Chapter 1301 A once-in-a-lifetime confused emperor

He really didn't want to take this risk!

"Queen mother..."

"There's nothing wrong with it. Is it possible that she, a medical woman, still wants to resist the order?"
The Queen Mother interrupted him and said.

"Mother!"

The emperor looked at her and gritted his teeth.

"Although what the Queen Mother said is true, Miss Lin, as a medical woman, will definitely not dare to resist the decree, but she is now living in Prince Mo's Mansion. If the evildoer Sui Zi Mo wants to resist the decree, he will always find a way."

The key is, there is Sui Zimo in the middle, and that boy is very evil.

"Sui Zimo? The Ai family has their own way of dealing with him.

The Queen Mother did not take it seriously and shook her head at the emperor.

Even if Sui Zimo had his origins, he was still just a prince. As a grandmother, she personally ordered Miss Lin to enter the palace. Could he not allow her to do so?

Could it be that he wanted to end up being cold-blooded and ruthless, and that he really wanted to become a lone star in the sky?

"Just wait. This time, the Ai family has to cut off Sui Zimo's arm! What a rebellion!" she said.

"Queen mother..."

The emperor opened his mouth, but said nothing more.

Although he felt in his heart that the Queen Mother at this moment had changed into the person he was before, and he urgently needed someone to vent his resentment, but he still wanted to give it a try.

Maybe, Miss Lin can really be announced to the palace?

By then, he will be nicer and more considerate to Lin Caisang. He is just a little girl. How can he have the perseverance to resist the huge temptation of this palace?

"Everything is up to the mother. 69shux.Com"

"Um."

The Queen Mother nodded with satisfaction.

After talking to the emperor for a few more words, he took the old woman and others and left.

...

"How about it, isn't this show good?"

On the roof, two people were squatting there, listening to the words of the scheming people below.

"If there's anything good to see, it's all expected." Lin Caisang curled his lips and said.

The emperor is ill. Doesn't this give them an opportunity to bring her into the palace? Besides, this is a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity. Can you not reach out and seize it?

"However, this emperor really impressed me."

For this emperor, she could only say "hehe". He was really a confused emperor that was rare in the ages.

Even though she knew that something couldn't be done, she still let the Queen Mother issue that decree. Is her life really that unimportant?

Or did he really think that with his position as emperor, he could make her bewildered? He really overestimated himself, it was unprecedented and unprecedented!

"He has always been like this. He has never been far-sighted." Sui Zimo said.

The emperor was able to reach this day in Weiguo only because of the ability of the Queen Mother. If the emperor alone could sit on the throne of Weiguo's emperor? He had been quartered into pieces!

"Even if it doesn't look good here, I'll take you to other places to see." He said.

"Um?"

Lin Caisang raised his eyebrows and looked at him in confusion.

Is it possible that there are many more dramas in this palace, not just the emperor's family?

But what will happen elsewhere? In the Queen's Palace?

"Didn't I want to provoke a fight between the Queen and Concubine Lian before? I didn't see any movement after that, but what's wrong?" she asked.

"This matter was suppressed by the Queen Mother." Suizi Mo said.

The queen summoned Concubine Lian into her palace and attacked her several times, but because Concubine Lian was the emperor's concubine after all, she could not be killed just by asking.

Chapter 1302 Look down yourself

Even if the Empress had this intention, the capable people around her would try to persuade her. Therefore, Concubine Lian had not been harmed so far, and later she was suppressed by the Empress Dowager.

Until now, the emperor rarely went to the queen's palace. This was not the result he had expected.

He had underestimated the Queen Mother's ability. She was able to suppress the Queen like this. Recently, she had not even sent anyone to see Concubine Lian, let alone summoned Concubine Lian to the main palace.

"This doesn't look like the queen's palace, does it?"

Looking at the bright palace under his nose, Lin Caisang raised his doubts.

"In Concubine Lian's palace."

Sui Zimo replied.

"Concubine Lian?"

Lin Caisang frowned and looked sideways at Sui Zimo.

