

Special Soldier 921

Chapter 921: Rescue hostages

No wonder Qin Yuan and the others could still see some marks left behind at first, but after discovering the corpse, the marks were broken.

Qin Yuan sighed, and patted the crying girl, "Don't worry, we will bring these criminals to justice, none of them can escape."

The scarred man next to him laughed loudly when he heard this, "Just relying on you trash? Let me tell you the truth, without Lao Tzu's guidance, you would never even try to find them."

Then this guy started swearing again, Li Erniu couldn't help but rushed forward to beat him up, Gong Jian could only stop him stubbornly at the side, now is not the time to be impulsive, listening to this guy's tone is deliberately provocative .

At this moment, Qin Yuan stood up, looked at the scarred man coldly, and said, "If there is a lot of feces in your mouth, then I think it's time for you to brush your teeth."

Qin Yuan's body began to exude a cold killing intent, and Scarface couldn't help being taken aback when he saw this situation, the man's eyes suddenly became terrified.

Immediately afterwards, Qin Yuan came over and patted him on the shoulder lightly. In an instant, the man with the scar screamed and fell heavily on the ground.

"I said, why did you suddenly touch porcelain? I just got close to you, why did you fall down?"

Qin Yuan's technique was very fast. At the same time as he patted his shoulder just now, a silver needle had already pierced his neck. The scarred man could not make any sound for a moment, and then another silver needle directly pierced his shoulder.

Although looking at the tiny silver needle, as the needle penetrated, the man with the scar fell to the ground and pulled it out unexpectedly. I didn't expect it to be so painful.

Qin Yuan snorted coldly, these guys are cruel and ruthless, and he has to teach him some lessons, otherwise he would be too arrogant. When he pierced the silver needle, he added some poisonous bee poison from it.

He now has a body that is invulnerable to all poisons. This kind of poison from poisonous bees can cause burns on the surface of the skin, let alone penetrate directly into the subcutaneous tissue.

Moreover, no scars can be seen on this surface, only a small dispute can be seen, but with the penetration of this venom, that piece of tissue will cause bad things, and more importantly, although it is not fatal, it can cause great pain .

This tiny bit of venom was equivalent to a boulder, hitting the shoulder hard.

The few people next to him didn't know what was going on. The boy wearing glasses looked at the scarred man lying on the ground, pretending so, and said contemptuously: "You  knows how to do things to us unarmed people, and now you still play tricks!" Come on, bah!"

Qin Yuan smiled and lifted him up calmly. At this moment, the scarred man's face was full of fear, his teeth were trembling uncontrollably, but he couldn't make any sound.

"We definitely treat prisoners preferentially. This policy must be carried forward. Don't worry, it will definitely not hurt you."

The man with the scar felt fear from Qin Yuan's eyes. This man is really terrifying. His aura is very strong, and he didn't know what method he used just now. Now he feels that half of his body has been paralyzed, and Very painful.

Qin Yuan and the others are waiting here for the firefighters to come and make seals, because according to what they said, there is still a student who has not been found, and these people have accomplices, and they want to catch them all.

After more than ten minutes, the firefighters arrived with military dogs. Everyone was very tired. After all, they had been searching in such a mountain for two days and two nights.

The head of the fire brigade came forward, held Qin Yuan's hand and said, "I didn't expect you to find someone with a sharper nose than our military dogs. As expected of the special forces, it's a cow."

When the man with the scar heard the words "Special Forces", his pupils dilated instantly, and his body couldn't help shaking. It seemed that they had really messed with someone they shouldn't have messed with this time.

Qin Yuan briefly explained the situation to them, and asked the firefighters to take the college students down first. Now they set out to find the rest of their accomplices, as well as the abducted person.

The detachment leader is very relieved. He believes in Qin Yuan's ability. If they were there, he probably wouldn't need so many people.

"Captain Qin, I'll send you another team here. Let the other volunteers go back first. After all, they are really too tired after following the search for two days and two nights."

Qin Yuan smiled and shook his head, "It's okay, all of you can go back, everyone have a good rest, and leave the rest to us."

Hearing Qin Yuan's very confident tone, the detachment leader couldn't say anything more. After all, that's how their special forces behaved. After thanking them again and again, they took the college students down the mountain.

Several other poachers were also taken down the mountain, except for the man with the scar, because the man with the scar just said that only he knew the whereabouts of his accomplices.

The man with the scar didn't want to stay with Qin Yuan at all. This man was too terrifying. He struggled desperately, but it was useless and he could only watch those people go further and further away.

Qin Yuan stepped forward and stepped on his shoulder, "Didn't you scold me just now? I didn't expect that when you were afraid, you * were really capable of attacking. Such a young life was ruined by you!" I have a few hands."

The man with the scar didn't dare to say anything more, he could only shake his head desperately, Qin Yuan pulled out the silver needle from his neck, the man with the scar was panting heavily, and finally he was able to speak.

"Now you have only one choice, cooperate with me to find that college student, and you'd better lead me the way, don't play tricks, or I will make you feel ten times the pain just now."

When he mentioned the pain just now, the scarred man's eyes were full of fear, and he couldn't help but nodded.

Li Erniu stepped forward and saw that this guy was like a balloon that had been let go. He was a completely different person from just now. He had a very arrogant attitude of cursing just now, but now he cooperated obediently.

"Brother Qin, is there something wrong with this guy's cooperation?"

"Don't worry, he wouldn't dare to give him ten guts!"

Because it was completely dark now, Qin Yuan's eyesight was fine. Li Erniu and the others all wore infrared devices, and they also gave one to the scarred man who led the way.

Seeing this kind of device, the man with the scar couldn't help but be overjoyed. If they had this thing at that time, how many prey they could catch at night was almost the same as during the day, and the figures of the small animals in the opposite woods could be seen clearly.

Qin Yuan and the others only know that these guys are poachers, but it is not clear how many wild animals have been captured. The most important thing now is to rescue people first.

After walking around in the jungle for more than three hours, the man with the scar suddenly stopped and looked around.

He Chenguang stepped forward, grabbed his clothes, and said viciously, "What kind of tricks are you playing? Have you been leading us around for so long? Where are you?"

The man with the scar sighed helplessly and said, "I don't dare to take you on a detour. After all, this is in the mountains. Although I have rich hunting experience, it is inevitable that I will make mistakes. We seem to be going wrong."

Hearing this, He Chenguang took out a gun and pointed it at the man with the scar. He always felt that the boy was playing tricks.

Qin Yuan stepped forward, looked at him and said, "You'd better tell the truth, where are your accomplices?"

"Brother, how dare I lie to you, there are only two of my accomplices left, it was agreed that they would take the hostage and hide in the cave here, and then we will go out to find the drone first, but it is too dark now, I couldn't even tell the direction for a while."

It doesn't look like this guy is lying, and he has learned the lesson just now, so he probably doesn't have the guts.

There was no way, Qin Yuan looked at the time and it would be dawn in two hours, and everyone had been walking for a day and a night, so he could only give an order to rest on the spot first, and then set off after dawn.

According to the current situation, the hostage should be safe, because their ultimate goal is to get the drone.

At dawn, under the leadership of the man with the scar, the team continued to set off. At this time, they had already walked out of the jungle and came to a canyon.

Qin Yuan looked at the surrounding environment, the location here is really suitable for ambushes, but the scar man said that there are only two of them, and the two of them should not be able to cause much trouble, but he still whispered to the other team members to let everyone pay attention alert.

The man with the scar in front stopped suddenly, "We have reached the cave where they are in the canyon, but we have a code, and they will come out after we hear the code and confirm that the code is safe."

Qin Yuan looked at the man with the scar pointing his gun at his back, "Then you go up and call them out first, I advise you kid not to do any tricks."

The man with the scar nodded, and then stepped forward. The guy made a strange gesture, and blew on his mouth, unexpectedly, he made a strange bird cry.

Within two minutes, the same response came from inside. Qin Yuan and the others hid behind the mountain. He quietly looked up and saw a man holding a crossbow standing on the opposite valley.

The person on the opposite side saw the man with the scar and asked loudly, "Old Qi, why are you the only one and the other brothers?"

"Stop talking, you guys bring that kid down first, let's go out first, this place is too unsafe, those soldiers will search here soon."

After a while, the man ran into the canyon, and Qin Yuan was also ready to fight, ready to press them directly when they came out.

At this moment, a row of crossbow arrows suddenly shot out, and the man with the scar was considered agile, but he didn't expect such a sudden situation, and his own people would actually attack him.

Although he turned over to dodge, a crossbow arrow still pierced his abdomen, and blood flowed instantly.

He turned over and hid behind a stone and asked loudly: "What the * are you two doing, you dare to shoot arrows at me!"

"Bah! Old Qi, you have already * rebelled, and you still want to harm the brothers. If I guessed correctly, there are all those soldiers outside!"

The man with the scar couldn't explain it either, he was bleeding now, Qin Yuan turned over, quietly came behind the big stone, and dragged him out.

This location is really easy to defend and difficult to attack. There is a narrow passage in front of the canyon. If you want to enter the canyon, you can only go up through this passage or from the cliff behind.

He Chenguang treated the scar man's wound, his face turned pale from the pain, and suddenly said slowly: "These two guys are really too cunning, they knew I was the only one coming, so they didn't believe me, so I tried my best. "

"What weapons do they have? You can go up from the cliff behind this!"

"There is a firecracker gun with earth characters, and a few crossbow bolts. The man who shot at me just now is a master archer. He used to be able to shoot bears in the eyes when they were shooting bears, and he was able to preserve the integrity of the entire bear skin."

Hearing what the man with the scar said, Qin Yuan also made up his mind. It seems that he can only attack by surprise, and the speed must be fast. After all, he doesn't know what these crazy guys will do to save their lives.

At present, the hostages are considered safe, because now the hostages are the capital of their safety, but as time goes on, I don't know what will happen.

When the man with the scar heard that Qin Yuan was going to go up the cliff next to him, he quickly shook his head, "It's impossible, we've been in the mountains for so many years, and we chose this location just in case, the cliff next to it can't go up at all, all are cliffs, and not a blade of grass grows."

"That's because you can't go up, but it's no problem for me at all."

Then Qin Yuan asked Li Erniu and the others to guard the exit first, in case the people inside rushed out suddenly, he planned to take a look from the cliff behind.

At this moment, the man with the scar only thinks that Qin Yuan is crazy. The cliff is impossible to climb. Not only is it very steep, but also the stones on it are eroded by rain for a long time, and they will break when touched. There is no point of strength at all.

Time is life, Qin Yuan really couldn't wait any longer, he quickly came to the cliff behind, I have to say, the cliff here is really unique.

He stepped back tens of meters, took a deep breath, and quickly ran towards the cliff. The rocks attached to the cliff were already loose, and there was really no point of strength. He had just put his feet on it, It happened that the stone slipped.

Thanks to his agility, he turned over and jumped off, and the rocks on top fell down with a rattle.

But he didn't give up, and took out the rope from his bag. It seems that he can only jump up, use the rope to hook the thing above, and climb up again. If his explosive power alone is not enough, there is still a little distance, because here There is no focus.

Qin Yuan took the rope and started to try again. He jumped onto the cliff again. This time the explosive force was enough. He quickly rushed to the halfway up the mountain. Although he slid down ten yuan, he moved quickly to the position just after he went up. , please go ahead and let go of the rope.

It has to be said that most of him relied on gambling. The rope caught the attachment, and he pulled the rope to climb up quickly.

Standing on the cliff, he saw the canyon below. His position is very good, and no one will find it if he goes down from here, because this is a blind spot for the entrance of the cave where the man stood just now.

And this position is so suitable for sniping, he even wanted to wait for these two people to come out and shoot them dead with one shot.

Chapter 922: 1 group of white-eyed wolves

He leaned down and looked in the direction of the hole. He estimated that it was unlikely that the two gangsters would come out, because the two gangsters were also very scared now. They were worried that there would be snipers outside. After all, there were also armed police in the search team this time.

These people are not stupid, and judging from their reaction just now, these two people are very cunning.

At this time, Gong Jian took the initiative to go to the mouth of the canyon and shouted loudly: "Brothers inside, we are soldiers from Huaxia, so we can talk about things face to face, and you can talk about what conditions you want."

Qin Yuan knew that it was Gong Jian who was diverting his attention for him. It had to be said that this was really very risky, after all, the man with the scar was just shot by the crossbow arrow just now.

Now their team cooperated more and more tacitly. Fortunately, the two gangsters inside did not dare to act rashly, and the two inside the cave were also very nervous.

Pulling the hostages tightly to the front, the person who had shot the crossbow at the man with the scar said, "What should we do? Otherwise, we'll go out and negotiate terms with them, and it won't work if we continue like this."

"You can't go out now, maybe the outside has already been surrounded by snipers, and if you show your head, you will die, do you understand?"

"No, third brother, I think what we've done is not worthy of our lives. At most, we'll go in and squat for a few years, or we'll just go out."

Crouching inside, the man called Third Brother stared at him viciously and said loudly: "You are so  naive, do you really think that the things we sell can be sold so expensively, are they just ordinary wild animals? It's a national treasure."

The man was very nervous at the moment, the dagger had been resting on Xiaotian's neck, and he was trembling now, the dagger was very sharp, and a bloodstain had been drawn on Xiaotian's neck, but fortunately, the wound was not very deep and did not hurt the artery.

But because he hadn't eaten anything for two days, Xiaotian was very weak and scared at the moment.

He whispered: "Brothers, you don't need to think that way. At least you still have a way out. If we keep going on like this, we may really have no chance. Let me go, okay?"

"To shut up!"

The two of them were upset at the moment. They didn't know how many people were outside and how they could escape. Now they just wanted to run for their lives.

The bearded man has already been a little tempted by Xiaotian's words, if he goes out now, maybe he can really save his life, after all, he can hang around in prison for a while even if he dies.

Besides, they don't pay much attention to lenient treatment. If he goes out now and counts as turning himself in, maybe he can get his sentence commuted.

"Third brother, why don't we go out now! It's really over if we spend it like this."

"You kid is a coward. Let me tell you, it's best not to say such things to me. If you want to survive now, just listen to me."

