

Star of Space 1161

Chapter 1161 No, please don't

Did he ask the villagers of Xinghua Village to dig up his dead cows, or did he beg them to eat the dead beef? Lao Wang obviously didn't do anything, so why should it be his fault if something happened?

However, how could he say this to these sufferers?

"hehe.

The county magistrate couldn't say these words, but Lin Caisang could.

"Today, I have really seen what it means to catch a thief. In my opinion, your family members don't need to be treated one by one. They deserve to die!"

"What nonsense are you talking about? Where did we go wrong?"

"Why are you so vicious, little girl, that you cursed our entire village? You deserve to die!"

"If it weren't for the fact that you came with the county magistrate, we would have driven you out of the village long ago. Why would you be so arrogant in front of us? If you keep talking nonsense, be careful that the guy in our hands will show no mercy! "

When the villagers heard what she said, every one of them was unhappy and yelled at Lin Caisang.

"Folks!"

The county magistrate was also so angry with them that he didn't know what to say.

"laugh."

Lin Caisang sneered.

"Even so, Lord Magistrate, it seems that my trip here is in vain. I will leave now as if I have never been to this ghost place."

With that said, she was ready to leave.

The tasks he took were from people in Wan County, but the people who were poisoned in Xinghua Village were poisoned later.

She had communicated with Jin Zhuling that these people were not within the scope of her treatment. In other words, even if their families were poisoned, it would not affect the completion of her mission.

"No, please don't."

The county magistrate was frightened when he saw that Lin Caisang was leaving.

"Miss Lin, you can't leave. These poisoned villagers are still counting on you to detoxify them! What will they do if you leave?"

Although these villagers are indeed too ungrateful, after all, they are living human lives. You can't really just say that you won't save them, right?

"Whether they are dead or alive, what does it have to do with me?"

Lin Caisang paused and glanced coldly at those people one by one.

"Did I ask them to dig up the buried dead cow? Or did I ask them to take advantage of the small gains they shouldn't take? Or, it was Lao Wang in this house who beat the gongs and drums to let them go Digging up a dead cow to eat?

Look at the faces of each of them. They did something wrong and were poisoned, but they still want to blame others. How big of a face do they have?

In my opinion, none of these people are afraid of death. Since they are not afraid of death, then let them all die. What else can be saved? Wasting my medicine?

Even though they know it is inedible, they secretly dig it out and eat it. If they have problems with eating it, they start to blame others.

Can any of you tell me that Uncle Wang asked you to dig up his buried dead cows to eat? Or did he dig out the dead cows with a hoe, clean them up, and distribute the meat piece by piece to each of your households for you to eat?

Um? ! "

At the end of her speech, her eyes turned cold and she glared at everyone present.

"You guys are the only ones who have the nerve to come to someone else's house to cause trouble. Uncle Wang didn't sue you to the county government, so that's good enough! You are shameless and skinless people, are you worthy of being human?"

Chapter 1162 I have never seen such a mean person

"Little girl, what are you talking about? We have to pick up and eat the things that Mr. Wang doesn't want. Is this wrong?" A villager shouted to Lin Caisang unconvinced. (audience)

"Since you went to pick up the food yourself, why did you come to Uncle Wang's house to make trouble again?" Lin Caisang asked him.

"What's the matter, do they owe you anything? Fortunately, Uncle Wang buried a cow. If it were a human being, wouldn't you dig it out and eat human dumplings together?"

Hearing the words "human meat dumplings", the prince and others couldn't help but feel their hair stand up.

Miss Lin, please speak more calmly. Who dares to eat human flesh dumplings? Aren't you afraid that ghosts will come looking for you at night?

"It is said that taking things without asking is considered a theft. Does this sentence count in Xinghua Village and Wan County?" Lin Caisang pointed his gaze at the county magistrate and asked coldly.

"Miss Lin..."

The magistrate opened his mouth, but no words came out.

