

Special Soldier 941

Chapter 941: 5 minutes is enough

Qin Yuan looked at the situation and felt that the problem shouldn't be a big deal, as he had often done this training before.

Ozark next to him frowned. This situation is not good. Their inspections are divided into two types. The first is a manual search, and later they will use infrared detection equipment.

In other words, if someone wants to get 100 points, it is almost impossible, because it is impossible not to be discovered.

Qin Yuan was still the first to initiate the challenge, and the soldiers around him hesitated, after all, they also wanted to see the specific situation of the game.

The referee came over, looked at the time, and said, "From now on, you have an hour to prepare, and the clock starts."

Qin Yuan said confidently, "I don't need an hour, give me five minutes."

The surrounding soldiers were completely stunned when they heard this. How is this possible? In five minutes, it is difficult to do even ordinary lurking, not to mention avoiding such a strict search.

"This person is simply crazy, this is simply impossible."

"That's right, although his previous marksmanship was really unexpected, to the point of calling him a god, but I think it's really difficult to finish in five minutes."

"Let's say five minutes, ten minutes, I don't think it's possible. I even think it's hard for me to complete the hour they gave me, to be completely concealed."

Ozark also shook his head after listening to it. Five minutes is really too difficult, and it is almost impossible to do.

What Qin Yuan wanted to challenge was the impossible. At this time, a person walked by. He raised his head and saw that it was the blonde beauty from before.

"You, a soldier of the Yan Kingdom, dare to speak out. I admire your courage very much, and I have also observed it before. I am very satisfied with your results."

"It's not a matter of courage, but that I can really do it. If I, Qin Yuan, usually say it, I will definitely do it."

"Oh, then I'd like to see how you can do what you said. Well, if you can do it, you don't have to participate in the subsequent finals, and you can directly advance to become the champion."

Hearing this, the surrounding soldiers caused a commotion even more. Some people thought this was too unfair. Why?

But there are also some people who think that this is a matter of course, and he made an exception to complete the challenge.

Naturally, it can be done within five minutes of directly entering the final, which is simply impossible.

But Qin Yuan's previous results are also good. In fact, he is called the champion as it should be. After all, no one can surpass his achievements so far.

It's just that everyone is more curious about how to completely hide within five minutes. Usually, it takes more than five minutes for them to train in their own team, because after all, it is also in a field they are familiar with.

It's really difficult to change places now.

Qin Yuan smiled when he heard the promise made by the blond beauty, "Yes, then you can just wait for my grades."

After Qin Yuan finished speaking, he walked directly into the arena, but he didn't expect the whistle to sound immediately. Not only did he willingly enter the arena, but he was also accompanied by six people. They formed a group of seven.

This condition is simply too harsh, seven people have to hide in such a small place.

Some soldiers began to object, "This is really unfair. It is too difficult for us to hide seven people in such a small place."

The blond beauty explained with a smile, "First of all, in order to save time, we still have so many people left, and it is impossible to despise them one by one. Secondly, if this is a real battlefield, we will definitely place so many snipers, and we will definitely not be able to kill them one after another. Just in case."

After all, this is their rule, and there is nothing anyone can do about it. In this case, they can only seize the opportunity first, and those soldiers rushed to use it.

Qin Yuan, on the other hand, lived and surrounded the building leisurely.

At this time, the two soldiers next to them fought over a hiding spot.

"I obviously discovered this place first."

"Hehe, you found out first, and you called him, why didn't he agree? Stop talking nonsense, come and fight, whoever wins will be in this position."

"Okay, anyone who is afraid of whoever has the ability will come."

Just like that, the two of them wandered around, willing to walk over, and shook their heads. This behavior was really stupid, and the two of them fought nearby for this spot.

The grass next to it has been pressed down and many traces will be left. This is simply the most stupid behavior.

The two looked wary when they saw Qin Yuan coming, worried that Qin Yuan would choose their place.

"Brother, don't fight now, after all, there are outsiders coming, this position cannot be handed over to others."

"I said you two go ahead, don't worry about me, I really don't like this position."

"You are really strange. Now that the game has started for two minutes, you are still wandering around here. You said that you can hide in five minutes. Now there are only three minutes left. Let's see how you hide."

"I won't bother you to worry about this, you should take care of your own situation!"

While the blond beauty was watching outside, she wanted to see what kind of surprise this Yan country soldier would give him. For five minutes, she never dared to imagine.

The referees outside were also looking forward to it. After all, Qin Yuan's results all the way were good, and he remained in the first place in all of them, and no extra points were deducted.

"I didn't expect that the soldiers of the Yan Kingdom really became a group of dark horses and rushed out directly."

"He is not a dark horse. We held a competition before and he won the championship. That year shocked us all, but seeing him like this, he is much better than the previous two years."

"Since he is so good, why haven't I seen him participate in the competition in the past two years, and suddenly came to participate again this year."

"You don't know that his team is the red blood cell team, which is very famous in the world. They perform missions everywhere. How can they participate in a competition like ours?"

"No wonder I heard his name so familiar. You said red blood cells, and I remembered it."

The blond beauty smiled when she heard this.

"Then this person is really interesting, I have to keep an eye on him."

Five minutes was up, and the blond beauty walked in with a group of referees, most of the others were not ready yet.

Everyone was surprised to see the referee come in, but suddenly thought that they were here to check Qin Yuan.

"It can't go on like this. The rest of their group hasn't lurked yet, and we are really influential here."

"Well, let them suspend their actions first, and then let them continue after they find love. Their time will be suspended from now on."

Everyone was very happy to hear this. After all, they also wanted to see where Qin Yuan was hiding. Let alone the blonde beauty, they were inside, and they didn't see where Qin Yuan was hiding.

Just like that, the blond beauty began to search with a kind of referee. She didn't miss any corner, any suspicious dirt bags, and haystacks. She checked carefully and found no sign of Qin Yuan.

"This is going to be too exaggerated. We have almost turned the bottom up in this area, why haven't we seen him yet?"

"Is he hiding in the corridor? The corridor is actually the most dangerous place, and it is easy to be found."

"Maybe he will do the opposite to us, hiding in the corridor, and let us have a surprise."

The blond beauty also thought it made sense. After all, they searched outside, but they couldn't find the time. Seven minutes had passed since their search, but they didn't even see Qin Yuan's shadow.

They entered the abandoned building, the sofa, the transfer window, and searched everywhere, but they still did not find Qin Yuan.

"By the way, you should go to the top of the building to have a look. Time is running out now. If we don't find it in three minutes, we must use thermal imaging."

The blond beauty wasn't worried about the bet she made with Qin Yuan. Even if she didn't make the bet, the champion would definitely be his. She was just curious about how this man hid.

Soon, the searchers from the top of the building also came down, but still found nothing. The blond beauty spread her hands, it seems that they only use thermal imaging.

These referees are professional, and they are also snipers themselves, so they know where the best hiding place is, but after their search, they still find nothing.

"This person's hidden level is too high, and his latent performance is beyond imagination."

"This really admires me. I doubt everything I can, but he's not here."

Soon, the blond beauty manipulated the thermal imaging line of sight and cleaned up the entire area, but Qin Yuan was still not found. What happened, even the thermal imaging escaped.

"Is he hiding underground? But this situation is almost impossible. If it is underground, the temperature must be extremely low to escape. It should not be like this."

"If it is definitely impossible to go underground, he will dig the hole for more than five minutes."

The blond beauty was not reconciled, and controlled the thermal imaging drone to search, but still did not find Qin Yuan.

"It's so strange. Could it be that this guy is invisible? Where did he hide?"

"Now 15 minutes have passed, and we still have nothing. According to the rules of the game, he has already won and completely scored 100 points."

"Okay, then there's nothing I can do. I also admit that I have searched for everything I can find."

The surrounding soldiers also found it very strange. Since the places they thought were willing were not there, and they even escaped the thermal imaging, how did this happen?

The blond beauty stood up and shouted loudly: "Well, this time you win, we have nothing to do."

As soon as the blond beauty finished speaking, she found a red dot aimed at her chest. Everyone looked in the direction of the red dot. Qin Yuan was actually photographed from the top of the building, but they had already searched the top of the building just now. ok, what's going on?

After everyone went up, they found that Qingyuan was hiding in the water tank in a high water tank, which completely concealed Qingyuan's figure, and this position was not noticed by everyone, and they all thought it was a blind spot. design angle.

After Qin Yuan crawled out of the water tank, he shook the water off his head.

"To be honest, if you are the target person, I can definitely hit it."

The blond beauty nodded in agreement, she felt that this must be no problem, and Qin Yuan could definitely do it with his strength.

"But I'm very surprised, we have already searched that place just now, why didn't the drone find it?"

At this time, the blond beauty said with some embarrassment: "I think the location on the roof is an open space, and there is nothing to look for, so I put the focus on the corridor and the ground, which is really unexpected. things."

The surrounding soldiers applauded when they saw this scene. They really admired that they could think of hiding in the water tank.

Because there was one person missing in this round, Ozark played, and Qin Yuan sat beside him basking in the sun. His clothes were completely soaked. He didn't think it mattered, anyway, this test was over.

When Ozark walked over, he greeted Qin Yuan warmly.

Qin Yuan only responded politely. Although his initial impression of this person was not that good, it still looks pretty good now.

The blond beauty came to Qin Yuan and handed her business card.

"Mr. Qin, take a look. This is my business card. If you are interested, you can contact me."

Qin Yuan took the business card and looked at it. Eredar, the name seemed nothing special, but he was a little surprised at the end.

Unexpectedly, this woman turned out to be the boss of a mercenary group, because it was impossible to tell from the outside.

"Don't get me wrong, I'm not the kind of mercenary you imagined, we are regular."

There are many mercenary groups like this in the world, all of which are internationally recognized. They belong to a neutral position and do some regular tasks.

Like some small countries, their military strength is insufficient, and they will be sent to protect a certain big man, or to complete any military mission.

Qin Yuan nodded when he heard her explanation, but he didn't expect Eredar to be quite powerful. She has a total of eight mercenary regiments under her command, and every eight people form a small team.

And she, as the captain, sometimes leads the team to set off.

"Are you surprised that facing the boss of such a mercenary group, it will be a woman?"

"Surprise is true, but it's not because of your gender, but because you can't tell from your appearance."

Ereda smiled, and then stretched out her hands. At this time, Qin Yuan noticed that her palms were full of calluses, especially the position of the tiger's mouth, which was caused by holding the gun for a long time.

Qin Yuan admired this point, it was all caused by years of training, this woman is definitely not as easy-talking as she looks, even though she is smiling on the surface.

But any move is a killer move, and it can definitely kill people. Such a person is the most terrifying, because it is necessary to prevent her from making a sudden attack.

Chapter 942: not simple woman

This blonde beauty looks harmless to humans and animals, but if she carries out her orders, she can definitely kill.

Qin Yuan returned the business card to her, "Sorry, I'm not interested in this matter."

Eredar didn't take the business card, but just looked at Qin Yuan with a smile.

"Actually, you can consider it. If you come to my team with your skills, you will definitely not be treated badly."

What Qin Yuan lacked was not money, he was not short of money now, and why did he choose to leave his country's team? This is not about money, more importantly, he also has his own beliefs.

He still has a lot of things to do.

"You are quite an interesting person. To be honest, you were the first to reject me. Most people would first ask me about the price I offered and just reject it without even asking about the price?"

"Because I have all the things you said, so I don't need them."

Ereda did not give up, because she was really optimistic about Qin Yuan, his physical fitness was very good in all aspects, which met her requirements very well.

If such a person joins his team, it can greatly reduce the casualty rate and increase the success rate of the mission.

Although many of the mercenary squads on her side were skilled, Xiang Qin Yuan was such a rare talent that she was very moved.

"You don't have to be so anxious to reject me. With your skills, you can directly become a captain with me, or I will make you the same age as all my mercenary teams. Maybe you will change in the future."

Qin Yuan just smiled politely, and then continued to watch the game ahead.

Ereda didn't say anything else, but was more interested in Qin Yuan. This person is not interested in money, nor in status. What kind of person would he be?

The soldiers on the opposite field were already completely hidden, and Eredar and the others also stepped forward to search, and they saw a hidden soldier at the first sight after entering, which was too obvious.

Not to mention them, Qin Yuan saw it from a distance, and that piece was obviously a sudden bump on the flat ground. If this happened on the battlefield, they would shoot directly.

Ozark completely camouflaged himself in the bushes next to him.

To be honest, he was a little nervous, watching the soldiers around him being found out one by one. When Ozark was found out, he sighed, but his time was much better than those soldiers.

At this time, there is still one person in their team who has not been found, Eredar also feels a little strange, how did this person do it? Could it be the same as Qin Yuan?

When Eredar used the thermal imager, he realized that the soldier had actually dug a big hole and completely covered himself in the soil, and this man was really ruthless.

Only two breathing holes were left, surrounded by weeds, and there was nothing unusual at all.

But the eredar directly invalidated his grades.

"Why do you do this? Obviously I persisted until the end, and you only discovered me with a thermal imager. Why do you judge that my grades are invalid?"

"Soldier, what we are looking for is a sniper, not playing hide and seek. In this case, how do you shoot? You can't even see the outside situation clearly, how can you find the target?"

Hearing this, the soldier bowed his head in shame. This is indeed the case, and he is lying in this position, which is a death angle for sniper shooting. He can't see the outside situation at all. He doesn't even dare to turn over. Find.

Everyone admired Qin Yuan even more when they saw this. The position he found was really great.

However, some people raised objections. They felt that this was a competition after all, so it could be realized there. If it was a real battlefield, how could someone soak themselves in the water tank all the time?

After Qin Yuan heard it from behind, he just smiled. The places he had lurked were much worse than this.

This is just a water tank. When they were training in the snowy mountains before, everyone lay down in the snow for five or six hours.