"Concubine Lian has been acting like a monster again recently? Does she want to kill you, or does she want to kill the emperor and help her own son take the throne?"

She asked him aloud with a toothy smile on her lips.

Now is a good time. King Lin has been demoted, and Concubine Lian must have thought that Sui Zimo's 'son' didn't realize that she was not his biological mother. She would definitely want to use Sui Zimo to promote her son to the throne!

"She doesn't have such ability yet." Sui Zimo chuckled.

Concubine Lian thought so, but did she have the ability?

The state affairs of Weiguó are not decided by the emperor alone. There is also a queen mother who is firmly in the harem!

Even if the emperor is gone, which prince can ascend the throne and become the new emperor has to be decided by the Queen Mother, and it is not her turn as a little concubine to make the decision.

Therefore, the last thing Concubine Lian will do right now is to go against the emperor.

"Then why did you bring me here? There's nothing good to watch." Lin Caisang curled his red lips and said angrily.

"Look down yourself."

Sui Zimo stretched out his hand and sucked it with his inner strength. A hole was opened on the top of the originally intact palace, but there was no sound at all around him.

Lin Caisang looked down and saw that in addition to a gorgeously dressed woman, there was also a young man in the palace.

"Sui Zijin, it's so late, why is he still in the palace?"

When Suizi was promoted to adulthood, he was already named King of Jin. After being granted a palace, he naturally had to go out and live on his own. How could he still appear in Concubine Lian's palace so late at night?

At this moment, Concubine Lian didn't look like she was sick. She could allow Sui Zijin's son to stay and take care of her illness.

"Of course he has his own ability and can enter this palace." Sui Zimo said calmly.

Just like them, don't they want to come in to this heavily guarded palace?

Of course, Sui Zijin doesn't have that much ability. The only thing he has is that he has a lot of money and can bribe some people in the palace. Naturally, getting into the palace will not be a problem.

"What are they plotting?" Lin Caisang asked.

In the palace, Sui Zijin had just arrived, and then he saw Concubine Lian coming out, and the two of them sat down.

"Concubine Mother, why didn't you keep Suizi Mo when he entered the palace yesterday?" Suizi Jin saw Concubine Lian sitting down and asked aloud, with a hint of reproach in his words.

"Do you think Concubine Mother doesn't want to? Sui Zimo was taken away by the Queen Mother's people. Can Concubine Mother snatch someone from the Queen Mother?" Concubine Lian said helplessly.

She really wanted to see the son she got so cheaply. She managed to trample King Lin to death just to help her son show off his abilities in Shaohua City and conquer the ministers.

Chapter 1303 You don't understand!

She thought that as long as she could explain something to Sui Zimo and let him help Jin'er, this matter would definitely be possible.

But she had calculated everything, but she hadn't calculated that she wouldn't even be able to see Sui Zimo's face!

"It's been so long since Sui Zi Mo has returned to Shaohua City. Concubine, when can you see him? I really can't wait any longer for my affairs." Sui Zijin said again.

"After all, King Lin was demoted, the Queen was hated by the father, and mother and concubine, we can't give them a chance to breathe. If King Lin returns to Shaohua City, he will definitely take revenge on us, mother and son!"

After hearing her son's words, Concubine Lian gritted her teeth.

Of course she knew this very well and didn't need her son to remind her.

"I don't know which bastard it was, but it was revealed that I and you were teaming up to deal with King Lin. You deserve to die!"

"Does this need to be said?"

Sui Zijin gave his mother and concubine an idiot look.

"Who else besides Sui Zimo? It is absolutely impossible for the Emperor and the Queen Mother to do this. I was also born in the royal family. Besides, who else in this big Shaohua City can match my ability? Woolen cloth?"

"Sui Zimo?"

Concubine Lian was a little confused and gritted her teeth.

"Could it really be him? Could it be that he has guessed that it was me who poisoned him in the first place?"

If that was the case, then Zimo had returned to Shaohua City for so many days, but she had never been seen, so he would have found the reason.

"It must be him."

Sui Zijin said with great certainty.

