

Star of Space 1041

Chapter 1041 Take it on directly

Lin Caisang: "!!!"

If it were her fault, she wouldn't want to meet her enemy's cousin, okay?

It was obvious that the emperor wanted to save his son's life, so he forced him here. Who doesn't know? If Suyang really accepted this arrangement happily, he would be a fool.

"Poor that kid."

She shook her head and said.

"Who says it's not... Well, the girl is joking, what's so pitiful about that child?"

Butler Xin agreed with half of what he said, but quickly stopped. He looked to the side to make sure there was no one else, and then he breathed a sigh of relief.

What the emperor did with this matter was to put trouble in the minds of the adults in his family. At this time, who dares to pity the fifth son of Prince Yi's family? It's not like you want your own head.

The real pity is for the adults in his family!

"Prince Mo, my lady, my lord is inside. You can go in by yourselves. My lord has told me that no one in the house will be seen. I will not accompany you in."

Outside the study, Butler Xin said to Lin Caisang.

"Okay, thank you for your hard work." Lin Caisang nodded.

...

In the study, when Lin Caisang and Ya Molian entered the door together, Suyang was looking at a pot of plum blossoms that had not yet bloomed, sighing.

Seeing the two people coming in, he hurriedly came forward to greet them.

"Prince Mo, why are you here? These servants are so ignorant. They didn't come to report when Prince Mo came..." He thought that Lin Caisang was the only one, but he didn't expect that he could be Prince Mo!

"There is no need to be polite, Imperial Master, I am just here to accompany the girl." Ya Molian smiled and said.

"Yes Yes."

Suyang glanced at Lin Caisang, then looked at King Mo.

It seems that this female doctor dealt with King Mo openly and decided to side with King Mo.

Yes, he also heard from Butler Xin that the two of them were quite close on the way to Baibind Mountain. Compared to the others, the two of them talked more.

"Imperial Master, I came here specifically today to return the rewards I took from the Imperial Master's Mansion. After all, I have not yet cured Young Master Ling's poison." Lin Caisang directly stated his intention.

When he mentioned his son, Suyang's face became even worse.

He sighed heavily, "Girl, there is no need to be so polite with our master. If it weren't for King Lin's ruthless attack, what would have happened... This has nothing to do with the girl, it's all King Lin's fault.

As for those things, since they have been given to the girl, they belong to the girl. "

His imperial master's office does not lack these things, and it is actually beneficial to be able to use these things to get closer to Lin Caisang.

Now that he had lost his son and was directly involved with the queen, and the conflict with the emperor was getting more intense, it was time to find someone to rely on.

He finally understood that in today's Weiguo, except for King Mo who still had some conscience, the other people's hearts had long been so black that human life was not worth mentioning to them.

Of course, he had done this before.

But now he understands, hopefully it's not too late.

"King Mo, I have nothing to do today. I wonder if I can play a game of chess with you?" He looked at Ya Molian and asked tentatively.

Hearing this, Ya Molian and Lin Caisang looked at each other for just a moment, and then looked at Su Yang again.

"Can."

Just one word.

The solemn heart was finally put down because of this word.

"Steward Xin, why don't you serve tea?" he shouted outside the study door.

Chapter 1042 Isn't it normal?

"Yes, little one, go right here.

Butler Xin had been standing outside the door. After hearing his master's instructions, he quickly ordered his servants to make tea.

...

Yacun.

As the sun set, Lin Caisang came back.

As soon as she returned home, she saw her eldest brother, who mysteriously pulled her to her room.

Then, Lin Caisang watched Lin Changhong close the door.

"Brother, what are you doing?" She asked Lin Changhong with black lines on her head.

"Sang Sang, tell everyone honestly, if you were not at home a few days ago, did you go to Brother Mo Lian's house?" Lin Changhong turned around and asked his sister in a low voice.

Brother Changfeng said that Sangsang was working in the county. Since Brother Changfeng had never lied to anyone, Grandpa and Grandma naturally believed it.

But who is he? He is Sangsang's brother. How can he not understand this sister?