"Why should I listen to you? I went to them before because of what you said. Now that all my brothers have been hurt by you, I still listen to you. Let me tell you, I'm quitting."

The bearded man had just thrown the knife on the ground, and the man rushed forward and slapped him on the face, "Pay attention to your attitude, let me tell you, believe it or not, I did it with you?"

At this moment, because Xiaotian was sitting opposite them, he saw the figure behind him. He didn't expect it to be Qin Yuan. This guy's speed was too fast, and he didn't make any movement. Xiaotian's eyes were full of surprises, so he Knowing that someone would come to his rescue.

Qin Yuan approached quietly, and the two actually fought together because of the quarrel. At this moment, the bearded man suddenly felt that something was wrong, and when he turned his head, a person came in at the entrance of the cave.

"Damn it! Who is it!"

As soon as he finished speaking, a throwing knife flew in and pierced his thigh, the beard fell down in an instant, and the man next to him was about to rush towards Xiaotian.

Qin Yuan turned over and jumped in, and kicked the man on the back with such great force that the man kept rolling in the small cave, his head hit the stone next to him, and blood flowed out.

At this moment, the man who fell on the ground stared at Xiaotian viciously. Now that the matter was up to now, he took his life and put his back together with him, picked up the dagger beside him and threw it towards Xiaotian.

Without the slightest hesitation, Qin Yuan turned over to take the dagger and held it tightly in his hand. Blood dripped from the sharp blade.

Then he kicked the man directly to the ground, and He Chenguang outside also rushed up quickly, controlling the two of them.

At this moment, Xiaotian was completely stunned. The speed of this person just now was so fast that he didn't see it clearly at all. He only felt a black shadow flashing in front of his eyes. Then, he caught the throwing knife like this. .

Looking at Qin Yuan's * hand, Xiaotian felt a little guilty, "Sorry, I hurt you, I..."

"It's okay, it's just a small problem."

Wang Yanbing took out gauze to help him bandage his hands. In fact, it was unnecessary, because Qin Yuan has the ability to recover quickly, and he can also repair wounds. This small injury is like a mosquito bite to him.

After He Chenguang came in, he took out a rope and tied the two of them up, "You two are quite arrogant, you dare to confront us directly, you are stubborn!"

Qin Yuan looked around, Xiaotian was just a little weak because he hadn't eaten for two days, and the wound on his neck was not serious.

"Okay, close the team, take the hostages back first, and * these two people back."

In the end, the incident of rescuing college students' donkey friends ended perfectly, and Qin Yuan and the others were published in the newspaper once, but they were all coded, and they were just called a mysterious team.

The main reason is that many media reported this incident. These college students were also engaged in live broadcast before, and their sudden disappearance caused quite a stir.

For those college students, they are already safe, and everyone's life is going on, but Qin Yuan's life is still going on, and every day is still training.

During the meal, everyone watched the report on the news, and it was talking about the current live broadcast of Internet celebrities.

Li Erniu couldn't help sighing, "My good guy, I really don't know what kind of live broadcast these people do, and they can make so much money. Have you heard of it? They earn tens of thousands of dollars a night."

Wang Yanbing was a little dubious at the side, is that an exaggeration?

At this moment, He Chenguang, who was on guard on a routine basis, suddenly rushed in, "Brother Qin, something has happened, Lao Gao is in the office to let you go over."

Qin Yuan put down the bowl and stood up, "What else can I do? Is there another task?"

He Chenguang shook his head with a bitter look on his face, "Brother Qin, Lao Gao is very angry today and got angry in the office, and this time we really made a story about a farmer and a snake."

Everyone felt strange when they heard this, what was it all about, and when they came to the office willingly, they saw Gao Shiwei pointing at the secretary and saying something loudly.

"Are these people idle and doing nothing? They really saved a group of wolf-hearted things. If I knew it, I would have let them fend for themselves in the mountains."

The secretary was also very dignified, "Team Gao! This time the incident is very serious. If it is not handled properly, it will easily lead to a war on the Internet."

Seeing Qin Yuan coming in, the secretary seemed to have seen a savior, and quickly found an excuse to escape. At this moment, Gao Shiwei tore off his collar, and his face turned red with great anger.

"Captain Gao, who is making you unhappy, to be so angry."

Gao Shiwei patted the documents on the table, "Look at it for yourself! The incident this time has had a huge impact. The phone line in my office has been unplugged, and I'm about to be blown away by those so-called news media."

Qin Yuan picked up the documents on the table, looked carefully, and instantly frowned, and finally he understood why Lao Gao was so angry, even he couldn't help losing his temper.

It turned out that those few college student friends were doing live broadcasts before, because this incident quickly increased their fans. Taking this opportunity, they absorbed a lot of traffic and started to do this thing. The overall review live streaming.

Originally, the live broadcast had nothing to do with Qin Yuan and the others, but the problem was what they said in the live broadcast room.

Two of the students kept saying that it was the lack of rescue teams that caused them to get lost in the forest, and they also revealed that the local patrols were not standardized, giving these poachers an opportunity.

Gao Shiwei also handed over a video, "That's just a report on this matter, and the summary of this video explains everything. These guys are really talking nonsense."

This video is a screen recording of the live broadcast. There are three people in the live broadcast. At the beginning, they all talked about some adventures. Later, they deviated from the topic and began to complain about their rescue situation that day.

The male student wearing glasses also specifically emphasized that after they called the police, they were lost in the mountains for two days and two nights, threatened by those vicious poachers, and there was no hope at all at that time.

The sentence that impressed Qin Yuan the most was, "I also said that the most reliable ones are our junior soldiers, but at that moment I was really disappointed in them, and I felt that I could only rely on myself."

Moreover, this group of guys distorted the facts. Obviously, it was their companion Da Mao who left the mark for them. Now, in turn, it was the rescue team who asked them to leave the mark, so Da Mao was killed.

There were all kinds of complaints in the live broadcast room, and Qin Yuan clenched his fists as he watched it. It's all about what, isn't this nonsense?

And it's because they had a lot of attention before this live broadcast, but because of this live broadcast event, their popularity really went up, but most of the people on the Internet were taken away by them, deviated from the direction, and scolded the rescue team, even Qin Yuan and the others. Rescue was delayed.

Gao Shiwei was also very angry. He patted the table and said: "Those keyboard warriors on the Internet wish that the chaos could be as good as possible. They originally wanted to join in the fun, so they just wanted to make this matter bigger and bigger."

"This matter has already involved damage to the reputation of our soldiers and rescuers. You can talk to these people."

"You kid, do you think I don't want to look for them? Now these people have made those reporters look for them specifically, and as the name suggests, protect them. Look at what's going on here?"

Now that the matter has happened, Gao Shiwei is indeed trying to solve it in time. He plans to hold a press conference, and invite Qin Yuan and the rescue team leader at the time to come out together, to state the matter completely and clearly, and to restore everyone's innocence.

As soon as Qin Yuan came out of the high-speed office, Li Erniu and the others surrounded him. What was going on? Everyone is more curious, after all, the level of being able to * off Lao Gao is not low.

Qin Yuan could only tell them the general story of the incident, and then He Chenguang also found the live video, and now it has been pinned to the top, and the whole forum is talking about it.

Li Erniu looked at this video and couldn't help but get angry, "Isn't this just saving a group of white-eyed wolves? Let's not talk about it for now. After all, we went later. Those rescue teams, I spent two days and two nights in such a big mountain. In the environment, it is really not easy."

"Aren't these guys afraid of chilling the hearts of good people by doing this, so they just say unconscionable things like this."

At this moment, the students were also a little flustered. Everyone was excited when they watched the netizens keep swiping gifts in the live broadcast. They found that the more they talked about these things, the more people watched and the more gifts were rewarded. .

The two girls who were rescued before, one named Zhang Wenhui and the other named Li Xueying, these two people can be said to have exploded in acting skills in the live broadcast room, and cried very badly, for fear that others would not know what happened to them.

Seeing how big the trouble is now, Zhang Wenhui quit, "Why don't we restart the live broadcast and clarify this matter! Are we spreading rumors? I'm really scared that things are getting bigger and bigger."

The guy with the glasses is called Li Qiang, and he said loudly: "Are you going to quit just because of this little problem? Now we have to stick to it The matter has been said, and you don't want to think about it now People's faces, if we tell the truth, we will be scolded!"

He slowed down and continued: "And the most important thing is, if things are really revealed, you can imagine the cyber violence of these people."

The more Li Xueying listened, the more frightened she became, "But if we keep silent, the impact of the matter will be too great now. Those media will come to press us every day, and people from the military will definitely investigate..."

"Okay, I know all this, but most of what we said is true. They did find us after two days and two nights, right? And we were indeed kidnapped."

This person's face is really thick enough, talking and talking, he persuaded himself, and the fact that the facts can be twisted to this extent is also admirable.

Except for that Xiaotian who did not participate, the rest of the people participated in this live broadcast, because with the deepening of the media, this matter was fermented more and more.

Everyone is paying attention to this incident. In order to prevent the situation from deteriorating, Gao Shiwei quickly launched a press conference.

Chapter 923: The truth of the matter

He Chenguang has to sigh, it seems that they have been staying in the military camp for the past few years, and they haven't noticed the changes outside the society. The webcast that has become popular now is really harmful.

He looked at those comments and frowned, "Love song, are you telling me that these people speak human words? Why don't we take their lives seriously, we want them to live more than anyone else."

"Comparing with these keyboard warriors, it's really tiring, and there are some things to look at."

At this moment, the fire is imminent, but Qin Yuan is not in a hurry, and sits leisurely by the side and reads the newspaper.

"Brother Qin, I said you are too Buddhist, right? Lao Gao is going to hold a press conference on behalf of us. He originally wanted us to go together. He said that in order to protect us, I always feel that this time Things are probably not that simple."

"Don't worry, the secretary at Lao Gao's side is not a vegetarian. In addition to these news media, although they want to take advantage of the opportunity to gain popularity, this is a very important matter, and there will definitely be no point for them to catch."

Because Gao Shiwei and his press conference was broadcast live this time, everyone gathered in the cafeteria and watched it in the cafeteria.

At this moment, the students didn't expect that the incident would turn out to be so big. All the reporters who reported for them before were on their side. After all, according to the current situation, these students are a vulnerable group, and the victims should be protected.

At this moment, the college student Li Qiang was also a little at a loss, but the matter had reached this point, no matter what, he could only bite the bullet and go forward.

But Li Xueying objected, so he didn't want to do it. She was willing to come out and apologize for what she said in the live broadcast room before, because when it was on the news, they would be held legally responsible for saying that.

She looked nervously at the reporter in front and said, "Can we not accept this interview, maybe there is some misunderstanding between us."

The reporter frowned, how could such a good news topic be missed? "Don't be afraid, no one will threaten you, don't worry, we journalism scholars are going to find out the truth behind it and bring justice for your people."

This reporter also spoke righteously, but the more she said this, the more flustered Li Xueying felt.

"But... I don't think we're ready yet."

"What preparations do you need to make? What was the situation like at the time? Just speak according to the facts. It's okay. With us here, no one will hurt you?"

An older reporter next to him seemed to have noticed the clue. He always felt that there was something hidden in it, and looked at these students with evasive eyes.

"Could it be that what you guys said doesn't match?"

Hearing what the reporter said, Li Qiang felt guilty for a moment. He quickly stood up and said, "No, what we said must be true. After all, we are all college students and adults. We know what to say. It's just that it's the first time we've faced so many reporters, and we're still a little nervous."

After finishing speaking, he quickly gave Li Xueying a look, signaling him to stop talking.

Then those reporters also walked out of the room. They were going to prepare for the scene. After closing the door, Li Qiang breathed a sigh of relief.

But Li Xueying became more and more afraid, "Why don't we just tell the truth, it's really not going to work like this."

"Don't talk nonsense, now we are grasshoppers on a rope. We have been wrong from the beginning, but we can't turn back now, you know? Don't be so naive, okay?"

"But I can't speak out of my conscience!"

Li Qiang sneered, "Heh, you still said that you didn't have a conscience, and you cried the most exaggeratedly in the live broadcast room, which won everyone's sympathy. Come on."

Li Xueying wanted to refute, but she didn't know where to start, and the fact seemed to be the case.

The other people didn't have any ideas either, after all, it was the first time they saw such a big scene, so I'll leave it to Li Qiang to talk about it later!

They were nervous at the moment, but eventually the moment came when they walked out of the room and came to the press conference.

Li Xueying's legs were trembling. She didn't expect so many people to come, not only the representatives of the reporters, but also the military surface. The atmosphere at the scene was very serious.

Li Qiang who was next to her patted her on the shoulder and said in a low voice, "I think you should know what to say and what not to say, otherwise everyone's boat capsizes, and I'll make you go all the way."

Li Xueying could only nod her head, she was also very embarrassed at the moment, she was really scared, turned her head to look at the other two, they both chose to remain silent.

But fortunately, their special operations team didn't show up that day, especially the captain, otherwise she would feel even more guilty, after all, they were the ones who saved them at that time.

The press conference started. Qin Yuan and the others were also staring at the TV intently in the cafeteria, and there was a mediator beside them. This incident has attracted the attention of all walks of life, so it is more formal.

The mediator stood up and said to Li Qiang and the others: "The cause of this incident involves several of you. Please tell us about the situation at that time again."

Li Qiang stood up without the slightest hesitation and said slowly: "I am also very grateful to everyone for drawing everyone's attention to this matter, so I also want to tell the truth about it."

Li Erniu looked at this kid, "See, how sincere this kid is, probably those keyboard warriors at that time, and some unknown netizens followed suit. He wants to tell the truth?"

As soon as the words fell, Li Qiang said, "We were indeed left out. We were trapped in the mountains for two full days and two nights. No one knew how we spent those two days and two nights, let alone there were such people around us. Vicious gangster."

Li Erniu almost couldn't breathe, coughed violently, what did this guy say?

Qin Yuan also frowned. This kid didn't look like he could talk nonsense before. Why did he turn the facts upside down now?

And what they said next was black and white, not only complaining about their slow rescue speed, but also specifically talking about Qin Yuan and the others.

