much harm did they create? The wives are separated."

"That's right, Brother Qin, we listen to you for everything, you are simply amazing, you can predict everything, you can predict everything like a god!"

After a while, Chen Jinguo came out. At this time, he changed into casual clothes. After taking off his sunglasses, Brother Qin saw that there was something wrong with his left eye, which seemed to be a fake eyeball.

When he found Qin Yuan staring at him, Chen Jinguo didn't mind, "My eye is from the explosion fragments that hit the eyeball when I was fighting with the anti-drug team in Yan State, so this eye is also blind, but it's okay. , Those people were all killed by me."

Li Erniu clenched his fists, this man really said it with a relaxed face, these drug lords really deserve to die.

Qin Yuan pretended to be surprised and asked: "You even had a war with Yan Guo's anti-drug team. Have you been wanted? Their capabilities are very strong."

"Well, it's all trivial. They found a scapegoat at the time. They didn't know anyway. I'm not short of money, and they couldn't find any evidence why they wanted me, so you should be with smart people like me. Follow me to do things, to ensure your safety."

Qin Yuan nodded, and chatted with Chen Jinguo for a few more words, but when they talked about some key issues, such as how to deal with their drugs, Chen Jinguo just smiled and said that it is a bit early for them to come in contact now, so take it easy Slowly, calmly bypassing these questions, it seems that the old fox still doesn't believe them enough.

Qin Yuan was not in a hurry, anyway, being an undercover agent was like this, let's break into his interior first, and just asked him a few questions tentatively.

After a while, a waiter brought up the dishes. These dishes are really delicacies from mountains and seas, including those that fly in the sky, those that swim in the sea, and those that run on the ground.

Chen Jingguo introduced the dish in front of Qin Yuan with a smile, "Brother Qin, take a look at the plate of black truffles in front of you. If this dish is converted into RMB, it would cost about 50,000 yuan. And that brother The king crab I ate, this is not an ordinary king crab, it is a special king crab in Antarctica, it is very rare."

Li Erniu was eating vigorously, when he suddenly heard that a dish cost 50,000 yuan, he stopped immediately. This is too exaggerated, 50,000 yuan is his allowance for how many months.

"Brothers continue to drive, I just want to tell you this, the table of dishes on our table today is almost 300,000 yuan, every dish is a classic, it's not that I look down on your dishes, you guys Definitely haven't seen it before."

He Chenguang shook his head. Not only had he never seen it, he couldn't even imagine eating more than 300,000 yuan in one meal. It's too wasteful! Chen Jinguo ate the foie gras in front of him, and introduced them to them endlessly. Anyway, it was to show that he was very rich, and he would definitely not lose money if he worked with him.

And Chen Jinguo also wanted to see Qin Yuan's attitude. Until now, Qin Yuan seemed to keep a sense of distance from him, which made him very uncomfortable. He did these things to let Qin Yuan know who is the boss. Chen Jinguo can He didn't want to find some troublesome subordinates for himself, so he might as well not find them.

Qin Yuan is also a smart person, he immediately understood what Chen Jinguo wanted, stood up immediately, clasped his fists at Chen Jinguo and said: "Boss, from now on the three of us brothers will follow you, and you can hit whoever you want. "

With half a crab leg still in his mouth, Li Erniu quickly stood up, his mouth echoing with Qin Yuan's vague sense of loyalty. Chen Jinguo knew that he had achieved his own effect, and it was refreshing to talk to such a smart person. The wine glass entered towards Qin Yuan and the others, then raised his head and took a sip.

"Brothers, don't worry, you don't have to be so cautious, everyone will be your own in the future."

Chen Jinguo ate some casually and felt a little tired. After all, he ate these delicacies every day, so he left first to let Qin Yuan and the others eat well. Someone will arrange a place for him early, and he will arrange for him if there is anything to do.

Qin Yuan nodded, stood up respectfully, and watched him leave. Chen Jinguo was very satisfied with Qin Yuan's performance. This subordinate is very sensible and capable. He wants to see where he can use him. It is to give him a test to see if this person's loyalty is enough. What he wants is not only someone with strong ability, but also someone who is loyal.

It was the first time that Li Erniu beside him couldn't help laughing when he saw Qin Yuan like this, "Brother Qin, you are really at a disadvantage if you don't act, you bastard, I want to beat you up just watching this."

Qin Yuan rolled his eyes at him, "I can't stop you from eating so much food. I don't need it for work. Do you know that this is also very tiring. Can you still count on you two elm bumps?"

He Chenguang smiled and didn't speak. He ate the food in front of him. It was the first time Qin Yuan had eaten these things. Li Erniu even said that he couldn't waste it. This table is 300,000 yuan. He doesn't know how many years he will need To earn 300,000, you have to eat it all.

The waiter next to him saw Li Erniu eating, and laughed instantly, but Li Erniu didn't mind even sitting on the table to eat when he was happy.

"I said why is your kid like a starving ghost, can you control it?"

"How can this be controlled? You don't know that I've never eaten such a good thing. It's too expensive! Although it's not my money, it's wasted. I feel so distressed."

Qin Yuan looked at the decoration inside. This Chen Jinguo really knows how to live. The things inside are very exquisite, and the food is so luxurious. No wonder he didn't talk about the money at all about the Cheng family's ancestral tomb. It's all acceptable. They don't lack money at all, and the money is all he got from doing these businesses.

After they finished eating, Li Erniu was finally satisfied with his swollen stomach. The people next to him also came over and took them to the place where they lived. The room, although it is a room, is no less luxurious than a presidential suite.

There is also a semi-automatic hot spring pool inside, all the furniture is available, and a change of clothes is also sent to them.

Li Erniu couldn't help sighing, "This is really great. I didn't expect the treatment of being a drug lord to be so good. I don't want to go back to the army for a moment."

Qin Yuan kicked Li Erniu on the ass, "Your thinking is very dangerous, do you know how many people's blood and sweat are used to buy these things? This Chen Jinguo does all kinds of evil, and the things he sells are terrible. How many people have been killed, what we use now is the blood of those people, and those anti-drug fighters!"

"Brother Qin, I was wrong, I was wrong, I just said it casually, how dare I have that kind of thought, I was too excited just now."

"It's not okay to just say it casually. This is our discipline and we must abide by it at all times, no matter where we are."

Standing by the window, Qin Yuan looked at the bustling street below. How powerful is this Chen Jinguo? He has performed many undercover missions before, but this place is indeed the most luxurious, but once the evidence is found, he will Getting rid of Chen Jinguo, a big drug lord, would save many families.

In the next few days, Chen Jinguo didn't look for them either. Qin Yuan and the others were really bored, so they could only wander around outside. After all, Qin Yuan was not bad looking. Niu said very contemptuously: "When we go back, we must tell Captain Long. Look at Brother Qin, who has been messing around with women just after he came out. I think he is using the name of the mission to pick up girls for himself."

He Chenguang didn't take it seriously, he felt that Qin Yuan must be looking for news, because Qin Yuan is not that kind of person, besides, those waiters are not good-looking, after all, the good-looking ones here have long been picked up by Chen Jinguo Take it for yourself.

After a while, Qin Yuan came back, and Li Erniu couldn't help teasing him, Qin Yuan didn't bother to explain to the cow, he had already found out a piece of news, it turned out that this Chen Jinguo liked to study food very much, and he was very interested in food. He was very picky, just like what Qin Yuan and the others ate that day, he ate too much, and he felt tired, so he had to change the chef, basically once a week.

In addition, this Chen Jinguo also likes to play Go very much. Qin Yuan intends to start from these two aspects, and first gain Chen Jinguo's complete trust. The problem is that Qin Yuan's cooking is fine, no matter how he cooks, his cooking level is five-star level of.

The main reason is that he has never been in touch with Go, so he hurried up to find out if there are any books about Go tutorials, or if there is Go, as long as he recycles it, he should have the skills.

The two of them didn't understand what Qin Yuan was looking for, so he could only quickly tell them what he found.

"Brother Qin, you can't do this either. I haven't seen you play Go before. I'm afraid it's too late for you to read temporarily now!"

"Don't talk nonsense, you just need to find me a Go tutorial book, or get me a set of Go, and I can learn it in minutes. You, Brother Qin, are not ordinary people."

It seems that this Chen Jinguo really likes Go. In the place where they lived, he found a set of chess pieces. Qin Yuan was overjoyed and quickly took out the Go.

Both Li Erniu and He Chenguang spread their hands and said that Gobang is too advanced, they have never touched it before, and they don't even know it at all. Backgammon is okay.

