

Star of Space 1101

Chapter 1101 Oh no!

...

On the official road, Lin Caisang and Sui Ziyu had already changed to a carriage. Anyway, there was a spare carriage in Jinzhu Space, which was just enough for them.

"Ziyu, why didn't you tell me this?"

"Sister-in-law, you can't blame me for this. I really didn't expect it." Sui Ziyu felt quite innocent.

For her, using these royal tributes has become a habit. She never thought that these things would attract other people's attention.

Moreover, royal supplies are meant to attract attention.

"That's right, I can't blame you." Lin Caisang nodded.

"It's all my fault that Ya Mo Lian didn't warn me in advance, which made me almost attract attention.

"Weird cousin?"

Sui Zi felt ashamed for a while.

Can you blame your cousin for this? I guess my cousin wouldn't think of this, right?

"Sister-in-law, does Brother Mo know that you are coming to build An City?"

Lin Caisang: "..."

Brother Mo Lian didn't know, so I really can't blame him.

Besides, just the golden mask she wore was already enough to attract people's attention, and adding a carriage to the mix wouldn't make it any more noticeable.

"I don't know how Brother Mo Lian is doing in Shaohua City. There has been no news about him recently." Thinking of Ya Mo Lian, she couldn't help but mutter.

"Brother Mo will be fine, he can be patient.

Sui Ziyou said something.

"Today, sister-in-law, didn't Liu Yushui get married yesterday? Then today is the day when she will bring her husband to your house to serve tea to the elders. Is it really okay if you are not here?"

"There's nothing wrong with me here, we're all of the same generation... Oops!"

Suddenly, Lin Caisang thought of something and secretly screamed something bad.

He hurriedly asked Sui Ziyou to drive the carriage aside and stopped, while he entered the Jinzhu space and returned to his home.

When she opened the door and came out, she saw that Liu Yushui had already brought Lin Ma over. Her grandma was making tea and came to the main room. Liu Yushui hurriedly took it.

"Third aunt."

Seeing that Yang Lin was about to walk into the main room, she quickly grabbed Yang Lin.

"Sangsang, are you at home?"

When Yang Lin saw her, he looked her up and down in surprise.

"Your grandma called you so many times just now, but you didn't answer. Everyone thought you were out."

The key is that her son opened his eyes and told lies, saying that Sangsang went out. He saw it with his own eyes, and he said it with his nose and eyes. It seems that the words of Jie Yuan's son cannot be too believed.

As she said that, she glared at her son who had just come out of his room.

Lin Changfeng glanced at Lin Caisang helplessly. He even offended his own mother for Sang Sang.

"that....."

Lin Caisang twitched the corner of his mouth and said quickly.

"I just came back from outside, third aunt, please come here."

She pulled Yang Lin aside, took out a small red cloth parcel from her arms, and stuffed it into Yang Lin's hand.

"Third Aunt, Liu Yushui and Lin Da are back today. You can take this and give it to them later."

The grandpa and grandma have already given eighty-eight taels, which is definitely enough, but the third uncle and the third aunt are also elders. After Liu Yushui and his wife toasted tea, it is impossible not to give them even the money for the meeting. .

"How can this work?"

When Yang Lin saw this, he waved his hand quickly and refused to accept it.

"Third Aunt, just take it. Now that the family has a lot of money, this money should be given to them. Not only them, but also Brother Changfeng and Qing'er will have to give it to them in the future."

Chapter 1102 Almost the same

Lin Caisang couldn't help but put the silver wrapped in red cloth into Yang Lin's hand.

"You should give what you deserve, but I can't take your money." Yang Lin said.

What kind of thing is this? As an aunt, she is using her niece's money as a gift. How can she have the nerve to accept it? How will I face Sangsang in the future?

"My money and your money belong to the same family, right?"

After Lin Caisang gave Yang Lin the money, he curled his lips and walked towards the cowshed.

"Third aunt, tell grandma that I will go to the mountains to have a look and I may come back very late so that grandma doesn't have to wait for me to have dinner.

"Are you going out again?"