How was he going to end this matter? It is indeed wrong to dig up someone else's dead cow and eat it, but if it is because of putting so many people in jail, to be honest...

The prison in Wan County cannot hold so many people!

"Lao Wang doesn't want that thing. We dig it out and eat it. How can it be stolen? If Lao Wang had said it was poisonous, who would dare to dig it out and eat it?"

Someone spoke up and said.

"It's not Lao Wang's fault, it's because he didn't speak clearly! Who knew that stuff was poisonous?"

"You guys are talking nonsense!"

At this time, Lao Wang and his family who were hiding in the room heard that someone outside finally came to help their family, and finally came out.

"I have told you a long time ago that the cow has entered Wan County and may have been infected with the plague. It cannot be eaten. You have to dig it up and eat it. If something goes wrong after eating it, what does it have to do with our family?"

"The plague in Wan County is fake. Who knew your cow was also poisoned? You didn't tell me earlier!"

"That's right, in my opinion, Lao Wang, you just did it on purpose. You wanted to kill the whole village. You feel so proud. All the fields in the village belong to you."

Several women talked nonsense to Lao Wang again. In short, they just said whatever words were unpleasant and wanted to blame all the mistakes on Lao Wang.

"You... you..."

How could Lao Wang, a man, compete with a woman's chatter? He was immediately speechless.

"Yes, Old Uncle Wang just wants to kill you, so there is no need to save the poisoned people in your family, just wait to see the King of Hell one by one."

Lin Caisang continued what the women had not finished saying.

"I've seen some bullies, but I've never seen such a mean person. Uncle Wang, your poisoned old cow cost five taels of silver, right? Since it was these people who ate the beef, naturally it was I want them to pay for it."

Turning her head, she looked at Lao Wang.

"Miss Lin, you are joking. The county magistrate has already compensated us for this cow." Lao Wang said quickly.

"oh?"

Hearing this, Lin Caisang looked at the county magistrate.

At this time, the county magistrate had finally figured it out. He knew that if he didn't toughen up now, these villagers would only make endless troubles, and he felt that he was the one who had been greatly wronged.

As everyone knows, Lao Wang is the one who is most wronged.

"You people have done something wrong but don't know it is wrong. You are still here doing nothing. Believe it or not, I will arrest you people one by one and put them in jail!"

Chapter 1163 Isn't this a robbery of money?

He stared at the villagers.

"Hurry up and apologize to Lao Wang. If you don't apologize, Miss Lin next to me will not even give you a single antidote!"

"What?!"

Now, the villagers were really anxious.

Without an antidote, the poisoned people in their families would have no choice but to lie down and wait to die!

This is not okay.

"Sir, we..."

"We apologize, sir. I apologize. As long as you give me the antidote and let me save my husband, I will do whatever you ask me to do." A woman spoke first.

Immediately afterwards, many people also started to apologize to Lao Wang.

But how many people would believe those apologies that were forced out?

Not to mention Lin Caisang, even Lao Wang himself did not believe those words of apology. He just looked at the women and sighed quietly in his heart.

To be honest, he was still holding a bad breath in his heart. He had offended someone. Was it because he didn't have a fire to burn the cow?

"OK."

Lin Caisang's lips curled up slightly as she looked at those people.

"As long as you apologize, there will be an antidote. However, my antidote is not brought by the strong wind. It also costs money. Each antidote is ten taels of silver. Give me the silver in one hand and the antidote in the other. If you want it, Come and get them all from here."

"What?!"

When the villagers heard this, they were all furious.

Ten taels of silver, this is worse than a bandit, it's just robbery.

"Lord Magistrate, where do we have so much money? This is not a robbery of money."

"That's right, Lord Magistrate, this cow is not ours, it belongs to Lao Wang. If you want money, just ask him. Why do you ask us for it?"

"Old Wang, you are the cause of this trouble. I don't care. Where are my two patients? You have to pay for them. Otherwise, I will hang myself with a rope in your yard."

Several people immediately started crying to the county magistrate, and some even began to threaten Lao Wang.

