Chapter 251 Exploring the truth

As Ya Mo Lian's neighbors, they had seen such things before. There were many girls in the village who liked him, and quite a few of them came to his door. ㄟㄣ

"Then... is this true?" Lu Qiubo still couldn't believe it and couldn't help but ask.

"Anyway, that's what I think. It's almost certain that we are inseparable." Yang Lin nodded.

"Otherwise, why do you think he went to the mountains to get four little wolves? And, mother, don't you think this is such a coincidence? Just after Changfeng's second uncle came back, Ya Molian came. The little wolf cub was brought here, maybe he had discussed it with Sangsang early in the morning."

"It really is."

Lu Qiubo thought about it carefully and felt that it was really the case.

"Then...if that's really the case, should we go to Mo Lian's place to find out the truth about this matter? We can't let them go, right?"

"Don't."

Yang Lin quickly shook his head.

"Mom, I don't think there's anything wrong with letting nature take its course. You've also seen that the marriage between the boy from the Zhou family and Sangsang was so good in the mouths of the elders. Isn't it for this reason? , it can be seen that the more we people get involved, the more uncomfortable we make them.

Just let them get along with each other on their own, and don't make it look like we are forcing them. It will be bad when the time comes. "

"Tsk, that's right."

Lu Qiubo rubbed his apron with both hands and nodded.

"Okay, let's just watch. As long as Sangsang likes it, anyone can do it.

In the yard of Ya Molian's house.

"Sang Sang, who is this person? Why do you bring everyone home?" Lin Changhong took his sister and gave Ya Molian all the work of applying medicine to Zhong You.

He was in the yard and asked his sister righteously.

"What do you mean you bring everyone home? Brother, can you speak?" Lin Caisang rolled her eyes at him and asked.

"Oh, you saw a dying person outside, just looked at it and turned around and walked away? You can do such a thing, but I can't do it. I won't risk it if God takes care of me later. risk."

Lin Changhong: "!!!"

Is this girl still his biological sister?

If she can't do it, then he can do it and refuse to save her. If he is the only one who should be dealt with by God, shouldn't he?

"Aren't I asking about this man's situation? You said he was so seriously injured. Tsk tsk, he couldn't have offended some enemy, right? What if he knew that this man was rescued by you and came back to find him?"

Lin Caisang: "..."

Brother, don't worry, Zhong Yuna was not hurt by any enemy, but by his own family members.

But she couldn't say this to her brother.

"I saved you anyway, what else do you want?"

"I....."

Lin Changhong was speechless and could only look at his sister blankly.

"Okay, we've saved him. How about throwing him out again? Why don't you try throwing him out?" Lin Caisang raised an eyebrow at him and said.

"What else can I do?"

Lin Changhong was choked by her and rolled his eyes secretly. Everyone has been rescued. Now he is driving out. If someone dies on the way, is it considered that they killed him or something?

What's more, he's not the kind of person who refuses to save someone.

"It's just, Sangsang, you can't mess around. Although that person is good-looking, we... ugh!"

Before he finished speaking, Lin Caisang raised his hand and stopped him.

"Brother, can you shut your crow mouth?"