Daxue completely covered himself, and he couldn't see anything at all. At that time, he still had skills and could maintain a normal body temperature, but Li Erniu and the others were more miserable, their fingers were frozen, and Gong Jian at that time directly became Cryoshock.

This kind of training, he can say that the members of his red blood cell team can complete it, because he trains them very strictly.

In this way, there was no suspense until Qin Yuan won the championship of this sniper competition, Ozark was the runner-up, and there was a soldier from Pakistan. This soldier was very young, just 18 years old.

Originally, I heard that their previous rule was that the champion should go on a sniper mission, but they did not expect that they refused. There were three targets, so they had to choose the champion and runner-up, three people.

The other contestants could go back first. Qin Yuan and his three champions and runners-up were taken to the place where they needed to perform their tasks. Several of them sat in a minibus, and there were several organizers in front of them.

The 18-year-old soldier was called Bamuda, and he was very enthusiastic. After seeing the two of them, he took the initiative to say hello, and he chatted non-stop along the way, full of energy.

This time, as the champion and runner-up, in addition to the prize money of the competition itself, if they complete the sniper mission, each will be rewarded with an additional 200,000 yuan.

This prize is quite generous. Bamuda is very happy. It is really an honor for him to represent his country this time. More importantly, it is not easy for him to fight his way out among so many players. of.

Qin Yuan looked at this 18-year-old soldier with admiration. There are very few such sniper geniuses. It is indeed a rare genius to be able to achieve such a powerful marksmanship at the age of 18.

"Bamuda, what is your usual score in the team? Can you hit the 1500m goal?"

"Reporting sir, I can hit the static and dynamic targets of 1500 meters. I have always been the first in our team, so I was selected this time."

"You don't need to call me Chief, you can call me Qin Yuan or Brother Qin, you don't have to be so polite."

When Qin Yuan saw him, he thought of Qin Zhengyang. This man had a similar personality to Qin Zhengyang, and he was full of vigor.

Bamuda was very happy to see Qin Yuan so easy-going, and talked about his training in the team along the way.

"Brother Qin, you are just like our squad leader. You are so kind to me. You are willing to listen to me so much, and it is very interesting to chat with you."

Ozark just felt that this person was a little noisy. His personality was like this. He didn't like to be noisy, but only liked to stay in a relatively quiet place.

He didn't have much affection for Bamuda, this guy was too noisy, as a sniper, he should be quieter, and he wanted to talk to Qin Yuan about other things, but this guy kept talking.

The car drove for more than an hour, and thanks to Bamuda talking all the time, Qin Yuan felt that the time passed quickly.

Here is a sandy land, and the vehicles are parked on the periphery.

Eredar walked up and explained: "You need to carry out a covert ambush in the front position, so our vehicles will not pass by and avoid leaving traces."

Bamuda felt a little curious, and he couldn't help asking: "Where is the front, and how far do we have to go?"

"It's not very far, that is, a distance of seventeen or eighteen kilometers."

"what?"

To be honest, Bamuda felt very strange, such a long distance, why didn't he drive forward anymore? Are you going to go on foot?

Neither Qin Yuan nor Ozark said anything, they walked forward silently, and Bamuda could only keep his mouth shut.

At first, Bamuda could still talk to Qin Yuan, but he was also tired when he walked to the back. The distance of more than ten kilometers was no joke, and everyone kept walking like this.

And they are still carrying equipment on their backs. This time Eredar and the others prepared sniper rifles for Qin Yuan and the others. It is Barrett. This preparation is quite sufficient. With such tough weapons, their sniper hit rate can also be improved. .

They are now using Barrett's M500 model, which weighs 14 kilograms. In addition, they are still carrying ammunition and some food equipment, so the weight on their bodies is not too light.

After walking seven or eight kilometers, Bamuda felt a bit overwhelmed. After all, his best marksmanship in the team had been trained as a sniper, and it was rare for him to march on foot for such a long time.

However, he was quite surprised to see that Eredar in front of him was always on the same level as Qin Yuan, leaving them far behind. How could this woman be so strong? In comparison, it's nothing to worry about.

Bamuda began to catch up with Qin Yuan and the others. Seeing Qin Yuan and Eredar chatting and laughing, he couldn't help but want to talk to him, but his breathing was completely messed up. He feels very tired.

Qin Yuan grabbed his shoulders to keep him balanced.

"Now don't talk, remember your breathing, exhale with your left foot, inhale with your right foot and start adjusting."

Bamuda nodded, and slowly adjusted his breathing according to Qin Yuan's instructions, not as strenuous as before.

"You probably haven't received such a high-intensity training before, so it's just starting now. You can't bear it, so get used to it slowly."

"Brother Qin, thank you so much, but I find it strange that why don't we come up by car? There is still such a long distance here. "

Before Eric could explain, Qin Yuan said: "Because we can't reveal our whereabouts in advance, if we get too close and let the enemy find out, it will put us in a dangerous state."

"It turned out to be like this. I still wanted to reach a position of five or six kilometers. This is the first time for me to march such a long distance."

"Let's get used to it slowly, it's also for our safety."

Eredar nodded in satisfaction, it was indeed the case, because the drug lords were very rampant, and their vigilance was also very high.

This time, besides the boss of the drug lord, the other target that Qin Yuan and the others wanted to shoot was Eredar's subordinate. That guy rebelled and went directly to the drug lord's side.

That mercenary had been trained by Eredar before, so the anti-detection ability was very high, and everyone had no choice but to go on foot for a distance of more than ten kilometers.

Just now Eredar had already explained the situation to Qin Yuan, and then the other person was the bodyguard who followed the drug lord. Although that person was a bodyguard, he was also a villainous person with great skills.

Ozark nodded next to him. If that's the case, we'll see how to assign tasks later.

Qin Yuan turned his head to look at the two people next to him, and said slowly: "When we get to that place, each of us will find a suitable sniper position, and then according to the situation on the spot, which position is the most suitable for us to shoot."

Ozark nodded in agreement, this is indeed the best, and now they can't come to any conclusion after discussing it. After all, they don't know where these people will appear.

"Brother Qin, I'll listen to you."

Moreover, the sniper rifle they are using now is Barrett, which has a very long range, and they can use the headset to communicate when there is any situation.

When a few people arrived at the designated location, it was already three or four o'clock in the afternoon. Eredar looked at his watch and said, "You need to lurk here for a long time, I hope you can hold on, because we The news we received is that drug lords will come here to conduct transactions in the next two days, but we cannot know the exact time."

Ozark nodded. This kind of situation is also common. He spent 17 hours in the desert in order to complete a mere goal.

So these things are nothing to him, and for 17 hours at that time, in order to keep in shape, he didn't dare to move around, but simply drank a little water.

This area is also sandy land is surrounded by sand and stones, and there are some withered and yellow plants.

Eredar asked the people behind him to take out new equipment, which were all integrated with the scenery here, sand yellow clothing, and some necessary camouflage.

The three of them didn't pay much attention, and changed their clothes on the spot. Ereda admired Qin Yuan very much, because judging from the explanation just now and his leadership ability, he is really good and can be a very good team leader.

Because they only know that drug lords will conduct transactions in this area, but they don't know the exact location, so this is also the reason for using Barrett, who has a long range.

"You can replenish water and food properly now, and we're almost leaving. There is a high possibility that they will trade here tomorrow morning, or it may be in the afternoon or the day after tomorrow."

Qin Yuan and Ozark only drank a little water. Under such temperature conditions, they still need to replenish water, but they don't need food.

Ozark thinks that drinking water is not a big problem, and if he wants to pee at that time, it can be solved normally.

After seeing Eric and the others leave, the three of them also began to allocate, and everyone looked for a suitable sniper site that they thought was suitable.

Chapter 943: I leave everything to me

At this time, Qin Yuan took out a box of candy from his bag, which was a kind of hard fruit candy, and gave it to Ozark and Bamuda.

"You should also pay attention. After all, you don't know how long you will be lying here. Although time is nothing to us snipers, it is still to avoid hypoglycemia affecting the sniper effect."

"Brother Qin, you are really thoughtful."

Ozark also took the candy and said thank you.

This box of candy was bought by An Ran for Qin Yuan before, and he has always carried it with him. It is really useful at such times.

In order to reduce their own excretion, they should reduce their food intake, including water, starting from this moment.

Qin Yuan was a little worried. Seeing that Bamuda went up to help him disguise before leaving, Ozark was quite relieved.

What follows is a competition of endurance and physical strength, which is also a situation that a sniper must face, and snipers are often the loneliest.

In this way, the few people lay down until it was dark. After all, they didn't know when these drug lords would come to make deals, and it might be at night.

Qin Yuan looked at the situation, and then whispered in the intercom: "Well, let's take turns to rest, so as to ensure that we are full of energy during the day, and everyone can respond to any situation."

Both agreed, and it was a good idea.

Qin Yuan actually didn't need to rest at all. After all, his energy value was very good. Even if he didn't rest for two days and two nights, he felt nothing.

This is also to take care of the two people next to me.

And for this sniping target, he even felt that he could come alone.

Qin Yuan asked them to rest first, and he stood guard first, and the two of them didn't say much, after all, they couldn't lose to their physical strength first.

Originally, Qin Yuan thought that no matter what, he should come the next afternoon or evening. After all, their judgment would not be wrong, and there would not be such a big deviation.

It turned out that everyone was still lying in this place the next day, without any movement, and no one dared to act rashly, after all, they didn't know when the enemy would appear.

Bamuda has kept this posture for 18 hours. Fortunately, Qin Yuan and Ozark came together in turn, so he can relax his arms a little.

At night, everyone's spirits were a little slack, after all, they thought that the day hadn't come yet.

Qin Yuan quickly reminded the two of them, "Their information is generally not wrong. We must be more vigilant. Now is the time when we are most likely to get sleepy, because we have held on for so long."

After hearing what Qin Yuan said, Ozark pinched it hard. To be honest, he has been a sniper for so many years. This is the longest time he has been lying here. He really feels that his spirit has become a little loose. .

In the end, I didn't expect everyone to wait for another night in vain, and the target person still didn't show up.

At this moment, Bamuda's spirit was on the verge of collapse, after all, he had been lying here for nearly thirty hours.

"Brother Qin, why don't we move around in a different position now, and if we lie down again, I'll be turned into a stone here."

"Don't talk now, keep your strength. Although lying on your stomach, it takes a lot of energy. Keep your mind clear and don't think about those messy things."

"But I really can't hold on anymore, and I'm so hungry, why don't we eat something first!"

"Enough! Just think of yourself as a stone."

Ozark said angrily, he is not as patient as Qin Yuan, and he comforted him well, such a person is not suitable to be their teammate, he is too impetuous.

Under such circumstances, everyone felt a little anxious, after all, they had been waiting for such a long time.

Although Bamuda was a little angry, Qin Yuan and Ozark were both older than him, and both of them had better marksmanship than himself, so he didn't say anything.

Qin Yuan's hearing was quick, and at around 3 o'clock in the afternoon, he finally heard the movement.

"Attention both of you, they should be here."

Ozark observed the situation outside from the sniper scope, but he didn't notice any movement. Bamuda shook his head, which was very strange. He didn't hear anything, and he didn't see any strange phenomena.

"Brother Qin, did you hear wrong?"

"Don't talk, it's getting closer."

Ozark was also taken aback. How did Qin Yuan achieve his hearing? The two of them really didn't hear anything. A sniper must not only have good eyesight, but also have excellent hearing. How did this person train?

He became more and more curious about Qin Yuan, and more urgently wanted to worship Qin Yuan as his teacher so that he could teach him the real tricks of sniper rifles, but he felt that his ability was not enough.

In this way, after another 15 minutes, they finally saw the figure.

The two looked at Qin Yuan with admiration in their eyes, which is too powerful, they can hear it from such a long distance.

The ostentation of these drug lords is not small. Qin Yuan and the others have seen the photos before, and at this moment he has locked on the target person he wants to attack, which is the boss of drug lords.

The guy is sitting on a recliner with four hands carrying him, and he looks like he's enjoying himself.

However, the No. 2 target they mentioned before has never appeared. This person is his mercenary subordinate that Eredar mentioned.

A few minutes later, Qin Yuan also found that the three target characters had appeared.

"How about this, you choose first, and see which one you are most confident in playing, and I will pick after you finish choosing."

The two of them were not polite to Qin Yuan, after all, Qin Yuan's strength lies there.

The final result was still that Qin Yuan hit the No. 1 target boss, because that boss was protected by many people and surrounded him all the time, and his sniper angle was also the most difficult to find.

Ozark dealt with the traitor Eredar said, he was next to the boss of the drug lord, and Bamuda dealt with the other one.

"We only have one chance to shoot. There are too many people below them, so we retreat quickly after shooting."

"But what if a shot doesn't work? This distance is actually enough time for us to retreat."

Bamuda thought that if one shot missed, he could make up a few more shots. This position was definitely enough for them to evacuate.

"Boy, don't be so naive. Look at what the person behind is holding in his hand. It's a precision howitzer. Our position can definitely be blasted to the ground."

Bamuda came here and took a closer look with the sniper scope. He really let him see that the person behind him was actually carrying two heavy weapons.

Ozark also paid attention to it instantly, this time the mission was more dangerous than he imagined.

"Then how should we retreat? They have such heavy weapons in their hands."

"It's not us who retreat, it's you who retreat. After you finish killing the target, retreat quickly. I will deal with the rest of the people with heavy weapons and delay for you."

Ozark was taken aback. What the * is Qin Yuan doing? He stayed alone to delay the time.

In fact, Qin Yuan is not delaying time, but he is very confident that he can solve these people.

"But it's too dangerous for you, I'll stay and help you, and I'll take care of the people next to you."

