

Star of Space 271

Chapter 271 It's all just pretending, get up quickly!

"What? What did you say?!"

Hearing Liu Yushui's admission, Lin Changfeng couldn't believe his ears.

"Lin Caihe, this dead girl!" Yang Lin also cursed secretly.

Lu Qiubo felt his ears buzzing, his whole body went limp, and he fell backwards.

"Grandma, Grandma, brother, come here quickly."

Lin Caisang quickly supported her with eyes and hands, and Lin Changhong also came to help, so Lu Qiubo didn't fall.

"What a sin, how come the Lin family has such vicious descendants?!" Lu Qiubo took a deep breath, tears fell from the corners of his eyes, and he patted his thighs heavily with both hands.

"Grandma, don't be angry, don't be angry."

Yang Lin and Lin Changfeng also ran over and pushed Liu Yushui away. Lin Changfeng quickly advised.

"Mom, don't be angry. I will teach He'er a lesson later. Let's go home." Yang Lin also advised.

She also felt like she was dreaming. She didn't expect that her daughter was so evil-minded that she actually consulted with Liu Yushui to kill Lin Caisang. She definitely wanted to make the whole family angry.

But now my mother-in-law is almost fainting. Let's not talk about anything else. We need to send her home first.

At this moment, Lin Baiyi happened to arrive driving an ox cart. Lin Caisang, Lin Changhong, and Lin Changfeng gathered together and asked Yang Lin to help Lu Qiubo. They went to the room and helped Liu Chushui get on the ox cart. .

"Oh, look at this person who was beaten, his face is covered with blood, and his body... tsk tsk."

"See if you are disabled like this. Will you be able to stand up in the future? You have to be dragged around. Changfeng, can't you even carry it on your back? Why are you being dragged around like this?"

When the men saw Liu Chushui, who was tilting his head and could not lift it up, they all took a step back and showed sympathetic expressions. Some asked.

"It seems that the ribs are broken. I'm afraid I won't be able to carry it on my back." Lin Changfeng shook his head and helped Liu Chushui onto the bullock cart.

"Tsk, this is quite cruel. Patriarch, Liu Baixiao's family really can't keep him. Who knows when they will go crazy, and they might beat up the people in the village."

"That's right, clan leader, we can't keep people like this around. Get out of the village quickly."

The men looked at the patriarch and asked what he meant.

But the patriarch was also in a dilemma. The small yard had been sold, and the money was in his pocket. He was somewhat reluctant to take it out again, so he could only focus on Lin Caisang.

"Sang Sang, look at your second uncle's side..."

"Grandpa Patriarch, my grandma was so angry today that Chu Shui also needs to be treated for her injuries. Let's talk about my second uncle's matters tomorrow morning." Before Patriarch Lin could finish speaking, Lin Caisang interrupted him and said.

"Looking at Liu Chushui's injury, it's really too serious. I..."

Liu Baixiao's heart was relieved when he heard Lin Caisang's words.

He thought that if Lu Qiubo and his family were gone, no one would drive them out of the village, but he didn't expect that Lin Caisang still wanted to make trouble and wanted to treat him tomorrow. How could this be allowed?

"Lin Caisang, you little girl, stop talking nonsense here!" Of course he shouted unconvinced.

"I just hit him a few times, Liu Chushui, you bastard, why don't you get up quickly? Stop lying there and pretending to be dead to frame me. You think I don't know. You're all just pretending. Get up!"

If you don't get up, let's see how I deal with it in the future..."
