Chapter 162 Nothing happened to the Zhou family?

If this matter is not handled well, it is very likely that the Lin family will suffer as well!

"How did that happen?"

As far as she knew, Liu Qingshui was a serious small businessman who learned business from his family, and he was not that big. Even his business was done under the supervision of the Liu family. How could such a person make a fortune? What kind of life lawsuit?

She couldn't understand.

"Xiao Sangzi, don't worry, this matter has nothing to do with the Lin family."

Ya Molian came over with a plate of snacks. Seeing that Lin Caisang's brows were twisted into twists, he put the snacks in front of her and comforted her softly.

"How can I not be worried? The Liu family is originally engaged in business. Because our surname is not Lin, we have saved Brother Changfeng a lot of trouble. Now that something like this has happened, it will most likely affect Chi Yu!"

As the saying goes, in agriculture, industry and commerce, even if the merchants have the most money, they are ranked at the bottom. Lin Changfeng is a scholar and has to take the imperial examination this year. It is really difficult to get a job with relatives like the Liu family who are merchants.

Otherwise, Liu Qingshui would not have given up studying and turned to business, because people with business registration were not allowed to take the scientific examination.

The Lin family is from a rural background. Fortunately, Lin Baiyi and Liu Baixiao are just brothers and have separated their families long ago. This is how the two families are distinguished. Otherwise, Lin Changfeng would not even want to take the scientific examination.

"Brother Mo Lian, how did Liu Qingshui get involved in a life-threatening lawsuit?" she asked.

"It was his own bad luck.

Ya Molian shook her head, picked up a soft, white and tender snack, and handed it to her.

"Eat one first."

"Stop making trouble and talk quickly."

Lin Caisang put the snack down again and looked at him.

She was not in the mood to eat at the moment. She just wanted to know what was going on with Liu Qingshui and make sure that it had nothing to do with the Lin family.

"If you don't tell me, I can go find out myself."

"You, why are you so impatient?"

Yamolian had no choice but to sit down next to her.

"Liu Qingshui rescued the person and saved the situation. He was kind-hearted. When he saw someone lying on the ground, he sent him to the medicine shop. Who knew that just after he was sent to the medicine shop, before he saw the doctor, the man died. Now He was harassed by the man's family, saying that he was the one who caused that man's death."

"What a coincidence?" Lin Caisang frowned.

Why are you talking about this matter as if it has nothing to do with the Zhou family? But why doesn't she believe it?

"Is there nothing about the Zhou family?"

"Ah."

Ya Molian chuckled.

"Of course there is."

"How can you do this?" she asked.

"Mrs. Zhou bribed the doctor at the drug store to forcefully describe a patient who died of illness as being delayed in treatment by Liu Qingshui. Although this was just one sentence, the meaning behind it was completely different. Something else."

Hearing this, Lin Caisang's eyes flashed and he nodded.

She is a medical practitioner and knows that a word from the doctor may kill the patient. Naturally, it is a very simple thing to ask a patient to make a fuss.

"Liu Qingshui has a hundred mouths now, so I'm afraid he can't even wash away his grievances, right?" she asked.

"Originally, the family just wanted to extort some money from the Liu family. After all, the Liu family is a businessman, and it is okay to shed some blood, but that is not the case now. Mrs. Zhou secretly sent someone to bring this matter to the Yamen. Liu Qing Shui was originally going to be imprisoned, but Liu Rumei, a mother, was unwilling to bear the hardship for her son, so she knocked him unconscious and hid him. "