"Concubine, I think Sui Zimo is even worse than Sui Zilin. If you can summon him to the palace next time, you can just kill him with a dose of medicine!"

"nonsense!"

After hearing his words, Concubine Lian immediately gave a sharp shout.

"Jin'er, what nonsense are you talking about? If Sui Zimo dies, who will kill Sui Zilin for us?"

She also pointed out that Sui Zimo could send someone to kill Sui Zilin, so that no one would suspect her and Jin'er, and the queen would not be able to find fault with her.

And her Jin'er no longer has to worry about coming back at the end of the year and seizing everything that already belongs to Jin'er.

"Jin'er, you have to listen to your mother and concubine. Now is not the time to kill Sui Zimo. We still need to use him to eradicate those unsightly things! If he dies, who will clear the way for you? Big obstacle?"

She persuaded Sui Zijin with earnest words.

"Concubine, didn't you always want to kill Sui Zimo before? Why now..."

Sui Zijin frowned and looked at Concubine Lian.

Isn't it his mother-in-law who kept saying she wanted to kill Sui Zimo before? He also cooperated with his father to drug Sui Zimo, wishing that Sui Zimo would die early and be born early. Are these just his illusions?

"The past was the past, and the present is the present. They are not the same thing!" Concubine Lian said.

"In the past, Sui Zimo had no influence at all in Shaohua City. He was naturally like an ant, letting us manipulate him. But what is different now is that Sui Zimo has united with Suyang, and his power cannot be underestimated."

"That being the case, shouldn't we kill him? Otherwise, the consequences will be endless!" Sui Zijin said.

"Mother, do you still want to make him more powerful? Do you want to regret it when we are no longer able to fight against him? If we regret it then, I'm afraid it will be useless!"

"You do not understand!"

Concubine Lian shook her head, not taking his words to heart at all.

"Sui Zimo has your father to deal with him. As long as we put the charges of killing Sui Zilin and other unsightly guys on Sui Zimo's head, he will have to die by then!"

Chapter 1304 Don't be naive!

But now is really not the time to kill Sui Zimo. If Sui Zimo dies, if they want to kill those annoying guys in the future, who should they find to take the blame?

Sui Zimo is the best candidate.

"Jin'er, you must have heard what my mother and concubine said is right. Sui Zimo is definitely not the time to kill him now!"

"This mother and son are really disgusting!"

Listening to Concubine Lian and Sui Zijin's mother and son discussing how to use Sui Zimo, Lin Caisang was really speechless.

"Brother Mo Lian, in their hearts, are you so easy to use? It's really strange!"

She shook her head, then shook her head again. Why are everyone in the royal family of Weiguo so arrogant? With such a temper, how could Ruoda defend the entire Wei Kingdom?

"maybe."

Sui Zimo curled his thin lips and said.

Perhaps, he was really easy to use in the past. After all, no matter how bad Concubine Lian was, she was still his mother-concubine. Whatever Concubine Lian asked him to do, he would always respond to her requests.

And now...

Did Concubine Lian really think that he would still be like the old Zi Mo, who would always comply with her requests?

In the palace, Concubine Lian was still trying to persuade her son.

"Jin'er, when you become the emperor in the future, Mo, who is just a year old, can kill him whenever he wants, just like squeezing an ant to death. Now, what's the harm in letting him be proud for a little longer?"

Furthermore, your father would never let Sui Zimo live such a long time, so what do you have to worry about? "

She didn't believe that the emperor would let Sui Zimo live longer than him, a bastard with no royal blood, long enough to take away the throne that originally belonged to the Sui family after his death?

Of course this is impossible!

"Mother, why don't you understand?"

Sui Zijin saw that his mother-in-law was still dreaming about Spring and Autumn, and she thought Sui Zimo could be easily dealt with by simply raising her hand. She felt really funny and angry.

"Even you know that Sui Zimo has joined forces with Suyang. With Suizimo's temperament, if Suyang does not restrain his temper and bows to Suizimo, will Suizimo cooperate with Suyang? He will only suppress Suyang to the point of no return!"

