“Ding! Host, please open the newbie gift package!” The system’s voice sounded in Qin Yuan’s mind again.

At this moment! A newbie gift package suddenly popped up on the virtual panel in Qin Yuan’s mind.

“Open it!” Qin Yuan said.

“Ding! Congratulations, you have obtained the beginner Eagle Eye skill: It can assist the host in aiming within a thousand meters with 100% accuracy.”

“Ding! Congratulations, you have received a bottle of basic body-strengthening liquid: After consumption, the host’s physique will be increased by 5 points. It can be used on the host’s own body or exchanged for a strengthening liquid in the system to help the host build a Special Forces team.”

“Ding! Congratulations to the host for obtaining the beginner radar warning skill: It can scan all objects and sounds within a 200-meter radius of the user! When there is any danger in this area, the system will automatically alert the host.”

“Ding! Congratulations to the host for obtaining the beginner special combat skills: With all the special combat skills in the world, you can fight with an expert with four times the physique of an ordinary person without being defeated!”

“Ding! Congratulations to the host for obtaining the special training manual: It’s a collection of special training methods and things to take note of from all over the world.”

“Ding! The system has gifted the host 500 skill points.”

“New skills can be upgraded by accepting system tasks and obtaining skill points!”

“Each skill is further divided into beginner, intermediate, and advanced.”

“The items in the system shop can also be exchanged with skill points.”

After the system finished speaking, Qin Yuan couldn’t wait to open the virtual panel and check the skills he had just obtained.

Qin Yuan looked at these skills and became more and more excited.

With these skills, his personal combat power could reach the level of the Special Forces, or even be stronger than the average Special Forces soldier!

Qin Yuan was still excitedly looking at all the skills he had just obtained when there was a knock on the door!

“Commander Qin... Commander Qin... Are you done packing? We can set off now.” Xiao Wu asked from outside.

“Alright, let’s go!”

Qin Yuan opened the door and walked out.

At this moment! A Jeep military vehicle was on its way to the logistics company.

“Commander Qin, I heard that the logistics company is made up of soldiers who are physically weak or disobedient to the management. We have changed a few company commanders, but there is still no way to change the situation. I don't know if you can manage these soldiers this time." Xiao Wu looked at Qin Yuan and said.

"It's fine. There are no soldiers who can't be led, only officers who can't lead them well."

"Although that's what you say, these soldiers are really difficult to manage. To be honest, you're already the 9th company commander I've sent here. The military exercise will be held in three months!" Xiao Wu said helplessly.

"It's fine. I'll try it no matter what."

Qin Yuan didn't explain much.

After all, this logistics company was considered well-known in the entire Military Region, well-known for its notorious reputation.

At this moment, in the logistics company's training ground, a few veterans were sitting in a circle and whispering to each other.

"Did you hear? We're going to have a new company commander. The instructor just received a call from the regiment commander!" A smaller soldier said to the crowd.

"So what if he's here? We have more than one company commander here. They're all the same, so what's the use?"

"That's right, they only know how to talk about ideals all day long. We've been laughed at for so many years, but brothers, we should still eat and drink! You cook your meals, I raise my pigs, just muddle through it! Not long after, he will apply to leave." A soldier who was slightly chubby said.

"Yup! These company commanders only came to our company to take a break, and they leave in less than two months each time. Who really cares about us huh!” The petite soldier snorted, like a little wife who had been bullied.

At this time, Qin Yuan had already arrived outside the training ground. He was using his early warning radar to hear the soldiers’ conversation.

Qin Yuan walked forward and stood behind a few soldiers. After thinking for a moment, he removed the captain rank from his shoulder.

At this moment, the sharp-eyed soldiers suddenly saw a young man with a heroic appearance standing behind them.

“What are you talking about? Other than those on duty, isn’t everyone else training at this time?” Qin Yuan asked with a smile.

“Training? It seems like you don’t know the ‘rules’ of our logistics company. You can do whatever you want here!”

“Who are you? He’s a new recruit who’s just been transferred over, right? What’s your military rank?” The petite soldier asked.

“You must be a new recruit who was just eliminated by the other companies and assigned to our logistics company!”

At this moment, the crowd looked at Qin Yuan and asked.

Qin Yuan nodded along with them. “Yes. Hello, veterans!”

“You’ve just arrived,” Wang Yao said. “You’ll know in the future. Stay here for two years and raise pigs. When you’re discharged, you can take the discharge money back home and start a small business!” The slightly chubby soldier said to Qin Yuan. That nonchalant attitude of his didn’t look like the role model of a veteran at all.

At this moment, in the logistics company’s office, instructor Zhou Qing, who had received a call from the regiment commander, rushed to the camp gate after hanging up the phone.

When he saw Qin Yuan chatting with a few soldiers, he felt a sense of urgency. Those few veterans were a bunch of slippery old soldiers who wouldn't listen to anything.

"Don't embarrass yourself in front of the new company commander!"

"Commander Qin! Hello, I'm Zhou Qing, an instructor at the logistics company!" Zhou Qing quickly stepped forward and shook his hand.

"You know me?" Qin Yuan returned a military salute and said.

"The regiment commander has already faxed over your transfer order. I've also seen the photos!" Zhou Qing explained.

"Company commander?" The petite soldier asked in confusion, and the others were also surprised.

"Eh? Instructor, are you saying that he is our company commander? He's a company commander at such a young age, don't tell me he got in through connections again!" The chubby soldier looked at instructor Zhou Qing with a puzzled expression.

"You bastard! Is this how you talk to a company commander? Hurry up and salute!" Zhou Qing berated.

"Good day, Commander!"

"Good day, Commander!"

"Good day, Commander!"

At this moment! Although the soldiers in front of him saluted, their eyes were still full of disdain. A dignified company commander actually dares to use the trick of traveling incognito.

Qin Yuan took in everything in front of him but didn't say anything. Instead, he leisurely put on the military rank that he had taken off.

After this test, he finally understood how lazy the logistics company had become.

He could only train these soldiers to death, train them until they vomited, train them until they submitted.

"Instructor Zhou, please take me to put my luggage away!" After Qin Yuan finished speaking, he turned around and walked back to the camp, ignoring the Veterans.

"Alright, commander Qin, come with me." Zhou Qing said.

"The few of you, I will teach you a good lesson later!" Zhou Qing glared at the Veterans and left with Qin Yuan.

After hearing Zhou Qing's words, the fearless veterans weren't worried at all. They simply spread out their hands and sat back down on the ground to chat.
