

Lucky Star of Space on Farmlands

Chapter 25 Where are the people? Why is it missing?

Thinking about it, she raised her hand, quickly removed a few bamboo sticks from her head, and inserted them into several major acupuncture points on Yamolian's body.

Now that she has no medicinal materials on hand, all she can do is to use acupuncture to temporarily suppress the toxicity for him. Moreover, even if she has medicine in her hand, it doesn't matter what she wants in her hand now. There is also Yamolian poisoning. It is impossible to detoxify quickly.

After all, she is not familiar with this world yet, and Chinese medicine is so broad and profound!

After a while, the black air on Ya Molian's face slowly receded, and her lips returned to red, but a little pale, which was the result of the retrograde flow of qi and blood due to the pain she had just resisted.

Just rest for a few days.

It's just that this poison is still in the body after all, and it may attack again at any time.

...

Finally, Lin Caisang looked at the furnishings in the bamboo house and realized that Ya Molian had made a mess. Moreover, this was the inner forest after all. Who knew if a wild beast would come out and kill Ya Molian when she was unconscious. The person she finally rescued was taken away?

He was unconscious anyway and wouldn't wake up for a while.

So, she threw the person into the golden bead space, closed the door of the bamboo house, put the bamboo basket on her back and left.

When Ban Jue and Ban Xi determined that Lin Caisang had gone far and would not come back, when they came to the bamboo house again, where was the trace of Ya Molian?

"Where are the people? Banished, where are the people? Why are they missing?"

Ban Xi turned around in a circle, looking at the mess everywhere, but the only person they wanted to see was missing, and asked Ban Jue with scarlet eyes.

She was sure that Lin Caisang walked alone, carrying only a bamboo basket with empty hands. It was impossible for him to take someone away. But now, the person who should have been unconscious has disappeared!

Could she still stuff people into bamboo baskets and take them away?

"Maybe he left."

Ban Jue looked at the empty bamboo house and said lightly.

Apart from leaving, where else could I be? This bamboo house is so obvious that it can't hide anyone at all. What else could it be if it weren't for leaving?

"Now that people have left, let's go too."

"Damn it, who is that woman? I must find out! I must find out!!!" Exiled Xi angrily punched the pillar beside him and said through gritted teeth.

Seeing that her goal was about to be achieved, but at the most critical moment, she disappeared. How could she not hate her?

"Exiled Xi, don't forget your identity!" Exiled Jue said this again.

"you--"

Ban Xi had a bad breath stuck in his throat, but he still couldn't do anything about banishing him.

Identity, identity, why does she have to be inferior to others? What happened to her identity? Can that woman still be superior to others? She's just a country girl!

That country girl ruined her plan, was she going to let her off lightly?

"No matter how wordy you are, you really won't be able to keep up!"

With that said, she turned around and left quickly.

Banishment: "..."

Who is this? Is it him?

This woman is really sick. I really don't understand why the palace master sent him to perform the mission with her. He is going deep into dangerous places by himself, and he doesn't want to have such a woman around him who will disgust him at any time.

However, there is no other way. The palace master's order is everything and he cannot violate it.

Sighing helplessly, he followed out.

Not far from Yacun, because it was noon, no one was in the fields, and everyone went home.