"so what?"

Concubine Lian still disagreed.

The national preceptor Suyang is a blind guy. She leaves her son, Prince Jin, without any help and goes to join a bastard alliance. That is asking for death and destruction!

She was waiting to see how the emperor would deal with Suyang and let him die without a burial place.

"Even if that's the case, then Suyang has bowed his head to Sui Zimo."

Sui Zijin's face was full of anxiety. Before he said these words to Concubine Lian, he was not so anxious. After all, as long as they killed Sui Zimo, they could turn the situation around.

But now...

"Mother and concubine, think about it, if Sui Zimo didn't have any strength, how could he respect his father's favorite minister and bow to him?

Do you think you can do it just by relying on the female doctor to bridge the gap? Don't be naive!

Suizi Mo could make his father gnash his teeth at him after he was named King Mo, but he couldn't do this to him. Even more so, he could occupy a high position in the huge Shaohua City. That was not an easy task. characters.

What's more, do you really think that Sui Yang can make Suizi suffer in the desert just by his solemn power, but the Queen and her mother clan are helpless?

Chapter 1305 Kill the person first

That must have something to do with Sui Zimo. There must be Sui Zimo's generous efforts here! "

"Jin'er, why are you talking to your mother and concubine about this? Even if there is Sui Zimo's handwriting involved, so what?"

Listening to her son's words, Concubine Lian actually had a slightly proud look on her face. She felt that the bastard she had raised several times was finally of some use, and it was not in vain that she had raised a bastard that had nothing to do with her. Go and please the emperor.

"This is in our favor, isn't it?"

"favorable?"

Sui Zijin raised his eyebrows and listened to Concubine Lian's words, but he didn't feel that this matter was beneficial to them at all.

Could it be that seeing Sui Zimo's growing power, there really is no sense of crisis at all? That is definitely impossible!

"Yes, this matter is beneficial to us." Concubine Lian nodded.

"Prince Lin has always been the person we have to deal with. Now that Sui Zimo has taken him away, wouldn't it be beneficial to us?"

Jin'er, what you have to do now is to make a fuss about Sui Zimo, remove all the obstacles we listed before, and then put the blame on Sui Zimo! "

Sui Zijin: "!!!"

He would rather fight with Sui Zilin than Sui Zimo who can't even get to the bottom of things!

But it doesn't make sense no matter how he tells his mother and concubine now.

"Concubine, are you really unwilling to help Jin'er and kill Sui Zimo?" He asked finally.

If it doesn't work for the mother-in-law, then he will have to handle the matter by himself. I believe that as long as he plans well, Sui Zimo will not be able to guard against him. He still has experience in killing a person in Shaohua City.

"Jin'er, why don't you listen? Now is not the time to kill Sui Zimo." Concubine Lian looked at her son with disapproval on her face.

"You have also seen that even your father wanted Sui Zimo to die so much that he didn't do anything to him. You can tell that you don't want to make your father unhappy now.

Listening to the mother-in-law's words, it is better to go to Prince Mo's Mansion in Sui Zimo more often and form a good relationship with the female doctor.

When that time comes, the mother and concubine will announce that Sui Zi Mo has entered the palace and ask him to send the female doctor to your house for your use. This is the best policy. That female doctor is indeed capable.

Otherwise, your father and grandmother would not have tried their best to get that female doctor to enter the palace.

My mother and concubine heard that if your imperial grandmother hadn't stopped her a few days ago, your father would have already issued an edict to Prince Mo's palace to declare the female doctor to enter the palace, so he had already prepared to prevent the female doctor from entering. Plans to leave the palace again! "

"Mother concubine..."

Sui Zijin looked at his mother-in-law helplessly.

If Sui Zimo died, wouldn't the female doctor have to find a supporter in Shaohua City?

When the time comes, if he reaches out his hand again and rescues her from his father's hands, will he still be unable to keep her? Why bother dealing with Sui Zimo?

What's more, his only thought now is to let Sui Zimo die!