"And the most important point is that I don't know which special operations team in our country it is. Their strength really worries me. In that kind of crisis, they completely disregarded the safety of the hostages and directly clashed with the bandits."

Speaking of this, Zhang Wenhui also immediately cooperated with the performance, and began to cry beside her, looking very cute and pitiful.

"My classmate was still a girl. We didn't dare to move around in that situation. They didn't consider whether we could accept it, so they had a direct confrontation with the gangsters under our noses. Fortunately, we were lucky. survived the situation."

Gao Shiwei's face turned green when he heard it. He was very relieved that Qin Yuan was doing things. This group of guys really didn't know what  they were talking about.

At this moment, everyone in the cafeteria was also boiling, and everyone expressed their dissatisfaction when they heard this situation.

Wang Yanbing even wanted to rush directly to the press conference, "I knew we should go in person today. We have the ability to confront each other face to face. This group of  is simply confusing right and wrong."

The reason why Li Qiang dared to say this was also because he was sure that there was no other evidence at the time. After all, no matter what the military said, it was their explanation, and he could also say other things.

This guy was really deceived by the lard, and facing his savior, he actually fell into trouble like this.

Because he is deeply aware of the dangers of online violence, they were fascinated for a while looking at the gifts that those people gave in order to gain attention and traffic, but they didn't expect the consequences of talking like this.

Once a lie is told, the hole is filled with other lies, and then it snowballs, with more and more lies piling up.

Gao Shiwei just watched him perform coldly, and originally wanted to give him a chance to reform himself, but it seems that this child is unnecessary.

And it's not a child, people of this age are adults, and they must be responsible for what they say!

The following media started to take pictures and interviews one after another. This is the best opportunity, but is the truth really like what these people said?

Along with Li Qiang's speech, various bullet screens on the live broadcast forum also flew up, all complaining about these rescuers.

"I don't have any ability at all. I'm going to be a rescuer. Go home and feed the pigs!"

"It's simply disregarding human life. With such a special operations team, I think it is probably the cooking team."

Qin Yuan and the others were watching live TV. They haven't seen these vicious remarks so far. They just synthesized light. They suddenly took out their mobile phone and looked at the barrage on the mobile phone.

He directly smashed his mobile phone on the table, "Do you see that these people are talking in human language? When this happens, it will be worse."

Qin Yuan frowned. He didn't expect the incident to be so big before. Looking at the remarks of these people, he sighed deeply. For him, he can adjust his emotions relatively quickly.

But this will really hurt those who have paid for them, especially the military rescue teams and volunteers who have paid silently.

Those reporters also seized the opportunity and turned their microphones to Gao Shiwei and the others.

"Sir Gao, what do you think about this matter? Is what they said true?"

"Sir Gao, if this matter is true, how do you deal with five types of dereliction of duty?"

There are too many questions from these reporters, and all of them are crowded together. After all, these questions are also the most concerned by the public, and whichever media gets the most attention can be the first to get popular.

He didn't answer the question, but passed through these reporters and stared at a few students opposite.

"In this regard, I just want to remind you, who are you protected by, and you must be conscientious in life."

Li Qiang has already broken the pot at this moment, anyway, the result has already become like this, he doesn't care about the result, if it gets worse.

"Look at him blatantly threatening us now. I'm really worried about my safety. Can this society still tell the truth?"

For a while, Li Qiang's speech aroused the dissatisfaction of those reporters, because according to the current situation, Li Qiang and the others are vulnerable groups.

Those reporters acted as envoys of justice and stood in front of them, "Don't worry, no one will threaten you with this matter. We will definitely protect you and give you justice."

Qin Yuan shook his head and felt bored. He stood up, stretched his waist, and said, "What's so interesting about it? Do you want to see this kind of clown performance? Now it's time for training, let's go to training first."

Li Erniu and the others quit, this matter has only just begun, how could it be called for training? Because they felt that things were getting bigger and bigger, and the media watching the scene were a little out of control.

"Brother Qin, I think we'd better finish this matter before training. These guys are really confusing black and white."

"Don't worry, you don't need to worry about these things. Lao Gao, that old fox, has already figured out a solution. Just wait! This matter will have a big reversal!"

Because Qin Yuan gave Gao Shiwei something at that time, and this thing was used to turn things around.

At this moment, Gao Shiwei raised his hand at the news release site to signal, "Everyone be quiet first, I don't want to say anything more, but I have a USB drive here, you can watch the video in it, our soldiers always carry the video with them of."

Li Qiang slumped down on the chair as soon as he heard this. He didn't expect that people in the military could really record video.

Because he didn't notice this situation at the time, he thought that the video was carried by a video camera, but he didn't expect that they all have a video camera now.

This time it was completely over, Li Xueying next to her burst into tears, even if they wanted to do it now, it was too late to say anything, after all, Gao Shiwei had given them a chance before These people are all college students, When people make mistakes, Gao Shiwei is more forgiving. He feels that if these children know their mistakes and explain things clearly, he will not release this video.

But now that the situation is getting worse and worse, I have no choice but to take out the video.

The beginning of the video was recorded when Qin Yuan and the others set off. It only took a total of one and a half minutes for Qin Yuan and the others to receive the task and set off as a whole team.

The scene was very quiet, everyone was watching the video quietly, then Qin Yuan and the others came to the sky, ready to skydive.

Seeing this, Gao Shiwei pressed the pause button, and then said: "You can look at the climate and environment at that time. In this rainy situation, our soldiers quickly landed from an altitude of 500 meters, and there was no rain below. Marker, this is simply a blind jump."

From the video, they have already felt the wind speed at the scene, and those who started smaller could not stand still at all. In such a situation with extremely poor vision, they still parachuted, just to find the group of college students as soon as possible.

Gao Shiwei continued: "Our rescue team did not give up. They have been searching in the mountains since they received the order."

Chapter 924 Clarification Video

Immediately afterwards, Gao Shiwei clicked on the video to continue playing. It can be seen that the environment in the forest is very bad, and it has been drizzling, and everyone just braved the rain to move forward.

Not to mention that these college students didn't eat, their rescuers didn't even dare to waste time eating, and they were always searching.

The captain of the fire brigade next to him said: "With the volunteer team, there are a total of 400 people, plus 12 military dogs, but do you know? We can walk in the mountains with shoes on, but those military dogs have feet It's all gone, let's walk behind our backs!"

The fire brigade chief's words completely shocked the people present. They didn't expect the search process to be so difficult, because everyone didn't pay attention to the search process, and most people only paid attention to the results.

Everyone is trying their best to find help, none of them will say that they have contempt for life, everyone is trying.

In the end, the video showed the process of rescuing them. At that time, facing the vicious poachers, Qin Yuan and the others had no choice but to react.

Gao Shiwei looked at the reporters at the scene and said seriously: "First of all, for the question you raised just now, does our special operations team have enough experience to complete the rescue? My answer is yes."

After the fourth senior finished speaking, he took out some documents from the document bag behind him, "Our special operations team is not only in our country, they have also gone to the world, and they are very famous internationally. "

Those reporters were constantly recording, and Li Qiang was sweating profusely at this moment. He was so nervous that he didn't expect it to become like this.

Li Xueying cried softly beside her, "I said before that we don't want to do this, we should tell the truth, it's all your fault! You threatened me and told me to say this."

"You still have the nerve to blame me. I don't know who said it first in the live broadcast room. I told you to finish it, and everyone will finish it together. Anyway, things have become like this."

Everyone didn't expect that things in the live broadcast room would have such a big reversal. For a while, those netizens didn't dare to speak casually anymore, they just watched the results quietly. Sure enough, it's best not to comment casually until the matter is inconclusive. .

After the video was played, a person walked in from outside the arena. It was Xiaotian, the hostage Qin Yuan and the others had rescued before.

He didn't show up from the beginning to the end, and he refused to be interviewed by those reporters on the grounds that he was not feeling well. At this time, he suddenly appeared, and everyone couldn't figure out what was going on.

Xiaotian stepped forward resolutely, and bowed deeply to the rescuers and Gao Shiwei.

"First of all, I am very grateful to all the rescuers. If it weren't for you, I might not be able to stand here and speak."

Li Qiang didn't expect Xiaotian to come, this guy, he has never communicated with him, he didn't know what he would say, so Li Qiang could only stand up and say first:

"Xiaotian, why did you come here and didn't notify us, we are all friends."

He deliberately said the word "friend" very strongly, just to let Xiaotian understand what he meant, but Xiaotian snorted coldly.

"You guys still have the nerve to say that you are friends. I don't want to admit that there are friends like you at all. It's a group of white-eyed wolves who turn right and wrong."

Xiaotian's words completely shocked everyone present. Li Qiang wanted to refute something at first, but Xiaotian suddenly pointed at him angrily and said, "I really didn't expect to be friends with you people. I really disgust myself."

Xiaotian slowly told the truth, and he said that it was because they went to this place to take risks on their own initiative that they sent so many people and wasted so many resources to rescue them.

Unexpectedly, these guys not only don't know how to be grateful, but also bite back, just for the little heat.

So Xiaotian really can't figure it out, he doesn't bother to be with these people, including those news media, they are not good people, they just catch a little, and the key problems start to magnify.

But it's different now. Now this is a live broadcast after all, and there are many official media interviews, so he wants to explain the matter clearly and let everyone know the truth of the matter.

Xiaotian thought of something, and his eye circles were slightly red. He looked at the camera and said loudly: "Do you know? The situation in that cave was really dangerous that day, but that big brother, in order to save me, took the knife with his bare hands. , the knife was stuck in his palm, and I watched his blood flow down."

Speaking of this, Xiaotian choked up, and he could see that this child was a person who knew how to be grateful. The scene of Qin Yuan receiving the knife with his bare hands that day was still lingering in his mind.

The media also seized this opportunity to quickly interview, "Is what they said true, and do you think your rescue operation was successful?"

"Hehe, do you think it's not a success for me to stand here? I really don't understand what's wrong with this society, why are these rescue workers so harsh, shouldn't those poachers be condemned now?"

Xiaotian's words struck these people's hearts word by word, and Gao Shiwei sat in his seat and applauded. None of the students in these news media could understand. They really chilled everyone's hearts by doing this.

Xiao Tian shook his head, "I'm really sorry for the trouble this incident has caused you. No matter what, I still hope that I can thank my brother who saved me that day and all your rescue team members in public."

At this moment, things have been reversed. Li Erniu and the others are training on the training ground, and they have been absent-minded. He is always thinking about what that guy said, saying that they did not do enough rescue.

He was training in fighting at first, but seeing Li Erniu distracted, Qin Yuan stepped forward, grabbed his shoulder, and fell directly over his shoulder.

Li Erniu grinned his teeth on the ground in pain, this is a concrete floor, he didn't notice Qin Yuan's sudden move.

"I said you should train hard when you train, why are you in a daze?"

"Brother Qin, I'm really not in the mood for training right now. I'm always thinking about things. I feel a little chilled to be messed with like this."

Qin Yuan looked at everyone who couldn't lift their spirits. Let them sit on the ground, and then talk about what happened this time. He has handed over the camera to Gao Shiwei, so things are absolutely fine.

Everyone breathed a sigh of relief when they heard it. They didn't expect Qin Yuan to even hide it from them, and it's not really a secret!

Long Xiaoyun heard that Qin Yuan and the others were caught by the news media again, and rushed to the camp just after the mission was completed, and wanted to come back to comfort Qin Yuan, but saw the people in their team talking and laughing on the playground Fighting.

At this moment, she just felt that this group of guys really had a big heart, and this time the incident was causing a lot of trouble.

Qin Yuan saw Long Xiaoyun approaching, "How about it, big beauty, I haven't seen you for a long time, it seems that you are busier than me."

Long Xiaoyun gave him a blank look. Now that the red blood cell team led by Qin Yuan is becoming more and more famous, Qin Yuan and the others usually take on international rescue missions.

Most of the tasks in the country are now handled by Long Xiaoyun and the others. If you say that this matter is really too complicated, it can't be said to be a waste of resources. For example, the task she performed this time was that a pig in a nearby village fell into it. into the mine.

Then Long Xiaoyun and the others went to help catch the pigs. Qin Yuan felt funny when he heard this, "It's nothing. Let's talk about the captain of the Wolf Warriors team. Skills can save people or rescue them. Otherwise, I'll let the pig out to you." Write a banner thanking you for saving the pig's life."

"You guys know how to be talkative all day long. Forget it, I won't talk to you about it. Have you visited Grandma Sun recently?"

"What's the matter, I don't have time to look at it recently. After all, I have been performing missions outside before, and I just came back now."

Long Xiaoyun shook her head. She always had a bad feeling recently, but she couldn't tell where it was. It was no problem for her to see her father at Long Zhanjun's side, so she was worried that it was Grandma Sun. What's the problem.

Qin Yuan smiled, "I didn't expect that your granddaughter-in-law would care more about her old man than my grandson. She must be very happy to know."

This guy knew to say these unscrupulous things in a day, and Long Xiaoyun slapped him directly, "You can call and ask Grandma Sun to see how he is, I am really worried."

Qin Yuan was not too worried about Grandma Sun's side. After all, Qin Zhengyang was also there. Although Qin Zhengyang was young, he was very sensible.

He smiled and picked up the phone and dialed the number, but unexpectedly no one responded. This kind of situation has happened before, because there are so many children in the orphanage, Grandma Sun is sometimes very busy, but after a while she will will come back.

Just like that, he waited for another half an hour, and he still didn't call back when he came out. Qin Yuan was also a little anxious, so he called several times in a row, but he couldn't get through.

Qin Yuan had no choice but to call the landline of the orphanage again, and finally someone answered the phone, and it was the life teacher Qin Yuan who answered the phone, who also knew him.

The life teacher said that some time ago someone called and said that they had a child with both parents dead, so they wanted Grandma Sun to go and take him to the orphanage to see if his situation was suitable.

Originally, people from their neighborhood committee were responsible for delivering this matter to the door, but the person opposite said that they wanted Grandma Sun to check on the child's condition first, and if they met, they directly sent the person over together.

Grandma Sun didn't think too much about it, so she took Qin Zhengyang directly. Qin Zhengyang remembered Qin Yuan's orders and always wanted to protect Grandma Sun, so he also volunteered to go with him.

