

Spoiled 100

Chapter 100: How Did I End Up With Such A Rebellious Daughter Like You!

"Oh my God, the young master of Richard Corporation is this kind of person!"

"I really can't tell, a wolf in sheep's clothing."

"So, originally Sophie Allen was Ryan Richard's official girlfriend? But Ryan's fiancée now is Emily Allen..."

"Tsk, tsk, the mystery of this, we can all understand."

"Is it necessary to say, men who can do such things, change girlfriends with infidelity, isn't that normal?"

Under the stage, everyone is chattering, all satirizing Ryan Richard.

Ryan's father, Stone Richard, had his face turned blue with anger. He turned around and slapped Wendy Matthews on the face.

"You tell me, did you know about this all along?" Stone Richard yelled angrily, "Look what you have spoiled Ryan into. You have tarnished the reputation of the Richards, how did I raise such a shameless son?"

"I... Stone, you calm down!" Wendy Matthews grabbed Stone Richard's hand, completely at a loss as to what to do, her mind a blank.

Her lips trembled in panic, and she gritted her teeth in hatred for Sophie Allen.

Wendy Matthews hadn't expected that Sophie would dare to play this game publicly!

"Sophie Allen, you've already taken the money, what else do you want?" She pointed to the young girl on the stage, yelling like a madman.

Sophie Allen laughed coldly: "Auntie Wendy, didn't I tell you? If you don't make a choice in three days, bear the consequences."

"Now, almost two weeks have gone by."

Sophie Allen curved her lips, kindly reminding.

Thinking of the things Wendy Matthews had initially said to defame her mother, her hatred deepened.

No matter if they were from the Allen or Richard family, whether it was Ethan Allen, Mia Stewart or Wendy Matthews, whether it was Emily Allen or Ryan Richard, she hated them all!

"Also, I have an announcement to make. The new perfume that the Richard Corporation is about to launch is my independent creation. During the time I was dating Ryan, he exploited our relationship, stole the formula and plans from me. Once the perfume is launched, I have the right to sue."

Sophie Allen held the microphone, her clear voice echoing throughout the auditorium, speaking powerfully word by word.

Everyone was stunned!

"Slap--"

At that moment, the sound of a loud slap rang out.

Sophie Allen turned her head, instinctively covering her aching cheek, her ears buzzing, and there was a momentary dizziness before her eyes.

The man standing in front of her was her biological father - Ethan Allen.

Ethan Allen was waving his hand, his face full of rage, yelling at her: "Rebellious girl! Enough!"

"How did I even give birth to a rebellious girl like you! I, Ethan Allen, wish I didn't have a daughter like you!"

Sophie Allen covered her face, laughed coldly: "Mr. Allen, you gave birth to me but didn't raise me, am I even your daughter? In addition to the last name Allen, I am really not a member of the Allens."

She has achieved her goal and doesn't bother to call this man "father" anymore.

"Maybe everyone doesn't know yet, how you treated my mom in the past, deceived her to help you establish the company, while leeching off her at home and fooling around with Mia Stewart outside."

"Emily is your biological daughter, who is a year older than me. Everyone understands what's going on, I don't need to say more."

"As for Ryan Richard, for the past two years he has been posing as my boyfriend, dating me while maintaining relationships with Emily and several other women."

Sophie Allen specifically emphasized the words "several".

Emily Allen could not control her emotions anymore, kicked Ryan Richard fiercely, and then rushed towards Sophie Allen.
