

Star of Space 223

Chapter 223 Are you jealous?

After saying that, he walked to the bamboo basket he had just dropped, picked out some wild vegetables, put them in the bamboo basket, and walked out of the yard.

"You...Lin Caisang, what's your attitude!"

Lin Caihe looked at her arrogant look and was so angry that his nose was crooked, and he yelled at her back.

"Lin Caihe, what's your attitude? Go to the kitchen and prepare the meal quickly. Sangsang picked wild vegetables and came back to cook some wild vegetables. You are the only one who has the most leisure time in the house. You are still acting out your temper. Do you really think that no one can cure you? ?"

Lin Changfeng was also angry with her.

He also heard the meaning of Lin Caihe's words just now. Unexpectedly, Brother Mo Lian took good care of their family, but Lin Caihe thought that he was interested in her. How could this girl have such a big heart and dare to think about anything.

"Brother, are you talking about me too?" Lin Caihe looked at Lin Changfeng with aggrieved face.

"I said it was for your own good and go cook."

Lin Changfeng flicked his sleeves and turned back to his room.

He also felt that it was impossible to explain to this sister. The more they talked, she would only feel that what she did was right, and they were just deliberately going against her.

If it weren't for the fact that Lin Caihe was his biological sister, he would really want to...

Forget it, no matter how much I think about it, I can only do this. Is it possible that Lin Caisang can be locked up and not allowed to go out?

...

Carrying the bamboo basket, she arrived at Ya Molian's house. She only heard a faint sound coming from the kitchen, so she strode over.

"How about having lunch at my house?"

Ya Molian was chopping half a chicken in her hand. When she saw her coming, she turned around and asked her.

Lin Caisang: "..."

If she really wants to eat here, she will be drowned by the spitting stars in the village. As the saying goes, a man and a woman are alone, isn't that what they are talking about.

Moreover, Lin Caihe, the one at home who had a problem with her, happened to have something to say again.

"Did you hear that? Don't take things from my house in the future. You will be misunderstood later." She put on a cold face and looked at Ya Molian's back.

"I didn't do anything wrong." Ya Molian shrugged and said.

What others want to think is their business, he only does what he thinks is right.

"Tsk, why can't you..." not listen to what others say?

Lin Caisang gave a light 'tsk', put down the bamboo basket and quickly came to his side, "You think you did nothing wrong, others don't think so. Listen, Lin Caisang thinks you admire her."

This idea is really unacceptable. Even she, the master of time travel, feels that Ya Molian is too dangerous, let alone Lin Caihe?

She really didn't know where Lin Caihe's confidence came from, and she thought Ya Molian would like her. It was obvious that every time Ya Molian went to Lin's house, she would never talk to Lin Caihe, let alone look at her!

Could it be that... everything must be reversed when it reaches its extreme?

Lin Caihe wouldn't think that Ya Molian was shy and embarrassed to talk to her, right?

"Jealous?"

Ya Molian looked sideways, glanced at her with a smile, and asked.

Lin Caisang: "!!!"

There was something wrong with his eyes. Which eye did he see her being jealous of?

Besides, Lin Caihe can make her jealous? Could it be that she grew up in a vinegar vat?

"Hey, can you make me jealous?" She rolled her eyes at him with disdain.

"Don't worry, except for you, I won't take another look at any other woman." Ya Molian ignored her words and added another sentence.

"Deadly!"

Lin Caisang was speechless and muttered to himself.
