

Lucky Star of Space on Farmlands

Chapter 20 Would Mr. Zhou recognize such a granddaughter-in-law?

"Grandma, I'm hungry. Didn't my elder brother dig bamboo shoots? Let's fry the bamboo shoots for lunch?"

Looking at Lin Lu's hesitant expression, Lin Caisang knew that she was reluctant to let go of her son Liu Baixiao. After all, no matter how angry she was, her son was still her son, and he was the flesh that fell from her body.

Therefore, she changed the topic directly.

"Fried bamboo shoots? Okay, I'll make the milk for you."

When Lin Lu heard that her granddaughter wanted to eat bamboo shoots, she immediately stood up and prepared to cook. It was time to make lunch.

"Sang Sang, are you... afraid that grandma will hear something?" Lin Changhong waited for Lin Lu to leave before looking at his sister.

"Brother, are you stupid?"

Lin Caisang secretly rolled his eyes, curled his lips, and was speechless at his eldest brother's simple brain.

"No matter how many wrong things my second uncle does, he is still our grandma's son. Don't you understand what kind of person grandma is? She has a hard mouth but a soft heart. Don't listen to what grandma is saying now that she doesn't recognize this son, but second uncle is If something really happens to Shu, Grandma is the one who is most anxious."

Even when dealing with Old Master Zhou and his family, if she hadn't been exerting all her strength on the side, I'm afraid it would have been the Lin family who were bullied, instead of like now, when Old Master Zhou and his whole family left angrily.

"Don't even think about it. If she could really be cruel and go directly to the county government office to sue her for being unfilial to her parents, it would be enough for her second uncle to drink a pot. But this is obviously unrealistic."

"This...is true.

Lin Changhong thought for a while and nodded.

"What should we do? Just let them go?"

"Um."

Lin Caisang naturally nodded.

"What else can we do if we don't let it go? Now Liu Rumei and Liu Yushui have come true. What did Liu Yushui and Zhou Liang do in the small bamboo forest? Needless to say about reputation, Liu Rumei is not even close to Zhou's family. Going to force a kiss?"

"Forced kiss?"

Hearing this, Lin Changhong was simply horrified.

Who is Mr. Zhou? How could he allow his granddaughter to marry Liu Yushui into the family? What's more, the two of them are dating in private without being honest. That's a big taboo!

Would Mr. Zhou recognize such a granddaughter-in-law?

Not to mention Old Master Zhou, not even Mrs. Zhou would want such a daughter-in-law, right? Her son is a scholar, and he will take the imperial examination this year. With such a scheming daughter-in-law who doesn't even blink an eye at murder, how many years will she have to live short?

"Yeah, forced kiss."

Lin Caisang nodded again, raised his hand, and touched his plump chin.

"Brother, tell me, how long will Liu Rumei have to wait for the Zhou family to be in trouble before the Zhou family can agree to the marriage between the Liu family next week? One day, two days, or a month?"

"Well."

Lin Changhong was choked.

Why did he see teasing and excitement in his sister's eyes? But not to mention, he was also quite excited.

"I don't know when the trouble will last."

"Let the two of them make trouble. The more they make trouble, the more difficult the future will be. And the more they make trouble, we can also live a leisurely life for a few days. However, if Liu Yushui really marries If you leave the Zhou family, there will definitely be some trouble in the future."

Lin Caisang chuckled lightly and said.

Liu Yushui, a woman with the same moral character as Liu Rumei, is extremely vindictive.

This is such a big secret loss at their hands. If there is a chance for revenge in the future, why not come back with revenge?

"What should we do?"

Lin Changhong looked a little anxious after hearing her words.