"This... Your Majesty, Miss Lin..."

The county magistrate looked at the prince and Lin Caisang with an embarrassed look on his face.

It's really hard to explain rationally to these village women. In their eyes, nothing is as important as money.

"Miss Lin, look at this money, it's not as good as mine..."

"Do you want to hang yourself here? Okay, any of you can come if you want. I'll take out the rope. Even the coffin after death is arranged by me. Who comes first? Huh?!"

Before the eldest prince could say his words of persuasion, Lin Caisang's eyes sharpened and he glanced at those who were about to act rogue.

"Play tricks with me, let's see who can outsmart whom! Actually, I think hanging is too troublesome. I have a kind of poison here. After taking it, you will vomit blood and die immediately. You won't even feel the pain, and you will be dead. .

How about it? You guys don't want to die, why don't you recommend someone to try the effect of my poison? "

"this....."

When the women who took the lead in making trouble saw her saying this, no one dared to speak. They all swallowed their saliva and lowered their heads in fear.

"My family did that pickling thing, dug up the buried dead cows and ate the meat, and they dared to come to the house so carelessly. Where is your shame? They were all kept at home and you didn't bring them out, right?"

Seeing that none of them spoke, Lin Caisang took two steps forward and questioned them sharply.

"Fortunately, the county magistrate has a good temper. If he had a bad temper, he would have arrested you all and thrown you into prison. How dare you make trouble?"

Chapter 1164 My heart is bright

"Then...then Lao Wangtou didn't say that dead cows can't be eaten." Someone whispered in a low voice.

"If the dead cow can be eaten, can I give you an advantage? I won't cut the meat myself and sell it?" Lao Wang pointed at those and asked angrily.

His family just grows some vegetables and sells them to earn a little money. If a good cow dies, can he just bury it? Do you think his money was brought by the strong wind?

"You yourself have done something wrong, and you want to blame it on my family. There is no door! Let me tell you, if you dare to come to my door again to make trouble, I will... I will..."

"Just come to the county government to file a complaint, and I will definitely make the decision for you!" The county magistrate finally said something for Lao Wang.

To say that Lao Wang risked his life by delivering food to Wan County for so many days, he can be regarded as having made a contribution to Wan County. He must protect himself if he can.

"Thank you, Lord Magistrate."

Lao Wang looked at Lin Caisang with a grateful face and thanked the county magistrate.

If Lin Caisang hadn't spoken for him, he would have felt like he couldn't stay in Xinghua Village any longer. He had offended so many people at once. How would he live in the future?

The point is, these people are not the ones he wants to offend. They are seeking death themselves. What can he do?

"None of you are allowed to make trouble again. If you dare to make trouble again, I will arrest you all and punish you with hard labor!" The county magistrate looked at the women with his eyebrows raised.

"Miss Lin, this antidote thing..."

He turned his head and looked at Lin Caisang. The antidote was still going to fall on Lin Caisang.

"Let me see those people first."

Lin Caisang thought for a moment and spoke to him.

Without seeing those people who were poisoned, she naturally couldn't be sure that the poison they were poisoned by was the same as the poison that Zeng Wu had given to the people in Wan County before, so she had to see it first before talking.

"Then I will immediately go and carry a few people over to show the girl." The county magistrate said immediately.

The next moment, he ordered the police to carry him away.

Seeing this, the women were all scrambling to get the police to carry their own people first. After a while, there were a lot of arguments, and they didn't care what others thought.

"call!"

Lin Caisang let out a heavy breath.

"Girl, don't be offended. They are all country women who don't understand anything." The county magistrate heard her sigh and hurriedly explained.

Hearing this, Lin Caisang slightly raised the corners of his lips and chuckled.

These women don't understand anything, they are enlightened.

Otherwise, could they ignore the poisoned person in their own family and go to Uncle Wang's house to make trouble? It's obvious that he just wants to get some benefits here.

For the sake of a little profit, she even ignored the patients at home, she had seen it!

