

Special Troop 671

Chapter 671: Attaining the Purpose of Double “Winning”

‘ But don’t forget that you are also a member of the People’s Liberation Army!’

“The Mountain Leopard Brigade is also an army under the leadership of the party! ”

“After being in the Blue Army for a few days, do you really think of yourself as a rebel?”

Qin Yuan was not angry at his words and said indifferently.

“You’re right. The person sitting in front of you now is not your comrade, but your enemy! Enemies!”

‘ Your mistake is that you’ve always treated me as a member of the People’s Liberation Army. You’ll never believe that the enemy will appear in front of you at any time!’

Wang Zhigang was not convinced and pointed at him.

“What right do you have to give me lessons?”

Qin Yuan smiled.

‘ Brigade Commander Wang, you’ve been defeated by my psychological tactics along the way.”

“Where’s your artillery? In less than ten minutes, it was completely destroyed by my distant fire.”

“Why are you still putting on the airs of an ace brigade commander in front of me?”

“I let you into my command center because you wanted to fight this drill to the end. ”

“Otherwise, do you really think that you can swagger in front of me with your remaining shrimp soldiers and crab generals?”

“I don’t dare to boast. Even if you bring all your troops and I just sit here, you might not be able to capture me alive and escape unscathed.”

As he spoke, Qin Yuan looked at his watch again.

” There’s still one minute before the drill ends. You’ve broken through the 535 defense line.”

‘ Even if you have already attacked my command center.”

“If you want to win this exercise to satisfy your vanity.”

“No problem. I can make all my soldiers surrender now.”

“Brothers!”

‘ Let’s congratulate Brigade Commander 909 on his triumphant return!’

‘ Congratulations to Brigade Commander Wang for being promoted to Deputy Chief of Staff!’

After saying that, the few warriors sitting behind Qin Yuan stood up and applauded with Qin Yuan.

Wang Zhigang was so angry that his mouth twisted when he saw Qin Yuan mocking and toying with him.

She widened her eyes and stared at him. When she saw the faint smile on his face, she could not sit still.

He suddenly stood up and slammed the table.

“Qin Yuan!”

At this moment, the chiefs who were sitting in the director’s department watching the battle also applauded with Qin Yuan. They turned their heads and smiled at each other.

They should have thought that Qin Yuan and Long Xiaoyun letting Wang Zhigang off was a big plan.

They saw that the Mountain Leopard Brigade was slowly maturing on the path

d pruess1011d1 L)lue dL111Y.

However, the performance of Wang Zhigang and the 909th Brigade was not satisfactory, which made them worried.

No, to be more precise, it was unsatisfactory.

The shocked officers had to think about a question.

The two main battle forces of the theater of operations were defeated by a young professional blue army. This phenomenon was too terrifying!

If the Mountain Leopard Regiment was really an enemy, the consequences would be unimaginable!

This could not help but cause people to ponder.

Could it be that our team is so vulnerable?

Of course not!

Then where did the problem lie?

All these things needed to be dug out and resolved by them.

On the military field, Captain Wu Tian was leading his soldiers to practice running.

the chief of staff said.

“The drill is over.”

Wutian could not help but ask.

“Who won?”

In his eyes, he definitely wanted his good brother Wang Zhigang to win and take revenge for him.

However, what the chief of staff said next surprised him.

“No results.”

Wu Tian could not help but feel puzzled. “No results?”

“Then what kind of drill is this?”

“There are all kinds of discussions.”

“About what?”

“Wang Zhigang was defeated.”

“Then what are the attitudes of the Bureau Chiefs?” “There’s only applause. Applause means that it’s a compliment.”

“But the entire exercise was indeed very exciting.” Wu Tian did not dare to jump to conclusions.

“We’ll only know when the Chief’s evaluation is out.”

The next day, a young reporter from the army followed Wang Zhigang into the forest.

Brigade Commander Wang, I’ve seen the entire process of the drill.”

“At the last moment, you led the Red Army to attack the 535 defense line and the Blue Army command center. This spirit really touched me!”

As the young reporter spoke, he even raised his camera and took a picture of Wang Zhigang’s refreshing appearance.

“Is that so?”

“Of course!”

“Brigade Commander Wang, I’ve never missed out on any of the battle drills you’ve commanded, right?”

Wang Zhigang praised.

“Why don’t you say that you’re a senior reporter in the military!” The two of them looked at each other and smiled.

You and Brigadier Wutian are my old friends, but Wu Tian’s condition is different from yours.”

Wang Zhizanz was a little puzzled.

“Then you have to tell me what’s the difference between him and me.” The young reporter continued.

“In the confrontation exercise between the two of you and the Blue Army, there’s no comparison at all.”

‘ Brigade Commander Wu Tian has really lost his standard in this exercise.”

” And in the face of such an unruly confrontation exercise, you were able to show fearlessness and indomitable courage.

” And the courage to win, the spirit and will to command. It’s really admirable!”

I think that you have demonstrated the spirit of a senior commander in the new era!

Wang Zhigang was so praised by his rainbow-like fart that he almost flew into the sky..

Chapter 672 - 672: Reaching the Purpose of Double “Wins ‘1 (2)

He said humbly.

“You flatter me.”

The young reporter was also a little curious.

‘ Brigade Commander Wang, I’ve interviewed the entire army for many military exercises.”

‘ But the mode of this exercise is very different from the past.

‘ Now that a specialized blue army has appeared, I would like to know what you think of this confrontation exercise.”

“Uh... Or rather, what do you think of this professional blue team?” Wang Zhigang thought for a moment and said with a smile.

“You should interview Brigade Commander Wu Tian.”

“He was the first to fight against the Mountain Leopard Brigade, so he should be more touched than me.”

The young reporter said awkwardly.

‘ But Brigade Commander Wu Tian has already rejected my interview.”

Hearing this, Wang Zhigang was a little puzzled.

“Why?”

The young reporter sighed.

‘ Maybe the failure of this exercise was too much of a blow to him.”

Wang Zhigang shook his head in disbelief.

“It can’t be?”

At this moment, the commanders of the various military regions in the directing department walked out of the demonstration hall one after another.

“Chief of Staff Shen, Commissar Long and I think we shouldn’t focus on the drill this time.”

” Each unit will take it back and summarize it for themselves. Make two detailed combat analysis reports.”

” There must be ideas, strategies, tactics, tactics, as well as lessons learned from the success or failure of the exercise.”

‘ What do you think of the subjective and objective understandings?

As soon as he walked out of the door, the chief turned around and said.

Staff Officer Shen nodded.

“I want the two commanders of the Mountain Leopard Brigade to personally deliver these two reports to the brigade commanders of the 808th and 909th brigades.”

“Then let them take the initiative to hand over the Blues ‘bottom line to the other party.”

‘ This will help them learn and communicate with each other.”

The chief also thought that this was a good idea and turned around to ask.

“Commissar Long, what do you think?”

Commissar Long nodded.

“Alright!”

‘ Don’t praise victory, don’t blame failure.”

” Find the gap, find the inadequacies, and find the reasons. Make it the primary task of the 808th and 909th brigades!”

At this moment, Wang Zhigang and the others still did not know the attitude and decision of the Bureau Chiefs.

He was in the mountain forest of the army, in a place with beautiful scenery.

He asked the young reporter to take a handsome photo of him.

After the shoot, the two sat on the ground and started chatting.

‘ Brigade Commander Wu Tian’s performance or thoughts are not convincing. The Red Army he commanded previously was almost unable to withstand a single blow from the Blue Army!’”

But you are different. You fought against this blue army until the last second. Even though you lost, you still felt honored.”

Wang Zhigang shook his head.

I don’t think that the Red Army has failed. We attacked Hill 535 within the stipulated time. We have clearly met the requirements of the Red Army for this exercise.”

However, the production team believes that the Red Army will eventually occupy the 535 defense line, so they ruled that you did not win.”

Wang Zhigang smiled and said nonchalantly.

” That’s the problem with the unclear rules. But the Red Army that I led has done its best.”

“Indeed, this is something that everyone has witnessed.”