Yang Lin asked her, basically talking to himself, because Lin Caisang had already left the yard and went out.

"This child doesn't even know what to say about her."

Looking at the silver wrapped in red cloth in his hand, it was heavy.

You know, Liu Yushui bullied her a lot in the past, but now it's good that this girl even used money to give it to Liu Yushui. No one can match her heart.

"Mom, just take it. This is Sangsang's wish."

Lin Changfeng saw all that scene and said something to his mother.

...

As night fell, an ordinary carriage stopped on the street of Jian'an City, but there was no one on the carriage. But in a restaurant on the other side, it was brightly lit and noisy.

Lin Caisang and Sui Ziyu came out of the restaurant, got on the carriage, and headed towards the eldest princess's mansion.

"Sister-in-law, it seems like it would be better for you to marry Brother Mo as soon as possible. This is too troublesome." Sui Zi stood quietly outside the carriage and said to Lin Caisang inside.

They went to eat in that restaurant because Lin Caisang wanted to go back to the Lin family to show his face.

But if Lin Caisang has married her cousin, then there is no need for trouble. She can do whatever she wants outside and go home three times a day to report that she is safe.

"fine."

Lin Caisang just replied lightly.

No matter whether it's troublesome or not, it's just a trip home for her. It's what she should do to make the elders in the family feel at ease.

If even this little thing is troublesome, how should she deal with it?

"Even after marrying Brother Mo Lian, you still have to repay peace. It's almost the same."

"That's true." Sui Ziyu nodded.

Soon, the carriage the two of them were riding in arrived outside the eldest princess's mansion. Lin Caisang got off the carriage himself and called the door.

When the guard guarding the door saw it was her, he quickly ushered the person and carriage in.

"Miss Lin, you haven't been here for a few days. The eldest princess often talks about you." The guard said with a smile as he brought the two people into the house.

Hearing this, Lin Caisang raised her eyes and glanced at him.

"The eldest princess is talking about me, even you can know it." This guard brother is just guarding the gate of the palace. He usually can't even see the eldest princess, so how can he know that the eldest princess is talking about her?

Furthermore, even if the eldest princess lives in seclusion, she is not someone who has nothing to do every day. How could she be talking about her every day?

She knew that these were just words to compliment her.

"hehe."

Sure enough, after hearing Lin Caisang's words, the guard just smiled and said nothing.

...

Soon, Lin Caisang and Sui Ziyou were brought to the place where the eldest princess lived.

Chapter 1103 For the sake of the eldest princess

"Sister-in-law, this courtyard looks like yours. Sui Ziyou has only seen Lin Caisang's house once, and when compared with the courtyard in front of him, it is 67% similar.

Although almost all houses in the countryside are similar, each place has its own customs and customs, and the houses built are also different.

Jian'an City and Ye County are separated by half of the Liang Kingdom. It's strange that they can build similar houses. Moreover, this was seen at night. If it were during the day, the similarities should be even more visible. Bar?

Hearing this, Lin Caisang paused and glanced sideways at Sui Ziyou.

If Sui Zi Youruo hadn't reminded her of this, she really just felt that the courtyard where the eldest princess lived was just a little familiar.

But after hearing what Sui Ziyou said, she carefully looked at the yard in front of her. It seemed that it was very similar to the Lin family's house, but there were also differences.

In any case, the Lin family's house has been renovated by her since she traveled through time, and the yard in front of her is very similar to the Lin family's previous house.

This eldest princess is really an unpredictable person.

She lifted her feet again and followed her grandma inside.

In the study, the eldest princess was lying on the recliner, eyes slightly dozing.

"Aunt Bai, what's wrong with the eldest princess?" She turned to ask Aunt Bai.

"Replying to Miss Lin, Her Royal Highness the Princess was frightened a few days ago, and her mood has been even worse recently. She has even used much less food than usual," said Aunt Bai.

"I am worried about Her Highness the Princess. No, now that Miss Lin is here, I can rest assured. Her Highness the Princess and Miss Lin have a good rapport. I think Her Highness the Princess will also be happy to see Miss Lin."