Hearing this, Qin Yuan asked anxiously: "But you said that she went to pick up this child two days ago, why hasn't she come back now, and the main phone call to her is also unreachable."

"Captain Qin, don't worry, I don't think there's any problem. After all, it's normal for them to go to the mountains and there is no signal in the mountains, and it may be delayed by other things."

"I still feel a little worried. Is the place where they pick up the children reliable?"

"There's nothing wrong with it. Besides, they're old and young. They just go there to pick up a child. No one will do anything to them."

The life teacher felt that Qin Yuan was thinking a little too much because of his occupational problems. She thought there was nothing wrong with it, because it was not the first time this kind of thing happened, and many children in the orphanage came like this.

Qin Yuan, who hung up the phone, still felt a little uneasy. She called back and asked Grandma Sun's address, and then planned to go there first.

After asking clearly, Long Xiaoyun was also a little relieved. She felt that there should be no problem. Looking at Qin Yuan who was a little anxious, she said comfortingly: "Well, it's this time today, just wait until tomorrow, and you can ask Grandma Sun again. If you still can't get in touch, I will go to that village with you to have a look."

Qin Yuan nodded, this is okay, he thought so too.

When it was just dark, Gao Shiwei came back, and this time the matter was handled very satisfactorily. It was precisely because of Xiaotian's joining and the persuasiveness of their videos that the matter was completely clarified.

The wind direction of the keyboard on the Internet immediately changed, and everyone turned their backs and scolded those college students.

This thing is really like using violence to control violence. Qin Yuan also sighed and said: "The current network model is developing too fast, there is no way, but let them learn a lesson."

"So I don't understand what these young people are thinking now. Is it so difficult for them to be honest?"

Long Xiaoyun said from the side: "It's not that Team Gao is saying that it's hard to tell the truth, but that people can do anything for profit now, and they are indeed a little too offline for profit and fame."

Gao Shiwei sighed deeply, this time the incident was really big, he came forward to solve it personally, "So no matter what task you are infatuated with in the future, you must first protect yourself this time. This thing is a lesson, wear a good camera."

Although it is really helpless to say this, it is obviously to save people, but there are not many such people, after all, this is the first time Qin Yuan and the others have encountered them in their rescue career.

The next day, Qin Yuan called Grandma Sun again. Unexpectedly, the phone was turned off directly this time, which made him a little worried.

He found Gao Shiwei to report the situation, and wanted to go to Grandma Sun to have a look. Gao Shiwei immediately agreed after hearing it.

"Or send your team to see what's going on."

"This is not necessary. After all, we don't know what's going on now. The people in our team will stay here first. They can perform other tasks in case they have to."

"Okay, then go over and see what's going on, and you must tell us, don't worry about it alone."

Long Xiaoyun originally wanted to go with her, but since Qin Yuan had gone, she could only stay on her side. If there was a mission, she needed to lead the team out.

Just when Qin Yuan was about to leave, An Ran came, and it seemed that Long Xiaoyun should have called her.

Chapter 925 Kidnapped by grandma

An Ran put her hands on her waist and looked at Qin Yuan a little unhappy, "You bastard, you didn't take me with you when you went to see Grandma Sun. If Xiaoyun didn't call me, I would still be in the dark."

Qin Yuan originally planned to go by himself, and he didn't want to cause trouble for them, because the matter was not yet settled, so he planned to go and see by himself first.

"Hey! I'm not afraid to bother you, I can do what I can do alone."

Long Xiaoyun kicked him directly from behind, "Listen to what you are saying, and you will share with us. Are we a family now?"

Then he turned his head and walked over, and said to An Ran: "An Ran, let me tell you, don't spoil him on the road later, this kid just needs to be dealt with, so hit him when he needs to."

"Don't worry, Xiaoyun, I have a sense of proportion. I will definitely take care of this guy and teach him a good lesson. When I see Grandma Sun later, I will sue him as well."

The atmosphere was quite tense just now, but because I was willing to worry that Grandma Sun would be teased by them like this, my mood eased a lot, so Qin Yuan drove off with An Ran in his car.

On the way, Anran also tried to call Grandma Sun, but the phone was still turned off, but she still comforted Qin Yuan and said: "Grandma and the others are going to the mountains after all, maybe there is no signal, or grandma didn't bring a charger, and the phone is turned off. possible."

Qin Yuan sighed deeply, he was really afraid of accidents to the people around him, "But I can't contact her for a while, I am really anxious in my heart, and to be honest, I also have a bad feeling Premonition."

"Don't worry, there should be no problem with Qin Zhengyang after all, that kid looks quite clever!"

Qin Yuan nodded, but the speed of the car was still fast along the way. He was very worried about Grandma's situation. No matter what, he had to rush there as soon as possible.

An Ran has been praying silently, hoping that nothing will happen to Grandma Sun.

In this way, when it was dark, they arrived at the village where Grandma Sun came to pick up the child. The village was real, but Qin Yuan only inquired about it after he arrived. Unexpectedly, the villagers did not cooperate at all, and they were rejected directly.

Qin Yuan had no choice but to find the village head and show his ID. The village head only believed Qin Yuan after repeated confirmation.

When the village chief heard Qin Yuan's purpose for coming here, he vetoed it on the spot, "It's absolutely impossible to leave. Such a situation will never happen in our village, and I didn't make this call."

what! Hearing this, Qin Yuan was completely stunned. What's going on? Who is that calling Grandma Sun?

Qin Yuan hurriedly called the life teacher back, and asked him again if he had found the address of the village by mistake, but the life teacher said that it was here that Grandma Sun wrote down the address in her notebook.

Since there is nothing wrong with the village, it means that this should be a scam, deliberately attracting Grandma Sun and the others.

At this moment, Qin Yuan felt for the first time that his relatives suddenly disappeared in front of him, and he couldn't grasp any key clues.

When An Ran heard the news, she was at a loss for a while, because she really couldn't figure out who would attack an old man and a child.

Qin Yuan quickly recalled the prisoners he had caught in these years in his mind. He offended many people, that was too many, but he really couldn't remember who it was.

Because he can only think in this direction. After all, Grandma Sun will not offend people. Grandma Sun is usually amiable, and she always deals with volunteers in the society and children in orphanages. Her life is relatively simple. There will be such a problem.

Xiaohua's tragedy happened once before, and he swore secretly at that time that he must protect grandma grandma and the children in the orphanage. He didn't expect that he didn't even know that grandma was missing until now, and it took three whole days.

He is simply an irresponsible and incompetent grandson. He doesn't know who it is, but of course he touched his family. He must tear that person into pieces.

At this moment, Qin Yuan's eyes were red, he looked up at the village chief and asked, "Village chief, did an old man and a child come here three days ago? Did you pay attention?"

At this moment, the village chief was taken aback by Qin Yuan. This person has changed too much. When he first came here, he felt gentle and refined. Unexpectedly, he saw murderous intent in his eyes now.

An Ran came over and put her hands on Qin Yuan's, "Don't be so anxious, you will definitely find out the clues, now we need to keep our feet steady and don't panic."

Hearing An Ran's voice, Qing Yuan, felt a little comforted in his heart, and the murderous look in his eyes gradually faded away.

The village chief took the photo in Qin Yuan's hand, looked at it and said, "I don't have much impression of these two people, because you also know that I can't be at home 24 hours a day, and the village is so big, I don't know if they came or not. Come."

An Ran stepped forward and said: "Village Chief, please let me know on the radio to see if any villagers have discovered their whereabouts. This matter is really important to us, and human life is a matter of heaven and earth!"

The village head nodded. He also knew that this matter was of great importance, so he immediately turned on the loudspeaker of the radio station and started broadcasting loudly without any delay.

Qin Yuan was also beside him slowly adjusting his emotions. When he heard the news, he was really flustered, because Grandma Sun was really a very important person to him.

His profession made the people he offended were all vicious, he couldn't imagine who would do anything to Grandma Sun.

But she was more fortunate that An Ran was calmer than him, and made up his mind for him at this time, and Qin Yuan couldn't make mistakes at this time, he adjusted his breathing and tried his best to adjust his emotions.

After a few minutes, several middle-aged women came to the radio station, and Qin Yuan and An Ran quickly chased them out.

One of the women took the photo and immediately said positively: "I have seen these two people, because the child is a foreign child, I was so impressed, they even came to ask about the situation, just asking if there are orphans in our village or something."

The person next to him also said: "Yes, they did enter our village, but the child he mentioned did not exist at all, and there was no such statement, and our village head was not there, and then the old man answered a phone call. "

Hearing this, Qin Yuan stepped forward excitedly and looked at this woman, because she said that Grandma Sun answered a call, which meant that Grandma Sun had her mobile phone with her.

At that time, just in case, Grandma Sun's mobile phone was installed with a positioning function, as long as it was turned on, it would definitely be able to find them.

Then the middle-aged woman next to her continued to say that he did see Grandma Sun coming to them to ask for directions. The woman also emphasized that Grandma Sun arrived at the entrance of the village after answering the phone.

"At that time, the old man was with a foreign child, so I took another look and remembered it very clearly."

"Then you continue to recall what happened, what happened to the driver who came to pick them up, can you still remember? Especially his appearance."

The woman could only shake her head. He said that she didn't see the person in the car because the driver didn't get off. Grandma Sun got into that person's car directly after answering the phone.

"Oh, don't worry young people, they definitely know each other, because she seemed to say hello before getting in the car."

Qin Yuan asked some other questions, but there was no result. It seems that this side knows so much. The most important thing now is who made the call?

The person who can make this call is really not easy, he must know Grandma Sun very well, and Qin Yuan, because he always feels that this matter is for him.

The two originally planned to go to the county to call the police. At this time, Qin Yuan discovered that there was a camera. As long as there is a camera here, he can track it.

With Qin Yuan's efforts, she entered the local network, and then clicked in to check. The monitoring three days ago was still fine. They clearly saw from the monitoring that Grandma Sun came by car, and the taxi was still taxi.

There was no problem getting off the bus, and the taxi driver was fine, and left immediately after arriving at the location, but as the woman said, after a while, a van appeared at the entrance of the village.

The driver was indeed seen in the van, but the driver was fully armed, even wearing a hat and mask in this kind of weather.

Qin Yuan could only follow this clue to investigate. At the beginning, he could still find out where there was surveillance. Later, he found that the car was traveling in a place that was not monitored, and it seemed to be going in the direction of the border.

This made him feel very strange. During the whole process, didn't Grandma Sun have any doubts? Until the last shot, he saw Grandma Sun and Qin Zhengyang sleeping on the back seat. Did these people drug them or what happened?

The car went straight off the country road, and then there were no clues. Qin Yuan searched all the surveillance cameras around him. His eyes were bloodshot, and he didn't give up at all. An Ran was also by his side, and Qin Yuan just watched like this. to monitor all night.

After getting off the country road over there, there is no clue at all. It seems that it should be a set car after it came out or they changed the car. Qin Yuan didn't find any clues among so many cars.

At this moment, Qin Yuan really hated his own abilities, and he hoped that his abilities would be stronger, so that he could find Grandma Sun in advance, and they might be able to warn them if they had the ability to predict danger in advance.

He watched the surveillance repeatedly, but Grandma Sun and the others still completely disappeared at that intersection without any clues.

After a whole day and night, Qin Yuan's eyes were red, but there was still no news. The news he has now is that the person with the yogurt was very premeditated, and it was a man. Apart from this, Qin Yuan didn't know anything.

Qin Yuan slapped himself hard. He felt that he was too useless. As Grandma's grandson, he had saved countless people, but he couldn't save his own family. This made him feel too useless.

An Ran hugged him tightly, and comforted him in a low voice: "Qin Yuan, don't worry now, I feel that you have entered a dead end, how can you be so sure that the person you offended kidnapped Grandma Sun? We can find out from the people around Grandma Sun."

At this time, when An Ran reminded him, Qin Yuan suddenly thought of something. This car was going around the border, which meant that they wanted to take Grandma Sun and Qin Zhengyang abroad, so maybe You can go to the pier over there to look for clues.

Without further ado, he hurriedly led An Ran into action. On the way, he explained to An Ran that this incident must have something to do with him, because the people around Grandma Sun were very simple and would not be so targeted, and if it was an ordinary kidnapper, A blackmail letter has already been sent.

But so far, they have not received any news, and there is no clue from the orphanage. Besides, who would kidnap the director of an orphanage?

In this way, he brought An Ran to the pier, and the two searched for clues separately. Qin Yuan still decided to search the local surveillance, and An Ran went to the local police for help. Many successes.

In this way, with the unremitting efforts of the two, they finally found Grandma Sun and the others in one of the ports. At this moment, it can be seen that Grandma Sun and the others should be threatened, because it is very obvious that there are seven or eight people around.

The few of them went to bed together, and Qin Zhengyang glanced at the monitor before boarding the boat, but the monitor showed that this tiny movement was soon noticed by the people next to him.

The man next to him stepped forward and slapped Qin Zhengyang on the back of the head, but Qin Yuan noticed that Qin Zhengyang rolled on the ground after being hit, logically speaking, the force was not so strong. Suddenly Qin Yuan quickly ran to this pier, could it be that Qin Zhengyang deliberately left some clues for himself there?

He searched around. After all, three or four days have passed now, and he doesn't know if he can be found. The place where Qin Zhengyang fell was a wooden bridge that was built. After extending it, they can cross the bridge to the opposite side. on board.

Qin Yuan saw a banknote in the crack of the deck. As expected, after opening it, it was really a clue left by Qin Zhengyang. It seems that the matter should be urgent at that time, and the number of words he wrote was not many.

He drew a villain on the paper, which should represent the kidnapper, and wrote an 8 next to it, with an American accent, with a gun, and said he wanted to find you!

Qin Yuan immediately made an analysis of such simple information. After all, after leaving the pier, he would definitely not find it, because there are thousands of ships and ships out here every day, and they don't know where to look for it.

American accent? Qin Yuan planned to start here. He chose to believe that Qin Zhengyang went directly to the port in the United States to investigate.

An Ran grabbed Qin Yuan and said to him: "Since we have seen the real kidnappers and confirmed that the kidnapping case has been established, this matter is no small matter. You can directly apply to Lao Gao, and you lead the team to set off."