‘ But there are also people who say that the 909th Brigade is fighting against half of the Mountain Leopard Brigade.’”

“It’s like playing chess. The other party is giving you a car or a cannon.”

“What do you think of this matter?”

Wang Zhigang shook his head helplessly. He stood up and said as he walked.

“Little reporter, I can tell you clearly.” “Before this, I’ve never heard of the name Qin Yuan in the Blue Army.”

The young reporter also sighed.

“That’s right! Asymmetrical information is also unfair.”

“Let’s not talk about victory or defeat for the time being. I’d like to hear your feelings and opinions as someone who has experienced it personally.”

After saying that, he took out a recording pen and placed it in front of Wang Zhigang.

Wang Zhigang smiled and said seriously.

“I don’t think this kind of professional blue team setting is worth promoting!” ‘ Because he has surpassed the rules of competition in many aspects.’”

“If we play football, we are allowed to run with the ball.” “Then can we still watch the competition? Is there a need to look?”

This analogy made the young reporter laugh.

“This metaphor is very vivid!”

“Be it as an imaginary enemy or a simulated foreign army.”

” The appearance of the Mountain Leopard Brigade as an experimental army can be used to explore the reform of training methods.”

“But it has to be in line with the national situation and military intelligence.” The young reporter was puzzled.

“Then do you think that the appearance of the Mountain Leopard Brigade is not in line with the national situation and military intelligence?”

Wang Zhigang did not say it directly.

” We can’t abandon our glorious tradition.”

” We need to educate and guide the problems during training.”

“The change in training reform cannot be changed by relying on a so-called professional blue army to engage in sneak attacks and deception tricks.”

The young reporter nodded.

“That makes sense!”

“Actually, I have the same feeling as you.”

At this point, Wang Zhigang looked at the sky, then hurriedly put on his hat and tidied up his clothes. “Excuse me for a moment!”

“Alright.”

Then, he left.

It turned out that he saw a few military vehicles driving over on the road.

He quickly ran to the roadside and waited.

He brought the car to a stop in front of him.

Wang Zhigang hurriedly saluted.

The person who got out of the car was the chief.

“Chief!”

” The commander of the 909th Brigade, Zhigang, is here to wait for the drill’s commentary! ”

“Please instruct me!”

Bureau Chief Xing returned his bow.

“Comrade Wang Zhigang, I won’t be commenting on this exercise.” “Bring them back to the various units and summarize them yourself.”

Chief Xing was just passing on the decision he had made in the director’s department.

‘ Especially you. When you go back, you must think carefully about the problems exposed in this exercise!’

“Just where did I lose!”

Wang Zhigang was puzzled.

“Bureau Chief, do you also think that we have been defeated?”

“What do you think?”

“Do you think you won this exercise?”

“1...”

” The Red Army you commanded performed better than Wutian.”

“But the problem is the same.”

“It’s not that you can’t admit defeat, but you have to think about the problem, right?”

“Think about how to win in the future.”

After saying that, he turned around and got into the car.

Wang Zhigang still had something to say, but he swallowed the words that were on the tip of his tongue.

He saluted and looked straight at the chief’s convoy slowly leaving. Otherwise, he would have fallen into deep thought.

At this time, the Blue Army team had already returned to the army and was eating lunch in the canteen.

Qin Yuan had just sat down to eat when Geng Xiaohu said.

‘ Last night’s suggestion was very effective. It successfully destroyed the Red Army’s artillery formation.’

“Brigadier General’s decision is wise!”

Qin Yuan scolded with a smile.

“I’m here to listen to your opinions, not to listen to your flattery.”

“Tell me your opinions!”

Lin Xiaoxiao spoke first.

‘ Brigade Commander, I don’t think you should change the order to attack the leader of the Red Army.’”

Geng Xiaohu took the opportunity to chime in.

‘ Yes, there is only one chance on the battlefield. Decisiveness is the basic quality of an excellent commander.’”

“And you, there’s something fishy going on.”

Hearing their words, Qin Yuan smiled awkwardly.

“I admit that, but the one who decided to show mercy was your Captain Long.”

After saying that, he turned to Long Xiaoyun and directed all his firepower at her.

The rest of the people were puzzled.

“Why?”

Long Xiaoyun rolled her eyes at Qin Yuan and explained.

“We are the Blue Army, not the enemy.”

” The purpose of the exercise is not just to win, but to discover problems.”

However, Lin Xiaoxiao still felt a little apologetic.

“Humph! I don’t think that Wang Zhigang will appreciate it either!”

Qin Yuan hurriedly came out to cover up.

” That’s not important. As long as we achieve a win-win situation, this exercise will not be in vain.”

Seeing that Qin Yuan was talking about a win-win situation, Geng Xiaohu did not think so.

“That’s not right, right?”

“It should be about the two consecutive defeats of the Red Army, right?”

Chapter 673 - 673: The Drill Is Over (Two s Combined)

Long Xiaoyun explained.

“The win-win situation that our brigade commander mentioned is not a win.”

Instead, we need to gain experience and learn from them. We need to gain new ideas. We need to see our shortcomings and gaps. We need to discover the problems in training. From there, we can find the direction to improve our combat effectiveness.

The two of them nodded and Lin Xiaoxiao said.

“But isn’t this too idealistic?” “I still think it’s a little wishful thinking.”

Geng Xiaohu thought so too.

“I dare say that neither Wu Tian nor Wang Zhigang will be convinced.”

Qin Yuan snorted.

“It’s right that you’re not convinced!”

“Are we soldiers?”

“Then we should have the courage to not admit defeat!” “If the two of them admit defeat because of this battle.”

“I really look down on them!”

Long Xiaoyun asked him with a smile.

“What happened to you?”

The two of them looked at each other and smiled.

“Let’s eat!”

Wu Tian, who was sitting in his office, was reading the news in today’s newspaper.

” The Blue Army has shown its might. The specialized Blue Army in the theater of operations has won the first battle!”

The words on the newspaper were particularly eye-catching.

“The Mountain Leopard Brigade, which has just been established half a year ago, is the first specialized blue army in our theater of operations.”

In the combat exercise that just ended, she defeated the 808th Brigade of the Army, known as the North China Tiger, and the 909th Brigade, known as the South China Tiger, in a row.”

Seeing this, Wu Tian could not help but tighten his grip on the newspaper.

When he read further, he stood up in anger and slammed the newspaper on the table.

The political commissar who walked in happened to see this scene and hurriedly walked over to ask.

“You read the newspaper?”

Wu Tian was so angry that his fingers were trembling as he pointed at the newspaper.

“What exactly is Qin Yuan doing?” “Don’t let me meet him again!” the political commissar advised.

It’s good that you’ve read the newspaper. The Chief of Staff will be back soon. Calm down and calm down.”

“Let’s discuss the exercise summary first!”

Wu Tian was not in the mood to summarize the drill!

His lungs were about to explode from anger! “You just need to summarize everything, okay?”

“Are you alright?”

“Do you think I can get away with this?”

“But I really don’t know. What’s there to summarize?”

After saying that, she turned her head away and ignored him.

The political commissar saw that he was very emotional now and continued to persuade him.

“To be honest, when I saw this report, I felt the same as you. I didn’t feel good either.”

“I’ll smash the newspaper too.” “But can throwing newspapers solve the problem?”

“It can’t be done at all!”

Wu Tian turned around.

“Are you here to criticize me?”

“I’m criticizing myself. Can’t you tell?”

Wu Tian was a little puzzled.

“Then can you still watch?”

“Let me tell you, I want to curse at the beginning!”

After saying that, he sat back down in his chair angrily and crossed his legs.

“That’s where you’re wrong. You haven’t even finished reading the newspaper.

How can you scold people?”

“Then what do you think?”

The political commissar thought for a moment and said seriously.

“I think this report is more realistic.”

Wu Tian saw the opportunity and saw the confident look on his face. He took the opportunity to speak.

“Perfect!”

“Since you already have your thoughts, you can summarize them!”

The political commissar frowned and retorted.

“I can see that as long as you win a battle, you’re more proactive than anyone else!”

Wu Tian chuckled.