She thought to herself, it's good that Lin Caisang is here, just let the mother and daughter talk for a while, maybe once the eldest princess is happy, nothing will happen to her.

After listening to Aunt Bai's words, Lin Caisang realized that the servants of the Princess Mansion had not informed the eldest princess about her coming.

No wonder the eldest princess is still asleep.

The people from the eldest princess's mansion were really brave enough to bring her here without even making a report.

"Mommy, although it doesn't suit your status, I have to tell you something." She looked at Aunt Bai.

"Miss Lin, please tell me."

"From now on, anyone who enters the eldest princess's mansion, no matter who they are, must be careful and check carefully." Lin Caisang warned Aunt Bai.

"Old slave understands."

Aunt Bai nodded and glanced at the eldest princess.

"Isn't this Miss Lin? She is different from others."

If it weren't for Lin Caisang's sake, who would have been able to enter the eldest princess's mansion so easily.

"Regardless of whether there is any difference, the people on Qianhuan Continent practice spiritual arts, and they are likely to transform into someone else, or... Aunt Bai, look at me, I am wearing a mask.

Do you only recognize the mask on my face? If someone with evil intentions comes to the door wearing a mask similar to mine, will you also welcome me and bring the person directly to the eldest princess?

For some things, it is better to prevent them as early as possible. Don't wait until something happens and then regret your inability to do things well. By then it will be too late.

My words may not sound nice, but they are all for the sake of the eldest princess. "

She lowered her voice and continued to speak to Aunt Bai.

Chapter 1104 Are you leaving now?

After hearing her words, even Aunt Bai, who had thought it didn't matter before, was frightened into a cold sweat.

Maybe, it is really possible as Lin Caisang said!

"Old slave, I understand, Miss Xie Lin reminded me."

"It would be great if Aunt Bai can understand." Lin Caisang nodded.

"Miss Lin, I'm going to wake up the eldest princess now." Aunt Bai said, and was about to step forward, but at this time, the eldest princess had already opened her eyes.

"No need, I'm already awake."

The eldest princess sat up from the recliner and looked at Aunt Bai.

"Mommy, what Miss Lin said is absolutely true. You should immediately order someone to go down. From now on, the guards at the house must be tighter to prevent those outside from taking advantage of it."

"Yes, princess." Aunt Bai responded and retreated.

"Miss Lin, why are you here? Is there something wrong?"

After Aunt Bai left, the eldest princess waved to Lin Caisang.

"Well."

Lin Caisang was choked by her words.

When she first heard that the eldest princess was almost attacked, she was anxious and wanted to come over and have a look.

But when I finally arrived at the eldest princess's mansion and saw the eldest princess, I found that I didn't know how to explain why she knew that the eldest princess was in danger.

"It's like this. I heard about what happened in Wan County, and after arriving in Wan County yesterday, I met the great prince. I heard about you being in danger from his mouth, so I wanted to come over and see you.

Fortunately, meeting the great prince in Wan County allowed her to find an excuse temporarily.

"That's right." The eldest princess nodded.

Although she knew in her heart, she never sent anyone to Wan County to inform the prince, and the emperor never sent anyone.

But Sangsang knew that something happened to her, and she must have her own power, so she didn't need to interfere. On the contrary, knowing that her daughter was so well-informed, she felt a little relieved.

"Feng'er has always been a filial person. I wonder what happened to him in Wan County?" she asked.

"Eldest princess, don't worry. Everything is fine with the eldest prince in Wan County."

Lin Caisang said to the eldest princess.

"What happened in Wan County was not a disease, but someone deliberately poisoning me. Although I have not yet developed an antidote, I can still protect the lives of the people in Wan County. Seeing that you are fine, I will Don't worry, I'll go back to Wan County tomorrow."

"Are you leaving now?"

The eldest princess asked in surprise.

But looking back, I wonder how many lives are hanging in Anhui County. She has nothing to do here, it is always important over there.

"Then you should be careful. Even if someone poisons you, I'm afraid it will be detrimental to you."

"I will."

Lin Caisang responded.

