Chapter 213 You won't be able to tell for a few times

"Well, originally I just wanted to raise him on Menghuang Mountain, but..."

Lin Caisang nodded again and locked her eyes on Lin Laogong. She had no choice but to raise a wolf at home.

"Grandpa, if Brother Changfeng wants to study, he can't be disturbed by his second uncle coming to his door from time to time. If Brother Changfeng himself doesn't know enough and fails to pass the exam, then everyone will have nothing to say. But if it's because of Second Uncle and his family, It's absolutely unacceptable to harm Brother Changfeng's future."

After listening to his granddaughter's words, Lin Laogong also took a deep breath and looked at Lin Changfeng with a deep look.

"Raising wolves is not a good thing after all." He shook his head.

If their family lived in a remote place, he would have no objection to raising snakes, let alone wolves, but they lived in a village.

If this wolf is really raised, how will it be able to gain a foothold in the village in the future?

"Sang Sang, the worst case scenario is that the Liu family will not be allowed to come to the house in the future. It's better not to raise wolves."

After listening to his grandfather's words, Lin Caisang glanced at Lin Changfeng, and then looked at him again, "Then I will raise them on Menghuang Mountain. Anyway, there are wooden houses built on the mountain, which are quite sturdy. Let Brother Changfeng live on the mountain." Go up and avoid being disturbed."

"I live in Menghuang Mountain?" Lin Changfeng raised his eyebrows and pointed at himself.

How could Sangsang have such an idea? He could still help with some things at home, but if he lived in the mountains, he would really be unable to do anything at home.

"Sangsang..."

"Brother Changfeng, just do as I say. In order to study, other people build a quiet room specifically for those who study. You are locked up at home every day, how can you still think about studying?"

Lin Caisang didn't give him a chance to speak and spoke directly.

"I think the third uncle and the third aunt will not object. Grandpa, what do you think?"

"This...just do what you say, Changfeng, listen to Sangsang."

Lin Laojie hesitated for a moment, but thinking that Liu Baixiao and his son had just left and might come back at some time, he felt that continuing like this was not an option.

...

Not long after, Lin Caisang and Lin Changfeng quickly washed several bowls in the kitchen.

"Sangsang, why do you want me to live in the mountains?"

Putting the bowl in the cupboard, Lin Changfeng turned to look at Lin Caisang, who was leaning against the stove, and asked.

"What's wrong?" Lin Caisang blinked.

She didn't think there was anything wrong with Lin Changfeng going to live on Menghuang Mountain. Lin Caihe was already at home, so Lin Changfeng always had to pay attention to her and couldn't concentrate on studying. Now that there are more people, she doesn't know when. Liu Baixiao's family came to visit.

Is there anything wrong with going to Menghuang Mountain?

"You don't know, the second uncle came here just now to get the land deed from grandpa. If I go to the mountain and no one is watching here, maybe the land deed will be coaxed away by the second uncle."

Lin Changfeng expressed his worries.

Grandpa is already soft-hearted, and Liu Baixiao is his biological son after all. If he can't be coaxed away once, he won't be able to tell if he will be coaxed a few times.

"stupid."

Lin Caisang glanced at him and chuckled.

"The land deed is in Grandma's hands. No one can take it away without Grandma's consent."

"Even so, grandpa is still the head of our family. I'm worried..." Lin Changfeng still frowned.

I always feel that this matter is not that simple. With Liu Baixiao's mouth, he can tell people whether they are dead or alive. How can he not worry about it.
