Chapter 259 Kill you, you heartless thing!

So she deliberately set her off, causing their family to fall into this situation, and then added insult to injury.

This must be what happened. She will definitely seek revenge from Lin Caisang, for sure!

"Really, when?" Lin Caihe asked her impatiently.

She never wanted to live a day with Lin Caisang weighing down on her. Now she had to be ordered by her grandma to do household chores every day, and she would be scolded if she didn't do well.

This is all caused by Lin Caisang.

As long as Lin Caisang dies, she will be the most precious granddaughter in Grandma's heart. 69shux.Com

"Why, you want her to die so much?" Liu Yushui raised an eyebrow and glanced at Lin Caihe.

If you want to deal with Lin Caisang, maybe Lin Caihe is the best candidate in front of you. She and Lin Caisang live under the same roof. It couldn't be easier to do something against Lin Caisang.

"Looking at your aggrieved look, did she bully you? Let's talk about it. If she really dares to bully you, I will avenge you."

It is naturally impossible to avenge Lin Caihe's little mud-legged person, but this little mud-legged person is so easy to coax, it is still okay to let her help him do things.

"It's not just about family matters. Now Lin Caisang can make money. Grandpa and grandma only use her as a treasure. I am just a piece of grass. She, Lin Caisang, doesn't have to do anything. Someone will bring her food. In front of her, as for me, I am being pushed here and there every day. Look at my hands, they are all covered in blood blisters.

Lin Caihe stretched out his hand to show Liu Yushui, and his mouth was full of abusive words for Lin Caisang.

"Oh, yes, look at the torment on this hand, it makes me feel bad just looking at it."

Liu Yushui pretended to take a look, but in fact he couldn't see anything in the dark.

"That's right."

Seeing her saying this, Lin Caihe became even more excited and stamped her foot vigorously.

"Cousin Yushui, you don't know that now everyone in our family has to pay 150 yuan to grandma every month. If you don't pay, you won't have food to eat. This is all Lin Caisang's idea."

"Pay the monthly payment? Don't you have parents? They didn't pay it to you?" Liu Yushui asked.

She muttered to herself, luckily she wasn't taken in by the Lin family, otherwise where would she get 150 yuan to give to Lu Qiubo, and she had to pay it every month.

I can think of it!

"They won't pay me. I have to work every day to pay for the money, otherwise I will go hungry." Lin Caihe curled his lips.

She got angry when she thought of her parents. She even suspected that they were not her parents, but Lin Caisang's parents. They never helped her, but they kept telling Sangsang one after another.

"Tell me about that bitch Lin Caisang. She has as much land as a barren mountain. Why couldn't she pay that little money for me? It was obviously intentional! Now that she's fine, she actually asked her eldest brother to take away the food at home. Sneak it out and give it to Liu Chushui. Does she think our food belongs to her alone?"

Cousin Yushui, do you think Lin Caisang can't live too much? "

"What?!"

Liu Yushui screamed, but she didn't hear the rest of the words. She only heard one sentence: Lin Caisang asked Lin Changhong to sneak food to Liu Chushui!

"What a Liu Chushui, you actually eat alone when you have something to eat. If I don't tell dad, I will kill you, you heartless thing!"

With that said, she paid no attention to Lin Caihe and rushed towards her home. She must make Liu Chushui, a wolf-hearted person, die miserably.
