

Star of Space 130

Chapter 130 You are really good!

But how could he hide from Qingxian? How could he not know the virtues of that woman Liu Rumei? If she was pushed into a hurry, she could really do anything.

In order to prevent his future from being ruined, he had to secretly go to Liu Yushui and ask her to persuade Liu Rumei not to make things too serious.

As for how to solve this matter, he really didn't think of a better way.

"Boss, are our things ready?" After Lin Changfeng and Liu Yushui finished speaking, they ignored them and turned to ask the boss.

"OK OK."

The boss had already been busy with his own business after Zhou Liang and the others came in. He had met Zhou Liang a few times, and his impression was not very good. Although he was not an unlearned person, he was not a person either. He was a talented scholar. He wondered how such a person could pass the examination.

But there was a grandfather who was a master, and he couldn't afford to offend him, so he hid.

Now after hearing Lin Changfeng's words, he quickly came over with the things he had already packed.

"This is what you want, this money..."

"Brother Changfeng, take your things and I'll go over and pay." Lin Caisang said and followed the boss to the counter.

"Tsk, you bought so much paper, are you really getting rich? Cousin Changfeng, you didn't sell it to cousin Sang Sang, did you? Haha. Liu Yushui looked at Lin Caisang's eyes full of jealousy. Looking back, he said coolly.

Let them talk about me, do you think you are the only one who has a mouth? Who can compare to me when it comes to causing trouble over nothing?

snort!

"you--"

Lin Changfeng was told by her words. He raised his hand to greet Liu Yushui's face, but a big hand blocked his wrist. He turned his head angrily and looked at the person who stopped him. Cliff Molian.

"Brother Mo Lian..."

"Changfeng, you are a scholar. You must not lose etiquette on any occasion. A gentleman talks but never takes action." Ya Molian warned him lightly, which was also a reminder.

Hearing this, Lin Changfeng was almost so frightened that he broke into a cold sweat and glared at Liu Yushui viciously.

This woman was simply a black heart. She wanted to set a trap for Sangsang when he was not with him. If he hit her at this time, she would definitely make it known to the world with her sharp tongue.

There is also a chance that she will take him to the academy.

Liu Yushui is now pregnant with Liujia. If he hits her now, the slightest thing that happens may be blamed on him. Then everyone will really yell at him as a talented scholar.

"Liu Yushui, you are really good!"

He gritted his teeth, stared at Liu Yushui, and put down his hand angrily.

Liu Yushui gritted his teeth, with pity hidden in his eyes, and glanced at Ya Molian secretly.

She was prepared because Lin Changfeng was an easily angered man, especially when it came to Lin Caisang's matter. He couldn't tolerate Lin Caisang's slightest loss, so she took advantage of Lin Caisang to leave. Such denigration of her.

I was sure that Lin Changfeng would definitely do something to her for Lin Caisang. There were so many people watching in the bookstore. If anything happened to her, it would be Lin Changfeng's fault.

His reputation is ruined, even if he goes to take the examination, he will definitely be tired of his reputation!

Who knew that she had missed out on Ya Mo Lian? This man was really a hindrance!

It was he who pulled her and Zhou Liang out of the bamboo forest last time, causing her image to plummet in the hearts of the Zhou family. This time it was him who ruined her good deeds again!
