Chapter 241 I haven't agreed yet

"This...isn't good. So many people are watching. It has a bad impact. It's too bad." She shook her head and refused to go with Ya Molian.

"Besides you and me, is there anyone else here?" Ya Molian asked her.

"Well."

Lin Caisang choked at his words and looked weakly at the horse under him.

"It still doesn't work. Look at you, you are quite strong. I am... fat. If the two of us really sat on it together, the horse would be crushed by us? I have always been kind-hearted, how could I do this? Such a thing, no, no."

She shook her head.

Hearing this, Ya Mo Lian shook her head almost imperceptibly, bent down directly, reached out and took the bamboo basket on her back to his other hand, took her arm, and pulled her in front of him. .

"Ah! Alas, alas, I haven't agreed yet. I, I...you..." You don't want to play like this.

Watching the horse gallop forward under the driving force of Ya Molian, Lin Caisang didn't even have a chance to disagree.

"Hey, that's Mo Lian from the Yatu family. Who is the person on his horse? Why does he look so familiar?"

At the entrance of the village, two women came over carrying vegetable baskets, also waiting for the bullock cart. They happened to see Ya Molian's retreating back, and the fluttering clothes in front of his mount.

One of the women squinted her eyes and asked her companion next to her.

"Who is from the Yatu family? Ya Mo Lian has moved out of the Ya Tu family a long time ago. You don't know how Ya Mo Lian worked as a cow and horse for the Ya Tu family in those years. Don't involve these two people again. It's related."

The other woman glanced at the woman next to her and sneered.

Her home is next to Yatuja, and she had already married to Yacun five years ago. She has seen how Yamolian lives in Yatuja.

When Ya Mo Lian wanted to move out, she was in favor of it with both hands. She couldn't let Ya Tu's family ruin a good young man, right?

"Right."

The woman nodded, thinking that this was also the case.

"Tsk, that person can't be Ya Jin, right? I heard that Ya Tu's eldest daughter has always wanted to marry Ya Mo Lian. She..."

Why did Yamo Lian leave the Yatu family back then? What came out from the Yatu family was different from what some of Yamolian's friends said. Especially Yatu's wife, Shen Jiaonan, always said that Yamolian was because She likes her eldest daughter, so she moved out to avoid suspicion.

She is still waiting for Yajin to come and have Yamolian marry her.

"Ah, you can pull it off. Do you believe Shen Jiaonan's mouth?" Another woman took a sip and asked her.

If it's like what Shen Jiaonan said, Ya Jinlai is already sixteen this year, why is there still no movement at Ya Molian's side, not even a serious look at Ya Jinlai?

This is obviously because Shen Jiaonan wants to ruin Ya Molian's reputation, and at the same time put gold on his own face. Only those who can believe it are evil.

"Ya Molian doesn't even look at Ya Nian'er, so why would she fall in love with Ya Jinlai? You heard Shen Jiaonan talking nonsense. If you believe her words, my sows can fly into the sky."

"puff!"

The woman listened to her words and laughed.

"That's right, I really can't believe what Shen Jiaonan said, but then...who is the person Ya Molian took with him?"

The two of them were confused at the same time. Although the girls in the village were very fond of Yamolian, this young man had never liked anyone before. Now he actually took a girl out with him. Who could it be?