"It's decided like this. You just listen to me. I will definitely be able to hit it, and you don't have to worry about me. You should care about yourself. Maybe after I finish the fight, you won't be able to catch up with me."

Ozark had seen Qin Yuan's achievements before, and he knew that Qin Yuan was not bragging. This person's strength was really unpredictable.

There is no better way now, Qin Yuan is also for the sake of everyone's safety, in this case, several people agreed.

The drug lords at this moment are doing business, and they have no idea of the imminent danger.

Qin Yuan still focused on them. As long as they were ready, he could shoot at any time. For him, he could shoot from any angle.

"Okay, Brother Qin, I'm ready!"

"I'm fine here."

"Then I will count to three and shoot at the same time. Remember that after the shooting, you two will retreat. Don't worry about the situation behind, even if you miss it, it's okay."

The two nodded and handed everything over to Qin Yuan.

The boss of the drug lord was just picking up a bag of things to inspect the goods, when suddenly his pupils dilated, and a bullet directly pierced his head.

The bodyguard next to him also fell down directly, and Ozark silently gave himself a thumbs up in his heart, sure enough, he also hit the target, at the same time as Qin Yuan.

The problem lies with Bamuda, usually his training is very good, and he has indeed been on the battlefield several times, but when he fired the gun just now, he hesitated for a moment, after all, he had to shoot in an instant, and the gun went crooked up.

This shot only hit the man's shoulder, but Barrett's bullet was very sharp and went in in a spiral pattern, so the man's shoulder must have been pierced.

Ozark couldn't care so much at the moment, he remembered what Qin Yuan said, quickly ran from the haystack, and grabbed Bamuda who was lying on the opposite side.

"You let go quickly, I have to make another shot, I missed the target, just hit the shoulder."

"Let's go quickly, we'll listen to Qin Yuan, and he'll take care of the rest, no matter if he hits or not."

In fact, Ozark was very afraid of those two howitzers, and he would definitely be able to hit this position more than a thousand meters away.

I would rather know, after the wooden shot failed, he quickly made up a shot and hit the man directly in the head.

The two people with howitzers on their backs also reacted quickly. Qin Yuan was even faster than them, pulling the trigger quickly, and the two were resolved by love.

For a while, there was chaos inside the drug lord, and everyone was very scared. After all, there were snipers hidden around, and their heavy firemen were also knocked down.

"Fack, where did these people come from?"

"Is there a traitor among you, or how would they know our location?"

"Damn, I also said that there are traitors on your side, don't pour all the dirty water on us."

Unexpectedly, at this time, there was a quarrel among the drug lords, and the two teams were at odds for a while.

After all, the boss of the drug lord, the boss of his own family has already been beaten to death, and they lost their sense of control for a while.

"Okay, now is not the time for us to quarrel, and it's pointless to entangle these things any more, but these people are really brave. They dared to touch our people when I was chasing them."

Qin Yuan lay down on the grass and smiled, these people are really courageous, in this situation, they dare to chase them out, isn't this courting death?

Immediately afterwards, Qin Yuan pulled the trigger again, fired a shot, and quickly changed places. The few mercenaries in front were all dealt with by Qin Yuan, watching them fall one by one.

For a while, no one dared to show their faces, after all, the sniper on the opposite side was really strong.

Qin Yuan took this opportunity to pack up his equipment, and he was going to give these people another surprise.

"What should we do now? We dare not probe out at all. Whoever goes out to see if he is still there."

"It's crazy for you to say that. Anyone who goes out now is courting death."

Just like that, these people didn't dare to move, and continued to hide on the spot for more than half an hour. There was no movement outside, and they came out cautiously.

"Damn! Hurry up and run away, we have been tricked."

"What's going on? There must be something wrong with you internally. Our boss is dead today. How do you count this?"

The people on both sides quarreled again, and this time the quarrel was so intense that it went straight to the point of drawing guns.

What they didn't expect was that Qin Yuan didn't leave at all, but just watched him from a distance, and then Qin Yuan shot again, directly hitting the head of a mercenary who was cursing across from him.

"Damn it! What's the situation? This man is too courageous, he hasn't left yet."

Everyone was so frightened that they lay tightly on the ground, not daring to move at will. At this time, Qin Yuan really left.

But being so frightened by Qin Yuan, those drug dealers didn't dare to probe at will, and they all lay on the ground like this, and Qin Yuan had already left and found Ozark to meet them.

Seeing Qin Yuan's first words, Bamuda said guiltily, "Brother Qin, I'm sorry for you, I didn't accomplish my goal."

At this moment, he was very regretful. After all, he was selected out of thousands of snipers. He didn't expect that something went wrong in this link and he missed the target.

Qin Yuan stepped forward and patted him on the shoulder.

"Don't worry, that person is dead, I'll take another shot later."

Bamuda was shocked when he heard this. When he hit that person, that person had already hid behind the stone very quickly, so he couldn't make a second aim at all.

This marksmanship is simply amazing, he can hit anything that others can't hit.

"Okay, now is not the time to talk, let's go back to the meeting point first, after all, there are still more than ten kilometers to go."

After Qin Yuan finished speaking, he took out compressed biscuits and beef jerky from his bag, and threw them to the two of them.

"Now you can eat with confidence and replenish your strength. We need to hurry. Of course, you can rest assured that the people behind will never catch up."

Chapter 944: meritorious service

Ozark believed in Qin Yuan's words very much, because he knew that willingness could indeed be fulfilled.

This man's marksmanship is what he admires the most. He can be said to be at the top of his country in sniping. There are almost no people he admires, but Qin Yuan is the first.

Ozark gnawed on the compressed biscuit and said, "Mr. Qin, please allow me to call you like this. Can I worship you as my teacher?"

Qin Yuan almost choked on the biscuit, what's the situation with this man, he didn't say anything along the way, why did he suddenly come here and ask himself to be his teacher.

"Um, that Ozark, I think you should think carefully, and I have nothing to teach you."

"Mr. Qin, you are too low-key. You are the most powerful marksman I have ever seen. I must worship you as my teacher."

Bamuda next to him heard what Ozark said, and hurried forward to worship Qin Yuan as his teacher. The two of them sandwiched Qin Yuan in the middle, chattering beside him.

Qin Yuan has a dark face, what is the situation with these two people, they are so enthusiastic all of a sudden, and he doesn't want to accept any apprentices, it is too troublesome to accept apprentices.

"I think you two should calm down a little bit, my ears are getting calloused by you, and now I just want to be quiet."

After Ozark heard this, he quickly shut his mouth. He knew that he could not make Qin Yuan angry now. Anyway, no matter what, he must worship Qin Yuan as his teacher.

Qin Yuan's marksmanship is the most admired he has ever seen, so he must learn from Qin Yuan, and he also hopes that he can have such a perfect marksmanship.

Eredar was very happy after knowing the mission completed by these few people, and personally came to the door to greet them.

"Welcome back, my heroes!"

It has to be said that they are really well-informed about this news. In fact, they already knew that Qin Yuan and the others completed the task. After all, there are people inside them.

Hearing this, Bamuda frowned and asked, "You guys already knew that we had completed the mission, so why didn't you send a car to pick us up? I'm going to break my feet during these ten kilometers."

"We did this to avoid showing our feet. After all, we were also worried that it would affect you in the future. This time, I let me do it in secret."

Qin Yuan was a little surprised when he heard this. After all, it was organized internationally, so how could it be said that it was held in secret?

Eredar was not in a hurry to explain, but brought several people to the next room, where there were various kinds of food on the table.

"I know I've worked hard for you these past few days, you can let go and eat, this is what you deserve."

I have to say that the front was indeed quite painful, and they didn't dare to eat or drink, after all, to ensure that they would not move around.

Qin Yuan was also very hungry when he saw the food, so he picked up the bread on the table and took a bite.

"But there is something in what you just said, what is it, why do you want to do it in secret?"

Eredar shook his head, "Because the people in that organization are lunatics, they treat the enemy in a state of endless death, if they know that you did it, even if it is our international organization, they will hunt and kill you."

"what!"

Hearing this, Ozark couldn't calm down anymore. He knew that this time things were definitely not that simple. He was only here to participate in a sniper competition, but he didn't expect to get into these troubles.

"I really don't know what you guys did. I was originally here to participate in the competition, but you killed me in the end. How can I go out in the future?"

Eredar looked at the angry Ozark, and quickly explained: "We keep your information confidential, that's why the reward this time is so generous. You can rest assured that your information will never be disclosed."

Ozark snorted coldly. Only this woman knew whether their information had been leaked.

Qin Yuan found it strange that any organization would even fear them internationally. As for what they said about chasing and killing him, he felt nothing to fear. He really hoped that these people would come to his door. He was never afraid.

"Chasing and killing is a small problem. As long as they dare to come to the door, I will let them come and go."

Eredar smiled and clapped her hands, "As expected of a killer, the first person on the list is so bold."

Bamuda next to him was also stunned when he heard it. He had heard of the first person on the killer list, but he didn't expect it to be Qin Yuan.

Eredar began to explain again, it turned out that this organization was very mysterious, even they did not understand the extent of their sphere of influence in the world.

They did a lot of investigations, but they found nothing. This time, they attacked the drug lord boss just to give them a warning. The drug lord boss was just the head of a branch of the organization.

Because this organization has been so rampant recently, their goods were seized by the customs of country C before? A cargo of 800kg was seized.

As a result, they launched endless revenge against country c.

Speaking of this, Eredar's face became serious.

"These people were insane. They threw petrol bombs directly on the pier. The explosive bombs caused countless casualties, and many innocent people were implicated on the pier."

Hearing this, Qin Yuan clenched his fists. Sure enough, these drug lords are not good people. He instantly felt that he had killed too few people, and he should have eliminated all of them before.

"That time, their attack caused 72 injuries and 36 direct deaths. This is the largest terrorist attack."

So the international community sent them to try to teach this organization a lesson. After all, they couldn't be found. In order to get news from the boss of this organization's branch, they tried their best to get a total of four or five people. undercover.

"An organization like this can be punished by everyone. I still hope that he will come to me. I just happened to take them all at once."

Ozark admired Qin Yuan very much, and he was the only one who dared to say such a thing, but it was also because of his strength.

Eredar smiled and said nothing. This is no longer his business scope. After all, there are so many people in the world who can bear it, but they can't find this organization. Let's talk about this matter later!

Qin Yuan just noticed that Eredar had been staring at him.

"That said, why do you keep staring at me? I don't like people staring at me when I eat."

"Mr. Qin, he is really an interesting person. I just want to tell you, how do you think about what I told you before?"

"I didn't think about what you said at all, because if it doesn't hold true, I won't leave mine, and I won't betray my country."

"No, no, Mr. Qin, I think you have misunderstood. It's not a betrayal. It's just another choice."

"It's the same for me, I wouldn't do that."

After Qin Yuan finished speaking, he turned his back and didn't pay attention to Eredar, a woman who really didn't give up. He had already made it very clear to her.

After eating, they were about to be sent back to other countries, but Ozark still did not give up.

"Mr. Qin, I really sincerely want to worship you as my teacher. I want to learn your sniper marksmanship from you. Your marksmanship is so vivid in my eyes."

"Let's forget about apprenticeship, because I don't know how to teach, and I haven't had any apprentices."

"I know you don't agree now, but one day you will, and I'm sure I won't give up."

Ozark thought that Qin Yuan didn't want to teach him, but where would Qin Yuan go to teach him?

But I have to say that the training manual he bought in the system before was really useful, and Li Erniu and his sniper marksmanship have all been improved.

Ozark didn't give up, so he followed all the way to the airport, until Qin Yuan got on the plane, he was still waving his hands unwillingly.

At this moment, Qin Yuan finally felt that the world was quiet.

Speaking of this, he opened the system mall to check, so you took a look at your skills, and the current skills are very sufficient.

Unexpectedly, at this time, Qin Yuan suddenly noticed that there was something called Merit Value next to him.

what is this? As if seeing it for the first time, Qin Yuan felt a little strange, and quickly asked: "What is the merit value of the system?"

"Answer the host, because the host has now completed more and more tasks and is more famous, so the system has been improved, and the merit value is the reward point you get after completing the task."

To put it simply, it is like this time he completed the kill and exceeded the task, so he got the system's reward points.

"But what can this meritorious value be used for?"

"Answer the host, merit points can be used to improve your skills, for example, your world-class eyesight can be further strengthened with merit points."

It can still be strengthened. Qin Yuan can't understand that this skill is already high enough. If it is further strengthened, how can it be strengthened?

"This is not only the ability to improve the host's own skills, but also the person designated by the host."

Hearing this, Qin Yuan was taken aback. He didn't expect it to be like this. If what he said is correct, then if he puts meritorious deeds on the members of the red blood cell team, then their overall level can be improved, and it's not him A person is strong.

In this way, they can complete even more difficult tasks in the future, and they don't have to rely on him alone. With everyone's cooperation, the tasks can be carried out better.

This meritorious value is simply amazing, but now his meritorious value is only 4000 points, and he can't add any skills. A meritorious value is at least 10,000 points.

But the future is long, there are still so many tasks that can be slowly accumulated in the future.

Thinking of this, Qin Yuan became excited. He wished to have a few more missions now, so that he could get more merit points and go back to improve the members of the red blood cell team.

But at this moment, the driver in front suddenly said: "Mr. Qin, we may have to go back now."

"What's the situation? How do you want to go back?"

"Because we have predicted today's weather. According to this situation, it is too dangerous to fly. I suggest going back first."

Qin Yuan looked out the window, it was indeed raining outside, and he could feel the whole cabin shaking.

This is also a matter of no choice, so we can only return to the voyage. Anyway, as long as the weather is good after returning, we can set off at any time.

Just like that, Qin Yuan came back again.

Eredar was still smiling at the door to welcome him.

"Mr. Qin, I didn't expect us to meet again."