How could he believe that she had been working in the county for almost two months?

After thinking about it, there is only one possibility, that is, his sister was abducted by Brother Mo Lian. He had not figured it out before. Later, his sister came back with Brother Mo Lian. Can he still think about it? understandable.

No, he didn't have a chance to ask before, but now that Brother Mo Lian is gone again, he finally found an opportunity to interrogate this girl of his.

"You called me in just to ask about this?" Lin Caisang looked at him and asked.

"Isn't this important?"

Lin Changhong asked her, why did she look at his girl as if he had asked a stupid question?

But, is it wrong for him to care about his sister?

That's right.

"Important." Lin Caisang nodded.

"As long as it's important, it's important..."

"Whether this matter is important or not, what does it have to do with you?"

Just when Lin Changhong nodded enthusiastically and was about to say what he had been thinking about for a long time, he heard his sister ask him such a calm question.

"I....."

He opened his mouth, but didn't know what to say.

"Brother, I'm not talking about you. I've already made an engagement with Brother Mo Lian. Isn't it normal to go to his house to see what his house is like and whether I can live a good life in the future?"

Just when he didn't know what to say, he heard his girl speak again.

"From now on, I have to get along with my parents-in-law. If it's difficult for my whole family to get along with my brothers and sisters, why don't I prepare in advance? You tell me, right?"

"This... seems to make sense."

After hearing this, Lin Changhong nodded, feeling that what his sister said made sense, but he couldn't even refute a word.

"So Sang Sang, what do you think? How is Brother Molian's family? Are his family members easy to get along with?" he asked quickly.

Hearing this, Lin Caisang raised his eyes and glanced at him.

Is Ya Molian's family easy to get along with? If these people still get along, we can just deal with them one by one.

hehe!

"It's easy to get along with, brother. You don't even know who your sister is. Even if it's hard to believe those people in Brother Mo Lian's family, I can still make them docile."

She patted her chest and said.

"Then where is his home?" Lin Changhong asked again.

Brother Mo Lian has been back in the past few days, but I don't know what happened. His grandpa and grandma just didn't ask where Brother Mo Lian was from.

I really don't know what they were thinking. That was the man that their family Sangsang was going to marry in the future. Didn't grandpa and grandma just ask him? He looked anxiously on the sidelines.

Chapter 1043 Please tell me if you have anything to say

I am a partial student, and I can't ask a question myself.

"It's far away. You'll know when the time comes." Lin Caisang didn't answer his question directly.

It's indeed very far. It's in Shaohua City, the imperial capital of the Wei Kingdom, so it's not that far away.

Moreover, I'm afraid that Ya Molian's life experience still needs to be investigated. It doesn't matter whether her last name is age or not. Su Yang left Ya Molian behind. Since she wanted to come back, she naturally didn't accompany her anymore, and she didn't know. What will the two people say after she leaves?

Shaohua City, in the Imperial Prefecture.

After playing three consecutive games of chess with Su Yang, the sky was already very dark and the lanterns had been hung up in the Imperial Preceptor's residence.

"Master, you have eaten. We have played three games of chess. I have stayed long enough. It's time to leave." Ya Molian stood up and was about to leave.

It is impossible for him to stay in the Imperial Prefect's Mansion forever. If this reaches the ears of the Emperor, he will later suspect that he and Su Yang, his old enemy, will join forces.

"King Mo, wait."

Seeing that he was about to leave, Su Yang quickly stood up, but called out to stop him.

"What else does the Imperial Master have to do?" Ya Molian turned around, looked at him and asked.

"this....."

Suyang gritted his teeth and finally decided to speak.

"I have something on my mind, and I don't know whether I should tell King Mo."

"What does the Imperial Master want to say?" Ya Molian asked.

"King Mo, please sit down first and let's talk slowly."

Su Yang glanced at the chessboard, and ordered Butler Xin who was waiting outside to come in and collect the chessboard. He also ordered him to evacuate everyone outside the study, and then sat down with Ya Molian.