Qin Yuan didn't speak, shut himself in the room, left Li Erniu and others outside and gave himself a few minutes, and he could learn it right away.

Although Li Erniu and the others were also very curious, how could this be possible? This thing can't be learned just by looking at it, and there are no tutorials, but since it was Qin Yuan's order, they followed it as usual.

Without further ado, Qin Yuan directly put Go into the system grid, and soon the system's notification sound came out in his mind.

"Ding! Congratulations to the host for successfully recovering Go, please make the following skill choices."

"1. A world-class chess king, the host's Go skills have reached world-class, every piece must fall, master level."

"2. Go killing technique, Go can also become a way of killing the host, hitting the target within a range of 100 meters, with a penetration of 50 meters!"

"3. World-class backgammon master, backgammon is also an international game, master level, victorious in every battle."

Qin Yuan was stunned when he saw the third skill. Why did Gobang come up with Gobang? He suddenly realized that this Gobang can indeed be played as Gobang. Now the most tangled thing is the killing technique. Now that he has the skill of flying knife, I didn't expect that Go can also become a murder weapon, which is quite novel.

But what I need most now is the first skill, and if I want to successfully sneak in, I have to do what I like.

"The system chooses the first skill!"

"Ding! Congratulations to the host for choosing to win the title of world-class chess king! Please pay attention to check the skills."

As soon as the system finished speaking, a bright light came into his mind. Qin Yuan closed his eyes and slowly digested. At this moment, a huge chessboard appeared in his mind. He knows exactly where he is.

Qin Yuan didn't expect that Go could be so profound. It took him five minutes to fully comprehend it.

Qin Yuan opened the door and walked out confidently, "Let's go, brothers, let's go to the hall to play Go now and see when that Chen Jinguo will take the bait."

"What! Brother Qin, have you already learned it?"

"Of course Brother Qin, when you say nothing, you will definitely do what I said. You just wait and see."

Just like that, several people came to the hall and put the chessboard on the table next to it with great fanfare. Because neither Li Erniu nor He Chenguang knew how to play chess, Qin Yuan could only walk over and ask the waiters, who can play Go?

At this time, a little girl stood up with her hands up and said that she could play Go, but not very well, just a little bit.

"It's okay, as long as you know how to play, come and play Go with me, let's have a play."

Just like that, Qin Yuan and the waiter played Go in the hall, and the people next to him formed a circle. Although everyone couldn't understand, they still gathered around to join in the fun.

Chen Jinguo lives on the opposite side, because he has laid a golf course directly on the roof of the room as a temporary place to play golf. He plans to leave Qin Yuan and the others alone for a few days. This angle just happens to be able to see the opposite side. In the lobby, he only saw those waiters gathered around, not knowing what they were doing.

"Bilson, go and ask what those people are doing there. I don't like this kind of gathering for nothing. Is it too idle?"

Chapter 856: This is God of Cooking!

Bilson quickly took out a walkie-talkie and asked about the situation on the other side. After a while, the waiters dispersed quickly. When Bilson heard that it was the kid Qin Yuan who did the trick, he ran over to report to the boss in an instant, as long as he caught everything. If this kid made a mistake, he would have to talk it out in front of the boss.

He knew that this kid Qin Yuan had just arrived, and he was paid so much attention by the boss. This was the first time that they were even allowed to live in the presidential suite. He had never enjoyed such treatment after working for Chen Jinguo for so many years.

So I was very jealous of Qin Yuan, and wished that Qin Yuan would make a mistake now, and let the boss punish him properly.

"Boss, I asked clearly. It turned out that Mr. Qin and the others were playing chess below. This kind of behavior is too much. People coming and going take our place as some kind of place, and they are playing around with those waiters. I will immediately go down and punish the waiter on duty today."

Chen Jinguo was stunned when he heard about playing chess. It has been a long time since anyone played chess with him. There were a few players who could play chess here before, but none of them were his opponents. , but that kind of play does not feel too much, or two people face to face game, this is the essence of Go.

"I didn't expect him to be able to play Go. Let's go down and have a look."

Bilson thought that Chen Jinguo was about to lose his temper, and hurried forward to watch the excitement. He walked into the hall first, and saw Qin Yuan sitting there slowly collecting the chess pieces.

"Mr. Qin, it's your honor that our boss has taken a fancy to you, but your idleness has affected the work of our other staff, it's your fault..."

"Get off, you don't have a place to talk here!"

Before Bilson finished speaking, he was interrupted by Chen Jinguo. He hadn't played Go for a long time, so he couldn't miss this opportunity, but why is this Bilson so stupid? Can't it be seen that he wants to play Go? ?

Hearing Chen Jinguo's scolding, Bilson had no choice but to walk on. It was Qin Yuan's luck that he hit the wrong side this time, but he would not be so lucky next time.

Chen Jinguo sat opposite Qin Yuan very happily, "I didn't expect you to know how to play Go. This is very good. Don't be too busy playing Go. I don't know how you are. Let's play Go."

"I'm just as good at playing. I used to like to play, so I just want to accompany the boss to add to the fun."

Chen Jinguo was worried that Qin Yuan would be afraid of his identity and would not show his true strength, so he told him on the spot that as long as he could beat himself, he would give them an extra cash reward.

"Anyway, don't worry about it. I want you to show your true strength, and don't underestimate me. I won the first place in the city competition before."

Qin Yuan smiled, this Chen Jinguo only won the first place in one urban area, what is that, he is world-class, and he can beat him even with his eyes closed.

Li Erniu and the others also came over to watch the excitement. Although they couldn't understand, they were very excited to see Chen Jinguo's expression. It seemed that Qin Yuan's attack was correct, and Chen Jinguo had indeed not met an opponent for a long time.

"Erniu, I think Brother Qin is too good. After studying in the room for a few minutes, he actually knows how to play Go."

"That is, I think this thing is too complicated, even if you give me a week, I may not be able to."

Chen Jinguo was very pleasantly surprised, this Qin Yuan is really good, what he wants is such an opponent, and Qin Yuan has actually restrained himself a bit, after all, if he tried his best, Chen Jinguo would have lost long ago, he just slowly Fish him, play with him, get him interested.

Today, Qin Yuan won two games, and let Chen Jinguo win one game. He kept hanging on him like this. Chen Jinguo became more and more interested in playing Go. Li Erniu next to him fell asleep on the stool. This Go game is really too slow. Yes, they came down at one stroke, and it took about ten or twenty minutes, and they couldn't understand the key point, and it was hard to go back first, so they could only wait here for Qin Yuan.

Gradually, it was completely dark when they played chess, and Bilson didn't dare to disturb Chen Jinguo. After all, when Chen Jinguo was playing chess, he was most focused. If someone disturbed him at this time, he would definitely lose his temper.

Qin Yuan quietly let him play a few more pieces, and Chen Jinguo won, happily picking up the pieces on the chessboard, "It's really cool, I had a great time playing today, brother, let's play some more. "

"Boss, we've been playing for four or five hours. It's getting dark outside. Would you like to have something to eat first? I have time anytime. I can accompany you if you want."

When Qin Yuan said this, Chen Jinguo raised his watch and looked at it. It was already past 7 o'clock. He didn't expect the time to play chess to pass so quickly. It was too boring to play chess with those people before. They all gave in to him. Or it's just that his chess skills are so bad that he doesn't like it at all.

"Well, it's not important for us to play another game for dinner. The most important thing is that the more we play today, the happier we are. It's hard to catch you. You're really hiding yourself, kid, and you're so good at chess."

Qin Yuan smiled and didn't say anything, let's hang on to him slowly after this has happened, anyway, gain his trust first, these things are not in a hurry.

At this moment, Bilson ran in in a panic. He didn't want to disturb Chen Jinguo's interest, but the matter was urgent and he had to report to the boss.

When Chen Jinguo was disturbed, he felt a little displeased for a moment, "Why are you in such a panic, how decent is it? Besides, didn't I say, it's best not to disturb me when I'm playing chess."

Bilson walked up to Chen Jinguo with his head down, lowered his body, and said something in his ear. Chen Jinguo's face changed instantly, and he stood up quickly. He didn't even say hello to Qin Yuan, but asked Qin Yuan when he was about to leave. Tomorrow will continue, he has something to deal with now, so he ran out in a hurry.

Although Bilson's words were small, Qin Yuan's hearing was very quick. He had already heard what Bilson said was an accident at the factory. Qin Yuan stood up and looked at the direction Chen Jinguo was leaving. Factory? It must be their own drug manufacturing factory, otherwise he would not be able to make much money as a middle-man businessman with so many people.