After talking to the eldest princess for a while and eating with her, Lin Caisang and Sui Ziyu went to rest under the arrangement of Aunt Bai.

...

Jian'an City.

In an elegant villa, black figures shuttled past.

In the bright study room, a middle-aged man wearing silver clothes was sitting behind the desk, and in front of him, there were two people, a man and a woman, standing at the moment.

"Appeared?" He raised his eyebrows and looked at the man among them.

"Yes, Master."

The man responded and looked up at him.

"I just got the news. That girl has just entered the eldest princess's mansion not long ago. She must have just arrived from outside."

"Master, your idea is indeed effective. As long as something happens to the eldest princess, that girl will appear. But come on, the eldest princess is her Achilles heel. We don't have to worry about not catching her."

Chapter 1105 Something is wrong

The woman heard the conversation between the two and spoke proudly and said a few words.

"idiot!"

The man in silver raised his eyes and glanced at her coldly.

"Do you think she really came here for the eldest princess?"

"What's that for?" the woman asked.

The eldest princess was attacked by them, but it only took a few days for the little girl to come over. It can be seen that the eldest princess is very important in front of her.

Could it be that she guessed wrong?

Previously, the second prince of the Liang Kingdom was trapped, didn't the girl also rush over?

Although it can be said that they came and went without a trace, they were here after all. Aren't they all from the Liang royal family? It can be seen that the girl attaches great importance to the Liang royal family.

"She has been treating the poisons and injuries of the eldest princess and the others these days, and she has gained a lot of benefits!" the man in silver reminded.

How can anyone in this world do anything specifically for unrelated people? Everything has a purpose.

As for that girl, he didn't believe that she would really fall in love with the eldest princess at first sight. It was just a relationship of mutual use. He had already seen this clearly.

"Go and prepare immediately. Tomorrow morning, I will make that girl surrender to me." He ordered.

"Master, are you setting up an ambush outside the eldest princess's residence?" the man asked.

"No."

The man in silver raised his hand and rejected his subordinate's proposal.

"It's in the eldest princess's mansion. I want to see if that girl really takes the eldest princess seriously."

Haha, when the time comes, he will let those ignorant people know that any sincere friends are all nonsense, and only use them, and your own life is the most important thing.

"Yes, Master, my subordinates will prepare immediately." The man responded.

Early in the morning, in the eldest princess's mansion.

Because he heard that the girl had entered the eldest princess' mansion and came from Wan County, the emperor took the queen and his wife and they came over in person.

"The Queen?"

Lin Caisang, who was holding a bowl and eating deliciously, raised his head in surprise when he heard Aunt Bai's words and looked at the eldest princess beside him.

"The Queen must be worried about Feng'er's safety. She heard that you came from Wan County, so she wanted to find out what happened." The eldest princess said.

Thinking of this, she couldn't help but feel that her decision was a bit wrong. She should wait until Sang Sang set off before sending someone to the palace to report that he was safe. That way, there would be no need to embarrass Sang Sang.

"If you don't want to see them, I'll ask Aunt Bai to ask the Emperor and the Queen to go back."

She said to Lin Caisang.

Hearing this, Lin Caisang shook his head.

"As a parent, it's understandable to worry about your children. Since I'm here, let's meet them."

She didn't want to embarrass the eldest princess. After all, she was still in the eldest princess's house. If she didn't see the queen, it would always be bad for the eldest princess.

"Aunt Bai, please come over, the Emperor and the Queen." She looked at Aunt Bai and said.

Hearing this, Aunt Bai turned her head and glanced at her Princess.

Seeing her nodding, he leaned over and went to the front yard.

...

After a while, the eldest princess came to the courtyard with Lin Caisang and Sui Ziyou.

Just in time, Aunt Bai came over to welcome the Emperor and the Queen.

"The daughter of the common people has met the emperor and the queen." Lin Caisang leaned over and gave a salute.

"Miss Lin, please excuse yourself." The emperor was very enthusiastic about Lin Caisang.

"I heard that Miss Lin was leaving for Wan County this morning. I didn't want to disturb her, but my queen was really worried about Feng'er from Wan County, so she had no choice but to come early in the morning to disturb Miss Lin."