After a while, several men were carried over. Several of them were already in a deep coma, and their faces were as black as if they were painted with ink.

Lin Caisang took out his dagger and slashed a man's arm.

"What are you going to do to my boss?"

When a woman saw this, she screamed and tried to stop him.

Lin Caisang glared at her with stern eyes, and she was immediately frightened so much that her whole body trembled and she took a step back unconsciously.

"My lord, give me the bowl."

She said to the eldest prince, since she didn't bring Sui Ziyu this time, she naturally needed someone else to help her, and among these people, the only one she was most familiar with was the eldest prince.

Chapter 1165 Is it beyond your power?

The eldest prince nodded and immediately handed the bowl in his hand to her hand.

After a while, half a bowl of dark red blood was in the bowl. Lin Caisang took out a silver needle and put it in the bowl. He quickly picked it up and put it between his nose and took a sniff.

"Miss Lin, what's going on?" The eldest prince asked immediately.

"The poison is the original poison, but..."

Lin Caisang paused for a moment, bit his silver teeth, and looked at the great prince.

"Just what?"

The eldest prince hurriedly asked.

It's the original poison, and there's nothing more to it than just using medicine. σm

"As I expected, the poison was in the cow and was buried underground for a few days. It has undergone some changes and is a little different from before. I have to prepare the antidote again."

Lin Caisang said.

"Then...is it difficult to prepare the antidote?" the great prince asked.

There are so many people waiting. If the antidote can't be prepared soon, I'm afraid those people's lives will be at stake.

He was actually very anxious, but seeing these people who had obviously done something wrong but looked like they were just country people who didn't understand anything and could be forgiven for whatever they did, he couldn't say anything to urge Lin Caisang. Come on.

"Give me a day, but... the cost of an antidote is indeed a bit high. I'm afraid the county government in Wan County will bleed some." Lin Caisang looked at the county magistrate.

"Well."

The magistrate choked at her words.

These days, Wan County's warehouses are almost emptied. Any more blood will just make them emptier. It's no big deal.

"Miss Lin, please tell me what medicinal materials are needed, and I will order someone to prepare them right now," he said.

"I don't know yet, I'll have to look again."

Lin Caisang said to the county magistrate that she was telling the truth. The poison had mutated and she needed to see what medicinal materials were needed now.

The reason why she thinks the cost of antidote is higher is just because the cost of the original antidote is already very high, and now with the addition of mutations, more medicinal materials are required. Of course, it is impossible to reduce the cost.

"Then, Miss Lin, I'll leave you to worry about the matter in Xinghua Village." The county magistrate said.

"Um."

Lin Caisang nodded.

"I will detoxify the poisoned villagers, but..."

Her eyes swept over the women who had stopped talking one by one, and looked at the magistrate again.

"Your Excellency, County Magistrate, please forgive me for speaking bluntly. Without rules, there will be no rule. The people in Xinghua Village even dare to dig up and eat cows that have died inexplicably. What kind of things may happen in the future.

I feel that for these people, even if they are detoxified, they should not let them go easily. "

she said.

"What Miss Lin means is..."

The magistrate glanced sideways at the prince and saw that he didn't say anything. He could only look at Lin Caisang and asked bravely.

This is really in line with that sentence, the people of Xinghua Village are pitiful people who must be hateful!

"Since the villagers in this village are poaching dead cows and making trouble, they must have a lot of strength. It's better to let them do more work. After this incident in Wan County, there must be something very serious. Naturally, someone has to do all the moving and lifting things that need to be done.

Mr. County Magistrate, those people in your county government office are probably beyond their capabilities, right? "

She suggested meaningfully.

Chapter 1166 News about Brother Mo Lian

"Yes, yes, everything will be done according to Miss Lin's wishes. The county magistrate responded.

"That's good."

When Lin Caisang saw the county magistrate nodding, his lips curled up slightly.

"Your Majesty, I'm going to see how to cure this poison. You and the magistrate will wait here."