"Mother and concubine, no matter what you say, I still feel that Sui Zimo should not be allowed to develop like this. Otherwise, even the father will not be able to kill Sui Zimo easily."

If a person's power is too huge, how can he deal with it?

Then he must kill people first before his power is too big, so that he can feel relieved, right?

Chapter 1306 A person like Sui Zimo

But looking at the father and mother, they didn't think so.

They thought that everything was in their hands, and they could kill anyone they wanted as long as they wanted!

But the problem is Sui Zimo, can they kill him whenever they want?

Even now, it would take some effort to eliminate Sui Zimo, let alone in the future?

"You don't need to worry about this, Jin'er." Lian Fei chuckled.

She raised her hand to pick up the teacup on the table, took a sip of tea, and slowly put it down, then looked at her son again.

"As the saying goes, if the emperor wants his subjects to die, the subjects have to die. Even if Sui Zimo is capable, he is just a subject. If the emperor wants to deal with him, he can just accuse him of a crime and he will die without a burial place.

Sui Zijin: "..."

If that's the case, would my father be sick because of Sui Zimo?

Don't think he doesn't know that this time my father was ill because Sui Zimo took the little guy away from the Imperial Master's Mansion.

"Mother, have you found out what the identity of the fifth son of the Prince Yi's Mansion that my father gave to Su Yang before is?" he asked.

Let's not talk about killing Sui Zimo for now, he can find a way himself.

But my father made such a big fuss because of the fifth son of the Prince Yi's Mansion, and he didn't hesitate to gamble his face. This person must not be a simple person!

Let's not talk about other things. This so-called fifth son is definitely not a child of the Prince Yi's Mansion. That's all.

"I really didn't find out anything about this. "

Speaking of this, Concubine Lian almost bit her teeth.

"The people we arranged for the emperor are all useless. We can't get any information from them. Last time the old man died, our people failed to succeed.

Instead, a useless eunuch got the upper hand and became the right-hand man of the emperor. It's so hateful!"

Speaking of this, she really regretted it. If she had known earlier...

There was nothing to know earlier. The emperor was free to use anyone he wanted, and she didn't have the final say, let alone the people who served him personally!

"Did you work hard on Eunuch Gui?"

"That Eunuch Gui is also a difficult person. I tried to deal with him several times, but he sent me back. It seems that he is also a cautious person. This matter is not easy to handle. "Sui Zijin shook his head and said. If Eunuch Gui was really easy to bribe, he would not dare to bribe him. If someone else offered a higher price, he would turn to others and sell out all his affairs. Wouldn't he be doomed? "However, it is better if it is difficult to do. I think if it is difficult for us, it will be even more difficult for Sui Zimo to bribe Eunuch Gui." He said. On their side, at least there are a few people watching the emperor. Although they are not close and capable people, they can make up the number. But there is no one available on Sui Zimo's side. He is still relieved about this. "Mother, you should tell your son about the fifth son of Prince Yi's Mansion. Is there really no news at all?" He asked again. "This matter can't be found out by inquiring. "Empress Lian shook her head.

But just as she finished speaking, when she saw Sui Zijin wanted to speak, she raised her hand to signal him not to speak and listen to her.

"The Fifth Young Master is so valued by the Emperor, he must not be just a child in Prince Yi's Mansion. He is nothing more than a person like Sui Zimo. This is not difficult to guess.

Chapter 1307 Does it feel good to be beaten?

However, why the child was raised in Prince Yi's palace is a mystery to me.

"What the concubine is saying... is there still some relationship between Sui Zimo and Prince Yi's Mansion?" Sui Zijin asked doubtfully.

According to his mother-in-law's wishes, the fifth young master was a person like Sui Zimo, but he was raised in Prince Yi's Mansion. Moreover, the emperor even went to war with Prince Yi's Mansion to steal people for the sake of the fifth young master!

Thinking about it this way, does that mean that Sui Zimo and Prince Yi's Mansion are also related?

"That should be it."

Concubine Lian nodded and agreed with Sui Zijin's words.

