

Lucky Star of Space on Farmlands

Chapter 24 It's actually poisoning!

Involuntarily, she raised her hand and knocked the melon on her head, cursing herself secretly.

The sound just now sounded like she was hurt. It was so painful. How could she still be in the mood to take over someone else's house as her own?

Thinking about it, she quickly opened the courtyard door and walked in. She placed the bamboo basket on the courtyard, then ran up the bamboo steps and knocked on the door. "Is anyone here? Please open the door."

After half a while, there was silence in the air. Not even a single insect, let alone a person, flew past Lin Caisang's eyes.

"You're not fainting, are you?"

She muttered to herself and gritted her teeth.

"No matter, let's go in and take a look. I'm not breaking into a house privately. I'm obviously trying to save someone's life. What are you afraid of?"

With that said, she pushed open the door and walked in.

"Exiled Jue, what are you doing to stop me? If the palace master knows that we are not doing our job well, then..." In the forest, a young man and woman had been secretly observing the bamboo house. They watched Lin Caisang go in, but nothing happened. Can not do.

The woman frowned and glared at the man beside her.

"The palace master will only be angry if you appear in front of her at will."

Ban Jue glanced at her gleamingly, his face did not change at all because of the woman's words, he remained calm as usual.

"Exiled, don't forget your identity!"

"you--"

After hearing what he said, Xi grinded his teeth and wished he could strike the person in front of him with one palm, but he still couldn't do anything. He could only take a deep breath and shake his sleeves at him.

"I'm too lazy to argue with you!"

As soon as she finished speaking, she continued to stare at the bamboo house carefully, waiting for Lin Caisang to leave.

Lin Caisang didn't know about the people in the forest who were watching eagerly. As soon as she entered the house, she was shocked by the image in front of her. In the house, stools overturned and tables overturned, and everything that could stand upright fell to the ground.

And this wasn't what shocked her. What shocked her was the man who fell to the ground and fell into a coma.

"Ya Mo Lian? Ya Mo Lian, why are you..."

She walked over quickly, wanting to ask him how he was here, but when the words came to her lips, she saw the man with his eyes tightly closed, and she swallowed them hard.

She reached out, held his wrist and began to feel his pulse. After a while, her face became serious.

"It's actually poisoning!"

And it's not an ordinary poison, but a chronic poison, a chronic poison that won't kill you if you eat it, but will make you miserable when it's poisoned.

"Who are you?"

She lowered her head and looked at the man with purple-black lips and closed eyes who showed no reaction at all, and she murmured to herself.

Ya Molian is not from Ya Village, but was adopted by a family named Ya in the village fifteen years ago, when she was not born yet.

I just heard someone mention that Ya Mo Lian has been very powerful since she was adopted at the age of five. With her small body, she could kill an adult wild wolf, so she was adopted. That family also took a fancy to Ya Mo Lian's ability.

He lived in that family for ten years and left five years ago in a violent way. He bought that family's old house and lived in it, which was the house next door to hers.

Therefore, the people in Ya Village really don't know where Ya Molian comes from and what kind of life experience she has.

"Don't care who he is first, save him later."

It is said that doctors are benevolent. Although she may not have much benevolence, Ya Molian did help her yesterday. For this reason, she should reciprocate.