Turning her head, she glanced at the great prince, then strode to her carriage, got on her carriage, and drove away.

In the golden bead space.

Looking at the poison in the bowl, compared with the previous poison, it is indeed a little more difficult to cure.

But after being punished by the Golden Pearl Space once and learning a lot of poison techniques, it was no longer a difficult disease for her. Soon, she found a cure.

"Brother Yujing, tell me, why has it been so long and there is still no news from Brother Mo Lian?"

Compared with the people in Xinghua Village, what she was more concerned about was why, after so long, there was still no news from her brother Molian?

The Chinese New Year is almost here. Is it because he is very busy?

However, you can't be so busy that you don't even have time to write a letter, right? If it really comes to that point, Brother Mo Lian may not even have time to sleep.

"Please help me see if there are any tasks in Shaohua City?" she asked Yu Jing.

'Dear master, there are no tasks for Shaohua City at the moment. Two lines of characters were displayed in the jade mirror.

"Why."

Lin Caisang sighed heavily.

This is really inconvenient. I really want to be with Brother Mo Lian every day.

But this won't work. If she follows Brother Mo Lian every day, grandpa and grandma won't talk about her to death. What's more, Brother Mo Lian won't allow it.

"Otherwise, Brother Yujing, just like this time, it's okay to accept a mission from the county government near Shaohua City." She suggested.

'Master, your high-level mission has not been completed yet, and you cannot receive other missions. What's more, the Golden Pearl Order is a mission extracted based on your current ability. Some missions that do not protect you will not appear in the Golden Pearl Space. '

Densely written characters appeared in the jade mirror.

Lin Caisang: "..."

Why do you say it so tactfully? Just say that she is not capable enough now and can't take on a high-level task. Isn't that all? !

"What should I do? If I want to go to Shaohua City, how should I go?" she asked.

'Go on foot, or on horseback, or in a sedan, or in a carriage. 'Brother Yu Jing gave her some suggestions.

Seeing those words, Lin Caisang couldn't help but roll his eyes.

However, for now, these are really the only ways to reach Shaohua City. How many people can, like her, directly receive a mission and reach such a far place?

In fact, she has taken the biggest shortcut, and she should be happy.

But there was no news about her brother Mo Lian, and she was really anxious. She wished she could put a pair of wings on her body and fly directly to Shaohua City.

"Phew, it would be great if there were cars and airplanes!"

She sighed and said.

"Forget it, I'd better finish this task quickly so that I can go home and celebrate the New Year with peace of mind."

After a long time, she picked up the prescription she had written before, turned around and left the Jinzhu space, ready to go back to Xinghua Village.

Not long after, Lin Caisang drove the carriage back to Xinghua Village again.

"Lord County Magistrate, please send someone to capture all the medicinal materials in this prescription. If there are a few poisoned people in the village, grab a few sets of medicine. In addition, if you can, prepare a few more sets in case of emergencies. Need it."

Chapter 1167 That's poisonous beef

"Okay, okay, I'll take care of it now."

The magistrate looked at the prescription in his hand, and everyone could see the excitement on his face.

He quickly turned around and told the people next to him to grab medicine.

"Miss Lin, is there anything else?"

After explaining the matter of taking medicine, he turned around and looked at Lin Caisang, only to see her talking to the prince.

"Is that so? Okay, I'll let someone do it." The prince lowered his voice, and after saying that, he secretly ordered the people around him to do something.

"My Lord County Magistrate, please call all the people in the village who have been poisoned. No one is allowed to be left behind." Lin Caisang looked at the County Magistrate and ordered.

"this....."

The county magistrate couldn't help but be puzzled when he heard her words.

Why should everyone be gathered here and no one should be left behind?

"Miss Lin, what are you..."

"I discovered that this poisonous beef may not need to be eaten. As long as you touch it with your hands, you will be poisoned. However, the poisoning is slower and will not be discovered for a while. Therefore, I want everyone to come here and line up. I will give them all checked for pulse."