Qin Yuan walked over and kicked Li Erniu and He Chenguang who were asleep, "Let's go, let's have something to eat and continue tomorrow."

The next day, Qin Yuan did not go to the hall, but waited in the room to see if Chen Jinguo would come to him. After all, he should not be so proactive. Too proactive would arouse suspicion. Unexpectedly, after waiting for a day, Chen Jinguo did not. When he came back, it seemed that there was a lot going on at the factory, and he hadn't resolved it yet.

However, Qin Yuan has not been idle these days. Chen Jinguo disappeared for a week after his disappearance. I want to cook some local food.

Then I cooked a lot of dishes for those waiters, and those waiters didn't expect such a good thing, and they didn't have to do anything, Qin Yuan came to cook, and they could eat for free. The most important thing is that the dishes Qin Yuan cooked were really good too delicious.

Whether it's cakes, pastries, seafood or even an ordinary fried rice, everyone is full of praise.

Because Chen Jinguo's taste is very picky, he has a professional chef team. Because everyone is full of praise, the chef team is also curious. After all, it is very difficult for them to serve Chen Jinguo with such a picky taste every day. Thinking about various dishes.

The head chef personally came to Qin Yuan and the others to taste the taste of Qin Yuan's dishes. If they were really so delicious, they could just learn from him.

Unexpectedly, Qin Yuan made an ordinary fried rice with eggs today. The head chef is a five-star chef, and he disdained it very much. What's so special about such a bowl of ordinary fried rice with eggs? And some waiters next to them couldn't wait for the bowls and chopsticks to be shared when they were ready to be cooked.

"Mr. Qin, I originally wanted to see what's so good about you. After all, these days they said that your dishes are very delicious, even surpassing mine, but I also look very ordinary."

Qin Yuan smiled, didn't say anything, directly scooped up a bowl of rice and handed it to the head chef, signaling to let her taste the taste first, the head chef looked down on him very much, after all, what he cooks is delicacies from mountains and seas, what ingredients are the most rare, He just does whatever he wants. He has never tried this kind of fried rice with eggs. He thinks it's all junk food, and it's not worthy of a five-star chef like him.

But thinking that it's already here anyway, why not taste how it tastes, he picked up the spoon, took a mouthful of rice in his mouth, and instantly felt his taste buds explode, it tastes so good! After taking a bite, you can't help but continue to eat, it is simply too delicious.

The head chef wanted to continue scooping rice from the pot, but Li Erniu came over and slapped him on the hand, "That's enough for you, kid, you just came here and beeped, and you want to eat a few more bowls, we have so many People haven't eaten yet, so if you want to eat, go to the queue at the back."

This five-star chef never thought that this bowl of fried rice with eggs is the best thing he has ever eaten in his life. Not only is it delicious, but this bowl of fried rice with eggs can also give people a sense of happiness , the chef made it with love, and it is very warm and delicious after eating.

He was completely stunned, looking at Qin Yuan's eyes, from disdain at the beginning to admiration now, "Mr. Qin, I would like to ask, is your rice with eggs, are they some special ingredients?"

Because the ratio of this egg fried rice is very simple, you can only see eggs and rice, and sprinkled a little green onion when it comes out of the pan. The head chef seriously suspects that this egg must be one in a million, and this rice, said Adventitious rice is also specially selected high-quality rice.

"No, this rice is the leftover cold rice they ate last night, and the eggs were never taken from the refrigerator. There is nothing special about it."

The head chef was completely stunned. How did he make such a delicious thing with such ordinary ingredients? The head chef suddenly thought that when he just started to learn from a master, his master said that the more powerful the chef, the better he can make simple food to the extreme.

It seems that Qin Yuan is this kind of figure at the level of a kitchen god. The head chef pulled Qin Yuan with a look of admiration, "Mr. Qin, no, Master Qin, teach me! How do you do this? No matter what I pay No matter how hard you work, you can charge tuition or ask me to do anything, please teach me this skill."

The chef's team saw that the chef hadn't come back, so they came here to look for him. They didn't expect to see the chef begging Qin Yuan to teach him how to cook when they came in. What's going on?

This is too exaggerated, this head chef is the most famous chef in country F, and has won countless gourmet awards, and now he is praying to an ordinary person to let him teach him how to cook, which makes people dare not Believe.

Qin Yuan just said lightly: "I have nothing to teach about this, because I don't think the ingredients are important, the most important thing is the heat, and the proportion of seasonings. Anyway, I can't explain this thing clearly, after all, I haven't taught it before. People, I have always cooked so delicious food, after all, you master chefs all learned from school, so I don't know about that."

The chefs next to him saw that their master was so condescending to others, and Qin Yuan's tone was too arrogant! He was very unconvinced and said: "Hey! Although you are the guest invited by the boss, and the boss said that he will respect you very much, but it is too exaggerated for you to say that, and you don't even look at where our master graduated from."

The head chef next to him hurriedly took his apprentice and told them to stop talking, this Qin Yuan is a real chef god, he is too low-key, it is impossible to see that he is hiding something! Those apprentices were also dubious. After trying the egg fried rice next to it for a long time, they were shocked. It was so delicious.

Those delicacies from mountains and seas before, such as black truffles that cost hundreds of dollars per gram, are nothing to mention in front of this bowl of egg fried rice.

Li Erniu looked at this group of people very speechless, this is too exaggerated, whether they came to eat or just came to eat, each and every one of them ate all their food like starving ghosts.

And there is no cold food, Qin Yuan saw that Li Erniu and the others hadn't eaten yet, so he found some ingredients and planned to make a pasta. This is also the simplest, and what surprised everyone is still behind Qin. Yuan's sword technique is simply too good, the sword seems to grow in his hand.

An onion quickly turned into chopped onions in his hand, the speed was really too fast, and then he mixed a black pepper sauce, this pasta is black pepper flavor, after all, Li Erniu and the others don't like it Tomato.

Li Erniu looked at the envious eyes of the people next to him, and was very proud. No matter what they did, Brother Qin was an absolutely good man who could go to the hall and work in the kitchen, and the food he cooked was really delicious.

Chapter 857 Gaining Trust

Qin Yuan didn't care how much they ate. Anyway, he just cooked as much as he could. The main reason was to let these people spread the fact that his cooking was delicious. If Chen Jinguo knew, it would be closer to him getting inside step.

Everyone ate happily. The dishes made by Qin Yuan are really delicious. They are all very simple and common ingredients, but after his processing, they are very delicious. At this moment, Bilson left angrily Come in.

"What the ***** are you doing? Shelth, you are the boss's exclusive chef. Don't you want to do it? Now that the boss is back, you guys haven't cooked yet!"

The chef was taken aback. He forgot about it, because it was stipulated before that no matter whether the boss came back or not, they had to prepare the meals, because the boss hadn't come back these days, and he didn't think so much. It took so long at Qin Yuan's place.

Bilson saw that it was Qin Yuan who was responsible again. He brought the waiters there to make a fuss, and he was appreciated by his boss by surprise. He didn't expect him to be here now.

He suddenly sneered, he could just use this to report to the boss, let him see how unscrupulous Qin Yuan is, why should he support such an idler? He followed the boss to come and go in the wind and rain every day, and he did everything by himself. How could Qin Yuan and the others live comfortably in this villa.

On the surface, he said with a smile: "It turns out that Mr. Qin is here! It's okay, I'll go and tell the boss now, after all, the boss values you very much, and the boss probably won't blame you."

The head chef next to him hurriedly grabbed Bilson, who was a slippery man, and he was the best at complaining. If he said a few words with embellishments, let alone working here, the boss probably got angry, and it would kill him. .

"Bilson, there's no need for us to be so extreme. After all, I haven't offended you before. I'm going to cook right now. With my speed, I can get the boss to eat in half an hour. We'll let you know about this matter." It's over like this, I still have a few bottles of good wine, I will bring them to you later."

Unexpectedly, Bilson shook off the head chef's hand in disdain, "Friends, I really regard you as friends, and I will definitely say it in front of the boss. As for drinking, there is no need, I have already Quit drinking."

The head chef saw that no matter what he said, it was useless, so he leaned against the wall behind him for a moment.

Unexpectedly, Qin Yuan came up and patted him on the shoulder at this time, "It's okay, I will take care of any problems, and I believe that I will never have any problems, but wait a minute, if the boss asks you, you must say, Because the dishes I cook are delicious, you come to learn from me, this will save your life, you know?"