"If you have anything to say, Imperial Master," Ya Molian looked at him coldly and said.

"King Mo, when you were just born, your fortune was told by your subordinate personally. You should know this, right?" Suyang asked.

"Um."

Ya Molian nodded.

How could he not know that it was because of Suyang's words, "The Lonely Star of Heavenly Evil", that he was able to fend for himself in Ya Village for so many years?

He will always remember someone like Suyang throughout his life.

"Of course I know this."

"Then... there is a habit when ordering fortune telling for others. You should be... aware of it, right?" Su Yang continued to ask.

"Um."

Ya Molian nodded again.

When Suyang tells someone's fortune, he has to see the person himself, otherwise, the fortune will not be easily calculated by him, even if he has the correct birth date and horoscope.

This is different from others.

"At that time, when the emperor brought the newborn you in front of the official, the official could not see anything at that time, but after that, the official also had doubts."

Su Yang looked at Ya Molian seriously, the expression on his face was very solemn.

"Confuse?"

Ya Molian raised her eyebrows and looked at him.

"The lower official also has a son, but he is a few years younger than Prince Mo." Suyang said.

It's a pity that now he has no son. He was killed by a bitch named Sui Zilin. He must avenge this!

"National Master, what exactly do you want to say? Huh?" Ya Molian stared at him with cold eyes and asked.

"Xiaguan wants to say that when the emperor brought you to Xianguan as a newborn, you didn't look like a newborn baby at all. Instead, you were the same size as when my son was full moon. It's really strange."

Suyang said.

Originally, he was just a baby, so it was naturally impossible for him to remember so much. What's more, as a national master, he told the fortunes of newly born princes, princesses, and young masters in the royal family. There were only a few in a year, so how could he pay special attention to them? Where is one?

Chapter 1044 This is serious

But King Mo was different. He was the fate of Tiansha Lone Star. He was deeply impressed at the time and could not remember it wrong.

Hearing this, Ya Molian's hand holding the tea cup paused, and she raised her eyes to glance at Su Yang.

"So? What do the Imperial Masters want to say?"

he asked Suyang.

"Well."

Suyang choked at his words.

Indeed, he only had doubts about what happened back then, and it was not necessarily what he thought.

However, if it was really what he thought, wouldn't that mean...

He glanced at Ya Molian secretly and felt that there was no need to say something too clearly, otherwise it would easily lead to death.

"National Preceptor, there are some things that I hope the Imperial Preceptor will not think about. If I let my father know about it, I'm afraid... the Imperial Preceptor should be able to understand the truth."

Yamolian's black eyes were full of warning as she spoke word by word.

"Yes, yes, I understand."

As a popular person around the emperor, he couldn't understand this.

However, now that his son's incident has come out, this popular person or not, he has to take another look.

"I don't want to worry too much about past events. The Imperial Master invited me to be a guest in the mansion today. What do you want me to do for you, eh?" Ya Molian asked again.

"this....."

Suyang was a little embarrassed by what he said.

Naturally, he wanted Ya Molian to avenge him for killing his son? He thought about it these days, and it seemed that the only person in Shaohua City who could avenge him was King Mo.

Who else could kill Suizilin under the eyes of the emperor?

What he wanted to do, only Ya Mo Lian could do it, and now in Shaohua City, the only one worthy of his following seemed to be Prince Mo, with whom he had an absolute feud.

"King Mo, if you can avenge me, I will be at the mercy of King Mo from now on without any hesitation."

He stood up, bowed respectfully to Ya Molian, and said.

Hearing Fang, Ya Molian really raised her thin lips and chuckled.

"National Master, what you said is serious." He said calmly.

"King Mo, everyone in Shaohua City knows that I have a huge feud with you."

Seeing what he said, Suyang hurriedly spoke again.

"However, Xiaguan only calculated fortunes based on facts back then. The birth dates and horoscopes were all reported by the emperor. Calculating that you are so qualified was not what Xiaguan wanted. If we really want to talk about it, Xianguan and you actually have nothing to do with each other. There is no real festival, King Mo, tell me, is the official right?"

