

Lucky Star of Space on Farmlands

Chapter 2 My sister is stupid

If Lin Lu hadn't brought the matter to the attention of Li Zheng and Patriarch Lin, and dozens of men from the village came knocking on her door with picks, sticks, etc., she would have been buried alive by now.

But even so, the original owner died.

"Tsk, the crime is unforgivable!"

How could she let someone like this go so easily? Just asking her to kneel down in the rain would be too much for her!

There will be many days when Liu Rumei will endure hardships!

Of course, before taking revenge, she must strengthen herself and the family. Otherwise, how can she deal with this 'good' second aunt who can coax her husband into becoming her son-in-law and change her last name to Liu? Woolen cloth?

Wiping his face again, Lin Caisang glanced at the clothes on the bed and prepared to get up from the barrel.

It was raining continuously, and several young men on the field stalks were walking towards the village. They had been in the mountains for several days.

"Cousin, cousin, grandma asked me to call you home. Something happened at home."

Lin Changyi held a small broken umbrella in his hand and ran out of the village in the drizzle. Not far from the forest, he met Lin Changhong who he was looking for.

"What happened?"

Lin Changhong was only a half-grown boy. After all, he was the same child as Lin Caisang. He was only thirteen years old, but he was extremely handsome with red lips and white teeth.

Hearing Lin Changyi's words, he tightened his hand holding the bow and arrow and asked.

"It's Cousin Sang, she...she was almost buried alive."

Lin Changyi tilted his gaze slightly and glanced at the other men around Lin Changhong. The young man turned red when he said the last few words.

Here, there is his most admired brother Ya Molian!

How could he say it out loud when there was such a second aunt in the family who specialized in cheating on his relatives and even dared to sell out his cousin Sang, who was loved by his grandpa and grandma?

"What?!"

An angry look appeared on Lin Changhong's face immediately, and the next moment, he ran away without even having time to inform the people next to him.

"Cousin, cousin...wait for me." Lin Changyi also hurriedly caught up.

His sister is stupid, but she won't be buried alive, right?

Also, who in the village dares to touch his sister? Aren't you afraid of being kicked out of the village by Rizheng and the clan leader? Buried alive? Which family's members were buried alive by his sister?

But the fact is that Lin Changyi will not lie to others, let alone the courage to lie to him!

His sister was really bullied!

"Buried alive?"

The man was dressed in black clothes and stood in the drizzle with a long bow in his hand. He didn't even wear a hat to protect him from the wind and rain. He let the rain slide down his face, depicting his cold appearance.

After hearing Lin Changyi's words, he frowned slightly, which added a bit of color to his calm face.

"Who dares to touch that girl Lin Caisang? Has the courage of a leopard changed after eating a bear's heart?" Another man, holding several prey in his hand, also asked doubtfully.

Who is Lin Caisang? O star of destiny and wealth!

That is the key target to be protected by their eighty-year-olds and children as young as three years old in Ya Village. Let alone being beaten, even a small cut on the finger is a big deal. Son!

Now, he was almost buried alive? !

"Enxi, go find out."

Looking at the retreating figures of Lin Changhong and Lin Changyi, Ya Molian gave instructions to the people around him.

"Okay." Ya Enxi nodded.

Even if it wasn't for Lin Caisang's reputation as a fortune star, they should still stand up for Lin Caisang for Uncle Baizhong who used to help them.