Lin Caisang explained.

"That's right, that's easy to handle."

The county magistrate understood and immediately sent people to gather everyone in the village who might have encountered Niunai here.

As for the folks in Xinghua Village, when they heard that free pulse diagnosis was available, all of them, regardless of whether they were eating beef or not, gathered in front of Lao Wang's house, waiting to have their pulse checked by Lin Caisang.

Lin Caisang looked at those people without saying anything. She moved a table and a stool from Lao Wang's house and started to have people line up while she checked their pulse.

After a long time...

‘Pah, pah!’

The sound of two heavy objects falling to the ground rang out not far away.

Everyone was waiting for Lin Caisang to diagnose their pulse, but when they heard the sound, they all looked over there.

The next moment, a group of people panicked and hid on the other side to avoid the two piles of bright red meat.

"Poisoned beef, that's poisoned beef. Hasn't it been burned? Why is it still there?" Some villagers screamed when they saw the meat, which made everyone's hair stand on end.

I saw a guard coming to the side of the great prince and reporting respectfully.

"Your Majesty, my subordinates followed your instructions and searched all the houses in Xinghua Village one by one. Sure enough, they saw these beef in the yard of a house in the west of the village. When my subordinates saw it, they saw that the beef was cut into pieces. The beef slices were dried on a drying pad, seemingly ready to be dried for other uses."

"What?!"

Before the eldest prince could say anything, the county magistrate suddenly screamed out in surprise when he heard the guard's words.

He's such a bastard, he can get poisoned after eating a few mouthfuls of beef, and he's unconscious. Yet someone dares to expose the poisonous beef. What is he trying to do?

"Your Majesty, look at this..."

His heart was so frightened that there was still such a thing in Xinghua Village?

"It's not my place for me to interfere in this matter. Magistrate Jin, you can handle it yourself." The eldest prince said coldly to the magistrate.

If Lin Caisang hadn't been cautious and asked him to send people to search around, he wouldn't have known that there was such a big hidden danger in Xinghua Village.

If such a large amount of poisoned beef is really taken away by someone who is interested, who knows what kind of dirty things it will be used for?

Chapter 1168 Who can believe this?

"It's just that this matter is very bad. Magistrate Jin, I hope you will deal with it seriously!"

"Yes, yes, I will obey your order.

The county magistrate responded repeatedly, raised his hand to wipe the cold sweat on his forehead, turned his head and looked at the group of villagers.

"Where is the patriarch of Xinghua Village? Get out of here!"

"The villain is here."

An old man over fifty years old walked out of the crowd and hunched over to the side of the county magistrate.

"Who is that family in the west of the village?" the county magistrate asked.

"this....."

The patriarch choked when he heard the magistrate's question.

"Sir, I know, I know, that is the patriarch's house. When I came here just now, I happened to see the patriarch closing the gate of the courtyard, and he was drying things in his house. I was surprised just now, why was the patriarch posting such things? Red, like the red maple leaves on the mountain."

Just when the patriarch didn't know how to explain, a villager rushed out and said hurriedly to Magistrate Jin.

Hearing this, Magistrate Jin glanced at the clan leader with sharp eyes.

The clan leader was immediately frightened and fell to his knees with a 'plop' sound.

"Sir, please forgive me. I didn't mean it. I just..."

"Just what?"

Magistrate Jin stared at the clan leader coldly and asked.

"Knowing that the beef is poisonous, you still expose it to the sun. Chief, what do you want to do? Harm others? Who do you want to harm? Huh?"

"Sir, the villain was wronged. The villain was really wronged. Those meats... the villain just couldn't bear to throw them away. He thought that after drying them in the sun, the poison would be gone."

The patriarch was so frightened that his whole body was trembling and he kept shouting injustice.

"laugh."

Who can believe this?

Who among the people present is stupid enough to believe the clan leader's obvious shirk of responsibility?

If all the poisons can disappear just by exposing them to the sun, why would you need antidotes? You can save a lot of money.