"Ah."

Ya Molian chuckled again.

"Did the Imperial Master seek medical treatment because of his illness? If he is said to be able to avenge the Imperial Master, it is not me. I think that King Jin should be very willing to avenge the Imperial Master."

Maybe Sui Zijin and Concubine Lian were waiting for Suyang to come to their door.

It would have been impossible for them to imagine that Suyang, who was not looking for anyone, would come looking for him, King Mo, who had had a grudge against them for twenty years, right? If they knew this, would they cut out a piece of flesh from his body?

"Prince Jin?"

Upon hearing this name, Su Yang's face immediately darkened.

"King Mo is joking. Although Prince Jin and you are brothers, but...to be honest, if it were Ri'er's death, without the handwriting of Prince Jin, I would not believe it."

Prince Lin is so stupid that I don't even know who is taking advantage of him.

Chapter 1045 Where do the green mountains and beautiful water come from?

In the past month or so since King Jin, he has had chance encounters with him in and out of the palace, and even a fool can figure it out, not to mention that he is not really stupid!

But one thing has to be said, his son was indeed killed by the hand of the king!

"King Mo, Concubine Lian even wanted to point the finger at you for Ri'er's death. Are you really going to let it go like this?" He asked Ya Mo Lian tentatively.

"So what if we don't? Kill Suizilin or Concubine Lian. She is my biological mother after all, isn't she?" Ya Molian asked him in return.

"she....."

Suyang opened his mouth and really wanted to say something, is it not certain whether Concubine Lian is your mother? !

Whose child is so plump right after birth? Only a fool would believe that you are the child of Concubine Lian. Anyway, he doesn't believe it!

"Let's talk about King Lin again. If the Imperial Master wants to kill King Lin with a single blow right now, it's just a matter of one or two sentences, isn't it?" Ya Molian said again.

"Your Majesty..."

Suyang opened his mouth again, but again no words came out.

That's right, it would be too easy for Sui Zi Lin to die like this. Otherwise, in the future, the forces in the Ministry of Punishment could have made an accident and killed Sui Zi Lin!

"What does King Mo mean?" he asked carefully.

"cough.

Ya Molian glanced at him, then slowly stood up.

"In the dungeon of the Punishment Department, there is no light all year round, and King Lin is pampered and raised, so he must not be used to living there. It is normal to get sick for a while, and it will probably not last long."

"Get ill?"

Su Yang was a little confused and didn't know what Ya Molian had in mind.

"Suijun has beautiful mountains and green waters. It is a good place to recuperate. At that time, the National Normal University can advise the father and let Prince Lin go to Suijun to recuperate." Ya Molian said again.

"Sui... Suijun? Green mountains... beautiful waters?!"

After hearing this, Suyang almost spit out a mouthful of blood.

Prince Mo, are you telling the truth? Everyone in the world doesn't know that most of Sui County in Wei State is in the desert. Where can the green mountains and beautiful water come from? Are you kidding me?

"This... King Mo, the emperor won't agree, right?"

How could the Emperor agree to having his most beloved son sent to Sui County?

"Whether the father will agree or not depends on what the Imperial Master will say at that time. Presumably, the Imperial Master must have the ability to make the Father agree. After all, Prince Lin kills people, so he can have a place to recuperate and not die in the dungeon, you will be lucky enough."

After Ya Molian finished speaking, she really raised her feet and left.

"Recuperate, what disease?"

Looking at Ya Molian's leaving figure, Su Yang murmured to himself.

What kind of disease could make the emperor give up his own son and instead come to win over him, the national advisor? It must be that the illness is unclear, right?

But what disease could it be?

In the imperial palace, the imperial study room.

The emperor had already received a report from his father-in-law. Lin Caisang appeared at the Imperial Preceptor's Mansion, and it was the same person who went to the Imperial Preceptor's Mansion with Ya Molian.

When he heard the news, the emperor's face suddenly turned bad.