“Don’t you think that the more dumplings you drink, the more wine you get?”

The political commissar was helpless.

“Brigadier! In terms of age, you’re still my big brother!”

“We’ve been partners for almost three years, right?”

‘ From the first day I joined the 808th Brigade, you were like the old squad leader, teaching me the experience of leading troops in battle, the art of command, and the methods of organization and management.

I’ve learned a lot from you, and I’ve truly experienced the glorious history and fine traditions of the 808th Brigade.”

Wu Tian saw that he was starting to show affection and put on a show of suffering.

He hurriedly waved his hand to interrupt and began to bluff. “Old He, there’s no use beating around the bush with me.” “I still don’t understand, but we have to summarize this time.”

“Otherwise, I won’t be able to explain myself to the chief.”

“What do you think? Since you’ve already thought it through, let’s summarize it according to your meaning.”

“You represent me. Your conclusion is my conclusion.” “How about this? After you finish writing, I’ll sign it, okay?” “Brigade Commander, what if we win this time?” Hearing this, Wu Tian’s angry expression disappeared.

“Then this conclusion is easy to make!”

Then, he began his endless speech.

” Training management, command, tactical techniques, logistics support, high-tech means, information network, political thinking...”

“There’s something to write about whichever piece we catch!”

After he finished speaking, he looked at Political Commissar He in high spirits, as if he had won this battle.

Political Commissar He said helplessly. “But we lost this time.”

Wu Tian seemed to have found inspiration.

“I’ve lost...”

“You’ll be able to find a lot of problems with any of them, right?”

Political Commissar He saw him start to shift the blame and began to mock him.

“That’s right, that’s what we’re talking about..”

Chapter 674 - 674: The Drill Is Over (2)

“We used to be like this.”

“With results, it’s like a basket full of flowers. Even the smallest thing looks brilliant when inserted.”

“And what if something goes wrong? It’s like a trash can. Any piece of it stinks!”

Wu Tian smiled and patted him on the shoulder. “No wonder you can be my political commissar.”
Political Commissar He continued.

“But I don’t think we can do this again.” “Political commissar, what do you think we should do?”

Political Commissar He thought for a while.

Let’s not talk about results or failures this time. We have to solve the problem of perception first!”

“Political commissar, your words are interesting.”

” You said that I was the chief of staff of the division for three years. After the division was changed to a brigade, I was the brigade commander of the 808th Brigade for three years.”

“Why is there suddenly a problem with your mindset? Where should I start?”

Political Commissar He saw that he was still stubborn.

“We are indeed facing a problem of changing our mindset.”

Wu Tian picked up the newspaper and asked when he saw how serious he was.

“Is this what it says? “It’s just a little bit. It’s more of my thoughts.” Wu Tian sighed.

“Alright then, I’ll take a good look at this report.”

Seeing him compromise, the corners of Political Commissar He’s mouth curled up.

“But it’s not just bad news recently.”

Wu Tian, who was reading the newspaper, thought that he was joking.

“Don’t tease me. What good news can there be recently?”

Political commissar He said mysteriously. “Your order has already been passed down to the entire army.”

Hearing this news, Wu Tian stood up in surprise.

“Really?”

“Who told you that?”

“The director of the political work department just called me.”

“He said that you will be transferred to the army as the deputy chief of staff.”

“The six years of being an assistant teacher is finally coming to an end! I wish you progress in advance!”

As he spoke, Political Commissar He cupped his fists and congratulated him.

Wu Tian’s eyes had already turned into slits as he placed his hand on his shoulder.

“How about this? Come to my house tonight, we brothers...”

Before he could finish his sentence, Chief of Staff He thought that he was going to drag him out for a drink again, so he quickly refused. “Brigadier general, I’ll be leaving first!”

“You have to take a good look at this newspaper!”

At that moment, Wu Tian was in a good mood and quickly agreed.

“Political commissar, don’t worry!”

“I won’t even let go of the punctuations!”

The two of them smiled knowingly and Political Commissar He left.

At this moment, Wang Zhigang was wearing casual clothes and sitting by the beach fishing!

Staff Officer Yang walked over.

“Brigadier general, how’s the harvest?”

Wang Zhigang put on his sunglasses, and no one could see his expression.

“So far, none of them have taken the bait.” Staff Officer Yang didn’t believe it.

“That’s impossible, right?”

Wang Zhigang didn’t say anything. He gestured for him to look at the bucket and net under his feet.

Staff Officer Yang took a look and found nothing.

At this moment, Wang Zhigang put away his fishing rod.

Staff Officer Yang asked when he saw that there was nothing on the hook.

“Brigade Commander, did you forget to pack the fish food?”

Wang Zhigang said calmly.

“It’s not that I forgot. I just don’t need it.”

Staff Officer Yang was even more confused.

“Brigadier general, you’ve been fishing here all morning. If you don’t pack fish food, how can you catch fish?”

“That depends on what kind of fish you want to catch.” “Then what kind of fish do you want to catch?” “It can’t be that Jiang Taigong who took the bait, right?”

Wang Zhigang sneered.

“There’s no such thing as a willing party taking the bait in this world!”

Only the wisdom of a fisherman.”

“Have you gathered all the materials I asked you to gather?”

“It’s almost done.”

Staff Officer Yang said and handed him a blue folder.

Wang Zhigang took it and opened it. It was Qin Yuan’s military identity information.

Wang Zhigang asked.

“Has his phone number changed?”

I’ve changed two numbers, but this number hasn’t been changed.”

“Alright, get me all the information about Qin Yuan, even if it’s just a corner.” Staff Officer Yang nodded.

“I heard that Qin Yuan knows how to play the piano, but no one knows how well he did.’

“We have to get this too.”

Staff officer Yang asked when he saw that Wang Zhigang was still so concerned about Qin Yuan after the drill.

“Brigade Commander, the fish you said is willing to take the bait is Qin Yuan, right?”

Wang Zhigang did not answer him. “Bring me the fish food.”

Advisor Yang could only smile awkwardly.

At this moment, Zhang Xiaoyu’s voice came from behind them.

The two of them immediately turned around. Wang Zhigang put down the fishing rod in his hand and walked toward him.

Zhang Xiaoyu looked at the reef in the sea and praised.

“This is really a good place to fish!”

“Political commissar, today is unlucky. We haven’t caught a single fish yet.” Zhang Xiaoyu joked.

“It can’t be, right? Even a fishing expert like you will return empty-handed.”

Wang Zhigang was a little puzzled.

“What are you doing here?”

Zhang Xiaoyu said.

” The commander of the army in the theater called and asked if we have finished the exercise summary.” Wang Zhigang didn’t seem to care. “Just tell them to do it.”

Zhang Xiaoyu said with a smile.

“If you didn’t do it, then you didn’t do it. How could you lie about the military situation?”

Wang Zhigang told him mysteriously.

‘ I guessed it. Chief doesn’t want a conclusion, but an attitude!’

“Right?”

Zhang Xiaoyu nodded.

“We definitely have to have an attitude, but we have to do a good job in concluding it. We definitely can’t go through the motions!”

Wang Zhigang saw that he was still unwilling to let go, so he had to compromise.

“Alright!”

” Then let’s have a meeting tonight. Let’s discuss it with the regiment commanders first.”

“Let’s summarize. You host and I’ll summarize. Isn’t that simple?”

Zhang Xiaoyu continued to explain when he saw that he was still speaking so casually.

“Old Wang! We lost the battle this time, and many problems have been exposed.”

Wang Zhigang was a little surprised.

“Problem? I’ve been thinking about it.”

Before I came back from the Wolf’s Tooth Mountain, the commander specifically talked to me.”

Zhang Xiaoyu didn’t believe it.

“Oh? Is that go?”

Wang Zhigang nodded.

“His performance towards us is still certain.” “They think we are different from the 808th Brigade.”

Zhang Xiaoyu looked at him suspiciously.

“But I heard that the Bureau Chief thinks that although we persevered to the end and fought very tenaciously,”

But the problem that was exposed is the same as the 808th Brigade.” “That’s right. The Bureau Chief also said that to me personally.” ” The 808th Brigade underestimated the enemy, and our 909th Brigade underestimated the enemy as well.”

