

Star of Space 168

Chapter 168 Something has to be done

...

Lin family, Liu Baixiao was soon followed by many villagers, and they all arrived in the Lin family yard.

Because Liu Baixiao had not been back for many years and had already changed his surname to 'Liu', when people in the village saw him, everyone's expressions were not very good, with contempt, disdain, and even hatred.

Especially the people of the Lin clan wanted to kill this man who had disgraced their ancestors.

In fact, it is not uncommon for a man from the Lin family to become a son-in-law, but that is all because the family is too poor, or the man and woman love each other, and they go with the consent of the family, and they will not change their surnames, let alone After I became my son-in-law, I finally had a child with my own surname.

But Liu Baixiao was different. It was known to everyone that he had no status in the Liu family, and his treatment was not much better after changing his surname.

If he could still stay in such a family, he would be looked down upon.

"Lin Laogeng, your Liu Baixiao is back to see you."

An old man named Ya shouted at the top of his lungs when he saw Liu Baixiao pushing open the courtyard door and entering.

He didn't have a very good relationship with the Lin family. Now that he saw Liu Baixiao, a man who had disgraced his ancestors, come back, he came to see Lin Laogong's jokes, so he shouted like this for Lin Laogong to hear.

At home, Lin Laojie was not there. Only Lin Changfeng, who was busy in the kitchen, happened to hear it and came out with a puzzled face.

"It's you!"

Lin Changfeng didn't look very good when he saw Liu Baixiao, but when he saw so many villagers following him, he couldn't look down on Liu Baixiao in public, so he could only yell in a sarcastic voice.

"Second uncle, do you have anything to do when you come home?"

Liu Baixiao's face froze when he heard him ask this.

He never expected that when he arrived at home, before he saw his parents, he would see Lin Changfeng, the real master he wanted to plot against.

At this moment, Lin Changfeng had an apron around his waist and a spatula in his hand. He didn't look like a scholar at all. He was just a farmer who worked in the kitchen all day long.

"Chang...Changfeng, you...what are you doing? Where are your grandpa and grandma? Where are they?" he asked stuttering.

He knew that his father could not walk a few years ago and could only lie on the bed, so he looked at the door of a room and took a few steps there.

"In the room? I'll go take a look."

"Second uncle, grandpa is not here and has gone out." Lin Changfeng opened the door when he saw him and spoke immediately.

"Not here?"

Liu Baixiao turned around in confusion and looked at Lin Changfeng.

Could it be that his father's leg has healed and he can still walk? Otherwise, who can take him out, the third child?

With the little strength of the third child, can he carry his father such a long way on his back? He just came in from outside the village, but he didn't meet anyone.

"Um."

Lin Changfeng nodded.

"Uncle bought a mountain land for Sangsang before he left. Everyone went to work on the mountain. Grandpa also went to see it today. No, I am cooking and I have to send it to the mountain later."

He glanced at the spatula in his hand and said.

"If the second uncle is looking for me, he's on Menghuang Mountain. You can go by yourself. I'm still busy in the kitchen."

With that said, he got into the kitchen again. He really didn't want to pay attention to Liu Baixiao. His intuition told him that Liu Baixiao would definitely not do anything good when he came back.

"this....."

Liu Baixiao opened his mouth, his forehead was full of question marks, his father actually went to Menghuang Mountain? Then he has to go up the mountain to find someone.

"Forget it, let's go find it. We have to get things done."

Turning his head, he looked at the people who were leaning their heads to watch the show, and immediately frowned.