The head chef still cares so much now, since someone wants to come out to be the best, he nodded quickly, no matter what happens later, he will definitely excuse himself, although Qin Yuan is really good at cooking, but facing a cold person like Chen Jinguo Life-saving is still the most important thing.

Chen Jinguo just came back here, he had already changed his clothes, and he was very annoyed that the food hadn't been served yet. He usually doesn't eat out, because for the sake of safety, he always comes back to eat, and Bilson is here again at this time She whispered a lot about Qin Yuan in her ear.

"Boss, you simply don't know. That Mr. Qin is terrible. He directly bewitched all the people in your back kitchen and their kitchen, and they all ate there. His dishes are amazing."

"What's the situation? What's going on here? Does Shelth really don't want to do it?"

"Boss, I think it's not just Sheers, but the most important thing is Mr. Qin. I think he's going to treat this place as his own territory. He really doesn't know what to do. You obviously use him so much."

Chen Jinguo was very angry when he was told this, so he hurriedly called Sheers up, and he wanted to ask what was going on. At this time, Bilson was hiding behind and laughing. His goal had been achieved, and he was about to Look at what the head chef said, when the time comes in an emergency, in order to protect himself, let them say more bad things about Qin Yuan!

Sure enough, after the head chef came up, he immediately shifted the responsibility to Qin Yuan, but what he said was that the dishes made by Qin Yuan were really delicious, and they were only learning from them, in order to better serve the boss.

"What? There are people you admire. You are the most famous chef. I spent so much money here, but you think his dishes are delicious."

"Reporting boss, this is true, and it is also the first time I admire someone other than my master. Although Mr. Qin's dishes are made of ordinary ingredients, they are very delicious."

When the head chef said this, Chen Jinguo also felt curious, and he called up a few waiters, who all praised Qin Yuan's delicious dishes in unison, and they didn't look like they were lying.

Since they all said that Qin Yuan's dishes are delicious, let him cook a few to see. If he can't meet his requirements, then he will be rude to this Qin Yuan. He really feels that he is not there. In the past few days, how come this kid has become more and more disciplined, and the service staff all praised him so much.

Bilson was already happy at the moment, and he was going to see that kid make a fool of himself later. He has been by the boss's side for so many years, including this five-star chef. No one has ever won the boss's dishes. 100% approval, he thinks this chef is only at an acceptable level.

What good can a bumpkin like that do? Later, as long as he is not satisfied with what he has made, he will quickly talk to the boss and drive him out. He always feels that this Qin Yuan will threaten his status in the future. After all, the boss already attaches great importance to him now. .

At this time, the head chef rushed to the back kitchen and told Qin Yuan that the boss asked him to cook. He also looked at Qin Yuan very sorry. Just now, out of self-protection, it gave up the group members, but he I still believe in Qin Yuan's ability to cook. After all, if he gets his approval, he will definitely get the boss's approval as well.

"Mr. Qin, you must work hard, that Bilson is so bad, he keeps talking bad about you."

Qin Yuan nodded. Cooking is such a small matter that he can't get himself at all, and then he came to the chef's kitchen. This is a place for cooking for Chen Jinguo, and there are all kinds of ingredients in it.

Moreover, there is even a cow standing in the back yard. Qin Yuan still wonders why there are cows raised in this place. The head chef explained that this cow was specially airlifted from country O because Chen Jinguo's taste is very special. Picky, he wants to eat the freshest ingredients, so they are all freshly slaughtered.

"Mr. Qin, I don't know what kind of dishes you want to cook. If you need beef, let's kill the cow now."

Qin Yuan shook his head, what kind of strange problem is this, he is really self-willed when he has money, and he is not used to him, seeing that the ingredients have been prepared, if there are potatoes and carrots, then give him Yangzhou fried rice.

Although Yangzhou fried rice sounds ordinary, it is quite difficult to make. The cook must master the heat and egg fried rice. The simpler the ingredients, the more difficult it is to make.

Qin Yuan shredded potatoes and carrots in a hurry, and salted the remaining carrots and white radishes.

The head chef is looking at the ingredients that are frightening. To them, they are leftovers. They usually only take the freshest part when cooking, like carrots. Unexpectedly, Qin Yuan directly made pickles for him.

For a moment, he was a little worried about whether it would be delicious. The boss is very picky about his taste, "Mr. Qin, you don't need to pay for this carrot. We have a lot of these carrots here, and they are of special grade. You can use the freshest as much as you want." part, the rest can be thrown away."

"I'm sorry, I'm used to saving and I'm not used to wasting. Besides, isn't this carrot very good? Why throw it away? The most important thing for a chef is not the ingredients, but how he treats the ingredients."

The head chef quickly wrote down this sentence. It was said by Chef Qin Yuanqin. Could it be that this is the secret of God of Cooking? After a while, a plate of Yangzhou fried rice came out of the pan, and the fragrance wafted out of the whole kitchen in an instant.

Counting the time, the pickled vegetables next to it were just right, and they were already marinated to taste. He added soy sauce, vinegar, and millet seasonings, and a plate of Yangzhou fried rice and a plate of radish and pickles looked very ordinary.

No one dared to present such a dish. Everyone knew that Chen Jinguo might immediately get angry when he saw this kind of dish. Qin Yuan went straight up to the dish he found on the plate.

At this time, Chen Jinguo was sitting in front of the dining table with a serious face. He wanted to see what kind of ingredients this Qin Yuan could make. In addition, what happened in the factory this time caused him a lot of losses. When encountering this kind of thing, if Qin Yuan can't satisfy him, then let him leave immediately.

At this time, Qin Yuan brought up the dishes, and Chen Jinguo looked at them curiously. It turned out to be a plate of fried rice and a plate of radish and pickles. What the **** is this?

In an instant, he slapped the table and got angry, "What do you mean, you just use this kind of junk to fool me? Or you can only make this kind of thing."

Qin Yuan held back his breath, thinking to wait until later to settle accounts with him, now everything is for lurking and finding evidence, still said with a smile: "Boss, this is not ordinary fried rice, you can taste it now, and then eat it." Make a conclusion, if this fried rice is not to your taste, my brother and I are at your disposal, and I know that this period of time has also caused you trouble."

"Hmph, it's good that you know. I don't raise idlers here. I wanted to observe you. I didn't expect you to make a lot of noise. You have to understand that I am the boss here."

"I definitely don't dare to forget this. I always knew that you are the boss. I actually miss my hometown when I cook in the back. The dishes I cook here really don't suit my taste."

Bilson took the opportunity to stand up, "You are really arrogant. There are so many gold medal chefs here, Boss, they can't serve you anymore. It seems that you really want to go to heaven."

Chen Jinguo was a little impatient and didn't want to eat this meal at all. How could he eat such an ordinary thing? But now standing in Pai Yangzhou, the fried rice was placed in front of him, he could smell the tangy aroma, and it looked very attractive, could it be that he was too hungry? Would be interested to see something like this.

Chen Jinguo didn't know what was going on, so he picked up the chopsticks and tasted it. In an instant, he felt that he was wrong just now. This plate of fried rice was simply delicious. It was the best food he had ever eaten. I picked up a carrot with chopsticks and ate it. It was very crisp, and it was very greasy after being served with fried rice.

He ate the fried rice with big mouthfuls, and Bilson next to him was stunned. Since when did the boss eat such a big mouthful? Is it really so delicious?

The more Chen Jinguo ate this fried rice, it was not only delicious, but also reminded him of his hometown. The taste of this fried rice was like the taste of home. He didn't let it go either.

"Brother Qin, this dish you made is really delicious. I haven't eaten so much food for a long time. I think what they cook is rubbish. I have eaten all kinds of delicacies from mountains and seas, no matter how many ingredients there are. Expensive, as long as it is delicious, I have tried it at but it is nothing compared to your bowl of fried rice!"

"As long as the boss likes it, I just used to cook for my family at home, so the food I cook is relatively delicious."

Chen Jinguo stepped forward excitedly, pulling Qin Yuan with emotion. This bowl of fried rice reminded him of many things, and he relaxed his vigilance towards Qin Yuan a lot. This is simply top-notch delicacy. It seems that he misunderstood Qin Yuan just now Oh, I didn't expect this person to be so powerful.

In this way, Qin Yuan relied on playing chess, and cooking for Chen Jinguo every day. Slowly, Chen Jinguo trusted Qin Yuan 100%. Just after playing chess that day, Chen Jinguo answered a phone call, turned around and asked Qin Yuan to come in. Go up and pack their things, they have rested for so many days, it's time for them to go out for activities.