"With so much beef, it's possible to poison the entire Liang Kingdom, right?" Lin Caisang walked up to the beef and said quietly.

"Miss Lin, is this...not serious?" The guard looked at her and felt that she was exaggerating.

Just such a small amount of beef, if dried in the sun, how many people can one person eat in one bite?

However, when Lin Caisang heard what he said, he raised his eyes and glanced at him lightly, "Where do you think this poisonous beef came from? Zeng Wuzuo just poisoned the cow a little."

she said.

This poison can be transmitted to ten or a hundred, and it has absolute lethality.

Isn't that enough to alert them?

"What Miss Lin means is...hiss!"

Several guards couldn't help but gasp. This thing looked inconspicuous, but it was really terrifying.

"Go to the village and search again to make sure there is no poisoned beef!"

Lin Caisang took the white fox out of the golden bead space and stuffed it into the guard's arms.

"Bring it with you. No matter where the poisoned beef is hidden, it can be found. No corner is spared. It is best to search the nearby mountains. Since this person can hide this, he must be able to hide more. More must be guarded against."

"Yes, Miss Lin."

After the guard glanced at his prince, he responded and took the people back.

On the other side, the clan leader who was kneeling next to Magistrate Jin saw that the guards were leaving again. His pupils shrank suddenly. He swallowed and looked at Magistrate Jin.

"Lord Magistrate, there are no more, there really are no more, there are only these... ah!"

Chapter 1169 It's really not peaceful!

Before he could finish his words, he was kicked over by Lin Caisang, who was walking over in a hurry, and he fell to the ground with his arms stretched out.

"Well."

The next moment, Lin Caisang walked over and stepped on the patriarch's chest, making him grin.

"The old immortal has been caught red-handed, and he still won't tell the truth. You two come here and stuff this poison into his mouth. I want to see how long he can keep his stubbornness!"

The two detectives were nodded by Lin Caisang and immediately stepped forward. Without hesitation, one opened the clan leader's mouth and the other stuffed the poison into the clan leader's mouth.

"Ah, no, I don't want to eat. What are you giving me to eat? Someone is here to kill someone. You guys...ah!"

The clan leader was forced to swallow the poison and shouted loudly in fear. Unfortunately, no one sympathized with him when he asked for help. Some people even stared at him with resentful eyes.

In fact, one of the detectives slapped him in the face when he yelled loudly.

"If you want to die, just scold me."

Lin Caisang took back the foot that was on his chest, turned around, walked two steps away, and looked at him quietly.

After a while, the clan leader began to feel excruciating pain in his body. The pain made him roll on the ground, howling and rolling in an attempt to ask for help.

"help me....."

"Hmph, you deserve it!"

How could the villagers sympathize with him? They looked at him coldly.

Who knows if he kept the poisoned beef because he wanted to use it to deal with the people in the village?

"Sir, the common woman has something to say." A woman came out.

"explain."

Magistrate Jin looked at her and nodded.

"Sir, that night, the head of my family was sleeping soundly at home. He was woken up by the clan leader. They thought I was asleep, but I saw it really. It was the clan leader who called my family leader out to dig out the poisonous cow. Go."

The woman pointed at the clan leader bitterly and said to everyone.

"And I, sir, although the folk woman did not see the patriarch's person, she heard the voice. That was the patriarch's voice. It is absolutely correct." Another woman also stood up and echoed the previous one's words.

"Ah."

Hearing this, Lin Caisang glanced at the Grand Prince and County Magistrate Jin and sneered.

"It seems that this Wan County is really not peaceful! Why don't you tell me? Clan leader.

You know, my poison is not like the poisoned beef. You can still survive after being poisoned for a long time. My poison will be poisonous a quarter of an hour after being poisoned. The pain will be unbearable all over the body. After two quarters of an hour, the hands and feet will begin to fester, and then the face. Then to the entrails.

