

Star of Space 133

Chapter 133 It's enough to deal with yourself

As for the Zhou family, Liu Rumei and Liu Yushui are naturally there to deal with it. The quarrels between these two women are enough to keep the Zhou family busy, so how can they be so leisurely and carefree as to think about other people and other things.

Lin Changfeng: "..."

Why is he becoming more and more confused about this girl?

...

After buying the things they needed to buy, the three of them drove the bullock cart back home. Yamolian just glanced at Lin Caisang, then turned around and went to Menghuang Mountain to help. Lin Changfeng also went up the mountain with Yamolian. , saying that he wanted to see what was going on on the mountain.

The only two people at home were Lin Caihe and Lin Laogong, who had limited mobility. Lin Caisang didn't want to stay with Lin Caihe, so she also planned to go to Menghuang Mountain to have a look.

I don't know if Lin Baizhong planted some fruit trees on the mountain after he bought it, or something else. There were actually many fruit trees of similar sizes on the Menghuang Mountain, which originally had no trees.

There are peach trees, pear trees, apricot trees, etc. Next to the mountain land that is fenced in preparation for digging a pond, there are also some wild grape vines, with new buds just sprouting in spring.

These fruit trees are all capable of producing fruit, so Lin Caimulberry naturally did not let anyone cut them down, but kept them.

You won't have to worry about eating fruits at home in the future.

"Sangsang, come here."

After staying on Menghuang Mountain for a while, I was thinking about how to make Menghuang Mountain more detailed, when I saw Lin Changhong hurried over and took Lin Caisang to a place where there was no one.

"What's going on?" Lin Caisang looked at him and asked.

"I heard from Brother Changfeng that you met that boy Zhou Liang in the bookstore?" Lin Changhong asked bluntly.

In the past few days, because construction had just started on Menghuang Mountain, he was very busy and ignored the affairs of the Zhou family and Liu family. However, he did not expect that just yesterday when he said that Zhou Liang was hiding, he came to Sangsang to find trouble. Got it!

How could he spare such a person? Especially that guy actually brought Liu Yushui with him to show up in front of Sang Sang.

One was a fiancé who robbed his cousin, and the other was pregnant before they even got married. He really couldn't figure out how these two people could still live so freely and freely in front of others.

You are so thick-skinned!

"You mean the two of them."

Mentioning Zhou Liang and Liu Yushui, Lin Caisang grinned unconsciously.

"Yes, these two inhuman things are simply too abominable. I will leave the affairs here to Brother Changfeng tomorrow and go to the county to see if I can do anything to them..."

Lin Changhong said through gritted teeth.

But before he finished speaking, he was interrupted by Lin Caisang.

"Brother, don't think about them. It's enough for them to deal with themselves." Lin Caisang said.

"Isn't it too easy for them to let them deal with themselves?" Lin Changhong asked her angrily.

This kind of petty quarrel is really too cheap for Zhou Liang, a scumbag. He said that people must be punished to death, otherwise, these people don't know what will happen if they offend Sangsang.

"I still want to..."

"Don't think about it, brother."

Seeing what else his eldest brother wanted to do, Lin Caisang quickly interrupted his thoughts.

"I think this is good."

"Sang Sang, that's not what you said before. Didn't you say that you wanted me to find out where Zhou Liang is?" Lin Changhong frowned and asked.

This is what Sangsang said yesterday, and it was still hot. Why did he change his mind again today? He also wanted to inquire about it while he was free, so there was no need to go?
