

Star of Space 236

Chapter 236 There will be no such rules in the future!

"Don't you want to be fair? This is the most fair thing. Everyone relies on their own sweat to earn money in exchange for food and drink, and no one is exception."

Hearing this, Lin Caihe was completely confused. She had never thought that she would be forced into such a desperate situation by just eating half a chicken. There was no fairness in this.

It was obvious that everyone in the family was forcing her!

She looked at Lin Caisang angrily, feeling that all this was caused by her, and that the suffering she suffered at home was all because of Lin Caisang!

Seeing Lin Caihe staring at him like this, Lin Caisang raised his eyebrows and raised his eyebrows at her.

"He'er, haven't you always looked down on me? You shouldn't let me pay you some money, right? Huh?"

"I....."

Lin Caihe opened his mouth, wanting to say 'yes', but couldn't.

"I can pay you some money."

Lin Caisang's lips curled up slightly, looking at her with a half-smile. Seeing that she opened her mouth to say something, she continued.

"But look, Qing'er and Changyi work every day on Menghuang Mountain, so I paid them their contribution. If you don't do anything, I will pay you too. How unfair it is to them."

She glanced at Lin Caiqing and Lin Changyi, then looked at the others, saw them nodding, and then looked at Lin Caihe again.

"Look, everyone agrees with what I said, and I also feel that I will only pay them wages if they help me. This is what I think is fair, don't you think?"

"you....."

When Lin Caihe saw her saying this, he suddenly became angry.

"Have I never done any work for you? Don't you force me to work every day?"

"Come on, second sister."

As soon as she finished speaking, Lin Changyi looked at her with contempt.

"With the little work you do, is it as much as the third sister can do in one day in ten days? Besides, you don't even look at what you are doing. The vegetable seedlings have been damaged by you and can no longer be planted. If Sister Sang really asks you to work for her, what will happen? "

"You and I....."

Lin Caihe pursed his lips, not knowing how to answer.

"Okay, okay, today I'm not talking about who's wrong. Let's just settle the issue of the share of the money. This will save anyone from clamoring about it being unfair in the future."

Lu Qiubo saw that the few children were about to make a noise again, so he quickly spoke up to stop them.

"As for what vegetables to buy at home, it's all up to me. Don't expect to have meat every now and then. No one's money just falls from the sky."

"What?"

Lin Caihe's eyes widened.

She was used to her current life. She drank oil and water into her stomach every day. How could she suddenly come and tell her to eat and drink less?

"Grandma, you've already paid your share of the money, so how can you still pay...Besides, Brother Changhong can't go hunting in the mountains. If he runs out of meat, why don't we just let him go to the mountains?"

Thinking that she hadn't paid her contribution yet, she paused, then thought of Lin Changhong who knew how to hunt, and looked at him with a mumble.

"Changhong himself has to pay the membership fee. Even if he goes hunting, he still has to sell it to the town for money. Why should he feed you? Why, you are so good-looking and everyone has to hang around you?"

Lu Qiubo glared at her and shouted sharply.

"I....."

"Not only are they meat, but from now on the wild eggs that Sangsang picked up on the mountain will no longer be brought to the house. Anyone who wants to eat can pick them up themselves, or use money to buy them. Who deserves to be served and eaten by whom?"

Lu Qiubo said again.

"Our family will never have such rules in the future!"
