

Spoiled 96

Chapter 96 I'm Sorry to You

Seeing Ryan Richard in such a hurry, Sophie Allen curled her lips, her eyes full of coldness.

"Emily Allen probably doesn't know about this, right?" Sophie Allen confirmed.

She was initially unsure, perhaps Emily Allen had forgiven Ryan Richard, and was shielding him.

But now, Ryan Richard's reaction had confirmed it for her, he was still hiding it from Emily.

Ryan Richard's face turned a little awkward. He indeed had not told Emily, mainly because if this matter got to Emily, knowing her temper, she might just scratch his face.

"Since you're this cowardly, how dare you do these things behind Emily's back? And, it's not just Jessica Taylor." Sophie Allen smirked coldly.

Back then, Jessica Taylor had named a good number of people, and there were perhaps even more than those.

Ryan Richard's face changed color, and he bit his teeth, saying, "Those were all things before Emily, I just haven't cut them off yet."

"Oh? Before Emily, huh, so you had quite a few flings before we started dating, didn't you?" Sophie Allen couldn't help laughing.

She was really blind, back then, she felt that Ryan Richard was the best man in the world.

Aunt Watson often said, let her marry Ryan Richard after she graduated, and quickly give birth to a chubby baby boy, so she could help take care of the child while she still had the energy in her remaining years.

Thinking of this, Sophie Allen's eyes filled with tears.

Her hands clenched into fists tightly, she took a deep breath, and forcibly held back her tears.

Now was not the time for sorrow, she still had important things to do!

"Charlotte, let's not mention those things now, you and I are in the past. I came to you mainly for... the video issue. For the sake of our past relationship, please delete it."

Ryan Richard softened his attitude, pointed at a certain place, and said, "I still have some lingering pain here. Your punishment for me was quite harsh. I don't blame you, it's indeed my fault. I'll give you a hundred thousand, let's call it even."

He thought Sophie Allen's character would be more likely to respond to softly spoken words, so he lowered his posture quite a lot.

"Mia Stewart gave me a million, and you're only giving me a hundred thousand? Is the Richard Family smaller than the Allen family?" Sophie Allen laughed.

Ryan Richard's face turned from green to red, gnashing his teeth, "Charlotte, I really don't have that much money, moreover, Auntie Stewart has already asked my mom for five hundred thousand."

"It was your mother who only gave her five hundred thousand, wasn't it? Halving it." Sophie Allen mentioned Wendy Matthews, grinding her teeth.

She could guess, that Mia Stewart asked Wendy Matthews for a million, but with Wendy's shrewd nature, she would at most give five hundred thousand.

"That's exactly it." Ryan Richard did not deny it, indeed his mother Wendy advocated for splitting it in half.

Sophie Allen not making a fuss at Emily's birthday party, that was the Allen Family's responsibility, they paid five hundred thousand.

Sophie Allen agreed to give the perfume solution to Ryan Richard, this was the Richard Family's responsibility, they paid five hundred thousand.

This was Wendy Matthews' attitude.

"Charlotte, I've spent quite a lot of money on medical expenses, and I've also experienced a mental shock. If I reported you to the police, you would have to compensate for my medical expenses and mental damage. However, I didn't ask you for this money."

Ryan Richard confidently said, "Now, I'm even willing to pay for the video. I've done all I can."

"So, you think you did quite well?" Sophie Allen's delicate face was filled with coldness.

Her voice sounded distant, revealing a hint of hoarseness, the aftermath of crying too hard.

"I know I'm not good, I've done you wrong, but I can't afford much more, all I have in my bank account is 470,000, I don't even have 500,000." Ryan Richard pulled out his cellphone, switched to his banking app, and voluntarily showed Sophie Allen.

"You see it, right? This is all the money I have. I'm not lying to you."

Sophie Allen smiled faintly: "Great, I'll delete the video. You transfer all the 470,000 to me."