Patriarch, if you don't tell the truth, it will be too late. "

The clan leader was covered in cold sweat. He couldn't tell whether he was frightened or in pain. He raised his head and looked at Lin Caisang.

"I said, I said, give me the antidote, the antidote."

"Of course there is an antidote. As long as you tell the truth, I will give you the antidote immediately." Lin Caisang reached out and touched his small satchel, took out a porcelain bottle and put it in the palm of his hand. , raised in front of the clan leader.

Seeing this, the clan leader wanted to reach out and grab it, but he couldn't.

"A few nights ago, a man in black found me, gave me a thousand taels of silver, and asked me to find someone to dig out the cattle that Lao Wang had buried. He told me to dry the beef. He will come and get it when the time comes.

I...I really didn't know that those villagers would secretly take beef home. I obviously gave them money and just asked them to do a favor. "

Chapter 1170 A fire must be lit

How could he have imagined that what was originally a good job of just earning a thousand taels of silver would become like this? If he had known it, no matter how much money he was given, he would not do such a thing.

Doesn't this cost his life?

No, that's not right. If he had known this earlier, he wouldn't have let the people in the village dig up the cow no matter what he said. At worst, he would be tired and dig slowly!

"You said someone gave you money and asked you to dig it? Who was it?" The great prince came over and asked.

"I...I don't know. He was...covering his face with a black cloth. I just heard his voice and knew it was a man." The clan leader endured the pain and replied.

"lie!"

The great prince shouted sharply.

He raised his foot and stepped on the clan leader's belly.

"After being caught and exposed, you still dare to lie. If that person has the ability to find you, will he not have the ability to dig up the dead cow himself? Is there any need to give you money to let you dig it? Do you think we are all the same? Is it easy to coax?"

he questioned.

"Really, it's true."

The patriarch didn't believe any of them when he saw them, especially since he was in terrible pain, and he almost wanted to die.

"He asked me where the dead cow was buried, but I didn't tell him, so he... gave me one thousand taels of silver and asked me to dig it out," he said.

"hehe.

Lin Caisang sneered twice.

"Clan leader, let me remind you that your hands and feet will start to fester in half an hour. Are you sure you want to continue making up the story without regrets?"

This kind of nonsense might be able to deceive the people in the village, but as for them, she could only laugh.

"Otherwise."

She knelt down and raised an eyebrow at the clan leader.

"Anyway, our people will definitely find all the poisoned beef. There is no need to ask you. We will just throw you into the mountains to fend for yourself. What do you think of my idea? Is it good?"

she asked the clan leader.

"no, do not want."

The patriarch endured the pain and shook his head repeatedly.

"I said, to be honest, someone found me late at night a few days ago, gave me a thousand taels of silver, and asked me to...let me lead someone to dig out the dead cow while it was dark.

The man said...what did he say? The dead cow couldn't be buried like this. When the corpse of the dead cow came out, it would probably harm the whole village. It had to be burned. "

"What did you say?"

When the eldest prince heard what he said, he stepped hard on his stomach.

This old guy, knowing full well that the dead cow would kill the whole village, took a thousand taels of silver from him, but refused to do anything for him, and was even going to dry the poisoned beef. What was he trying to do?

"ah!"

The clan leader screamed, but no one sympathized with him.

"Spare your life, spare your life. I know I was wrong. I shouldn't have been greedy for money and dried the dead cow. I just thought that the man said he would come to see the situation in a few days, so I thought he could give me a thousand taels. Silver, he must be a rich man, he just wants to get some more silver.

I really didn't mean it. Please spare me. I never dare to do it again, never again. "

"The human heart is weak and snakes are greedy for elephants!" Lin Caisang spat out seven words coldly.

They gave the clan leader a thousand taels of silver and asked him to dig out the poisonous cow and set it on fire.

And that person said that he would come back to see the situation. This sentence was most likely just to urge the clan leader to take his money and do something good for him.

It became an excuse for the clan leader to have evil plans and want more money, and he also caused so many people to be infected with strange poisons!