Qin Yuan knew that the time had finally come, but he didn't know where Chen Jinhui would take them, and even if Zeng Guo already trusted him very much, Qin Yuan and the others still needed to wear black cloths when they set off.

Chen Jinguo explained next to him, "I hope the brothers don't mind, after all, I am also working with others to do this. This time I will take you to their site. I will take you to the back of our factory. Today is mainly Those who go to trade, with your ability, you should be able to protect me."

Chapter 858: Several people who were shocked

Boss, don't worry, with the few of us around, no one will hurt you. "

Qin Yuan originally planned to do it today, but he didn't expect that Chen Jinguo took them to other people's trading place, but this way he could get evidence, and he could take pictures of their trading.

In the past, when targeting these drug lords, he had already rushed forward and dealt with them all, but this Chen Jinguo is indeed a bit special, because he involved too many people, including a lot of things like the Chen family's grave before. , How many lives were killed there.

All of these things have to take him back to the country and accept legal sanctions. After all, he has been at large. For so many years, it is too cheap to kill him with one shot. Qin Yuan wants to personally ***** the drug lord back to the country and accept the people trial.

At this moment, Qin Yuan lowered his head, and turned the button on his chest inadvertently. This button is a miniature camera, which was given to him by Gao Shiwei before he left. It has always been there before, but he thinks it is useless at all. This time I just took it with me when I thought about it, but I didn't expect it to be used now.

The vehicle turned around and then they arrived at a pier. Although Qin Yuan was covered with a black cloth, his other senses were very sensitive and he could perceive everything in the outside world. He could smell the smell of gun oil and was very close to him. , the number is still quite a lot.

There were more than 20 armed men with guns standing in two rows on the side of the pier. They were all waiting to welcome Chen Jinguo. These people did not speak, and with Chen Jinguo's signal, they directly took the three of them to the boat.

What followed was a long wandering, and Chen Jinguo didn't talk to them, so he arranged them in a room and went out. After Qin Yuan heard that there was no movement at all, he quietly took off the blindfold. The place they were in was a closed room. Space, no wonder Chen Jinhui left so relieved.

There were only a few small holes in the floor under his feet. Qin Yuan, who was swaying along the way, smelled the engine oil in the cabin. It seemed that they were under the cabin.

Li Erniu said in a low voice: "His grandma, what the **** is this Chen Jinguo doing? Where is he taking us? Is he trying to harm us?"

"Don't worry, there's no problem. If he wanted to kill him, we would have already done it in the villa. Why bother taking us outside? It seems that he attaches great importance to this transaction."

"Er Niu, don't complain, kid. Brother Qin hasn't said anything yet. Anyway, we can just follow Brother Qin's orders for this operation. It's fine."

"Besides, I don't know if you smelled the smell of Qianniu just now. According to the smell of this gun oil, it should be a pure rice domestic product, all of which are M16. These are all good products!"

Li Erniu looked at Qin Yuan in shock. His nose is too good. If he can smell the smell of oil, it's nothing. He can smell the model of the gun, which is too good. Bar!

Qin Yuan suddenly changed the subject, "The two of you can't smell anything, right? That's not okay. I have to give you special training after I go back. I remember that I also gave you a training on the sense of smell before. Why are you so fast? Just forget it?"

Hearing what Qin Yuan said, Li Erniu hurriedly pretended to be seasick. At that time, he was blind after all, and he was very nervous. If you don't see it, then you have to use all other senses to feel what is in front of you.

In fact, Qin Yuan also knew that if they acted alone, they would be very capable, but they were there at that time, so they wanted to rely on themselves instead of taking the initiative to solve it.

I don't know how long this boat will be sailing, Qin Yuan asked Li Erniu and the others to rest first, and recharge their batteries! There was only a straw mat spread out in the small space, and the two of them leaned on Qin Yuan's back and swayed in the boat. After a while, Li Erniu really started snoring.

"Brother Qin, listen, this kid has a big heart, he can still sleep under such circumstances."

What makes Qin Yuan feel strange is that this ship stops and goes. Generally, ships going out to sea like this all the way to the destination. Unless they encounter a vortex, or do not know the route, they will stop to study the route. After all, you have to follow the compass on the sea, but their stop is a bit strange, as if they are avoiding something.

Qin Yuan doubted whether they would be in the high sea area because there would be patrol ships on the high seas, or if they had reached the border waters of a certain country, they stopped just to avoid the inspection of the patrol ships.

He guessed right. At the moment, Chen Jinguo was in the cab with a serious face, and Bilson next to him said cursingly: "Damn, these patrol boats are so annoying. It's obviously a three-hour journey. In order to get around After driving them, we had to walk out for more than five hours."

"Don't be too impatient, it's also for safety's sake."

"Boss, actually, I don't think we have anything on board now, and after all, we are all legally possessing guns, so there is no problem for us to go out like this."

Chen Jinguo turned to look at Bilson, and he didn't dare to speak for a moment. It wasn't a question of whether it was legal or not, but that he didn't want others to know that he had participated in these things. This was his self-protection method for so many years. Well, he doesn't do anything himself, except for big business deals like this one.

The partner of this transaction has been cooperating for many years. I didn't expect them to ask for 1,000 kilograms of goods this time. This partner has also had dinner with him before, and they have met several times. See There is no problem coming, and he also has his own forces in the border area over there.

For Qin Yuan and the others, he is more at ease now. He has always stayed with these people, and he has also investigated them. He has no contact with the military or the police. It's just that these people are very skilled. When they came out together, after all, they arrived at the territory of the boss. The boss had his own army, and he was also worried about the situation of gangsters eating gangsters.

After drifting on the sea for a while, Qin Yuan felt that the boat had stopped, and it had stopped for quite a long time this time, and he heard the sound from above that it should have stopped on the coast and was building the planks of the ship. Li Erniu woke up, and the three continued to put on the black cloth blindfolds.

At this time, someone came in and took them out, and they could smell a smell of tobacco from a distance, which was the smell of cigars that Chen Jinguo often smoked.

"The three brothers have also made you suffer along the way, but it's a special situation, because there are people from Boss Abi who came to meet us."

"It's not hard work, as long as it's for the boss."

Bilson looked at Qin Yuan contemptuously from the side. He was so disdainful before, but now he has become a lackey who keeps currying favor with Chen Jinguo.

Chen Jinguo laughed out loud. It is the best thing for such a strong person to stay by his side. Moreover, the way this person speaks and handles things makes him feel very comfortable, which is much better than that of Bilson. The most important thing is The most important thing is that this person is very capable, and it really is easier to do things with more money.

In this way, after Qin Yuan and the others got off the boat, they walked on to a dirt road, because the road was paved with small stones. After walking for a while, someone in front told them to stop in the language of Xiao Myanmar.

Chen Jinguo knew the language of Little Myanmar, "Brother, I'm here to talk to your boss, you should have met me."

"I know I know you and the guy next to you, but what about those three people behind you wearing blindfolds? Are you so unruly? Our boss never sees strangers, after all, no one Know if they are undercover or not."

Chen Jinguo wasn't even annoyed after being told this by this person. After all, in his territory, Chen Jinguo always said what he did, and he managed so many subordinates to be beaten back by one person like this.

Bilson next to him couldn't stand it anymore, he stood up and said loudly: "What's your attitude? Don't you know that our boss is your boss's friend? Besides, you don't have a place to speak here, so hurry up and take us Go see your boss, don't waste time."

The person on the opposite side was not a vegetarian either. Hearing Bilson's threat, he raised the light machine gun in his hand, and then more than a dozen people rushed out of the nearby jungle. These people were fully armed. Qin Yuan also heard the grenade The sound of collision hanging from the waist.

Chen Jinguo hurriedly came out to explain, "This brother is from my side, and his words are a bit abrupt, but you have to believe that we have cooperated so many times, we are all friends, and I must understand the rules. These brothers are worthy Trust me, especially the latter one, he is my distant relative, and I guarantee with my life that there will be no problem."

The person opposite was a little hesitant. Thinking about it this way, it's not surprising that Chen Jinguo brought someone here. After all, they have an army on their side, and indeed he is also the partner of the boss. It's okay if the relationship is too tense.

"Brothers put away the guns first, wait for me to report to the boss."

"Yes, little brother, you should have seen me. We have been here several times. Tell your boss, and these brothers came here all the time. I was blindfolded. They don't know The route, this is also done according to your rules, and your people are all on board, so they should know it too."