“By the way, Qin Yuan is coming to our brigade in a few days.”

Wang Zhigang sneered when he heard the news.

“Good! Good!”

“You must treat him well!”

At that moment, Wu Tian was shooting at a target on the training range to vent his anger.

Political Commissar He walked over and handed him a report. “This is the summary outline I wrote. Take a look.”

Wu Tian casually flipped through it and was about to sign it.

Political Commissar He quickly stopped him. “You didn’t even look at it and you’re going to sign it?” “Do you know what I wrote? Take a look first!” Wutian asked awkwardly, as if he had a favor to ask.

“Good, good, good!”

“I’ll take a look now!”

As he spoke, he sat down and started reading seriously.

Not long after, he said with some doubt.

“Political commissar? This can’t be right, right?”

“What do you mean by my brigade commander’s thinking is at least thirty years behind?”

Political Commissar He smiled and said nothing.

At this moment, the higher-ups of the Mountain Leopard Brigade were also reporting to Staff Officer Shen.

Chief of Staff Shen said in a deep voice after reading the report.

I’ve already read your summary report. There are two areas where it’s lacking.”

Firstly, under the conditions of information technology, the mission of the professional Blue Army was not considered thoroughly.”

His eyes were only focused on the combat troops, but he didn’t go deep into the other levels of the army in the theater of operations.

“You have to know that the enemy will not only target our combat troops.”

‘ Second, the specialized blue army must be upgraded quickly and comprehensively! ”

” We can’t just rely on psychological tactics to deal with the opponent. We must form a strong fighting force!”

“Since I’ve already let you out of the mountain, it’s impossible for you to just go through the motions.”

“It’s to truly play the role of a whetstone!”

Chapter 675 - 675: Alarm Bell Ringing!

Long Xiaoyun took a deep breath.

” The failure of the 808th and 909th regiments is enough to explain the problem.”

“It’s not that their strength is inferior to the Mountain Leopard Brigade, but my mindset is too old-fashioned.”

“What’s wrong? Don’t you feel pain after being beaten by us this time?”

Staff Officer Shen smiled.

“It’s not that simple.”

“Take a football match for example.” “Our team won’t wake up just because we lost one or two games.” “We have to figure out where we lost.”

‘ Maybe they think they’ve tried their best, but they’re just unlucky.”

” They think that there will be a chance next time. As long as their luck isn’t too bad, they will not disappoint the people.”

As he spoke, he leaned back in his chair and continued to analyze.

“Wu Tian and Wang Zhigang are the same.”

” A change in mindset won’t happen overnight. “There are a lot of deep-seated problems.” Long Xiaoyun asked. “What’s the deeper problem you’re talking about?”

Staff Officer Shen sighed.

“We have been peaceful for a long time now. Some people in the army have developed a phenomenon of internal competition for honor and external competition for face.”

” The appearance of the Mountain Leopard Brigade has undoubtedly sounded the alarm.’

“But this is far from enough!”

“I’m not sure how many people I can wake up.”

“Maybe someone woke up, maybe someone went back to sleep.”

Qin Yuan echoed.

“There’s definitely no one who’s sleeping, but there should still be some who don’t understand.”

“What I mean is, we won’t be focusing on the commentary for this exercise.” “Bring them back to the various units and summarize them yourself.”

“No commendation for victory, no blame for defeat.”

“Find the reason, find the deficiency, and find the gap.”

“There is only one standard, and that is to be close to actual combat, close to actual combat, and then close to actual combat.”

‘ Your Mountain Leopard Regiment will be responsible for making two detailed battle analysis reports on the two previous battles.’

From the perspective of the declaration rate, describe in detail the entire process of confronting the two Red Army troops.”

Zheng Xiaohu was puzzled. “Let us conclude?”

Staff Officer Shen nodded.

” The problems I’m talking about include your own problems.”

” There must be ideas, strategies, tactics, tactics, and lessons learned from the success or failure of the exercise.”

Staff Officer Shen explained in detail and summarized the contents that had to be included.

Qin Yuan nodded.

” We understand. We will carry out the chief’s instructions.”

“I would like to have your Mountain Leopard Brigade leader personally make a trip to the 808th and 909th regiments.”

“Take the initiative to tell them about your Blue Army. This will help you communicate with each other.”

Zheng Xiaohu scratched his head and smiled awkwardly.

“I can explain, but I’m just afraid that they won’t accept it!”

The Chief of Staff smiled.

“Don’t worry, I believe that won’t happen.”

Go to the 808th and 909th Brigades and tell them your battle plan.”

“Let them know what the Blues think and how they play when they face the Reds.”

“It’s best if we can sit together and communicate.”

” The army in the war zone has already informed them. You just need to come here after you’re done.”

Long Xiaoyun's expression was a little awkward.

"This..."

"What other concerns do you have?"

"The 808th and 909th brigades were defeated by us." "If we take the initiative to look for them, wouldn't it be too ostentatious?"

Chief of Staff Shen took the opportunity to criticize.

"If you have such thoughts, then it's not right."

"Why did the army in the theater of operations set up your division, the Professional and Blue Army?"

"It's to use your attacks to pick open the pustule of peace."

"We must let the soldiers in the army know that the war will break out today!"

"The slogan of the army in our theater of operations is to be loyal to the people and the country, and to be ready to go to the battlefield at any time!"

"But are the troops really ready?"

"Can you win just by pulling him out to fight with others?"

"Obviously not!"

Otherwise, why would the 808th and 909th regiments be defeated so badly?"

"Would it be so vulnerable?"

The more he spoke, the more excited Chief Shen became.

"This is not a matter of face, nor is it simply a matter of victory or defeat."

"It's a matter of absolute loyalty to this country!" Seeing how serious Staff Officer Shen was, they all nodded. "Alright, you guys can go back first!"

"Remember what I said. You must do a good job in this summary."

"Yes, sir!"

It seemed that the officers of the Mountain Leopard Brigade still had a superficial understanding of this drill.

The mission and mission of the professional blue army were not very clear.

Although many people agreed that the current Blue Army was a whetstone.

However, how to sharpen the knife, how to sharpen it well, and how to sharpen it quickly was a problem that needed serious consideration.

At this moment, Wu Tian had just finished his training, and his face was full of smiles.

The political commissar who was standing at the side said with a smile.

“It seems that people are in high spirits when they have good news!”

Wu Tian was a little puzzled.

“Where does the joy come from?”

“What’s wrong? No one in the group gave you any good news?”

“Good news? No!”

“Really?”

“Absolutely not!”

“Then let me tell you something.”

“Tell me.”

“I heard that the military has already vacated the office of the newly appointed deputy chief of staff..”

Chapter 676 - 676: Alarm Bell Ringing!

“Really?”

“Yeah!”

Hearing his confirmation, Wu Tian immediately became happy.

“Why didn’t you tell anyone in the brigade?”

“I knew it. Before dawn this morning, there was a magpie chirping outside my window.”

“So it’s about this!”

Seeing him so happy, the political commissar could not help but tease him.

“I was thinking! Our brigade commander Wu Tian, who has been running around in silence for more than ten days, is actually shouting slogans!” Wu Tian suddenly turned his head and said in a negotiating tone.

“I suddenly remembered something. The summary you wrote last time was a little too much. Can you change it?”

“Don’t write thirty years behind. Just say two or three years behind.” “I wasn’t promoted thirty years ago! This is too embarrassing!”

“Besides, I graduated from the National Defense University! Isn’t that right?” “You said that you made us look like uncultured boors! What do you think?”

The political commissar saw that he was still thinking about this and explained with a smile.

“When I said lagging behind, I didn’t mean falling behind.”

Lagging behind is a relative lag, lagging behind is absolutely lagging behind!”

“If you can’t sense the lag, you can’t see the gap.”

This was like a tongue twister, almost making Wu Tian faint.

Thinking back, the political commissar asked. “Didn’t you say that I was the one in charge of the summary?”

“You wrote what I wrote. You said it yourself!” “Aren’t you shooting yourself in the foot by doing this?”