"Jin'er, tell me, the day when I took Sui Zimo over from the Emperor's hands happened to be the wedding day of Prince Yi and Princess Yi. Is this a coincidence?"

she asked.

This is a perfect coincidence, and it is even more weird that Princess Yi is not the one who was engaged to Prince Yi in the first place.

Sui Zimo and Lin Caisang stopped listening to what was said after that. They strolled around the deserted Imperial Garden before returning to Prince Mo's Mansion.

"Brother Mo Lian, do you think Sui Zijin will come to Prince Mo's Mansion to get close to me?"

She raised her hand, touched her chin, and asked Sui Zimo, who was bringing over two bowls of hot noodles.

I just can't understand why everyone is so persistent towards her. It's obvious that her attitude towards everyone is not good, just like Su Yang back then, but she beat her...

Do these people like to be scolded and only feel comfortable when they are beaten?

"maybe.

Sui Zimo still replied with three words.

"As for you, a female doctor, you are worse than the emperor."

"Do they want to get close to me, or do they want to compete with you?" Lin Caisang rolled his eyes, moved the noodles closer to him, and said while eating.

"Why do you think that is?"

Sui Zimo asked him back, picking all the shrimp meat from the bowl of noodles in front of him into her bowl.

"I think....."

Lin Caisang thought for a while while eating, and then spoke after a while.

"I don't think they want to get close to me, nor do they want to compete with you, but... they simply feel that I was brought back by you personally, since they can arrange it in Prince Mo's Mansion.

Even if I don't have much to offer, I still have a very powerful family supporting me. Do they want to know what kind of family there is behind me?

How many people dream of a family that is so mysterious that no one knows about it, and can also produce offspring who are so young and can take charge of their own business? How many people dream of it? They want to take my family for their own use! "

At this point, she told the truth.

I had never thought about it before, that there was this level. The emperor was so eager to get her into the palace, so maybe he also thought of this level, right?

And now, the reason why the Queen Mother proposed that the Emperor invite her into the palace while she was sick was because she thought of this aspect.

They were a little afraid of Brother Mo Lian's power in Shaohua City, and didn't want his power to continue to develop with such a good momentum, so they thought of getting her into the palace first.

As long as she becomes the emperor's woman, that's not what Brother Mo Lian wants to do.

In the end, the person who can control the family behind her is the emperor, not Sui Zimo.

"This is really well-thought-out, and the dream is a long-term one." She shook her head, admiring the great plan in the minds of the Emperor, the Queen Mother, and Concubine Lian, mother and son!

Chapter 1308 That's definitely not me, that's a pig!

"Hey, Brother Mo Lian, tell me, if I just give a dose of poison and poison all those people, will they explain everything to us?"

she asked suddenly.

Sui Zimo: "..."

Looking at the expression on the little girl's face, it seemed as if she would really do such a thing.

"Do you think this is enough?" he asked her.

Hearing this, Lin Caisang shook his head.

"No, even if they are all dead, we can't get what we want to know."

The key is not the emperor or the Queen Mother, but Princess Yi. Of course, she is referring to the person behind Princess Yi.

As for Princess Yi, since she was sent to Weiguo, she must be loyal to that person, but she may not know everything. If she was really a capable person, she would not be sent to Weiguo.

"We still have to fight with them on this matter. There will always be a time when people are beaten out. I'll study the antidote for a while after I'm full. That thing is really..."

"Eat and sleep!"

Before she could finish speaking, Sui Zimo interrupted her.

Childhood has passed, and this girl still doesn't want to sleep. She actually wants to study the antidote again?

How could he not know that for a moment, this girl would definitely not sleep until dawn. If she didn't feel sorry for his little lady's body, he could only feel sorry for her.

Lin Caisang: "..."

She didn't say she wasn't going to sleep. Her brother Mo Lian looked like he was going to fight with her. What was going on?

"Brother Mo Lian, I'm not telling you to sleep after eating. That's definitely not me, that's a pig!" She said quietly.

Sui Zimo: "!!!"

What else could he say?

"Then we won't go out at night."

