

Lucky Star of Space on Farmlands

Chapter 18 Why didn't I sell you?

"Mother, mother, please don't be angry. Sangsang is the destiny star of wealth and wealth. She is not afraid of bulls, demons, or snake gods. Don't be so angry that your body is broken. It's not worth it." Mrs. Lin Yang comforted her mother-in-law.

Seeing this, several other members of the Lin family also rushed over to inspect the situation.

"call!"

After a while, Lin Lu finally regained his breath and exhaled heavily.

"What a sin! It's such a misfortune for our family to have such evil obstacles!"

Of course she was referring to Liu Yushui and Liu Rumei. These two were simply the nemesis of the Lin family. They had already tried their best to avoid them. Why did they have to come and bully others?

"There is such a thing, Aunt Lin, don't worry, I am Li Zheng, I will definitely seek justice for Sangsang." Li Zheng stood up with an eyebrow raised and said sternly.

"you....."

Master Zhou was so frightened by his words that he took a step back.

If what the boy said just now was taken seriously, it was inciting others to commit murder. Even if Lin Caisang was fine at the moment, he still could not escape the crime of murder.

Although he knew in his heart that these people had no evidence, some things could not be blocked without evidence, especially Youyou Zhongkou.

"You guys are talking nonsense. I never said anything like that. They framed me. I didn't do anything. My mother sold Lin Caisang for my father."

After a period of daze, Liu Yushui finally came to his senses and screamed in denial.

"Who is your granddaughter? Our Lin family doesn't have a granddaughter named Liu! Why didn't your mother sell you for your father?" Mrs. Lin Lu shouted sharply at Liu Yushui.

She had never acknowledged Liu Rumei as her daughter-in-law before, but she felt a little soft-hearted after seeing the children. Now that something like this happened, how could she still admit that this sly-hearted woman was a descendant of the Lin family?

"Grandma, don't be angry, don't argue with them."

Lin Caisang's chubby fleshy hand caressed Lin Lu's chest and persuaded her.

No matter how docile you are with these people, it's just a waste of your energy.

"Grandpa Zhou, I don't care about Zhou Liang and Liu Yushui's harm to me. It's just that your family can't just take one copy of the divorce document. It's better for you to copy my grandpa's copy again. Then sign your name, put the fingerprints of you and Uncle Jitang, Brother Zhou Liang, and leave it at my house, so that everyone can live in peace. "

Lin Caisang looked at Master Zhou and spoke word by word.

"Can you make the decision on this matter?"

Master Zhou's eyes lit up and he immediately asked.

Although his grandson acted biasedly, he was still a descendant of their family, and this year he was going to the provincial capital to take the examination, so he naturally didn't want to give it up.

At this time, Lin Caisang's words were like the last straw he could grasp.

"Sangsang..."

"Grandma, listen to me."

Just as Lin Lu was about to speak, she was stopped by Lin Caisang.

"Grandpa Zhou, I have the final say on this matter. I will never tell anyone about the fact that Zhou Liang and Liu Yushui framed me, and I will never hold anyone responsible for their fault. As long as you can write the divorce document in accordance with my requirements. "

"well."

After hearing these words, Master Zhou nodded with satisfaction.

As long as Zhou Liang's matter didn't spread, what would happen if he wrote a divorce document?

...

In the end, Lin Caisang took the divorce papers, and all the Zhou family members left in an instant, and all the men in the village who came to strengthen the Lin family also left.