"It's really a great honor, but I only left for dozens of minutes, but I think the weather will improve soon. As long as it improves, I will go back."

"Now you are our hero. I think you should take a good rest here. I will explain your situation to your chief."

When Qin Yuan heard this, he quickly refused. He didn't want to rest now. Since he knew about meritorious service, he only hoped to take on more and more tasks now.

Thinking of this, he called Gao Shiwei. He originally wanted to tell him that he would stay here for a day at most, and that he would go back as soon as the weather improved.

But Gao Shiwei on the opposite side seemed to be in a good mood. He said with a smile: "You don't have to come back in such a hurry. There is Xiaoyun here, and there is nothing wrong. You should take a vacation for yourself and rest there for a while. God."

Qin Yuan was stunned when he heard this, what's going on? Eredar looked at him with a smile at this time.

After hanging up the phone, Qin Yuan asked, "Did you already talk to my chief?"

"I didn't say anything, I just sent back the bonus you deserved, and I also gave an extra gift."

Looking at Eredar's mysterious appearance, Qin Yuan didn't want to ask any more questions, so he turned and went back to the room.

He didn't want to have too much contact with this woman. He always felt that there was something wrong with this woman. The more beautiful a woman was, the more dangerous she was. Qin Yuan understood this truth very well, not to mention that she had so many mercenaries under her command.

At the moment, Gao Shiwei in the Langya Special War Brigade was grinning from ear to ear, because what Eredar sent was not a small gift.

"A total of 17 rocket-propelled howitzers, which are the latest form, are used to help them train."

Fan Tianlei was completely stunned, this gift was simply too big.

He Chenguang was touching the howitzer by the side Team Gao! I feel like we have sold Brother Qin, otherwise how could we have given us such a big benefit? "

"Yes, this is simply too generous, what is the concept of 17 howitzers?"

"I think you guys just haven't seen the world. They are generous. What's the problem with that? Besides, she just said condolences to Qin Yuan. It seems that this guy has really helped them a lot."

It's hard for everyone to say anything, and they can't help but sigh, the others are too generous.

On the other hand, Qin Yuan planned to set off the next morning. When he got up in the morning, he saw that the weather was fine. He even checked the weather forecast. This time, it would be absolutely fine.

Before he could leave the house, the eredar came looking for him.

It seemed that he really couldn't hide. He always felt that there was something wrong with this person and wanted to go around, but it wasn't that friends didn't get together. The more he wanted to hide, the more likely he would run into him.

"Miss Ereda, what's the matter?"

"I'm looking for you this time because I really want you to do me a favor, but don't worry, your benefits are absolutely indispensable."

Chapter 945: agree to help

"Oh, I don't know what to do, but I don't have time now, because I'm going back now."

"You don't have to refuse so quickly, in fact, you should be very interested."

Ereda looked at Qin Yuan with a smile. This woman's smile always felt very sinister, so Qin Yuan wanted to refuse, after all, he didn't want to deal with this kind of person.

People like Bamuda usually say what they say, which is more straightforward. People like this will not have any scheming, and they will not deceive themselves, but people like Eredar don't know.

Ereda refused to let her in, and stood at the door like this. Qin Yuan had no choice but to let her in.

"Mr. Qin, do you know? I really value your ability, and this time I really need your help."

After Ereda finished speaking, she handed Qin Yuan a document.

It was said to be a document, but it was actually a map. Qin Yuan took a closer look, and then blurted out, "Why did you give me the map of the military prison?"

"As expected of Mr. Qin, you can tell at a glance that this is a prison."

"Yes, because I need your help, which is to help me bring a person out of the military prison."

Qin Yuan snorted coldly. People who enter military prisons are usually soldiers who have committed serious crimes. There is no need for him to rescue such people. More importantly, the guards in military prisons are also very strict. It is not so easy to bring people out. Easy.

"Sorry, I can't help you with this."

"You bring this person out, and I'll give you two million dollars."

Just as Qin Yuan was about to refuse, the system suddenly issued a notification tone.

"Ding! If the host completes this task, he can get 5000 merit points."

Qin Yuan was a little surprised. He didn't expect to get 5,000 merit points if he completed this task, but generally the higher the things he got like this, the more difficult the task would be.

Hearing the system's prompt, although he really needs merit points now, he will not do things that touch his bottom line.

Because those who can enter military prisons are not good people, they are originally used to detain soldiers who commit crimes and mistakes.

"Miss Ereda, you should also know my bottom line. Some things are not about money, but are my basic principles, and I will not do them."

Eredar was a little anxious, "Things are not what you think, this man is my brother...and he was wronged."

Hearing what she said, Qin Yuan was a little interested. After all, the probability of such a thing happening is very low, at least not in his own country, but not necessarily abroad.

Ereda took out a photo, which was a photo of her and her brother. Qin Yuan glanced at the man in the photo who was very strong and had a bright smile. Both of them were wearing camouflage training uniforms.

"I really can't do anything about this, so I want to ask you for help, and you give me a few minutes, after I've finished talking to you, if you still don't want to help me, then I can't help it, I'll send it right away You go back."

Qin Yuan nodded, and Eredar began to talk about what happened.

It turns out that Eredar was not the agent of this mercenary army at the beginning, but her brother Shemir. Her brother is a retired soldier from the Xiong Kingdom. When the mercenary army was established, they were all her brother's veteran comrades-in-arms. .

In fact, many reasons forced them to take the road of mercenaries, and it was also related to their leaders at the time, because they could not solve the most basic employment and production problems after they came out.

However, even though they are mercenaries, they all have basic ethics. They are not doing things like burning, killing, looting, but normally accepting orders to complete some small tasks given by the international community, or small-scale missions issued by some countries. Task.

Regarding this point, her brother has always been very firm and will never violate the bottom line.

Then slowly their team grew stronger and stronger, and in this way, several mercenary regiments had been formed under them, and they gradually became famous.

When Ereda said this, she thought about the past and showed a rare smile on her face. This was not her usual professional fake smile, but a genuine smile from the heart.

"At that time, I was really carefree and didn't have to worry about these things, because my brother was in charge of everything, and the change of things was from that man named Ames!"

Speaking of this, Eredar clenched her fists tightly. If that person stood in front of her, she would wish to give him two punches.

This man named Amos was the former chief of Shemir. When they were first established, this man came over and obstructed in every possible way, just to collect a certain protection fee, and wanted them to pay the money under various names.

Xie Mier had long since left the team there, let alone paying this kind of money, and he had already had enough of this unscrupulous leader.

It is conceivable not to pay the money, but Ames tried every means to make things difficult for them. In the end, they originally established a company in Xiong Country, so they had to transfer the company address to Country A.

Seeing them getting bigger and bigger, Amos was very jealous, and he felt that these people's achievements today were all cultivated by him, so he pressed hard every step of the way, and he must let Xie Mier and the others take out the money.

Shemir ignored him at all, Ames was also a very despicable person, he thought of a way, found a few people, and wanted the mercenary group of Shemir to do things for them. At that time, Shemir didn't know that it was a trap .

Their mission that time was also very simple, just to * a few bosses back. They said they were doing business abroad, and because they were worried about the safety of the road, they hired people from their legion.

Because of the long distance, Semir went to participate in the * in person. There was no problem along the way, but when they arrived at the border, their border patrol police had a normal search, which is a common situation.

What Shimier didn't expect was that these border patrol officers found * powder in the backpacks they were carrying.

Not only the few escorts, but also on him, he didn't know when the things in his backpack were put in.

They were under control at that time. Shemir had never done these things before, so he was not afraid at all and let them investigate directly.

But this was originally a trap, designed to frame him, how could it be possible to find out his innocence? Sure enough, during the investigation of these people, they also found a phone record and a list of transactions that did not appear.

Ximil was stunned on the spot. He never knew why these things appeared in his backpack inexplicably. He felt that this matter must not be simple, and he yelled loudly that someone was setting him up.

But the people around him didn't pay attention at all, because these people were bribed to punish him.

Eredar also went to intercede with her brother, but there was nothing she could do. It was a felony for them to do something like this.

But at that time, Ai Rui thought that no matter how bad things were, if her brother went to prison, there should be a solution. She was looking for a lawyer outside, but she didn't expect that a bad news came that Xie Mier was escorted to a military prison.

Military prisons, as the name suggests, are used to detain some soldiers who have committed serious crimes on the job. Eredar didn't think about why her brother would go to that place.

After entering that place, she never saw her brother again. She was very anxious when Amus appeared.

The guy kept saying that he had a way to rescue her brother, but the only condition was to let them give up the ownership of the mercenary company and transfer the total ownership to Ames.

How could Ereda agree to such a thing, and at that time she also knew that her brother was framed by this bastard, and now she is pretending to be a good person, just wanting to occupy their company shares .

Besides, if I was really stupid enough to give all the company's shares to Ames, my brother would not be able to get out, because it would not be so easy to go to a military prison.

In the end, Eredar tried all kinds of methods, and finally saw his brother. At that time, he was already extremely embarrassed, and it was obvious that he was tortured inside.

After Xie Mier knew what had happened, Eredar could not transfer out the company's holding rights no matter what. Now those mercenary groups are Eredar's umbrella. If she really transfers out, Amus doesn't know What kind of means to do to his sister.

When Ereda said this, the circles of her eyes were a little red. Even though her brother had already entered the military prison, he was still thinking of her everywhere.

At this time, Qin Yuan raised his own doubts, "I'm more curious that this situation does not meet the standards for entering a military prison. He is a retired soldier. No matter what, he will go to an ordinary prison, so he won't go there. Bar."

"We thought so too at the time, but Ames, a despicable bastard, said that my brother had other military secrets and couldn't be detained in an ordinary prison, so he was transferred to a military prison for him."

Hearing this, Qin Yuan also nodded. Amus actually didn't want Xie Mier to come out. After all, if they went to an ordinary prison, they might still find a way to get out, but not necessarily in a military prison.

"How long has he been imprisoned now, what about his remaining teammates? You can ask his teammates to rescue him, not necessarily me."

Because listening to Eredar's narration, her brother's teammates should not be ordinary people, and they are also capable of rescuing him.

"At that time, my brother's teammates were all imprisoned in ordinary prisons, and they haven't come out yet. My brother was sent to a military prison alone. They have been imprisoned for a full 17 months now."

"Then I would venture to ask, how long does he usually have to be imprisoned in this situation?"

"Other teammates of my brother, they were sentenced to 40 months in prison, because my brother was the mastermind. Of course, this was framed by them. He needs to serve a life sentence in a military prison, which is life imprisonment."

It seems that this is indeed the work of Ames. How could he be sentenced to such a serious crime with just such a small thing, and it is probably mixed with other things.

After listening to it, Qin Yuan really sympathized with Eredar. This blonde beauty is not like the previous scene of a strong woman. At this moment, she is sitting on the sofa, sobbing softly.

"Since this is the case, he was indeed wronged, so I can help you."

When Eredar heard Qin Yuan say this, he felt hope in an instant, raised his head, and looked at him expectantly.

"No problem, as long as you agree to help, I can meet any conditions you put forward. If you think the two million is too low, you can also propose other things, or higher than this, no matter what method you use, As long as I can save my brother."

I don't want to mention things like compensation, after all, these things belong to things outside the body.

Moreover, if Qin Yuan mainly goes now, he still has merit points to get. Since this person has been wronged, it is also in line with his own morality to rescue him.

"But you also know that such a military prison is closely guarded. I need to make some preparations. The people in your team need to cooperate with me."

"No problem, the few mercenary regiments I have now, how many people you need will be sent to you immediately."

At this moment, Qin Yuan is staring closely at Eredar's eyes, she really doesn't look like a liar.

"Okay, then take me to see your team, I want to know some other things."

In this way, Eredar brought Qin Yuan to their mercenary base. They said it was a base, but it was actually more like a school, with teaching buildings, dormitories, and training grounds.

The mercenaries who are training now are all retired, and they are all very capable, and she has always assured me that they have never done anything against morality.

After coming to her office, Qin Yuan saw many awards on the wall, and there were group photos with many people. Most of the group photos were Xie Mier and others.

"This is the photo left by my employer and my brother when my brother completed the task before."

Qin Yuan nodded, and it seemed that there was nothing wrong with it. After a while, there was a knock on the door, and Eredar asked someone to come in.

The people who came in were a seven-member team. Although they didn't carry any weapons and were just wearing ordinary camouflage uniforms, Qin Yuan could tell their occupations in the team at a glance.

Eredar pointed to Qin Yuan and introduced first, "This Captain Qin is your commander-in-chief this time, and you must obey his orders for everything."

Qin Yuan noticed that when Eredar had just finished speaking, the first person standing on the left frowned, looking a little unconvinced.

Eredar turned to Qin Yuan and said, "This is the strongest Black Shark team in our team. Their captain is well-deserved, and he retired from the Alpha special team before."

Qin Yuan nodded, no wonder the man was so unconvinced to him, almost all those who retreated from the Alpha team were strong.

"What else do you need, just tell me, as long as I can do it, I will provide all the help."

Chapter 946: current conversion

"There's nothing else, the main reason is that this is a military prison after all, and it's not that easy to get people out of it, so we have to find a way to get in first."

Eredar nodded, "By the way, Mr. Qin, you can rest assured that I will keep this matter a secret. After all, this matter is also related to myself."

All these aspects will be solved slowly later, and the main problem now is how to get in.

Eredar asked the members of the Black Shark team to stay in the room, and they slowly discussed that she had other things to do, after all, she had to manage a lot of relationships.

"Mr. Qin, I will leave the rest of the matter to you. I will keep it secret when you go there this time. I will go down and arrange it now."

Qin Yuan nodded, sat on the sofa, picked up the military map, and looked at it carefully.

The members of the Black Shark team also sat next to each other. They didn't say a word, and they were quite disciplined.