"It seems that this female doctor has really been won over by my 'good' prince. He is really good!" He took a deep breath and squeezed his hands tightly on the table. Both eyes turned scarlet.

Chapter 1046 Is there still a ghost?

I originally thought that after going to Baibind Mountain this time, Ya Molian would not come back again, and his Lin'er could also establish a good relationship by walking with the female doctor along the way.

Who would have known that instead of disappearing, the Yamolian directly attracted the female doctor to her side.

But his Lin'er accidentally killed Su Ri and was imprisoned in a dungeon.

Thinking of these things, he wanted to kill people. He really wanted to kill Ya Molian and Su Yang.

However, even if he is the emperor, there are some things that he cannot do just as he wants. He has to explain things to the ministers of the dynasty.

It was only now that he discovered that half of the ministers of the Manchu Dynasty were close confidants trained by the national master Suyang. It seemed that he really favored Suyang too much before!

"Has King Mo left the Imperial Preceptor's Mansion?" he asked.

"Back to the emperor, I just got the news that King Mo left the Imperial Preceptor's Mansion just half an hour ago. It is said that the Imperial Preceptor personally asked King Mo to stay, and the two played several games of chess."

said the father-in-law.

"snort!"

After hearing this, the emperor immediately snorted coldly.

He Su Yang had just died, so he wanted to play chess with Ya Mo Lian? No one believes they are just playing chess!

"What about the female healer?" he asked.

At this time, he couldn't attack Yamolian, let alone Suyang, who was a close confidant throughout the court, so he could only pay attention to the female doctor from the side.

As long as he holds her in his hand, I believe that both Ya Molian and Su Yang will be more or less afraid. After all, the two of them established their current relationship because of the female doctor.

"Back to the Emperor, the female doctor is very mysterious. After leaving the Imperial Preceptor's Mansion, she disappeared in a carriage," the father-in-law replied.

"Whereabouts unknown?" The emperor frowned.

In Shaohua City, if the guards want to follow someone, how can they let that person disappear?

"Yes, Your Majesty, there were people following the female doctor's carriage, but for some unknown reason, they turned a corner on the street and both the carriage and the people disappeared."

The father-in-law replied.

"That's the carriage from Prince Mo's Mansion. It was originally easy to find, but...the people sent by the slave searched the streets of Shaohua City and couldn't find it, and there was no trace of the carriage in Prince Mo's Mansion. "

"Leaving the city?" the emperor asked.

"When I return to the emperor, I sent people to ask the guards of the four cities. They all said that they had not seen Prince Mo's carriage leaving the city today." the father-in-law replied.

emperor:"....."

So is his Shaohua City still haunted by ghosts?

A big living person driving a carriage and disappearing immediately? Who would believe this?

"Look, keep looking for me, you must find the female doctor!" He ordered.

"Yes, Your Majesty."

The father-in-law responded and quickly retreated.

"Sui Zimo, Su Yang, I'll give you a chance, I hope you won't let me down!" The emperor looked ahead coldly.

Although Sui Zimo's forces are outside, it would be easy to rebel if he really wants to. As for Suyang, he is really overly favored. If these two people really join forces, the consequences will be disastrous!

If he really got to that point, then he would no longer care about the friendship between monarch and minister, and directly ordered someone to assassinate Suyang. Presumably, no one would think that it was him!

"call!"

Regardless of whether Suyang dies or not, he has to find a way to kill his cronies one by one. Otherwise, the world of Weiguo will soon belong to him, not to him as the emperor!

Chapter 1047 Didn't you let him go?

Unexpectedly, he has raised a wolf by his side these years!

...

In Qianlin County, the Zhou family.

He failed to get his idea to Ya Molian, but instead caused the family to lose a lot of money because of Zhou Yan's escape.

In the past few days, Mr. Zhou has been angry several times, scolding his granddaughter for being ignorant, and blaming all the mistakes on his daughter-in-law.

He believed that it was his daughter-in-law's failure to educate her children well that made Zhou Yan so bold that she stole the family's belongings and ran away behind his back.