It was only when Qin Yuan heard this that he realized that the people carrying the M16 just now were not from Chen Jinguo. This Chen Jinguo must have been too courageous, he only brought Bilson and the three of them.

At this time, Chen Jinguo also ordered them to take off the blindfolds, because it was the same way when they came before, and it will be fine after arriving at the destination. Qin Yuan walked to Chen Jinguo's side while observing the surroundings.

"Boss Chen, it's not right, there are only four of us, don't you worry? I see that the weapons of these people are not ordinary."

Chen Jinguo smiled and shook his head, "So I brought you guys with me, of course I won't let you give it away, I'm sure of it myself, look at what I'm carrying in my hand, this sample is We produce the best here, and he will not do anything to us based on this thing, after all, what everyone has to consider is long-term cooperation."

Qin Yuan nodded and sniffed hard. It is true that the smell inside the box is very strong. It is surrounded by huge banana trees. There is a river in front of it. There are some militants stationed on the opposite side of the river bank. There are three heavy firepower points. , and there are snipers on the lighthouse.

This armed equipment is indeed very strong. It seems that the boss Abby Chen Jinguo talked about just now should have participated in real battlefields. His equipment is very professional, and it is easy to defend but difficult to attack. According to this terrain.

Qin Yuan tried his best to recall the drug dealers he had contacted, as well as those who were wanted. He had never heard of this Boss Abby. Didn't he say his full name? As long as he knew the drug dealer's name, he knew they were now What position are they in? Because they are performing various missions abroad, some arrest warrants will be issued internationally.

Like these well-known drug lords, each occupies a location, and there will be a general location range.

After a while, the soldier who was not allowed to go in ran over to report, telling them that Boss Abi allowed them to go in.

Chen Jinguo smiled, and patted the box, "Don't worry, little brother, the goods in my hand are definitely at the price of your boss."

Li Erniu stretched out his head to look at the big river in front of him, and felt a little strange, why didn't these people build a bridge, did they all go by boat or swim?

"These people are too lazy, they are stationed here. Why don't they even repair a bridge? This is simply too inconvenient. Do we want us to swim across? The boat didn't see it either."

"Our ride is here, ready to go."

Their riding tools turned out to be elephants. The people on the opposite side brought several elephants, and they sat on the elephants. They crossed the river like this. It was the first time for Li Erniu to ride an elephant. It was very novel. Using this most primitive tool for crossing the river is too exaggerated!

"You kid is really simple-minded. It's not primitive, and it's more convenient to do so. They don't leave boats in such a wide river. Even if the enemy invades, they can stop the enemy's footsteps. And these elephants are still there at the critical moment." can become an offensive weapon."

Chen Jinguo nodded in satisfaction at the side. This Qin Yuan is really well-informed. When I came here for the first time, I did have such doubts. I couldn't figure it out for a while. It was Boss Abi who explained to him, and then he understood. Thinking that Qin Yuan saw through it just after he came, it's really amazing.

In this way, everyone rode an elephant across the river and entered the camp that had been built. After entering, it was an eye-opener. Qin Yuan was stunned instantly. Looking around, there were almost a dozen acres, all of which were planted. Poppies, this is the most basic material.

Chapter 859: It turned out to be a cook

Many workers wearing headscarves were busy picking and harvesting in the field. The indifferent expressions of those workers made Qin Yuan feel as if they were just harvesting ordinary agricultural products, not the raw poison that everyone was afraid of.

At this time, a man's voice sounded, and Qin Yuan followed the sound. He was a man of medium height with a mustache, "Brother Chen, I am looking forward to your arrival very much."

"Boss Abby, I didn't expect you to come out to greet him in person, hahaha, it seems that your life here is prosperous."

Boss Abby shook his head, "My place is so prosperous, but yours is more comfortable. You don't have to worry about wars every day, and I am self-sufficient here. After all, if I don't do these things, you can see that so many people will be They're all going to starve to death."

Through the conversation between the two, Qin Yuan found out that the boss of Abi was formed by a local armed force himself, and he proclaimed himself a general, because their side has been in war all the time, and the government has long since ignored the people. The boss still has a conscience, and all the homeless refugees are gathered here, just to help him plant these poppies.

Li Erniu was also completely stunned by the scene in front of him. It was the first time he saw so many poppies, because the suppression of such things in China was very heavy, and such a large area was really shocking.

Moreover, Boss Abby has his own production factory here. After the raw materials are collected, they are polished and produced in the simplest way, but now there are many new varieties, and the sales of these things he grows are difficult to sell as basic raw materials. Others, others processed.

So he couldn't make much money at all, so he wanted to cooperate with Chen Jinguo. After all, Chen Jinguo had several factories like this, and he could provide Chen Jinguo with such raw materials.

Boss Abby did not take them directly to the living room, but took them to the back of a building. The scene here is even more shocking, a huge missile crater, and the soil around the big crater has been burned black, smelling The taste is very fresh, it should be the last two days.

"Brother Chen, look at me. Although I have so many raw materials grown on land, those international agents will not let me go. Once they find out where I live, they dropped a missile directly from here yesterday. A dozen migrant workers who were working in the fields were killed instantly."

Speaking of this, Boss Abi seemed to be heartbroken, which surprised Qin Yuan. After all, almost all drug lords like this are ruthless, but it doesn't look like he is pretending.

"I didn't expect your complete life to be so miserable. I was quite envious of you before. After all, you have the power of an army, and I still think of you as the emperor here."

"It's just that people outside look at the scenery. To achieve this position, there are too many things to worry about. I may retire in a few years. After all, this thing is not a long-term solution. The repression is getting worse."

"Don't! If you are worried about the location, I will find it for you. I am short of people who can provide raw materials. After all, there are not many partners I can trust. We have cooperated several times. I think you are quite trustworthy. of."

"Brother Chen, some people can't afford to make too much money, and you can almost stop it. I have to support so many people, and several of my partners have been chased and killed by the international community. Jinpen quit, and my most trusted subordinate before branched out to work on his own, and was killed by a special soldier named Qin Yuan last month."

When Qin Yuan heard that Boss Abi was talking about himself, he felt a little guilty for a moment. How do you describe this feeling? The real lord is in front of them, but they don't know it. Qin Yuan thought carefully about killing so many drug dealers before, how could he remember who was with whom.

"Oh! Is there such a powerful person? By the way, let me introduce to you that my brother is also named Qin Yan, but his name is not the one you mentioned, it's just a homonym. This brother is completely trustworthy. Maybe later That's him coming to meet you."

After Boss Abi heard what Chen Jinguo said, he turned his head and looked at Qin Yuan. After all, he had never seen what Qin Yuan looked like, and he didn't think much about it. After all, he was brought by Chen Jinguo. This Chen Jinguo was very cautious. Those who come should have no problem.

Qin Yuan breathed a sigh of relief. Fortunately, when he asked himself, he hurriedly said a homophonic name, otherwise it would be embarrassing.

Then Chen Jinguo and Boss Abi went into the house to discuss business, and the two sent everyone out. Qin Yuan stood outside the house, looking at the large fields of poppies, wishing to burn them all with a torch right now. , These are all harmful things. If there is no sale, there will be no killing. Drug dealers can't be killed, but we should start to solve them at the source, and we should eradicate all these sources.

At this time, a few children in the distance were chatting and laughing and playing with poppies. These children didn't know the danger of this kind of thing, but children just thought it was fun for such a beautiful thing.

Qin Yuan walked over, threw the flowers in the child's hand aside, and touched his body. The chocolate that the waiter downstairs gave him was still in his pocket. He took it out and distributed it to the children. Unexpectedly, people surrounded him. A circle of children surrounded them asking for candy.

Li Erniu was stunned instantly. When did these children appear? How could they have so much sugar on them? Just now, Qin Yuan's ones were just a few accidental ones. At this time, the militant who prevented Qin Yuan and the others from coming in stood up, shouted loudly, "Hey! Hurry up and play elsewhere, don't hinder me here."

In an instant, those children were scared away, and a young child fell to the ground in fright. Although the militant scolded them, he still walked over and helped the child up. With this small gesture, Qin Yuan felt that this person was not that bad.

The militant was called Bada. He looked helpless at those children, and he seemed to be explaining to Qin Yuan or talking to himself: "These children don't know the dangers of society now, and we don't know how long we can protect them. So the boss stipulated that as soon as he saw these children, he would kill them fiercely, let them know that they are afraid, especially when they see people in camouflage like us, so that they will not be hurt."

