

Star of Space 139

Chapter 139 Prick yourself with a silver needle

Sorghum, corn, sweet potatoes, potatoes, rice, etc., as well as some sunflower seeds, peanuts, cowpeas, etc., and even cotton seeds were planted.

They were all so densely planted in the ground that everyone sighed, thinking that Lin picking mulberry was a waste of food and land resources. What's the use of planting so many seeds together in batches? It can't grow.

But this was planted by Lin Caimulberry. Even if everyone thought so in their hearts, they would not say it in front of her. In front of her, everyone still smiled and pretended that nothing happened.

Lin Caihe, on the other hand, couldn't help but act like a monster a few times. When she saw that none of the Lin Lu family took issue with her, she put out the fire and kept silent.

After the seeds were sown, Lin Caimulberry continued to dig medicine in the mountains. 【】

Although she has a lot of money on her hands, she still wants to go to the mountains a few times to let everyone know that her money is dug out from digging medicinal materials every day.

Except for looking at the seedlings that have not yet grown day by day, I spent the rest of the time in the mountains.

Of course, during this period, she also went to the home of Mr. Zhong, whom she had taken on as the first task, to see how his old man was doing.

"Oh, miss, you are finally here. We are finally waiting for you." Mr. Zhong saw Lin Caisang coming to the door. After the housekeeper notified her, he went out to greet her in person, as if she was a relative of their family.

Several women also came out to greet him, and one of them was wiping tears secretly.

"What's wrong? Is the old man's condition serious again?" Lin Caisang looked at them and asked doubtfully.

It doesn't make sense. If it was serious again, Yu Jing would have urged her to come here. Or maybe she failed the mission and was sent directly to receive punishment, okay?

"No, it's not the old man, it's..."

Mr. Zhong quickly shook his head, but couldn't explain why.

"What happened?" Lin Caisang frowned.

She hated the feeling of facing a group of people who didn't know anything about something when she knew something was wrong.

"Girl, this is my You'er."

The woman who had been wiping tears secretly before was caught off guard and knelt down in front of her with a plop.

"What are you doing? Get up quickly."

Lin Caisang's face turned green and he quickly helped her up while asking.

"What's wrong with Zhong You? He was fine when I saw him before."

In her opinion, that boy was a thousand-year scourge. He was so shrewd, how could something happen? Could it be that he was also harmed? This is of course impossible.

"Girl, You'er... He doesn't know what happened. He stuck a silver needle on himself. He hasn't woken up for several days. Girl, you are a god descending to earth. Please save him. ah."

The woman cried and begged Lin Caisang.

"what happened?"

Lin Caisang looked at Mr. Zhong and asked him.

"this....."

Mr. Zhong hesitated for a moment and secretly glanced at Lin Caisang's face. He knew that Lin Caisang had a bad impression of Zhong You before and didn't even have a good look. This time, he didn't know whether she would be willing to save Zhong You this time. willing.

However, he was his son after all, and now that Lin Caisang came to the door, the door had to be opened.

"Girl, it's... that's the case. The old man also knew about what happened before. Later, everyone in the house also... knew about it. You'er... In order to punish himself, he gave himself an injection and said that he didn't want to do it again. It's a disaster for other people."

Taking a deep breath, he said.