Chapter 1106 The person who kills you!

"Your Majesty, you're welcome. Everything is well with the eldest prince in Wan County. Before setting off, he asked the girl to bring a message to the emperor to assure him that he was safe.

Lin Caisang said to the emperor.

"Please don't worry about the great prince, the Queen. He will come back when the matter in Anhui County comes to an end."

"In this way, I can feel relieved." The Queen also breathed a sigh of relief.

After all, it was her son, so there was no reason not to worry. Just hearing a message from the eunuch and the maid made her feel even more uneasy.

Now that she heard the girl speak in person, she finally felt at ease.

"Miss Lin, there are working girls in Wan County. Although Feng'er is the eldest prince, but..." She raised her eyes, looked at the emperor, then at the eldest princess, and then continued to look at Lin Caisang.

"He has never gone out alone to do business. I am really worried. I hope Miss Lin can understand my feelings as a mother and not think that I am too annoying."

"What are you talking about, the Queen?" Lin Caisang smiled.

"Brother and sister-in-law, Miss Lin is here in Wan County. She will be fine. It's getting late, so let's ask Miss Lin to set off early." The eldest princess spoke to the emperor and the queen. said.

"Yes, Miss Lin, then..."

"You can't go anywhere!"

Before the Queen had finished her words of promise, she heard a cold voice coming from high up.

Everyone looked up and saw a man in black standing on the wall, staring coldly at Lin Caisang and the eldest princess.

"Leng Qingcheng, do you think she can still leave your eldest princess's mansion safely?"

"who are you?"

The eldest princess narrowed her eyes coldly and dangerously, and without thinking, she protected Lin Caisang behind her.

"Kill your man!"

As soon as the man finished speaking, a burst of spiritual power hit the eldest princess.

Unexpectedly, the eldest princess just waved her hand and returned the spiritual power intact.

"Mother Bai."

She glanced at Aunt Bai beside her.

"Come here, protect me, protect me!" Aunt Bai immediately shouted loudly into the yard.

However.....

A large number of men in black have surrounded the eldest princess's palace. The guards are already fighting with the men in black, and they don't care about it at all.

"Ziyou, protect the Emperor and the Queen."

Seeing this, Lin Caisang glanced at Sui Ziyou and ordered.

Sui Ziyou's body has been conditioned by the Jin Zhu Ling, and he has learned a lot in the space, including kung fu, so he can still protect two people.

"good."

Sui Ziyou responded and took the emperor and the queen aside.

She also saw that these people were coming with force, but they were heading towards her sister-in-law and the eldest princess Leng Qingcheng.

It's just that she doesn't understand how her sister-in-law and the eldest princess can have anything to do with each other. Isn't this the relationship between a patient and a doctor? Are there others?

"I can't tell, Leng Qingcheng, your spiritual arts training has not fallen behind in these years." The man saw that the spiritual power of the princess was not inferior to his. Although his face was a little ugly, he still said to her coldly.

"Thank you for your praise. With people like you here, I dare not slack off at all." The eldest princess said.

"Stop talking nonsense. Today, neither you nor this girl can escape!"

The man had no time to listen to any more nonsense and directly attacked the eldest princess.

Chapter 1107 Leave it to me to deal with

Jian'an City belongs to the Leng family. He can be successful in the eldest princess's mansion for a while, but soon, the patrolling guards on the street will find something unusual in the eldest princess's mansion and lead their troops to attack.

Therefore, he must capture the eldest princess and Lin Caisang before those people attack!

Originally, he had calculated very well and could quickly capture the eldest princess and Lin Caisang. Who knew that the eldest princess Leng Qingcheng's spiritual skills were not inferior to him, or even better than him!

"Come and help."

He shouted to the woman on the other side.

"good."

The woman responded, kicked over the guards who were fighting with her, and flew forward.

"Miss Lin, step aside.

The eldest princess pushed Lin Caisang aside, took out a long self-defense whip that she had not used for many years, and swung it directly at the man.

There was a 'pop' sound.