After all, everyone's cooperation is needed to complete the action, so Qin Yuan introduced himself to them.

"Hello, my name is Qin Yuan."

He only said a short sentence, just told everyone a name, and didn't mention anything else.

The captain of the Black Shark team next to him said slowly: "I don't have a name, only a code name, you can call me Tyrannosaurus."

Qin Yuan raised his head and looked at several people, and then continued: "You are a sniper, the one next to you is an assaulter, the one on the left is a blaster, and the two behind are fire supporters. I didn't expect there to be a medical soldier. There are quite a lot of people in this team."

Hearing Qin Yuan say this, several people were a little shocked. They haven't introduced themselves yet. Could it be that Eredar told him?

"You don't have to look at me like that. Eredar didn't say anything. This is just what I said directly based on your situation."

Hearing this, Tyrannosaurus was also a little surprised, how did you tell? They are not equipped with any weapons. After all, the occupations in the team can only be seen based on their weapons and equipment.

"I'm curious, how did you find out?"

"I have a squad myself, so I know who fits in, and you're really good at running a squad, to be honest."

The Tyrannosaurus was indeed a little surprised. It seemed that this man really lived up to his reputation. Before Eredar approached them and said that he wanted to listen to the command of a soldier from the Yan Kingdom, they were still a little bit unconvinced.

Although they are mercenaries, they are also regular mercenary groups. They feel that they are no different from the usual special forces, and they are all strict with themselves.

Including their current sitting postures are unified, and there is no change in the way the army rides.

At least from this point, Qin Yuan can see that they are considered regular, and they can be strict with themselves and obey orders, which is quite rare.

Then Qin Yuan began to talk about the situation of this mission.

"I don't know much about this military prison. I don't know if you have any opinions. After all, we will cooperate with each other in the future. If you have any ideas, you can express them."

Tyrannosaurus frowned, and pointed to the wall on the map, "There are guards everywhere in this prison, but do you know why there is no guard on this wall?"

Unexpectedly, they had already inquired about it before, and they knew the situation better. Qin Yuan asked a little strangely: "Then you tell me what the situation is?"

They had premeditated this plan a long time ago, and they also went to investigate on the spot. The situation inside is very serious and not optimistic.

Although no one is guarding this wall, it is covered with the power grid, and the power grid is also inside the passage wall, and the power value has reached 100,000 volts. Let alone climbing in from here, even if you touch it, you will be overturned by electricity. land.

So only this wall is not guarded, and there are patrol members 24 hours a day, and the power value of this wall is also maintained 24 hours a day.

"Then can we find a way to destroy the circuit, and then enter through this wall, I can enter in just two minutes."

Tyrannosaurus shook his head, "We also thought about destroying the circuit, but this method doesn't work. Their circuit is inside. We have to go in before we can destroy the circuit."

Tyrannosaurus took out the notes they went to investigate at that time. He drew very detailed. After entering, there were two heavy fire support points on the left and right, and there were snipers on them.

Such a firepower point, even a company's troops would be difficult to break through.

This is not an exaggeration, Qin Yuan nodded in agreement, so many firepower points are arranged very densely, after all, this is a military prison, and there are special prisoners in it, so everyone also attaches great importance to it.

"Well, I'm going to go and have a look in person. I'll go in under the name of visiting the prison. I'll investigate first."

Tyrannosaurus nodded, and put away his notes. To be honest, he wanted to see how this person could get in. They had gone to that place many times, and they couldn't find a breakthrough point at all.

This short meeting was over, Qin Yuan found Eredar, hoping she would give him a pass, he needed to go in and check the situation in detail.

The pass was processed very quickly, and Eredar immediately handed it to Qin Yuan. Normal visits are also allowed in military prisons, but such visits are more difficult.

"You are visiting someone else this time, not my brother, because my brother is not so easy to see. He was taken special care of me by that fellow Ames. It is very difficult to see him."

Qin Yuan nodded and set off with his pass. It has to be said that this military prison is too far away. It took four hours to drive, and after driving to the foot of the mountain, he couldn't go up. The road ahead must not work.

This is also a means of military prisons, and guard posts are even set up here at the foot of the mountain, and all vehicles coming down from above must pass their inspection.

Qin Yuan pretended to ask: "Hi, may I go up by car? After all, the way up is too far."

"No, I hope you cooperate. This is also our job. No vehicles are allowed to go up from here, only on foot."

Qin Yuan was also asking tentatively, but it didn't work, he had to get out of the car, and the soldiers next to him didn't have any maps for him.

The soldier next to him pointed to the mountain road ahead, "The way up is very simple, just walk along this road, there are no turns or forks in the road, and it will take more than two hours."

Qin Yuan smiled, then picked up his backpack and prepared to set off for two hours. Others need two hours, but he only needs half an hour.

He jumped and galloped all the way on the hillside without the slightest pressure. Although the road was surrounded by bushes, it was a typical winding road.

Fortunately, there are no cameras installed around here, but it is more difficult to get down from that top, after all, it still needs to be inspected, even if there is a truck that pulls goods into the prison, the truck that comes down has to be inspected.

Originally, Qin Yuan planned to use this trick to get in, but it seemed impossible. After a while, he came to the gate of the prison. He looked up at the high iron gate.

There are two soldiers standing on the iron gate, both of them are holding a brand new assault rifle, which is the latest C

The 60-style assault rifle has a very long range, and the bullets fired are spiral-shaped. Basically, it is declared semi-disabled after being hit.

Because the bullet rotates in after entering the body, the wound on the surface is very small, but the internal organs have been completely destroyed by the bullet, and such damage is usually fatal.

And this is not a traditional sliding door but an electronic door. Such a situation made Qin Yuan frown. It seems that this military prison really deserves its reputation.

After entering, there was a series of registrations, and some people were injured. These people searched very carefully, and directly asked people to stand under the machine.

Everything on his body was seen clearly, even the necklace that Ruan Yuan was wearing was asked to take it off and return it to him when he came out.

In this way, after going through layers of screening, Qin Yuan finally entered the prison, and after entering, he did not go to the inside of the prison, but to the parlor.

Here is completely transparent, just a glass door, and the material of this glass is bulletproof design.

Although it was just a simple meeting, there were sentries on duty inside and outside, so there was no privacy at all.

And the time to meet with the other party is only five minutes, no matter what, there is only five minutes of visiting time.

Eredar gave this pass, but he didn't know where he got it from. The other party didn't know Qin Yuan at all, so he could only make up an excuse.

Originally, I wanted to get some information about the inside of the prison. Seeing that they have to be guarded like this, it is impossible to say, because there are two guards standing next to the prisoner.

With this kind of armament, everyone is issued live ammunition. In any emergency, they can shoot directly.

After Qin Yuan came out, he walked around the prison, and he saw the electric wall that Tyrannosaurus and the others were talking about.

There is no one guarding here, but there is a warning sign that there is a danger of electricity.

Qin Yuan stretched out his hand tentatively, also wanting to see how powerful it is. When his hand just touched the electric wall, there was a tingling sensation first, followed by a notification sound from the system.

"Ding! The system detects that the host touches the strong current device and whether to recover it."

Qin Yuan was shocked when he heard this, what is the situation, can even this be recycled?

If it can be recycled, does that mean that there will be no circuit after the wall is recycled, and you can enter from here.

"System, recover immediately."

"Ding! Recycling for the host, please wait..."

After waiting for a few minutes, the system beeped again.

"This recovery is a special recovery. It has recovered a very strong current of 100,000 V. The host can convert the current into its own attack power, but it can only be used once every six hours."

"When the host is attacking, it can choose a 100,000-volt current to attack the enemy."

Hearing this, Qin Yuan checked his system. At this time, he found a lightning device next to him. It seems that this is the 100,000 V special current.

Unexpectedly, the recycling was successful in this way. He was a little surprised. Does that mean that the wall is out of power now?

He tried to reach out and touch it, but he still felt numb. What's going on?

"Hasn't the system already been recycled? Why is there still electricity in this wall?"

"Answer the host, the host only absorbs the 100,000 V from the wall circuit, but the circuit is connected to a continuous transmission of electrical energy."

I didn't expect there to be such a saying. This is the first time Qin Yuan encountered it. After his system was recycled, the thing was like a waste.

"If that's the case, can I absorb it again, and then store all the electrical energy in my body."

"..."

The system was so speechless at the moment that it fell silent.

"Is the system still there? Answer my question quickly."

"The host has a saying that the heart is insufficient and the snake swallows the elephant. You have absorbed 100,000 V. This is a current that normal people can't bear. You can choose to absorb it again, but you may become a corpse."

"This..."

Since there is no way to do this, anyway, 100,000 volts have been absorbed, maybe it will be useful later, so let's store it in the body first.

When Qin Yuan went down the mountain, the soldier was quite surprised. He felt that Qin Yuan's speed was too fast, and he came down in less than two hours.

"Are you already in prison?"

In order not to arouse suspicion, Qin Yuan could only shake his head and say, "I didn't go up, I was too tired to climb, and I came down halfway."

"Oh, so that's the case, I just said, how could someone come down in such a short time."

In this way, when Qin Yuan came back, Ereda couldn't wait to wait for him in the office. He wanted to see what Qin Yuan learned today.

Tyrannosaurus didn't take it seriously, their team had been there so many times, it was useless at all.

Sure enough, when Qin Yuan came back, he also said that there was no way to do it. It was impossible to sneak in. The guards here are so strict, and there is a monitoring system inside, there is no way to escape.

"So there is only one way now, and that is for me to go in."

Tyrannosaurus shrugged, "Of course we know we want to go in, but the question now is how to get in?"

"I don't think you understand what I mean. I mean that only if I commit a crime and enter this military prison, can I get out."

Tyrannosaurus was completely dumbfounded when he heard this. It was too much effort. Is it worth it to send myself to prison, and put myself in it without being rescued? This move is too risky.

"Are you crazy? Send yourself in? What if you can't get out later? Are you really planning to go to jail in it?"

"If I can go in, I will be able to come out. This is my confidence, and now we don't know about the power facilities or the situation inside, so we can only go in."

Chapter 947: go to prison

The tyrannosaurus next to him felt that Qin Yuan must be out of his mind. This was simply too exaggerated. He definitely disagreed with this plan.

"You make such a plan, I definitely don't agree, I will not let my team members take risks, although we are mercenaries, we will not take such risks for money."

Tyrannosaurus thought that Qin Yuan was letting the whole team in, so he thought this plan was too crazy.

"Captain Tyrannosaurus, I think you may have misunderstood, what I said was that I went in alone."

This sentence made the members of the Black Shark team completely stunned. He wanted to be a soldier, and it was impossible to do it.

"I think you should be clear that it's almost impossible to get out of that military prison. If you want Eredar to help you then, it's impossible."

"Of course I know this, so the question now is whether you can help me get in."

Ereda crossed her arms beside her. She had to say that this plan was too risky. If Qin Yuan was really involved, she didn't know how to explain to his team.

"Mr. Qin, I'm speaking bluntly. You are relatively well-known. If you really can't get in and out, I don't know what kind of sparks will be caused. And if you go in and this matter is discovered, then I really can't get out."

What Eredar meant was that he was worried that Yan Guo would definitely not give up after knowing this matter.

Qin Yuan smiled and said slowly: "For this matter, you can rest assured that I have my own plan, and I have always followed my word."

Qin Yuan had planned it long ago, he planned to carry out some basic disguises, and then enter with a new identity.

"And now you only need to find a way to get me in, and leave the rest to me."

Hearing Qin Yuan's arrogant tone, Tyrannosaurus was a little dismissive. He admired Qin Yuan before, after all, he had heard about his deeds, and he was also the number one in this international sniper competition.

But now he feels that this guy is just an arrogant person.

"Very good, Mr. Qin, then I have a question. Now that you are in, what should our Black Shark team do?"

"You don't need to do anything, just stay in the base."

Ereda stood up and walked out at this moment, she should have to think of a way, after all, it is not so easy to send someone to a military prison.

She has also thought about it. Although this plan is risky, it is the most likely to be implemented. Compared with Qin Yuan, she believes in Qin Yuan's ability. This person can always give her some unexpected surprises.

At least it had given her hope. She didn't know what would happen if it dragged on, because there had been no news from the prison, and she was worried that Ames would kill him.

She was even more worried that Xie Mier would be secretly transferred, and it would be even more difficult to find where he was, and it would be even more difficult to rescue him.

Eredar suddenly turned around and looked at Qin Yuan and said, "I agree with your plan, I will find a way now, but I also hope that you can come out smoothly."

"Don't worry, I've always done what I say."

Seeing that Eredar was gone, Qin Yuan didn't stay any longer. Now it's not his business, he needs to have a good rest.

After he went out, the tyrannosaurus slapped the table. This man's tone was too arrogant. His Black Shark team was the strongest team in the mercenary army. He actually let them stay in the base. His tone was obviously Look down on him.

"Captain, do you think that kid's plan will succeed?"

"In the past, I hoped that he would succeed, but now I hope that he will be locked up for the rest of his life!"

The sniper next to him shook his head, he was the calmest in the team, "But his eyes are full of confidence, I think he might really succeed."

"Are you crazy? You are still speaking for others now, look at his arrogant attitude just now, towards us and our captain."

"I'm just talking about the facts, and I don't think he has any arrogant attitude. A strong person, a powerful person will say such a thing."

"you..."

After the sniper finished speaking, he turned and left.

To be honest, he admired the calmness and confidence in Qin Yuan's eyes, at least someone who can think of this will definitely not be weak.

He also thought about this before, but he didn't have the courage to implement it. After all, he wasn't sure if he could get out of it, because the bounty given at that time was very high.

And now he needs money very much, so he came to become a mercenary.

It's just a pity that he doesn't have that ability. Now that he saw Qin Yuan, he felt that this person would definitely succeed, so he exuded a strong confidence from him.

