

Star of Space 167

Chapter 167 Sure enough, they all have the same virtues

It was her son who was in trouble. As long as she could save her son, she would do anything. Not to mention Lin Changfeng, who was out of reach, she would be willing to throw Liu Baixiao out to take the blame.

It's just that in this situation, whether it is Liu Qingshui or Liu Baixiao, it will affect their daughter's marriage.

The only candidate is Lin Changfeng.

"You go to Yacun now and get ten taels of silver for your old couple and tell them to let Lin Changfeng take the blame. Otherwise, I won't care whether they are your father or not. Damn it, I can still let Lin Changfeng stay in prison."

She instructed Liu Baixiao to hurry up and get the matter done.

"What?"

Liu Baixiao was shocked, and his face suddenly turned pale.

"This...can't we just handle this matter directly? Why do we still need to go to dad and mom's place?"

Doesn't this make it difficult for him to be a good person? It would be strange for his father to agree to it. He might even break up with him as a father and son. Then his only escape route is gone. What if the Liu family kicks him out one day? Door, isn't it...

"Dad, go quickly."

Liu Yushui also urged Liu Baixiao.

"Although we can do it directly, if the two old guys can agree, things will be much easier. Lin Changfeng will definitely listen to the two old guys, and then they won't complain, and we can save a lot of money.

"This...if I go, even ten taels of silver won't be enough?" Liu Baixiao looked at Liu Rumei carefully and said anxiously.

Just ten taels of silver let Lin Changfeng take the blame. That was a human life, so he had to spend more money, otherwise he wouldn't have the ability to get his parents to agree to this.

"Ten taels of silver is not enough? Does Lin Changfeng think he is made of gold?" Liu Rumei screamed strangely.

Isn't it just to take the blame? She felt that the ten taels of silver were too much. Qing Shui was Lin Changfeng's cousin, so it was his honor to let him take the blame!

"Mom, please stop talking. Ten taels of silver are indeed not enough."

Liu Yushui thought for a while, then spoke with a serious face, turning to look at Liu Baixiao.

"Dad, you go to the accountant and pay fifty taels of silver to those two old guys. You must get things done. This matter is related to whether I can marry Zhou Liang. I must not mess up."

She confessed solemnly.

"Okay, okay. I'll go right away." Liu Baixiao responded and left in a hurry.

"Tsk, tsk, it's really not like a family doesn't come into the same house. A whole family is nothing!" In a hidden place, a figure clicked his tongue twice and looked at Liu Baixiao who came out of the house with disdain.

You can think of such a vicious idea. The people of the Liu family are all of the same virtue, especially Liu Baixiao. Fortunately, he changed his surname. Otherwise, he would be sorry for the surname Lin.

Shaking his head, he flew away and prepared to report to his master.

Ya Village, Ya Molian's home.

"That's it. I guess Liu Baixiao will arrive in the village in a while."

Ban Jue stood in front of Ya Mo Lian. He told his master exactly what he had heard in the Liu family before, secretly thinking that the people of the Liu family were quite bold.

"Master, do you want to go and ventilate your energy with Miss Lin?" He looked at his master and asked in a low voice.

"Go and tell Capt. Wei that Liu Qingshui is at the Liu family."

Yamolian ignored the suggestion of banishment and gave instructions in a low voice.

"Yes, Palace Master." Ban Jue responded and ran away.
