Chapter 266 Live your 'good' life!

"Do you think no one will come to settle accounts with you for the evil things your family did to Sangsang? Huh, just wait, live in this village and live your 'good' life!"

As soon as he finished speaking, the man clenched one hand into a fist and wrapped the other hand around it, making a "clucking" sound, which scared Liu Baixiao to tremble.

"I....."

"Sang Sang, go on, what bad things did Liu Baixiao do?"

Seeing that Liu Baixiao didn't dare to speak, the man waved his sleeves at him, then looked at Lin Caisang with a smile and asked.

"Lin Caisang, if you dare to speak nonsense, I..." Liu Baixiao would not be able to get favors from others, but Lin Caisang was a little girl, so he felt that he could still threaten her.

"What do you want?" Lin Caisang glanced at him with cold eyes and asked.

"I....."

"Grandpa Patriarch, this is what happened today."

Lin Caisang completely ignored Liu Baixiao's other threats and looked at Patriarch Lin.

"Yesterday morning when I went to pick wild vegetables in the forest, I passed by the river over there. I happened to encounter Chu Shui from my second uncle's house who fell into the river. I rescued him and brought him home to change his body. clothes and some food."

"Sangsang, didn't you do something kind? How does it have anything to do with today's incident?" Patriarch Lin was a little confused after hearing this.

Even good deeds can turn into bad deeds. How can Liu Baixiao be allowed to beat his son like this? Why didn't he really believe him, but they had watched Lin Caisang grow up, and it didn't seem like he could lie to others.

He glanced sideways at Lu Qiubo, trying to tell whether Lin Caisang was lying from her face.

Seeing Patriarch Lin looking at her grandma, Lin Caisang opened her mouth to continue speaking, but Lu Qiubo grabbed her wrist and stopped her.

"Grandma..."

She thought it was because Lu Qiubo didn't want his family scandal to be publicized, so she frowned, but then she heard Lu Qiubo's voice ringing in her ears.

"Sang Sang, don't worry about the adult's affairs. Let grandma talk to the clan leader."

Liu Baixiao is Sang Sang's second uncle after all. Now it is Liu Baixiao who has offended the public. Everyone thinks that whatever Sang Sang says is fine, but if this matter calms down one day, someone might catch Sang Sang and disrespect him. The elders are gossiping about this matter.

She sighed heavily and did not intend to cover up for Liu Baixiao.

"Hey, our family is so unfortunate that something bad happened! Yesterday Sang Sang came back with Chu Shui, and I was even frightened."

"Patriarch, I also heard about this yesterday. After Sangsang rescued Liu Chushui home, I heard that Liu Rumei scolded her a lot in the yard of Old Uncle Geng's house, saying that her son was cheating on him and asking for help from Old Lin's family. I don't recognize this son anymore."

A man next to Patriarch Lin whispered in his ear.

"Is there such a thing?"

After hearing the man's words, Patriarch Lin's face immediately darkened and he looked at Liu Baixiao.

"It's not just that. Patriarch, you don't know why a child like Chu Shui fell into the river so far away. It's not like there is no water in the village. That's because he was beaten by such an unscrupulous pair. My parents forced me to catch fish in the river."

Lu Qiubo told them all the good things Liu Baixiao had done one by one.

"I saw that the child was pitiful. He didn't even eat breakfast and his stomach was growling because of hunger, so I left him at home for lunch. Who knew that this kind intention could lead to bad things? As soon as the child came home, he was killed by Liu Baixiao. This vicious biological father was locked up without any food or water.