Tyrannosaurus watched his team members leave, and didn't say anything, just snorted coldly.

"This kid's temper is still so stinky, but forget it, let's not talk about him, I think this Qin Yuan does have that kind of self-confidence, but sometimes self-confidence becomes stupid, and that's ridiculous."

"Captain, anyway, he said that we don't need our help, so we will stay in the base. I want to see how much splash he can make by himself."

"That's right, anyway, he said it himself and doesn't need our help. If he is so good, then let him do it alone."

Tyrannosaurus smiled, very satisfied, then left with his team members behind his back.

After Qin Yuan returned to the room, he could clearly hear what they were talking about. After all, his hearing was so sharp that it was difficult not to want to hear it.

He didn't think it mattered, this time, he wasn't just for the rewards, what was important was the five thousand merit points, which would definitely help Li Erniu keep them promoted after taking them back.

Now the red blood cell team he leads has gained some international reputation, but he feels that it is not enough. What he wants to do is to be the first.

And there is no harm in the improvement of ability, after all, the improvement of ability is also a kind of security guarantee for them.

Eredar is also asking for connections, he made a phone call, and there was a man on the other side.

"James, is there anything you can do now? I want to send a man to a military prison."

"What! Are you crazy? How many people want to get out of there, and you actually said that someone wants to go in."

"Don't worry about these things, just tell me if there is such a way."

"Why don't many people want to come out there, and there are still some people who are under review. You can find someone to replace them, just to replace them."

"But if you do this, how sure do you think you will not be discovered? What I want to do is to be foolproof."

After all, military prisons are quite special. The soldiers who are placed in their own files are strictly reviewed. It is not so easy to pretend to be an impostor.

"Hahaha, Eredar, you are really naive. Don't you know that as long as you have money, you can do anything. I'm quite surprised that you made such a request."

Many soldiers who have committed crimes are undergoing review, and after the review, they will be transferred to military prisons, so James wants to use this gap to include Qin Yuan.

Soon, they found their target, a deserter on the battlefield of Asak!

This soldier originally joined the army for money, but he was caught on the battlefield just after he went, and he was very scared when he went to the battlefield.

In the end, he couldn't overcome the fear in his heart and became a deserter. He was discovered by the people in their team during the escape, so he was sent to a military prison.

And this person has no money and power, just a blank background, such a person is the most suitable, just find someone to replace him, and then find an excuse to throw him out, this is the end of the matter, no one will find.

Qin Yuan looked at this person's information and nodded. This identity is quite suitable, but he somewhat despises this soldier. In his eyes, deserters on the battlefield are no different from cowards, and they are all unforgivable.

"Mr. Qin, you don't need to express your justice. After all, there are everyone in this society. You should quickly familiarize yourself with his information. I'm just curious, how do you put on makeup so that you can escape those censors like him."

"I won't bother you about this matter, I will show you what a miracle is later."

To tell the truth, Ereda felt a little guilty in her heart, after all, it is really too difficult to make up to be another person, and it is almost impossible to do it in this situation.

Seeing Qin Yuan showing that confident smile again, Ereda didn't know what to say, she walked out slowly.

Qin Yuan was not in a hurry, picked up the information on the table and checked it carefully, it seemed that there was a photo of the soldier on the information.

This soldier captain is a thief, and at first glance he is not a person who will make a big deal, no wonder he will become a deserter.

The soldier's name was Alec, and Eredar found a pretty good guy, except for what he did, his basic shape and height were about the same as Qin Yuan's.

Ten minutes later, Ereda knocked on the door, she wanted to know how Qin Yuan was doing.

The moment she opened the door, she was completely stunned. The person sitting on the sofa was no longer Qin Yuan, he was exactly the same as the person in the photo, and she had not only seen the photo, she had seen the real Alec.

Moreover, Qin Yuan has restrained his temperament, and now he looks cowardly and weak.

Eredar couldn't believe it, he tried to call out, "Mr. Qin?"

Qin Yuan, who was sitting on the sofa, didn't respond, he just picked up the newspaper in front of him and read it.

"Alec!"

"arrive!"

Ereda was completely stunned, this was exactly the same as Arik, if it wasn't for Qin Yuan who was sitting here just now, she couldn't believe it when she saw it with her own eyes.

"Miss Ereda, there is nothing I can do about it. I have to start getting used to it now. I am Alec, and I hope you don't call me by my name again."

Eredar was a little shocked, her voice stammered, "Okay...okay."

Qin Yuan really surprised her. She really wanted to ask how it was done, but she knew that Qin Yuan wouldn't say it. After all, everyone has their own secrets, and there are some things she doesn't know. You should always ask.

In this way, under the arrangement of Eredar, Qin Yuan was sent to the vehicle to the military prison. This time, it was different from the last time, he sat in the vehicle.

Before setting off, Ereda stared closely at Qin Yuan, she hoped that Qin Yuan would succeed and come out smoothly.

At this time, Qin Yuan really came to the inside of the prison, and was sent into a small room first.

Here, he will be handed over, his identity checked, and his body checked.

After checking that there was no problem, the security personnel who came to pick him up looked at Qin Yuan's prison information, and immediately showed contempt in his eyes.

"I didn't expect to be a deserter, with no blood at all. Do you know that I hate people like you the most."

Qin Yuan didn't speak. After all, he didn't say it in the first place. To be honest, deserters are disgusted by everyone.

"Stinky boy, I asked you something, you have to answer yes or no."

"Yes!"

Suddenly the person in front punched him in the stomach, Qin Yuan was defenseless this time, after all he was now wearing handcuffs and anklets.

But this group didn't have much impact on him, he didn't feel any pain, and his defense was no joke.

Seeing that Qin Yuan didn't respond, the person who hit him just now became more energetic.

Picking up the baton next to him, he quickly hit him on the back, but Qin Yuan remained unmoved.

"I didn't expect your mouth to be quite stubborn. I wanted to deal with you properly, but it seems that I was really forced to make a big move."

After finishing speaking, he rolled up his sleeves and was about to hit him hard again, when the person next to him stopped him.

"Don't do anything, it would be bad if someone finds out after you go out later, arrange him to cell 702, let him taste the taste there."

Hearing this, the man nodded with a sneer, this is a good idea.

When Qin Yuan heard about Cell 702, he felt that it must not be a good place. Looking at the smiles of these people, he knew it, but he had nothing to be afraid of. He sympathized with the soldiers sent here.

It seems that this military prison is really well-deserved After the physical examination, he was also assigned personal belongings, which were simple bedding and a set of clothes.

Then the man who beat him just now took him forward with a baton and a bunch of keys hanging on his body. Qin Yuan looked at him carefully.

Going in from here, you have passed through three gates in total, all of which require the key on the man's body.

The innermost door is an electronic door, and there are guards at every door.

The military prison really lived up to its reputation, and even the guards were so strict. After all, some powerful people were imprisoned here.

Qin Yuan walked slowly on the aisle, and the prisoner inside stood at the small window, staring at him closely.

Most of the people who come here are not innocent, they are charged with all kinds of military crimes, after all, he just came in now, he is not in a hurry, first observe the surrounding environment, and then slowly find a way to find Shemir.

"Boy, let me tell you the rules! Get up at 6 in the morning, and then run for you bunch of scumbags. After the run, you will be assigned work, and after the work is over, you will have dinner."

Chapter 948: Successfully entered the small black house

Qin Yuan just listened silently. Although he couldn't take it anymore, his current status was originally a prisoner. How much respect can he find for a prisoner?

The person in front swung his baton. Seeing that Qin Yuan didn't answer, he turned around and punched him directly in the stomach again.

"I said you brat, why don't you have such a long memory? Didn't you teach you to answer when you see the officer in the army, you know?"

"Yes!"

Qin Yuan looked at him coldly, and now he has to bear it. This is just a bad word. These punches and kicks are just tickling for him, and his defense is already very strong.

"Then you  have to undergo reform through labor. At that time, these jobs were assigned according to my mood. If I am in a good mood, I might send you to clean the toilet."

"Reporting sir, may I ask if we have a separate time for a briefing?"

Hearing Qin Yuan's question, the man suddenly turned his head to look at him, then held a baton and made a gesture to hit him.

But he still held back, after all, he didn't want to make a big fuss.

"Why do you suddenly ask this now? Is there any attempt?"

"Report sir, just because I heard you said that they are all working, so do we have our own time to relax?"

"I'm ashamed to mention it. You criminals are here to be reformed, but our prison director is kind, and we have your time for release, three hours a day."

"One hour in the morning, one hour in the afternoon, and one hour in the evening."

Qin Yuan didn't expect to calculate it like this. He thought it would be a total of three hours, so there would be a lot of time left for himself. It seems that the warden is a very smart person.

If the time is separated like this, there is no time to do a lot of things, and there is no time to communicate with others too much. This trick is really good.

It seems that he has learned something this time. If the domestic prisons need to be reformed in this way in the future, he can also make suggestions.

In this way, the man chattered about the rules in the prison in front of him. Anyway, after most of the words were finished, it was a problem, and absolute obedience was required here.

After finishing speaking, he also arrived at the cell where Qin Yuan was.

After opening the door, someone inside shouted to stand up, and everyone stood neatly beside the bed.

Qin Yuan took a look inside, it was a room for eight people.

The man with the baton walked in and knocked on the bed rail, "I'm telling you, this is a new guy, you better not make too much noise, I'm tired of wiping your butts."

The man standing in the first position stepped forward with a smile and handed him a cigarette.

"Sir, this is to honor you."

"Hehe, you still know something, kid."

"By the way, the new kid is a deserter. Anyway, I always dislike him. You must take good care of her, after all, she is a newcomer."

He said that Qin Yuan understood what he meant. Isn't that implying that those people can do something to him? Unexpectedly, this is the so-called military prison.

It could be seen that the person who smoked the first smoke was the boss of the cell, and the other people didn't make any movement, they just stared at him coldly, and there were some people who were watching the show.

Before the man went out, he took a meaningful look at Qin Yuan.

"Boy, I wish you good luck, enjoy yourself here!"

"Thank you for your care, sir."

Qin Yuan sneered, it doesn't matter who will take care of who, but with these little trash, he still wants to fight with himself.

Immediately afterwards, the door of the dormitory was also closed, and he was willing to look at the surrounding environment. He only saw an empty bed by the window.

Holding the quilt in his hands, he was about to walk over when suddenly the person in front stretched out a foot, trying to trip Qin Yuan. Qin Yuan reacted quickly and stepped on his instep.

The man gasped, squatted down and held his feet tightly.

"Damn! You kid is looking for death, can't you see it with your eyes?"

"I advise you not to provoke me, get out!"

The man raised his fist and wanted to hit me. At this time, the person who handed the cigarette just shook his head at him, so he stopped what he was doing and just looked at me fiercely.

After all, they don't know my strength now, so the man wants to observe again.

He stepped forward and looked at me and said: "Boy come here, you have to understand the rules here, if you have something on your body, hand it over first! I am the boss here, you must call me Boss Lubenfu, I prefer this title."

Qin Yuan snorted coldly, didn't want to talk to them at all, and walked directly past the man.

Seeing that Qin Yuan didn't pay attention to him, Lu Benfu became even more angry. This new kid is too arrogant. Could it be that he didn't understand what he said?

The few people next to him were also eager to move.

"Hey, brat, you can't sleep there, that's where we put things, you only deserve to sleep on the ground."

Qin Yuan didn't pay attention to it at all, and threw all the things on his bed on the ground.

This move completely angered several other people. Originally, Lu Benfu didn't want to make too much noise, but this kid is too arrogant. If he is not taught a lesson, it will be difficult for him to gain a foothold here in the future.

"Damn it, give it all to me, teach this kid a lesson today, remember not to slap your face, just say hello to yourself."

It seems that they also understand very well. After all, if you slap the face, the wound on the face is easy to be found. Although those people outside are turning a blind eye, I hope they will not do too much.

After all, these people had been soldiers before, but because they made mistakes, their physical fitness was very strong, especially Lu Benfu. It is said that when he just came in, he directly beat a roommate to death. That's why it became everyone's nightmare.

Gradually, he became the boss of this dormitory, leading these people to become a small boss.

Those people outside didn't want to meddle in these nosy things. After all, they heard that few people inside went out, and some of them were sentenced to life imprisonment, especially this Lu Benfu.

So he became more and more arrogant, and he was imprisoned for life anyway.

Basically, any newcomers will be sent here first, and they will teach them a lesson before taking them to other places.

This is also equivalent to coming to the prison to give them their first blow.

"Everyone give it to me, and this kid is actually a deserter, deserter, I look down on it the most."

Lu Benfu punched Qin Yuan directly, Qin Yuan easily received his fist, and then there was a click.

Lu Benfu screamed and half knelt on the ground, his wrist was broken directly.

Qin Yuan directly hit him on the back with an elbow. Didn't he say he didn't want to slap him in the face? He could do it himself.

At this time, a man next to him also rushed up, Qin Yuan turned around and looked at him coldly, kicked the man directly in the abdomen, and fell on the bed next to him.

The man in the back picked up a toothbrush and stabbed at Ruan Yuan viciously. Qin Yuan kicked his wrist away, turned over close to him, threw the man over his shoulder, and fell directly on the door behind him.

After a while, these people were easily dealt with by Qin Yuan. Lu Benfu did not expect that his fighting was already the strongest, and he did not expect that this person was faster than him.

"Ahem, cough, boy, I didn't expect you to have two brushes."

Qin Yuan kicked him away directly, and then threw out the things that got off the bed.

"I said just now that you don't provoke me. If that's the case, I'll set the rules for you again. Now I'm going to get out of bed."

The person who got out of the bed was the one who was kicked on the iron gate by Qin Yuan just now. He couldn't even get up at the moment, and stared at Qin Yuan in horror.

