

Special Soldier 96

Chapter 96: Special recruitment quota (8)

Early the next morning, the red cell special warfare training base was already full of people.

These people are all masters selected from each company. There are not many opportunities for Langya to form a new team, so they all want to join.

At this time, Li Erniu, He Chenguang and Wang Yanbing have also arrived here, but Li Erniu looked at so many people, but he couldn't help but feel a little shocked.

"No, Yanbing, Chenguang, why are so many people here, can we three be selected?"

Looking over, there are a total of 20 or 30 people, but the entire red blood cell team has only six people in total, and most of them will be eliminated. Li Erniu's stress is normal.

"Okay, Brother Niu, you're done, do everything to your fate, you are so good, as long as you perform normally, you will definitely be selected!"

Wang Yanbing was also looking at the people around him at this time. They were all opponents!

But He Chenguang is a little confused:

"Hey, why did you say Qin Yuan didn't come, doesn't he know?"

"A person like Qin Dashen shouldn't need to participate in this kind of selection, maybe he has directly joined which special forces unit?"

Wang Yanbing replied, to be honest, they have already seen the power of Qin Yuan and really don't want to meet Qin Yuan in this kind of selection.

But He Chenguang directly shook his head. Although Qin Yuan's ability is very strong, no matter which team he is in, he can quickly run in with others, but after all, he is not slowly tempered from blood and fire with others. a little less.

If the military region really wants to let Qin Yuan stand alone, this newly formed red blood cell is the best choice!

Then there was a rumbling of the aircraft, and a few people came down from above, and then the spectacle dragon and pilot Song Kaifei of the red blood cell team were among them!

The one standing last is Qin Yuan!

When Li Erniu saw Qin Yuan at this time, he was immediately excited, and He Chenguang and Wang Yanbing also greeted him directly. They hadn't seen each other for a while, and they were naturally delighted when they met and gave each other a solid hug. !

"Brother Yuan, we meet again!"

At this time, He Chenguang looked excited, and Wang Yanbing also showed a smile, and said to Qin Yuan:

"It's over, it's over, when Brother Yuan comes, we must have lost one more spot, and only 5 are left!"

Hearing this, Qin Yuan directly patted Wang Yanbing on the shoulder:

"Is it a bit ambitious? You can't take down four of the 6 places and let us brothers all join the red blood cells?"

"Hey, Brother Yuan said well, there are six places, why can't all four of our brothers be shortlisted?"

Hearing Qin Yuan's words, all three of them were shocked, and their hearts became more important to this selection!

But after hearing what these people said, there were people who couldn't see it:

"Hey, it's not night yet, can you stop dreaming?"

"You still don't let people have a daydream in broad daylight. He thought this red blood cell was opened by his house, and there are 6 places for 4, so do they deserve it?"

"Hey, people with strength in this world never speak big words, but those who are not strong bark faintly, and as a result, they become soft as soon as they get started. Then they will retreat from here with no face and no skin, and they don't know how to be ashamed. !"

At this time, the people around were all talking about it. He Chenguang and Wang Yanbing's expressions suddenly changed when they heard such words. Wang Yanbing's temper was fierce, and they wanted to find some cool talkers for theory and theory.

But Qin Yuan grabbed Wang Yanbing's shoulder and shook his head lightly at the other party:

"It's not yet the beginning of the selection process. As long as you can persist to the end, their words will naturally be self-defeating. You don't want to be kicked out before the start."

Wang Yan is dying of soldiers, when did he ever say that?

"If someone says a few cool words, you will die of anger. When you are a special soldier, if the enemy scolds you, then you just run out? It's not worth it to compete with such a small character!"

Qin Yuan gave another piece of consolation. To tell the truth, as an orphan, the ridicule of others has never ceased since childhood, so these people are not worth making Qin Yuan angry.

When Wang Yanbing heard this, he suddenly smiled, then amplified his voice, and said to the mocking people:

"Brother Yuan is right. If you care more about people like this, it's not worth the price."

But those few people heard Wang Yanbing's words, but frowned, and directly surrounded Wang Yanbing:

"Boy, what are you talking about? Who are you talking about?"

"What do you mean by that?"

Those who can come here to participate in the selection are all elites in the various units. There are two brushes in their hands. No one wants to bow their heads.

This thing in the air is smelling of gunpowder, and it is about to burn.

But at this moment, everyone heard a whistle, and then they saw Fan Tianlei and Chen Shanming walking over:

"Everyone! Gather!"

"Stand up!"

"Have a rest!"

Following Chen Shanming's order, Although these people were still talking about it before, and even seemed to be fighting, they are now quickly forming a uniform square.

There are a total of 40 people who want to participate in the selection. Looking at these people in front of him, Fan Tianlei also showed a slight smile. Standing in front of these people, he said loudly:

"Very good, I saw you! It's like seeing the old self! The same heroic and vigorous, I am very satisfied with your mental outlook!"

"I think you have also been notified that we will recruit 6 members in this selection."

"It's just that I want to announce to you first that one of you has already obtained my approval and was admitted by me in advance!"

Hearing what Fan Tianlei said at this time, these people were suddenly shocked. What do you mean by special recruitment?

Originally, they thought that the red blood cell team was a newly formed team, so it would be more fair and just. Who knows that when they first came, the selection hadn't started, and they said that they had already accepted one. Isn't this a blatant cheating?

All the people at this moment are angry at the person who was admitted by the special recruitment.

Originally there were not many six places, but one was directly occupied by someone. How could these people be convinced?

They come here to participate in the selection, don't they even get a fair treatment?

And at this time, hearing such words, He Chenguang's 3 people are a burst of information, because others don't know, they naturally know that this person must be Qin Yuan! !

Sure enough, Fan Tianlei shouted in front:

"Second Lieutenant Qin Yuan, get out!"