Wu Tian hurriedly waved his hand.

“This principle will never change!”

He thought for a moment and took a step back.

HOW about this ( Let’s each take a step back and give a 50% discount. HOW about we write it fifteen years later?”

“If the Bureau Chief doesn’t pass, I’ll add another two years. I’ll write it for seventeen years, right?”

“Alright, it’s settled then!”

Before the political commissar could express his opinion, Wu Tian patted him on the shoulder and gave him a look that he understood.

The political commissar was helpless.

“How can you summarize things like this?”

“You’re making it look like a street stall. You really are!” “Alright, alright, let’s go eat!”

As he spoke, he pulled the political commissar to the canteen.

At this moment, Wang Zhigang was in his office in the brigade headquarters, having a regular meeting.

Wang Zhigang sat in the main speaker’s seat and summarized.

“Everyone’s suggestions just now were very good, really good!”

“I’ve also done a deep introspection.”

For the 909th Brigade, this is a violent earthquake and a storm!

“This made me sober up a lot.”

As he spoke, he looked at Hong Yi and Commander Zhu.

Commander Zhu and Commander Hong think that we have underestimated the Blue Army, especially since they don't have a strong sense of the modern battlefield."

"Not bad! It was indeed a mistake to be careless."

He took a deep breath.

"It's my responsibility."

However, we can't make ourselves disheveled and our troops listless and dejected just because of a failure in the drill field, can we?

"Therefore, what should we do when the army is facing setbacks and difficulties?"

"I think we must not lose our fighting spirit!

Once we lose our morale, we will lose even more miserably in the next battle! ! "

So, I think that for the 909th Brigade, we have to split the results 30 – 70."

Hong Yi could not help but ask. "Brigadier general, what do you mean by 30 – 70?"

Less than three. Seven!"

Commander Zhu echoed.

"What the brigade commander means is that as long as we can catch up with this, we might be able to usher in the next victory!" Hong Yi didn't agree with him and rolled his eyes at him.

Wang Zhigang could not help but say.

"What do you mean by possible?"

"Definitely! "

"Of course, this is only theoretically possible."

"But it's not that easy. We need to actively promote it and do in-depth work."

"Consolidating the confidence to defeat the opponent!"

"Actually, from the chief to the grassroots, everyone can see it."

Our 909th Brigade is only one step away from victory in this exercise!"

It's not easy for us to achieve such a result under the conditions that we don't have the right time, place, and people!"

"Shouldn't we build up our self-confidence?"

"Therefore, we must first confirm the results!"

Hong Yi, who had been impatient for a long time, said. "I don't think so. I think we should do the opposite." "Three points, seven points is not enough."

His tone was a little harsh.

Wang Zhigang was about to comfort him when Commander Zhu spoke first. "Captain Hong, our artillery regiment has won a few battles along the way!"

"We've lost the Blue Army after a detour of more than 150 kilometers. We're only missing An Qidu to intercept them at Tongling Mountain!"

"Another battle at Anqi Crossing, destroying a self-propelled artillery company of the Mountain Leopard Brigade and destroying their mechanical infantry unit."

"Our artillery regiment gave it our all. We did our best."

"To be honest, if I deny these results, I won't have the face to face the soldiers of the Cannon Regiment in the future."

Hong Yi was already filled with dissatisfaction towards Commander Zhu's cannon regiment. At this moment, he exploded.

He said loudly.

"But your artillery regiment was delayed for three days at An Qi Crossing!" "Because of the delay of these three days, the final attack has fallen into chaos!"

Commander Zhu was not convinced. He stood up and retorted.

"Captain Hong, you can't say that, right?" Hong Yi had already lost his mind.

"Then what do you want me to say!"

"Your special forces flew to the Wolf Fang Mountain in a civilian plane and stayed there comfortably for five to six days, waiting for your fatigue."

"And what about us?"

In the end, they were stranded 50 kilometers away. Can you blame us?"

"We received a false order. Our artillery regiment is the first victim!"

"That's why we have to summarize the problems in this area! It's not a seven point score or a three point score!"

At the same time, Hong Yi was puzzled.

"Why did you receive a fake order from the Blue Army?"

How did the Blue Army control our communication network for five to six days?"

"How did the right to control information fall into the hands of others?" "If we don't summarize and study these problems, how can we win this battle?" the vice commander said.

"But we can't deny that our equipment is not as advanced as theirs, right?"

“Moreover, in order to win, Qin Yuan can do whatever it takes. He doesn’t care about reason, rules, or discipline!” “With the Bureau Chief’s favoritism, can this still be called a drill?”

Zhang Xiaoyu disagreed with him.

When he was captured by the Blue Army, Long Xiaoyun had already explained it to him, so he naturally felt relieved.

“Isn’t that wrong?”

“Modern warfare should be fought according to the rules of modern warfare.” How can the enemy talk about morality and rules before you start a war?”

“If he’s one foot higher, then you’re ten feet higher.”

“The Bureau Chief will definitely praise you!”

But after all, we have successfully attacked the 535 defense line. Isn’t that an indisputable fact?”

Hong Yi could not help but snort.

“Don’t mention this!”

“Yes, there was a mistake in the command of the Blue Army.” “When we attacked the mountain from the east and west.”

” All of our actions are under the surveillance of their miniature cameras! ”

Zhang Xiaoyu saw that he was still so angry and could not help but persuade him.

” Captain Hong, we’re clear about what you’ve said. Let’s not talk about it anymore.”

Of course, I’ll learn my lesson. I just feel that any complaints and inferiority complex are not desirable!”

He agreed with Wang Zhigang.

“The brigade commander is right. Our next step is to boost the morale of the entire brigade and strengthen the construction of information confrontation capabilities.”

Put more energy into the research and training of information warfare!

Wang Zhigang nodded.

‘ Finally, I have a suggestion.”

“If we encounter the Mountain Leopard Brigade in the future, our 909th Brigade will not show mercy!”

“And whoever catches Qin Yuan alive, I’ll give him first-class merit!” The chief of staff said.

” This time, the entire brigade’s thinking is clear.. The goal is to defeat the Mountain Leopard Brigade and carry out a large-scale training!”

Chapter 677 - 677: Qin Yuan and Wang Zhigang’s Second Meeting

“Report! ”

“Come in!”

“Reporting to brigade commander and political commissar! Qin Yuan is here!”

Wang Zhigang was a little surprised.

“What is it? Qin Yuan?”

“Yes, the brigade commander of the Mountain Leopard Brigade, Qin Yuan, and their captain, Long Xiaoyun, brought a tactical summary of the drill.” But before that, the army in the war zone also came to inform us.” “I didn’t expect him to really come this time.”

“Qin Yuan said that he wants to meet the brigade commander and political commissar. I’ve already arranged for them to go to the reception room.”

Wang Zhigang stood up.

“Good! You came at the right time!”

High standard, high grade, passionate!”

“But you have to be careful not to be servile or overbearing!”

“Yes, sir!”

Zhang Xiaoyu suggested.

“Brigadier General, how about this?”

Let the Chief of Staff, Captain Hong, and Commander Zhu participate.”

“Let’s take this opportunity to have a good exchange.”

Wang Zhigang smiled.

“Of course!”

” The Mountain Leopard Brigade has come to our 909th Brigade. This is a historic handshake and a strategic meeting. It’s of great significance!”

“We have to exchange techniques and tactics, but we can’t delay our relationship!”

In the reception room, Qin Yuan handed the summary report of the exercise to Wang Zhigang.

Wang Zhigang carefully flipped through it for a while and said.

Brigade Commander Qin, Commander Long, you sent me a goose feather from a thousand miles away. It's a small gift, but it's a big deal. Thank you very much!"

Qin Yuan smiled and said.

"Brigade Commander Wang, we are very grateful for your hospitality, but we are also very surprised."

"I originally thought..."

Before he could finish, Wang Zhigang teased.

"Do you think we don't even care about a bowl of rice or a cup of tea?" These words made Qin Yuan and Long Xiaoyun smile awkwardly.

Wang Zhigang continued.

"Actually, we've been looking forward to your arrival for a long time!"