Qin Yuan nodded, watching the people outside happily picking the crops in the field, and the nearby factory was burning with black smoke. After all, this kind of thing is a drug, and the people who made it simply wore two layers of Gauze masks.

The conditions here only allow this. Some people do this kind of business to make money and make more money. For example, Chen Jinguo is obviously rich, but he is still not satisfied. But the current people, they just want to live.

Including this Boss Abby, I feel that such a drug dealer should be cut to death, but he has protected so many refugees, but there is no absolute right or wrong. Although he protects these refugees, the things produced from him I don't know how many families have been harmed, and how many people who protect their respective countries have been harmed.

When Chen Jinguo came out with a smile all over his face, Boss Abby was also very happy and enthusiastically invited them to stay and prepare for dinner. It seems that the cooperation they talked about was very successful.

When Bilson saw Chen Jinguo coming out, he immediately went up to meet him. Qin Yuan was very disdainful, and there was no need to pretend at this time. Chen Jinguo walked over with a smile, and the suitcase in his hand had already been handed over to Abby. boss.

"Later, I'll take you guys to go hunting on the opposite mountain. They have a lot of wild animals here. It doesn't matter that there are so many here. Anyway, let's play. I am very satisfied with today's cooperation."

"Boss, let's go back first, after all, this is their territory, in case something happens halfway."

"Hahaha, before I came here, I also had this worry, but now after talking with him, I need his raw materials, and he also recognizes what I make. We will cooperate for a long time."

Hearing what Chen Jinguo said, Qin Yuan secretly vowed that he must find out his drug factory and destroy it all. If there is a chance later in this place, he will lead the team himself and burn all those crops on fire. .

After eating, Boss Abi arranged for a few people to take them to the opposite mountain to hunt. Although the militants were not regular troops, they were still very manageable and restrained in their behavior.

Although they produce these things here, Boss Abi has a requirement that people here must not smoke, otherwise they will be shot to death directly. This kind of punishment is very severe. Chen Jinguo also approves of this approach. He Although he is also selling this thing, he doesn't need addicts. Although addicts are easy to control, they lose control the moment his drug addiction kicks in.

The leader was Bada. He was taken aback when he heard Qin Yuan's name. After all, the drug dealer killed by Qin Yuan had a very good relationship with him. Although he didn't know where that Qin Yuan was, he still wanted to help him His brother took revenge, chattering with Qin Yuan all the way.

"Brother Qin Yan, I think your name is really unlucky. How can you have the same name as those notes? You might as well change your name, just like me, I just changed my name."

"Oh, it's actually just a name, I don't mind calling it whatever you want."

Qin Yuan smiled wryly in his heart, he had already changed his name, how else would he change it? However, he took the opportunity to ask Bada a lot of things. Although Bada looked fierce on the surface, this person couldn't hide anything, so he asked it out just by asking casually.

It turned out that Chen Jinguo didn't intend to simply take them hunting, but a boss was coming later, and they were all waiting for this boss, and they were just killing time when they came out to hunt.

Sure enough, the old fox didn't say anything to Qin Yuan and the others, "This boss is from Southeast Asia. He quit before, but now he is involved again due to economic pressure. His influence is also huge. "

Qin Yuan didn't think too much about it, after all, this was also a matter between them. Although they didn't take pictures of their transaction just now, they took pictures of the large poppy fields. That's enough evidence.

There are indeed a lot of wild game on the mountain here, but they are mainly hares. After a while, everyone caught a few hares. Chen Jinguo was very happy to tell the people next to him that Qin Yuan's cooking was very delicious, so he asked him to process it. Several hares.

"Hahaha, I didn't expect Boss Chen to bring a cook with him when he went out. I thought this guy was so good. He turned out to be a cook."

Chen Jinguo just smiled and didn't speak. After all, he didn't want to expose his strength too much outside. Qin Yuan is indeed very strong. This person is his trump card, and he wants to keep it until the end.

Qin Yuan already wanted to kill these people in his heart. What is his identity, how could he return food to these drug dealers? If it wasn't for looking for evidence, he would have already done something to them.

Although his heart was very broken, he still smiled and took the hare down for processing, and called Li Erniu, they said to help themselves.

Li Erniu complained while peeling the hare's skin, "You're really giving these drug dealers a disgrace, you really should bring a pot of arsenic to them and eat them all to death. "

"That's right, it's too exaggerated to think of Brother Qin as a cook."

At this moment, Brother Qin heard a little movement, and he immediately signaled the two of them not to talk. If he remembered correctly, the kitchen they were in was at the innermost, and there was a long corridor outside, where they came in. There were guards at the door at that time, but just now he suddenly heard the sound of falling to the ground.

Qin Yuan quietly raised his head and looked out from the window. The guards outside had disappeared. After a few minutes, two bent figures in camouflage suddenly appeared.

What is the situation, and at this moment, there is a smell of blood, it seems that the people outside have been solved by these two people.

Li Erniu took up the knife in his hand and hid behind the door, ready to surprise them, but Qin Yuan shook his head and asked them to wipe the rabbit's blood on their necks, and then they fell to the ground like this .

At this time, two people in camouflage uniforms outside the door also came in. When they opened the door, they saw three people lying on the ground staggered, with blood on their necks, and the blood was very fresh.

"What's the situation, did someone take the lead?"

"It's not right. The boss told us to start from the kitchen first. Besides, the people in the first group are not so fast. They shouldn't come here first, and they didn't notify us."

The other man in camouflage uniform was a little vigilant and wanted to come over to catch his breath. Just when his hand was about to touch Qin Yuan, there was a sudden movement from outside. The two looked at each other and ran out quickly.

Chapter 860: River chaos

"Brother Qin, what a great opportunity this is. Why don't you let us do it? I can solve those two boys by myself, and let him put them all down."

"Don't be impulsive. After all, we don't know whether this person is from the police or the military. It would be bad if we accidentally hurt ourselves."

Li Erniu was right when he realized it in an instant. After all, this place is inside the drug lord. Anyone who dares to kill people here at Boss Abi's place is likely to be the military sent by the international community.

He Chenguang was a little excited, he could finally go back, he had been aggrieved here for so long, "Brother Qin, if it is really the reinforcements sent from the world, then let's cooperate with them from the inside out, and we might as well kill all these drug dealers." It's over, we can go back."

"These are minor problems. In fact, I can solve these drug dealers' problems by myself. We haven't found the address of Chen Jinguo's drug manufacturing factory yet, but if there is indeed a fight, then there is no way to press them later!"

The three of them hid in the small kitchen room like this. After a while, there was a sudden fierce gunshot outside, and the three of them ran out. After all, if they were from the military, they had to go out to help , There are not a few armed forces here.

Just as Qin Yuan and the others ran out, they saw Chen Jinguo and Birson being escorted by two militants, and ran towards them in a panic.

"I finally found you. I'm still worried about what will happen to you. Come with me quickly. It's too dangerous here."

"Boss, what's going on here? Why did the fight suddenly start?"

Bada next to him looked around vigilantly, and said: "I told you before that there is another person who wants to come to our boss to talk about cooperation. , intending to occupy this territory."

It's not from the military, but a war broke out within them. If this is the case, then simply use the plan and continue to lurk. Qin Yuan pretends to protect Chen Jinguo. Boss Abi is still very confident. He thinks he can solve these problems. armed forces.

So let Bada ***** Chen Jinguo and the others out first, Bada led them through a small road, and the range of the campsite came to the place where they crossed the river just now. Qin Yuan turned his head and heard the violent gunshots coming from the camp, and The sound of the explosion seemed to be very intense.

Suddenly he thought of those civilians. In this kind of war, will those civilians be safe? After all, both sides are only concerned about fighting now, and the most innocent people are those civilians.

"Bada, what about the civilians you fought against?"

"What else can I do? Those people don't care if they are civilians or not. As long as everyone on our side is going to be killed, they will suddenly attack one of our drug manufacturing sites and be directly blown up by them. Seven or eight of them Civilians were killed."

Qin Yuan took a serious look inside the camp. He wanted to go in and save the civilians, but he was thinking about how to find the right time. If he rushed in now, Chen Jinguo would definitely become suspicious, and it would be useless for them to lurk for so long.

Chen Jinguo didn't notice Qin Yuan's strange behavior. Instead, he thought that Qin Yuan was cutting off the heir for him, and now he was waiting for Bada to bring the elephant over.