Hearing this, Lin Caisang was speechless.

They stole into the palace. Could it be that they went there in broad daylight? They were looking for someone to beat them up. No matter how capable they were, they couldn't escape from the palace in broad daylight.

"Okay, let's go out during the day."

she said.

...

The second day.

Early in the morning, the door of Prince Mo's Mansion was knocked open by the eunuch who announced the decree.

However, when he heard the banished man coming out of Prince Mo's palace and said that the female doctor had left, the eunuch who declared the order was stunned for a long time and felt very angry in his heart.

He was like a mirror in his heart, how could Miss Lin leave just as soon as she said she was leaving, and do so so coincidentally?

He must have said this deliberately knowing that he would be sent by the emperor to announce the decree. He estimated that Miss Lin was sleeping in a courtyard of Prince Mo's Mansion with her head covered!

But unfortunately, he is just a eunuch who announces the decree, and he can't do anything to others!

"Exiled guard, you see, there has to be someone to take over our family's will, right?" He looked at Exiled Jue with some embarrassment and said.

"Father, I'm just a guard. I can't accept the imperial edict from you on behalf of Miss Lin, right? Miss Lin has only been gone for less than an hour. Maybe my father-in-law can catch up with her if he can catch up with her."

The old god who banished Jue was there and spoke to the eunuch.

What's the matter, you still want him to accept the imperial edict and then ask him to find someone?

It's not like he would accept such a beautiful job. Whoever is in a hurry can go find someone for this matter!

"this....."

The eunuch who announced the decree opened his mouth, not knowing what to say at all.

"If you banish the guards, could you please tell me where this Miss Lin has gone? Isn't there a place for our family to find her?" he asked.

Chapter 1309 It will be found soon

"Tsk.

Ban Jue clicked his tongue and raised his hand to touch his chin, looking thoughtful.

"It's impossible to tell. Miss Lin told her subordinates her whereabouts before she left..."

"Really? Where did Miss Lin go? Please let the guards tell us." Upon hearing this, the eunuch's eyes lit up.

Once he knew where the female doctor had gone, he could go find her.

Although he knew better that maybe the female doctor was in Prince Mo's palace, but even if he couldn't find her, at least he had looked for her and could explain to the emperor.

"According to what Miss Lin said, the elixir she wanted to refine was missing two medicinal ingredients. My prince accompanied me to look for them once before, but they didn't find them. This time, she went to look for these two ingredients alone. Flavored with medicinal herbs.

Ban Jue said.

He originally wanted to say that Lin Caisang went home, but after thinking about it, he felt that the reason for going home was really not a good reason.

What if that emperor goes directly to his prince to ask for Miss Lin's home? Doesn't this trick his prince into the trap as well?

I don't know what his prince was thinking and how he gave the wrong account. If Miss Lin went home, she probably didn't think clearly at the time and was focused on the mistress, so she gave the wrong account.

"Going to collect medicine? Did she say when she would be back?" the eunuch who announced the decree asked.

It's just a matter of picking some medicine, it shouldn't be difficult, right? Maybe he would be able to see Lin Caisang in Prince Mo's palace until night. This would not be a problem for him. He just had to send someone to the palace to report back first, and then he could wait here.

"That's impossible to say."

Ban Jue shook his head seriously, saying that he didn't know when Lin Caisang would come back.

"It's really hard to say for sure when it comes to collecting herbs. I heard that the two herbs that Miss Lin is looking for are really hard to find. The prince accompanied her to look for them once before, but because of his identity, there.

There were many important things in the palace waiting for him to deal with, so he hurried back but returned without success.

So this time, Miss Lin left alone with the intention of gathering those two medicinal herbs. I don't know when she will be able to come back. "

The eunuch who announced the decree: "..."

It doesn't make any difference if you say this or not!

"Does the banished guard know where she went to collect medicine?" He asked helplessly.

"I don't know that."

Ban Jue continued to shake his head, taking the phrase "I don't know what to ask" to the extreme.