Chapter 926 Unforgivable crime

Qin Yuan nodded, he asked An Ran to stay, and waited for his team on this side first, "You contact them first, I will go to the port of the United States to investigate first, if there is any situation, we will call."

This time the incident was no small matter, it was an ordinary kidnapping case, after all it involved overseas, and it was about Qin Yuan's grandma, so after receiving news from the people inside, they all asked to fight.

Long Xiaoyun directly went to Gao Shiwei to apply for leading the team. Gao Shiwei agreed without hesitation, and asked Long Xiaoyun to take the members of the Wolf Warriors team and the Red Blood Cell team, and the two teams set off together.

Because from the news returned by An Ran, there were eight kidnappers who took away Grandma Sun and the others, and they didn't know what happened overseas.

For the first time, Long Xiaoyun felt that her intuition had turned like this. At first, she felt that something was wrong. She didn't expect to say that something happened to her grandma.

On the way to the pier, no one said a word, and Li Erniu felt that the world was impermanent. He should have gone to see Grandma Sun's situation more, mainly because he was too busy.

"If I serve snacks, I usually pay more attention to Grandma Chun, and I make calls on time, so he won't be in such a situation."

"Erniu, it's too serious for you to say that, and I can't blame you for it."

"But grandma is really nice. She really treats us like grandchildren. Every time I go to her place, she always cooks delicious food for us. Such a nice person, those  can really do it."

Long Xiaoyun said seriously: "This time, I hope that everyone will not get involved with any personal emotions. You have to remember that you are soldiers, and we have to treat it as an ordinary kidnapping case in order to make a correct judgment. "

"Yes!"

Although she said this, Long Xiaoyun was very anxious in her heart, but she couldn't show it, because he is the captain of the team at present, and she is the core key, let alone panic.

Everyone secretly vowed in their hearts that the kidnappers must be brought to justice.

At this moment, Qin Yuan was sitting on the cargo ship leaving the country. He stood on the deck and observed the surrounding situation. It has been four full days since Grandma Sun and the others were taken away, but the kidnappers have not disclosed any news.

What is the situation? Do these people simply want revenge, or do they want to use Grandma Sun to threaten themselves?

The wind on the coast was really strong. At this time, the boss of the boat came out and said, "Young man, come in quickly. It looks like the weather is going to change. If there is any problem at sea, it will be bad."

Qin Yuan nodded and walked in. The boss of the boat was a very enthusiastic person, "Young man, I think you should be a soldier if you look like this!"

Qin Yuan smiled. He knew that it was because of his habitual movements. Some things were carved in his bones. For soldiers, he had strict requirements on himself, and he couldn't change his sitting or standing posture.

Just as I was talking, it started to rain heavily outside. The boss of the boat is really experienced and accurate in judging the weather.

Only at this time did Qin Yuan notice the arrangement of the ship's boss and the interior of the cabin. Looking at it like this, it is estimated that the ship's boss is also a soldier, probably a veteran, because the things in the cabin are arranged very neatly.

What made him even more sure was that the quilts next to him were all folded into tofu cubes. This was a memory engraved in his bones, and he couldn't forget it.

The boss of the boat is that he and his son take turns to drive this boat, taking the son with him to pull goods, and to send people abroad.

"But don't worry, I am a soldier myself, so we won't do that kind of smuggling business."

Speaking of this, Qin Yuan suddenly asked: "Brother, then I want to ask you something. Three days ago, did you notice that there were about eight people around an old man and a child?"

After Qin Yuan finished speaking, he took out the photos. Originally, he just had the mentality of giving it a try. After all, there are too many ships nearby, and he doesn't know what kind of ship they left.

At that time, there were many boats on the pier, and the monitoring only captured the location where Qin Zhengyang was wrestling, and there was a blind spot further ahead, and nothing was captured.

The boss of the boat shook his head. He had no impression of these people. Qin Yuan's eyes dimmed instantly, but the boss of the boat took out his mobile phone and took a photo and said, "But I have a way. If you don't mind, I will post this photo on our website." In the group, let me ask you."

Qin Yuan didn't expect that they even formed a group, which would be more convenient, he quickly nodded in agreement, and the boss of the boat was also unambiguous, and immediately helped him ask in the group.

Within ten minutes, news came from the WeChat group of the boss of the boat. One of them called Dahe pulled these people over. The boss was also more enthusiastic. He knew that Qin Yuan was in a hurry to find someone, so he took out Dahe's phone and called past.

Dahe did receive these people that day, but what Dage said made Qin Yuan's heart tremble instantly.

"The child is quite normal and didn't speak, but the old man next to him was unconscious. Those people told me that the old man was seriously ill and needed to go to see a doctor there, and they paid double the money."

When Qin Yuan heard this, he suddenly shouted loudly: "But they don't even have identity information, so you just let them pass?"

Da He was also dumbfounded by Qin Yuan's yelling, what was the situation, the boss of the boat hurriedly answered the phone, apologized, and then winked at Qin Yuan.

Because there is no way, the pier here is too wide, there is no way to manage every ship in a standardized manner, and these people can send people there for money, regardless of whether they have identity information or not.

Qin Yuan felt that the management regulations here were too lax. If the management was strict, Grandma Sun would not be taken out so easily, and he said that Grandma Sun was in a coma at the time.

Qin Yuan was very worried. At this time, the boss of the ship hung up the phone and told Qin Yuan that they might need to change direction. It turned out that the big box had sent them to the nearby Yuan Kingdom.

"Young man, what are your plans now? Should we go to the Yuan Kingdom or the location you mentioned earlier?"

Qin Yuan took a deep breath. It was true that he was too emotional just now, because Grandma Sun was really important to him.

"Brother, I'm sorry, I was so gaffe just now that I scared you, mainly because this is my family and it's really important."

"It's okay, I can understand this, don't worry! You will definitely find them."

Qin Yuan received a call from Long Xiaoyun, and Qin Yuan told them the news he had learned from the boss of the ship, and asked them to rush to Yuanguo to meet him.

The boss of the boat knew that the matter was urgent, so he drove faster. At this time, the son of the boss of the boat said, "Dad, we can't go ahead. It's not peaceful here. There are some small boats haunting and often robbing fishing boats."

"What are you afraid of? Hang our national flag out, I don't believe they dare to move us."

Qin Yuan was very grateful to the boat boss for his help, but before they could hang out the national flag, two boats appeared in front of them at a very fast speed, rushing towards them, and quickly threw the hooks on their beds.

Qin Yuan knew that ships used to rob, so the boss of the ship hurriedly asked his son to take out the national flag. When those ships saw the national flag, they were really stunned.

At this moment, a man with a beard on the opposite boat said: "What's the situation? It hasn't opened for half a month. I didn't expect it to be a ship from Yan Kingdom. It seems that this trip is empty again. Let the brothers prepare to take the hook and return. !"

But the subordinate next to him didn't think so, he hurriedly said: "Brother, I just saw that there were only three of them on the bed, we can't miss this opportunity, we haven't opened for more than half a month, brothers are complaining."

"I know this, but we must not move this ship. You don't know their terrifying strength. If you offend them, don't even think about messing around here."

"Brother, I think your words are a bit too exaggerated. Let's do it right now, rob the things on the boat, collect the money, kill people, and then I will find a few brothers to drag the boat to the shore and burn it directly. no one knows."

The man is also hesitating at this moment. After all, they have gained nothing for more than half a month. It is really impossible to continue like this. On balance, for the sake of profit, he is ready to take a risk.

Seeing that those people were about to take back the hooks, but suddenly approached them, the son of the boat boss hid in fear, "Dad, what should we do? Why don't these people work? Our national flag is hanging out, and they dare to come in."

Qin Yuan was already very anxious because of Grandma Sun's kidnapping, but he didn't expect these guys to come up to die. Seeing his Yan country's national flag, he dared to rush forward. This is completely provocative, ignore them.

"Brother, take your son and hide in the bed and don't come out. I'll meet them when I go out."

"Young man, you can't do this! How could you beat these people by yourself? All these people are vicious, and they may have guns on their bodies."

Qin Yuan just smiled and gave him a firm look, "Don't worry! Trust me!"

Qin Yuan strode out of the cabin, and then closed the small door. A few people rushed up today. They did have guns in their hands. They had just rushed up. These people sensed that something was wrong. Although the man in front of him was alone, but The whole body exudes a murderous aura, which is very terrifying.

The big man who took the lead suddenly shuddered, he read it right! Why do I feel that this man is so terrifying, as if he came from hell, his eyes are so frightening.

Then the people on the nearby boat also jumped over, "Boy, be sensible and hand over the money and valuables quickly."

Qin Yuan didn't even look at it, he just said coldly: "Open your dog eyes wide and take a good look at what kind of national flag this is."

The man who rushed up was very arrogant, and kicked the national flag on the ground into the water, "Then what kind of national flag are you? To tell you the truth, I don't understand."

Unexpectedly, Qin Yuan was already on the move in the next second. As soon as the man's voice fell, his head and head were separated, and he fell heavily into the water. This scene was so fast that no one around him could react. Hard once.

Not only did this man ignore the majesty of their country, he even insulted their national flag, which is an unforgivable crime!

For a moment, the big man just now was frightened instantly. This man was simply too terrifying, but he had no choice but to bite the bullet. After all, he was only one person, and there were more than a dozen of them.

Everyone rushed forward one after another, Qin Yuan knocked the big man to the ground with a sweep of his legs, and then threw out a handful of playing cards, hitting the hearts of the three people in front, and the three people standing on the deck fell into the water.

The big man got up to run away, but Qin Yuan stepped on his back, and with a click, his shoulder bones were crushed by Qin Yuan's foot.

These people were just gangsters from some small countries in the surrounding area, and they came to be robbers because they really had no other choice. I didn't expect that when they met such a powerful person, everyone had no choice but to run away.

Qin Yuan sneered, how could these people escape? Since they choose to provoke the majesty of their own country, they will not let it go.

The eyes of the bearded man just now were full of horror. This man was really terrifying. He drove the boat and left those men behind. He was desperately trying to escape when he heard the sound of landing on the deck.

Just when he turned his head, a flying knife directly cut his throat, and he didn't let him say any more words. The man held his throat tightly and fell down, his eyes widened with fear.

Qin Yuan's sword skills were too fast. Within a few minutes, Qin Yuan had eliminated all the robbers. The boss of the boat was completely dumbfounded. Seeing Qin Yuan eliminate all those people and climb up from the water, he felt a little bit He hesitated, afraid to open the door.

He didn't know whether this person was a soldier, , but it was the first time he saw such a murderous person, and he was chatting and laughing with him just now, it was really terrifying.

But it's not their fault, after all, any ordinary person would not be afraid to see such a situation, Qin Yuan kicked the corpses of those robbers into the water directly.

Picking up the iron bucket on the deck to wash away the blood on the deck, Qin Yuan walked over and knocked on the door. The boss of the ship was very nervous, swallowed a mouthful of saliva, and opened the door.

Suddenly he knelt down towards Qin Yuan, "You... who are you, but we haven't seen anything, please let us go, please?"

The son of the boat boss was also terrified at the moment, he couldn't believe that the man who was talking and laughing with them just now was so terrifying.

Qin Yuan has restrained his murderous aura at this moment, "I am really a soldier of Yan Kingdom, these people should be killed and damned, not only ignore our majesty, but have you ever thought that if I don't take action, the one who will die today is You, they dare to attack us, this is just a lesson."

Seeing that the boss of the ship's face gradually eased, Qin Yuan continued: "You have been a soldier before, so you should be able to understand this truth, especially when they insulted our national flag just now, I can't bear it even more. This is also a lesson. until they are afraid."

Chapter 927 Intercepted Halfway

If it was Qin Yuan who hadn't been a soldier before, he might have the same idea as the boss of the ship. After all, as an ordinary person, seeing this kind of scene would be scary.

But these vicious criminals will never talk to you about these conditions. If Qin Yuan tries his best not to do anything, they will definitely die. After all, this is not their country now.

The boat boss didn't say anything, but just sailed silently. Qin Yuan also knew the boat boss's worries. He was mainly worried about whether Qin Yuan was from the military, but now he had nothing to explain.

Qin Yuan stood on the deck with his hands behind his back and looked ahead silently, while the boss of the boat continued to sail.

After a few more hours like this, they finally arrived at the border of the Yuan Kingdom. Although this is their border, but because it is located at the mouth of the coast, the entire coastline is very long. From a distance, there is a jungle in front of them, which cannot be seen. to the margins.

The captain of the boat bravely stepped out and said, "The frontier is their border, we can't go any further, we can only send you here."

Qin Yuan could also understand, after all, the boss of the boat probably didn't want to cause trouble, and if he was found by patrolling border soldiers after going up, it would be another round of interrogation.

"It's not that we don't want to go forward. If you're really a soldier, then you should understand what I'm saying, and I really hope you can find the person you're looking for."

Qin Yuan turned around and gave a standard military salute to the captain of the boat.

"Brother, no matter what, thank you very much for providing me with information, but I still hope that you will not be afraid. After all, from my standpoint, those people just now deserve death."

The boss of the boat nodded half understanding, then Qin Yuan plunged into the water and swam quickly towards the shore. There was still a distance of two or three kilometers, but this distance was not enough for Qin Yuan. What kind of.

The boss of the boat turned around and wanted to instruct his son to turn around, but when he saw the neatly stacked national flags on the deck, he suddenly understood.

He turned around and paid a military salute in the direction where Qin Yuan disappeared. Although he had already retired, and he had only been a soldier for two years at that time, he suddenly understood the meaning of what Qin Yuan did just now.

He is not only maintaining the dignity of the Yan Kingdom, but more importantly, he is empowering those people, letting them know that the people of the Yan Kingdom are not so easy to bully, and he just changed another way to silently protect these fishermen.

After all, these fishermen have been dealing with someone outside for a long time. In such a wide water area, they really might encounter any danger.

What Qin Yuan did was also to make a big picture for those people, as long as he dared to touch the people of Yan Kingdom, this would be the end.

At this moment, the boss of the boat only hoped that the unknown soldier could find the person he was looking for and come back safely.