The man narrowly retreated to the side, and the long whip made a crisp sound when it fell to the ground. The place where the long whip was swept was actually a big gash. When the long whip was swung upwards, it swept up the dust on the ground. .

"ah!"

The woman who had just flown over from the other side was hit diagonally by the whip and was knocked away, letting out a scream.

But here, the man saw this, and when the eldest princess had no time to retract the whip, he quickly stabbed her with the long sword in his hand.

"Ah, Cheng'er, be careful!"

The emperor stood not far away and screamed as a reminder when he saw this.

I was so scared that I broke out in a cold sweat.

"Your Majesty, send the signal, send the signal." The Queen reminded him, clutching the Emperor's sleeve tightly.

The emperor glanced sideways and glanced at his wife speechlessly.

How could he put any flares on his body in such a dignified manner? They were all brought by the eunuch who was with him.

Today, he and the queen came to meet the eldest princess to see Miss Lin. It was impossible to think that there would be danger. They didn't even bring a eunuch with them, let alone a signal bomb.

"Did not bring."

Unexpectedly, the Queen put something directly into the Emperor's hand.

"I've taken it with you."

She did bring it, but as a queen, she wouldn't use it for fun.

On the other side, the eldest princess bent her waist to avoid the fatal attack, but with her spiritual skills, she was unable to deal with two spiritual masters.

In addition, she was poisoned before and was seriously ill. The reason why she was able to block the two people now was because she didn't want her daughter to be hurt and the spiritual power in her body exploded.

After a few moves, she felt a little powerless.

"You go and catch that girl, leave her to me to deal with." The man saw through the eldest princess at a glance and ordered the woman beside him.

"good!"

The woman responded, her bloodthirsty eyes sweeping towards Lin Caisang who was watching the battle.

The next second, she stretched out her hand and flew towards her, intending to knock her out with a palm so that she could be taken back.

"Sangsang, be careful!"

When the eldest princess saw this, she flicked her long whip and got rid of the man's hold.

She wanted to stop the woman, but it was too late. The only thing she could do was to jump directly in front of Lin Caisang and block the wind from the woman's palms.

The woman's palm hit the eldest princess directly on the back.

"Uh... poof!"

The eldest princess hugged Lin Caisang and spat out a mouthful of blood.

"Eldest Princess?!"

Lin Caisang was shocked. He felt as if his heart was being grasped by a big invisible hand. It hurt so much.

His eyes swept over the woman, and then over the man who was flying towards her. He protected the eldest princess with one hand and pointed at the two of them with the other hand.

Chapter 1108 It's a python descending from the sky, run away quickly

"You are looking for death! Sky-falling python, come out!"

The next moment, only a muffled roar was heard, and then everyone felt that the entire ground of the Princess's Mansion was shaking violently. Then, a giant python attacked the man and the woman.

"Sky-falling python, hurry up..."

The woman only had time to say four words. Before the word 'escape' could be said, it had already become the meal of the descending python.

"The python descending from the sky..."

The man's voice was also trembling.

But his reaction was still very quick, he turned around and flew towards the distance.

However, no matter how quick the reaction was, it was not as fast as the python tail of the descending sky python. With a sweep of the python tail, the person who was originally in mid-air was swept directly to the ground.

He flew up and was about to run away again when he saw that the top of his head had become completely black, and the mountain-like python head was already on top of his head.

Those lantern-like eyes were staring at him.

"ah!"

The next moment, the bloody mouth opened towards him. Even if he blocked his eyes, he could not escape from being swallowed by the Skyfall Python.

"The python descending from the sky, it's the python descending from the sky, run away quickly."

The other men in black also saw the mountain-like python descending from the sky. They all felt as if they were facing a formidable enemy. How could they have any fighting spirit?

In the end, they were all taken away by the Skyfall Python, and no one was left.

"Eldest princess, eldest princess?"

Lin Caisang took out a porcelain bottle from his small satchel with trembling hands, poured out a healing pill, and stuffed it into the eldest princess's mouth, but the unconscious eldest princess couldn't swallow it at all.