' Just now, we were having a summary meeting and had a deep analysis of our problems.

' I suggest that the results of the 909th Brigade should be split 70 – 70."

"Can you guess how these three and seven are opened?"

Long Xiaoyun had experienced this drill and fully understood Wang Zhigang's character and nature.

"I think it should be 70% results and 30% problems, right?"

Wang Zhigang slapped his thigh and praised her.

" Captain Long is indeed the wonderful bag of Brigade Commander Qin. You guessed it right!"

" I thought so too at the beginning, but we all know each other."

As he spoke, he turned his head towards Hong Yi.

Our Senior Captain Hong believes that the situation should be reversed. 30% of the results and 70% of the problems."

Long Xiaoyun was a bit surprised to see that they attached so much importance to the problems in the drill.

Brigade Commander Wang, you're too humble. It's not that serious, right?" Wang Zhigang said with certainty.

"Of course! Of course, we have to be very strict when we look for our own problems!"

But whether it's positive or negative, this exercise is worth a serious summary!

"Like I said, gifts are light but affection is heavy!"

Long Xiaoyun said humbly.

Brigade Commander Wang, we really aren't here to give you any gifts."

"The Bureau Chief asked us to give you the train of thought, tactics, and analysis of the tactics we used to fight you."

"I hope you can understand more about the Blue Army's plan and command process so that we can communicate further in the future."

Wang Zhigang held the post-war summary that was as thick as a book in his hand and praised.

"That's great!"

"You guys have sorted out such a thick pile so quickly, and our summary is just a verbal statement. It really makes us sigh!"

"We must study hard!"

Then, he turned to look at Zhang Xiaoyu.

"Political commissar, look at them. They've already sorted out such a thick pile of materials in just one drill!"

"Compared to your set of materials, I'm afraid we're not splitting it 30 - 70."

"I think it should be 20 - 80% or 10 - 90%!"

This made Long Xiaoyun a little embarrassed.

"I think we should learn from Brigadier Qin Yuan."

"Otherwise, Brigadier Qin Yuan will definitely capture us as captives next time!"

Qin Yuan said politely when he saw how ridiculous he was.

"No, no, we're just learning from each other."

"Qin Yuan, I will definitely read this information of yours seriously when I go back and study hard!"

Seeing that he had given the order to leave, Qin Yuan and Long Xiaoyun did not want to stay any longer.

"Then, Brigade Commander Wang, we'll take our leave first."

"Alright, we'll send you two off."

After shaking hands and thanking them, he sent them out of the reception room.

Halfway there, Wang Zhigang threatened that he had something on and would not continue to send them off.

He instructed Zhang Xiaoyu and Commander Hong to send them off.

Wang Zhigang returned to his office and sat in his seat with a gloomy expression.

Compared to the warm reception just now, Qin Yuan and Long Xiaoyun's feelings were completely different.

The summary of the Mountain Leopard Brigade in his hand didn't show any signs of being opened. He directly put it into the drawer. At this moment, there was a knock on the door.

"Report!"

"Come in."

It was the Chief of Staff.

"Brigadier General, you're looking for me?"

Seeing the Chief of Staff walk in, Wang Zhigang's gloomy expression disappeared and he put on a smiling face.

Oh, the summary. The army in the theater of operations is quite strict."

"Can you find two advisors who are good at writing to sort out the speeches that were discussed in the past two days?"

Chapter 678 - 678: Qin Yuan and Wang Zhigang's Second Meeting

"The main thing is to correct your attitude and write down the measures for improvement."

The chief of staff nodded.

"Alright, I got it."

"Brigade Commander, why don't we take the materials sent by the Mountain Leopard Brigade as a reference? It might be more targeted."

"What do you think?"

At the mention of the Mountain Leopard Brigade, Wang Zhigang's expression immediately collapsed as he said in a serious manner.

"It's best if it's our own thing. We'll do it ourselves."

"The key to whether a material has a standard is whether there is an independent opinion."

"If we follow the Mountain Leopard Brigade, the Bureau Chief might not be happy."

The chief of staff smiled awkwardly.

"It can't be?"

"We're just making a reference. The problem shouldn't be that serious."

Seeing that he actually dared to argue with him, Wang Zhigang pretended to cough.

” Cough cough, I believe that their materials must have been sent to the Bureau Chief.’

“If the problems we find or our views on certain problems are the same as theirs, there will be some similarities.”

“I think the Bureau Chief will think that we lack thinking and independent opinions when we do things. What do you think?”

He raised his head and smiled at the Chief of Staff.

In the eyes of the chief of staff, his smile was so scary.

He quickly replied.

“Brigadier is right!”

Seeing that he was no longer bickering, Wang Zhigang stood up and invited him to sit on the sofa. He even made him a cup of tea.

The chief of staff was overwhelmed by the unexpected favor and did not know what to do for a moment. He stood there in a daze.

Wang Zhigang saw that he was still standing there and patted the seat beside him.

“Don’t just stand there.”

“Come, let’s sit down and talk.”

The Chief of Staff walked to his side as if he was sitting on pins and needles. Wang Zhigang patted his shoulder and said in a friendly manner. “You and Hong Yi can be considered old comrades, right?”

The chief of staff did not expect him to ask this question so suddenly. He nodded in confusion.

Wang Zhigang continued.

“Why do you think this Captain Hong is always at odds with me?” So it was this matter!

The chief of staff thought that he was looking for trouble.

He replied with a smile.

“Brigadier General, don’t mind it.”

“Captain Hong has such a bad temper.”

“It’s been so many years. It’s not like you don’t know.”

“He’s definitely not here for you. He’s here for work and training. I can guarantee that!”

Wang Zhigang nodded.

“I also believe that Old Hong is not here for me.”

“Moreover, I’ve already mentioned it to the commander at least twice to promote Hong Yi. He’s an outstanding military talent!”

“But he...Sigh! How should I put it?”

The chief of staff saw that he was in a difficult position and said. “Brigadier General, if you have anything to say, please say it directly!” “If there’s anything I can help you with, I’ll definitely do it!”

Wang Zhigang was someone who often survived on the battlefield. It was easy for him to grasp the psychology of others.

He had been waiting for the Chief of Staff to say this.

“Why don’t you find a chance to talk to him and see what he thinks?”

He took the opportunity to complain.

“I’m the brigade commander, he’s the captain.”

“I believe that you can see it every time we have a meeting. It’s not that he’s afraid of me, but I’m afraid of him!” “I’m not lying to you! I’m really afraid of him!”

“He keeps choking me!”

“I’m the captain of a brigade after all. If I keep being scared by the captain like this, it won’t be easy for me to carry out my work!”

“Moreover, the brigade commander’s battle deployment must have been carefully thought out, right? It’s not an order that can be given so easily, right?”

The chief of staff laughed when he saw how miserable he was. “Where did you say it went?”

“However, isn’t it a little inappropriate for me to talk to Hong Yi?”

Wang Zhigang saw that he wanted to refuse and hurriedly said with a smile. “Amongst all the brigade leaders, you’re the closest to him, right?”

The chief of staff saw that he had already said this. If he continued to refuse, it would be a slap to his face. He could only say,

“Alright then, leave this matter to me.”

“Brigade Commander, if there’s nothing else, I’ll be leaving first.” Seeing that he had agreed, Wang Zhigang did not have anything to give him.

“Alright, then you can go and do your work first!”

“Yes, sir!”

After the chief of staff finished speaking, he was about to leave. Just as he was about to leave, Wang Zhigang reminded him again.

“Remember to find some time to talk to him!”

Hearing this, the chief of staff almost fell down.

Qin Yuan, Long Xiaoyun, and the others walked out of the gate of the 909th Brigade. Just as they were about to get into the car, Long Xiaoyun suddenly stopped.

Qin Yuan felt a little regretful. “What’s wrong?”

“Did you leave something inside?”

Long Xiaoyun didn’t answer. He turned around and asked Captain Hong who was behind him.

“Political Commissar Zhang, I have a few questions that I would like to ask

Captain Hong. Do you think...”

“Alright!”

“Captain Hong, you should communicate with Captain Long.”