However, facing such a big pot, Mrs. Zhou would definitely not let her father-in-law throw it at her. She had quarreled with Old Master Zhou several times and made Old Master Zhou angry every time.

"Okay, okay, what's the point of quarreling between you and dad? Don't forget, the keys to the house are all in his hands." Seeing the two of them quarreling again, Mr. Zhou quickly pulled his daughter-in-law away. He came out, returned to his house, and persuaded.

"snort!"

Mrs. Zhou snorted coldly.

"That old immortal stares at my mistakes every day. If it weren't for the fact that he holds the key in his hand, I would..."

"Shhh, shhhh, keep your voice down."

After listening to her words, Mr. Zhou's face turned green and he quickly silenced her.

If her father heard what she said, he would definitely drive the couple out of the house, and his son would not even benefit from it!

"Stop saying a few words. What good can you gain by contradicting dad like this?"

"You think I'm willing to quarrel with him? It's not him..."

Mrs. Zhou was so angry that she stared at her husband with cannibalistic eyes.

"Say, he was obviously the one who caused the trouble. If he hadn't driven Yan'er in front of Ya Molian, would something like that have happened to Yan'er? She's not a well-behaved lady, how could she..."

Fortunately for him, he didn't feel that he was wrong and wanted to put all the blame on me. He must be able to do that! "

"Dad, isn't he angry? Why don't you just let him go?" Mr. Zhou advised.

"Didn't I let him go?" Mrs. Zhou asked him.

Isn't she a coward enough these days? She was pointed at the nose and scolded by the old immortal every day. Did she deserve to be scolded?

"Huh, it's all Yan'er's fault. She's eager to learn, but she has to imitate others and elope with others. What's so good about that servant? We all planned to find a good family for her, but she actually... is such a bitch! "

As she spoke, she started scolding her daughter, that little bitch, if she were to find her, she would beat her half to death!

"Don't mention Yan'er now, think about Liang'er first." Mr. Zhou reminded her.

"Liang'er, what's wrong with Liang'er?" Mrs. Zhou frowned.

Her pair of children are not easy to worry about. The younger one ran away with someone or followed a servant, which made her unable to hold her head up in front of her family, and the older one...

I don't know what kind of ecstasy soup Lin Caisang poured into him. Ever since he came back from Qiu Wei, he has been thinking about her!

"What could possibly happen? It's just the marriage with the county magistrate. Isn't that what it's all about?" Master Zhou asked.

What a wonderful marriage it was, but he was really unwilling to let it go. What's more, it was a troubled time for the Zhou family now. His daughter ran away with someone, and his son failed the exam again.

At his father's house, their family was being disliked. What if his brothers said something unfavorable to him in front of his father?

Chapter 1048 She doesn't think about it anymore

Therefore, if he could save the marriage at the Sheriff's Mansion at this time, he would still have room to speak on his father's side.

"Of course we can't just let it go!" Mrs. Zhou said without thinking.

"Tomorrow, tomorrow I will personally go to the county governor's house and ask them what they want. We can't keep delaying the marriage like this. We have to decide it quickly."

Lin Caisang will definitely not be able to get married. The marriage in the Sheriff's Mansion is the last guarantee for their family Liang'er.

As long as General Liang marries the Ninth Girl from the Sheriff's Mansion and takes care of him from now on, and if he works hard and studies more in these three years, he will still have a chance in three years.

She no longer has to look at that old immortal face every day.

"tomorrow?"

Master Zhou glanced at her. ๓๓

"Otherwise, you should go today instead of tomorrow. Maybe there will be any changes?"

"this....."

Mrs. Zhou hesitated for a moment and looked up at the sky outside.

"Okay, I'll go now."

...

In Yacun, the Lin clan was busy. Digging a pond was not a matter of a day or two. They dug the pond while everyone was still free.

As for the Ya clan, since there was no Ya clan leader to take charge, they introduced several clan elders to take turns supervising and supervising, and they worked enthusiastically.

Because the Lin family also had several acres of land, Lin Baiyi also went to help.

