

Star of Space 110

Chapter 110 Even a woman is beaten!

How did he know how this strange thing happened? He only knew that these things happened at his house, and he still wanted to know what happened.

After a while, the two agents who had just been ordered by Capt. Wei to capture Gong Yu came back, but they did not bring the Gong Yu who was supposed to be brought. Moreover, both of them were dejected, with expressions on their faces. Faint redness and swelling.

"What's wrong? Where are the people?"

Seeing them like this, Capt. Wei immediately asked.

"Wei Tou, we were useless and let that woman run away." One of them said.

"Ran?"

Wei Captou was shocked and looked at the injuries on their faces.

"Did Gong Yushi hurt you?" he asked.

On the other side, Ya Mo Lian confessed to Lin Caisang and walked out.

"Yes, boss."

The other agent nodded, with a look of shame on his face.

"Boss, that woman is not simple. She is very skilled. She knocked us both down with just one move and flew out of the hospital. Even if we want to chase her, we don't know how to chase her."

Hearing this, Capt. Wei took a deep breath and looked at Master Gong, "Master Gong, it seems that the people in your house are quite secretive."

"me....."

At this moment, Mr. Gong only felt that his body and mouth were full of guilt, and he could no longer wash away his guilt.

How did he know that one of his concubines would have the ability to escape from the police?

Now that Gong Yushi ran away like this, all the blame fell on him. He was almost anxious to death, but he couldn't do anything.

"It seems that it's time for a thorough investigation of this Gong Mansion. You go and gather all the people in the Gong Mansion to the front yard. I want to interrogate them one by one. If nothing comes out from the interrogation tonight, don't sleep. "

"yes."

All the detectives responded with a loud voice.

Sleeping and everything else is an afterthought. If we don't turn this Gong Mansion upside down, we won't be able to forgive them for having to live in fear in Hongling Town for so many days!

Listening to the loud voice, Mr. Gong felt a chill in his back, and his whole body slumped weakly on the chair.

More than half an hour passed. Just when everyone in the Gong Mansion was in danger, a white shadow was thrown to the ground with a bang, splashing dust all over the ground.

"You're back. Did you find someone so quickly?" Lin Caisang hurriedly greeted her and came to Ya Molian who had just landed.

"Um."

Ya Molian just nodded her head, and then looked at the woman who had been beaten unconscious by him. Lin Caisang also looked over.

"Tsk, you're a little too cruel, you're even hitting women!"

She didn't know it, but she was shocked at first glance. There was no intact skin on Gong Yu's face. It was all bloody, and there were also a lot of stains on her black nails. of blood.

"He is not a woman." Ya Molian said.

"What do you mean? You didn't think she was a woman?"

Lin Caisang chuckled lightly, feeling that Ya Molian's words were quite funny, but she didn't care at all how injured Gong Yushi was, as long as she was alive and could ask questions.

"It's not that I didn't take it seriously, it's him, not the woman." Ya Molian repeated again.

"What?"

At this time, Lin Caisang's smile froze on his face, and he swooped over, and then swooped back again the next moment, with a look of disbelief on his face.

"What kind of medicine did he take to turn himself into such a virtuous person?"
