

Star of Space 207

Chapter 207 Don't take advantage of that unfilial son!

Liu Baixiao looked at the empty yard and then at his son Liu Qingshui, grinding his teeth in anger.

"Dad, what should we do?" Liu Qingshui asked him.

"Didn't you say that grandpa will definitely take out the land deed? What's going on now? Doesn't he want to take it out? This is too snobbish. They used to fawn over us when we had money, but now they treat us like this, do you want to force us to death?"

He angrily said a lot of unpleasant words to vent his anger.

Liu Baixiao also frowned tightly, gritted his teeth and looked at the open door of the main room.

They originally wanted to change their surname back to Lin in exchange for their father and mother's good attitude towards them, but they didn't know that their parents did not agree to the change of their surname at all. Whether or not to change their surname was their own business. xǒo'''~::~''°ex

But he is no longer in the Lin family tree. If he can't return to the family tree, what's the use of changing his surname multiple times?

"We should have driven them out of the village yesterday. It's okay now. Let's just be annoyed by them every day." Lu Qiubo sat at the table, took a bite of the tortilla in his hand bitterly, and took another sip of rice soup. He looked at his husband, Lin Laojie.

"Old man, if you are soft-hearted, then go with them. I will not be soft-hearted. Also, hand over all the land deeds before leaving. Our family property will be left to Changhong and Laosan's family. , Can't take advantage of that unfilial son!"

To Liu Baixiao, she was worth a penny and she would not give him even a pinch of dirt in her family.

As for Sang Sang, she now has as much mountainous land as the Manghuang Mountains, and she can also go to the mountains to collect medicinal materials to earn money. She won't have to worry about her future dowry. Sang Sang probably doesn't like their little family fortune.

Of course, she will naturally give whatever she can.

"You are so old, why are you just talking nonsense?"

Lin Laogan glared at Lu Qiubo displeasedly and cursed angrily.

"Which of your eyes saw that I was soft-hearted? I was obviously angry with that unfilial thing! You didn't even listen to what he said. How could I be deceived by him?"

"Grandma, Grandma, from now on, you should keep some of the things at home. Second Uncle obviously can't get them, so maybe he will... You should know Second Uncle's temperament."

Lin Changfeng reminded them quietly while drinking rice soup.

Liu Baixiao has reached the highest level of being shameless. If he can't get it this time, he might have to steal it next time. If he can't steal it, he might even rob it.

If everyone is away from home, wouldn't it be dangerous if only grandpa is left at home?

So it's better to be careful.

"Don't worry about this." Lu Qiubo nodded immediately.

She had taken these things at home and hid them since the old man couldn't go to the ground anymore. Even her old man didn't know where they were kept. Of course, she couldn't give them to Liu Baixiao.

"You two eat, and I'll go see Hehe from the third family's house."

She stood up and remembered that there was still someone who hadn't gotten up yet, so she thought about waking up. She had to go to work later and was busy.

In the yard, when Liu Baixiao saw his mother coming out, he hurriedly greeted her and persuaded her to hand over all the land deeds to her home. However, Lu Qiubo didn't even look at him and went to the door of Yang Lin's room.

"It's almost time for the third child to get up. He girl, get up quickly too. She's busy today."

In a room, Lin Caihe heard grandma's voice outside, turned over, and saw that Lin Caiqing's bedding had been folded. It seemed that she had gotten up to work early.