Of course, there is another person among them, and that is Liu Yushui, who just bought three acres of land. After experiencing the Zhou Liang incident, Liu Yushui has finally matured a lot. Now he is ready to raise his two daughters in Yacun. Live your life well.

She didn't think about anything else.

"careful!"

Liu Yushui, who was carrying two loads of mud, slipped and almost fell from a height. Fortunately, Lin Baiyi beside her helped her.

"Thank you, uncle."

Liu Yushui glanced at him, gritted his teeth, moved the pole on his shoulder, carried it better, and thanked Lin Baiyi.

"Yushui, if you are alone with your children, don't come here to work. The children at home are more important." Lin Baiyi looked at her gritted teeth and said.

There is no girl like her to work in the village, and looking at her like that, she can compete with the men.

"It's okay. The two children are eating and sleeping now. While they are asleep, I will come over here to do some work." Liu Yushui said and walked forward carrying the mud.

"Why."

Lin Baiyi watched the people walking away and sighed quietly.

This person really had to go through something before he could grow up. Like Liu Yushui, he only knew how difficult life is after suffering.

But at least, people finally came to their senses.

"Changyi, come here."

"Dad, what did you ask me to do?"

Lin Changyi picked up a large stone not far away and carried it out. When he heard his father calling him, he quickly threw the stone away and ran over.

"You kid, your sister Sangsang spent all her money to send you to school. You know how to come here and mess around every day!"

"Dad, I'm doing serious things." Lin Changyi said, disagreeing with him.

Besides, they came here to help, but with the consent of the husband, they came to help in the morning, and in the evening they would make up for the words they should learn in the morning, so there was nothing wrong.

"What's serious, how old are you?"

Lin Baiyi rolled his eyes at his son. If he was lazy, just be lazy. He had to find so many excuses. He was convinced by his son.

Chapter 1049 What are you here for? !

"Go outside your sister Yushui's house and see if the two children are crying. Then come back and tell her." He explained.

"oh."

Lin Changyi looked at Liu Yushui's back, then at his own father, and answered.

"Dad, I heard that Liu Yushui has the most money among our Lin clan. Why does she come to work? Wouldn't it be better to take care of the children at home?"

How much money each household in the village pays is based on how many acres of land the family has, and the same person from each household comes to work here.

Because Liu Yushui was a woman with two children who were just a few months old, she naturally paid the most. She paid an extra acre of land. She said it was because she was raising the children alone and sometimes had no choice. Come to work.

Patriarch Lin also agreed that she would not have to come over.

Why did she come here anyway, and he was the one who saw Liu Yushui every morning when he came here to pick up stones.

"Who knows, go and take a look." Lin Baiyi said because he didn't understand Liu Yushui.

How could he know the pain in Liu Yushui's heart?

When Liu Yushui was in the Liu family, she was a very aloof young lady. She could open her mouth with food and stretch out her hands with clothes, which is not an exaggeration.

Now, she lives alone in Yacun with her two children. She has to do everything by herself. She doesn't care whether the food at home is delicious or not, but if she buys a few acres of land, she won't be able to grow anything in the end. If the crops come, won't she have to go hungry?

Although she had gotten fifty taels of silver from Zhou Liang, the fifty taels of silver would eventually be spent. She couldn't keep spending the money, so she had to hide it just in case.

Therefore, she had to learn to farm, follow the women in the village, and use her own hands to earn food for herself and her two children.

Of course, you have to learn a lot of things, and even your own strength has to be developed slowly.

"Oh, I'll go then." Lin Changyi responded and ran away.

Liu Yushui gritted her teeth, poured two dustpans of soil into the designated place in the village, and then prepared to come back. Unexpectedly, she had just taken two steps, but she saw a hand stopping her.

Looking up, when she saw who it was, her face immediately darkened.

"Zhou Liang, what are you doing here?!"

"Yushui, I...I came to see you, how are you doing now? Why are you doing this work here? Have you spent all the money I gave you? It doesn't matter, I will get it for you when I go home, don't do it That's it."