Just now Qin Yuan's reaction speed was too fast, and his strength was so great that they had no time to defend, and they were already overthrown.

The person next to him with a baton only came over symbolically, knocked on the door, and didn't even look inside.

After all, they all knew what would happen inside, and the newcomers would definitely be taught a lesson, but their commotion must have caused too much trouble today.

"Everyone in there should pay attention to my sense of propriety, and don't make any trouble."

Just as Lu Benfu was about to open his mouth to shout, he was punched on the chin by Qin Yuan, and his chin was dislocated in an instant.

"If you can't control your mouth, then don't talk!"

Everyone was dumbfounded by this situation. After all, they were all soldiers, and they knew how powerful it would be to dislocate and fracture a person's joints.

The person next to him fell down, and the person quickly opened up. Seeing this willingness slowly approaching, he was a little scared. Qin Yuan just pushed him away and picked up the small basin next to him.

At this moment, the few people beside him also hurriedly expressed themselves, and they all stepped forward to help Qin Yuan make the bed.

People here are very aware of status, and now Qin Yuan is the boss of this prison, after all, he has proved it to them with his strength.

The original man who brought Qin Yuan before was also worried about what would happen. After all, he knew that this kid had a stubborn temper, and if something went wrong, he wouldn't be able to explain it.

He walked over and just opened the door of the cell, and saw those bruised and swollen faces, and Lubenfu, who he thought was the strongest, was looking at him with drooling mouth, and he couldn't understand what he was talking about.

What is the situation? This is too exaggerated!

Qin Yuan sat on the bed with his legs crossed and looked at him coldly.

The man was very angry when he saw this situation. He walked over, stared at Qin Yuan, and lifted him up from the bed.

"It seems that you still don't understand the rules. As I said just now, you must stand up and report when you see the officer. Besides, depending on your situation, you may also be suspected of beating your roommate."

"Oh! Report sir, they're going to hit me first, so I can't help it, I'm just doing it in self-defense."

Seeing Qin Yuan's arrogant attitude, this man couldn't stand it, he felt that Qin Yuan was challenging his authority.

"I think you really don't understand who is the boss here now?"

"I really don't understand. You have been targeting me since I came in. Even if you are the chief here, you can't be like this! Although I won't be locked up for a long time, I will definitely sue you when I go out."

This time the man was completely irritated, and this was also Qin Yuan's goal, because he asked these people just now, if he made a mistake, he would be locked up in a small black room alone.

So Qin Yuan wanted to see if there would be an opportunity in the little black room. If he was locked there alone, there might be other opportunities to escape.

The man picked up the baton, very angry, he pushed and dragged Qin Yuan out.

Then he had his anklets and handcuffs put on. Qin Yuan was a bit inconvenient to walk, staggering, and was pushed to the ground by the man when he was unprepared.

He stood up and stared fiercely at the man who pushed him. Qin Yuan swore secretly that even if he wanted to leave here, he would definitely deal with this  severely.

"Stinky boy, you will soon know what  is."

Lu Benfu clapped his hands and applauded in the cell, this brat must let him suffer, otherwise he really doesn't understand any rules.

But there is one thing to say, his strength is really strong, so he is also very curious, how can such a skilled person become a deserter?

After all, deserters are taboo among these people. They were all soldiers before, so they are very sensitive to the word deserter.

Lubenfu was imprisoned because he killed a hostage by mistake at that time, otherwise he was a very good sniper.

At least he won't be a deserter, that's why he has so much malice towards Qin Yuan.

Regarding this, Qin Yuan had no choice. After all, he pretended to be a deserter, and this kid was really cowardly. He became a deserter on the battlefield.

On the other side, Qin Yuan was taken to a closed place. The environment here was even harsher. The outside was bright and beautiful, but the place was dark.

This place is more like a basement, and it is very cold, so I am willing to be pushed in. There are countless rooms below.

But it was very small, but Qin Yuan, who was separated from each other, was pushed in directly. After entering, he realized how bad the environment was.

The ceiling of this place is above a piece of iron grid, and there are patrolling people walking around with guns.

After the man pushed Qin Yuan in, he smiled coldly, "You are really the first person to find trouble for me, then I will let you suffer a lot, and you can stay here for me, when you figure it out I'll let you out later."

It didn't matter to Qin Yuan, he had been in any kind of environment anyway, besides, his main purpose of coming in was to see if he could have a chance to escape.

He must first find out where the man was found, and then go to find Xi Mier and take him out together. This is his plan.

The room is very small, just a few square meters barely fit a single bed, the bed is very narrow, next to the toilet.

This environment is really harsh enough. A person of Qin Yuan's height can't even sleep on a small bed. He can only curl up with his feet completely loose.

This is the scary thing about the small black house. You can't sleep well, and then you can't eat well. People who come in the first day have nothing to eat.

Chapter 949: was targeted

However, these were not a problem for Qin Yuan. With his physique, it would not be a problem even if he did not eat or drink for three days.

It was only then that Qin Yuan saw the real horror of the military prison, because for this group of special people, the prison also took special care, and there was no chance to escape.

It seems that there is not much hope of escaping from here, but as long as he can touch the outer wall, there is absolutely no problem.

And he has gained a lot along the way, at least he has a clear understanding of the strength of the troops outside the door. He remembers that he came in once, and now he goes out once. The guards outside are the same.

In the small black room, everyone felt that they could not escape, so although there were guards on it, the guards were very lax. After the man who brought Qin Yuan here just now left, the patrolling soldier sat on a stool in the corner.

A small black house seems to be the former address of the old prison that has not been renovated, and the outside should have been renovated.

Because the surrounding walls are all tattered, he can see the situation next door.

The man next to him was also a man, but he couldn't see what he looked like, because the man was always curled up.

Until the food delivery person came in the evening, Qin Yuan was not allowed to eat in the small black room for the first time today, and even if the food was given to him, he would not eat it.

A dark mass, I don't know what it is, plus half a slice of bread.

At this time, the man finally got up, and then reached out to pick up the plate handed in from outside.

The moment Qin Yuan saw the man's true face, Qin Yuan almost jumped up excitedly, because the person who was locked next to him was Xie Mier, and it was a no-brainer.

Qin Yuan hurriedly called out to Xiaodong: "Xie Mier!"

The man who was sitting on the bed eating heard someone calling his name, raised his head curiously and met Qin Yuan's eyes, but he was a little curious why this man knew his name.

Because in this place, they will not allow names to exist, they are all called numbers directly.

Xi Mier also leaned against the wall tightly. After all, there were patrolling people on it. He asked in a low voice, "Who are you? How do you know my name? I don't seem to know you."

"It doesn't matter who I am, what matters is that I am the one who can take you out of here."

Xie Mier was stunned when he heard this, but he didn't know whether to believe this person or not.

Because since he was brought here, he has been imprisoned in a small dark room every now and then.

Those people just didn't want him to get in touch with other people, so they came up with this method, so he didn't know how such a coincidence happened, in case it was sent by Ames.

"I don't know what you're talking about? Don't bother me, I'm going to start eating."

Seeing that Xie Mier didn't believe him, Qin Yuan could only continue to say: "I was brought by your sister to rescue you."

But Shemir still couldn't believe it. After all, Ames would do anything to get those shares.

At this time, the patrol team members also heard the movement, walked over, and stepped on the iron net above with their feet.

"4625! Don't you know the rules? You are not allowed to chat casually here."

In order to do a full set of tricks, Qin Yuan could only raise his head and said with a smile: "Brother, I mainly didn't eat. I'm too hungry. I want to ask him for something to eat. Can you give me something? I really know I'm wrong." gone."

"Hehe, I think you don't know how to repent at all. Just wait and talk about it tomorrow."

After the patrol team finished speaking, they strode away, ignoring Qin Yuan at all.

He would be worried that he would be heard by other people. After all, there is no ceiling here, so the sound insulation effect is not very good. Qin Yuan could only make various actions to attract Xie Mier's attention, but he ignored them.

Qin Yuan didn't know what Xie Mier went through and why he became so distrustful of people.

In this way, on the second day, Qin Yuan was able to eat, but he couldn't even begin to eat the food that was handed over. He didn't even know what it was made of, and it looked disgusting.

But Qin Yuan looked at the piece of bread and the dark soup that was handed in, and soon had an idea.

He wrote Black Shark Squad Tyrannosaurus on the bread, and continued to knock on the wall, attracting Semir's attention, and held the bread through the small hole for him to see.

Xie Mier was stunned when he saw these words. Knowing the Black Shark team is quite simple, but he also knows the Tyrannosaurus Rex, which means that he may really have a connection with his sister.

Because tyrannosaurs generally don't easily tell other people their names, including performing tasks, especially the particularity of their identities, and no one will know their names.

When Xie Mier saw Qin Yuan at this moment, hope was ignited again. At this time, because he had been locked in a small dark room for a long time, he was dark and thin, and he was completely different from the person in the previous photo.

He was being tortured endlessly here, and at first he had hoped to get out, but he knew Ames' methods, and he would never let him out easily.

So he also had a decadent thought about life.

Semir was gesturing beside him, probably asking him how to get out.

To be honest, Qin Yuan didn't know either. If Xie Mier was locked in the small black room and he didn't have access to the outside, he would have no way to take him out. The situation in this room is too complicated, and he wants to come in , The commotion was too great.

So now I can only think of a way, let Xie Mier go out first, at least live in a normal dormitory, then Qin Yuan will have a chance to take him away.

Looking at Xie Mier, he was a little anxious. After all, the two of them couldn't communicate now, so he thought of a way. He got some water from the toilet next to him.

Then dipped his finger in water and wrote his plan on the wall next to him.

Xie Mier looked at his plan through the small hole. Qin Yuan's general intention was to let him soften first, agree to Ames' request, and see if he could go out. As long as he could live in a normal dormitory outside, he would I can find a way to take him out.

After all, a good man doesn't suffer from immediate disadvantages, and when fighting a villain like Amus, he cannot be tough. The more he is like this, the more Amus will punish him.

This is Qin Yuan who just came in, and he summed up the truth. The roots here, from the chief to these prisoners, seem to like to bully the weak and fear the hard.

Xie Mier also wrote his message on the wall according to Qin Yuan's method. He will be sent here for four days every week, and only three days a week will be outside.

For Qin Yuan, three days was enough.

Qin Yuan also inquired about the prison floor where Xie Mier lived. Qin Yuan just wanted to know more information. After all, it was impossible for him to rush into the cell to take people away.

He still doesn't know enough about the situation here, so he stays for a few more days, which is also to ensure that the operation can proceed normally. He has always done things like this, being cautious.

However, this feeling is too aggrieved. If he is really allowed to let go, the people here will not be a problem at all. He can really take Xie Mier out, but he doesn't know how many people will die.

Besides, in this military prison, if he really makes a fuss, it's really hard to explain.

After all, there are other people's rules and regulations here, and it was only because Ereda's brother's situation was special that Qin Yuan planned to help her.

Two days later, Xie Mier was taken out, and Qin Yuan figured that he should be about the same. They probably wouldn't lock him up here for a week!

Sure enough, Qin Yuan's cell door was opened the next day, and he was taken out. It was not the man who brought him that day, but another guard.

This man's mouth was very clean, and he didn't say anything. He just took Qin Yuan back to the dormitory and told him that he must abide by the rules here, otherwise he would enter the small black room again. Qin Yuan could only obediently express that he would definitely obey .

What Qin Yuan didn't expect was that he was still assigned to that dormitory, which was quite good, at least he didn't have to go to other prisons to set rules.

At this moment, Lu Benfu's right hand was bandaged, because his right hand was broken by Qin Yuan, and there was a gauze on his face.

After Qin Yuan came in, he still stared at Qin Yuan viciously. Although he was beaten badly last time, he was still very dissatisfied with this deserter.

No matter how powerful it is, it is of no use, but it is just a deserter, and this is the kind of person he despises the most.

The other pictures didn't dare to make too much of a move when they saw Qin Yuan, but were just doing their own thing silently.

Qin Yuan lay down on the bed and stretched, and finally his body was stretched. In that crappy place, even being stretched was a luxury.

Unexpectedly, just after lying down, the door of the cell was opened again. It turned out that they were going to be taken out for labor reform.

No wonder they were so anxious to release themselves. It turned out that today they need to go to the road next to them to help repair the road. Their job is to throw stones.

It was hard work, under the scorching sun, and it was hard and tiring.

No need to think about it, Qin Yuan knew that it was definitely the fault of that person. He said before that he wanted to punish himself, so he assigned his work to this place.

Lu Benfu stayed in the cell because of his hand injury. Seeing his smug smile, Qin Yuan just wanted to rush up and break his leg.

Because of Qin Yuan's performance before, he is now receiving special care. He is still wearing anklets while working, which restricts his movements. Although Qin Yuan can easily break the anklets, but In this place, he can't do that.

The man who brought Qin Yuan that day, at this moment, there was a prisoner holding an umbrella for him, and someone was holding a water glass, looking at him flatteringly.

He walked slowly to Qin Yuan's side, "Boy, you said that day that you were going to report on me, right? It depends on whether you can get out, and now I have the final say here."

Qin Yuan snorted coldly, didn't care at all, and did whatever he wanted, the man looked at Qin Yuan's attitude even more angrily.

"You go to hit rocks at three o'clock, and others come here."

Now everyone knew that Qin Yuan was being targeted, because the place Qin Yuan went to was the only place where the sun could be exposed to the sun, and now because the sun shifted, the place where everyone came to throw stones was shady.

After spending three hours in this way, the person on the opposite side blew the whistle, and everyone can have a short rest.

Qin Yuan looked around and saw that the surrounding police forces were evenly distributed, and there was no chance to rush out from here unless they were to be brought down.

At this time, a middle-aged man came over, and he was also a prisoner here.

