

Star of Space 165

Chapter 165 Are you confused?

"Think of a way, whatever way you can think of. That unfilial thing still wants to surrender. He wants the lives of our family!" Liu Rumei was very worried, and she didn't even have a good attitude towards her precious daughter.

And Liu Yushui also agreed very much with Liu Rumei's words. If this was not handled properly, their whole family would suffer.

"If you can't think of a way, you have to think of it. Otherwise, what can you do? Mom, the Zhou family finally agreed to marry me. If my marriage is ruined because of my eldest brother's affairs, I really don't want to live anymore!"

She gritted her teeth and said to Liu Rumei.

The Zhou family values their reputation so much. If they knew that her brother was involved in a life-and-death lawsuit, they would have sent someone to cancel the marriage immediately. No matter how important the child in her belly was, it was not as important as her reputation.

"How could it be gone? Your marriage is a sure thing. The Zhou family has no intention of ruining the marriage!" Liu Rumei glared when she heard her daughter's words.

The son is already like this. If the daughter's marriage is ruined again, then their Liu family will really plummet. This marriage must be there, and it must be good.

"If the Zhou family dares to break off the engagement, I will expose the fact that Zhou Liang made you pregnant. Then we will see who is shameless!"

"Mom, you..."

Hearing this, Liu Yushui became angry and gritted her teeth tightly.

"Mom, why don't you understand why I am so obsessed with Brother Zhou Liang? Do you think they are engaged to our Liu family because they care about the child in my belly?"

"What else could it be for?" Liu Rumei asked her back.

What her daughter is carrying in her belly is the great-eldest grandson of the Zhou family. Who else is more important than this child?

"Old Master Zhou only agreed to this marriage in order to prevent me from pestering Zhou Liang." Liu Yushui said through gritted teeth.

Although she didn't want to admit that the child in her belly was not important in the hearts of the Zhou family, this was a fact, so she kept pestering Zhou Liang.

"The child is in my belly. If the Zhou family doesn't admit that the child is theirs, who dares to say that the child is theirs? Mother, are you confused?"

Naturally, Liu Yushui could think of a little bit of what Lin Caisang could think of. As a woman's sense of crisis for her life's happiness, she naturally knew what she should do.

I originally thought that she would marry into the Zhou family first and then strive for other statuses. With her intelligence, she would be able to do it.

Who knew that before she could do anything, something would happen to her elder brother, and she would be involved in a life-long lawsuit that would bring shame to a person for a lifetime and would never be cleared away.

Wouldn't this cost her her life?

"This...the Zhou family dares!"

Liu Rumei took a deep breath and forced out a few words through her teeth.

But in terms of momentum, it was a bit short. She also knew that what Liu Yushui said was the truth. She could make trouble no matter what. As long as the Zhou family didn't admit it, no matter how big the trouble she made, it would only be the Liu family who would be embarrassed.

"What is there that the Zhou family doesn't dare to do?" Liu Yushui asked her with a livid face.

"Yushui, what are you going to do? Hurry up and think of a way to save your elder brother." Before Liu Rumei could speak, Liu Baixiao, who was invisible at the side, asked hurriedly.

Liu Rumei regarded her daughter as a treasure, but Liu Baixiao was different. He only had his son in his eyes, and Liu Qingshui was his hope in the future.