The son who was driving the boat in the cabin poked his head out and said, "Dad, I always feel that something is wrong. Should we call the police first after we get down?"

"Silly son, why call the police? We are all a family. They are protecting us. Drive your boat well and prepare to go home. I will hang up the national flag. This is our protection work. They are silently protecting us. people."

Although the son doesn't understand what Boss Chuan said now, he will always understand in the future.

At this moment, Qin Yuan had already swam to the other side, and he came up quietly from the water. This was the first time for him to come to this border line, and he had been to the border line of Yuan Kingdom before, but the border line has many points, and this is just one of them.

It can be seen that there should be many stowaways here, after all, the grass next to it has been trampled out of a path.

Moreover, their border line was not strictly controlled. Qin Yuan followed the path all the way to the port. After waiting for more than half an hour, a few people finally came over.

These people were sneaky and had guns on their bodies. After they came here, they squatted under the big tree and smoked.

Qin Yuan was startled by the sudden appearance of these people after the operation. These people are local snakeheads. They usually come to this position to meet smugglers. If there are people who can smuggle here alive, they are here to meet them and take them. When you return to country M, you can get a new identity and earn a fee from it.

But what these smugglers do is not that simple. The amount they charge is very high, and most of them plunder the money of the smugglers, and then directly kill them on the border.

Unless it is some ruthless people, they dare not provoke them.

One of the smugglers cursed, "Damn it, it's so unlucky, I don't know when people show up, just like a ghost."

Although he scolded in the local dialect, Qin Yuan heard it clearly, but now he doesn't want to care about it.

These snake heads were his only hope. He didn't know if he could investigate the clues from here. He took out a stack of banknotes from his backpack, and when he saw the banknotes, the tongues and eyes lit up instantly.

The leader immediately asked: "Where do you want to go, we will take you there."

"I'm not going there, I just want to see you and find out something."

"Okay, as long as we all know what we can tell you."

Qin Yuan showed them a photo of Grandma Sun, "Did you notice that these two people came ashore from here three days ago?"

The snake head recalled it carefully. There were too many smugglers in the past few days, and he couldn't remember it for a while, but he wanted the money again. Since they were winking at each other, Qin Yuan snorted coldly, he already knew What are these people up to.

Suddenly a man stabbed at Qin Yuan with a dagger in his hand. Qin Yuan snorted coldly and easily dodged grabbing the man's wrist. With a click, the man's wrist was directly broken.

Then he kicked the shoulder of the person who had just rushed up, and the others were stunned for a moment, not daring to act rashly for a moment, unexpectedly they were still masters.

They had guns in their hands, and they wanted to shoot at first, but now is really not the time. It is still daylight, and if they shoot to attract those border soldiers, it will be bad.

Qin Yuan still wanted to continue to do something, but the man just now stopped him immediately: "Sir, don't do anything, we will tell you if we know anything."

"But I don't think your sincerity is enough. Originally, I planned to give money. It seems that now I can only fight violence with violence until you say so."

I have to say that this person's tone is too crazy, but judging from his skill just now, what he said is true. For a while, the snakehead didn't dare to act rashly.

He looked at the photo carefully again, and suddenly thought of something, "Although these two people were not picked up by us, I saw them that day. When they went ashore, they happened to meet border police patrolling, so a gun battle broke out on the spot."

Hearing this, Qin Yuan was taken aback, but he didn't dare to judge whether what the snakehead said was true or not. After all, these guys can fabricate anything for money, so how could they meet border soldiers so coincidentally.

Qin Yuan stepped forward, put his hand on the snake head's shoulder, exerted a little force, and showed the flying knife in his hand. The snake head wanted to break free, but found that although Qin Yuan seemed to be resting on his shoulder with ease, But I can't move at all.

"How can I be sure what you said is true?"

The people next to them couldn't take it anymore, they were the only ones who threatened these stowaways, no one had ever threatened them, at worst they would fight now, and they ran out quickly after the shots were fired.

He pulled out the pistol from his waist and shot at Qin Yuan, but before he could pull the trigger, Qin Yuan held down the safety catch of the pistol and kicked him in the abdomen, the man flew out in an instant, Qin Yuan grabbed his hand The gun in the gun was pointed directly at the man on the ground.

This person's speed was too fast, and several people were very surprised. Unexpectedly, in an instant, the situation changed again. They took their pistols at such a fast speed, and now they are turning against customers.

The man who fell on the ground immediately raised his hand, "Sir, no, no, no, don't be so impulsive!"

"I see that you are not only running the train with your mouth full, but you really have no sincerity at all. It seems that you really think too kindly of me."

The person next to him quietly touched his waist, Qin Yuan threw a throwing knife directly, and hit the man's eyebrows, the man's pupils dilated, and he fell directly in front of Qin Yuan, bleeding instantly.

Several people were shocked, this person's movements were too fast, all this happened too suddenly, after this moment, no one dared to move at will, after all, they knew that this time they really met a master.

"I just want to know the information I want to know, and I want accurate and truthful information."

"Sir, everything is fine. Don't do it, but you have to believe what we say. The reason I dare to say that they had a conflict that day is because I was very impressed."

The men on the ground began to speak slowly, because they waited for stowaways here every day, and saw eight men walking down with two people that day. People are responsible for bringing it to country M.

But one of the men started calling after he got down. They should be waiting for someone to come over. This is the border line. Just want to reach the city, you must have a means of transportation, and it takes four to five hours to drive.

This kind of thing is not surprising, everyone is on the same path, they do what they do, the man was very irritable after the call, and then made several calls, it seems that the other party did not answer, did not expect the border soldiers at this time Come on patrol.

All of a sudden, a shootout happened. These tongues were very cunning, and they hid in the dark to observe the situation secretly. They planned that if something happened to these people, they would take the opportunity to go out and take those two people away to make another sum of money.

Because these border fighters don't care about the life and death of these stowaways, most of them will directly take these stowaways out of the country, how to drive them out? Everyone knows how to push people directly without a boat.

But those people's marksmanship was very good, and the battle was fierce for a while, and the two teams fought hard. Those people also knew the existence of these snakeheads, and one of them ran over to find them.

The snake head slowly pointed to the dead man on the ground and said, "They came here to ask Bada to guide them, and they want to send these two people out together."

"Why did they find you?"

Qin Yuan was really puzzled. According to this man, if those people were agile, how could they ask for help from snakeheads like them?

"Because we have a car, they probably can't do anything about it, and those few people have to say, we think they should be escorting some important person, they left a few people to cover the scene, and the rest of them followed us and took the two people away gone."

"Then what happened next?"

When asked about this, the snake head suddenly felt a little guilty. He rolled his eyes and said, "The people behind were brought into the city by them, so we don't know about it. After all, we are only responsible for sending them into the city."

Qin Yuan snorted coldly, and stabbed the knife directly at the man's leg. The man grinned in pain, but still clenched his teeth so as not to make too much noise.

The person next to him couldn't help it, "Fuck! What the * are you, at worst, just fight."

The man rushed up quickly, Qing Yuan didn't even look at it, and threw out the flying knife directly. The flying knife cut a big mouth along the man's neck, and blood flowed instantly. The man tightly clutched his neck, some couldn't believe it.

He wanted to say something, but he couldn't say anything, so he fell straight on the ground. Just as the person behind him was about to run, Qin Yuan turned over and punched the man on the chin, followed by a sweeping leg. Bring down those who run away.

"I advise you to avoid such petty tricks. If you still want to get out alive, then answer my question honestly."

The man on the ground covered the wound on his thigh, bit his lip, and said, "But I've already told you the truth, why don't you let us go?"

"That's because you didn't tell the truth at all. I just said it. What I want to hear is the truth."

This man is even more ruthless than them The snake head had no choice but to tell the truth of the matter with a sigh, because they had a gun battle at that time. There are injuries.

On the way, the smugglers took advantage of the opportunity to attack the men, killed them all, and then robbed the two men.

"what!"

Qin Yuan was very angry when he heard this, and directly picked up the pistol to kill this person on the spot, but he still held back, he needed to ask about the situation later.

"Then where did you take those two people behind?"

"Back... we found out they had no money at all, and then we left them on the way..."

After the snake head finished speaking, he didn't dare to look at Qin Yuan, but Qin Yuan just slowly threw out a map, "Give me the location and mark it out, where did you leave them?"

The snake head looked at it, and pointed at a place tremblingly. It didn't look like he was talking. After all, he didn't dare to talk nonsense at this time.

As soon as he got the information, Qin Yuan directly shot and killed the two people, and then quickly ran towards the place that the snake head said with a map.

Chapter 928 News sent

He will not be merciful to these people, and Grandma Sun's disappearance is related to them.

According to the analysis of this disappearance, Qin Yuan concluded that this group of people hijacked Grandma Sun, but they didn't hurt them, maybe they wanted to threaten him.

But I didn't expect to be destroyed by this snakehead halfway. In such a harsh environment, these guys actually left Grandma Sun and the others on the way.

It is impossible to imagine how Grandma Sun and the others can survive under such conditions. Qin Yuan knows a little about the illegal immigrants, so he is very worried that it has been so long.

At this moment, Long Xiaoyun led the team to chase Qin Yuan all the time, and they came to the boss of the boat, where they were attacked.

It is obvious that there is a battlefield here, because the ships of those bandits are still there, but there are almost no survivors at the scene.

Li Erniu jumped onto the opposite boat and checked the wounds of those people. "Brother Qin should have been here in the dragon team. These people were all killed by him. The wounds are very neat, and all of them were cut open on the neck."

"What's the situation?"

Long Xiaoyun was worried that things were not that simple, so he could only make the team speed up, and must keep up with Fang Tian's footsteps.

At this time, Qin Yuan had arrived at the place where Grandma Sun was abandoned by the snakeheads. After searching carefully, he found an arrow sign on a tree trunk. This place was carved very secretly, and it should be made by Qin Zhengyang.

A villain was still drawn next to the arrow, and Qin Yuan was confused for a while, what's going on? If the smuggler left them here, it should be those frontier soldiers who came to search. If they encounter Grandma Sun, they should take them back.

Judging from this situation, it is estimated that they encountered the previous person again, because the villain Qin Zhengyang drew was the same as the previous one.

At this time Qin Yuan heard footsteps behind him, he turned his head and found that it was Long Xiaoyun and the others.

It could be seen that they were rushing all the way, and they also came from diving, Long Xiaoyun panted and asked, "What's the situation with Qin Yuan now, is there any news about grandma and them?"

Qin Yuan nodded, then pointed to the tree trunk, then came to him to interrogate those snake heads, and said it again.

Hearing this, Li Erniu clenched his fists and punched the tree trunk next to him, "These * really can do anything, just for money, and don't care about two lives like this?"

"Don't worry, I've already dealt with those bastards, but now I really don't know who kidnapped Grandma Sun and the others. The range of Americans is too wide, and I really can't think of it for a while."

However, Long Xiaoyun found it strange that Qin Yuan's identity information was generally kept secret. Even if they knew Qin Yuan himself, it was impossible to find Qin Yuan's family members.

Their secrecy policy is also to protect their family, so that's kind of weird.

Now everyone's investigation has reached a dead end. After all, we don't know where the person was taken. The location here is too wide.

Qin Yuan planned to take the initiative to attack. Since he knew that Grandma Sun was brought to this place, those people must have taken Grandma Sun away because of Qin Yuan, so he will stay here for a few more days to see if the kidnappers will take the initiative to find him.

Now there is only this way, Long Xiaoyun nodded, everyone looked at the map, and planned to advance to the small town in front, although the terrain here is complicated, but only that area is inhabited, no matter how these people are, they should be Will send people to town.

Now that he has found a place to live and settled down, He Chenguang put forward his own opinion, "This matter is too strange, there are not many people who know Brother Qin's identity, not to mention such intimate information, I wonder if there is something inside us what is the problem."

Qin Yuan shook his head and vetoed it. This is definitely not possible, because the people inside them know that Grandma Sun exists. Except for Gao Shiwei and the others, they are members of his own team, and there will be no information leakage at all.

"What I mean internally is not that we have internal rapes, but whether we will be monitored, but we don't know."

Speaking of this is quite possible, because there are too many monitoring methods now, a memory card, a phone card or a mobile phone can all be used for location monitoring.

Especially after Qin Yuan came into contact with this field of hacking, he became more aware that there was no secrecy at all. He could know the person's identity information and family situation within a few minutes, but as a soldier, he was relatively strong in defense.

It shouldn't be so easy, and if someone investigates him, he should be aware of it.

Everyone lived in the hotel, and the next morning, Qin Yuan suddenly jumped up from the bed, "Everyone, beware of people outside the door!"

Qin Yuan moved to the door, opened the door of the room, and saw a child holding a letter in his hand, the child was obviously frightened, and wanted to run out after dropping the letter, Qin Yuan quickly grabbed him.

Long Xiaoyun also ran out from the next room when he heard the movement. Everyone thought they had encountered a kidnapper, but they turned out to be a child. What's going on?

The child had never seen such a situation before, he just shook his head vigorously, expressing that he didn't know anything, but it could be seen that the child was just a messenger.

Finally, when Qin Yuan and the others questioned him, the child said that a man gave him a tip to deliver the letter.

The child is relatively young, so he can't tell what a man looks like, just a man.

Speaking of this, Qin Yuan opened the kidnapper's letter, but he felt even more strange in his heart, these people's dog noses are too sharp! They knew it just after they arrived here last night.

This speed is too fast, so I have to wonder if there is really some hidden monitoring equipment around me.

After opening the letter, he found that it was written in Chinese. Qin Yuan recognized Grandma Sun's handwriting at a glance. These guys are quite cunning, and they don't want to leak any information.

The letter is also very simple, "Captain Qin, I didn't expect you to come so soon. I am very satisfied with the speed, but you have to listen to us, otherwise I cannot guarantee the safety of these two people." , the first condition, let your people get out of the Yuan Kingdom now, and you stay alone."

Everyone looked at the letter and fell into deep thought. Could it be that they were really being watched? He Chenguang walked to the window sill and looked at the people coming and going below. He couldn't figure it out. Could it be that there is a problem in the hotel itself?