"Young man, I advise you not to mess with that guy here, that guy is a devil."

"Oh, but it's because he's not convinced, there's nothing I can do."

"It is indeed normal to be young and energetic, but sometimes you have to bow your head and be a human being. When you can go out, they actually have the final say."

The middle-aged man also couldn't bear to see Qin Yuan being bullied, so he wanted to stand up and remind him.

But I didn't expect to be seen by the man just now. Sure enough, after the rest, the middle-aged man was divided with Qin Yuan and stoned.

"Brother, I thank you very much for helping me, but you should stay with me less in the future, after all, it will hurt you."

"I don't know what kind of nerve this grandson made a mistake today. As long as she is in a bad mood, we will suffer."

Qin Yuan didn't take it seriously, anyway, he didn't plan to stay here too much, as long as he found an opportunity, he would take Xie Mier with him.

In this way, it lasted until 5 o'clock in the afternoon, and it was finally over, and Qin Yuan and the others had to withdraw their team and go back.

Everyone was so tired that they were all unwilling to move in the car. At this time, the man came over again, looked at Ruan Yuan, smiled and said, "Congratulations, I think you are still very energetic, just as you go down to push the cart." ,car broke down."

Qin Yuan made this set up again and smiled, one day he will settle all these accounts.

After Qin Yuan got off the car, the driver next to him reminded him in a low voice, "Sir, will there be any problems?"

"What's wrong, now he's in handcuffs, and we're behind him, where can he fly?"

The driver didn't say anything he just felt that this kid was really pitiful.

The people in the car were just waiting to see Qin Yuan's jokes, after all they thought how normal people could push the car.

Qingyuan smiled, moved her wrist, and then pushed it up. The next thing that shocked everyone happened was that the car started slowly.

What's the situation? This is a minibus!

The man walked up to the driver and asked him, "Did you drive secretly, did you start it?"

The driver quickly raised his hand, but he didn't move. The man didn't believe it, so he pulled out the key.

But the car was still moving forward. This scene completely shocked everyone. What's going on? Does this person have so much strength?

The man also understood that although these soldiers had been trained before, many of them came from some mysterious teams, but he remembered the information of this man, it was an ordinary company, and he became a deserter, how could he have such a powerful force.

Everyone cheered when they saw Qin Yuan slap the man in the face. Many prisoners voluntarily cheered for Qin Yuan.

Chapter 950: Ready to fight in the boxing ring

Naturally, the man couldn't stand it, after all, he was the supreme ruler here, and these prisoners had to submit to him, and getting some prisoners to do this was simply provoking his majesty.

Thinking of this, the man asked the driver to stop the car, strode down, and then raised his baton to hit Qin Yuan's joints.

Originally, this stick had no effect on Qin Yuan at all, but Qin Yuan thought that this person was going to punish him so much, so he should give him some color.

Just when the baton fell on Qin Yuan's knee, he suddenly screamed, the sound was so loud that everyone around was attracted by him.

I have to say that Qin Yuan's acting skills are also very good. He obviously has nothing to do, but his screams are so terrible that others think he must have broken a bone.

The guard next to him also ran down quickly, after all, Qin Yuan was his prisoner.

"Sir, why don't you take him back first. After all, this is outside. It would be bad if others saw him."

"Damn it, I feel like this kid is just playing tricks with me. Could it be that he broke a bone with just one stick?"

Qin Yuan directly fell to the ground, clutching his knees in pain.

The guard next to him rushed over and helped Qin Yuan up. Just as he touched Qin Yuan's leg, he let out a miserable cry.

The guard shook his head, "Sir, he doesn't seem to be faking it, should you send him to the infirmary now?"

The man came over, squatted down, and stared at Qin Yuan closely. He wanted to see something in Qin Yuan's eyes, but Qin Yuan's face was ferocious at the moment, and he didn't know if it was true or not.

"Send him to the infirmary. Isn't this kid very fateful? Throw him back to the cell first."

"But..."

"Don't worry about it so much, carry out my order and take him back directly."

The guard slowly helped Qin Yuan up. Although he felt that this man was a deserter, he still had his own dignity. In this place, he was bullied, and everyone couldn't stand it anymore.

But no one can do anything about it, they can only follow the man's orders, after all, he is the team leader of Supervisor A on this side.

He looked at Qin Yuan apologetically and said slowly: "Sorry, I couldn't help you, but I tried my best."

Qin Yuan didn't say anything, the man put himself on his shoulders, and then slowly supported him, Qin Yuan limped and walked in front, and he had to do a full set of acting.

When they went back, it was time to eat, and Qin Yuan and the others were led by the guards to the cafeteria.

Qin Yuan was looking around. He mainly wanted to see if Xie Mier was there. He had already come out of the small dark room yesterday, and he should be eating here.

Sure enough, Xie Mier saw him, but when he saw Qin Yuan limping, he wanted to go up and ask, but the cells could not communicate with each other.

He mainly wanted to ask what was going on with this man, why he was already limping after not seeing his feet for two days, and how he could help him escape like this.

Qin Yuan looked at the time hanging on the wall. They had an hour of activity time after the meal, and they could take this opportunity to look at the surrounding environment. He could take Xie Mier out in three days at most.

Because Qin Yuan's feet were limping, the guards had no choice but to untie his ankle chains. After all, his movements were already restricted.

This was a lot more convenient for him. Qin Yuan sat by the basketball court and watched people play basketball, but he was actually looking at the situation around him.

At this time, Xie Mier also came over, and he sat behind Qin Yuan. It seemed that the two had no communication, but Qin Yuan had already quietly sent him a message.

Qin Yuan has observed the situation here just now. There are four sentry posts on the playground, but they are all snipers, and he also found the electric meter box, because there is a current sign near the electric meter box.

All this is very coincidental, the power control room is next to the infirmary, so you also have soldiers guarding it, but the number is very small.

A group of soldiers passed by just now, but no soldiers have passed by until now, it is probably just a formality.

"Can you find a way to go to the infirmary in two days? As long as you go into the infirmary, I will have a way to take you out."

"I want to know what method you are thinking of. Can you take me out as a cripple? You are really whimsical. There are guards everywhere here. How do we get out?"

"Don't worry about other things, just tell me if you can enter the infirmary, as long as you can stay in the infirmary, I will have a way to take you out."

"Leave the rest to me."

Xie Mier thought for a while, and now that he put everything on Qin Yuan, he chose to believe him.

It's just that he finds it really difficult. He has been here for a long time, and he still hasn't found any flaws. He doesn't know how the person in front of him is going to take him out.

At this moment, Lubenfu came over with malicious intentions.

"Hey, boy, didn't you look crazy two days ago? Today I heard that your leg is lame."

Qin Yuan smiled, and ignored this person's provocation. Now he had to think about more important things, but he didn't expect Lu Benfu to stand directly in front of him, blocking his sight.

Qin Yuan grabbed him directly, "What on earth do you want to do? Let me tell you, my patience is limited. Even if my legs are limping, but my hands are fine, I can still beat you speechless."

Lu Benfu was indeed quite unconvinced, but due to Qin Yuan's strength, although he was not convinced in his heart, this person was very strong.

Now he can only silently coax, but he thought of another way.

"By the way, don't you think your boxing skills are very good? Then why don't you challenge the boxing champion here? If you succeed in the challenge, you can still get a chance to reduce your sentence?"

"Not interested, I'll count to three seconds, it's best to disappear from my sight, I don't want to see you."

Qin Yuan didn't even bother to talk to him. Lu Benfu originally wanted to provoke Qin Yuan on purpose and let him fight that boxing champion.

Because he felt that Qin Yuan definitely had no chance of winning against that boxing champion, and Qin Yuan had already noticed his careful thoughts.

Lu Benfu didn't achieve his goal, so he could only leave in a hurry. Anyway, he will definitely find a chance. As long as this kid gets in the boxing ring, he can talk about anything.

It's very dark inside. The so-called boxing ring is also organized internally by them. There are such competitions every week. Everyone can visit and place bets.

But it was all fights between prisoners, and the prison guards were just watching the fun.

After all, this is a military prison, and everyone's force value is uneven. Many fighting masters are locked here, so the prison guards in the prison launched this challenge.

Of course, it is also beneficial for them to launch such a challenge. For every prisoner who goes in to bet, watch the game, or even go to the boxing ring, he needs to pay a ticket.

This boxing match is also very simple, breaking all traditions, without any rules and restrictions, the only thing that makes sense is that as long as the opponent is knocked down, he will win.

And the person who wins can get the highest reward of the day. The rewards are different every week. Sometimes it is money, sometimes it is an extension of the release time, or there is no labor reform for a week. Anyway, there are various kinds of rewards. There are rewards.

Qin Yuan inquired about these things, he didn't care about them at first, but he felt that this boxing match might be an opportunity.

There were very few chances for the two to meet each other, so during the next day's release, Ye Feng still came to the basketball court in the morning, and Xie Mier also came over, and he sat in the back.

"How about what I asked you to do? Can you go to the infirmary?"

Xie Mier shook his head, this is really difficult for him, because now Ames has complete control over him, and someone is monitoring him at any time.

In two days, he will be imprisoned in the small dark room again, and there is no chance to enter the infirmary at all, and even if he shouts in the small dark room, no one will send him to the infirmary.

"Okay, I'll help you find a way to solve this matter, you can sign up for the boxing match directly, and it should be no problem to persist until the end with your physical level."

"Didn't you say you wanted me to go out yesterday? How did you get involved in a boxing match? I really don't understand what you want to do."

Qin Yuan planned to take part in the boxing match and finally go on stage to fight Xie Mier by himself. In this way, the two of them could be injured successfully under the watchful eyes of the public. The method of coming to the infirmary is simply the best of both worlds.

At this time, Qin Yuan noticed that someone was watching this way, and it should be the person that Xie Mier said was watching him.

So in the current situation, you must hurry up and go to the infirmary to escape, otherwise you don't know what kind of changes will happen later.

"You just said that in that boxing match, I can last for a few rounds without any problem, but do you know that boxing champion? He is very powerful, and my strength is not as good as him."

Qin Yuan stood up, pretending to be active beside him, and then whispered to Xie Mier, "Don't worry, even if you don't make it to the end, with me, anyway, I will definitely defeat the boxing champion. In the end, you can challenge me on stage." ."

Xie Mier gasped when he heard this. This man is too arrogant. He even said that he wants to defeat the boxing champion, which is impossible.

Because since Xie Mier came in, I have heard a lot about the deeds of the boxing champion. He has almost never lost a fight here, and he has won every game. Up to now, he has become a role that no one dares to challenge.

Xie Mier pointed to the black man standing beside him talking, "You see, he is the champion of boxing, his size is twice as big as yours, and his muscles are the strength of our two arms, don't be kidding."

"I said, why don't you believe me? Let's talk about some things later, and you just do what I say."

Qin Yuan didn't bother to explain anything, stood up, and he observed the boxing champion.

Although this guy is locked in prison, he has always been keen on exercising. Even in the exile stage, he is still boxing and practicing some basic boxing techniques.

And it can be seen that he is indeed experienced in many battles, and even the position of his fist is callused. Such a person is indeed terrifying.

But I am willing to not worry, he wants to see what happens to the so-called boxing champion in this prison against his golden belt.

In this way, in the afternoon, every cell was lively, after all, this was the start of the weekly entry competition.

Some enthusiastically signed up, and some were ready to watch the excitement.

Lubenfu is counting the money. This is the entrance fee he has to pay today, and he will definitely make money.

Last time, he brought money to bet on the kid in Cell 603, but he didn't expect that guy to lose the fight, causing him to lose all his money.

In today's match, he is very optimistic about another player. As for the boxing champion, it is the finale, and he will only come out when someone challenges him.

In other words, among these people, the first and final winner appeared, and the boxing champion would also appear.

Qin Yuan crossed his legs and called Lu Benfu over.

Lu Benhu looked at Qin Yuan in front of him, not knowing what he wanted to do, and tightly held the money in his hand, he was worried that Qin Yuan wanted his money.

"Didn't you mention that boxing champion before? I'm very interested now, how to sign up."

Lu Benfu became excited immediately when he heard this. He never thought that he had been planning how to get Qin Yuan to sign up for this kid, and now he agreed to go.

"Are you really going to participate? Not to watch the game, but to play the game."

"There's so much nonsense, and I'm going to challenge the boxing champion."

The other people next to me gasped when they heard this. This guy is really crazy. Although he was physically strong when fighting with them, but to fight against the boxing champion, these two people are not at the same level at all. .

After all, the boxing champion is very big, and this boxing champion still bears many lives, and many people died under his fist.

However, all the prisoners he killed were prisoners, and the prison guards would not say anything. Before taking the stage, everyone would sign an agreement, promising to play the game voluntarily.

This is also the project that the prison guards are most looking forward to. After all, it is quite boring in the prison. With such an activity, they can make money and watch the game. Why not do it?

Lu Benfu looked at Qin Yuan with a sinister smile Don't worry, I will help you sign up now, and I will definitely let you participate in the competition. "

Looking at this man's sinister face, Qin Yuan felt disgusted, but since he wanted to compete so much, let them see what his real strength is.

No one is optimistic about himself, but the main reason is his body.

Because his identity is a deserter, everyone will think of running away, how strong he can be, it is because of his poor strength that he thinks of running away.

When Lu Benfu went to help Qin Yuan sign up, the prison guards there were also very shocked.

"Is this kid crazy? Did he really say he wants to challenge the boxing champion?"

Lubenfu added oil and vinegar on the side.

"He said that he is an invincible fighter all over the world, and he is not a problem with the boxing champion. He can be dealt with directly in a few minutes."

At this moment, the boxing champion sat coldly in the supervisor behind him. He listened to all this and clenched his fists. Could it be that he hadn't been out for a long time, so others ignored him.