Zhou Liang saw that Liu Yushui's hands were covered with blood blisters and his face was slightly yellow. He couldn't help but frown and said.

"laugh."

After hearing his words, Liu Yushui sneered.

If she were still the same Liu Yushui as before, she would have foolishly believed that Zhou Liang had realized his mistake, repented, and wanted to treat her better again.

But now, she has come back from the hell gate. If she still can't see Zhou Liang's face clearly, then she really should take her two daughters to jump into the river.

"Stop being so pretentious, do you think I won't know about that little naughty thing in your belly?"

"You... why did you say that, Yu Shui, I really want to get along with you. It doesn't matter if the child is gone. We can have another one. As long as you can forgive me, I will promise you anything."

Seeing that she was leaving, Zhou Liang quickly reached out to hold her, but she dodged him.

Chapter 1050 She is really stupid!

"Get out of here, stay as far away from me as possible!" Liu Yushui shouted coldly before preparing to leave.

If Zhou Liang really admitted his mistakes and repented, how could he not even find out that she gave birth to two daughters?

This is obviously another conspiracy brewing. Do you want to get something from her? But what can she have on her? Two kids? Zhou Liang didn't know the existence of the two children. That is...

Her eyes lit up and she suddenly understood.

"Zhou Liang, you want to use me to get close to Lin Caisang and have your big dream!"

She stopped, glared back at him, and then continued walking.

Yacun is just a village, and any little thing will definitely spread throughout the village. Even if the women in the village don't want to talk to her, they can always hear one or two words when they go to the fields or wash clothes. .

She knew early in the morning that people from the Zhou family had visited the Lin family several times, wanting to bring up the marriage between Zhou Liang and Lin Caisang again.

But the Lin family didn't agree and kicked the Zhou family out directly. But even so, Mr. Zhou didn't let go. He came to the house many times to put his warm face on his cold ass.

It wasn't until Ya Molian and Lin Caisang came back together that day that Old Master Zhou reluctantly took his family away.

But before leaving, she heard that Zhou Liang was crying and yelling that Lin Caisang was his fiancée, and he would definitely not let it go. Many people in their village heard this with their own ears.

Why, we couldn't start with Lin Caisang, so we decided to focus on her.

Did she ask that the Lin family was taking good care of her these days and wanted to get in touch with Lin Caisang from her?

Don't say she doesn't have that ability. Even if she really became good sisters with Lin Caisang today, she wouldn't be able to lead Lin Caisang into the pit like Zhou Liang. She herself had just escaped from that pit. How could it be possible? Push your savior in?

Unless, she is really stupid!

"What use is that? Yu Shui, we are so familiar. As long as you help me, I promise that I will definitely marry you in the future. I can't guarantee anything else, but you will definitely have the identity of concubine. With Lin How about picking mulberries?"

Seeing that Liu Yushui had figured out his thoughts, Zhou Liang was not going to hide it from her, so he lowered his voice and spoke in her ear.

Liu Yushui: "!!!"

Why hadn't she noticed before that Zhou Liang was such a despicable man?

She is the same as Lin Caisang. Doesn't that mean that he is obsessed with asking Lin Caisang to marry him. The Zhou family has come to the Lin family several times to propose marriage and so on, but he just wants Lin Caisang to be a concubine in the Zhou family? !

But she clearly remembered that everyone in the village said that the Zhou family regretted it and wanted to marry Lin Caisang into the Zhou family as their official wife.

How come she turned out to be a concubine in the end?

"Zhou Liang, I was blind because I fell in love with you before, but that doesn't mean I will be blind for the rest of my life. People like you deserve to fail in the examination. You are just despicable!"

She understood that the Zhou family had never given up on the previous relatives in the County Sheriff's Mansion. They came to the Lin family to propose marriage so righteously, and they said that she was a legitimate wife, but if that time came, the Zhou family could definitely do it. She regretted it again and said that she originally asked Lin Caisang to be my concubine.

Now she couldn't help but wonder if Mrs. Zhou instigated her mother to spread those words that Ya Molian would not come back after Ya Molian left!