“I didn’t say anything when she tried to trick me. You have to communicate with her.”

“Yes, sir!”

Long Xiaoyun asked after getting permission.

“I want to know how the Red Army Special Forces that you led managed to sneak into our 535 defense line for so long without being discovered by us.”

Qin Yuan almost forgot about this and looked at Long Xiaoyun with admiration.

Captain Hong thought for a moment.

” We flew to Daybreak City eight days ago. We took a commercial flight and went there as construction workers.”

So, you’ve been hiding at the 535 defense line for seven days?”

“Yes.”

One squadron will enter first, and the other two will enter one after another.”

Long Xiaoyun nodded.

“We didn’t find anything at all.”

‘ And we’ve set up electronic surveillance in the forest, but there’s no sign at all!’

“How did you guys hide? I’m very interested!”

“It’s actually very simple.”

In order to prevent electromagnetic waves from leaking, I request all members of the special forces to turn off all wireless and wire communication devices after entering the ambush area.

“We only use the most primitive sign language and manual transmission to communicate.”

It was only before the general attack that the telephone was connected to the brigade command center.”

Only then did Long Xiaoyun and Qin Yuan come to a realization.

No wonder he could not find the special forces despite using all the methods he could.

Qin Yuan echoed from the side.

“All of you are places that our Mountain Leopard Brigade needs to learn from!”

“I’m sure that your survival skills are excellent. Otherwise, you wouldn’t have been able to hide for so long.”

Hong Yi admitted and nodded as he explained.

“I learned some things from the foreign special forces in the International Hunter Training Camp. It’s very helpful to us.”

‘ Captain Hong, I hope that one day, I will have the opportunity to exchange pointers with an elite captain like you!’

“There will definitely be!”

Qin Yuan looked at his watch and continued.

“I think it’s getting late. Captain Long and I still have something to do, so we’ll take our leave first.”

“Alright, take care. Have a safe trip!”

After saying that, Qin Yuan and Long Xiaoyun got into the car and left.

Long Xiaoyun couldn’t help but say after the car had driven for some distance.

” I didn’t expect there to be such an elite in the 909th Brigade. I thought everyone in this brigade was brainless idiots like Wang Zhigang!”

Qin Yuan smiled.

“You don’t understand, do you?”

” There are at least 5,000 people in the 909th Brigade. Why can’t there be a military genius?”

“Don’t underestimate him. You have to know that there’s always someone better.”

“Although we won both battles in this exercise.”

“But we can’t be arrogant. We have to be humble and eager to learn.” Maybe one day, we’ll have to fight against those elites. If we fail, don’t cry to me.”

Seeing that Qin Yuan was starting to scare her again, Long Xiaoyun quickly made a face at him.

“I don’t believe it!”

“If your entire regiment is made up of elites, then our Mountain Leopard Regiment won’t exist anymore.”

Isn’t the purpose of our existence to make our Huaxia soldiers elites?” Qin Yuan saw that he could not win against her in bickering, so he simply fell silent..

Chapter 679 - 679: One Must Have One Breath in Life

On the other side, after thinking about it, Commander Zhu of the Cannon Regiment realized that the suggestion given by Commander Hong was correct.

He ran into the Chief of Staff on the way, so he ran up to him and called out to him.

“Chief of Staff! Wait a minute!”

The chief of staff turned around and looked at him with some confusion.

“What’s wrong? Commander Zhu?” “Ah, no, I should change my name to Deputy Brigadier Zhu! Haha!” Commander Zhu said awkwardly.

” The order hasn’t been announced yet. The regiment commander is on the same level as the deputy brigade commander.”

“You should call me Guild Leader.” the chief of staff explained.

It’s not the same. Dismantling the artillery regiment is the general trend of the military reform.”

Of course, you’ve been the commander of the artillery regiment for so many years. We understand your feelings for us.”

Chief of Staff, that’s not what I meant.

The chief of staff heard the hidden meaning in his words and said directly.

“Just tell us what you think!”

“You’re about to join the brigade leadership team. If we work together in the future, what can’t we talk about?”

Commander Zhu took a deep breath.

“Then I’ll be straightforward!”

“Chief of Staff, I think we need to seriously consider Captain Hong’s opinion at the meeting.”

“You mean Hong Yi?”

“Didn’t you disagree with his statement?”

” That’s right. I didn’t agree with him at the meeting earlier. The score is three, and if it’s not enough, it’s a 30 – 70 split.”

“But after I went back and thought about it, the problem he mentioned about our brigade is also a real problem.”

“But I feel that our brigade commander is not taking this matter seriously.” Or rather, it did not attract the attention of him and the entire brigade!

The chief of staff was puzzled.

“Why would you have such an idea?”

Didn’t you also think that if you denied the results, you wouldn’t be able to face the soldiers in the future?”

Commander Zhu explained righteously.

“Yes, that’s what I said at the meeting.”

“I agree with the idea of not being discouraged, but encouraging.”

“But the specific work arrangements of the association can’t ignore the problems that have been exposed, right?”

“If we hide the problems that have been exposed, we will be letting down the entire brigade! I’m also sorry to the commander of the theater of operations!” The chief of staff finally understood what he meant.

“You mean the next step of the training arrangement has not been taken yet to solve the problems we had before, right?”

“Don’t worry, the brigade commander will consider it.”

“We really didn’t do well in this drill. The brigade commander is also anxious.”

Commander Zhu looked disdainful. “Humph!”

“I didn’t see how he looked anxious.”

Seeing that he had a problem with Wang Zhigang, the chief of staff said earnestly.

Commander Zhu, you still don’t understand our brigade commander well enough.”

“He sees problems and does things differently from others. When it comes to important matters, he can handle them with composure.”

“Composed?”

“Exactly!”

“This is called the three realms of life: to be able to hold your breath, bend your waist, and raise your head!”

Commander Zhu laughed when he saw what he said. "Where did you get the Three Mirrors of Life?"

"Why haven't I heard of it before? I don't understand."

The Chief of Staff did not answer him directly. Instead, he asked the opposite question.

"Do you fish?"

Commander Zhu didn't know why he would ask this question and shook his head.

"I don't fish."

"But I know how to cook fish. The fish I cook can be described in one word: absolute!"

At this point, Commander Zhu exuded a strong sense of confidence.

The Chief of Staff smiled.

"I'll take you fishing with the brigade commander one day. The chief's fishing skills are also superb!"

Commander Zhu thought that he was talking about something irrelevant again, so he rejected him directly. "I don't have the leisure to do that!"

The chief of staff said mysteriously.

"You don't understand. There's a lot of knowledge in fishing!" Commander Zhu felt that he was talking nonsense.

"We're in the military. Leading troops to war and training are our daily

Luuune.

"What do you think this fishing can do?"

Seeing that he did not believe him, the chief of staff began to speak seriously.

"I've been with the brigade commander for so many years. During the process of fishing with him, I've learned a lot."

"For example, if you encounter something, you have to be calm!"

"Fish can't be caught with a hook."

"You have to wait. The process of waiting is the most tiring!"

"But if you endure it, the fish will take the bait!"

Commander Zhu saw that once he started talking, it was as if he was chewing gum. He really couldn't stop.

She quickly called him to stop.

"Chief of Staff, I came to look for you because I want to talk to you about something practical."

“You always talk to me about fishing, I...”

Commander Zhu started to get anxious, and the chief of staff said earnestly.

“Old Zhu!”

“You’re about to join the leadership team. It’s different from being the commander of the artillery regiment.”

If the position changes, the way of thinking and the method of thinking will change.”

“Keeping your cool is the first priority!”

Seeing this, Captain Zhu could only say with a bitter face.

“Alright, I’m all ears!”

The Chief of Staff continued to talk.

” There was once when the brigade commander was fishing. He hooked three times and there was no fish left in his drink.”

“But the fish just won’t take the bait!”

I waited at the side for a full two hours. In the end, I couldn’t wait any longer..”

Chapter 680: One Must Have One Breath in Life (2)

‘ Urging the brigade commander. It’s getting dark. Let’s go back. Otherwise, the tide will rise.”

