Chapter 248 Go to Menghuang Mountain to see the mountains

Zhong Yun felt that his idea was so right. Thanks to his clever mind, he could think of such a good way. It was a blessing.

"Look at my father, he has such a soft heart. He would treat Zhong You better than me, a bastard. What if Zhong You really deceives me?"

"this....."

Mr. Zhong was a little hesitant, but was persuaded by his grandson and asked him.

"Can you do it?"

"Old man, you look down on people, don't you?"

When Zhong Yun saw him asking this question, he knew that he was on his side. He felt proud and raised his eyebrows.

"Didn't you say that I look most like you when you were young? With my abilities, I will definitely make our Zhong family more famous and richer. Just wait and see.

"this....."

"Old man, please stop hesitating. Zhong You will be back soon. By then, your precious grandson, I, will really get nothing."

Seeing that he was still hesitant, Zhong Yun took another dose of strong medicine.

When Mr. Zhong was young, he was harmed by his concubine brother when he inherited the family business. He would definitely turn to him as his legitimate son and would never give Zhong You the slightest chance.

Of course he was sure of this.

"Then...well, I'll talk to your father when he comes back." Mr. Zhong finally relaxed.

Hearing this, Zhong Yun felt completely comfortable, and even the pain on his face had subsided a lot. He lay back down and let the maids wait on him to apply the medicine.

In the carriage, Lin Caisang and Ya Molian sat on each side, and they were about to reach the village entrance. Because the Zhong family was far away, it was almost night time when they came and went, the sky was getting dark, and there was no one at the village entrance.

"He is seriously injured, so he should come to my house to recuperate first." The carriage stopped at the entrance of the village, and Ya Molian's deep voice reached Lin Caisang's ears.

Hearing this, Lin Caisang lowered his head, thought for a while, and then nodded.

"That's fine."

Put him in his own home, and there is such a powerful figure as Lin Caihe in the home. Tomorrow, there will be a lot of news in the village that she, Lin Caisang, has taken a strange man into her home.

Speaking of which, Lin Caihe is really a brainless person, and there is nothing she can do about her.

"Based on today's situation, it's not easy to share Zhong You's life experience with the people in the village. Then you can just say that he was the person we rescued on the roadside because he injured his head and forgot everything. , It also saves you from having trouble answering when someone asks."

Ya Molian said again.

"This is a good idea." Lin Caisang's eyes lit up.

Before, she didn't know how to tell her family about Zhong You. If she just said that he had lost his memory, she wouldn't be able to ask anything.

Also, a person who has lost his memory and is penniless can't just run out of the village, right? There has to be a family that takes him in.

"Brother Mo Lian, without you, I don't know how I would explain to my grandpa and grandma."

she said.

Yamolian: "..."

This girl is busy explaining to the two elders. Have you ever thought about how to explain to him?

Just bringing a man back like this, aren't you afraid that he will be angry? There was really nothing he could do against her.

"Why."

Shaked his head.

"When he recovers from his injuries, I will discuss with Grandpa Lin and let him go to Menghuang Mountain to see the mountains. It just so happens that he will call you master," he added.

"Going to Manghuang Mountain?"

Lin Caisang frowned and thought for a moment.