But this hotel was also chosen randomly by them. It couldn't be such a coincidence. They just chose the hotel to be monitored.

For the sake of safety, several people didn't speak any more. Qin Yuan took out his notebook and wrote a few words on the paper, asking everyone to check whether they had trackers or monitors installed on their bodies.

Because he always felt that something was wrong, it seemed that after Long Xiaoyun and the others came, everyone started to be monitored. He went to the bed of the boat boss over there, and there was no problem all the way here.

Everyone checked around and found no other surveillance equipment. It is very likely that they entered this town by chance, so there should be eyeliners on them.

"Brother Qin, what should we do now? How can we retreat? They obviously want to threaten you by talking about grandma. "

"Don't worry, you retreat first, I can handle this matter, I can do it alone."

Long Xiaoyun shook his head quickly when he heard it, how is this possible, these kidnappers can directly step in and take people away, they can do anything, Qin Yuan will only be alone at that time, it is too passive.

But Qin Yuan's attitude was very firm. He felt that he should do what the kidnappers said now, and it would be more convenient to check what he said alone.

He looked at the team members who were unwilling to retreat and said, "Don't worry! I have gone through so much before, no one can kill me, and the person who hurt me has not yet been born."

Long Xiaoyun quickly shook her head, she did not allow Qin Yuan to say anything about life and death, because really any unexpected situation could happen, especially this time with Grandma Sun.

In the end, everyone discussed and decided that Long Xiaoyun would lead the team, withdraw from the town first, and lurk around the town, while Qin Yuan stayed inside. If there is any situation, everyone can deal with it in time.

Because the kidnappers are in the dark after all, let's do what they say first.

Ever since the child who delivered the letter appeared, Qin Yuan has been watching the people coming and going below the window. He doesn't know who is the kidnapper, and everyone among them may be.

According to the current situation, the kidnapper should send other information, usually asking him where to meet, or put forward some other conditions.

Long Xiaoyun and the others had completely evacuated. When it was just dark, Qin Yuan noticed a bouncing child jumping out of the alley next to him, holding a letter in a brown paper bag. At this time, a child was wearing a mask. The man also quickly came out from inside.

Qin Yuan snorted coldly, but he was finally caught. He stared at the back of the man leaving, and the man walked into the tavern opposite.

After a while, there was a knock on the door, and the child who delivered the letter came. Qin Yuan picked up the letter and checked it and found out that the kidnappers made a second condition. This time, the condition was that Qin Yuan should go to the quarry ten kilometers away field.

And the time they set is 5 o'clock tomorrow morning. At that time, it was still dark. These guys probably ambushed there. It seems that they really have a grudge against themselves.

Qin Yuan originally planned to go directly to those guys at five o'clock. He was not afraid at all, but he still wanted to learn more information, observed the surrounding situation, and changed his clothes.

Then he walked into the tavern where the man went just now. At this moment, the man was sitting in front of the bar and talking loudly with a woman, and he looked in a good mood.

Qin Yuan walked over and patted him on the shoulder. The man was disturbed and was a little upset. He turned his head and saw Qin Yuan and was shocked. Isn't this the person the boss told him to monitor? Why did you suddenly appear here?

Qin Yuan held down the man calmly, and then put a dagger directly on the man's waist.

The man didn't dare to move for a while, he knew Qin Yuan's methods, for him, there was no way to resist, so the two came to the alley behind the bar.

Qin Yuan punched the man in the stomach. The man coughed violently and knelt on the ground.

"Where is my family?"

"I really don't know, I'm just an errand boss, just let me send you a letter, and then monitor you."

Qin Yuan didn't believe it at all. It seemed that if he didn't suffer a little bit, he wouldn't be able to tell the truth. Another punch, Qin Yuan hit the man on the chin, but the man still didn't let go.

Then he directly took out the knife and stabbed it in the man's calf. The man let out a fierce scream, and finally couldn't bear it, so he quickly stopped.

"Stop hitting, I'll tell you what I know, and you let me go."

"They are in the quarry now, and a trap has been set up there waiting for you to pass."

"Nonsense, I know all of this, I just want to know who is behind it."

The man hesitated, his eyes were very dodgy, he didn't know whether he should tell Qin Yuan or not.

"You'd better choose to tell the truth, otherwise I will have other means to get you to tell the truth, but in that situation, you will be a dead person after you finish speaking, and now that you have taken the initiative to speak, I may let you go horse."

After weighing it over and over again, the man said everything he knew.

"I only know that the person leading the operation this time is called Lucas. The people around him are quite powerful, but I don't know if there are other people behind him. I really don't know these things."

Besides this, Qin Yuan also asked about other things. It turned out that after Grandma Sun and the others were dropped by the snakehead that day, the people who came to meet them also came, so before Grandma Sun and the others escaped, they were arrested by the people who came in again.

It turned out that these two groups were just a cooperative relationship, and they were recruited by Lucas. Because it was inconvenient for him to come forward, he asked people to go to Huaxia to bring Grandma Sun out. Unexpectedly, the people brought in during this process suddenly The price increase in the middle This caused the opening scene, and Lucas also agreed to the price increase, but they did not expect that they were discovered by border patrol soldiers, so a gun battle occurred.

For this Lucas, Qin Yuan carefully recalled this person in his mind, but he really had no impression, which meant that he was not the real mastermind behind the scenes, there should be other people behind it, or this person used a pseudonym.

Anyway, no matter what, she will go to the market at 5 o'clock tomorrow morning. She doesn't intend to tell Long Xiaoyun the news. They don't want to involve them again, and she is enough alone.

Qin Yuan let this man go as promised. After all, this man is just a young man, and the people behind him are not here.

The next morning, Qin Yuan came to the quarry and found that it had been deserted for a long time. This kind of place is really suitable for killing people.

But this time the direction changed, he killed the kidnappers, not the kidnappers killed him.

Those people who dare to touch their own family members will die. At this moment, a man's voice came from the front. The voice of this man was very hoarse.

"Captain Qin, I really admire your courage. You really came alone."

Chapter 929 Terrible Killing Intent

Qin Yuan can guarantee that he has never heard of this voice, so this is strange, who has a grudge against him and kidnapped Grandma Sun?

"Hehe, if you don't dare, you all dare to do it, and you kidnapped my relatives, so you should know who I am!"

"Of course, but I'm just following orders. Today, it seems that Captain Qin can't leave here."

Qin Yuan was a little anxious because he hadn't seen Grandma Sun until now, "Stop talking nonsense here, don't you want to kill me when you come to me? But my family is innocent, as long as you let them go, I can catch it without a fight."

"Hahaha, this is indeed Captain Qin's style. Don't worry, I won't hurt them either. After all, I have principles."

Qin Yuan has been trying his best to collect information, but it seems that it is useless.

At this moment, although Lucas was hiding in the dark and talking, he was still very nervous because he knew Qin Yuan's strength. He had seen Qin Yuan's terrifying strength before, but now Andre sent him a small team. People, these people are retired special forces.

No matter what, he must live to meet his wife and daughter this time. The task Andre gave him was to cut off Qin Yuan's head and use Qin Yuan's head to replace the lives of his wife and daughter.

Lucas said in a low voice: "You guys go and bring those two down."

"What? Are you sure you want to bring it here now? Boss has told you that these two people must not be let go."

"I know, but this is a tactic to delay the attack, and you have never seen the terrifying strength of this person at all. Now these two people are our trump cards, and we must not kill you, understand?"

The mercenary next to him snorted coldly. He looked down on Lucas a little bit. This guy was very secretive. Before he came, he also knew some general information. This guy was the former captain of the Snow Leopard Commando.

However, after retiring from the army, with a bright future in mind, don't even become a rebel. This is what he despises the most, although he is also doing things for Andre now.

But he knew that this had nothing to do with treason, but the people in front of him were different. He didn't understand why Andre kept such a traitor.

So this means that the two sides have different ideas. Although they are in the same team, both sides have differences. Although Andre gave the main power to Lucas this time, these people are actually very unconvinced by him. of.

Especially if they thought they should be ruthless and killed Qin Yuan ruthlessly, it was actually good for them, because they solved a strong opponent for their country.

Lucas felt that using such a despicable method was not a soldier's style at all, but he had no choice. If his wife and daughter were not threatened, he would not do such a thing.

From the very beginning when these people found Grandma Sun, they planned to attack them directly, but Lucas stopped them.

He knew very well that grandma and sun were their life-saving talismans and they must not be moved. On the other hand, these two people were innocent civilians, why should they be hurt?

Although Lucas said this, the people next to him were very unconvinced, and continued with a cold snort: "Now our sniper is in place, I ordered to shoot, and with our fire support, this kid will never get out alive , what do you still want to do with those things?"

"Yes, but you're just a coward. Don't use your treasonous tricks on us."

Lucas didn't know what to say for a while, he looked at the person in front of him angrily, "You...do you know who you are talking to? This time the main power is given to me."

"Hehe, you are a traitor, how dare you say these things? It was because this person didn't show up, and everyone didn't want to argue with you. Now what you said is no longer valid."

Lucas sighed deeply. These people didn't listen to him at all, so let them do whatever they want. Anyway, he is going to find Grandma Sun and the others now, because he knows that is his last resort.

Seeing Lucas leave, the man snorted coldly. As expected of the style of the rebels, he has always been such a leader. I really don't know what Andre took a fancy to him, so he sent such a person here.

Then the man picked up the walkie-talkie, "Snipers No. 3 and No. 4 are ready. When you observe a suitable position, report to me. Everyone shoots together. We use light machine guns as fire support."

The man was very confident. He felt that under such dense firepower, Qin Yuan would never be able to escape their grasp.

At this moment, Qin Yuan had already discovered the locations of those snipers, and this little trick was like a trick in front of him.

It seems that he has really been inactive for too long. These people dared to ride on his head, and more importantly, touched his relatives. Now he just wants to find the mastermind behind the scenes.

There has been no movement below, Qin Yuan was a little impatient, and shouted loudly: "What is the situation with you? Let me come here to at least give an explanation. If you want to do it, do it quickly. The sniper on my left, what are you watching?" Good or not."

Everyone was taken aback when they heard this, how did he find out? With such a vision, how did he do it, and at this moment Qin Yuan is holding his hands, looking very confident.

Qin Yuan shook his head when he said this, "I really don't know where you found these snipers, and the one on the right. If you can hit the target from this angle, it's really a ghost. The recruits in our company People are better than you."

I go! Now those soldiers were completely stunned. Not only did they tell their exact location, but they even said that their location was not accurate enough.

How did this man do it? But in the next second, when they looked down again, Qin Yuan was not there.

The man in command just now panicked instantly. He took out his binoculars and searched for Qin Yuan's figure, "Damn! Did you see that guy? Where did he go?"

The two snipers next to them were also dumbfounded, because their sniper scopes were equipped with infrared functions. As long as a living body appeared under their scopes, it was absolutely impossible to escape, but in an instant, that person disappeared.

"Report, we haven't seen this person either, it's so strange, he's elusive."

"They're all a bunch of trash, two snipers and two observers can ignore them!"

Everyone is very nervous at the moment. The No. 3 sniper is the sniper on the far left that Qin Yuan mentioned just now. His observer is searching carefully, and suddenly senses a strong murderous aura behind him.

As soon as he turned his head, he met Qin Yuan's terrifying eyes. This kind of eyes seemed to come from hell, and one could not help trembling just by looking at them.

He exuded a strong murderous aura, without waiting for the soldier to react, a flying knife directly cut his throat, and the sniper next to him turned into a corpse at some point.

The observer's eyes widened before he died. He couldn't believe how Qin Yuan killed his companion next to him silently.

Having dealt with the sniper here, Qin Yuan quietly walked around to the position of the fourth sniper, and dealt with the two in the same way.

The man who gave the command just now thought more and more that something was wrong. He asked in the intercom: "No. 3 sniper point, what's the situation over there? Did you find him?"

But there is no response at all in the intercom!

The man felt a little strange, he quickly called again, and asked again about the location of the sniper spot No. Killed by Qin Yuan?

At this moment, he didn't hesitate to shoot quickly because of the noise coming from the side. He was very nervous at the moment, and so were the two soldiers next to him. They all took their assault rifles and desperately fired at the grass that made the movement.

But in the next second, a black figure jumped out, very fast, and went straight to his face. He only felt a sharp pain in his chest, and was kicked to the ground by Qin Yuan.

At this distance, Qin Yuan took out a Desert Eagle and shot the headshot of the man next to him. He shot very fast, and it seemed that he didn't even need to aim. The man on the ground.

This is simply too exaggerated, just now they were shooting so intensively, Qin Yuan didn't have anything to do, and with such a vision, he can judge the position of the person, which is too good.

The man fell to the ground. At this moment, he instantly understood what Lucas said just now. This man's strength is really unfathomable and terrifying.

He couldn't control so many guns shooting at Qin Yuan quickly. He didn't expect Qin Yuan to turn over and dodge, and then walked over directly. With a click, he felt that his hand could not move for an instant.

The severe pain caused thin beads of sweat to appear on his head. More importantly, the person in front of him was really terrifying, like a killing god, without the slightest emotion.

He approached the man on the ground step by step, and the man was trembling with fright at the moment.

To be honest, the man was a retired special soldier before, and he had killed people on the battlefield, but seeing this situation now, the strong air pressure on this man completely suppressed him, and he felt unprecedented fear.

"Don't! Don't come here... I, I don't know anything."

"I don't know anything, and dare to touch my family, so it seems that I have to find someone who knows about this situation."

What Qin Yuan said is also very clear, that is, if a man cannot provide effective information, then he is of no value.

The man panicked instantly, he knew that the way to save his life now is to tell the people behind the scenes.

"Don't kill me, I know everything, and I said I just beg you to spare my life."

"Then see if what you say can save your life."

"The person who brought your family is called Lucas, this time he is also leading the team, he... he is now looking for your family, let us hold you back."

The man had no choice but to push all this to Lucas first, to see Qin Yuan's reaction, at least to save his own life first.

Qin Yuan just played with the flying knife in his hand, looked at him coldly and said, "I'm not interested in this Lucas or something, so let's put it this way, you should just follow orders, I want to know who sent you here. "

He didn't expect Qin Yuan to point out the problem straight to the point. This person not only has high abilities, but also has such a quick brain reaction.

