

Chapter 13 I will be bullied to death by the Zhou family

"Sang Sang, the Zhou family is here, why don't you go and greet them? Why are you here?"

Lin Laojie had heard the voices of Master Zhou and the others a long time ago, but he had no feeling in his legs. He didn't know how to get out if he wanted to go out for a look.

"Grandpa, I'll grind it for you. You should hurry up and write the divorce papers, otherwise, we will be bullied to death by the Zhou family." Lin Caisang took the little thing that Lin Laogong usually used to eat. The table was placed on the bed in front of him.

Then spread the paper out and start grinding the ink.

"This... Sangsang, what do you mean?"

Lin Laogong was a little puzzled as to why Duan Duan was about to write a divorce document. There was no rush at this moment. His wife had already...

Suddenly, he narrowed his eyes sharply and figured out the meaning of Lin Caisang's words, and his face suddenly turned livid.

"Are they here to cancel the engagement?!"

He was just thinking about why Old Master Zhou and his family came to the door so well. It turned out that they were here to cancel the engagement!

"Then why are you here? You haven't seen Mrs. Zhou's face when she saw me. She wanted to strangle me to death. Could it be that they are still here to visit me?"

Lin Caisang shrugged and said.

"Grandma, please write it quickly. I will give it to grandma later."

"good."

Lin Laogong, Lin Caisang's granddaughter, always felt that whatever he said was right, even if he felt a little suspicious now, he didn't think too much, just picked up the pen and started writing the divorce document.

When Lin Caisang took the divorce papers and left the room, it took him a while to remember that the reason why the Zhou family came to divorce was because they had heard about what happened yesterday. Doesn't that mean that they were ignored?

If his family takes out the divorce papers, wouldn't the Zhou family be in chaos?

...

Sure enough, when Mrs. Lin Lu returned home and placed the divorce document that Lin Caisang had given her in front of Mrs. Zhou, the Zhou family immediately rioted, and Mrs. Zhou was even more angry. She was so angry that she rushed forward to follow her. Lin Lushi started to struggle.

Fortunately, Lin Caisang was not a vegetarian. With just one flick of that fat body, Mrs. Zhou was ejected all the way away.

"Don't make any noise."

Master Zhou raised his withered hand to stop everyone's roar, and looked at Lin Lu with cold eyes.

"Sister Lu, what do you mean?"

"Don't you understand what it means, Brother Zhou? You must have heard about what happened yesterday. My Sangsang was framed for no reason. You should know why, right? My Sangsang is really unworthy. A big shot like Mr. Zhou."

Mrs. Lin Lu snorted coldly and glanced at the divorce document on the table.

"So, it's better to call off this marriage. It just so happens that you come to visit Sangsang, and it saves me an old man from having to go to the county again."

She was not polite to Master Zhou at all. When they were in the yard, Lin Caisang had already made clear to Master Zhou and the others the purpose of their visit. In addition, she was reminded of Zhou Liang by Lin Laojie tomorrow. role in this incident.

At this moment, she had no good impression of the Zhou family at all.

"you--"

Master Zhou is such a smart person. How could he not have imagined that what happened yesterday would lead to an ongoing relationship with his grandson.

Otherwise, how could he have learned about Lin Caisang's death and the death of Mr. Chen's son so quickly? It was also what Zhou Liang told him, but this was always the truth.

Although he blamed his grandson for being reckless, he still felt that he had to back off from this marriage.