"Eunuch, you also know that in Prince Mo's Mansion, Miss Lin is half a mistress. Where she wants to go, I am not a guard who can inquire about it. Although Miss Lin has a good temper and explained it to her subordinates, Where exactly he went, I really don't know."

The eunuch who announced the decree: "???"

Didn't I just say that Miss Lin told him where she was going? Why didn't she know it now?

"Excommunicate the guards..."

"But father-in-law, don't be anxious."

Just as he was about to speak, he was interrupted by Ban Jue, who grinned and spoke again to the eunuch who announced the decree.

"Miss Lin went to collect herbs. There are just a few mountains outside our Shaohua City. My father-in-law just needs someone to search for them. They will be found soon."

The eunuch who announced the decree: "!!!"

If he hadn't been in Prince Mo's palace, he would have really wanted to curse.

Chapter 1310 Can't enter the palace?

Although Shaohua City is the imperial capital of the Wei Kingdom, who doesn't know that Shaohua City is surrounded by towering mountains. The word "continuous" to describe it couldn't be more appropriate.

Did he send someone to find him?

He just sent out an army to look for it, but could he find anyone who was alive, able to move, run, and could climb mountains and wade in rivers?

What's more, he doesn't have the ability to appoint any troops!

"In this case, our family won't be disturbed."

Taking a deep breath, he turned around and left. He was really angry at being banished.

This place was simply his nemesis. He was the one who announced the decree last time, but he also failed to invite Lin Caisang into the palace.

Fortunately last time, the Queen Mother came to smooth things over for him, but this time, how was he going to explain to the Emperor after he returned? If he couldn't find anyone, the Emperor would have to cut him into pieces!

...

"You said I went to collect medicine?"

After blinking and blinking again, Lin Caisang glanced sideways, glanced at Sui Zimo, and then looked at Ban Jue.

"I remember that what your prince told you to banish was that when I was refining the medicine, I lost my temper and poisoned myself. After that, I was sent back to my hometown to recuperate."

She said to Ban Jue word for word.

"That's right."

Naturally, Ban Jue did not deny this. He heard Ban Wu say so.

"Your Majesty, Miss Lin, my subordinates thought that if I followed what I said, the Emperor would definitely ask the Prince about the location of Miss Lin's hometown. Therefore, in order not to embarrass the Prince, I changed the reason why Miss Lin left the palace."

Lin Caisang: "!!!"

Before I change my words about this banishment, I should at least ask!

"Brother Mo Lian, wouldn't it be that you can't enter the palace?"

"It doesn't matter."

Sui Zimo just grinned and smiled lightly.

"The news about you being poisoned has been widely circulated in the palace. The fact that you were relegated to the eunuch who declared the order like this confirms the fact that I feel guilty after you were poisoned."

Lin Caisang: "..."

Is this still how things are done?

But what they discussed before was not to make the emperor believe that she had left Prince Mo's Mansion, okay?

In this case, doesn't everyone think that she is an unknown person who can even refine a poison and poison herself?

She has gained a good reputation, do you still want it?

"Can I say that if I handle things this way, my reputation outside will be ruined?"

"Won't."

Sui Zimo raised his hand and patted her cheek.

"The emperor won't believe it."

The emperor would only think that King Mo was trying every possible means to keep him out of contact with female doctors!

As for whether it was poisonous or not, and whether to take the medicine or not, the emperor and even the Queen Mother would not believe it. They naturally believed that Sonner was still in Prince Mo's palace.

"Tomorrow will be a nice day, and the peach blossoms are in bloom by Leyang Lake. How about we go to enjoy the flowers together?" he suggested.

"OK."

Lin Caisang naturally agreed. It couldn't be a more comfortable day to enjoy the flowers and hit the villain.

On the side, listening to the conversation between the two, it seemed that he finally realized that he almost messed up the matter again.

It turned out that it was not that Ban Wu heard wrongly, or that his prince gave the wrong order, but that the prince and his mistress had other ideas, which was to make the emperor doubtful.

It's just that if this happens, the emperor's illness will probably become more serious, and he will be very angry, right?