Li Erniu came over quietly, "Brother Qin, are you worried about those civilians? Otherwise, I'll drag you in to check the situation."

At this moment, Bada told them to come over quickly, ready, Qin Yuan looked at the elephant, and instantly thought of a plan, because they couldn't ***** out those militants who wanted to steal black, but they didn't Will spare anyone.

Qin Yuan picked up a small stone from the ground, and just as Chen Jinguo was sitting on the elephant, he popped the small stone and hit the elephant's buttocks. The power of this small stone was not a joke, and the elephant instantly Suffering from the pain, he raised his head to the sky and screamed, and moved desperately in the river. Chen Jinguo didn't hold on firmly at all, and fell directly into the river.

He Chenguang next to him looked at Chen Jinguo's embarrassed appearance, and couldn't help but want to laugh out loud. This is how he should be punished. Qin Yuan pretended to jump into the river and picked up Chen Jinguo. At this time, the elephant was in pain. Already scurrying in the river, out of control at all.

No matter how bada gave it orders, the elephant didn't obey orders at all, and bada felt very strange what was going on.

"Brother Bada, it is possible that the elephant was frightened by the gunfire inside, so it was out of control."

"It's impossible. Our elephants have received professional training. Even if a grenade explodes next to them, he will not have such a riot."

Bada really couldn't figure it out. At this moment, because of the commotion on the elephant side, the militants on the other side of the camp found some people who were about to escape and rushed out with guns. Chen Jinguo yelled that it was not good, he didn't want to die here, the militant who escorted them out with Bada was standing next to him, and he immediately raised the militant in front of him.

The bullet in front instantly smashed the militant into a sieve. As for Qin Yuan and the others, they had already backflipped and hid nearby. Chen Jinguo had never seen such a scene before. He only killed some disobedient people when he did business before. , This kind of face-to-face gun battle is the first time.

The most dangerous time was when his eyes were injured by border soldiers patrolling the border. That time he thought it was the closest to death. Now these militants here don't care so much, just throw a grenade over here, Qin Yuan can't let Chen Jinguo die here, he has to accept the sanctions of the people and the country.

He jumped out with a somersault and dragged Chen Jinguo who had fallen to the ground into the plantain forest next to him. At this time, Chen Jinguo was already pale with fright, so Qin Yuan could only pretend to say, "Boss Chen, if this place is really too dangerous , you hide in this plantain forest first, and my brother and I go out to deal with those people outside."

Chen Jinguo nodded, now what he wants is for them to deal with those people outside to ensure his own safety, but in an instant he stopped Qin Yuan again.

"No! You can't all go out, you have to leave at least one person here to protect me."

He is really an old fox who is greedy for life and afraid of death. Qin Yuan sneered and left He Chenguang there. After all, if Li Erniu was put here, Li Erniu would probably not be able to resist beating him.

In this way, Qin Yuan and Li Erniu rushed out, Bada fought back against the militants from the side, Qin Yuan directly threw a few throwing knives, after all, when they came in, the weapons they were carrying had already been confiscated by the boss Abby up.

Bada next to him was stunned, this speed is too fast! In an instant, those people were all brought down by him, and he used a throwing knife. The power of this knife is too strong! Before, he really thought he was just a chef, but he didn't expect to be so powerful. After fighting for a long time, he just threw a few knives out and solved it.

Qin Yuan walked over and patted the stunned Bada, "Brother, don't be stunned, let's go in together, and quickly end this war! I'm just worried that the civilians inside will be injured, and I also want to guarantee The safety of our boss."

Bada nodded, and Li Erniu went over to pick up two assault rifles and handed one to Qin Yuan, "Brother Qin, these assault rifles are not bad! But it's a pity to use them for these rubbish."

Just like that, several people rushed into the camp. Chen Jinguo, who was hiding in the plantain forest, wanted to call Qin Yuan to stop when he saw the situation, but he really didn't dare to show his face, "What the **** is this Qin Yan doing? I asked him to Go out, deal with those militants, cover me and leave, why did he rush in? He can't tell the priority of things now, I am his boss, and the person he needs to rescue most is me."

Looking at the furious Chen Jinguo, He Chenguang turned his head and didn't answer his words. It was all because of this old fox, or else he had rushed up with Qin Yuan and the others.

"Hey! I'm talking to you, did you hear me, now you **** me there quickly, regardless of them."

Chen Jinguo saw those armed forces with his own eyes just now, and their number is more than Boss Abi's side, otherwise he would not have such a great ability to dare to fight directly with Boss Abi's side. Run away quickly, otherwise if Boss Abby can't hold on, they will all have to finish the game.

He Chenguang really wanted the old fox to shut up at this moment, but he turned his head and said, "Boss Chen, you can rest assured that Brother Qin is here! It is the most dangerous thing for us to go out now, after all, I cannot fully protect myself. For your safety, besides, if you want to cross the river without someone controlling the elephant, you can't swim across it, the river is so fast now."

"What wrong decision is he making? Does he know that I spend money to let him protect me. If something happens to me, you don't even want to live."

"Just wait here patiently. Brother Qin will definitely win a big victory. He came out from the inside. He has this ability. Now I believe that he is the biggest guarantee for our safety."

Chen Jinguo looked at this and He Chenguang didn't listen to what he said, and he thought again and again, if only this person protects him, then the chances of winning are not that great. If those militants really break through, the two of them will not be able to run fast. , I will definitely be caught at that time, why not hide in the most dangerous place here is the safest.

He Chenguang really explained to him patiently. Normally, he would have knocked him out with a stick. Although he knew that Qin Yuan was very powerful, both of them, his life and death brothers, rushed in. He can only stand here to protect this so-called drug dealer, and he is also very worried about the situation of the two of them.

At this time, Qin Yuan rushed in with an assault rifle, and gave those militants a hard blow from behind. Anyway, these militants are not good people, so they should just clean up the garbage. As for the boss Abby who wants to kill He is also a matter of time.

While fighting, Bada introduced to Qin Yuan that the boss was named Pakeduo, and he had cooperated with their boss before, so the boss trusted him. This place was their boss's new position. and men entered their camp.

At this time, Qin Yuan was not concerned about these things. He saw that there were indeed a lot of Pacdo's subordinates. Some of them and the people from Boss Abi's side rushed in and shot those civilians. This was the last thing he could bear. of.

Those people were unarmed civilians, and these ***** could be killed. Qin Yuan directly aimed at the militants and shot desperately. When he ran over, many civilians had already fallen in a pool of blood, including Tian Tian. The children he gave candy to.

Li Erniu's eyes are red, these people are simply beasts, they don't even let children go, those militants didn't expect three people to rush in suddenly, their strength is so strong, especially the leader can't hit him at all, the speed is too fast He not only fired at people with an assault rifle, but also jumped directly in front of him and attacked with a throwing knife.

"Why is that man's marksmanship so accurate? This kind of gun has a very strong recoil, and it is too difficult to control the accuracy. How did he do it?"

Li Erniu's strength can be regarded as great, but when controlling this gun he can only press it deeply on his shoulder to shoot, the stability of the muzzle can also improve the aiming accuracy while Qin Yuan here is not a problem at all.

This kind of gun has a lot of recoil, but the damage is also doubled. Qin Yuan kept jumping, throwing throwing knives, and cooperated with the assault rifle. Soon, most of the militants were killed by him. Boss Abi saw that there were reinforcements coming to support them, he thought it was some brother on the road, but he didn't expect to take a closer look, it turned out to be someone brought by Chen Jinguo.

And that kid is too strong! It felt like those bullets were avoiding him, and he shot all the way, but he was not injured by such dense gunshots.

Pacdo originally thought they were going to win this war, but he didn't expect Qin Yuan to be killed halfway, his eyes were red, and he threw a few grenades directly in Qin Yuan's direction. He didn't believe that he couldn't kill him like this.

Unexpectedly, Qin Yuan jumped out of the smoke next to him, and then a flying knife hit Pakedo's chest. Pakedo looked at the flying knife on his chest in disbelief. How could it be so far away? Flying knife thrown over?

Parkedo fell down with eyes full of unwillingness. Among the militants next to him, his boss was killed, and he panicked instantly. With Qin Yuan's support, Boss Abi's side was much more relaxed, and soon the remaining armed men The power was defeated by them.

Many militants directly dropped their guns to express their surrender, but how could Boss Abi let them go and beat them all to death? For him, what he had to do was to kill the grass and roots. Qin Yuan didn't care about these, anyway, both sides were nothing Good people, let them dog eat dog.
