Chapter 209 Guaranteed Bullying Comes Back

"He girl, everyone has eyes and can see with their eyes." Lu Qiubo looked at her and said sincerely.

Now, her granddaughter is blaming her laziness on Sangsang. Why can't she look for the problem herself?

"You've grown up, and it's time to get married. Do you want to keep doing this? Like yesterday, have you done enough thankless things just for the sake of anger?

If you continue to behave like this after getting married, your husband's family will be at a disadvantage!"

"I....."

Lin Caihe gritted his teeth and did not dare to reply.

"Okay, Changfeng, don't talk about her anymore. Let's eat. He girl, go get the rice soup and eat it yourself. After that, you can go to work." Lin Laogan said.

"Um."

Lin Changfeng responded and stood up.

"Grandpa, grandma, mother, I've finished eating. I'll go to Menghuang Mountain for a visit first, and then come back to study."

With that said, he walked out.

Lin Caihe could only follow him out and go to the kitchen to get rice soup to drink.

"Old woman, what are you talking about, He girl? The more you talk, the angrier she will become." After his granddaughter went out, Lin Laogeng looked at Lu Qiubo and said.

He saw the dissatisfaction and resentment in He Yatou's eyes just now. He felt that it was everyone's fault for saying so about her. And she does everything right.

"I'm not..."

Lu Qiubo opened his mouth to explain, but in the end he swallowed all the words and shook his head helplessly.

"Dad, don't talk about mother. He girl has been spoiled. What will happen if she continues like this? It's time to change her bad temper." Yang Lin looked at his mother-in-law and said nothing. One sentence.

"Where are you..."

Lin Laogong shook his head.

"Many people will not change unless they have experienced some ups and downs. Look at Sangsang, since what happened last time, how is he still the little sheep that let others bully him without fighting back? He has grown up. He's also more sensible."

In the past, whenever someone said something to Sangsang, she would always say it was right. No matter whether she was right or wrong, she would never say a word of rejection. This gave Liu Rumei an opportunity.

Look at how good it is now. Whoever dares to bully her will definitely come back. This is his granddaughter, Lin Laogeng.

And He girl, if she doesn't get a lesson, can she change her temper?

"Let her go. There are always things she needs to experience on her own. However, don't let He girl go to Sangsang's house to toss. She is from the third family. You can take her to do the work at home. Before, Sangsang Didn't you say that you want to clean up the yard again? You take He Yatou to do it and don't let her go out. " he said.

It has to be said that Lin Laogan and Lin Baiyi have the same idea.

"Okay, I understand." Yang Lin nodded.

In the Golden Pearl Space, Lin Caisang had been reading the Jade Book, and found that there were too many things about space in it. The more she read, the more interesting it became, and she couldn't help but want to read it.

Just like what she is looking at now, it is about all the divisions in the cultivation of medicinal materials, that is to say, as long as it can be called medicinal materials and can cure diseases and save people, regardless of whether it is poison or not, it can be classified as medicine.

There are not only plants, but also animals, which can also be classified as medicinal cultivation.

There are also some ores that can be used as medicine and can also be included in medicinal materials. Collecting them and putting them in the gold bead space can improve the medicinal properties.