He was a little hesitant, after all he knew Andre's style, if he betrayed him, even if he got out alive, there would be no good end.

Before he could hesitate, Qin Yuan's flying knife had already landed. The flying knife pierced the man's waist fiercely. The man grinned in pain and his voice trembled.

"Don't... I said... Andre sent us."

Qin Yuan snorted coldly, this old guy really didn't give up, he saw that something was wrong with him before, this old fox was really scheming, he tried to attack his own people in his previous actions.

After the action failed, he actually thought of this kind of trick and used his family to threaten him, but he was wrong, Qin Yuan is not an ordinary person, and he hates being threatened the most in his life, especially his own family .

Qin Yuan didn't say anything, and turned to leave. The man breathed a sigh of relief instantly, thinking that he had saved his life, but then a flying knife flew over and shot through the man's head.

It's not interesting to keep such people, and just now they were planning to kill themselves. If they didn't do it themselves, then they would be the ones who died.

Although these people are retired special forces, they have no bottom line at all, so he looks down on them very much.

At this moment, Lucas also heard gunshots from outside He was very nervous, and now he is inside the quarry.

Grandma Sun and Qin Zhengyang were sitting in a corner with their hands tied. Lucas planned to take the two of them through the mine. There was a cliff behind the mine, and he had prepared ropes there.

This is also the last thing he saves for himself, because he knows that if the action fails, he can escape from here.

Qin Zhengyang was staring at the man in front of him vigilantly at the moment. If he dared to do anything to the grandmas, he would rush to protect Grandma Sun immediately.

Lucas walked over, grabbed Qin Zhengyang and pushed them forward, "If you want to survive, don't talk nonsense, otherwise I will shoot directly."

Qin Zhengyang is not stupid, he heard the movement just now, it must be Qin Yuan who came to rescue them, so he has to delay even more.

He walked in front, pretending to sprain his ankle, and fell to the ground. When Lucas saw it, he stepped forward, mentioned him viciously, and slapped him, "Boy, I tell you, it's best not to play tricks. "

Grandma Sun also hurriedly said: "Don't do this to a child, you have the ability to come to me if there is anything!"

Chapter 930 Rescue Grandma Sun

"Let me tell you two, it's best not to play tricks on me now, or I will really kill you."

Qin Zhengyang was also very smart. He knew that if this person wanted to do something, he would have done it long ago. He definitely wanted to use the two of them as bargaining chips.

"Grandma, let's not listen to his nonsense here. Brother Qin must have come to save us. This guy just wants to use us to threaten Brother Qin. I will never let him succeed."

Lucas kicked Qin Zhengyang's waist, "Don't  talk nonsense, hurry up, or I'll beat you to death, anyway, there is this old thing."

At this moment, he was already very anxious, because he didn't know if that person had come up, and those people outside were not Qin Yuan's opponents at all, and they probably had been dealt with long ago.

While a few people were tugging, Lucas heard footsteps coming from outside the mine, and he became more and more panicked.

He couldn't run away even if he wanted to, so he could only hold Qin Zhengyang and Grandma Sun tightly, and put them both in front of him.

At this time a figure appeared in front of them, Qin Zhengyang was overjoyed and shouted loudly: "Brother Qin! We are here."

Lucas punched Qin Zhengyang directly in the face, "Damn! Boy, let me tell you, don't challenge my patience."

Qin Yuan looked at Lucas and said coldly: "I don't think you challenge my patience! Let the two of them go now, or you will die a miserable death."

"Do you really think I'm stupid? If I let the two of them go, will you let me go? Let me tell you, you'd better not move around. After all, bullets don't have eyes, and I don't know when they will go out."

Grandma Sun was also tearful at the moment. She looked at Qin Yuan and kept shaking her head. She didn't want to drag Qin Yuan down, let alone see him get hurt. She knew that this person was using the two of them to threaten Qin Yuan.

At present, Qin Yuan can only divert his attention, "Don't worry, I won't hurt you, because I already know who is behind the scenes."

Lucas was stunned when he heard this. He didn't know whether what Qin Yuan said was true or not, or if he was just trying to deceive him.

He was very nervous at the moment, his hands were shaking constantly, but he was still holding the pistol tightly. In this situation, Qin Yuan was really worried that he would shoot subconsciously.

Qin Yuan also calculated this distance, he was too dangerous in the past, no matter what, it was very risky.

Qin Yuan continued: "I know that the mastermind behind the scenes is Andre, and I'm going to find this old * right now, so you'd better let my family go, otherwise I don't have such patience."

The moment he knew the result, Lucas breathed a sigh of relief, "Okay, but you have to retreat 50 meters, and you must promise not to hurt me!"

"Your request is too much. After all, I can promise not to hurt you, but can you promise not to hurt my family?"

"I definitely won't, because I was originally forced. I have no choice, you know? I have no choice. I became like this because of you, although it's not your fault, but it's still because of you."

Qin Yuan was a little confused when he heard this. Lucas was very nervous at the moment, and he was already on the verge of collapse.

He felt that there was nothing wrong with him, he just wanted to live a good life with his family, and he also wanted to live a good life after retiring, but unexpected situations broke his peaceful life again and again.

And the origin of all this is because of Qin Yuan. At the beginning of the mission, his brother died tragically. Now he has become like this ghost. It is because of Qin Yuan, and now his family is threatened because of Qin Yuan.

He shouted loudly: "You know what? I have no choice. I have no choice but to do this. Everyone wants to live!"

Seeing Lucas getting more and more agitated, Qin Yuan could only wave his hand to signal that he would back off.

"Don't be so excited, I will step back now and do as you ask, but I also hope that you were once a soldier after all, and you can fulfill your promise."

The moment Qin Zhengyang saw Qin Yuan, there was no fear in his eyes. He knew that Qin Yuan would come and he would be saved.

Lucas is also betting. He thinks this is his last chance. No matter what, he must get out alive. If he dies, his wife and daughter will be completely hopeless.

Seeing that Qin Yuan was getting farther and farther away, and had reached the end of the passage, he suddenly ran to the back. He felt that he would be able to run out at his own speed.

At this time, Qin Yuan suddenly snorted coldly, rushed forward, and took the lead in blocking Grandma Sun and the others. He was worried that this guy would turn back.

Fortunately, Lucas did nothing but walked forward desperately. At this moment, he just wanted to run for his life. Qin Yuan also loaded the bullet and wanted to chase him out, but was stopped by Grandma Sun.

"Grandma, what's the matter with you? These damned bastards, they dare to call me all of you, and they will never let me go."

Grandma Sun shook her head and said, "Qin Yuan, I know you are a good boy, but now I'm fine, and that person has his helplessness."

Qin Yuan sighed deeply, and hugged Grandma Sun and Qin Zhengyang. No matter when, Grandma Sun has not changed. Even though she was kidnapped and tortured by these bastards, she still speaks for these people.

She is really a very kind person. At this moment, Qin Yuan feels the lost and recovered relatives. He has never felt so at ease.

Even at this moment, he had an idea, he wanted to take Grandma Sun and the others directly back to his brigade, where it was the safest place.

At this moment, he also understood the good intentions of Gao Shiwei and the others, why they had always said to keep their identities secret, which was to protect their relatives in disguise.

He used to think that he never needed these things, but when he learned that Grandma Sun was kidnapped, he was really scared by the momentary sense of powerlessness.

Qin Zhengyang was very happy, hugged Qin Yuan excitedly and said: "Brother Qin, you see that I am very brave this time. Have you received the message I left for you? I left it quietly."

"You did a really good job this time. Thanks to the message you left, I was able to find you. Otherwise, I don't know what to do. These guys are so cunning."

"I think you are the most powerful. There are so many people outside, but you rushed in all by yourself!"

Qin Zhengyang's eyes were full of admiration, and he secretly vowed that when he grows up, he will become a powerful person like Qin Yuan.

"Actually, I was really scared just now. I admit that I was really scared when I came in for the first time. After performing so many missions, this is the one I was most afraid of."

Qin Yuan actually thought of a lot of ways just now. He has so many skills, and he has gone through them in his mind. If it were someone else, he would definitely not let this person run away, but this time the situation is different. His attention The power is entirely on Grandma Sun and the others.

Fortunately, Grandma Sun and the others are all right. Qin Yuan was worried about other accidents, so he took Grandma Sun and the others away quickly. Ever since she said that Grandma and the others were kidnapped, Grandma Sun, who had been wandering all the way along the way, just said lightly that nothing was wrong.

Qin Yuan secretly swore that Andre would never let him go, but the most important thing now is to send Grandma Sun and the others to a safe place first.

Long Xiaoyun was very worried at the moment. There was no news about Qin Yuan. Originally, according to Qin Yuan's plan, they wanted to drive outside the town now, but he couldn't wait any longer.

It is impossible for her to just sit and wait for the kidnapper to send a message, and she knows Qin Yuan's character very well, so she probably will act alone in the future.

Long Xiaoyun packed up her equipment and was ready to go. At this time, He Chenguang hurriedly stopped her, "Dragon team, we can't be so impulsive now, we must focus on the overall situation, after all, those kidnappers are in the dark, we are in the open, really It's tricky."

"That's why I can't just watch Qin Yuan take risks alone, and it's not you who go, but I go alone. If I go alone, the target is small and they won't be able to find it."

Long Xiaoyun really couldn't take it anymore, she had to do something, she couldn't stay here all the time, at least she could help Qin Yuan.

Everyone really couldn't persuade her, Long Xiaoyun's character was always like this, everyone couldn't hold back what she wanted to decide, so they could only let her go.

To be honest, if Long Xiaoyun went alone, she might really be able to help Qin Yuan. After all, she was very skilled, and she really didn't have such a big goal alone.

In this way, Long Xiaoyun came to the hotel where Qin Yuan lived, but learned from the boss that Qin Yuan had already left in the morning.

What Long Xiaoyun was most worried about happened, and this guy started to act alone again, but this time it was about Grandma Sun, she was really worried.

At this moment, Long Xiaoyun is sitting at the door of the room, she is thinking about what to do next, this time is when she is most helpless, with her lover on one side and her relatives on the other.

She had already regarded Grandma Sun as her own grandma, that's why she was so anxious to help.

When she was in trouble, a familiar voice sounded, "Isn't this our Captain Long? Why are you sitting at the door?"

Long Xiaoyun looked up and saw Qin Yuan, followed by the smiling Grandma Sun, she was out of breath for a while, this guy always made herself so worried.

She strode forward and grabbed Qin Yuan's collar, "You bastard, you worry me so much every time. Can't you tell me in advance if you want to do something? Do you regard me as your lover?"

Looking at Long Xiaoyun who was approaching to growl, Qin Zhengyang stuck out his tongue beside him, he didn't expect the woman to get angry, it turned out to be so terrifying.

Grandma Sun could only quickly stand up and say, "Xiaoyun, it's enough for us to be safe now, and Qin Yuan is mainly worried that you will be in danger."

Seeing Grandma Sun speak for Qin Yuan, the most important thing is to see Grandma Sun is safe, Long Xiaoyun was also relieved, she rushed forward and hugged Grandma Sun tightly.

"Grandma, don't you know how much I worry about you, I'm really too afraid of what will happen to you?"

"Silly girl, haven't I returned safely now?"

Because of Qin Yuan's unauthorized actions, Long Xiaoyun decided to hang out with him for two days. This guy is getting more and more unruly, and he would talk to himself before, but now he simply doesn't say anything.

Qin Yuan also had a wry smile on his face. At this moment, Grandma Sun didn't speak for him, because she said that it was their young couple's business after all, and he had to coordinate it by himself.

Fortunately, Qin Zhengyang was very loyal, patted his chest and said that he had always stood by Qin Yuan's side.

The members of the red blood cell team have been waiting outside the town. Everyone was very happy to see Grandma Sun come back safely.

Qin Yuan calmly asked Long Xiaoyun to take Grandma Sun back first, "Xiaoyun, Grandma Sun will leave it to you when she is safe. This is a big project, you must protect them well."

Long Xiaoyun smiled on the surface, then pulled Qin Yuan aside, and asked in a low voice: "What the * are you trying to do, hurry up and tell the truth."

Qin Yuan didn't want to worry Long Xiaoyun this time, so he told all about the previous kidnappers, including the mastermind behind the scenes. This time, he wanted to find the mastermind behind the scenes.

More importantly, he really couldn't figure out where Grandma Sun's information leaked out from. He must ask about this matter clearly.

And finding Andre, the mastermind behind the scenes, is to end future troubles forever, otherwise if there is a first time, there will be a second time, so it is simply impossible to prevent.

Long Xiaoyun also nodded, she felt that what Qin Yuan said was very reasonable, and the most urgent task now is to solve this matter quickly.

"Well, I'll go with you. It's absolutely no problem to have people from the Wolf Warriors squad to * you."

Qin Yuan looked at Grandma Sun who was talking to Li Erniu and the others in the distance and said in a low voice: "I am mainly worried that grandma will misunderstand, if you are here, you can definitely smooth things over for me. She has been calling me to go back now. She was worried that I would seek revenge."

Long Xiaoyun thought for a while when he heard this But are you sure there is no problem? That guy Andre is an old fox, it's really not easy to get close to him. "

More importantly, Andre represents the United States, and this matter can only be done quietly, and it is even more difficult to get close to Andre.

Qin Yuan showed a confident expression, looked at Long Xiaoyun and said, "Don't worry about this matter, leave everything to me, your task is to protect Grandma Sun well, I will definitely not let you go behind the scenes."

Long Xiaoyun nodded, he still believes in Qin Yuan's ability, if that's the case, he should do as he said.

At this time, Qin Zhengyang suddenly appeared behind Qin Yuan, "Brother Qin, I heard it, you must take me with you on this matter!"

"You little kid, don't join in the fun, hurry up and tell grandma to go back."

Qin Zhengyang was a little unconvinced when he heard this, "I'm not a child anymore, I will be 18 in a few months, I really want to learn skills from you, can you take me with you?"

Qin Yuan was speechless for a while, why didn't this little kid notice when he was approaching him just now, he was really with Long Xiaoyun, he was so relaxed.