Then, he turned to look at Commander Zhu.

“Guess what the brigade commander said?” Commander Zhu replied impatiently.

“What else can I say? Put away the pole and leave!”

The chief of staff shook his head mysteriously.

“No, no.”

“I still can’t forget what the brigade commander said after that.” Commander Zhu didn’t believe it.

“The brigade commander said that one must have one breath in life!” “Whether it’s courage, ambition, talent, or arrogance, you have to be calm!”

“Being able to keep a low profile is to hide one’s strength and bide one’s time.

It’s to be far-sighted!”

“In the face of setbacks and adversity, I won’t be disheartened!”

Hearing his words, Commander Zhu nodded thoughtfully.

“That’s true. I didn’t expect the brigade commander to be a philosopher!” the chief of staff continued.

” The brigade commander said that being able to keep a cool head is a sign of maturity. ”

In the Romance of the Three Kingdoms, Liu Bei was able to keep his cool and divide the world into three parts.”

During the war between Chu and Han, Xiang Yu set up a banquet at Hongmen. Liu Bang held his temper and won the battle at Gaixia!”

“He became the founding emperor of the Han Dynasty!”

” Calm and collected, neither arrogant nor impatient. Accumulate strength in calmness and erupt at the most appropriate time!”

Commander Zhu asked with a smile. “Is this the principle of fishing?” “It can also be considered philosophy!” “Guess how big a fish fell after that?”

“A big fish that weighs seven pounds!”

Seeing that he was serious for a while and then started to talk about fish again, Commander Zhu was unhappy.

“But what should we do now?”

“You can be so calm after losing a battle. I can’t be calm!”

The chief of staff saw that he had been talking for a long time, but he still did not listen. He directly educated him seriously.

” After tomorrow, you will no longer be the leader of the Cannon Regiment. You must change your fiery temper!”

Commander Zhu ignored him.

“I heard that someone is leaving our 909th Brigade!”

“Who wants to leave?”

“Hong Yi! ”

Hearing this, the chief of staff was shocked.

“How could that be?”

“How could he leave?”

“Why are you leaving?”

Commander Zhu was also speechless.

“Just look at our current situation. Anyone who has even the slightest idea will feel suffocated!”

The chief of staff finally understood.

“No wonder the brigade commander wanted me to talk to Hong Yi. It’s because of this.”

However, after thinking about it, he continued.

“No matter what, he doesn’t have to take off his military uniform!”

“After the military reform, so many units were disbanded. How many people wanted to stay in the army but were unable to do so? Why does he still want to leave?”

“Why don’t you persuade Captain Hong to stay calm and believe that the brigade commander will have a way!”

Commander Zhu narrowed his eyes and looked at him. He sized him up and said indifferently.

Chief of Staff, I think you only trust the brigade commander now. You don’t even trust yourself.”

These words made the chief of staff choke and swallow his saliva. “If you don’t even trust the brigade commander, who else can you trust?” “Old Zhu, the two of us joined the army together. We’re old comrades.” “You can only say this in front of me, but don’t say it to others!”

“Now that I think about it, I was wrong to oppose Hong Yi at the meeting!”

“There’s a reason why he proposed a 30 – 70 ratio.”

“I have a feeling that if our brigade continues like this, it will be difficult for us to make a comeback!”

Seeing how serious the matter was, the chief of staff was speechless.

“You!”

“Don’t say anything out of anger.”

“You have to be calm!”

“Alright, I still have things to do. Let’s talk when we have time.”

After saying that, he left in a hurry.

Commander Zhu’s expression was not too good either. He kept staring at him as he left.

However, it was different for the 808th Brigade. The training was in full swing.

As the brigade commander, Wu Tian also participated in boxing training.

At this moment, he was sparring with a soldier.

Wu Tian swung his right leg and kicked at the Warrior’s head.

The soldier reacted quickly. He raised both his hands as if he was holding a shield and blocked his left side.

It blocked Wu Tian's fatal blow.

Taking advantage of Wu Tian's retreating leg, the Warrior threw a right uppercut at Wu Tian's face before he could stabilize his footing.

Who knew that Wu Tian's body was so flexible? Wu Tian used a difficult lower back to dodge the punch.

Seeing that his punch had missed, the soldier wanted to continue chasing, so he waved his left fist.

It was too late to say, but it was too fast.

Wu Tian quickly got up and grabbed the soldier's arm that was swinging over. He grabbed the soldier's right arm with his left hand and placed it under the soldier's creak. He threw the soldier over his shoulder and threw him to the ground.

After falling, One Day quickly went over to help him up.

"Are you alright?"

"I'm fine!"

"But brigade commander, this move of yours is really amazing!"

"I admire you! I admire you!"

This compliment made him feel very happy.

"Haha!"

"Good boy! As long as you practice hard, you'll definitely catch up to me in the future. Work hard!"

"Yes, sir!"

At this moment, Advisor Jin walked over.

"Brigadier General, Brigadier General Qin Yuan of the Mountain Leopard Brigade is here!"

Wu Tian was currently in a state of ecstasy as he touched his gloves.

"Alright, I'm looking for that kid!"

After a while, he came back to his senses and asked.

"What?"

"Say it again!"

"Brigade Commander Qin Yuan of the Mountain Leopard Brigade is here!"

After confirming it, Wu Tian became a little unnatural. His originally happy expression immediately collapsed.

“He’s here?”

“What does he want to do?”

“He said that he’s here to deliver the Mountain Leopard Brigade’s battle analysis report and wants to meet Brigade Commander Wu.”

The sudden mention of the drill made Wu Tian even more reluctant to show up. He waved his hand angrily.

“See what? I won’t see you!”

“What? Not seeing?”

“Yes! Refuse him outside the door! I won’t be annoyed if I don’t see you!”

Wu Tian said impatiently when he saw that he was still stunned.

“Carry it out! Didn’t you hear me clearly?” Advisor Jin immediately came back to his senses. “Ah. Understood!”

“Shut the door, I won’t be annoyed if I don’t see you!”

With that, he turned to report to the guard.

At this moment, Qin Yuan and Liu Ye, who were standing at the entrance of the 808th Brigade, had already occupied the place for two hours under the scorching sun.

The guard who received the message walked out of the sentry room.

“Comrade, please leave this place.” Liu Ye thought he was joking. “What did you say?” the guard said again.

“Comrade, please leave this place.”

After confirming what he said, Liu Ye asked with some doubt.

“Why won’t you let us in?”

“We didn’t receive any orders. Please leave immediately.”

Liu Ye thought that he was still hostile towards him, so he explained.

“We’re here to deliver information today. This is no longer a drill.” However, the guard turned around and left, ignoring him.

“Sigh! Comrade... Comrade!”

Then, he turned to look at Qin Yuan.

“Brigade Commander, if that’s their attitude, then we’ll report it to the Bureau

Chief truthfully. ”

“We’ll come again after the Bureau Chief is done teaching them.”

Qin Yuan smiled.

“Don’t be anxious. Let’s wait a little longer.”

Although Liu Ye was angry, he still did as Qin Yuan said and continued to shout inside.

“Comrade, please call your brigade commander again!”

“We’re here to deliver the files to your brigade commander Wu at the order of the head of the army in the theater of operations!”

“And I have to hand it over to him personally!”

They thought that the guards would let them in, but who knew that the guards would say otherwise.

“No, please leave!”

This time, it was Qin Yuan’s turn to be speechless.

Wu Tian, who was sitting in his office, was watching the two of them standing at the door through the computer monitor.

At this moment, Political Commissar He walked in. “Brigade Commander, what are you looking at?”

Wu Tian pointed at the two people on the computer screen.

“Just in time. Look at the two of them. What summary information did they send?”

“Aren’t they just trying to show off the victory of the Mountain Leopard

Brigade Blue Army?”

“Didn’t you just want to see me make a fool of myself?”

Political Commissar He saw that he had left him outside for a long time and quickly said.

“Brigadier general, isn’t this a little inappropriate?”

“You’re just angry and annoyed.”

“No matter what, Qin Yuan is the leader of our sister unit.. How can you reject him?”