"Mother Bai, bring some water."

"Oh, old slave, go get it now."

Aunt Bai responded, glanced at the Heaven-falling Python still coiled in front of her eyes, swallowed a sip of saliva, and then hurried to get some water.

Mom, this Miss Lin is so powerful that she doesn't need the protection of Her Highness at all. Fortunately, after the people from Qianhuan Continent appeared, Her Highness the Princess was worried every day that those people would discover Miss Lin's existence.

Thinking about it now, Her Royal Highness's worries are really unnecessary.

After a long time, the eldest princess was carried to the room to lie down, and the python descending to the sky was also taken back by Lin Caisang.

"Miss Lin, if it weren't for you this time, my sister would have been kidnapped by those people." The emperor looked at the pale face of the eldest princess, and he had doubts about Lin Caisang. Full of gratitude.

This Miss Lin is really a great benefactor sent by God to their Leng clan.

"It's also my fault this time. Those people must have come here to catch me, but they have harmed the eldest princess." Lin Caisang looked at the eldest princess on the bed solemnly and said.

The purpose of those people just now was obvious, they came just for her.

"It's not Miss Lin's fault."

When the queen saw what she said, she quickly denied her words.

"It must have been that Miss Lin treated Cheng'er's poison before, which attracted the attention of those people. Those people must have taken a fancy to Miss Lin's medical skills and wanted to take Miss Lin for their own use. That's why today's incident happened. Woolen cloth."

Can they still not understand this?

Who doesn't envy Ms. Lin's medical skills, and who doesn't want to recruit them?

Fortunately, the eldest princess and Miss Lin can chat well, otherwise, even they would be worried that Miss Lin will be used by others in the future and become their enemy.

"The eldest princess is injured. It's not convenient for me to leave today. I'm afraid Wan County and his party will have to be delayed." Lin Caisang thought for a while and said to the emperor.

Chapter 1109 I got it wrong

Now, how could she leave with peace of mind and go to Wan County?

"It's okay. Didn't the girl say that someone in Wan County just poisoned him? It's okay to delay it for a while, just to give Feng'er time to catch the bad guy." The emperor said.

"The eldest princess's side is the most important."

Hearing this, Lin Caisang lowered his head, thought for a moment, and thought nothing more.

Now the eldest princess's side is the most urgent. She must be protected if she is injured by spiritual power, but the eldest prince's side can still take some time off.

Fortunately, neither the Emperor nor the Queen said anything, otherwise, she really wouldn't know what to do.

...

An hour later, Lin Caisang was sitting in the courtyard, watching the people in the princess's mansion busy back and forth.

Because of the python that descended from the sky, although those men in black never came back, the eldest princess's mansion was also badly damaged. Many places could not be repaired and had to be rebuilt.

However, Lin Caisang didn't have the mind to think about this. All she could think of was that when the woman in black hit her, the eldest princess called her name out of desperation.

Sangsang!

This title, which could only be heard from people at home, she actually heard from the eldest princess.

Before, no one paid attention, not even Sui Ziyou, but she did.

At that time, she originally wanted to use poison to deal with the woman in black, and she could estimate that she would be able to dodge the blow. The only thing she didn't expect was that the eldest princess would actually help her block the blow.

However, even if she once saved the eldest princess's life, even if the two of them could talk to each other later.

As the eldest princess, it is impossible for her to personally protect her from harm. What is the reason for this?

She took a deep breath and looked at everything in the yard. It was really very similar to the Lin family before.

Could it be...

"Impossible, I got distracted."

She chuckled and shook her head. How could she connect the eldest princess with their Lin family? This was simply not possible.

She must have been overthinking it, or perhaps the eldest princess had already investigated her identity. After all, she had also talked to the eldest princess about some matters at home before.

With the power of the eldest princess, it is still possible to investigate her identity.

Even so, she had no doubts anymore. She breathed a sigh of relief and looked up, just in time to see Sui Ziyou walking over.

"Ziyou, you came just in time, I just wanted to talk to you."

"Sister-in-law, what's wrong with you? You look so ugly?" Sui Ziyou asked when he saw her expression was different.

