

Star of Space 228

Chapter 228 I should treat her better

Lin Caisang looked at Ya Molian who was standing in front of him speechlessly. Is there anyone in the world who is more helpless than Ya Molian? He obviously didn't do anything, but it was as if he was Chen Shimei in this life.

He obviously meant well, but he did bad things.

"Brother Mo Lian, please go back to your home. This is our family's business and has nothing to do with you."

She said to him that she didn't want him to become the leading actor in rumors because of their family, which would be too sorry for him.

"I'll make honey chicken for you tonight, and you...come and eat with Chang Hong."

After thinking about it, he also felt that he should leave first, but he still turned to look at Lin Caisang. He originally wanted her to go to his place alone, but he could only change his mind and call Lin Changhong.

Lin Caisang: "..."

She thinks the matter here isn't big enough, yet she dares to add fuel to the fire!

"Okay, my eldest brother and I will definitely go there." He nodded.

In order to let him leave early, she had no choice but to agree. Anyway, it was up to her whether she wanted to eat or not. She was just a little greedy at most, so it was fine.

Seeing her answer, Ya Molian turned around and left. However, as soon as he reached the entrance of the courtyard, he heard Lin Caihe's ghostly roaring voice, shouting at him.

"Brother Mo Lian, what is so good about Lin Caisang? You all care about her so much? Protect her? Are others worthless in your eyes?"

She didn't believe that she was really so despised, that no one took her seriously.

Hearing this, Ya Molian paused and looked at Lin Caihe seriously.

"I protect little Sangzi because Uncle Baizhong also protected me in the past. Not only Xiao Sangzi, but also Changhong. I will protect their brothers and sisters. Of course, Xiao Sangzi also saved me, so I should protect him even more." Treat her well."

After saying that, he turned and left.

Lin Caisang: "..."

He said it so righteously, and people who didn't know better thought that this guy was really saving his life because of her father and her, but that was not the case at all!

Lin Changhong: "..."

Looking at his sister with a faint look, he was indeed superfluous. Brother Mo Lian only mentioned him in passing after talking about Sangsang, and everyone used him as an excuse.

But, sister, didn't you say that Brother Mo Lian is dangerous, so stay away from him?

Why are you taking the lead in your own rebellion now? What kind of situation is this? Please forgive me for accepting it badly.

When Lin Caihe saw Ya Molian leaving, he looked at Lin Caisang with red eyes and tilted his head, "Lin Caisang, it's all because of you. Why do you get all the good things and everyone comes to scold me?"

"Lin Caihe, you——"

Lin Laogong and everyone were angered by her words.

He had done something wrong and yet he came to blame other people. He shouldn't have been soft-hearted and said nice things to her just now. It felt like those nice words had been fed to the dog in an instant.

"You're so shameless!" In the end, he could only choke out one sentence.

"He'er, you will be rewarded if you give. Think about it, what have you given, and why should you let others treat you well?" Yang Lin stood up and looked at his daughter with disappointment.

"What about her? What has she done? You want to serve her with delicious food and drinks every day, and you want me to serve her too? She is also grandpa's granddaughter, why should I serve her like an old mother?"

Lin Caihe raised his hand angrily and pointed directly at Lin Caisang.

Everyone: "..."

"Since when did you serve my sister like an old lady?" Lin Changhong looked at his sister in confusion, and then at his grandpa and grandma. He had no idea how Lin Caihe came to this conclusion?
