

Star of Space 275

Chapter 275 Did you say anything wrong?

I really didn't expect that the older you get, the less sensible you become, how dare you have such vicious thoughts! Doesn't your sister Sangsang treat you badly? Do you want to harm her like this? "

"How does she treat me? Grandpa.

Lin Caihe saw that his story had been exposed, so he no longer denied it. He raised his head and looked at Lu Qiubo, then glanced at his parents and eldest brother, and then looked at Lin Laogan.

"It's because of Lin Caisang that my parents only have eyes for her. Without me as their biological daughter, the first thing I do when I enter the house every day, as long as Lin Caisang is there, is to say hello to Lin Caisang. What's the matter with me? ? Let alone you and grandma, when have you ever seen me as your granddaughter?

And the eldest brother, he could whisper to Lin Caisang for a long time, but he treated me coldly. Even Qing'er and Changyi didn't want to kiss my biological sister, and they all followed Lin Caisang.

I finally understand that if Lin Caisang is in this house for one day, I won't be able to get ahead, so why don't I kill her? She deserves to die! "

She gritted her teeth. Under the moonlight, everyone could clearly see her vicious face. They wished Lin Caisang could die right now.

"you--"

Yang Lin was so angry that she almost fainted.

The conscience of heaven and earth, when did she no longer have this daughter in her eyes? It was really what this daughter did that chilled her so much that she wanted to calm down her temper.

Unexpectedly, what she did made Lin Caihe even more distracted.

"Okay, okay, Lin Caihe, you are really good at it."

Lin Laogong nodded vigorously, grinding his teeth and looking at his granddaughter.

"You don't want to know why your parents and Changfeng are so nice to picking mulberry trees, then I'll explain it to you one by one."

"You said that your parents only greeted Sangsang when they came home every day. Then you didn't see what Sangsang did when your parents came back? It was she who prepared the face wash for your parents, Put the herbal tea away for your parents. It's her who asks your parents if they are tired from working out every day. Have you ever done one of these things?"

Raising his hand to pat the handle of the wheelchair, he asked Lin Caihe.

"Not to mention your eldest brother. I have seen it these days. Sangsang gave your eldest brother all the meat in his bowl to eat, so that your eldest brother could study hard. All the paper and ink should be prepared. In order to make the yard quieter, you even pour water lightly. Have you done this again?"

Don't you know how big a fuss you make when you do something? I wish that everyone in the whole village knew that you were helping the family with work. You would be the first to eat any good things at home. Did I say anything wrong? "

Lin Changfeng really blushed when his grandpa said that Sangsang gave him all the meat to eat. This time he blushed not from anger, but from embarrassment.

He thought that he and Sang Sang had done this very secretly and no one would find out, but he didn't expect that his grandpa saw it and actually told it.

This time he was really embarrassed.

"And Chang Yi and Qing Yatou, why don't you think about it. They are still children. Why don't they want to kiss you, my biological sister, but instead play with Sang Sang? Is it because Sang Sang is robbing you of your younger siblings?"

Lin Laogan asked again.

"That's right!" Lin Caihe said unconvincingly.

Originally, Lin Caisang did it on purpose. He didn't want to see her well, so he deceived her younger brothers and sisters and didn't let them play with her!