"It's nothing. I thought of some messy things, but then I thought it was impossible, so I gave it up." Lin Caisang shook his head and explained.

"I want to check on the situation of the eldest princess. You can go to Zeng's house for me and find out more about the recent affairs of Yuanhua Farm. I have an idea in my mind. It is impossible for people to come here often in Jian'an City."

"Then do you want to bring Old Man Zeng or Zeng Yulang over to answer the question?" Sui Ziyou asked.

Hearing this, Lin Caisang lowered his head and thought for a while.

"Bring Old Man Zeng here."

She just asked Sui Ziyou to explain that there were some problems that she couldn't solve in time, so it would be better to meet the real person.

"Okay, I'll go then." Sui Ziyou nodded, turned around and left.

Chapter 1110 Leaving the eldest princess' mansion temporarily?

"Mother Bai.

Lin Caisang called Aunt Bai over again.

"Miss Lin, what are your orders?" Aunt Bai came over and asked.

"Not many people know about my arrival at the eldest princess's residence," Lin Caisang ordered.

"I hope Aunt Bai will go and find out who leaked the information. With such a person in the eldest princess's mansion, she won't be able to do anything with confidence."

Isn't this the same as putting the enemy under your nose? Who knows if he will stab himself secretly.

"Don't worry, Miss Lin, the old slave has given the order early in the morning." Aunt Bai replied.

There were many carriages coming and going outside the eldest princess's residence, and the carriage Lin Caisang was riding in was extremely ordinary and could not attract anyone's attention.

Before that, they had already confirmed that no one was watching outside the eldest princess's house.

Even so, the person who would reveal Lin Caisang's whereabouts must be in the eldest princess's mansion. She had also suspected that the spy was in the palace before.

But the person who went to the palace to report that he was safe went early this morning. Even if the spy had extraordinary abilities, he would not have been able to spread the news so quickly and send so many people over so quickly.

She knew early on that the eldest princess's mansion was not peaceful, but she didn't expect it to be so unstable.

Not to mention that Lin Caisang would be surprised when she came from outside. Even she, an old man in the eldest princess's mansion, felt too surprised.

...

It was not until evening that the eldest princess finally woke up.

However, after all, he was seriously injured and vomited blood, so it was inevitable that he would lie in bed to recuperate.

"Miss Lin, you are still here."

Seeing Lin Caisang still there, the eldest princess was obviously surprised.

"The eldest princess was hurt because of me, how could I just walk away like this?"

Lin Caisang chuckled, stretched out his hand to help her up, and leaned against her.

"It's good if you wake up. Aunt Bai has already boiled the medicine and drank it while it's hot. She just checked the eldest princess's pulse. You haven't used spiritual magic for many years. If you use it for a while, your body can't bear it. He is injured both internally and externally, so he needs to rest for a while."

At this time, Aunt Bai happened to bring a bowl of medicine and handed it to Lin Caisang.

Lin Caisang took it and fed the eldest princess some medicine.

"I have nothing to do in the house, and it is no different from resting." The eldest princess drank the medicine and replied.

"I'm afraid it's not just these people who come from Qianhuan Continent this time. If they can't succeed, there will be another time." Lin Caisang reminded.

"I think, Princess, your princess mansion is no longer safe. For your own safety, you should take shelter for a while. Perhaps, you should move to a place where no one else can find you."

"You mean, let me leave the eldest princess's mansion temporarily? Ahem." The eldest princess coughed twice and asked.

It's just that Jian'an City is so big, so where is the safe place? Which one is not the place where things went wrong?

The emperor's brother had suggested to her that she live in the palace temporarily?

Haha, that's even more impossible. I'm afraid there are more spies in the palace, waiting to tell those in Qianhuan Continent about her whereabouts.

"right."

Lin Caisang nodded.

"Only take Aunt Bai and a few maids with you. No one else will be brought with you. There is no need to explain your whereabouts to others. In short, the best way is to recover from your injuries first. "

Of course, this is just a suggestion, and it is up to the eldest princess to decide what to do.
